14 A man is borun of a womman, and lyueth schort tyme, and is fillid with many wretchidnessis. 2 Which goith out, and is defoulid as a flour; and fleeth as schadewe, and dwellith neuere perfilti in the same staat. 3 And gessist thou it worthi to opene thin iyen on siche a man; and to brynge hym in to doom with thee? 4 Who may make a man clene conseued of vncleane seed? Whether not thou, which art aloone? 5 The daies of man ben schorte, the nouble of his monethis is at thee; thou hast set, ethir ordeyned, hise termes, whiche moun not be passid. 6 Therfor go thou away fro hym a lilit, `that is, bi withdrawyng of bodili lijf, that he haue reste; til the meede coueitid come, and his dai is as the dai of an hirid man. 7 A tree hath hope, if it is kit down; and eft it wexith greene, and hise braunches spreden forth. 8 If the roote therof is eeld in the erthe, and the stok therof is nyy deed in dust; 9 it schal buriowne at the odour of watir, and it schal make heer, as whanne it was plauntid first. 10 But whanne a man is deed, and maad nakid, and wastid; Y preye, where is he? 11 As if watris goen awei fro the see, and a ryuer maad voide wexe drie, 12 so a man, whanne he hath slept, `that is, deed, he schal not rise ayen, til heuene be brokun, `that is, be maad newe; he schal not wake, nether he schal ryse togidere fro his sleep. 13 Who yiueth this to me, that thou defende me in helle, and that thou hide me, til thi greet veniaunce passe; and thou sette to me a tyme, in which thou haue mynde on me? and schal hide in his throte. 14 His breed in his wombe schal be turned in to galle of snakis withynne. 15 He schal spue out the richessis, whiche he deuouride; and God schal drawe tho richessis out of his wombe. 16 He schal souke the heed of snakis; and the tunge of an addre schal sle hym. 17 Se he not the stremys of the flood of the stronde, of hony, and of botere. 18 He schal suffre peyne for alle thingis whiche he hath do, netheles he schal not be wastid; aftir the multitude of his fyndyngis, so and `he schal suffre. 19 For he brake, and made nakid the hows of a pore man; he rauyschide, and bildide it not. 20 And his wombe was not fillid; and whanne he hath that, that he couetide, he may not holde in possessioun. 21 `No thing lefte of his mete; and therfor no thing schal dwelle of his goodis. 22 Whanne he is fillid, he schal be maad streit; he schal `be hoot, and alle sorewe schal falle in on hym. 23 `Y wolde, that his wombe be fillid, that he sende out in to hym the ire of his strong veniaunce, and reyne his batel on hym. 24 He schal fle yrun armuris, and he schal falle in to a brasun boowe. 25 Led out, and goynge out `of his schethe, and schynynge, `ether smytinge with leit, `in to his bittirnesse; orrible fendis schulen go, and schulen come on hym. 26 Alle derknessis ben hid in hise priuities; fier, which is not teendid, schal deuoure hym; he schal be turmentid left in his tabernacle. 27 Heuenes schulen schewe his wickidnesse; and erthe schal rise togidere ayens hym. 28 The seed of his hows schal be opyn; it schal be drawun doun in the dai of the strong veniaunce of the Lord. 29 This is the part of a wickid man, `which part is youun of God, and the eritage of hise wordis of the Lord.

21 Forsothe Joob answeride, and seide, 2 Y preye, here ye my wordis, and do ye penaunce. 3 Suffre ye me, that Y speke; and leiye ye aftir my wordis, if it schal seme worthi. 4 Whether my disputyng is ayens man, that skilfuli Y owe not to be sori? 5 Perseyue ye me, and be ye astonyed; and sette ye fyngur on youre mouth. 6 And whanne Y bithenke, Y drede, and tremblyng schakith my fleisch. 7 Whi therfor lyuen wickid men? Thei ben enhaunsid, and coumfortid with richessis. 8 Her seed dwellith bifor hem; the cumpeny of kynesmen, and of sones of sones dwellith in her siyt. 9 Her housis ben sikur, and pesible; and the yerde of God is not on hem. 10 The cow of hem conseyuade, and caluede not a deed calf; the cow caluyde, and is not priued of hir calf. 11 Her litle children goen out as flockis; and her yonge children `maken fulli ioie with pleies. 12 Thei holden tympan, and harpe; and ioien at the soun of orgun. 13 Thei leden in goodis her daies; and in a point thei goen doun to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 14 Whiche men seiden to God, Go thou awei fro us; we nylen the kunnyng of thi weies. 15 Who is Almyti God, that we serue him? and what profitith it to vs, if we preien him? 16 Netheles for her goodis ben not in her hond, `that is, power, the counsel of wickid men be fer fro me. 17 Hou ofte schal the lanterne of wickid men be quenchild, and flowing schal come on hem, and God schal departe the sorewis of his stronge veniaunce? 18 Thei schulen be as chaffis bifor the face of the wynd; and as a deed sparcle, whiche the whirlewynd scatterith abroad. 19 God schal kepe the sorewe of the fadir to hise sones; and whanne he hath yoldun, thanne he schal wite. 20 Hise iyen schulen se her sleynge; and he schal drynke of the stronge veniaunce of Almyti God. 21 For whi what perteyneth it to hym of his hows aftir hym, thou the noubre of his monethis be half takun away? 22 Whether ony man schal teche God kunnyng, which demeth hem that ben hiye? 23 This yuel man dieth strong and hool, riche and blesful, `that is, myrie. 24 Hise entrails ben ful of fatnesse; and hise boonys ben moistid with merowis. 25 Sotheli anothir wickid man dieth in the bittirnesse of his soule, and with outen ony richessis. 26 And netheles thei schulen slepe togidere in dust, and wormes schulen hile hem. 27 Certis Y knowe youre wickid thouytis, and sentensis ayens me. 28 For ye seien, Where is the hows of the prince? and where ben the tabernacils of wickid men? 29 Axe ye ech of `the weie goeris; and ye schulen knowe, that he vndurstondith these same thingis, 30 that an yuel man schal be kept in to the dai of perdicoun, and schal be led to the dai of woodnesse. 31 Who schal repreue hise weies bifor hym? and who schal yelde to hym tho thingis, whiche he hath doon? 32 He schal be led to the sepulcris; and he schal wake in the heep of deed men. 33 He was swete to the `stoonyis, ether filthis, of helle; and drawith ech man aftir hym, and vnoumbrable men bifor him. 34 Hou therfor coumforten ye me in veyn, sithen youre answeris ben schewid to `repugne to treuthe?

22 Forsothe Eliphath Themanytes answeride, and seide, 2 Whether a man, yhe, whanne he is of perfit kunnyng, mai be comparisound to God? 3 What profitith it to God, if thou art iust? ethir what schalt thou yyue to hym, if thi lijf is without wem? 4 Whether he schal drede, and schal repreue thee, and schal come with thee in to doom, 5 and not for thi ful myche malice, and thi wickidnessis with out noubre, `these peynes bifelden iustli to thee? 6 For thou hast take awei with out cause the wed of thi britheren; and hast spuylid nakid men of clothis. 7 Thou yauest not watir to the feyt man; and thou withdrawist breed fro the hungri man. 8 In the strengthe of thin arm thou haddist the lond in possessioun; and thou moost myyti heldist it. 9 Thou leftist widewis voide; and al to-brakist the schuldris of fadirles children. 10 Therfor thou art compassid with snaris; and sodeyn drede disturblith thee. 11 And thou gessidist, that thou schuldist not se derknessis; and that thou schuldist not be oppressid with the fersnesse of watris flowyng. 12 Whether thou thenkist, that God is hiere than heuene, and is enhaunsid aboue the coppe of steris? 13 And thou seist, What sotheli knowith God? and, He demeth as bi derknesse. 14 A cloude is his hidyng place, and he biholdith not oure thingis, and he `goith aboute the herris of heuene. 15 Whether thou coueitist to kepe the path of worldis, which wickid men han ofte go? 16 Whiche weren takun awei bifor her tyme, and the flood distriede the foundement of hem. 17 Whiche seiden to God, Go thou awei fro vs; and as if Almyti God may do no thing, thei gessiden hym, 18 whanne he hadde fillid her housis with goodis; the sentence of whiche men be fer fro me. 19 Iust men schulen se, and schulen be glad; and an innocent man schal sorne hem. 20 Whether the reisyng of hem is not kit doun, and fier schal deuoure the relifs of hem? 21 Therfor assente thou to God, and haue thou pees; and bi these thingsis thou schalt haue best fruytis. 22 Take thou the lawe of his mouth, and sette thou hise wordis in thin herte. 23 If thou turnest ayen to Almyyti God, thou schalt be bildid; and thou schalt make wickidnesse fer fro thi tabernacle. 24 He schal yyue a flynt for erthe, and goldun strondis for a flynt. 25 And Almyyti God schal be ayens thin enemyes; and siluer schal be gaderid togidere to thee. 26 Thanne on Almyyti God thou schalt flowe with delicis; and thou schalt reise thi face to God. 27 Thou schalt preye hym, and he schal here thee; and thou schalt yelde thi vowis. 28 Thou schalt deme a thing, and it schal come to thee; and lyt schal schyne in thi weies. 29 For he that is mekid, schal be in glorie; and he that bowith doun hise iyen, schal be saued. 30 An innocent schal be saued; sotheli he schal be saued in the clenness of hise hondis.

23 Sotheli Joob answeride, and seide, 2 Now also my word is in bitternesse, and the hond of my wounde is aggreggid on my weilyng. 3 Who yyueth to me, that Y knowe, and fynde hym, and come `til to his trone? 4 Y schal sette doom bifor hym, and Y schal fille my mouth with blamyngis; 5 that Y kunne the wordis, whiche he schal answer to me, and that Y vnderstonde, what he schal speke to me. 6 Y nyle, that he stryue with me bi greet strengthe, nether oppresse me with the heuynesse of his greetnesse. 7 Sette he forth equite ayens me, and my doom come perfitti to victorie. 8 If Y go to the eest, God apperith not; if Y go to the west, Y schal not vnderstonde hym; if Y go to the left side, 9 what schal Y do? Y schal not take hym; if Y turne me to the riht side, Y schal not se hym. 10 But he knowith my weie, and he schal preue me as gold, that passith thorouy fier. 11 My foot suede hise steppis; Y kepte his weie, and Y bowide not away fro it. 12 Y yede not awei fro the comaundementis of hise lippis; and Y hidde in my bosum the wordis of his mouth. 13 For he is aloone, and no man may turne awei hise thouytis; and what euer thing he wolde, his wille dide this thing. 14 Whanne he hath fillid his wille in me, also many othere lijk things ben redi to hym. 15 And therfor Y am disturbid of his face, and Y biholdyng hym am anguyschid for drede. 16 God hath maad neische myn herte, and Almyyti God hath disturbid me. 17 For Y perischide not for derknessis neiyynge; nethir myst hilide my face.

24 Tymes ben not hid fro Almyyti God; sotheli thei that knowen hym, knowen not hise daies. 2 Othere men turneden ouer the termes of neiyboris eritage, thei token awei flockis, and fedden tho. 3 Thei driueden awei the asse of fadirlesse children, and token awei the cow of a widewe for a wed. 4 Thei distrieden the weie of pore men, and thei oppressiden togidere the mylde men of erthe. 5 Othere men as welde assis in deseert goon out to her werk; and thei waken to prey, and bifor maken redy breed to her children. 6 Thei kitten doun a feeld not hern, and thei gaderen grapis of his vyner, whom thei han oppressid bi violence. 7 Thei leeuken men nakid, and taken awei the clothis, to whiche men is noon hiling in coold; 8 whiche men the reynes of munteyns weeten, and thei han noon hilyng, and biclippen stoonys. 9 Thei diden violence, and robbiden fadirles and modirles children; and thei spuytiden, `ether robbiden, the comynte of pore men. 10 Thei token away eeris of corn fro nakid men, and goynge with out cloth, and fro hungry men. 11 Thei weren hid in myddai among the heepis of tho men, that thirsten, whanne the presses ben trodun. 12 Thei maden men of citees to weile, and the soulis of woundid men schulen crye; and God suffrith it not to go awei vnpunyschid. 13 Thei weren rebel to liyt; thei knewen not the weyes therof, nether thei turneden ayen bi the pathis therof. 14 A mansleere risith ful eerli, and sleeth a nedi man, and a pore man; sotheli bi nytt he schal be as a nytt theef. 15 The iye of avouter kepith derknesse, and seith, An yye schal not se me; and he schal hile his face. 16 Thei mynen housis in derknessis, as thei seiden togidere to hem silf in the dai; and thei knewen not liyt. 17 If the morewtid apperith sudeynli, thei demen the schadewe of deth; and so thei goon in derknessis as in liyt. 18 He is vnstablere than the face of the water; his part in erthe be cursid, and go he not bi the weie of vyneris. 19 Passe he to ful greet heete fro the watris of snowis, and the synne of hym `til to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 20 Merci foryete hym; his swetnesse be a worm; be he not in mynde, but be he al to-brokun as `a tre vnfruytful. 21 For he fedde the bareyn, and hir that childith not, and he dide not wel to the widewe. 22 He drow doun stronge men in his strengthe; and whanne he stondith in `greet state, he schal not bileue to his lijf. 23 God yaf to hym place of penaunce, and he mysusith that in to pride; for the iyen of God ben in the weies of that man. 24 Thei ben reisid at a litil, and thei schulen not stonde; and thei schulen be maad low as alle thingis, and thei schulen be takun awei; and as the hyynesis of eeris of corn thei schulen be al to-brokun. 25 That if it is not so, who may repreue me, that Y liede, and putte my wordis bifor God?

25 Forsothe Baldach Suytes answeride, and seide, 2 Power and drede is anentis hym, that is, God, that makith acordyng in hise hiye thingis. 3 Whether noubre is of hise knyttis? and on whom schyneth not his liyt? 4 Whether a man comparisound to God mai be iustified, ether borun of a womman mai appere cleene? 5 Lo! also the moone schyneth not, and sterris ben not cleene in `his siyt; 6 hou miche more a man rot, and the sone of a man a worm, is vncleene `and vile, if he is comparisound to God.

26 Forsothe Joob answeride, and seide, Whos helpere art thou? 2 whether `of the feble, and susteyneste the arm of hym, which is not strong? 3 To whom hast thou youe counsel? In hap to hym that hath not wisdom; and thou hast schewid ful myche prudence. 4 Ether whom woldist thou teche? whether not hym, that made brething? 5 Lo! giantis weilen vnder watris, and thei that dwellen with hem. 6 Helle is nakid bifor hym, and noon hilyng is to perdioun. (Sheol h7585) 7 Which God stretchith forth the north on voide thing, and hangith the erthe on nouyt. 8 `Which God byndith watris in her cloudis, that tho breke not out togidere downward. 9 `Whych God holdith the cheer of his seete, and spredith abroad theron his cloude. 10 He hath cumpassid a terme to watris, til that liyt and derknessis be endid. 11 The pilers of heuene tremblen, and dreden at his wille. 12 In the strengthe of hym the sees weren gaderid togidere sudeynly, and his prudence smoot the proude. 13 His spiryt ournede heuenes, and the crokid serpent was led out bi his hond, ledyng out as a mydwijf ledith out a child. 14 Lo! these thingis ben seid in partie of `hise weyes; and whanne we han herd vnnethis a litil drope of his word, who may se the thundur of his greetnesse?

27 Also Job addide, takyng the parable, and seide, 2 God lyueth, that hath take away my doom, and Almyyti God, that hath brouyt my soule to bitternesse. 3 For as long as breeth is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nose thirilis, 4 my lippis schulen not speke wickidnesse, nether my tunge schal thenke a leesyng. 5 Fer be it fro me, that Y deme you iust; til Y faile, Y schal not go awei fro myn innocence. 6 Y schal not forsake my iustifyng, which Y bigan to holde; for myn herte repreueth me not in al my lijf. 7 As my wickid enemy doth; myn aduersarie is as wickid. 8 For what is the hope of an ypocrite, if he rauyschith gredili, and God delyuerith not his soule? 9 Whether God schal here the cry of hym, whanne angwisch schal come on hym? 10 ether whether he may delite in Almyyti God, and inwardli clepe God in al tyme? 11 Y schal teche you bi the hond of God, what thingis Almyyti God hath; and Y schal not hide. 12 Lo! alle ye knowen, and what speken ye veyn thingis with out cause? 13 This is the part of a wickid man anentis God, and the eritage of violent men, ether rauenours, whiche thei schulen take of Almyyti God. 14 If hise children ben multiplied, thei schulen be slayn in swerd; and hise sones sones schulen not be fillid with breed. 15 Thei, that ben residue of hym, schulen be biried in perischyng; and the widewis of hym schulen not wepe. 16 If he gaderith togidere siluer as erthe, and makith redi clothis as cley; 17 sotheli he made redi, but a iust man schal be clothid in tho, and an innocent man schal departe the siluer. 18 As a mouyte he hath bildid his hous, and as a kepere he made a schadewyng place. 19 A riche man, whanne he schal die, schal bere no thing with hym; he schal opene hise iyen, and he schal fynde no thing. 20 Pouert as water schal take hym; and tempeste schal oppresse hym in the nytt. 21 Brennyng wynd schal take hym, and schal do awei; and as a whirlewynd it schal rauysche hym fro his place. 22 He schal sende out turmentis on hym, and schal not spare; he fleyng schal `fle fro his hond. 23 He schal streyne hise hondis on him, and he schal hisse on hym, and schal biholde his place.

28 Siluer hath bigynnyngis of his veynes; and a place is to gold, in which it is wellid togidere. 2 Iron is takun fro erthe, and a stoon resolved, `ethir meltid, bi heete, is turned in to money. 3 God hath set tyme to derknessis, and he biholdith the ende of alle thingis. 4 Also a stronde departith a stoon of derknesse, and the schadewe of deth, fro the puple goyng in pilgrymage; it departith tho hillis, whiche the foot of a nedi man foryat, and hillis with out weie. 5 The erthe, wher of breed cam forth in his place, is destried bi fier. 6 The place of saphir ben stoonys therof, and the clottis therof ben gold. 7 A brid knewe not the weie, and the iye of a vultur, ethir rauenouse brid, bihelde it not. 8 The sones of marchauntis tretiden not on it, and a lyonesse passide not therbi. 9 God stretchide forth his hond to a flynt; he distriede hillis fro the rootis. 10 He hewide

doun ryuers in stoonys; and his iye siy al precious thing. 11 And he souyte out the depthis of floodis; and he brouyte forth hid thingis in to liyt. 12 But where is wisdom foundun, and which is the place of vndurstondyng? 13 A man noot the prijs therof, nether it is foundun in the lond of men lyuyng swetli, `ether delicatli. 14 The depthe of watris seith, It is not in me; and the see spekith, It is not with me. 15 Gold ful cleene schal not be youun for wisdom, nether siluer schal be weied in the chaungyng therof. 16 It schal not be comparysoun to the died colours of lynde, not to the moost precieuse stoon of sardius, nether to saphir. 17 Nether gold, nether glas schal be maad euene worth therto; 18 and hiye and fer apperyng vessels of gold schulen not be chaungid for wisdom, nether schulen be had in mynde in comparisoun therof. Forsothe wisdom is drawun of pryuy thingis; 19 topasie of Ethiope schal not be maad euene worth to wisdom, and moost precieuse dyngis schulen not be set togidere in prijs, `ether comparisoun, therto. 20 Therfor wherof cometh wisdom, and which is the place of vndurstondyng? 21 It is hid fro the iyen of alle lyuyng men; also it is hid fro briddis of heuene. 22 Percioun and deeth seiden, With oure eeris we herden the fame therof. 23 God vndurstondith the weye therof, and he knowith the place therof. 24 For he biholdith the endis of the world, and biholdith alle thingis that ben vndur heuene. 25 `Which God made weiyte to wyndis, and weiede watris in mesure. 26 Whanne he settide lawe to reyn, and weie to tempestis sownyng; 27 thanne he siy wisdom, and telde out, and made redi, and souyte out. 28 And he seide to man, Lo! the drede of the Lord, thilke is wisdom; and to go awei fro yuel, is vndurstondyng.

29 Also Job addide, takyng the parable, and seide, 2 Who yueth to me, that I be bisidis the elde monethis, bi the daies in whiche God kepte me? 3 Whanne his lanterne schynede on myn heed, and Y yede in derknessis at his liyt. 4 As Y was in the daies of my yongthe, whanne in priuete God was in my tabernacle. 5 Whanne Almyyti God was with me, and my children weren in my cumpas; 6 whanne Y waischide my feet in botere, and the stoon schedde out to me the stremes of oile; 7 whanne Y yede forth to the yate of the citee, and in the street thei maden redi a chaier to me. 8 Yonge men, `that is, wantoun, sien me, and weren hid, and elde men risyng vp stoden; 9 princes ceessiden to speke, and puttiden the fyngur on her mouth; 10 duykis refreyneden her vois, and her tunge cleuyde to her throte. 11 An eere heryng blesside me, and an iye seyng yeldide witnessyng to me; 12 for Y hadde delyueride a pore man cryng, and a fadirles child, that hadde noon helpere. 13 The blessing of a man `to perische cam on me, and Y coumfortide the herte of a widewe. 14 Y was clothid with riytfulnesse; and Y clothide me as with a cloth, and with my `doom a diademe. 15 Y was iye `to a blynde man, and foot to a crokyd man. 16 Y was a fadir of pore men; and Y enqueride most diligenti the cause, which Y knew not. 17 Y al tobrak the grete teeth of the wickid man, and Y took awei prey fro hise teeth. 18 And Y seide, Y schal die in my nest; and as a palm tre Y schal multiplie daies. 19 My roote is openyde bisidis watris, and deew schal dwelle in my repyng. 20 My glorie schal euere be renulid, and my bouwe

schal be astorid in myn hond. 21 Thei, that herden me, abiden my sentence; and thei weren ententif, and weren stille to my counsel. 22 Thei dursten no thing adde to my wordis; and my speche droppide on hem. 23 Thei abididen me as reyn; and thei openyden her mouth as to the softe reyn `comynge late. 24 If ony tyme Y leiyyde to hem, thei bileueden not; and the liyt of my cheer felde not down in to erthe. 25 If Y wolde go to hem, Y sat the firste; and whanne Y sat as kyng, while the oost stood aboute, netheles Y was comfortour of hem that morenyden.

30 But now yongere men in tyme scornen me, whos fadris Y deynde not to sette with the doggis of my flok. 2 Of whiche men the vertu of hondis was for nouyt to me, and thei weren gessid vnworthi to that lijt. 3 Thei weren bareyn for nedynesse and hungur; that gnawiden in wildirnesse, and weren pale for pouert and wretchidnesse; 4 and eeten eerbis, and the ryndis of trees; and the roote of iunyperis was her mete. 5 Whiche men rauyschiden these thingis fro grete valeis; and whanne thei hadden foundun ony of alle, thei runnen with cry to tho. 6 Thei dwelliden in deseertis of strondis, and in caues of erthe, ethir on grauel, `ethir on cley. 7 Whiche weren glad among siche thingis, and arettiden delices to be vndur buschis. 8 The sones of foolis and of vnnoble men, and outirli apperynge not in erthe. 9 But now Y am turned in to the song of hem, and Y am maad a prouerbe to hem. 10 Thei holden me abhomyable, and fleen fer fro me, and dreden not to spete on my face. 11 For God hath openyd his arowe caas, and hath turmentid me, and hath set a bridil in to my mouth. 12 At the rytside of the east my wretchidnessis risiden anoon; thei turneden vpsedoun my feet, and oppressiden with her pathis as with floodis. 13 Thei destrieden my weies; thei settiden tresoun to me, and hadden the maistri; and `noon was that helpide. 14 Thei felden in on me as bi a brokun wal, and bi yate openyd, and weren stretchid forth to my wretchidnessis. 15 Y am dryuun in to nouyt; he took awei my desir as wynd, and myn helpe passide awei as a cloude. 16 But now my soule fadith in my silf, and daies of turment holden me stidfastly. 17 In nytt my boon is persid with sorewis; and thei, that eten me, slepen not. 18 In the multitude of tho my cloth is wastid, and thei han gird me as with coler of a coote. 19 Y am comparisound to cley, and Y am maad lijk to a deed sparcle and aisch. 20 Y schal cry to thee, and thou schalt not here me; Y stonde, and thou biholdist not me. 21 Thou art chaungid in to cruel to me, and in the hardnesse of thin hond thou art aduersarie to me. 22 Thou hast reisid me, and hast set as on wynd; and hast hurtlid me doun strongli. 23 Y woot, that thou schalt bitake me to deeth, where an hows is ordeyned to ech lyuyng man. 24 Netheles thou sendist not out thin hond to the wastyng of hem; and if thei fallen doun, thou schalt saue. 25 Y wepte sum tyme on him, that was turmentid, and my soule hadde compassioun on a pore man. 26 Y abood goodis, and yuelis ben comun to me; Y abood liyt, and derknessis braken out. 27 Myn ynnere thingis buyliden out with outen my reste; daies of turment camen bifor me. 28 Y yede morenyng, and Y roos with out woodnesse in the cumpenye, and criede. 29 Y was the brother of dragouns, and the felow of ostrigis. 30 My skyn was maad blak on me, and my boonys drieden for heete. 31 Myn harpe is turned in to morenyng, and myn orgun in to the vois of weperis.

31 I made couenaunt with myn iyen, that Y schulde not thenke of a virgyn. 2 For what part schulde God aboue haue in me, and eritage Almyyti God of hiye thingis? 3 Whether perdicoun is not to a wickid man, and alienacioun of God is to men worchyng wickidnesse? 4 Whether he biholdith not my weies, and noubrith alle my goyngis? 5 If Y yede in vanyte, and my foot hastide in gile, 6 God weie me in a iust balaunce, and knowe my symplenesse. 7 If my step bowide fro the weie; if myn iye suede myn herte, and a spotte cleuede to myn hondis; 8 sowe Y, and another ete, and my generacioun be drawun out bi the root. 9 If myn herte was disseyued on a womman, and if Y settide aspies at the dore of my frend; my wijf be the hoore of anothir man, 10 and othir men be bowid doun on hir. 11 For this is vnleueful, and the moost wickidnesse. 12 Fier is deouryng `til to wastyng, and drawyng vp bi the roote alle generaciouns. 13 If Y dispiside to take doom with my seruauant and myn hand mayde, whanne thei stryueden ayens me. 14 What sotheli schal Y do, whanne God schal rise to deme? and whanne he schal axe, what schal Y answer to hym? 15 Whether he, that wrouyte also hym, made not me in the wombe, and o God formede me in the wombe? 16 If Y denyede to pore men that, that thei wolden, and if Y made the iyen of a wydewe to abide; 17 if Y aloone eet my mussel, and a faderles child eet not therof; 18 for merciful doyng encresside with me fro my yong childhed, and yede out of my modris wombe with me; 19 if Y dispiside a man passyng forth, for he hadde not a cloth, and a pore man with out hilyng; 20 if hise sidis blessiden not me, and was not maad hoot of the fleeces of my scheep; 21 if Y reiside myn hond on a fadirles child, yhe, whanne Y siy me the hiyere in the yate; 22 my schuldre falle fro his ioynt, and myn arm with hise boonys be al to-brokun. 23 For euere Y dredde God, as wawis wexyng gret on me; and `Y myyte not bere his birthun. 24 If Y gesside gold my strengthe, and if Y seide to purid gold, Thou art my trist; 25 if Y was glad on my many richessis, and for myn hond foond ful many thingis; 26 if Y siy the sunne, whanne it schynede, and the moone goyng clereli; 27 and if myn herte was glad in priuyte, and if Y kisside myn hond with my mouth; 28 which is the moost wickidnesse, and denyng ayens hiyeste God; 29 if Y hadde ioie at the fallyng of hym, that hatide me, and if Y ioide fulli, that yuel hadde founde hym; 30 for Y yaf not my throte to do synne, that Y schulde asaile and curse his soule; 31 if the men of my tabernacle seiden not, Who yueth, that we be fillid of hise fleischis? a pilgryme dwellide not with outforth; 32 my dore was opyn to a weiegoere; 33 if Y as man hidde my synne, and helide my wickidnesse in my bosum; 34 if Y dredde at ful greet multitude, and if dispisyng of neyyboris made me aferd; and not more Y was stille, and yede not out of the dore; 35 who yueth an helpere to me, that Almyyti God here my desire? that he that demeth, 36 write a book, that Y bere it in my schuldre, and cumpasse it as a coroun to me? 37 Bi alle my degrees Y schal pronounce it, and Y schal as offre it to the prynce. 38 If my lond crieth ayens me, and hise forewis wepen with it; 39 if Y eet fruytis therof with out money, and Y turmentide the soule of erthetileris of it; 40 a brere growe to me for wheete, and a thorn for barli.

32 Forsothe these thre men leften of to answer Joob, for he semyde a iust man to hem. 2 And Helyu, the sone of Barachel Buzites, of the kynrede of Ram, was wrooth, and hadde indignacioun; forsothe he was wrooth ayens Joob, for he seide hym silf to be iust bifor God. 3 Sotheli Helyu hadde indignacioun ayens the thre frendis of hym, for thei hadden not founde resonable answer, but oneli hadde condemned Joob. 4 Therfor Helyu abood Joob spekyng, for thei, that spaken, weren eldere men. 5 But whanne he hadde seyn, that thre men myyten not answer, he was wrooth greetly. 6 And Helyu, the sone of Barachel Buzites, answeride, and seyde, Y am yongere in tyme, sotheli ye ben eldere; therfor with heed holdun doun Y dredde to schewe to you my sentence. 7 For Y hopide that lengere age schulde speke, and that the multitude of yeeris schulden teche wisdom. 8 But as Y se, spirit is in men, and the enspyring `ether reuelacioun, of Almyyti God yyueth vndurstandyng. 9 Men of long lijf ben not wise, and elde men vndurston den not doom. 10 Therfor Y schal seie, Here ye me, and Y also schal schewe my kunnyng to you. 11 For Y abood youre wordis, Y herde youre prudence, as long as ye dispytiden in youre wordis. 12 And as long as Y gesside you to seie any thing, Y bihelde; but as Y se, `noon is of you, that may repreue Joob, and answer to hise wordis; 13 lest perauenture ye seien, We han founde wisdom; God, and not man, hath cast hym awei. 14 Joob spak no thing to me, and Y not bi youre wordis schal answer hym. 15 Thei dredden, and answeriden no more, and token awei speche fro hem silf. 16 Therfor for Y abood, and thei spaken not, thei stoden, and answeriden no more; also Y schal answer my part, 17 and Y schal schewe my kunnyng. 18 For Y am ful of wordis, and the spirit of my wombe, `that is, mynde, constreyneth me. 19 Lo! my wombe is as must with out `spigot, ether a ventyng, that brekith newe vessels. 20 Y schal speke, and brethe ayen a lilit; Y schal opene my lippis, and Y schal answer. 21 Y schal not take the persooone of man, and Y schal not make God euene to man. 22 For Y woot not hou long Y schal abide, and if my Makere take me awei `after a lilit tyme.

33 Therfor, Joob, here thou my spechis, and herkene alle my wordis. 2 Lo! Y haue openyd my mouth, my tunge schal speke in my chekis. 3 Of symple herte ben my wordis, and my lippis schulen speke clene sentence. 4 The spirit of God made me, and the brething of Almyyti God quykenyde me. 5 If thou maist, answer thou to me, and stoonde thou ayens my face. 6 Lo! God made me as and thee; and also Y am formyd of the same cley. 7 Netheles my myracle make thee not afeerd, and myn eloquence be not greuouse to thee. 8 Therfor thou seidist in myn eeris, and Y herde the vois of thi wordis; 9 Y am cleene, and with out gilt, and vnwemmed, and wickidnesse is not in me. 10 `For God foond querels in me, therfor he demyde me enemy to hym silf. 11 He hath set my feet in a stok; he kepte alle my pathis. 12 Therfor this thing it is, in which thou art not maad iust; Y schal answer to thee, that God is more than man. 13 Thou stryuest ayenus God, that not at alle wordis he answeride to thee. 14 God spekith onys, and the secounde tyme he rehersith not the same thing. 15 God spekith bi a dreem in the visioun of nytt, whanne sleep fallith on men, and thei slepen in the bed. 16 Thanne he openith the eeris of men, and he techith hem, `and techith prudence; 17 that he turne awei a man fro these thingis whiche he made, and delyuere hym fro pride; delyuerynge his soule fro corrupcioun, 18 and his lijf, that it go not in to swerd. 19 Also God blameth a synnere bi sorewe in the bed, and makith alle the boonys of hym `to fade. 20 Breed is maad abhomyneable to hym in his lijf, and mete desirable `bifor to his soule. 21 His fleisch schal faile for rot, and hise boonys, that weren hilid, schulen be maad nakid. 22 His soule schal neie to corrupcioun, and his lijf to thingis `bryngyng deeth. 23 If an angel, oon of a thousynde, is spekyng for hym, that he telle the equyte of man, God schal haue mercy on hym, 24 and schal seie, Delyuere thou hym, that he go not doun in to corrupcioun; Y haue founde in what thing Y schal do merci to hym. 25 His fleisch is wastid of turmentis; turne he ayen to the daies of his yonge wexyng age. 26 He schal biseche God, and he schal be quemeful to hym; and he schal se his face in hertly ioie, and he schal yelde to man his riytfulnesse. 27 He schal biholde men, and he schal seie, Y haue synned, and verili Y haue trespassid; and Y haue not resseyued, as Y was worthi. 28 For he delyueride his soule, that it schulde not go in to perischyng, but that he lyuynge schulde se liyt. 29 Lo! God worchith alle these thingis in thre tymes bi alle men; 30 that he ayen clepe her soulis fro corrupcioun, and liytne in the liyt of lyuynge men. 31 Thou, Joob, perseyue, and here me, and be thou stille, the while Y speke. 32 Sotheli if thou hast what thou schalt speke, answer thou to me, speke thou; for Y wole, that thou appere iust. 33 That if thou hast not, here thou me; be thou stille, and Y schal teche thee wisdom.

34 And Helyu pronounside, and spak also these thingis, 2 Wise men, here ye my wordis, and lerned men, herkne ye me; for the eere preueth wordis, 3 and the throte demeth metis bi taast. 4 Chese we doom to vs; and se we among vs, what is the betere. 5 For Job seide, Y am iust, and God hath distried my doom. 6 For whi lesyng is in demyng me, and myn arowe is violent with out ony synne. 7 Who is a man, as Job is, that drynkith scornynge as watir? 8 that goith with men worchyng wickidnesse, and goith with vnfeithful men? 9 For he seide, A man schal not plesse God, yhe, thouy he renneth with God. 10 Therfor ye men hertid, `that is, vndurstonde, here ye me; vnpite, `ethir cruelte, be fer fro God, and wickidnesse fro Almyyti God. 11 For he schal yelde the werk of man to hym; and bi the weies of ech man he schal restore to hym. 12 For verili God schal not condempne with out cause; nether Almyyti God schal distrie doom. 13 What othere man hath he ordeyned on the lond? ether whom hath he set on the world, which he made? 14 If God dressith his herte to hym, he schal drawe to hym silf his spirit and blast. 15 Ech fleisch schal faile togidere; `and a man schal turne ayen in to aisch. 16 Therfor if thou hast vndurstandyng, here thou that that is seid, and herkne the vois of my speche. 17 Whether he that loueth not doom may be maad hool? and hou condempnest thou so myche him, that is iust? 18 Which seith to the kyng, Thou art apostata; which clepith the duykis vnпитыouse, `ethir vnfeithful. 19 `Which takith not the persoones of princes, nether knew a tyraunt, whanne he stryuede ayens a pore man; for alle men ben the werk of hise hondis. 20 Thei schulen die sudeynli, and at mydnyyt puplis schulen be brotliid, `ethir schulen be bowid, as othere bookis han; and schulen passe, and schulen take `awei `a violent man with out hond. 21 For the iyen of God ben on the weies of men, and biholdith alle goyngis of hem. 22 No derknessis ben, and no schadewe of deeth is, that thei, that worchen wickidnesse, be hid there; 23 for it is `no more in the power of man, that he come to God in to doom. 24 God schal al to-breke many men and vnnoumbrable; and schal make othere men to stonde for hem. 25 For he knowith the werkis of hem; therfor he schal brynge yn niyt, and thei schulen be al to-brokun. 26 He smoot hem, as vnпитыouse men, in the place of seinge men. 27 Whiche yeden awei fro hym bi `castyng afore, and nolden vndurstonde alle hise weies. 28 That thei schulden make the cry of a nedī man to come to hym, and that he schulde here the vois of pore men. 29 For whanne he grauntith pees, who is that condempneth? Sithen he hidith his cheer, who is that seeth hym? And on folkis and on alle men `he hath power `to do siche thingis. 30 Which makith `a man ypcrite to regne, for the synnes of the puple. 31 Therfor for Y haue spoke to God, also Y schal not forbede thee. 32 If Y erride, teche thou me; if Y spak wickidnesse, Y schal no more adde. 33 Whether God axith that wickidnesse of thee, for it displeside thee? For thou hast bigunne to speke, and not Y; that if thou knowist any thing betere, speke thou. 34 Men vndurstandyng, speke to me; and a wise man, here me. 35 Forsothe Joob spak folli, and hise wordis sownen not techyng. 36 My fadir, be Joob preuede `til to the ende; ceesse thou not fro the man of wickidnesse, 37 `that addith blasfemye ouer hise synnes. Be he constreynd among vs in the meene tyme; and thanne bi hise wordis stire he God to the doom.

35 Therfor Helyu spak eft these thingis, Whethir thi thouyt semeth euene, 2 `ether riytful, to thee, that thou schuldist seie, Y am riytfulere than God? 3 For thou seidist, That, that is good, plesith not thee; ethir what profitith it to thee, if Y do synne? 4 Therfor Y schal answer to thi wordis, and to thi frendis with thee. 5 Se thou, and biholde heuene, and biholde thou the eir, that God is hiyere than thou. 6 If thou synnest `ayens hym, what schalt thou anoye hym? and if thi wickidnessis ben multiplid, what schalt thou do ayens hym? 7 Certis if thou doist iustli, what schalt thou yyue to hym; ether what schal he take of thin hond? 8 Thi wickidnesse schal anoie a man, which is lijk thee; and thi riytfulnesse schal helpe the sone of a man. 9 Thei schulen cry for the multitude of fals chalengeris, and thei schulen weile for the violence of the arm of tirauntis. 10 And Joob seide not, Where is God, that made me, and that yaf songis in the nyyt? 11 Which God techith vs aboue the beestis of erthe, and he schal teche vs aboue the briddis of heuene. 12 There thei schulen crye, and God schal not here, for the pride of yuele men. 13 For God schal not here with out cause, and Almyyti God schal biholde the causis of ech man. 14 Yhe, whanne thou seist, He biholdith not; be thou demed bifor hym, and abide thou hym. 15 For now he bryngith not in his strong veniaunce, nether vengith `greetli felonye. 16 Therfor Joob openith his mouth in veyn, and multiplieth wordis with out kunnyng.

36 Also Helyu addide, and spak these thingis, 2 Suffre thou me a lital, and Y schal schewe to thee; for yit Y haue that, that Y schal speke for God. 3 Y schal reherse my kunnyng fro the bigynnyng; and Y schal preue my worchere iust. 4 For verili my wordis ben with out leesyng, and perfit kunnyng schal be preued to thee. 5 God castith not awei myyti men, sithen he is myyti; 6 but he saueth not wickid men, and he yyueth dom to pore men. 7 He takith not awei hise iyen for a iust man; and he settith kyngis in seete with out ende, and thei ben reisid there. 8 And if thei ben in chaynes, and ben boundun with the roopis of pouert, 9 he schal shewe to hem her werkis, and her grete trespassis; for thei weren violent, `ethir rauenours. 10 Also he schal opene her eere, that he chastise; and he schal speke, that thei turne ayen fro wickidnesse. 11 If thei heren, and kepen, thei schulen fille her daies in good, and her yeris in glorie. 12 Sotheli if thei heren not, thei schulen passe bi swerd, and thei schulen be wastid in foli. 13 Feyneris and false men stiren the ire of God; and thei schulen not crye, whanne thei ben boundun. 14 The soule of hem schal die in tempest; and the lijf of hem among `men of wymmens condiciouns. 15 He schal delyuere a pore man fro his angwisch; and he schal opene `the eere of hym in tribulacioun. 16 Therfor he schal saue thee fro the streit mouth of the broddeste tribulacioun, and not hauynge a foundement vndur it; sotheli the rest of thi table schal be ful of fatnesse. 17 Thi cause is demed as the cause of a wickid man; forsothe thou schalt resseyue thi cause and doom. 18 Therfor ire ouercome thee not, that thou oppresse any man; and the multitude of yiftis bowe thee not. 19 Putte down thi greetnesse with out tribulacioun, and putte down alle stronge men bi strengthe. 20 Dilaie thou not nyyt, that puplis stie for hem. 21 Be thou war, that thou bowe not to wickidnesse; for thou hast bigunne to sue this wickidnesse aftir wretchidnesse. 22 Lo! God is hiy in his strengthe, and noon is lijk hym among the yyueris of lawe. 23 Who mai seke out the weies of God? ethir who dar seie to hym, Thou hast wrouyt wickidnesse? 24 Haue thou mynde, that thou knowist not his werk, of whom men sungun. 25 Alle men seen God; ech man biholdith afer. 26 Lo! God is greet, ouercomynge oure kunnyng; the noumbre of hise yeeris is with out noumbre. 27 Which takith awei the dropis of reyn; and schedith out reynes at the licnesse of floodyatis, 28 whiche comen down of the cloudis, that hilen alle thingis aboue. 29 If he wole stretche forthe cloudis as his tente, 30 and leite with his liyt fro aboue, he schal hile, yhe, 31 the herris of the see. For bi these thingis he demeth puplis, and yyueth mete to many deedli men. 32 In hondis he hidith liyt; and comaundith it, that it come eft. 33 He tellith of it to his freend, that it is his possessioun; and that he may stie to it.

37 Myn herte dredde of this thing, and is moued out of his place. 2 It schal here an heryng in the feerfulness of his vois, and a sown comynge forth of his mouth. 3 He biholdith ouere alle heuenes; and his liyt is ouere the termes of erthe. 4 Sown schal rore afir hym, he schal thundre with the vois of his greetnesse; and it schal not be souyt out, whanne his vois is herd. 5 God schal thundre in his vois wondrfully, that makith grete thingis and that moun not be souyt out. 6 Which comaundith to the snow to come down on erthe, and to the reynes of wijntir, and to the reynes of his strengthe. 7 Which markith in the hond of alle men, that alle men knowe her werkis. 8 An vnreasonable beeste schal go in to his denne, and schal dwelle in his caue, `ethir derke place. 9 Tempestis schulen go out fro the ynnere thingis, and coold fro Arturus. 10 Whanne God makith blowyng, frost wexith togidere; and eft ful brood watris ben sched out. 11 Whete desirith cloudis, and cloudis spreedden abrood her liyt. 12 Whiche cloudes cumpassen alle thingis bi cumpas, whidur euere the wil of the gouernour ledith tho, to al thing which he comaundith `to tho on the face of the world; 13 whether in o lynage, ethir in his lond, ether in what euer place of his merci he comaundith tho to be foundun. 14 Joob, herkene thou these thingis; stonde thou, and biholde the meruels of God. 15 Whethir thou woost, whanne God comaundide to the reynes, that tho schulen schewe the liyt of hise cloudis? 16 Whether thou knowist the grete weies of cloudis, and perfitt kunnyngis? 17 Whether thi cloothis ben not hoote, whanne the erthe is blowun with the south? 18 In hap thou madist with hym heuenes, which moost sad ben foundid, as of bras. 19 Schewe thou to vs, what we schulen seie to hym; for we ben wlappid in derknessis. 20 Who schal telle to hym, what thingis Y speke? yhe, if he spekith, a man schal be deuourid. 21 And now men seen not liyt; the eir schal be maad thicke sudenli in to cloudis, and wynd passyng schal dryue awei tho. 22 Gold schal come fro the north, and ferdful preisyng of God. 23 For we moun not fynde him worthili; he is greet in strengthe, and in doom, and in riytfulness, and may not be teld out. 24 Therfor men schulen drede hym; and alle men, that semen to hem silf to be wise, schulen not be hardi to biholde.

38 Forsothe the Lord answeride fro the whirlewynd to Joob, 2 and seide, Who is this man, wlappyng sentences with vnwise wordis? 3 Girde thou as a man thi leendis; Y schal axe thee, and answer thou to me. 4 Where were thou, whanne Y settide the foundementis of erthe? schewe thou to me, if thou hast vndurstondyng. 5 Who settide mesures therof, if thou knowist? ethir who stretchide forth a lyne theronne? 6 On what thing ben the foundementis therof maad fast? ether who sente down the corner stoon therof, 7 whanne the morew steris herieden me togidere, and alle the sonnes of God sungun ioyfuli? 8 Who closide togidere the see with doris, whanne it brak out comynge forth as of the wombe? 9 Whanne Y settide a cloude the hilyng therof, and Y wlapside it with derknesse, as with clothis of yong childhed. 10 Y cumpasside it with my termes, and Y settide a barre, and doris; 11 and Y seide, `Til hidur thou schalt come, and thou schalt not go forth ferehere; and

The glorie of hise nosethirlis is drede. 21 He diggith erthe with the foot, he `fulli ioieth booldli; he goith ayens armed men. 22 He dispisith ferdfulnesse, and he yyueth not stide to swerd. 23 An arowe caas schal sowne on hym; a spere and scheeld schal florische. 24 He is hoot, and gnastith, and swolewith the erthe; and he arettith not that the crie of the trumpe sowneth. 25 Whanne he herith a clarioun, he `seith, Joie! he smellith batel afer; the excityng of duykis, and the yellyng of the oost. 26 Whether an hauk spredinge abroad hise wyngis to the south, bigynneth to haue fetheris bi thi wisdom? 27 Whether an egle schal be reisid at thi comaundement, and schal sette his nest in hiy places? 28 He dwelith in stoonys, and he dwelith in flyntis brokun bifor, and in rochis, to whiche `me may not neie. 29 Fro thennus he biholdith mete, and hise iyen loken fro fer. 30 Hise briddis souken blood, and where euere a careyn is, anoon he is present.

40 And the Lord addide, and spak to Joob, 2 Whether he, that stryue with God, schal haue rest so lytli? Sotheli he, that repreueth God, owith for to answer to hym. 3 Forsothe Joob answeride to the Lord, 4 and seide, What may Y answer, which haue spoke lytli? Y schal putte myn hond on my mouth. 5 Y spak o thing, which thing Y wold, that Y hadde not seid; and Y spak anothir thing, to which Y schal no more adde. 6 Forsothe the Lord answeride to Joob fro the whirlewynd, 7 and seide, Girde thou as a man thi leendis, and Y schal axe thee, and schewe thou to me. 8 Whether thou schalt make voide my doom, and schalt condempne me, that thou be maad iust? 9 And if thou hast an arm, as God hath, and if thou thundrist with lijk vois, `take thou fairnesse aboute thee, 10 and be thou reisid an hiy, and be thou gloriouse, and be thou clothid `in faire clothis. 11 Distrie thou proude men in thi woodnesse, and biholde thou, and make lowe ech bostere. 12 Biholde thou alle proude men, and schende thou hem; and al to-breke thou wickid men in her place. 13 Hide thou hem in dust togidere, and drenche doun her faces in to a diche. 14 And Y schal knowleche, that thi ryth hond may saue thee. 15 Lo! behemot, whom Y made with thee, schal as an ox e ete hey. 16 His strengthe is in hise leendis, and his vertu is in the nawle of his wombe. 17 He streyneth his tail as a cedre; the senewis of his `stones of gendrure ben foldid togidere. 18 Hise boonys ben as the pipis of bras; the gristil of hym is as platis of yrun. 19 He is the bigynnyng of the weies of God; he, that made hym, schal sette his swerd to hym. 20 Hillis beren eerbis to this behemot; alle the beestis of the feeld pleien there. 21 He slepith vndur schadewe, in the pryue of rehed, in moiste places. 22 Schadewis hilen his schadewe; the salewis of the ryuer cumpassen hym. 23 He schal soupe vp the flood, and he schal not wondre; he hath trist, that Jordan schal flowe in to his mouth. 24 He schal take hem bi `the iyen of hym, as bi an hook; and bi scharpe schaftis he schal perse hise nosethirlis.

41 Whether thou schalt mowe drawe out leuyathan with an hook, and schalt bynde with a roop his tunge? 2 Whether thou schalt putte a ryng in hise nosethirlis, ethir schalt perse hyse cheke with `an hook? 3 Whether he schal multiplie preieris to thee, ether schal speke softe thingis to thee? 4 Whether he schal make couenaunt with thee, and `thou schalt take him a seruauant euerlasting? 5 Whether thou schalt scorne hym as a brid, ethir schalt bynde hym to thin handmaidis? 6 Schulen frendis `kerue hym, schulen marchauntis departe hym? 7 Whether thou schalt fille nettis with his skyn, and a `leop of fischis with his heed? 8 Schalt thou putte thin hond on hym? haue thou mynde of the batel, and adde no more to speke. 9 Lo! his hope schal disseyue hym; and in the siyt of alle men he schal be cast doun. 10 I not as cruel schal reise hym; for who may ayenstonde my face? 11 And who `yaf to me bfore, that Y yelde to hym? Alle thingis, that ben vndur heuene, ben myne. 12 Y schal not spare hym for myyti wordis, and maad faire to biseche. 13 Who schal schewe the face of his clothing, and who schal entre in to the myddis of his mouth? 14 Who schal opene the yatis of his cheer? ferdfulnesse is bi the cumpas of hise teeth. 15 His bodi is as yotun scheldys of bras, and ioyned togidere with scalis ouerleyng hem silf. 16 Oon is ioyned to another; and sotheli brething goith not thorouy tho. 17 Oon schal cleue to anothir, and tho holdyng hem silf schulen not be departid. 18 His fnesyng is as schynyng of fier, and hise iyen ben as iyelidis of the morewid. 19 Laumpis comen forth of his mouth, as trees of fier, that ben kyndlid. 20 Smoke cometh forth of hise nosethirlis, as of a pot set on the fier `and boilyng. 21 His breeth makith colis to brenne, and flamme goith out of his mouth. 22 Strengthe schal dwelle in his necke, and nedynesse schal go bifor his face. 23 The membris of hise fleischis ben cleuyng togidere to hem silf; God schal sende floodis ayens hym, and tho schulen not be borun to an other place. 24 His herte schal be maad hard as a stoon; and it schal be streyned togidere as the anefeld of a smith. 25 Whanne he schal be takun awei, aungels schulen drede; and thei aferd schulen be purgid. 26 Whanne swerd takith hym, it may not stonde, nethir spere, nether haburioun. 27 For he schal arette irun as chaffis, and bras as rotun tre. 28 A man archere schal not dryue hym awei; stoonys of a slynge ben turned in to stobil to hym. 29 He schal arette an hamer as stobil; and he schal scorne a florischynges spere. 30 The beemys of the sunne schulen be vndur hym; and he schal strewe to hym silf gold as cley. 31 He schal make the depe se to buyle as a pot; and he schal putte, as whanne oynementis buylen. 32 A path schal schyne aftir hym; he schal gesse the greet occian as wexynges eld. 33 No power is on erthe, that schal be comparisound to hym; which is maad, that he schulde drede noon. 34 He seeth al hiy thing; he is kyng ouer alle the sones of pride.

42 Forsothe Joob answeride to the Lord, and seide, 2 Y woot, that thou maist alle thingis, and no thouyt is hid fro thee. 3 Who is this, that helith counsel with out kunnyng? Therfor Y spak vnwisely, and tho thingis that passiden ouer mesure my kunnyng. 4 Here thou, and Y schal speke; Y schal axe thee, and answer thou to me. 5 Bi heryng of eere Y herde thee, but now myn iye seeth thee. 6 Therfor Y repreue me, and do penance in deed sparcle and aische. 7 Forsothe aftir that the Lord spak these wordis to Joob, he seide to Eliphaz Themanytes, My stronge veniaunce is wrooth ayens thee, and ayens thi twey frendis; for ye `spaken not bifor me riytful thing, as my seruauant Joob dide. 8 Therfor take ye to you seuene bolis, and seuene rammes; and go ye to my seruauant Joob, and offre ye brent sacrifice for you. Forsothe Joob, my seruauant, schal preie for you; Y schal resseyue his face, that foli be not arettid to you; for ye `spaken not bifor me riytful thing, as my seruauant Joob dide. 9 Therfor Eliphaz Themanytes, and Baldach Suythes, and Sophar Naamathites, yeden, and diden, as the Lord hedde spoke to hem; and the Lord resseyuede the face of Joob. 10 Also the Lord was conuertid to the penance of Joob, whanne he preiede for hise frendis. And the Lord addide alle thingis double, whiche euere weren of Joob. 11 Sotheli alle hise britheren, and alle hise sistris, and alle that knewen hym bifore, camen to hym; and thei eeten breed with hym in his hows, and moueden the heed on hym; and thei coumfortiden hym of al the yuel, which the Lord hadde brouyt in on hym; and thei yauen to hym ech man o scheep, and o goldun eere ring. 12 Forsothe the Lord blesside the laste thingis of Joob, more than the bigynnyng of hym; and fourtene thousynde of scheep weren maad to hym, and sixe thousinde of camels, and a thousynde yockis of oxis, and a thousynde femal assis. 13 And he hadde seuene sones, and thre douytris; 14 and he clepide the name of o douytir Dai, and the name of the secounde douytir Cassia, and the name of the thridde douytir `An horn of wymmens oynement. 15 `Sotheli no wymmen weren foundun so faire in al erthe, as the douytris of Joob; and her fadir yaf eritage to hem among her britheren. 16 Forsothe Joob lyuede aftir these betyngis an hundrid and fourti yeer, and `siy hise sones, and the sones of hise sones, `til to the fourthe generacioun; 17 and he was deed eld, and ful of daies.

Mi Lord God, Y haue hopid in thee; make thou me saaf fro alle that pursuen me, and delyuere thou me. 2 Lest ony tyme he as a lioun rauysche my soule; the while noon is that ayenbieth, nether that makith saaf. 3 Mi Lord God, if Y dide this thing, if wickidnesse is in myn handis; 4 if Y `yeldide to men yeldyng to me yuels, falle Y `bi

Lord, deme thou me bi my riytfulnesse; and bi myn innocence on me. 9 The wickidnesse of synneris be endid; and thou, God, sekyng the hertis and reynes, schalt dresse a iust man. 10 Mi iust help is of the Lord; that makith saaf riytful men in herte. 11 The Lord is a iust iuge, stronge and pacient; whether he is wrooth bi alle daies? 12 If ye ben `not conuertid, he schal florische his swerd; he hath bent his bouwe, and made it redi. 13 And therynne he hath maad redi the vessels of deth; he hath fulli maad his arewis with brennyng thingis. 14 Lo! he conseyuete sorewe; he peynfuli brouyte forth vnriyfulnesse, and childide wickidnesse. 15 He openide a lake, and diggide it out; and he felde in to the dich which he made. 16 His sorewe schal be turned in to his heed; and his wickidnesse schal come down in to his necke. 17 I schal knoueleche to the Lord bi his riytfulnesse; and Y schal synge to the name of the hiyeste Lord.

8 To the ouercomere, for pressours, the salm of Dauid. Lord, thou art oure Lord; thi name is ful wonderful in al erthe. For thi greet doying is reisd, aboue heuenes. 2 Of the mouth of yonge children, not spekyng and soukyng mylk, thou madist perfilti heriyng, for thin enemies; that thou destrie the enemy and avengere. 3 For Y schal se thin heuenes, the werkis of thi fyngris; the moone and sterris, whiche thou hast foundid. 4 What is a man, that thou art mynde of hym; ethir the sone of a virgyn, for thou visitist hym? 5 Thou hast maad hym a litil lesse than aungels; thou hast coroune hym with glorie and onour, 6 and hast ordeyned hym aboute the werkis of thin hondis. 7 Thou hast maad suget alle thingis vndur hise feet; alle scheep and oxis, ferthermore and the beestis of the feeld; 8 the briddis of the eir, and the fischis of the see; that passen bi the pathis of the see. 9 Lord, `thou art oure Lord; thi name `is wondrous in al erthe.

9 In to the ende, for the pryuytees of the sone, the salm of Dauid. Lord, Y schal knoueleche to thee in al myn herte; Y schal telle alle thi merueils. 2 Thou hiyeste, Y schal be glad, and Y schal be fulli ioieful in thee; Y schal synge to thi name. 3 For thou turnest myn enemy abac; thei schulen be maad feble, and schulen perische fro thi face. 4 For thou hast maad my doom and my cause; thou, that demest riytfulnesse, `hast set on the trone. 5 Thou blamedist hethene men, and the wickid perischide; thou hast do awei the name of hem in to the world, and in to the world of world. 6 The swerdis of the enemy failiden in to the ende; and thou hast distried the citees of hem. The mynde of hem perischide with sown; 7 and the Lord dwellith with outen ende. He made redi his trone in doom; and he schal deme the world in equite, 8 he schal deme pupilis in riytfulnesse. 9 And the Lord is maad refuyt, `ether help, `to a pore man; an helper in couenable tymes in tribulacioun. 10 And thei, that

In this snare, which thei hidden, the foot of hem is kauyt. 16 The Lord makynge domes schal be knowun; the synnere is takun in the werkis of hise hondis. 17 Synneris be turned togidere in to helle; alle folkis, that foryeten God. (Sheol h7585) 18 For the foryetyng of a pore man schal not be in to the ende; the pacience of pore men schal not perische in to the ende. 19 Lord, rise thou vp, a man be not coumfortid; folkis be demyd in thi siyt. 20 Lord, ordeine thou a lawe makere on hem; wite folkis, that thei ben men.

10 Lord, whi hast thou go fer awei? thou dispisist `in couenable tymes in tribulacioun. 2 While the wickid is proud, the pore man is brent; thei ben taken in the counsels, bi whiche thei thenken. 3 Forwhi the synnere is preisid in the desiris of his soule; and the wickid is blessid. 4 The synnere `wraththide the Lord; vp the multitude of his ire he schal not seke. 5 God is not in his siyt; hise weies ben defoulid in al tyme. God, thi domes ben takun awei fro his face; he schal be lord of alle hise enemies. 6 For he seide in his herte, Y schal not be moued, fro generacioun in to generacioun without yuel. 7 `Whos mouth is ful of cursyng, and of bitternesse, and of gyle; trauel and sorewe is vndur his tunge. 8 He sittith in aspies with ryche men in priuytees; to sle the innocent man. 9 Hise iyen biholden on a pore man; he settith aspies in hid place, as a lioun in his denne. He settith aspies, for to rauysche a pore man; for to rauysche a pore man, while he drawith the pore man. 10 In his snare he schal make meke the pore man; he schal bowe hym silf, and schal falle down, whanne he hath be lord of pore men. 11 For he seide in his herte, God hath foryete; he hath turned awei his face, that he se not in to the ende. 12 Lord God, rise thou vp, and thin hond be enhaunsid; foryete thou not pore men. 13 For what thing terride the wickid man God to wratthe? for he seide in his herte, God schal not seke. 14 Thou seest, for thou biholdist trauel and sorewe; that thou take hem in to thin hondis. The pore man is left to thee; thou schalt be an helper to the fadirles and modirles. 15 Al to-breke thou the arme of the synnere, and yuel willid; his synne schal be souyt, and it schal not be foundun. 16 The Lord schal regne with outen ende, and in to the world of world; folkis, ye schulen perische fro the lond of hym. 17 The Lord hath herd the desir of pore men; thin eere hath herd the makynge redi of her herte. 18 To deme for the modirles `and meke; that a man `leie to no more to `magnyfie hym silf on erthe.

11 To the victorie of Dauid. I triste in the Lord; hou seien ye to my soule, Passe thou ouere in to an hil, as a sparowe doith? 2 For lo! synneris han bent a bouwe; thei han maad redi her arowis in an arowe caas; `for to schete in derknesse riytful men in herte. 3 For thei han distryed, whom thou hast maad perfit; but what dide the riytful man? 4 The Lord is in his hooli temple; he is Lord, his seete is in heuene. Hise iyen biholden on a pore man; hise iyelidis axen the sones of men. 5 The Lord axith a iust man, and vnfeithful man; but he, that loueth wickidnesse, hatith his soule. 6 He schal reyne snaris on `synful men; fier, brymston, and the spirit of tempestis ben the part of the cuppe of hem. 7 For the Lord is riytful, and louede riytfulnessis; his cheer siy equite, `ethir euennesse.

12 To the victorie on the eyte, the song of Dauid. Lord, make thou me saaf, for the hooli failide; for treuthis ben maad litle fro the sones of men. 2 Thei spaken veyn thingis, ech man to hys neybore; thei han gileful lippis, thei spaken in herte and herte. 3 The Lord destrie alle gileful lippis; and the greet spekyng tunge. 4 Whiche seiden, We schulen magnyfie oure tunge, our lippis ben of vs; who is oure lord? 5 For the wretchednesse of nedy men, and for the weilyng of pore men; now Y schal ryse vp, seith the Lord. I schal sette inhelt he; Y schal do tristili in hym. 6 The spechis of the Lord ben chast spechis; siluer examynynd bi fier, preued fro erthe, purgid seuen fold. 7 Thou, Lord, schalt kepe vs; and thou `schalt kepe vs fro this generacioun with outen ende. 8 Wickid men goen in cumpas; bi thin hiynesse thou hast multiplied the sones of men.

13 To the victorie of Dauid. Lord, hou long forgetist thou me in to the ende? hou long turnest thou awei thi face fro me? 2 Hou long schal Y sette counsels in my soule; sorewe in my herte bi dai? 3 Hou long schal myn enemy be reisid on me? 4 My Lord God, biholde thou, and here thou me. Liytne thou myn iyen, lest ony tyme Y slepe in deth; 5 lest ony tyme myn enemy seie, Y hadde the maistri ayens hym. Thei, that troben me, schulen haue ioie, if Y schal be stirid; forsothe Y hopide in thi merci. 6 Myn herte schal fulli haue ioie in thin helthe; Y schal synge to the Lord, that yueth goodis to me, and Y schal seie salm to the name of the hiyeste Lord.

14 To the victorie of Dauid. The vnwise man seide in his herte, God is not. Thei ben corrupt, and ben maad abhominable in her studies; noon is that doith good, noon is til to oon. 2 The Lord bihelde fro heuene on the sones of men; that he se, if ony is vndurstondyng, ethir sekyng God. 3 Alle bowiden awei, togidere thei ben maad vnprofitable; noon is that doth good, noon is `til to oon. The throte of hem is an open sepulcre, thei diden gilefuli with her tungis; the venym of snakis is vndur her lippis. Whos mouth is ful of cursyng and bitirnesse; her feet ben swift to schede out blood. Sorewe and cursidnesse is in the weies of hem, and thei knewen not the weie of pees; the drede of God is not bifor her iyen. 4 Whether alle men that worchen wickidnesse schulen not knowe; that deuowren my puple, as mete of breed? 5 Thei clepeden not the Lord; thei trembliden there for drede, where was no drede; 6 for the Lord is in a riytful generacioun. Thou hast schent the counsel of a pore man; for the Lord is his hope. 7 Who schal yyue fro Syon helthe to Israel? Whanne the Lord hath turned awei the caitifte of his puple; Jacob schal `fulli be ioiful, and Israel schal be glad.

15 Lord, who schal dwelle in thi tabernacle; ether who schal reste in thin hooli hil? 2 He that entrith with out wem; and worchith riytfulness. 3 Which spekith treuthe in his herte; which dide not gile in his tunge. Nethir dide yuel to his neybore; and took not schenschip ayens hise neyboris. 4 A wickid man is brouyt to nouyt in his siyt; but he glorifieth hem that dreden the Lord. Which swerith to his neybore, and disseyueth not; 5 which yaf not his money to vsure; and took not yiftis on the innocent. He, that doith these thingis, schal not be moued with outen ende.

16 Of the meke and symple, the salm of Dauid. Lord, kepe thou me, for Y haue hopid in thee; 2 Y seide to the Lord, Thou art my God, for thou hast no nede of my goodis. 3 To the seyntis that ben in the lond of hym; he made wondrousful alle my willis in hem. 4 The sikenessis of hem ben multiplied; aftirward thei hastiden. I schal not gadire togidere the conuenticulis, `ethir litle couentis, of hem of bloodis; and Y schal not be myndeful of her names bi my lippis. 5 The Lord is part of myn eritage, and of my passion; thou art, that schalt restore myn eritage to me. 6 Coordis felden to me in ful clere thingis; for myn eritage is ful cleer to me. 7 I schal blesse the Lord, that yaf vndurstondyng to me; ferthermore and my reynes blameden me `til to nytt. 8 I purueide euer the Lord in my siyt; for he is on the riythalf to me, that Y be not moued. 9 For this thing myn herte was glad, and my tunge ioiede fulli; ferthermore and my fleisch schal reste in hope. 10 For thou schalt not forsake my soule in helle; nether thou schalt yyue thin hooli to se corrupcioun. (Sheol h7585) 11 Thou hast maad knowun to me the weies of lijf; thou schalt fille me of gladnesse with thi cheer; delityngis ben in thi riythalf `til in to the ende.

17 The preier of Dauid. Lord, here thou my riytfulness; biholde thou my preier. Perseuye thou with eeris my preier; not maad in gileful lippis. 2 Mi doom come `forth of thi cheer; thin iyen se equite. 3 Thou hast preued myn herte, and hast visitid in niyt; thou hast examynynd me bi fier, and wickidnesse is not foundun in me. 4 That my mouth speke not the werkis of men; for the wordis of thi lippis Y haue kept harde weies. 5 Make thou perfit my goyngis in thi pathis; that my steppis be not moued. 6 I criede, for thou, God, herdist me; bowe doun thin eere to me, and here thou my wordis. 7 Make wondrousful thi mercies; that makist saaf `men hopynge in thee. 8 Kepe thou me as the appil of the iye; fro `men ayenstondyng the riyt hond. Keuere thou me vndur the schadewe of thi wyngis; 9 fro the face of vnpytouse men, that han turmentid me. Myn enemyes han cumpassid my soule; 10 thei han closide togidere her fatnesse; the mouth of hem spak pride. 11 Thei castiden me forth, and han cumpassid me now; thei ordeyneden to bowe doun her iyen in to erthe. 12 Thei, as a lioun maad redi to prey, han take me; and as the whelp of a lioun dwellynge in hid places. 13 Lord, rise thou vp, bifor come thou hym, and disseyue thou hym; delyuere thou my lijf fro the `vnpytouse, 14 delyuere thou thi swerd fro the enemyes of thin hond. Lord, departe thou hem fro a fewe men of `the lond in the lijf of hem; her wombe is fillid of thin hid thingis. Thei ben fillid with sones; and thei leften her relifis to her litle children. 15 But Y in riytfulnesse schal appere to thi siyt; Y schal be fillid, whanne thi glorie schal appere.

18 To victorie, the word of the Lord to Dauid; which spak the wordis of this song, in the dai in which the Lord delyuerede hym fro the hond of alle hise enemyes, and fro the hond of Saul; and he seide: Lord, my strengthe, Y schal loue thee; the Lord is my stiffastnesse, and my refuyt, and mi deliuerere. 2 Mi God is myn helpere; and Y schal hope in to hym. My defendere, and the horn of myn helthe; and myn vptakere. 3 I schal preise, and ynwardli clepe the Lord; and Y schal be saaf fro myn enemyes. 4 The sorewis of deth cumpassiden me; and the strondis of wickidnesse disturbliden me. 5 The sorewis of helle cumpassiden me; the snaris of deeth `bifor ocupieden me. (Sheol h7585) 6 In my tribulacioun Y inwardli clepide the Lord; and Y criede to my God. And he herde my vois fro his hooli temple; and my cry in his siyt entride in to hise eeris. 7 The erthe was mouede togidere, and tremblede togidere; the foundementis of hillis weren troblid togidere, and weren moued togidere; for he was wrooth to hem. 8 Smoke stiede in the ire of hym, and fier brente out fro his face; coolis weren kyndlid of hym. 9 He bowide doun heuenes, and cam doun; and derknesse was vndur hise feet. 10 And he stiede on cherubym, and flei; he fley ouer the pennes of wyndis. 11 And he settide derknesses his hidyng place, his tabernacle `in his cumpas; derk water was in the cloudes of the lowere eir. 12 Ful cleer cloudis passiden in his siyt; hail and the coolis of fier. 13 And the Lord thundrid fro heuene; and the hiyeste yaf his vois, hail and the coolis of fier `camen doun. 14 And he sente hise arowis, and distriede tho men; he multiplide leytis, and disturblide tho men. 15 And the wellis of watris apperiden; and the foundementis of the erthe weren schewid. Lord, of thi blamyng; of the brething of the spirit of thin ire. 16 He sente fro the hiyeste place, and took me; and he took me fro many watris. 17 He delyuerede me fro my strongeste enemyes; and fro hem that hatiden me, fro thei weren coumfortid on me. 18 Thei camen bifor me in the dai of my turment; and the Lord was maad my defendere. 19 And he ledde out me in to breede; he maad me saaf, for he wolde me. 20 And the Lord schal yelde to me bi my riytfulnesse; and he schal yelde to me bi the clennessen of myn hondis. 21 For Y kepte the weies of the Lord; and Y dide not vnfeithful fro my God. 22 For alle hise domes ben in my siyt; and Y puttide not awei fro me hise riytfulnesis. 23 And Y schal be vnwemmed with hym; and Y schal kepe me fro my wickidnesse. 24 And the Lord schal yelde to me bi my riytfulnesse; and bi the clennessen of myn hondis in the siyt of hise iyen. 25 With the hooli, thou schalt be hooli; and with `a man innocent, thou schalt be innocent. 26 And with a chosun man, thou schalt be chosun; and with a weiward man, thou schalt be weiward. 27 For thou schalt make saaf a meke puple; and thou schalt make meke the iyen of proude men. 28 For thou, Lord, liytne my lanterne; my God, liytne thou my derknessis. 29 For bi thee Y schal be delyuered fro temptacioun; and in my God Y schal `go ouer the wal. 30 Mi God, his weie is vndefoulid, the speches of the Lord ben examyned bi fier; he is defendere of alle men hopynge in hym. 31 For whi, who is God out takun the Lord? ethir who is God outakun oure God? 32 God that hath gird me with vertu; and hath set my weie vnwemmed. 33 Which made perfit my feet as of hertis; and ordeynynge me on hiye thingis. 34 Which techith myn hondis to batel; and thou hast set myn armys as a brasun bouwe. 35 And thou hast youe to me the kyuering of thin helthe; and thi riythond hath vptake me. And thi chastisyng amendide me in to the ende; and thilke chastisyng of thee schal teche me. 36 Thou alargidist my paaces vndur me; and my steppis ben not maad vnstidefast. 37 Y schal pursue myn enemyes, and Y schal take hem; and Y schal not turne til thei failen. 38 I schal al to-breke hem, and thei schulen not mowe stonde; thei schulen falle vndur my feet. 39 And thou hast gird me with vertu to batel; and thou hast `supplauntid, ether disseyued, vndur me men risynge ayens me. 40 And thou hast youe myn enemyes abac to me; and thou hast distried `men hatynge me. 41 Thei crieden, and noon was that maad hem saaf; `thei crieden to the Lord, and he herde not hem. 42 And Y schal al to-breke hem, as dust bifor the face of wynd; Y schal do hem awei, as the cley of stretis. 43 Thou schalt delyuere me fro ayenseiynge of the puple; thou schalt sette me in to the heed of folkis. 44 The puple, which Y knewe not, seruede me; in the herynge of eere it obeiede to me. 45 Alien sones lieden to me, alien sones wexiden elde; and crokiden fro thi pathis. 46 The Lord lyueth, and my God be blessid; and the God of myn helthe be enhaunsid. 47 God, that yauest veniaunces to me, and makist suget puplis vndur me; my delyuerere fro my wrathful enemyes. 48 And thou schalt enhaunse me fro hem, that risen ayens me; thou schalt delyuere me fro a wickid man. 49 Therfor, Lord, Y schal knoueleche to thee among naciouns; and Y schal seie salm to thi name. 50 Magnifynge the helthis of his kyng; and doynge merci to his crist Dauid, and to his seed til in to the world.

19 To victorie, the salm of Dauid. Heuenes tellen out the glorie of God; and the firmament tellith the werkis of hise hondis. 2 The dai tellith out to the dai a word; and the nytt schewith kunnyng to the nytt. 3 No langagis ben, nether wordis; of whiche the voices of hem ben not herd. 4 The soun of hem yede out in to al erthe; and the wordis of hem `yeden out in to the endis of the world. 5 In the sunne he hath set his tabernacle; and he as a spouse comynge forth of his chaumbre. He fulli ioyede, as a giaunt, to renne his weie; 6 his goynge out was fro hiyeste heuene. And his goyng ayeen was to the hiyeste therof; and noon is that hidith hym silf fro his heet. 7 The lawe of the Lord is with out wem, and conuertith soulis; the witnessyng of the Lord is feithful, and yyueth wisdom to litle children. 8 The riytfulnessis of the Lord ben riytful, gladdynge hertis; the comaundement of the Lord is cleere, liytynge iyen. 9 The hooli drede of the Lord dwelith in to world of world; the domes of the Lord ben trewe, iustified in to hem silf. 10 Desirable more than gold, and a stoon myche precieuse; and swettere than hony and honycoomb. 11 `Forwhi thi seruaut kepith thoo; myche yeldyng is in tho to be kept. 12 Who vndurstondith trespassis? make thou me cleene fro my priuy synnes; 13 and of alien synnes spare thi seruauant. 14 If the forseid defaultis ben not, Lord, of me, than Y schal be with out wem; and Y schal be clensid of the mooste synne. 14 And the spechis of my mouth schulen be, that tho plesse; and the thenkyng of myn herte eue in thi siyt. Lord, myn helpere; and myn ayenbiere.

20 To victorie, the salm of Dauid. The Lord here thee in the dai of tribulacioun; the name of God of Jacob defende thee. 2 Sende he helpe to thee fro the hooli place; and fro Syon defende he thee. 3 Be he mynde ful of al thi sacrifice; and thi brent sacrifice be maad fat. 4 Yyue he to thee aftir thin herte; and conferme he al thi counsel. 5 We schulen be glad in thin helthe; and we schulen be magnyfied in the name of oure God. 6 The Lord fille alle thin axyngis; nowe Y haue knowe, that the Lord hath maad saaf his crist. He schal here hym fro his hooly heuene; the helthe of his riyt hond is in poweris. 7 Thes in charis, and these in horsis; but we schulen inwardli clepe in the name of oure Lord God. 8 Thei ben boundun, and felden down; but we han rise, and ben reisid. 9 Lord, make thou saaf the kyng; and here thou vs in the dai in which we inwardli clepen thee.

21 To victorie, the salm of Dauid. Lord, the kyng schal be glad in thi vertu; and he schal ful out haue ioye greetli on thin helthe. 2 Thou hast youe to hym the desire of his herte; and thou hast not defraudid hym of the wille of hise lippis. 3 For thou hast bifor come hym in the blessingis of swetnesse; thou hast set on his heed a coroun of preciouise stoon. 4 He axide of thee lijf, and thou yauest to hym; the lengthe of daies in to the world, and in to the world of world. 5 His glorie is greet in thin helthe; thou schalt putte glorie, and greet fayrnesse on hym. 6 For thou schalt yyue hym in to blessing in to the world of world; thou schalt make hym glad in ioye with thi cheer. 7 For the kyng hopith in the Lord; and in the merci of the hiyeste he schal not be moued. 8 Thyn hond be foundun to alle thin enemyes; thi riythond fynde alle hem that haten thee. 9 Thou schalt putte hem as a furneis of fier in the tyme of thi cheer; the Lord schal disturble hem in his ire, and fier schal deuoure hem. 10 Thou schalt leese the fruyt of hem fro erthe; and 11 thou schalt leese the seed of hem fro the sones of men. 11 For thei bowiden yuels ayens thee; thei thouyten counseils, whiche thei myyten not stablische. 12 For thou schalt putte hem abac; in thi relifs thou schalt make redi the cheer of hem. 13 Lord, be thou enhaunsid in thi vertu; we schulen synge, and seie opynly thi virtues.

22 To ouercome, for 1 the morewtid hynd; the salm of Dauid. God, my God, biholde thou on me, whi hast thou forsake me? the wordis of my trespassis ben fer fro myn helthe. 2 Mi God, Y schal crye bi dai, and thou schalt not here; and bi nytt, and not to vnwisdom to me. 3 Forsothe thou, the preisyng of Israel, dwellist in holynesse; 4 oure fadris hopiden in thee, thei hopiden, and thou delyueridist hem. 5 Thei crieden to thee, and thei weren maad saaf; thei hopiden in thee, and thei weren not schent. 6 But Y am a worm, and not man; the schenschip of men, and the outcastyng of the puple. 7 Alle men seynge me scorneden me; thei spaken with lippis, and stiriden the heed. 8 He hopide in the Lord, delyuere he hym; make he hym saaf, for he wole hym. 9 For thou it art that drowist me out of the wombe, thou art myn hope fro the tetis of my modir; 10 in to thee Y am cast forth fro the wombe. Fro the wombe of my modir thou art my God; departe thou not fro me. 11 For tribulacioun is next; for noon is that helpith. 12 Many calues cumpassiden me; fatte bolis bisegiden me. 13 Thei openyden her mouth on me; as doith a lioun rauyschyng and rorynge. 14 I am sched out as watir; and alle my boonys ben scatterid. Myn herte is maad, as wex fletyng abrood; in the myddis of my wombe. 15 Mi vertu driede as a tiyl stoon, and my tunge cleuede to my chekis; and thou hast brouyt forth me in to the dust of deth. 16 For many doggis cumpassiden me; the counsel of wickid men bisegide me. Thei delueden myn hondis and my feet; 17 thei noumbiden alle my boonys. Sotheli thei lokiden, and bihelden me; 18 thei departiden my clothis to hem silf, and thei senten lot on my cloth. 19 But thou, Lord, delaie not thin help fro me; biholde thou to my defence. 20 God, delyuere thou my lijf fro swerd; and delyuere thou myn oon aloone fro the hond of the dogge. 21 Make thou me saaf fro the mouth of a lioun; and my mekenesse fro the hornes of vnycornes. 22 I schal telle thi name to my britheren; Y schal preise thee in the myddis of the chirche. 23 Ye that dreden the Lord, herie hym; alle the seed of Jacob, glorifie ye hym. 24 Al the seed of Israel drede hym; for he forsook not, nethir dispiside the preier of a pore man. Nethir he turnede awei his face fro me; and whanne Y criede to hym, he herde me. 25 Mi preisyng is at thee in a greet chirche; Y schal yelde my vowis in the siyt of men dredyng hym. 26 Pore men schulen ete, and schulen be fillid, and thei schulen herie the Lord, that seken hym; the hertis of hem schulen lyue in to the world of world. 27 Alle the endis of erthe schulen bithenke; and schulen be conuertid to the Lord. And alle the meynes of hethene men; schulen worschepe in his siyt. 28 For the rewme is the Lordis; and he schal be Lord of hethene men. 29 Alle the fatte men of erthe eeten and worschipiden; alle men, that goen down in to erthe, schulen falle down in his siyt. 30 And my soule schal lyue to hym; and my seed schal serue him. 31 A generacioun to comyng schal be teld to the Lord; and heuenes schulen telle his riytfulnesse to the puple that schal be borun, whom the Lord made.

23 The salm, ether the song of Dauid. The Lord gouerneth me, and no thing schal faile to me; 2 in the place of pasture there he hath set me. He nurschide me on the watir of refreischyng; 3 he conuertide my soule. He ledde me forth on the pathis of riytfulnesse; for his name. 4 For whi thou Y schal go in the myddis of schadewe of deeth; Y schal not drede yuels, for thou art with me. Thi yerde and thi staf; tho han coumfortid me. 5 Thou hast maad redi a boord in my siyt; ayens hem that troblen me. Thou hast maad fat myn heed with oyle; and my cuppe, 6 fillinge greetli, is ful cleer. 6 And thi merci schal sue me; in alle the daies of my lijf. And that Y dwelle in the hows of the Lord; in to the lengthe of daies.

24 The song of Daud. The erthe and the fulnesse therof is `the Lordis; the world, and alle that dwellen thereynne `is the Lordis. 2 For he foundite it on the sees; and made it redi on floodis. 3 Who schal stie in to the hil of the Lord; ethir who schal stonde in the hooli place of hym? 4 The innocent in hondis, and in cleene herte; whiche took not his soule in veyn, nether swoor in gile to his neybore. 5 `This man schal take blessing of the Lord; and mercy of God his helthe. 6 This is the generacioun of men sekyng hym; of men sekyng the face of God of Jacob. 7 Ye princes, take vp youre yatis, and ye euerelastyng yatis, be reisid; and the kyng of glorie schal entre. 8 Who is this kyng of glorie? the Lord strong and myyti, the Lord myyti in batel. 9 Ye princes, take vp youre yatis, and ye euerelastyng yatis, be reisid; and the kyng of glorie schal entre. 10 Who is this kyng of glorie? the Lord of vertues, he is the kyng of glorie.

25 To Daud. 2 Lord, to thee Y haue reisid my soule; my God, Y truste in thee, be Y not aschamed. 3 Nethir myn enemyes scorne me; for alle men that suffren thee schulen not be schent. 4 Alle men doynge wickyng thingis superfuli; be schent. Lord, schewe thou thi weies to me; and teche thou me thi pathis. 5 Dresse thou me in thi treuthe, and teche thou me, for thou art God my sauour; and Y suffride thee al dai. 6 Lord, haue thou mynde of thi merciful doynge; and of thi mercies that ben fro the world. 7 Haue thou not mynde on the trespassis of my yongthe; and on myn vnkunngis. 33 Ye iust men, haue fulli ioie in the Lord; presyng togidere bicometh riytful men. 2 Knoueleche ye to the Lord in an harpe; synge ye to hym in a sautre of ten strengis. 3 Synge ye to hym a newe song; seie ye wel salm to hym in cryng. 4 For the word of the Lord is riytful; and alle hise werkis ben in feithfulnesse. 5 He loueth merci and doom; the erthe is ful of the merci of the Lord. 6 Heuenes ben maad stidfast bi the word of the Lord; and `al the vertu of tho bi the spirit of his mouth. 7 And he gaderith togidere the watris of the see as in a bowge; and settith depe watris in tresours. 8 Al erthe drede the Lord; sotheli alle men enhabitynge the world ben mouyd of hym. 9 For he seide, and thingis weren maad; he comaundide, and thingis weren maad of nouyt. 10 The Lord distrieth the counsels of folkis, forsothe he repreueth the thouytis of puplis; and he repreueth the counsels of prynces. 11 But the counsel of the Lord dwellith with outen ende; the thouytis of his herte dwellen in generacioun and into generacioun. 12 Blessid is the folk, whose Lord is his God; the puple which he chees into eritage to hym silf. 13 The Lord bihelde fro heuene; he siy alle the sones of men. 14 Fro his dwellyng place maad redi bifor; he bihelde on alle men, that enhabiten the erthe. 15 Which made syngulerli the soules of hem; which vndurstonidith all the werkis of hem. 16 A kyng is not sauoyd bi myche vertu; and a giaunt schal not be sauoyd in the mychilnesse of his vertu. 17 An hors is false to helthe; forsothe he schal not be sauoyd in the habundaunce, `ether plentee, of his vertu. 18 Lo! the iyen of the Lord ben on men dredynge hym; and in hem that hopen on his merci. 19 That he delyuere her soules fro deth; and feede hem in hungur. 20 Oure soule suffreth the Lord; for he is oure helpere and defendere. 21 For oure herte schal be glad in him; and we schulen haue hope in his hooli name. 22 Lord, thi merci be maad on vs; as we hopiden in thee.

I schal blesse the Lord in al tyme; euere his heriying is in my mouth. 2 Mi soule schal be preisd in the Lord; mylde men here, and be glad. 3 Magnyfie ye the Lord with me; and enhaunse we his name into it silf. 4 I souyte the Lord, and he herde me; and he delyuere me fro alle my tribulaciouns. 5 Neiye ye to him, and be ye liytnd; and youre faces schulen not be schent. 6 This pore man criede, and the Lord herde hym; and sauoyde hym fro alle hise tribulaciouns. 7 The aungel of the Lord sendith in the cumpas of men dredynge hym; and he schal delyuere hem. 8 Taaste ye, and se, for the Lord is swete; blessid is the man, that hopith in hym. 9 Alle ye hooli men of the Lord, drede hym; for no nedynesse is to men dredynge hym. 10 Riche men weren nedi, and weren hungri; but men that seken the Lord schulen not faile of al good. 11 Come, ye sones, here ye me; Y schal teche you the drede of the Lord. 12 Who is a man, that wole lijf; loueth to se good daies? 13 Forbede thi tunge fro yuel; and thi lippis speke not gile. 14 Turne thou awei fro yuel, and do good; seke thou pees, and perfilti sue thou it. 15 The iyen of the Lord ben on iust men; and hise eeren ben to her preiers. 16 But the cheer of the Lord is on men doynge yuels; that he leese the mynde of hem fro erthe. 17 Just men cryeden, and the Lord herde hem; and delyuere hem fro alle her tribulaciouns. 18 The Lord is nyy hem that ben of troblid herte; and he schal saue meke men in spirit. 19 Many tribulaciouns ben of iust men; and the Lord schal delyuere hem fro alle these. 20 The Lord kepith alle the boonys of hem; oon of tho schal not be brokun. 21 The deth of synneris is werst; and thei that haten a iust man schulen trespasse. 22 The Lord schal ayenbie the soulis of hise seruautis; and alle, that hopen in him, schulen not trespasse.

35 To David. Lord, deme thou hem, that anoiem me; ouercome thou hem, that fytten ayens me. 2 Take thou armeris and scheeld; and rise vp into help to me. 3 Schede out the swerd, and close togidere ayens hem that pursuen me; seie thou to my soule, Y am thin helthe. 4 Thei that seken my lijf; be schent, and aschamed. Thei that thenken yuels to me; be turned awei backward, and be schent. 5 Be thei maad as dust bifor the face of the wynd; and the aungel of the Lord make hem streit. 6 Her weie be maad derknesse, and slydirnesse; and the aungel of the Lord pursue hem. 7 For with out cause thei hidden to me the deth of her snare; in veyn thei dispisiden my soule. 8 The snare which he knoweth not come to hym, and the takyng which he hidde take hym; and fall he in to the snare in that thing. 9 But my soule schal fulli haue ioie in the Lord; and schal delite on his helthe. 10 Alle my boonys schulen seie, Lord, who is lijk thee? Thou delyuerist a pore man fro the hond of his strengere; a nedi man and pore fro hem that diuersely rauschen hym. 11 Wickid witnessis risynge axiden me thingis, whiche Y knewe not. 12 Thei yeldiden to me yuels for goodis; bareynnesse to my soule. 13 But whanne thei weren diseseful to me; Y was clothid in an heire. I mekide my soule in fastyng; and my preier schal be turned `with ynne my bosum. 14 I pleside so as oure neiybore, as oure brother; Y was `maad meke so as morenyng and sorewful. 15 And thei weren glad, and camen togidere ayens me; turmentis weren gaderid on me, and Y knew not. 16 Thei weren scatterid, and not compunct, thei temptiden me, thei scornyn den me with mowyng; thei gnastiden on me with her teeth. 17 Lord, whanne thou schalt biholde, restore thou my soule fro the wickidnesse of hem; `restore thou myn oon aloone fro liouns. 18 I schal knowleche to thee in a greet chirche; Y schal herie thee in a sad puple. 19 Thei that ben aduersaries wickidli to me, haue not ioie on me; that haten me with out cause, and bikenen with iyen. 20 For sotheli thei spaken pesibilo to me; and thei spekyng in wrathfulnesse of erthe thouyten giles. 21 And thei maden large her mouth on me; thei seiden, Wel, well oure iyen han sien. 22 Lord, thou hast seen, be thou not stille; Lord, departe thou not fro me. 23 Rise vp, and yyue tent to my doom; my God and my Lord, biholde in to my cause. 24 Mi Lord God, deme thou me bi thi riytfulnesse; and haue thei not ioie on me. 25 Seie thei not in her hertis, Wel, wel, to oure soule; nether seie thei, We schulen deuoure hym. 26 Shame thei, and drede thei togidere; that thanken for myn yuels. Be thei clothid with schame and drede; that speken yuele things on me. 27 Hauē thei ful ioie, and be thei glad that wolen my riytfulnesse; and seie thei euerē, The Lord be magnyfyed, whiche wolen the pees of his seruānt. 28 And my tunge schal bithenke thi riytfulnesse; al day thin heriyng.

36 To victorie, to Dauid, the seruānt of the Lord. The vniust man seide, that he trespassē in hym self; the drede of God is not bifor hise iyen. 2 For he dide gilefuli in the siyt of God; that his wickidnesse be foundun to hatrede. 3 The wordis of his mouth ben wickidnesse and gile, he nolde vnderstonde to do wel. 4 He thouyte wickidnesse in his bed, he stood nyy al weie not good; forsothe he hatide not malice. 5 Lord, thi merci is in heuene; and thi treuthe is til to cloudis. 6 Thi riytfulnesse is as the hillis of God; thi domes ben myche depthe of watris. Lord, thou schalt saue men and beestis; 7 as thou, God, hast multiplied thi merci. But the sones of men; schulen hope in the hilyng of thi wyngis. 8 Thei schulen be fillid gretli of the plentee of thin hows; and thou schalt yyue drynke to hem with the steef streem of thi likyng. 9 For the wel of life is at thee; and in thi lyt we schulen se lyt. 10 Lord, sette forth thi mercy to hem, that knowen thee; and thi riytfulnesse to hem that ben of riytful herte. 11 The foot of pryde come not to me; and the hond of the synnere moue me not. 12 There thei felden down, that worchē wickidnesse; thei ben cast out, and myyten not stonde.

37 To Dauith. Nile thou sue wickid men; nether loue thou men doynge wickidnesse. 2 For thei schulen wexe drie swiftili as hey; and thei schulen falle down soone as the wortis of eerbis. 3 Hope thou in the Lord, and do thou goodnesse; and enhabite thou the lond, and thou schalt be fed with hise richessis. 4 Delite thou in the Lord; and he schal yyue to thee the axyngis of thin herte. 5 Schewe thi weie to the Lord; and hope thou in hym, and he schal do. 6 And he schal lede out thi riytfulnesse as lyt, and thi doom as myddai; 7 be thou suget to the Lord, and preye thou hym. Nile thou sue hym, that hath prosperite in his weie; a man doynge vnriytfullnessis. 8 Ceese thou of ire, and forsake woodnesse; nyle thou sue, that thou do wickidli. 9 For thei, that doen wickidli, schulen be distried; but thei that suffren the Lord, schulen enerite the lond. 10 And yit a litil, and a synnere schal not be; and thou schalt seke his place, and schalt not fynde. 11 But mylde men schulen enerite the lond; and schulen delite in the multitude of pees. 12 A synnere schal asprie a riytful man; and he schal gnaste with hise teeth on hym. 13 But the Lord schal scorne the synnere; for he biholdith that his day cometh. 14 Synners drowen out swerd; thei benten her bouwe. To disseyue a pore man and nedi; to strangle riytful men of herte. 15 Her swerd entre in to the herte of hem self; and her bouwe be brokun. 16 Betere is a litil thing to a iust man; than many richessis of synneris. 17 For the armes of synneris schal be al to-brokun; but the Lord confermeth iust men. 18 The Lord knowith the daies of vnwemmed; and her heritage schal be withouten ende. 19 Thei schulen not be schent in the yuel tyme, and thei schulen be fillid in the dayes of hungur; 20 for synneris schulen perische. Forsothe anoon as the enemyes of the Lord ben onourid, and enhaunsid; thei failynge schulen faile as smoke. 21 A synnere schal borewe, and schal not paie;

but a iust man hath merci, and schal yyue. 22 For thei that blessen the Lord schulen enerite the lond; but thei that cursen hym schulen perische. 23 The goyng of a man schal be dressid anentis the Lord; and he schal wilne his weie. 24 Whanne he fallith, he schal not be hurtlid down; for the Lord vndersettith his hond. 25 I was yongere, and sotheli Y wexide eld, and Y siy not a iust man forsakun; nethir his seed sekyngē breed. 26 Al dai he hath merci, and leeneth; and his seed schal be in blessing. 27 Bouwe thou awei fro yuel, and do good; and dwelle thou in to the world of world. 28 For the Lord loueth doom, and schal not forsake hise seyntis; thei schulen be kept with outen ende. Vniust men schulen be punyschid; and the seed of wickid men schal perische. 29 But iust men schulen enerite the lond; and schulen enabite theronne in to the world of world. 30 The mouth of a iust man schal bithenke wisdom; and his tunge schal speke doom. 31 The lawe of his God is in his herte; and hise steppis schulen not be disseyued. 32 A synnere biholdith a iust man; and sekith to sle hym. 33 But the Lord schal not forsake hym in hise hondis; nethir schal dampne hym, whanne it schal be demed ayens hym. 34 Abide thou the Lord, and kepe thou his weie, and he schal enhaunse thee, that bi eritage thou take the lond; whanne synneris schulen perische, thou schalt se. 35 I siy a wickid man enhaunsid aboue; and reisid vp as the cedris of Liban. 36 And Y passide, and lo! he was not; Y souyte hym, and his place is not foundun. 37 Kepe thou innocence, and se equite; for tho ben relikis to a pesible man. 38 Forsothe vniust men schulen perische; the relifs of wickid men schulen perische togidere. 39 But the helthe of iust men is of the Lord; and he is her defendere in the tyme of tribulacioun. 40 And the Lord schal helpe hem, and schal make hem fre, and he schal delyuere hem fro synneris; and he schal saue hem, for thei hopiden in hym.

38 The salm of Dauid, to bythenke on the sabat. Lord, repreue thou not me in thi strong veniaunce; nether chastice thou me in thin ire. 2 For thin arowis ben fitchid in me; and thou hast confermed thin hond on me. 3 Noon helthe is in my fleisch fro the face of thin ire; no pees is to my boonys fro the face of my synnes. 4 For my wickidnessis ben goon ouer myn heed; as an heuy birthun, tho ben maad heuy on me. 5 Myn heelid woundis weren rotun, and ben brokun; fro the face of myn vnwisdom. 6 I am maad a wretche, and Y am bowid down til in to the ende; al dai Y entride sorewful. 7 For my leendis ben fillid with scornynge; and helthe is not in my fleisch. 8 I am turmentid, and maad low ful greetli; Y roride for the weilyng of myn herte. 9 Lord, al my desire is bifor thee; and my weilyng is not hid fro thee. 10 Myn herte is disturblid in me, my vertu forsook me; and the lyt of myn iyen forsook me, and it is not with me. 11 My frendis and my neiyboris neiyden; and stoden ayens me. And thei that weren bisidis me stoden afer; 12 and thei diden violence, that souyten my lijf. And thei that souyten yuels to me, spaken vanytees; and thouyten giilis al dai. 13 But Y as a deaf man herde not; and as a doomb man not openynge his mouth. 14 And Y am maad as a man not herynge; and not hauynge repreuyngis in his mouth. 15 For, Lord, Y hopide in thee; my Lord God, thou schalt here me. 16 For Y seide, Lest ony tyme myn enemies haue ioye on me; and the while my feet ben mouyd, thei spaken grete thingis on me. 17 For Y am redi to betyngis; and my sorewe is euer in my siyt. 18 For Y schal telle my wickidnesse; and Y schal thenke for my synne. 19 But myn enemies lyuen, and ben confermed on me; and thei ben multiplyed, that haten me wickidli. 20 Thei that yelden yuels for goodis, backbitiden me; for Y suede goodnessse. 21 My Lord God, forsake thou not me; go thou not awei fro me. 22 Lord God of myn helthe; biholde thou in to myn help.

39 For victorie, to Iditum, the song of Dauid. I seide, Y schal kepe my weies; that Y trespassse not in my tunge. I settide keypyng to my mouth; whanne a synnere stood ayens me. 2 I was domb, and was mekid ful gretli, and was stille fro goodis; and my sorewe was renulid. 3 Myn herte was hoot with ynne me; and fier schal brenne out in my thenkyng. 4 I spak in my tunge; Lord, make thou myn eende known to me. And the nombre of my daies what it is; that Y wite, what failith to me. 5 Lo! thou hast set my daies mesurable; and my substaunce is as nouyt bifor thee. Nethes al vanytee; ech man lyuynge. 6 Nethes a man passith in ymage; but also he is disturblid veynli. He tresorith; and he noot, to whom he `schal gadere tho thingis. 7 And now which is myn abiding? whether not the Lord? and my substaunce is at thee. 8 Delyuere thou me fro alle my wickidnessis; thou hast youe me schenschip to the vnkunynge. 9 I was dombe, and openye not my mouth; for thou hast maad, 10 remoue thou thi woundis fro me. 11 Fro the strengthe of thin hond Y failide in blamyngis; for wickidnesse thou hast chastisid man. And thou madist his lijf to faile as an yreyne; nethes ech man is disturblid in veyn. 12 Lord, here thou my preier and my bisechyng; perseyue thou with eeris my teeris. 13 Be thou not stille, for Y am a comelyng at thee; and a pilgrime, as alle my fadris. Foryyue thou to me, that Y be refreischið, bifor that Y go; and Y schal no more be.

40 For victorie, the song of Dauid. Y abidyng abood the Lord; and he yaf tent to me. 2 And he herde my preieris; and he ledde out me fro the lake of wretchidnesse, and fro the filthe of draft. And he ordeynede my feet on a stoon; and he dresside my goyngis. 3 And he sente in to my mouth a newe song; a song to oure God. Many men schulen se, and schulen drede; and schulen haue hope in the Lord. 4 Blessid is the man, of whom the name of the Lord is his hope; and he bihelde not in to vanitees, and in to false woodnesses. 5 Mi Lord God, thou hast maad thi merueils manye; and in thi thouytis noon is, that is lijk thee. I teld, and Y spak; and thei ben multiplid aboue noubre. 6 Thou noldist sacrifice and offryng; but thou madist perfilti eeris to me. Thou axidist not brent sacrifice, and sacrifice for synne; 7 thanne Y seide, Lo! Y come. In the heed of the book it is writun of me, 8 that Y schulde do thi wille; my God, Y wolde; and thi lawe in the myddis of myn herte. 9 I telde thi riytfulnesse in a greet chirche; lo! Y schal not refreine my lippis, Lord, thou wistist. 10 I hidde not thi riytfulnesse in myn herte; Y seide thi treuthe and thin helthe. I hidde not thi mercy and thi treuthe; fro a myche counsel. 11 But thou, Lord, make not fer thi merciful doyngis fro me; thi mercy and treuthe euere token me

vp. 12 For whi yuels, of whiche is no noubre, cumpassiden me; my wickidnessis token me, and y myyte not, that Y schulde se. Tho ben multiplid aboue the heeris of myn heed; and myn herte forsook me. 13 Lord, plese it to thee, that thou delyuere me; Lord, biholde thou to helpe me. 14 Be thei schent, and aschamed togidere; that seken my lijf, to take awei it. Be thei turned abac, and be thei schamed; that wolen yuels to me. 15 Bere thei her confusioun anoon; that seien to me, We! well! `that is, in scorn. 16 Alle men that seken thee, be fulli ioyful, and be glad on thee; and seie thei, that louen thin helthe, The Lord be magnified euere. 17 Forsothe Y am a beggere and pore; the Lord is bisi of me. Thou arte myn helpere and my defendere; my God, tarie thou not.

41 For victorie, the song of Dauid. Blessid is he that vndurstondith `on a nedi man and pore; the Lord schal delyuere hym in the yuel dai. 2 The Lord kepe hym, and quykene hym, and make hym blesful in the lond; and bitake not hym in to the wille of his enemyes. 3 The Lord bere help to hym on the bed of his sorewe; thou hast ofte turned al his bed stre in his sijknesse. 4 I seide, Lord, haue thou mercy on me; heele thou my soule, for Y synnede ayens thee. 5 Myn enemyes seiden yuels to me; Whanne schal he die, and his name schal perische? 6 And if he entride for to se, he spak veyn thingis; his herte gaderide wickidnesse to hym silf. 7 He yede with out forth; and spak to the same thing. Alle myn enemyes bacbitiden pryuyli ayens me; ayens me thei thouyten yuels to me. 8 Thei ordeineden an yuel word ayens me; Whether he that slepith, schal not leie to, that he rise ayen? 9 For whi the man of my pees, in whom Y hopide, he that eet my looues; made greet disseit on me. 10 But thou, Lord, haue merci on me, and reise me ayen; and Y schal yelde to hem. 11 In this thing Y knew, that thou woldist me; for myn enemye schal not haue ioye on me. 12 Forsothe thou hast take me vp for ynnocence; and hast confermed me in thi siyt with outen ende. 13 Blessid be the Lord God of Israel, fro the world and in to the world; be it doon, be it doon.

42 To victorie, to the sones of Chore. Alle thin hiye thingis and thi wawis; passiden ouer me. 8 The Lord sente his merci in the dai; and his song in the nytt. 9 At me is a preier to the God of my lijf; Y schal seie to God, Thou art my `takere vp. Whi foryetist thou me; and whi

While thei seien to me, bi alle daies; Where is thi God? 11 Mi soule, whi art thou sori; and whi disturblst thou me? Hope thou in God, for yit Y schal knouleche to hym; `he is the helthe of my cheer, and my God.

43 God, deme thou me, and departe thou my cause fro a folc not hooli; delyuere thou me fro a wickid man, and gileful. 2 For thou art God, my strengthe; whi hast thou put me abac, and whi go Y sorewful, while the enemy turmentith me? 3 Sende out thi liyt, and thi treuthe; tho ledden me forth, and brouyten in to thin hooli hil, and in to thi tabernaclis. 4 And Y schal entre to the auter of God; to God, that gladith my yongthe. Hope thou in God, for yit Y schal knouleche to hym; he is the helthe of my cheer, and my God.

44 `To victorie, lernyng to the sones of Chore. God, we herden with oure eeris; oure fadris telden to vs. The werk, which thou wrouytist in the daies of hem; and in elde daies. 2 Thin hond lost hethene men, and thou plauntidist hem; thou turmentidist pupilis, and castidist hem out. 3 For the children of Israel weldiden the lond not bi her swerd; and the arm of hem sauyn not hem. But he hopide in the multitude of his richessis; and hadde maistrie in his vanite. 8 Forsothe Y, as a fruytful olyue tre in the hous of God; hopide in the merci of God with outen ende, and in to the world of world. 9 Y schal knowleche to thee in to the world, for thou hast do mercy to me; and Y schal abide thi name, for it is good in the siyt of thi seyntis.

53 To the ouercomer bi the quere, the lernyng of Daud. The vnwise man seide in his herte; God is not. Thei ben `corrupt, and maad abhomyne in her wickidnessis; noon is that doith good. 2 God bihelde fro heuene on the sonnes of men; that he se, if `ony is vnderstandyng, ether sekyng God. 3 Alle boweden awei, thei ben maad vnprofitable togidre; noon is that doith good, ther is not til to oon. 4 Whether alle men, that worchen wickidnesse, schulen not wite; whiche deuouren my puple as the mete of breed? 5 Thei clepiden not God; there thei trembliden for drede, where no drede was. For God hath scaterid the boones of hem, that plesen men; thei ben schent, for God hath forsake hem. 6 Who schal yyue fro Syon helthe to Israel? whanne the Lord hath turned the catifte of his puple, Jacob schal `ful out make ioie, and Israel schal be glad.

54 To victorie in orguns, ether in salmes, the lernyng of Daud, `whanne Zyfeys camen, and seiden to Saul, Whethir Daud is not hid at vs? God, in thi name make thou me saaf; and in thi vertu deme thou me. 2 God, here thou my preier; with eeris perseuyue thou the wordis of my mouth. 3 For aliens han rise ayens me, and stronge men souyten my lijf; and thei settiden not God bifor her siyt. 4 For, lo! God helpith me; and the Lord is vptaker of my soule. 5 Turne thou awei yuelis to myn enemyes; and leese thou hem in thi treuthe. 6 Wilfuli Y schal make sacrifice to thee; and, Lord, Y schal knouleche to thi name, for it is good. 7 For thou delyueridist me fro al tribulacioun; and myn iye dispiside on myn enemyes.

55 In Ebreu thus, To victorie in orguns, the lernyng of Daud. In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomer in salmes of Daud lernid. God, here thou my preier, and dispise thou not my biseching; 2 yyue thou tent to me, and here thou me. I am soreful in myn exercising; and Y am disturblid of the face of the enemye, 3 and of the tribulacioun of the synner. For thei bowiden wickidnessis in to me; and in ire thei weren diseseul to me. 4 Myn herte was disturblid in me; and the drede of deth felde on me. 5 Drede and trembling camen on me; and derknessis hiliden me. 6 And Y seide, Who schal yyue to me fetheris, as of a culuer; and Y schal fle, and schal take rest? 7 Lo! Y yede fer awei, and fledde; and Y dwellide in wildirnesse. 8 I abood hym, that made me saaf fro the litilnesse, `ether drede, of spirit; and fro tempest. 9 Lord, caste thou down, departe thou the tungis of hem; for Y siy wickidnesse and ayenseyng in the citee. 10 Bi dai and nytt wickidnesse schal compasse it on the wallis therof; 11 and trauel and vnriytfulnesse ben in the myddis therof. And vsure and gile failide not; fro the stretis therof. 12 For if myn enemye hadde cursid me; sotheli Y hadde suffride. And if he, that hatide me, hadde spoke greet thingis on me; in hap Y hadde hid me fro hym. 13 But thou art a man of o wille; my leeder, and my knowun. 14 Which tokist togidere swete meetis with me; we yeden with consent in the hous of God. 15 Deth come on hem; and go thei down quyk in to helle. For weewardnessis ben in the dwelling places of hem; in the myddis of hem. (Sheol h7585) 16 But Y criede to thee, Lord; and the Lord sauede me. 17 In the euentid and morewid and in myddai Y schal telle, and schewe; and he schal here my vois. 18 He schal ayenbie my soule in pees fro hem, that neyen to me; for among manye thei weren with me. 19 God schal here; and he that is bifore the worldis schal make hem low. For chaungyng is not to hem, and thei dredde not God; 20 he holdith forth his hoond in yelding. Thei defouliden his testament, 21 the cheris therof weren departid fro ire; and his herte neiyede. The wordis therof weren softer than oyle; and tho ben dartis. 22 Caste thi cure on the Lord, and he schal fulli nurische thee; and he schal not yyue with outen ende flotering to a iust man. 23 But thou, God, schalt lede hem forth; in to the pit of deth. Menquelleris and gilours schulen not haue half her daies; but, Lord, Y schal hope in thee.

56 `In Ebreu thus, To the ouercomyng on the dounb culuer of fer drawing awei, the comely song of Dauid, whanne Filisteis helden hym in Geth. `In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomer for the dounb culuer, for it yede awei fer. Dauid meke and symple made this salm, whanne Palesteyns helden hym in Geth. God, haue thou merci on me, for a man hath defoulid me; al dai he impugnyde, and troublide me. 2 Myn enemyes defouliden me al dai; for manye fyeris weren ayens me. 3 Of the hyennesse of dai Y schal drede; but God Y schal hope in thee. 4 In God Y schal preise my wordis; Y hopide in God, Y schal not drede what thing fleisch schal do to me. 5 Al dai thei cursiden my wordis; ayens me alle her thouytis weren in to yuel. 6 Thei schulen dwelle, and schulen hide; thei schulen asprie myn heele. 7 As thei abiden my lijf, for nouyt schalt thou make hem saaf; in ire thou schalt breke togidre pupilis. 8 God, Y schewide my lijf to thee; thou hast set my teeris in thi siyt. As and in thi biheest, Lord; 9 thanne myn enemyes schulen be turned abak. In what euere dai Y schal inwardli clepe thee; lo! Y haue knowe, that thou art my God. 10 In God Y schal preise a word; in the Lord Y schal preyse a word. 11 Y schal hope in God; Y schal not drede what thing a man schal do to me. 12 God, thin auowis ben in me; whiche Y schal yelde heriyngis to thee. 13 For thou hast delyuerid my lijf fro deth, and my feet fro slidyng; that Y please bifore God in the liyt of hem that lyuen.

57 `In Ebreu thus, To the victorie, lese thou not the semeli song, `ether the `swete song of Dauid, `whanne he fledde fro the face of Saul in to the denne. `In Jeroms translacioun thus, For victorie, that thou lese not Dauid, meke and simple, whanne he fledde fro the face of Saul in to the denne. God, haue thou merci on me, haue thou merci on me; for my soule tristith in thee. And Y schal hope in the schadewe of thi wyngis; til wickidnesse passe. 2 I schal crye to God altherhiyeste; to God that dide wel to me. 3 He sente fro heuene, and delyuerede me; he yaf in to schenschip hem that defoulen me. God sente his merci and his treuthe, 4 and delyuerede my soule fro the myddis of whelpis of liouns; Y slepte disturblid. The sones of men, the teeth of hem ben armuris and arowis; and her tunge is a scharp swerd. 5 God, be thou enhaunsid aboue heuenes; and thi glorie aboue al erthe. 6 Thei maden redi a snare to my feet; and thei greetly bowed my lijf. Thei delueden a diche bifore my face; and thei felden down in to it. 7 God, myn herte is redi, myn herte is redi; Y schal singe, and Y schal seie salm. 8 Mi glorie, rise thou vp; sautrie and harpe, rise thou vp; Y schal rise vp eerli. 9 Lord, Y schal knouleche to thee among pupilis; and Y schal seie salm among hethene men. 10 For thi merci is magnified til to heuenes; and thi treuthe til to cloudis. 11 God, be thou enhaunsid aboue heuenes; and thi glorie ouer al erthe.

58 `In Ebreu thus, To victorie; `lese thou not the swete song, `ether the semeli salm, of Dauid. `In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomere, that thou lese not Dauid, meke and simple. Forsothe if ye speken riytfulnesse verili; ye sones of men, deme riytfuli. 2 For in herte ye worchen wickidnesse in erthe; youre hondis maken redi vnriytfulnesis. 3 Synneris weren maad aliens fro the wombe; thei erriden fro the wombe, thei spaken false thingis. 4 Woodnesse is to hem, bi the licnesse of a serpent; as of a deaf snake, and stoppyng hise eeris. 5 Which schal not here the vois of charmeris; and of a venym makere charmynge wiseli. 6 God schal al to-breke the teeth of hem in her mouth; the Lord schal breke togidre the greet teeth of liouns. 7 Thei schulen come to nouyt, as water rennyng awei; he bente his bouwe, til thei ben maad sijk. 8 As wexe that fletith awei, thei schulen be takun awei; fier felle aboue, and thei siyen not the sunne. 9 Bifore that youre thornes vndurstoden the ramne; he swolewith hem so in ire, as lyuynge men. 10 The iust man schal be glad, whanne he schal se veniaunce; he schal waische hise hondis in the blood of a synner. 11 And a man schal seie treuli, For fruyt is to a iust man; treuli God is demynge hem in erthe.

59 `In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomer, that thou lese not Dauid, meke and simple, `whanne Saul sente and kepte the hous, to slee hym. `In Ebreu thus, To the ouercomyng, leese thou not the semeli song of Dauid, and so forth. Mi God, delyuer thou me fro myn enemyes; and delyuer thou me fro hem that risen ayens me. 2 Delyuer thou me fro hem that worchen wickidnesse; and saue thou me fro menquelleris. 3 For lo! thei han take my soule; stronge men fellen in on me. 4 Nethir my wickidnesse, nether my synne; Lord, Y ran with out wickidnesse, and dresside `my werkis. 5 Rise vp thou in to my meetyng, and se; and thou, Lord God of vertues, art God of Israel. Yyue thou tent to visite alle folkis; do thou not merci to alle that worchen wickidnesse. 6 Thei schulen be turned at euentid, and thei as doggis schulen suffre hungir; and thei schulen cumpas the citee. 7 Lo! thei schulen speke in her mouth, and a swerd in her lippis; for who herde? 8 And thou, Lord, schalt score hem; thou schalt bringe alle folkis to nouyt. 9 I schal kepe my strengthe to thee; 10 for God is myn vptaker, my God, his mercy schal come byfore me. 11 God schewide to me on myn enemyes, slee thou not hem; lest ony tyme my puples foryete. Scatere thou hem in thi vertu; and, Lord, my defender, putte thou hem doun. 12 Putte thou doun the trespas of her mouth, and the word of her lippis; and be thei takun in her pride. And of cursyng and of leesyng; thei schulen be schewid in the endyng. 13 In the ire of ending, and thei schulen not be; and thei schulen wite, that the Lord schal be Lord of Jacob, and of the endis of erthe. 14 Thei schulen be turned at euentid, and thei as doggis schulen suffre hungir; and thei schulen cumpas the citee. 15 Thei schulen be scaterid abroad, for to eete; sotheli if thei ben not fillid, and thei schulen grutche. 16 But Y schal synge thi strengthe; and eerli Y schal enhaunse thi merci. For thou art maad myn vptaker; and my refuyt, in the dai of my tribulacioun. 17 Myn helper, Y schal synge to thee; for thou art God, myn vptaker, my God, my mercy.

60 `In Ebreu thus, To victorie, on the witnessyng of roose, the swete song of Daud, to teche, `whanne he fauyte ayens Aram of floodis, and Sirie of Soba; and Joab turnede ayen, and smoot Edom in the `valei of salt pittis, twelue thousynde. `In Jeroms translacioun thus, To the ouercomer for lilies, the witnessing of meke and parfit Daud, to teche, whanne he fauyte ayens Sirie of Mesopotamy, and Soba, and so forth. God, thou hast put awei vs, and thou hast distried vs; thou were wrooth, and thou hast do merci to vs. 2 Thou mouedist the erthe, and thou disturblidist it; make thou hool the sorewis therof, for it is moued. 3 Thou schewidist harde thingis to thi puple; thou yauest drynk to vs with the wyn of compunccioun. 4 Thou hast yowe a signefiying to hem that dreden thee; that thei fle fro the face of the bouwe. That thi derlyngis be delyuered; 5 make thou saaf with thi riht hond `the puple of Israel, and here thou me. 6 God spak bi his hooli; Y schal be glad, and Y schal departe Siccimam, and Y schal meete the greet valei of tabernaculis. 7 Galaad is myn, and Manasses is myn; and Effraym is the strengthe of myn heed. 8 Juda is my king; Moab is the pot of myn hope. In to Idumee Y schal stretch forth my scho; aliens ben maad suget to me. 9 Who schal lede me in to a citee maad strong; who schal leede me til in to Ydumee? 10 Whether not thou, God, that hast put awei vs; and schalt thou not, God, go out in oure vertues? 11 Lord, yyue thou to vs help of tribulacioun; for the heelte of man is veyn. 12 In God we schulen make vertu; and he schal bringe to nouyt hem that disturben vs.

61 To the victorie on orgun, to Daud hym silf. God, here thou my biseching; yyue thou tent to my prayer. 2 Fro the endis of the lond Y criede to thee; the while myn herte was angwischid, thou enhaunsidist me in a stoon. 3 Thou laddest me forth, for thou art maad myn hope; a tour of strengthe fro the face of the enemye. 4 I schal dwelle in thi tabernacle in to worldis; Y schal be keuered in the hilyng of thi wengis. 5 For thou, my God, hast herd my preier; thou hast yowe eritage to hem that dreden thi name. 6 Thou schalt adde daies on the daies of the king; hise yeeris til in to the dai of generacioun and of generacioun. 7 He dwellith with outen ende in the siyt of God; who schal seke the merci and treuthe of hym? 8 So Y schal seie salm to thi name in to the world of world; that Y yelde my wovis fro dai in to dai.

62 To the victorie on Iditum, the salm of Daud. Whether my soule schal not be suget to God; for myn heelte is of hym. 2 For whi he is bothe my God, and myn heelte; my `taker vp, Y schal no more be moued. 3 Hou longe fallen ye on a man? alle ye sleen; as to a wal bowid, and a wal of stoon with out morter cast down. 4 Netheles thei thouyten to putte awei my prijs, Y ran in thirst; with her mouth thei blessiden, and in her herte thei cursiden. 5 Netheles, my soule, be thou suget to God; for my pacience is of hym. 6 For he is my God, and my saueour; myn helpere, Y schal not passe out. 7 Myn helthe, and my glorie is in God; God is the yyuer of myn help, and myn hope is in God. 8 Al the gaderyng togidere of the puple, hope ye in God, schede ye out youre hertis bfore hym; God is oure helpere with outen ende. 9 Netheles the sones of men ben veyne; the sones of men ben liers in balauncis, that thei disseyue of varytee in to the same thing. 10 Nile ye haue hope in wickidnesse, and nyle ye coueyte raueyns; if richessis be plenteouse, nyle ye sette the herte therto. 11 God spak onys, Y herde these twei thingis, that power is of God, and, thou Lord, mercy is to thee; 12 for thou schalt yelde to ech man bi hise werkis.

63 `The salm of Daud, `whanne he was in the desert of Judee. God, my God, Y wake to thee ful eerli. Mi soule thirstide to thee; my fleisch thirstide to thee ful many foold. 2 In a lond forsakun with out wei, and with out water, so Y apperide to thee in hooli; that Y schulde se thi vertu, and thi glorie. 3 For thi merci is betere than lyues; my lippis schulen herie thee. 4 So Y schal blesse thee in my lijf; and in thi name Y schal reise myn hondis. 5 Mi soule be fillid as with inner fatnesse and vttermere fatnesse; and my mouth schal herie with lippis of ful out ioiying. 6 So Y hadde mynde on thee on my bed, in morewidis Y shal thenke of thee; 7 for thou were myn helpere. And in the keueryng of thi wyngis Y schal make `ful out ioie, my soule cleuede after thee; 8 thi riythond took me vp. 9 Forsothe thei souyten in veyn my lijf, thei schulen entre in to the lower thingis of erthe; 10 thei schulen be bitakun in to the hondis of swerd, thei schulen be maad the partis of foxis. 11 But the king schal be glad in God; and alle men schulen be preysid that sweren in hym, for the mouth of hem, that speken wickid thingis, is stoppid.

64 `In Ebrewe thus, To the victorie, the salm of Daud. `In Jerom `thus, To the ouercomer, the song of Daud. God, here thou my preier, whanne Y biseche; delyuere thou my soule fro the drede of the enemy. 2 Thou hast defendid me fro the couent of yuele doers; fro the multitude of hem that worchen wickidnesse. 3 For thei scharpiden her tungis as a swerd, thei benten a bowe, a bittir thing; 4 for to schete in priuetees hym that is vnwemmed. 5 Sodeynli thei schulen schete hym, and thei schulen not drede; thei maden stidefast to hem silf a wickid word. Thei telden, that thei schulden hide snaris; thei seiden, Who schal se hem? 6 Thei souyten wickidnessis; thei souyten, and failiden in sekinge. A man neyhe to deep herte; 7 and God schal be enhaunsid. The arowis of `lite men ben maad the woundis of hem; 8 and the tungis of hem ben maad sijk ayens hem. Alle men ben disturblid, that sien hem; 9 and ech man dredde. And thei telden the werkis of God; and vndurstoden the dedis of God. 10 The iust man schal be glad in the Lord, and schal hope in hym; and alle men of riytful herte schulen be preysid.

65 `To victorie, `the salm of the song of Daud. God, heriying bicometh thee in Syon; and a vow schal be yolden to thee in Jerusalem. 2 Here thou my preier; ech man schal come to thee. 3 The wordis of wickid men hadden the maistraye ouer vs; and thou schalt do merci to oure wickidnessis. 4 Blessid is he, whom thou hast chose, and hast take; he schal dwelle in thin hallis. We schulen be fillid with the goodis of thin hous; 5 thi temple is hooli, wondrousful in equite. God, oure heelthe, here thou vs; thou art hope of alle coostis of erthe, and in the see afer. 6 And thou makest redi hillis in thi vertu, and art gird with power; 7 which disturblist the depthe of the see, the soun of the wawis therof. 8 Folkis schulen be disturblid, and thei that dwellen in the endis schulen drede of thi signes; thou schalt delite the outgoingis of the morewid and euentid. 9 Thou hast visitid the lond, and hast greetli fillid it; thou hast multiplied to make it riche. The flood of God was fillid with watris; thou madist redi the mete of hem, for the making redi therof is so. 10 Thou fyllinge greetli the stremes therof, multiplie the fruytis therof; the lond bringinge forth fruytis schal be glad in goteris of it. 11 Thou schalt blesse the coroun of the yeer of thi good wille; and thi feeldis schulen be fillid with plentee of fruytis. 12 The feire thingis of desert schulen wexe fatte; and litle hillis schulen be compassid with ful out ioiing. 13 The wetheris of scheep ben clothid, and valeis schulen be plenteuouse of wheete; thei schulen crye, and sotheli thei schulen seye salm.

66 To the victorie, the song of salm. 2 Al the erthe, make ye ioie hertli to God, seie ye salm to his name; yyue ye glorie to his heriing. 3 Seie ye to God, Lord, thi werkis ben dredeful; in the multitude of thi vertu thin enemyes schulen lie to thee. 4 God, al the erthe worschipe thee, and syng to thee; seie it salm to thi name. 5 Come ye and se ye the werkis of God; ferdful in counseils on the sones of men. 6 Which turnede the see in to drie lond; in the flood thei schulen passe with foot, there we schulen be glad in hym. 7 Which is Lord in his vertu withouten ende, hise iyen biholden on folkis; thei that maken scharp be not enhaunsid in hem silf. 8 Ye hethen men, blesse oure God; and make ye herd the vois of his preising. 9 That hath set my soule to lijf, and yaf not my feet in to stiring. 10 For thou, God, hast preued vs; thou hast examyned vs bi fier, as siluer is examyned. 11 Thou leddist vs in to a snare, thou puttidist tribulaciouns in oure bak; 12 thou settidist men on oure heedis. We passiden bi fier and water; and thou leddist vs out in to refreschyng. 13 I schal entre in to thin hous in brent sacrifices; Y schal yelde to thee my vowis, 14 which my lippis spaken distinctly. And my mouth spake in my tribulacioun; 15 Y shal offre to thee brent sacrificis ful of merowy, with the brennyng of rammes; Y schal offre to thee oxis with buckis of geet. 16 Alle ye that dreden God, come and here, and Y schal telle; hou grete thingis he hath do to my soule. 17 I criede to hym with my mouth; and Y ioiyede fulli vndir my tunge. 18 If Y bihelde wickidnesse in myn herte; the Lord schal not here. 19 Therfor God herde; and perseyuede the vois of my bisechyng. 20 Blessid be God; that remeued not my preyer, and `took not awei his merci fro me.

67 `In Ebreu thus, To the victorie in orguns, the salm of the song. `In Jerom `thus, To the ouercomer in salmes, the song of writing of a delitable thing with metre. God haue merci on vs, and blesse vs; liytne he his cheer on vs, and haue merci on vs. 2 That we knowe thi weie on erthe; thin heelthe in alle folkis. 3 God, pupilis knowleche to thee; alle pupilis knoueleche to thee. 4 Hethen men be glad, and make fulli ioie, for thou demest pupilis in equite; and dressist hethene men in erthe. 5 God, pupilis knoueleche to thee, alle pupilis knoueleche to thee; 6 the erthe yaf his fruyt. God, oure God blesse vs, 7 God blesse vs; and alle the coostis of erthe drede hym.

68 To the victorie, the salm `of the song `of Daud. God rise vp, and hise enemyes be scatterid; and thei that haten hym fle fro his face. 2 As smoke failith, faile thei; as wax fletith fro the face of fier, so perische synneris fro the face of God. 3 And iust men eete, and make fulli ioie in the siyt of God; and delite thei in gladnesse. 4 Syng ye to God, seie ye salm to his name; make ye weie to hym, that stieth on the goyng doun, the Lord is name to hym. Make ye fulli ioie in his siyt, enemyes schulen be disturblid fro the face of hym, 5 which is the fadir of fadirles and modirles children; and the iuge of widewis. 6 God is in his hooli place; God that makith men of o wille to dwelle in the hous. Which leedith out bi strengthe hem that ben boundun; in lijk maner hem that maken scharp, that dwellen in sepulcris. 7 God, whanne thou yedist out in the siyt of thi puple; whanne thou passidist forth in the desert. 8 The erthe was moued, for heuenes droppiden doun fro the face of God of Synay; fro the face of God of Israel. 9 God, thou schalt departe wilful reyn to thin eritage, and it was sijck; but thou madist it parfit. 10 Thi beestis schulen dwelle thereynne; God, thou hast maad redi in thi swetnesse to the pore man. 11 The Lord schal yyue a word; to hem that prechen the gospel with myche vertu. 12 The kyngis of vertues ben maad loued of the derlyng; and to the fairnesse of the hous to departe spuylis. 13 If ye slepen among the myddil of eritagis, the fetheris of the culuer ben of siluer; and the hyndrere thingis of the bak therof ben in the shynying of gold. 14 While the king of heuene demeth kyngis theronne, thei schulen be maad whitter then snow in Selmon; 15 the hille of God is a fat hille. The cruddid hil is a fat hil; 16 wherto bileuen ye falsli, cruddid hillis? The hil in which it plesith wel God to dwelle thereynne; for the Lord schal dwelle `in to the ende. 17 The chare of God is manyfoold with ten thousynde, a thousynde of hem that ben glad; the Lord was in hem, in Syna, in the hooli. 18 Thou stiedist an hiy, thou tokist caitiftee; thou resseyuedist yiftis among men. For whi thou tokist hem that bileueden not; for to dwelle in the Lord God. 19 Blessid be the Lord ech dai; the God of oure heelthis schal make an eesie wei to vs. 20 Oure God is God to make men saaf; and outgoyng fro deeth is of the Lord God. 21 Netheles God schal breke the heedis of hise enemyes; the cop of the heere of hem that goen in her trespassis. 22 The Lord seide, Y schal turne fro Basan; Y schal turne in to the depthe of the see. 23 That thi foot be deppid in blood; the tunge of thi doggis be dippard in blood of the enemyes of hym. 24 God, thei sien thi goyngis yn; the goyngis yn of my God, of my king, which is in the hooli. 25 Prynces ioyned with syngeris camen bifore; in the myddil of yonge dameselis syngyng in tympanis. 26 In chirchis blesse ye God; blesse ye the Lord fro the wellis of Israel. 27 There Beniamyn, a yonge man; in the rauyschyng of mynde. The princis of Juda weren the duykis of hem; the princis of Zabulon, the princis of Neptalym. 28 God, comaunde thou to thi vertu; God, conferme thou this thing, which thou hast wrouyt in vs. 29 Fro thi temple, which is in Jerusalem; kyngis schulen offre yiftis to thee. 30 Blame thou the wielde beestis of the reheed, the gaderyng togidere of bolis is among the kien of puplis; that thei exclude hem that ben preuyd bi siluer. Distrie thou folkis that wolen batels, 31 legatis schulen come fro Egypt; Ethiopie schal come bfore the hondis therof to God. 32 Rewmes of the erthe, synge ye to God; seie ye salm to the Lord. 33 Singe ye to God; that stiede on the heuene of heuene at the eest. Lo! he schal yyue to his vois the vois of vertu, yyue ye glorie to God on Israel; 34 his greet doying and his vertu is in the cloudis. 35 God is wonderful in hise seyntis; God of Israel, he schal yyue vertu, and strengthe to his puple; blessid be God.

69 In Ebreu thus, To the victorie, on the roosis of Dauid. In Jerom thus, To the ouercomer, for the sones of Dauid. God, make thou me saaf; for watris `entriden til to my soule. 2 I am set in the slym of the depthe; and `substaunce is not. I cam in to the depthe of the see; and the tempest drenchide me. 3 I traueillide crynge, my cheekis weren maad hoose; myn iyen failiden, the while Y hope in to my God. 4 Thei that hatiden me with out cause; weren multiplied aboue the heeris of myn heed. Myn enemyes that pursueden me vniustli weren coumfortid; Y paiede thanne tho thingis, whiche Y rauschide not. 5 God, thou knowist myn vnkunnyng; and my trespassis ben not hid fro thee. 6 Lord, Lord of vertues; thei, that abiden thee, be not aschamed in me. God of Israel; thei, that seken thee, be not schent on me. 7 For Y suffride schenschipec for thee; schame hilide my face. 8 I am maad a straunger to my britheren; and a pilgryme to the sones of my modir. 9 For the feruent loue of thin hous eet me; and the schenschipis of men seiynge schenschipis to thee fellen on me. 10 And Y hilide my soule with fastyng; and it was maad in to schenschip to me. 11 And Y puttide my cloth an heire; and Y am maad to hem in to a parable. 12 Thei, that saten in the yate, spaken ayens me; and thei, that drunken wien, sungen of me. 13 But Lord, Y dresse my preier to thee; God, Y abide the tyme of good plesaunce. Here thou me in the multitude of thi mercy; in the treuthe of thin heelthe. 14 Delyuer thou me fro the cley, that Y be not faste set in; delyuere thou me fro hem that haten me, and fro depthe of watris. 15 The tempest of watir drenche not me, nethir the depthe swolowe me; nethir the pit make streit his mouth on me. 16 Lord, here thou me, for thi merci is benygne; vp the multitude of thi merciful doyngis biholde thou in to me. 17 And turne not awei thi face fro thi child; for Y am in tribulacioun, here thou me swiftli. 18 Yyue thou tente to my soule, and delyuer thou it; for myn enemyes delyuere thou me. 19 Thou knowist my schenschip, and my dispysyng; and my schame. 20 Alle that troblen me ben in thi siyt; myn herte abood schendschipec, and wretchidnesse. And Y abood hym, that was sory togidere, and noon was; and that schulde coumforte, and Y foond not. 21 And thei yauen galle in to my meete; and in my thirst thei yauen `to me drinke with vynegre. 22 The boord of hem be maad bfore hem in to a snare; and in to yeldyngis, and in to sclaudir. 23 Her iyen be maad derk, that

And thei schulen dwelle there; and thei schulen gete it bi eritage. 36 And the seed of hise seruauantis schal haue it in possessioun; and thei that louen his name, schulen dwelle ther yinne.

70 To the victorie `of Dauid, `to haue mynde. God, biholde thou in to myn heelp; Lord, hast thou to helpe me. 2 Be thei schent, and aschamed; that seken my lijf. Be thei turned a bak; and schame thei, that wolen yuels to me. 3 Be thei turned awei anoon, and schame thei; that seien to me, Well! well! 4 Alle men that seken thee, make fulli ioie, and be glad in thee; and thei that louen thin heelthe, seie euere, The Lord be magnified. 5 Forsothe Y am a nedi man, and pore; God, helpe thou me. 71 Lord, Y hopide in thee, be Y not schent with outen ende; 2 in thi riytwisnesse delyuere thou me, and rausche me out. Bowe doun thin eere to me; and make me saaf. 3 Be thou to me in to God a defendere; and in to a strengthid place, that thou make me saaf. For thou art my stidefastnesse; and my refuit. 4 My God, delyuere thou me fro the hoond of the synner; and fro the hoond of a man doynge ayens the lawe, and of the wickid man. 5 For thou, Lord, art my pacience; Lord, thou art myn hope fro my yongthe. 6 In thee Y am confermyd fro the wombe; thou art my defendere fro the wombe of my modir. 7 My syngyng is euere in thee; Y am maad as a greet wonder to many men; and thou art a strong helpere. 8 My mouth be fillid with heriyng; that Y synge thi glorie, al dai thi greetnesse. 9 Caste thou not awei me in the tyme of eldnesse; whanne my vertu failith, forsake thou not me. 10 For myn enemyes seiden of me; and thei that kepten my lijf maden counsel togidere. 11 Seiynge, God hath forsake hym; pursue ye, and take hym; for noon is that schal delyuere. 12 God, be thou not maad afer fro me; my God, biholde thou in to myn help. 13 Men that bacbiten my soule, be schent, and faile thei; and be thei hilid with schenschip and schame, that seken yuels to me. 14 But Y schal hope euere; and Y schal adde euere ouer al thi preising. 15 Mi mouth schal telle thi riytfulnesse; al dai thin helthe. For Y knewe not letrure, Y schal entre in to the poweres of the Lord; 16 Lord, Y schal bithenke on thi riytfulnesse aloone. 17 God, thou hast

Til Y telle thin arm; to eche generacioun, that schal come. Til Y telle thi myyt, 19 and thi riytfulnesse, God, til in to the hiyeste grete dedis which thou hast do; God, who is lijk thee? 20 Hou grete tribulaciouns many and yuele hast thou schewid to me; and thou conuertid hast qukenyd me, and hast eft brouyt me ayen fro the depthis of erthe. 21 Thou hast multiplied thi greet doynge; and thou conuertid hast coumfortid me. 22 For whi and Y schal knowleche to thee, thou God, thi treuthe in the instrumentis of salm; Y schal synge in an harpe to thee, that art the hooli of Israel. 23 Mi lippis schulen make fulli ioye, whanne Y schal synge to thee; and my soule, which thou ayen bouytist. 24 But and my tunge schal thenke al dai on thi riytfulnesse; whanne thei schulen be schent and aschamed, that seken yuelis to me.

72 `To Salomon. 2 God, yyue thi doom to the king; and thi riytfulnesse to the sone of a king. To deme thi puple in riytfulnesse; and thi pore men in doom. 3 Mounteyns resseyue pees to the puple; and litle hillis resseyue riytfulnesse. 4 He schal deme the pore men of the puple, and he schal make saaf the sones of pore men; and he schal make low the false chalengere. 5 And he schal dwelle with the sunne, and bfore the moone; in generacioun and in to generacioun. 6 He schal come down as reyn in to a flees; and as goteris droppinge on the erthe. 7 Riytfulnesse schal come forth in hise dayes, and the aboundaunce of pees; til the moone be takun awei. 8 And he schal be lord fro the-see `til to the see; and fro the flood til to the endis of the world. 9 Ethiopiens schulen falle down bfore hym; and hise enemyes schulen lick the erthe. 10 The kyngis of Tarsis and ilis schulen offre yiftis; the kyngis of Arabie and of Saba schulen brynge yiftis. 11 And alle kyngis schulen worschepe hym; alle folkis schulen serue hym. 12 For he schal delyuer a pore man fro the myyti; and a pore man to whom was noon helpere. 13 He schal spare a pore man and nedi; and he schal make saaf the soulis of pore men. 14 He schal ayen bie the soulis of hem fro vsuris, and wickidnesse; and the name of hem is onourable bfor hym. 15 And he schal lyue, and me schal yyue to hym of the gold of Arabie; and thei schulen euere worschepe of hym, al dai thei schulen blesse hym. 16 Stidefastnesse schal be in the erthe, in the hiyeste places of mounteyns; the fruyt therof schal be enhaunsid aboute the Liban; and thei schulen blosme fro the citee, as the hey of erthe doith. 17 His name be blessid in to worldis; his name dwelle bfore the sunne. And all the lynagis of erthe schulen be blessid in hym; alle folkis schulen magnyfie hym. 18 Blessid be the Lord God of Israel; which alone makith merueyliis. 19 Blessid be the name of his maieste with outen ende; and al erthe schal be fillid with his maieste; be it doon, be it doon. 20 `The preieris of Dauid, the sone of Ysay, ben endid.

73 `The salm of Asaph. God of Israel is ful good; to hem that ben of riytful herte. 2 But my feet weren moued almeest; my steppis weren sched out almeest. 3 For Y louede feruentli on wickid men; seyng the pees of synneris. 4 For biholdyng is not to the deth of hem; and stidefastnesse in the sikenesse of hem. 5 Thei ben not in the trauel of men; and thei schulen not be betun with men. 6 Therfore pride helde hem; thei weren hiliid with her wickidnesse and vnfeithfulnesse. 7 The wickidnesse of hem cam forth as of fatnesse; thei yeden in to desire of herte. 8 Thei thouyten and spaken weiwardnesse; thei spaken wickidnesse an hiy. 9 Thei puttiden her mouth in to heuene; and her tunge passide in erthe. 10 Therfor my puple schal be conuertid here; and fulle daies schulen be foundun in hem. 11 And thei seiden, How woot God; and whether kunnyng is an heiye, `that is, in heuene? 12 Lo! thilke synneris and hauynge aboundance in the world; helden richessis. 13 And Y seide, Therfor without cause Y iustifiede myn herte; and waischide myn hoondis among innocentis. 14 And Y was betun al dai; and my chastisyng was in moritudis. 15 If Y seide, Y schal telle thus; lo! Y repreuede the nacioun of thi sones. 16 I gesside, that Y schulde knowe this; trauel is bfore me. 17 Til Y entre in to the seyntuarie of God; and vndurstonde in the last thingis of hem. 18 Netheles for gilis thou hast put to hem; thou castidist hem down, while thei weren reisid. 19 Hou ben thei maad into desolacioun; thei failiden sodeynli, thei perischiden for her wickidnesse. 20 As the dreem of men that risen; Lord, thou schalt dryue her ymage to nouyt in thi citee. 21 For myn herte is enflaumed, and my reynes ben chaungid; 22 and Y am dryuun to nouyt, and Y wiste not. 23 As a werk beeste Y am maad at thee; and Y am euere with thee. 24 Thou heldist my riythond, and in thi wille thou leddist me forth; and with glorie thou tokist me vp. 25 For whi what is to me in heuene; and what wolde Y of thee on erthe? 26 Mi fleische and myn herte failide; God of myn herte, and my part is God withouten ende. 27 For lo! thei that drawn awei fer hem silf fro thee, `bi deedli synne, schulen perische; thou hast lost alle men that doen fornyacioun fro thee. 28 But it is good to me to cleue to God; and to sette myn hope in the Lord God. That Y telle alle thi prechyngis; in the yatis of the douyter of Syon.

74 The lernyng of Asaph. God, whi hast thou put awei in to the ende; thi strong veniaunce is wrooth on the sheep of thi leesewe? 2 Be thou myndeful of thi gadering togidere; which thou haddist in possessioun fro the bigynnyng. Thou ayenbouytist the yerde of thin eritage; the hille of Syon in which thou dwelldist ther ynn. 3 Reise thin hondis in to the prides of hem; hou grete thingis the enemy dide wickidli in the hooli. 4 And thei that hatiden thee; hadden glorie in the myddis of thi solempnete. 5 Thei settiden her signes, `ethir baneris, signes on the hiyeste, as in the outgoing; and thei knewen not. 6 As in a wode of trees thei heweden down with axis the yatis therof in to it silf; thei castiden down it with an ax, and a brood fallinge ax. 7 Thei brenten with fier thi seyntuarie; thei defouliden the tabernacle of thi name in erthe. 8 The kynrede of hem seiden togidere in her herte; Make we alle the feest daies of God to ceesse fro the erthe. 9 We han not seyn oure signes, now `no profete is; and he schal no more knowe vs. 10 God, hou long schal the enemye seie dispit? the aduersarie territh to ire thi name in to the ende. 11 Whi turnest thou awei thin hoond, and `to drawe out thi riythond fro the myddis of thi bosum, til in to the ende? 12 Forsothe God oure kyng bfore worldis; wrouyte

75 `To the ouercomere; leese thou not the salm of the song of Asaph. God, we schulen knoueleche to thee, `we schulen knoueleche; and we schulen inwardli clepe thi name. 2 We schulen telle thi merueilis; whanne Y schal take tyme, Y schal deme riytfulnesses. 3 The erthe is meltid, and alle that duellen ther ynne; Y conformede the pilers therof. 4 I seide to wickid men, Nyle ye do wickidli; and to trespassouris, Nyle ye enhaunce the horn. 5 Nyle ye reise an hiy youre horn; nyle ye speke wickidnesse ayens God. 6 For nether fro the eest, nethir fro the west, nethir fro desert hillis; for God is the iuge. 7 He mekith this man, and enhaunsith hym; for a cuppe of cleene wyn ful of meddling is in the hoond of the Lord. 8 And he bowide of this in to that; netheles the drast therof is not anyntischid; alle synneris of erthe schulen drinke therof. 9 Forsothe Y schal telle in to the world; Y schal synge to God of Jacob. 10 And Y schal breke alle the hornes of synneris; and the hornes of the iust man schulen be enhaunsid.

76 To the victorie in orguns, `the salm of the song of Asaph. God is knowun in Judee; his name is greet in Israel. 2 And his place is maad in pees; and his dwellyng is in Syon. 3 Ther he brak poweris; bowe, scheeld, swerd, and batel. 4 And thou, God, liytneest wonderful fro euerlastynge hillis; 5 alle vnwise men of herte weren troblid. Thei slepten her sleep; and alle men founden no thing of richessis in her hondis. 6 Thei that stieden on horsis; slepten for thi blamyng, thou God of Jacob. 7 Thou art feerful, and who schal ayenstonde thee? fro that tyme thin ire. 8 Fro heuene thou madist doom herd; the erthe tremblide, and restide. 9 Whanne God roos vp in to doom; to make saaf al the mylde men of erthe. 10 For the thouyt of man schal knoueleche to thee; and the relifs of thouyt schulen make a feestee dai to thee. 11 Make ye a vow, and yelde ye to youre Lord God; alle that bringen yiftis in the cumpas of it. 12 To God ferdful, and to him that takith awei the spirit of prynces; to the ferdful at the kyngis of erthe.

77 `To the ouercomere on Yditum, `the salm of Asaph. With my vois Y criede to the Lord; with my vois to God, and he yaf tent to me. 2 In the dai of my tribulacioun Y souyte God with myn hondis; in the nyyt `to fore hym, and Y am not disseyued. Mi soule forsook to be coumfortid; 3 Y was myndeful of God, and Y delitide, and Y was exercisid; and my spirit failide. 4 Myn iyen bifore took wakynge; Y was disturblid, and Y spak not. 5 I thouyte elde daies; and Y hadde in mynde euerlastinge yeeis. 6 And Y thouyte in the nyyt with myn herte; and Y was exercisid, and Y clensid my spirit. 7 Whether God schal caste awei with outen ende; ether schal he not lei to, that he be more plesid yit? 8 Ethir schal he kitte awei his merci into the ende; fro generacioun in to generacioun? 9 Ethir schal God foryete to do mercy; ether schal he withholde his mercies in his ire? 10 And Y seide, Now Y bigan; this is the chaunging of the riythond of `the hiye God. 11 I hadde mynde on the werkis of the Lord; for Y schal haue mynde fro the bigynnyng of thi merueilis. 12 And Y schal thenke in alle thi werkis; and Y schal be occupied in thi fyndyngis. 13 God, thi weie was in the hooli; what God is greet as oure God? 14 thou art God, that doist merueilis. Thou madist thi vertu knowun among puplis; 15 thou ayenbouytist in thi arm thi puple, the sones of Jacob and of Joseph. 16 God, watris sien thee, watris sien thee, and dredden; and depthis of watris weren disturblid. 17 The multitude of the soun of watris; cloudis yauen vois. 18 For whi thin arewis passen; the vois of thi thundir was in a wheel. 78 The lernyng of Asaph. Mi puple, perseyue ye my lawe; bowe youre eere in to the wordis of my mouth. 2 I schal opene my mouth in parabis; Y schal speke perfite resouns fro the bigynnyng. 3 Hou grete thingis han we herd, aud we han knowe tho; and oure fadris. telden to vs. 4 Tho ben not hid fro the sones of hem; in another generacioun. And thei telden the heriyngis of the Lord, and the vertues of hym; and hise merueilis, whyche he dide. 5 And he reiseid witnessyng in Jacob; and he settide lawe in Israel. Hou grete thingis comaundide he to oure fadris, to make tho knowun to her sones; 6 that another generacioun knowe. Sones, that schulen be born, and schulen rise vp; schulen telle out to her sones. 7 That thei sette her hope in God, and foryete not the werkis of God; and that thei seke hise comaundementis. 8 Lest thei be maad a schrewid generacioun; and terryng to wraththe, as the fadris of hem. A generacioun that dresside not his herte; and his spirit was not bileued with God. 9 The sones of Effraym, bendege a bouwe and sendynge arowis; weren turned in the dai of batel. 10 Thei kepten not the testament of God; and thei nolden go in his lawe. 11 And thei foryaten hise benefices; and hise merueils, whiche he schewide to hem. 12 He dide merueils bifore the fadris of hem in the loond of Egipt; in the feeld of Taphneos. 13 He brak the see, and ledde hem thorou; and he ordeynede the watris as in a bouge. 14 And he ledde hem forth in a cloude of the

And he castide out hethene men fro the face of hem; and bi lot he departide to hem the lond in a cord of delyng. 55 And he made the lynagis of Israel to dwelle in the tabernaclis of hem. 56 And thei temptiden, and wraththiden heiy God; and thei kepten not hise witnessyngis. 57 And thei turneden awei hem silf, and thei kepten not couenaunt; as her fadris weren turned in to a schrewid bouwe. 58 Thei stiriden him in to ire in her litle hillis; and thei terriden hym to indignacioun of her grauen ymagis. 59 God herde, and forsook; and brouyte to nouyt Israel greetli. 60 And he puttide awei the tabernacle of Sylo; his tabernacle where he dwellide among men. 61 And he bitook the vertu of hem in to caifte; and the fairnesse of hem in to the hondis of the enemye. 62 And he closide togidere his puple in swerd; and he dispiside his erytage. 63 Fier eet the yonge men of hem; and the virgyns of hem weren not biweilid. 64 The prestis of hem fellen down bi swerd; and the widewis of hem weren not biwept. 65 And the Lord was reisid, as slepynge; as miyti greetli fillid of wyne. 66 And he smoot hise enemyes on the hynderere partis; he yaf to hem euerlastyng schenschiipe. 67 And he puttide awei the tabernacle of Joseph; and he chees not the lynage of Effraym. 68 But he chees the lynage of Juda; he chees the hil of Syon, which he louede. 69 And he as an vnicorn bildide his hooli place; in the lond, which he foundide in to worldis. 70 And he chees Dauid his seruauant, and took hym vp fro the flockis of scheep; he took hym fro bihynde scheep with lambren. 71 To feed Jacob his seruauant; and Israel his eritage. 72 And he fedde hem in the innocens of his herte; and he ledde hem forth in the vndurstondyngis of his hondis.

(Sheol h7585) 4 I am gessid with hem that goon down in to the lake; Y am maad as a man with outen help, 5 and fre among deed men. As men woundid slepinge in sepulcris, of whiche men noon is myndeful aftir; and thei ben put awei fro thin hond. 6 Thei han put me in the lower lake; in derke places, and in the schadewe of deth. 7 Thi strong veniaunce is confermed on me; and thou hast brouyt in alle thi wawis on me. 8 Thou hast maad fer fro me my knowun; thei han set me abhomyacioun to hem silf. I am takun, and Y yede not out; 9 myn iyen weren sijk for pouert. Lord, Y criede to thee; al dai Y spredde abroad myn hondis to thee. 10 Whethir thou schalt do merueils to deed men; ether leechis schulen reise, and thei schulen knouleche to thee? 11 Whether oyi man in sepulcre schal telle thi merci; and thi treuthe in perdicoun? 12 Whether thi merueils schulen be knowun in derknessis; and thi riyfulness in the lond of foryetyng? 13 And, Lord, Y criede to thee; and erli my preier schal bfor come to thee. 14 Lord, whi puttist thou awei my preier; turnest awei thi face fro me? 15 I am pore, and in traueils fro my yongthe; sotheli Y am enhaunsid, and Y am maad low, and disturbid. 16 Thi wraththis passiden on me; and thi dredis disturbliden me. 17 Thi compassiden me as watir al dai; thei compassiden me togidere. 18 Thou madist fer fro me a frend and neybore; and my knowun fro wretchidnesse.

89 The lernyng of Ethan, Ezraite. I schal synge with outen ende; the mercies of the Lord. In generacioun and in to generacioun; Y schal telle thi treuthe with my mouth. 2 For thou seidist, With outen ende merci schal be bildid in heuenes; thi treuthe schal be maad redi in tho. 3 I disposide a testament to my chosun men; Y swoor to Dauid, my seruaunt, 4 Til in to with outen ende I schal make redi thi seed. And Y schal bilde thi seete; in generacioun, and in to generacioun. 5 Lord, heuenes schulen knouleche thi merueils; and thi treuthe in the chirche of seyntis. 6 For who in the cloudis schal be maad euene to the Lord; schal be lijk God among the sones of God? 7 God, which is glorified in the counsel of seyntis; is greet, and dreedful ouere alle that ben in his cumpas. 8 Lord God of vertues, who is lijk thee? Lord, thou art miyti, and thi treuthe is in thi cumpas. 9 Thou art Lord of the power of the see; forsothe thou aswagist the stiring of the wawis therof. 10 Thou madist lowe the proude, as woundid; in the arm of thi vertu thou hast scaterid thin enemyes. 11 Heuenes ben thin, and erthe is thin; thou hast foundid the world, and the fulnesse therof; 12 thou madist of nouyt the north and the see. Thabor and Hermon schulen make ful out ioye in thi name; 13 thin arm with power. Thin hond be maad stidefast, and thi riythond be enhaunsid; 14 riytfulnesse and doom is the makynge redy of thi seete. Merci and treuthe schulen go bfore thi face; 15 blessid is the puple that kan hertli song. Lord, thei schulen go in the liyt of thi cheer; 16 and in thi name thei schulen make ful out ioye al dai; and thei schulen be enhaunsid in thi riytfulnesse. 17 For thou art the glorie of the vertu of hem; and in thi good plesaunce oure horn schal be enhaunsid. 18 For oure takynge vp is of the Lord; and of the hooli of Israel oure kyng. 19 Thanne thou spakist in reuelacioun to thi seyntis, and seidist, Y haue set help in the myyti; and Y haue enhaunsid the chosun man of my puple. 20 I foond Dauid, my seruaut; Y anoyntide hym with myn hooli oile. 21 For myn hond schal helpe him; and myn arm schal conferme hym. 22 The enemye schal no thing profite in him; and the sone of wickidnesse schal not 'ley to, for to anoye him. 23 And Y schal sle hise enemyes fro his face; and Y schal turne in to flyt hem that haten hym. 24 And my treuthe and mercy schal be with him; and his horn schal be enhaunsid in my name. 25 And Y schal sette his hond in the see; and his riyt hoond in flodis. 26 He schal inwardli clepe me, Thou art my fadir; my God, and the vptaker of myn heelthe. 27 And Y schal sette him the firste gendrid sone; hiyer than the kyngis of erthe. 28 With outen ende Y schal kepe my merci to hym; and my testament feithful to him. 29 And Y schal sette his seed in to the world of world; and his trone as the daies of heuene. 30 Forsothe if hise sones forsaken my lawe; and goen not in my domes. 31 If thei maken vnhooli my riytfulnes; and kepen not my comaundementis. 32 I schal visite in a yerde the wickidnessis of hem; and in betyngis the synnes of hem. 33 But Y schal not scatere my mercy fro hym; and in my treuthe Y schal not anoye hym. 34 Nethir Y schal make vnhooli my testament; and Y schal not make voide tho thingis that comen forth of my lippis. 35 Onys Y swoor in myn hooli; 36 Y schal not lie to Dauid, his seed schal dwelle with outen ende. 37 And his trone as sunne in my siyt, and as a perfit mone with outen ende; and a feithful wisse in heuene. 38 But thou hast put awei, and hast dispisid; and hast dilaid thi crist. 39 Thou hast turned awei the testament of thi seruaut; thou madist vnhooli his seyntuarie in erthe. 40 Thou distriedist alle the heggis therof; thou hast set the stidefastnesse therof drede. 41 Alle men passynge bi the weie rauyschiden him; he is maad schenscipe to hise neyboris. 42 Thou hast enhaunsid the riythond of men oppressing him; thou hast gladid alle hise enemyes. 43 Thou hast turned awei the help of his swerd; and thou helpidist not hym in batel. 44 Thou destriedist him fro clensing; and thou hast hurtlid down his seete in erthe. 45 Thou hast maad lesse the daies of his time; thou hast bisched him with schenschip. 46 Lord, hou longe turnest thou awei in to the ende; schal thin ire brenne out as fier? 47 Bithenke thou what is my substaunce; for whether thou hast ordeyned veynli alle the sones of men? 48 Who is a man, that schal lyue, and schal not se deth; schal delyuere his soule fro the hond of helle? (Sheol h7585) 49 Lord, where ben thin elde mercies; as thou hast swore to Dauid in thi treuthe? 50 Lord, be thou mynde of the schenscipe of thi seruautis, of many hethene men; whiche Y helde togidere in my bosum. 51 Whiche thin enemyes, Lord, diden schenschipfuli; for thei dispisiden the chaunging of thi crist. 52 Blessid be the Lord with outen ende; be it don, be it don.

90 The preier of Moises, the man of God. Lord, thou art maad help to vs; fro generacioun in to generacioun. 2 Bfore that hillis weren maad, ether the erthe and the world was formed; fro the world and in to the world thou art God. 3 Turne thou not awei a man in to lownesse; and thou seidist, Ye sones of men, be conuertid. 4 For a thousynde yeer ben bfore thin iyen; as yistirdai, which is passid, and as keping in the niyt. 5 The yeeris of hem schulen be; that ben had for nouyt. 6 Eerli passe he, as an eerbe, eerli florische he, and passe; in the euentid falle he down, be he hard, and wexe drie. 7 For we han failid in thin ire; and we ben disturblid in thi strong veniaunce. 8 Thou hast set oure wickidnessis in thi siyt; oure world in the liytning of thi cheer. 9 For alle oure daies han failid; and we han failid in thin ire. Oure yeris schulen bithenke, as an yreyn; 10 the daies of oure yeeris ben in tho seuenti yeeris. Forsothe, if fourescoor yeer ben in myyti men; and the more tyme of hem is trauel and sorewe. For myldenesse cam aboue; and we schulen be chastisid. 11 Who knew the power of thin ire; and durste noumbre thin ire for thi drede? 12 Make thi riythond so knowun; and make men lerned in herte bi wisdom. 13 Lord, be thou conuertid sumdeel; and be thou able to be preied on thi seruautis. 14 We weren fillid eerli with thi merci; we maden ful out ioye, and we delitiden in alle oure daies. 15 We weren glad for the daies in whiche thou madist vs meke; for the yeeris in whiche we siyen yuels. 16 Lord, biholde thou into thi seruautis, and in to thi werkis; and dresse thou the sones of hem. 17 And the schynning of oure Lord God be on vs; and dresse thou the werkis of oure hondis on vs, and dresse thou the werk of oure hondis.

91 He that dwelleth in the help of the hiyeste God; schal dwelle in the proteccioun of God of heuene. 2 He schal seie to the Lord, Thou art myn vptaker, and my refuit; my God, Y schal hope in him. 3 For he delyuered me fro the snare of hunters; and fro a sharp word. 4 With hise schuldris he schal make schadowe to thee; and thou schalt haue hope vnder hise fetheris. 5 His treuthe schal cumpasse thee with a scheld; thou schalt not drede of nyttis drede. 6 Of an arowe flyng in the dai, of a gobelyn goynge in derknessis; of asailing, and a myddai feend. 7 A thousynde schulen falle down fro thi side, and ten thousynde fro thi riytside; forsothe it schal not neie to thee. 8 Netheles thou schalt biholde with thin iyen; and thou schalt se the yielding of synneris. 9 For thou, Lord, art my hope; thou hast set this help althertiest. 10 Yuel schal not come to thee; and a scourge schal not neie to thi tabernacle. 11 For God hath comaundid to hise aungels of thee; that thei kepe thee in alle thi weies. 12 Thei schulen beere thee in the hondis; leste perauenture thou hirte thi foot at a stoon. 13 Thou schalt go on a snake, and a cocatrice; and thou schalt defoule a lion and a dragoun. 14 For he hopide in me, Y schal delyuere hym; Y schal defende him, for he knew my name. 15 He criede to me, and Y schal here him, Y am with him in tribulacioun; Y schal delyuere him, and Y schal glorifie hym. 16 I schal fille hym with the lengthe of daies; and Y schal schewe myn helthe to him.

92 The salm of `song, in the dai of sabath. It is good to knouleche to the Lord; and to synge to thi name, thou hiyeste. 2 To schewe eerli thi merci; and thi treuthe bi nytt. 3 In a sautrie of ten cordis; with song in harpe. 4 For thou, Lord, hast delitid me in thi makyng; and Y schal make ful out ioie in the werkis of thin hondis. 5 Lord, thi werkis ben magnified greetli; thi thouytis ben maad ful depe. 6 An vnwise man schal not knowe; and a fool schal not vnderstonde these thingis. 7 Whanne synneris comen forth, as hey; and alle thei apperen, that worchen wickidnesse. 8 That thei perische in to the world of world; forsothe thou, Lord, art the hiyest, withouten ende. For lo! 9 Lord, thin enemyes, for lo! thin enemyes schulen perische; and alle schulen be scatterid that worchen wickidnesse. 10 And myn horn schal be reisid as an vnicorn; and myn eelde in plenteuouse merci. 11 And myn iye dispisid myn enemyes; and whanne wickid men rysen ayens me, myn eere schal here. 12 A iust man schal floure as a palm tree; he schal be multiplied as a cedre of Liban. 13 Men plauntid in the hous of the Lord; schulen floure in the porchis of the hous of oure God. 14 Yit thei schulen be multiplied in plenteuouse elde; and thei schulen be suffryng wel. 15 That thei telle, that oure Lord God is riyful; and no wickidnesse is in hym.

93 The Lord hath regned, he is clothid with fairnesse; the Lord is clothid with strengthe, and hath gird hym self. 2 For he made stidefast the world; that schal not be moued. 3 God, thi seete was maad redi fro that tyme; thou art fro the world. The snare is al to-broken; and we ben delyuered. 8 Oure helpe is in the name of the Lord; that made heuene and erthe.

125 `The song of greces. Thei that tristen in the Lord ben as the hil of Syon; he schal not be moued with outen ende, 2 that dwellith in Jerusalem. Hillis ben in the cumpas of it, and the Lord is in the cumpas of his puple; fro this tyme now and in to the world. 3 For the Lord schal not leeu the yerde of synneris on the part of iust men; that iust men holde not forth her hondis to wickidnesse. 4 Lord, do thou wel; to good men, and of riyful herte. 5 But the Lord schal lede them that bowen in to obligaciouns, with hem that worchen wickidnesse; pees be on Israel.

But thei comynge schulen come with ful out ioiying; berynge her handfullis.

127 The song of greces of Salomon. `No but the Lord bilde the hous; thei that biden it han trauelid in veyn. No but the Lord kepith the citee; he wakith in veyn that kepith it. 2 It is veyn to you to rise bfore the liyt; rise ye after that ye han sete, that eten the breed of sorewe. Whanne he schal yyue sleep to his loued; lo! 3 the eritage of the Lord `is sones, the mede is the fruyt of wombe. 4 As arowis ben in the hond of the miyti; so the sones of hem that ben schakun out. 5 Blessid is the man, that hath fillid his desier of tho; he schal not be schent, whanne he schal speke to hise enemyes in the yate.

128 The song of greces. Blessid ben alle men, that dreden the Lord; that gon in hise weies. 2 For thou schalt ete the trauels of thin hondis; thou art blessid, and it schal be wel to thee. 3 Thi wijf as a plenteous vyne; in the sidis of thin hous. Thi sones as the newe sprenges of olyue trees; in the cumpas of thi bord. 4 Lo! so a man schal be blessid; that dredith the Lord. 5 The Lord blesse thee fro Syon; and se thou the goodis of Jerusalem in alle the daies of thi lijf. 6 And se thou the sones of thi sones; se thou pees on Israel.

129 The song of greces. Israel seie now; Ofte thei fouyten ayens me fro my yongth. 2 Ofte thei fouyten ayens me fro my yongthe; and sotheli thei miyten not to me. 3 Synneris forgeden on my bak; thei maden long her wickidnesse. 4 The `iust Lord schal beete the nollis of synneris; 5 alle that haten Sion be schent, and turned abak. 6 Be thei maad as the hey of hous coppis; that driede vp, bfore that it be drawun vp. 7 Of which hei he that schal repe, schal not fille his hond; and he that schal gadere hondfullis, schal not fille his bosum. 8 And thei that passiden forth seiden not, The blessing of the Lord be on you; we blessiden you in the name of the Lord.

Lord, Y criede to thee fro depthes; Lord, here thou mi vois. 2 Thin eeris be maad ententif; in to the vois of my biseching. 3 Lord, if thou kepist wickidnessis; Lord, who schal susteyne? 4 For merci is at thee; and, Lord, for thi lawe Y abood thee. 131 The song of greces, `to Dauith himself. Lord, myn herte is not enhaunsid; nether myn iyen ben reisid. Nether Y yede in the grete thingis; nether in merueilis aboute me. 2 If Y feelide not mekely; but enhaunsid my soule. As a childe wenyde on his modir; so yelding be in my soule. 3 Israel hope in the Lord; fro this tyme now and in to the world.

132 The song of greces. Lord, haue thou mynde on Daud; and of al his myldenesse. 2 As he swoor to the Lord; he made a vowe to God of Jacob. 3 I schal not entre in to the tabernacle of myn hous; Y schal not stie in to the bed of mi restyng. 4 I schal not yyue sleep to myn iyen; and napping to myn iye liddis. 5 And rest to my templis, til Y fynde a place to the Lord; a tabernacle to God of Jacob. 6 Lo! we herden that arke of testament in Efrata, `that is, in Silo; we founden it in the feeldis of the wode. 7 We schulen entre in to the tabernacle of hym; we schulen worschipe in the place, where hise feet stoden. 8 Lord, rise thou in to thi reste; thou and the ark of thin halewing. 9 Thi prestis be clothid with riytfulnesse; and thi seyntis make ful out ioye. 10 For Daid, thi seruauant; turne thou not aweil the face of thi crist. 11 The Lord swoor treuthe to Daid, and he schal not make hym veyn; of the fruyt of thi wombe Y schal sette on thi seete. 12 If thi sones schulen kepe my testament; and my witnessings, these whiche Y schal teche hem. And the sones of hem til in to the world; thi schulen sette on thi seete. 13 For the Lord chees Sion; he chees it in to dwelling to hym silf. 14 This is my reste in to the world of world; Y schal dwelle here, for Y chees it. 15 I blessynge schal blesse the widewe of it; Y schal fille with looues the pore men of it. 16 I schal clothe with heelthe the preestis therof; and the hooli men therof schulen make ful out ioye in ful reioisinge. 17 Thidir Y schal bringe forth the horn of Daid; Y made redi a lanterne to my crist. 18 I schal clothe hise enemyes with schame; but myn halewing schal floure out on hym.

133 The song of grecis. Lo! hou good and hou myrie it is; that britheren dwelle togidere. 2 As oynement in the heed; that goith down in to the beard, in to the beard of Aaron. Ye that stonden in the hous of the Lord; in the hallis of `the hous of oure God. 2 In nyttis reise youre hondis in to hooli thingis; and blesse ye the Lord. 3 The Lord blesse thee fro Syon; which Lord made heuene and erthe.

135 Alleluya. Herie ye the name of the Lord; ye seruauantis of the Lord, herie ye. 2 Ye that stonden in the hous of the Lord; in the hallis of `the hous of oure God. 3 Herie ye the Lord, for the Lord is good; singe ye to his name, for it is swete. 4 For the Lord chees Jacob to him silf; Israel in to possessioun to him silf. 5 For Y haue knowe, that the Lord is greet; and oure God bfore alle goddis. 6 The Lord made alle thingis, what euere thingis he wolde, in heuene and in erthe; in the see, and in alle depthis of watris. 7 He ledde out cloudis fro the ferthest part of erthe; and made leitis in to reyn. Which bringith forth wyndis fro hise tresours; 8 which killide the firste gendrid thingis of Egypt, fro man `til to beeste. 9 He sente out signes and grete wondris, in the myddil of thee, thou Egypt; in to Farao and in to alle hise seruauantis. 10 Which smoot many folkis; and killide stronge kingis. 11 Seon, the king of Ammorreis, and Og, the king of Basan; and alle the rewmes of Chanaan. 12 And he yaf the lond of hem eritage; eritage to Israel, his puple. 13 Lord, thi name is with outen ende; Lord, thi memorial be in generacioun and in to generacioun. 14 For the Lord schal deme his puple; and he schal be pried in hise seruauantis. 15 The symulacris of hethene men ben siluer and gold; the werkis of the hondis of Knouleche ye to God of heuene. 26 Knouleche ye to the Lord of lordis; for his merci is with outen ende.

137 On the floodis of Babiloyne there we saten, and wepten; while we bithouyten on Syon. 2 In salewis in the myddil therof; we hangiden vp oure organs. 3 For thei that ledden vs prisoners; axiden vs there the wordis of songis. And thei that ledden aweil vs seiden; Synge ye to vs an ympne of the songis of Syon. 4 Hou schulen we singe a songe of the Lord; in an alien lond? 5 If Y foryete thee, Jerusalem; my riyt hond be youun to foryeting. 6 Mi tunge cleue to my chekis; if Y bithenke not on thee. If Y purposide not of thee, Jerusalem; in the bigynnyng of my gladnesse. 7 Lord, haue thou mynde on the sones of Edom; for the dai of Jerusalem. Whiche seien, Anyntische ye, anyntische ye; `til to the foundement ther ynne. 8 Thou wretchid douyter of Babiloyne; he is blessid, that `schal yelde to thee thi yelding, which thou yeldidist to vs. 9 He is blessid, that schal holde; and hurtle down hise lile children at a stoon.

138 `To Dauith him silf. Lord, Y schal knouleche to thee in al myn herte; for thou herdist the wordis of my mouth. Mi God, Y schal singe to thee in the siyt of aungels; 2 Y schal worschipe to thin hooli temple, and Y schal knouleche to thi name. On thi merci and thi treuthe; for thou hast magnefied thin hooli name aboue al thing. 3 In what euere dai Y schal inwardli clepe thee, here thou me; thou schalt multipli vertu in my soule. 4 Lord, alle the kingis of erthe knouleche to thee; for thei herden alle the wordis of thi mouth. 5 And singe thei in the weies of the Lord; for the glorie of the Lord is greet. 6 For the Lord is hiy, and

139 To victorie, the salm of Dauith. Lord, thou hast preued me, and hast knowe me; 2 thou hast knowe my sitting, and my rising ayen. 3 Thou hast vnderstonde my thouytis fro fer; thou hast enquerid my path and my corde. 4 And thou hast bifor seien alle my weies; for no word is in my tunge. 5 Lo! Lord, thou hast knowe alle thingis, the laste thingis and elde; thou hast formed me, and hast set thin hond on me. 6 Thi kunnyng is maad wondirful of me; it is coumfortid, and Y schal not mowe to it. 7 Whidir schal Y go fro thi spirit; and whider schal Y fle fro thi face? 8 If Y schal stie in to heuene, thou art there; if Y schal go down to helle, thou art present. (Sheol h7585) 9 If Y schal take my fetheris ful eerli; and schal dwelle in the last partis of the see. 10 And sotheli thider thin hond schal leede me forth; and thi riyt hond schal holde me. 11 And Y seide, In hap derknessis schulen defoule me; and the nytt is my liytning in my delicis. 12 For whi derknessis schulen not be maad derk fro thee, aud the niyt schal be liytred as the dai; as the derknessis therof, so and the liyt therof. 13 For thou haddist in possessioun my reines; thou tokist me vp fro the wombe of my modir. 14 I schal knoueche to thee, for thou art magniefied dreedfuli; thi werkis ben wondirful, and my soule schal knoueche ful miche. 15 Mi boon, which thou madist in priuete, is not hyd fro thee; and my substaunce in the lower partis of erthe. 16 Thin iyen sien myn vnperfit thing, and alle men schulen be writun in thi book; daies schulen be formed, and no man is in tho. 17 Forsothe, God, thi frendis ben maad onourable ful myche to me; the princeheed of hem is coumfortid ful myche. 18 I schal noumbre hem, and thei schulen be multiplied aboue grauel; Y roos vp, and yit Y am with thee. 19 For thou, God, schalt slee synneris; ye menquelleris, bowe awei fro me. 20 For ye seien in thouyt; Take thei her citees in vanite. 21 Lord, whether Y hatide not hem that hatiden thee; and Y failide on thin enemyes? 22 Bi perfite haterede Y hatide hem; thei weren maad enemyes to me. 23 God, preue thou me, and knowe thou myn herte; axe thou me, and knowe thou my pathis. 24 And se thou, if weie of wickidnesse is in me; and lede thou me forth in euerlastinge wei.

140 To victorie, the salm of Dauith. Lord, delyuere thou me fro an yuel man; delyuere thou me fro a wickid man. 2 Whiche thouyten wickidnesses in the herte; al dai thei ordeyneden batels. 3 Thei scharpiden her tungis as serpentis; the venym of snakis vndir the lippis of hem. 4 Lord, kepe thou me fro the hond of the synnere; and delyuere thou me fro wickid men. Which thouyten to disseyue my goyngis; 5 proude men hidden a snare to me. And thei leiden forth cordis in to a snare; thei settiden sclauindir to me bisidis the weie. 6 I seide to the Lord, Thou art mi God; Lord, here thou the vois of my biseching. 7 Lord, Lord, the vertu of myn heelthe; thou madist shadowe on myn heed in the dai of batel. 8 Lord, bitake thou not me fro my 141 The salm of Dauith. Lord, Y criede to thee, here thou me; yyue thou tent to my vois, whanne Y schal crye to thee. 2 Mi preier be dressid as encense in thi siyt; the reisyng of myn hondis be as the euentid sacrifice. 3 Lord, sette thou a keping to my mouth; and a dore of standing aboute to my lippis. 4 Bowe thou not myn herte in to wordis of malice; to excuse excusingis in synne. With men worching wickidnesse; and Y schal not comyne with the chosun men of hem. 5 A iust man schal repreue me in mersi, and schal blame me; but the oile of a synner make not fat myn heed. For whi and yit my preier is in the wel plesaunt thingis of hem; 6 for the domesmen of hem ioyned to the stoon weren sopun vp. Here thei my wordis, 7 for tho weren myyti. As fatnesse is brokun out on the erthe; oure bonys ben scatered niy helle. Lord, Lord, (Sheol h7585) 8 for myn iyen ben to thee, Y hopide in thee; take thou not awei my soule. 9 Kepe thou me fro the snare which thei ordeyneden to me; and fro the sclauindris of hem that worchen wickidnesse. With my vois Y criede to the Lord; with my vois Y preiede hertli to the Lord. 2 I schede out my preier in his siyt; and Y pronounce my tribulacioun bifor him. 3 While my spirit failith of me; and thou hast knowe my pathis. In this weie in which Y yede; proude men hidden a snare to me. 4 I bihelde to the riyt side, and Y siy; and noon was that knew me. Fliyt perischide fro me; and noon is that sekith my soule. 5 Lord, Y criede to thee, Y seide, Thou art myn hope; my part in the lond of lyueris. 6 Yyue thou tent to my biseching; for Y am maad low ful greetli. Delyuere thou me fro hem that pursuen me; for thei ben coumfortid on me. 7 Lede my soule out of keping to knoueche to thi name; iust men abiden me, til thou yelde to me.

143 The salm of Dauid. Proverbs

1 The parables of Salomon, the sone of Dauid, king of Israel; 2 to kunne wisdom and kunnyng; 3 to vnderstande the wordis of prudence; and to take the lernyng of teching; to take rythfulnesse, and dom, and equyte; 4 that felnesse be youun to litle children, and kunnyng, and vnderstanding to a yong wexyng man. 5 A wise man heringe schal be wisere; and a man vnderstandinge schal holde gouernails. 6 He schal persewue a parable, and expownyng; the wordis of wise men, and the derk figuratif spechis of hem. 7 The drede of the Lord is the bigynning of wisdom; foolis dispisen wisdom and teching. 8 My sone, here thou the teching of thi fadir, and forsake thou not the lawe of thi modir; 9 that grace be addid, ethir encreessid, to thin heed, and a bie to thi necke. 10 Mi sone, if synneris flateren thee, assente thou not to hem. 11 If thei seien, Come thou with vs, sette we aspies to blood, hide we snaris of disseitis ayens an innocent without cause; 12 swolowe we him, as helle swolowith a man lyuynge; and al hool, as goynge down in to a lake; we schulen fynde al preciose catel, (Sheol h7585) 13 we schulen fille oure housis with spuylis; sende thou lot with vs, 14 o purs be of vs alle; 15 my sone, go thou not with hem; forbede thi foot fro the pathis of hem. 16 For the feet of hem rennen to yuel; and thei hasten to schede out blood. 17 But a net is leid in veyn bfore the iyen of briddis, that han wengis. 18 Also `thilke wickid disseyueris setten aspies ayens her owne blood; and maken redi fraudis ayens her soulis. 19 So the pathis of ech auerouse man rauyschen the soulis of hem that welden. 20 Wisdom prechith with outforth; in stretis it yueth his vois. 21 It crieth ofte in the heed of cumpenyres; in the leeuys of yatis of the citee it bringith forth hise wordis, 22 and seith, Hou long, ye litle men in wit, louen yong childhod, and foolis schulen coueyte tho thingis, that ben harmful to hem silf, and vnprudent men schulen hate kunnyng? 23 Be ye conuertid at my repreuyng; lo, Y schal profre forth to you my spirit, and Y schal schewe my wordis. 24 For Y clepide, and ye forsoken; Y helde forth myn hond, and noon was that bihelde. 25 Ye dispisiden al my counsel; and chargiden not my blamyngis. 26 And Y schal leiye in youre perisching; and Y schal scorne you, whanne that, that ye dreden, cometh to you. 27 Whanne sodeyne wretchidnesse fallith in, and perisching bifallith as tempest; whanne tribulacioun and angwisch cometh on you. 28 Thanne thei schulen clepe me, and Y schal not here; thei schulen rise eerli, and thei schulen not fynde me. 29 For thei hatiden teching, and thei token not the drede of the Lord, 30 nether assentiden to my counsel, and depraueden al myn amendyng. 31 Therfor thei schulen ete the fruytis of her weie; and thei schulen be fillid with her counseils. 32 The turnyng awei of litle men in wit schal sle hem; and the prosperite of foolis schal leese hem. 33 But he that herith me, schal reste with outen drede; and he schal vse abundaunce, whanne the drede of yuels is takun awei.

2 Mi sone, if thou resseyuest my wordis, `and hidist myn heestis anentis thee; 2 that thin eere here wisdom, bowe thin herte to knowe prudence. 3 For if thou inwardli clepist wisdom, and bowist thin herte to prudence; 4 if thou sekist it as money, and diggist it out as tresours; 5 thanne thou schalt vnderstande the drede of the Lord, and schalt fynde the kunnyng of God. 6 For the Lord yueth wisdom; and prudence and kunnyng is of his mouth. 7 He schal kepe the heelte of rythful men, and he schal defende hem that goen sympli. 8 And he schal kepe the pathis of rythfulnesse, and he schal kepe the weies of hooli men. 9 Thanne thou schalt vnderstande rythfulnesse, and dom, and equytee, and ech good path. 10 If wysdom entrith in to thin herte, and kunnyng plesith thi soule, 11 good counsel schal kepe thee, and prudence schal kepe thee; that thou be deluyered fro an yuel weie, 12 and fro a man that spekith weiwad thingis. 13 Whiche forsaken a rythful weie, and goen bi derk weies; 14 whiche ben glad, whanne thei han do yuel, and maken ful out ioye in worste thingis; 15 whose weies ben weywerd, and her goyngis ben of yuel fame. 16 That thou be deluyered fro an alien womman, and fro a straunge womman, that makith soft hir wordis; 17 and forsakith the duyck of hir tyme of mariage, 18 and hath foryete the couenaunt of hir God. For the hous of hir is bowid to deeth, and hir pathis to helle. 19 Alle that entren to hir, schulen not turne ayen, nether schulen catche the pathis of lijf. 20 That thou go in a good weie, and kepe the pathis of iust men. 21 Forsothe thei that ben rythful, schulen dwelle in the lond; and symple men schulen perfilti dwelle ther ynne. 22 But vnfeithful men schulen be lost fro the loond; and thei that doen wickidli, schulen be takun away fro it.

3 Mi sone, foryete thou not my lawe; and thyn herte kepe my comaundementis. 2 For tho schulen sette to thee the lengthe of daies, and the yeeris of lijf, and pees. 3 Merci and treuthe forsake thee not; bynde thou tho to thi throte, and write in the tablis of thin herte. 4 And thou schalt fynde grace, and good teching bfore God and men. 5 Haue thou trist in the Lord, of al thin herte; and triste thou not to thi prudence. 6 In alle thi weies denke thou on hym, and he schal dresse thi goyngis. 7 Be thou not wijs anentis thi silf; drede thou God, and go awei fro yuel. 8 For whi helthe schal be in thi nawle, and moisting of thi boonys. 9 Onoure thou the Lord of thi catel, and of the beste of alle thi fruytis yvue thou to pore men; 10 and thi bernes schulen be fillid with abundaunce, and pressours schulen flowe with wiyn. 11 My sone, caste thou not awei the teching of the Lord; and faile thou not, whanne thou art chastisid of him. 12 For the Lord chastisith hym, whom he loueth; and as a fadir in the sone he plesith hym. 13 Blessid is the man that fyndith wisdom, and which flowith with prudence. 14 The geting therof is betere than the marchaundie of gold and of siluer; the fruytis therof ben the firste and clenneste. 15 It is precioussere than alle richessis; and alle thingis that ben desirid, moun not be comparisound to this. 16 Lengthe of daies is in the riythalf therof, and richessis and glorie ben in the lifthalf therof. 17 The weies therof ben feire weies, and alle the pathis therof ben pesible. 18 It is a tre of lijf to hem that taken it; and he that holdith it, is blessid. 19 The Lord foundide the erthe bi wisdom; he stablischide heuenes bi prudence. 20 The depthis of watris braken out bi his wisdom; and cloudis wexen togidere bi dewe. 21 My sone, these thingis flete not away fro thin iyen; kepe thou my lawe, and my counsel;

22 and lijf schal be to thi soule, and grace `schal be to thi chekis. 23 Thanne thou schalt go tristili in thi weie; and thi foot schal not snapere. 24 If thou schalt slepe, thou schalt not drede; thou schalt reste, and thi sleep schal be soft. 25 Drede thou not bi sudeyne feer, and the powers of wickid men fallynge in on thee. 26 For the Lord schal be at thi side; and he schal kepe thi foot, that thou be not takun. 27 Nil thou forbede to do wel him that mai; if thou maist, and do thou wel. 28 Seie thou not to thi frend, Go, and turne thou ayen, and to morewe Y schal yyue to thee; whanne thou maist yyue anoon. 29 Ymagine thou not yuel to thi frend, whanne he hath trist in thee. 30 Stryue thou not ayens a man with out cause, whanne he doith noon yuel to thee. 31 Sue thou not an vniust man, sue thou not hise weies. 32 For ech disseyuer is abhominacioun of the Lord; and his speking is with simple men. 33 Nedinesse is sent of the Lord in the hous of a wickid man; but the dwelling places of iust men schulen be blessid. 34 He schal scornere scorneris; and he schal yyue grace to mylde men. 35 Wise men schulen haue glorie; enhaunsing of foolis is schenscipe.

4 Sones, here ye the teching of the fadir; and perseiue ye, that ye kunne prudence. 2 Y schal yyue to you a good yifte; forsake ye not my lawe. 3 For whi and Y was the sone of my fadir, a tendir sone, and oon `gendride bifore my modir. 4 And my fadir tauyte me, and seide, Thin herte resseyue my wordis; kepe thou myn heestis, and thou schalt lyue. 5 Welde thou wisdom, welde thou prudence; foryete thou not, nethir bowe thou awaye fro the wordis of my mouth. 6 Forsake thou not it, and it schal kepe thee; loue thou it, and it schal kepe thee. 7 The bigynnyng of wisdom, welde thou wisdom; and in al thi possessioun gete thou prudence. 8 Take thou it, and it schal enhaunse thee; thou schalt be glorified of it, whanne thou hast biclippid it. 9 It schal yyue encresyngis of graces to thin heed; and a noble coroun schal defende thee. 10 Mi sone, here thou, and take my wordis; that the yeris of lijf be multiplied to thee. 11 Y schal schewe to thee the weie of wisdom; and Y schal lede thee bi the pathis of equyte. 12 In to whiche whanne thou hast entrid, thi goyngis schulen not be maad streit; and thou schalt rennen, and schalt not haue hirtynge. 13 Holde thou teching, and forsake it not; kepe thou it, for it is thi lijf. 14 Delite thou not in the pathis of wyckid men; and the weie of yuele men plese not thee. 15 Fle thou fro it, and passe thou not therbi; bowe thou aweie, and forsake it. 16 For thei slepen not, `no but thei han do yuele; and sleep is rauyschid fro hem, no but thei han disseyued. 17 Thei eten the breed of vnpite, and drinken the wyn of wickidnesse. 18 But the path of iust men goith forth as liyt schynynge, and encressith til to perfyt dai. 19 The weie of wickid men is derk; thei witen not where thei schulen falle. 20 Mi sone, herkene thou my wordis; and bowe doun thin eeris to my spechis. 21 Go not tho aweie fro thyn iyen; kepe thou hem in the myddil of thin herte. 22 For tho ben lijf to men fyndynge thoo, and heelte `of al fleisch. 23 With al keping kepe thin herte, for lijf cometh forth of it. 24 Remoue thou a schrewid mouth fro thee; and backbitynge lippis be fer fro thee. 25 Thin iyen se riyful thingis; and thin iyeliddis go bifore thi steppis. 26 Dresse thou pathis to thi feet, and alle thi weies schulen be stablischid. 27 Bowe thou not to the riytside, nether to the leftside; turne aweie thi foot fro yuel. For the Lord knowith the weies that ben at the riytside; but the weies ben weiward, that ben at the leftside. Forsothe he schal make thi goyngis riyful; and thi weies schulen be brouyt forth in pees.

5 Mi sone, perseiue thou my wisdom, and bowe doun thin eere to my prudence; that thou kepe thi thouytis, 2 and thi lippis kepe teching. Yyue thou not tent to the falsnesse of a womman; 3 for the lippis of an hooere ben an hony coomb droppinge, and hir throte is clerere than oile; 4 but the last thingis ben bittir as wormod, and hir tunge is scharp as a swerd keruyng on ech side. 5 Hir feet gon doun in to deeth; and hir steppis persen to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 6 Tho goon not bi the path of lijf; hir steppis ben vncerteyn, and moun not be souyt out. 7 Now therfor, my sone, here thou me, and go not aweie fro the wordis of my mouth. 8 Make fer thi weie fro hir, and neie thou not to the doris of hir hous. 9 Yyue thou not thin onour to aliens, and thi yeeris to the cruel; 10 lest perauenture straungeris be fillid with thi strengthis, and lest thi trauels be in an alien hous; 11 and thou biweile in the laste daies, whanne thou hast wastid thi fleschis, and thi bodi; and thou seie, 12 Whi wlatide Y teching, and myn herte assentide not to blamyngis; 13 nether Y herde the voys of men techinge me, and Y bowide not doun myn eere to maistris? 14 Almest Y was in al yuel, in the myddis of the chirche, and of the synagoge. 15 Drinkte thou watir of thi cisterne, and the floodis of thi pit. 16 Thi wellis be stremed forth; and departe thi watris in stretis. 17 Haue thou aloone `tho watris; and aliens be not thi parceneris. 18 Thi veyne be blessid; and be thou glad with the womman of thi yong wexyng age. 19 An hynde moost dereworthe; and an hert calf moost acceptable. Hir teetis fille thee in al tyme; and delite thou contynueli in the loue of hir. 20 Mi sone, whi art thou disseyued of an alien womman; and art fostrid in the bosom of an other? 21 The Lord seeth the weie of a man; and biholdith alle hise steppis. 22 The wickidnesse of a wyckid man taken hym; and he is boundun with the roopis of hise synnes. 23 He schal die, for he hadde not lernynge; and he schal be disseyued in the mychilnesse of his fooli.

6 Mi sone, if thou hast bihiyt for thi freend; thou hast fastned thin hoond at a straunger. 2 Thou art boundun bi the wordis of thi mouth; and thou art takun with thin owne wordis. 3 Therfor, my sone, do thou that that Y seie, and delyuere thi silf; for thou hast fallun in to the hond of thi neybore. Renne thou aboute, haste thou, reise thi freend; 4 yyue thou not sleep to thin iyen, nether thin iyeliddis nappe. 5 Be thou rauyschid as a doo fro the hond; and as a bridde fro aspiyngis of the foulere. 6 O! thou slowe man, go to the `amte, ether pissemeyre; and biholde thou hise weies, and lerne thou wisdom. 7 Which whanne he hath no duyck, nethir comaundour, nether prince; 8 makith redi in somer mete to hym silf, and gaderith togidere in heruest that, that he schal etc. 9 Hou long schalt thou, slow man, slepe? whanne schalt thou rise fro thi sleep? 10 A litil thou schalt slepe, a litil thou schalt nappe; a litil thou schalt ioyne togidere thin hondis, that thou slepe. 11 And nedynesse, as a weigoere, schal come to thee; and pouert, as an armed man. Forsothe if thou art not slow, thi ripe corn schal come as a welle; and nedynesse schal fle fer fro thee. 12 A man apostata, a man vnprofitable, he goith with a weiward mouth; 13 he bekeneth with iyen, he trampith with the foot, he spekith with the fyngur, 14 bi schrewid herte he ymagyneth yuel, and in al tyme he sowith dissenciouns. 15 His perdicion schal come to hym anoon, and he schal be brokun sodeynli; and he schal no more haue medecyn. 16 Sixe thingis ben, whyche the Lord hatith; and hise soule cursith the seuenthe thing. 17 Hiye iyen, a tunge liere, hondis scheduling out innocent blood, 18 an herte ymagynynge worste thouytis, feet swifte to renne in to yuel, 19 a man bringynge forth lesingis, a fals witnesse; and him that sowith discordis among britheren. 20 Mi sone, kepe the comaundementis of thi fadir; and forsake not the lawe of thi modir. 21 Bynde thou tho continueli in thin herte; and cumpasse `to thi throte. 22 Whanne thou goist, go tho with thee; whanne thou slepist, kepe tho thee; and thou wakyng speke with tho. 23 For the comaundement of God is a lanterne, and the lawe is liyt, and the blamyng of techyng is the weie of lijf; 24 `that the comaundementis kepe thee fro an yuel womman, and fro a flaterynge tunge of a straunge womman. 25 Thin herte coueite not the fairnesse of hir; nether be thou takun bi the signes of hir. 26 For the prijs of an hoore is vnnethe of o loof; but a womman takith the precieuse soule of a man. 27 Whether a man mai hide fier in his bosom, that hise clothis brenne not; 28 ethir go on colis, and hise feet be not brent? 29 So he that entrith to the wijf of his neybore; schal not be cleene, whanne he hath touchid hir. 30 It is not greet synne, whanne a man stelith; for he stelith to fille an hungri soule. 31 And he takun schal yelde the seuenthe fold; and he schal yyue al the catel of his hous, and schal delyuere hym silf. 32 But he that is avouter; schal leese his soule, for the pouert of herte. 33 He gaderith filthe, and sclaudrith to hym silf; and his schenschip schal not be don awei. 34 For the feruent loue and strong veniaunce of the man schal not spare in the dai of veniaunce, 35 nether schal assente to the preieris of ony; nether schal take ful many yiftis for raunsum.

7 Mi sone, kepe thou my wordis; and kepe myn heestis to thee. Sone, onoure thou the Lord, and thou schalt be `myyti; but outakun hym drede thou not an alien. 2 Kepe thou myn heestis, and thou schalt lyue; and my lawe as the appil of thin iyen. 3 Bynde thou it in thi fyngris; write thou it in the tablis of thin herte. 4 Seie thou to wisdom, Thou art my sistir; and clepe thou prudence thi frendesse. 5 That it kepe thee fro a straunge womman; and fro an alien womman, that makith hir wordis swete. 6 For whi fro the wyndow of myn hous bi the latijs Y bihelde; and Y se litte children. 7 I biholde a yong man coward, 8 that passith bi the stretis, bisidis the corner; and he 9 goith niy the weie of hir hous in derk tyme, whanne the dai drawith to niyt, in the derknessis and myst of the nytt. 10 And lo! a womman, maad redi with ournement of an hoore to disseyue soulis, meetith hym, and sche is a iangler, and goynge about, 11 and vnpacient of reste, and mai not stonde in the hous with hir feet; 12 and now without forth, now in stretis, now bisidis corneris sche `aspieth. 13 And sche takith, and kissith the yong man; and flaterith with wowynge cheer, and seith, Y ouyte sacrifices for heelt; 14 to dai Y haue yolde my vowis. 15 Therfor Y yede out in to thi meetyng, and Y desiride to se thee; and Y haue founde thee. 16 Y haue maad my bed with coordis, Y haue arayed with tapetis peyntid of Egypt; 17 Y haue bispreynt my bed with myrre, and aloes, and canel. 18 Come thou, be we fillid with tetis, and vse we collyngis that ben coueitid; til the dai bigynne to be cleer. 19 For myn hosebonde is not in his hows; he is goon a ful long weie. 20 He took with hym a bagge of money; he schal turne ayen in to his hous in the dai of ful moone. 21 Sche boonde hym with many wordis; and sche drow forth hym with flateryngis of lippis. 22 Anoon he as an oxe led to slayn sacrifice sueth hir, and as a ioli lomb and vnkunynge; and the fool woot not, that he is drawun to bondys, 23 til an arowe perse his mawe. As if a brid hastith to the snare; and woot not, that it is don of the perel of his lijf. 24 Now therfor, my sone, here thou me; and perseyue the wordis of my mouth. 25 Lest thi soule be drawun awei in the weies of hir; nether be thou disseyued in the pathis of hir. 26 For sche castide doun many woundid men; and alle strongeste men weren slayn of hir. 27 The weies of helle is hir hous; and persen in to ynnere thingis of deeth. (Sheol h7585)

8 Whether wisdom crieth not ofte; and prudence yyueth his vois? 2 In souereyneste and hiy coppis, aboue the weie, in the myddis of pathis, 3 and it stondith bisidis the yate of the citee, in thilke closyngis, and spekith, and seith, A! 4 ye men, Y crie ofte to you; and my vois is to the sones of men. 5 Litte children, vndirstonde ye wisdom; and ye vnwise men, `perseyue wisdom. 6 Here ye, for Y schal speke of grete thingis; and my lippis schulen be openyd, to preche riytlul thingis. 7 My throte schal bithenke treuthe; and my lippis schulen curse a wickid man. 8 My wordis ben iust; no schrewid thing, nether weiward is in tho. 9 `My wordis ben riytlul to hem that vndurstonden; and ben euene to hem that fynden kunnyng. 10 Take ye my chastisyng, and not money; chese ye teching more than tresour. 11 For wisdom is betere than alle richessis moost precieuse; and al desirable thing mai not be comparisound therto. 12 Y, wisdom, dwelle in counsel; and Y am among lernyd thouytis. 13 The drede of the Lord hatith yuel; Y curse boost, and pride, and a schrewid weie, and a double tungid mouth. 14 Counsel is myn, and equyte `is myn; prudence is myn, and strengthe `is myn. 15 Kyngis regnen bi me; and the makeris of lawis demen iust thingis bi me. 16 Princis comaunden bi me; and myyti men demen riytfulnesse bi me. 17 I loue hem that louen me; and thei that waken eerli to me, schulen fynde me. 18 With me ben rychessis, and glorie; souereyn rychessis, and riytfulnesse. 19 My fruyt is betere than gold, and precyouse stoon; and my seedis ben betere than chosun siluer. 20 Y go in the weies of riytfulnesse, in the myddis of pathis of doom; 21 that Y make riche hem that louen me, and that Y fille her tresouris. 22 The Lord weldide me in the bigynnyng of hise weies; bifore that he made ony thing, at the bigynnyng. 23 Fro with out bigynnyng Y was ordeined; and fro elde tymes, bifor that the erthe was maad. 24 Depthis of watris weren not yit; and Y was conseuyed

thanne. The wellis of watris hadden not brokun out yit, 25 and hillis stoden not togidere yit bi sad heuennesse; bifor litil hillis Y was born. 26 Yit he hadde not maad erthe; and floodis, and the herris of the world. 27 Whanne he made redi heuenes, Y was present; whanne he cumpasside the depthis of watris bi certeyn lawe and cumpas. 28 Whanne he made stidfast the eir aboue; and weiede the wellis of watris. 29 Whanne he cumpasside to the see his marke; and settide lawe to watris, that tho schulden not passe her coostis. Whanne he peiside the foundementis of erthe; 30 Y was making alle thingis with him. And Y delitide bi alle daies, and pleiede before hym in al tyme, 31 and Y pleiede in the world; and my delices ben to be with the sones of men. 32 Now therfor, sones, here ye me; blessid ben thei that kepen my weies. 33 Here ye teching, and be ye wise men; and nile ye caste it awei. 34 Blessid is the man that herith me, and that wakith at my yatis al dai; and kepith at the postis of my dore. 35 He that fyndith me, schal fynde lijf; and schal drawe helthe of the Lord. 36 But he that synneth ayens me, schal hurte his soule; alle that haten me, louen deeth.

9 Wisdom bildide an hous to him silf; he hewide out seuen pileris, 2 he offride his slayn sacrifices, he medlide wijn, and settide forth his table. 3 He sente hise handmaidens, that thei schulden clepe to the tour; and to the wallis of the citee. 4 If any man is litil; come he to me. And wisdom spak to vnwise men, 5 Come ye, ete ye my breed; and drynke ye the wiyn, which Y haue medlid to you. 6 Forsake ye yong childhed, and lyue ye; and go ye bi the weyes of prudence. 7 He that techith a scornere, doith wrong to him silf; and he that vndirnymeth a wickid man, gendrith a wem to him silf. 8 Nile thou vndirnyme a scornere; lest he hate thee. Vndirnyme thou a wise man; and he schal loue thee. 9 Yyue thou occasioun to a wise man; and wisdom schal be encreessid to hym. Teche thou a iust man; and he schal haste to take. 10 The bigynnyng of wisdom is the drede of the Lord; and prudence is the kunnyng of seyntis. 11 For thi daies schulen be multiplied bi me; and yeeris of lijf schulen be encreessid to thee. 12 If thou art wijs; thou schalt be to thi silf, and to thi neiyboris. Forsothe if thou art a scornere; thou aloone schalt bere yuel. 13 A fonned womman, and ful of cry, and ful of vnleueful lustis, and that kan no thing outirli, 14 sittith in the doris of hir hous, on a seete, in an hiy place of the cite; 15 to clepe men passinge bi the weie, and men goynge in her iournei. 16 Who is a litil man `of wit; bowe he to me. And sche spak to a coward, 17 Watris of theft ben swettere, and breed hid is swettere. 18 And wiste not that giantis ben there; and the gestis `of hir ben in the depths of helle. Sotheli he that schal be applied, ether fastned, to hir; schal go doun to hellis. For whi he that goith awei fro hir; schal be saued. (Sheol h7585)

10 The parabis of Salomon. A wijs sone makith glad the fadir; but a fonned sone is the sorewe of his modir. 2 Tresouris of wickidnesse schulen not profite; but riytfulnesse schal delyuere fro deth. 3 The Lord schal not turmente the soule of a iust man with hungur; and he schal distrie the tresours of vnpiouse men. 4 A slow hond hath wrouyt nedynesse; but the hond of stronge men makith redi richessis. Forsothe he

Grace and frenschip delyueren, whiche kepe thou to thee, that thou be not maad repreuable. 11 A goldun pomel in beddis of siluer is he, that spekith a word in his time. 12 A goldun eere ryng, and a schinyng peerle is he, that repreueth a wijs man, and an eere obeiyng. 13 As the coold of snow in the dai of heruest, so a faithful messenger to hym that sente `thilke messenger, makith his soule to haue reste. 14 A cloude and wind, and reyn not suyng, is a gloriouse man, and not fillyng biheestis. 15 A prince schal be maad soft bi pacience; and a soft tunge schal breke hardnesse. 16 Thou hast founde hony, ete thou that that suffisith to thee; lest perauenture thou be fillid, and brake it out. 17 Withdrawe thi foot fro the hous of thi neybore; lest sum tyme he be fillid, and hate thee. 18 A dart, and a swerd, and a scharp arowe, a man that spekith fals witnessing ayens his neybore. 19 A rotun tooth, and a feynt foot is he, that hopith on an vnfaithful man in the dai of angwisch, 20 and leesith his mentil in the dai of coold. Vynegre in a vessel of salt is he, that singith songis to the worste herte. As a mouyte noieth a cloth, and a worm noieth a tree, so the sorewe of a man noieth the herte. 21 If thin enemy hungrith, feede thou him; if he thirstith, yyue thou watir to hym to drinke; 22 for thou schalt gadere togidere coolis on his heed; and the Lord schal yelde to thee. 23 The north wind scatereth reynes; and a sorrowful face distrieth a tunge bacbitinge. 24 It is betere to sitte in the corner of an hous without roof, than with a womman ful of chidyng, and in a comyn hous. 25 Coold watir to a thirsti man; and a good messenger fro a fer lond. 26 A welle disturblid with foot, and a veyne brokun, a iust man fallinge before a wickid man. 27 As it is not good to hym that etith myche hony; so he that is a serchere of maieste, schal be put down fro glorie. 28 As a citee opyn, and with out cumpas of wallis; so is a man that mai not refreyne his spirit in speking.

26 As snow in somer, and reyn in heruest; so glorie is vnsemeli to a fool. 2 For whi as a brid fliying ouer to hiy thingis, and a sparowe goyng in to vncerteyn; so cursing brouyt forth with out resonable cause schal come aboue in to sum man. 3 Beting to an hors, and a bernacle to an asse; and a yerde in the bak of vnprudent men. 4 Answer thou not to a fool bi his foli, lest thou be maad lijk hym. 5 Answer thou a fool bi his fooli, lest he seme to him silf to be wijs. 6 An haltinge man in feet, and drinke wickidnesse, he that sendith wordis by a fonned messenger. 7 As an haltinge man hath faire leggis in veyn; so a parable is vnsemeli in the mouth of foolis. 8 As he that casteth a stoon in to an heep of mercurie; so he that yyueth onour to an vnwijs man. 9 As if a thorn growith in the hond of a drunkun man; so a parable in the mouth of foolis. 10 Doom determyneth causis; and he that settith silence to a fool, swagith iris. 11 As a dogge that turneth ayen to his spuyng; so is an vnprudent man, that rehersith his fooli. 12 Thou hast seyn a man seme wijs to hym silf; an vnkunynng man schal haue hope more than he. 13 A slow man seith, A lioun is in the weie, a liounnesse is in the foot pathis. 14 As a dore is turned in his hengis; so a slow man in his bed. 15 A slow man hidith hise hondis vndur his armpit; and he trauelith, if he turneth tho to his mouth. 16 A slow man semeth wysere to hym silf, than seuene men spekyng sentensis. 17 As he that takith a dogge bi the eeris; so he that passith, and is vnpacient, and is meddlid with the chiding of anothir man. 18 As he is gilty, that sendith speris and arowis in to deth; 19 so a man that anoieth gilefuli his frend, and whanne he is takun, he schal seie, Y dide pleiyng. 20 Whanne trees failen, the fier schal be quenched; and whanne a priuy bacbitere is withdrawun, stryues resten. 21 As deed coolis at quic coolis, and trees at the fier; so a wrathful man reisith chidyngis. 22 The wordis of a pryuei bacbitere ben as symple; and tho comen til to the ynneste thingis of the herte. 23 As if thou wolt ourne a vessel of erthe with foul siluer; so ben bolnyng lippis felouschipid with `the werste herte. 24 An enemy is vnderstondun bi hise lippis, whanne he tretith giles in the herte. 25 Whanne he `makith low his vois, bileue thou not to hym; for seuene wickidnesis ben in his herte. 26 The malice of hym that hiliht hatrede gilefuli, schal be schewid in a counsel. 27 He that delueth a diche, schal falle in to it; and if a man walewith a stoon, it schal turne ayen to hym. 28 A fals tunge loueth not treuth; and a slidir mouth worchith fallyngis.

27 Haue thou not glorie on the morewe, `not knowyng what thing the dai to comyng schal bringe forth. 2 Another man, and not thi mouth preise thee; a straunger, and not thi lippis `prise thee. 3 A stoon is heuy, and grauel is chariouse; but the ire of a fool is heuyere than euer eithir. 4 Ire hath no merci, and woodnesse brekyng out `hath no merci; and who mai suffre the fersnesse of a spirit stirid? 5 Betere is opyn repreuyng, than loue hid. 6 Betere ben the woundis of hym that loueth, than the gileful cossis of hym that haith. 7 A man fillid schal dispise an hony coomb; but an hungri man schal take, yhe, bittir thing for swete. 8 As a brid passinge ouer for his nest, so is a man that forsakith his place. 9 The herte delitith in oynement, and dyuerse odours; and a soule is maad swete bi the good counsels of a frend. 10 Forsake thou not thi frend, and the frend of thi fadir; and entre thou not in to the hous of thi brothir, in the dai of thi turment. Betere is a neybore nyy, than a brothir afer. 11 Mi sone, studie thou a boutte wisdom, and make thou glad myn herte; that thou maist answere a word to a dispisere. 12 A fel man seyng yuel was hid; litle men of wit passinge forth suffriden harmes. 13 Take thou awei his clooth, that bihiyte for a straunger; and take thou awei a wed fro hym for an alien man. 14 He that blessith his neybore with greet vois; and risith bi niyt, schal be lijk hym that cursith. 15 Rouous droppyng in the dai of coold, and a womman ful of chiding ben comparisond. 16 He that withholdith hir, as if he holdith wynd; and auoidith the oile of his rytt hond. 17 Yrun is whettid bi irun; and a man whettith the face of his frend. 18 He that kepith a fige tre, schal ete the fruytis therof; and he that is a kepere of his lord, schal be glorified. 19 As the cheris of men biholdinge schynen in watris; so the hertis of men ben opyn to prudent men. 20 Helle and perdicious schulen not be fillid; so and the iyen of men moun not be fillid. (Sheol h7585) 21 As siluer is preuyd in a wellyng place, and gold `is preued in a furnes; so a man is preued bi the mouth of preyeris. The herte of a wickid man sekith out yuels; but a riyful herte sekith out kunnyng. 22 Thouy thou beetist a fool in a morter, as with a pestel smytyng aboue dried barli; his foli schal not be don awei fro him. 23 Knowe thou diligentli the cheere of thi beeste; and biholde thou thi flockis. 24 For thou schalt not hawe power contynueli; but a coroun schal be youun to thee in generacioun and in to generacioun. 25 Medewis ben openyd, and greene eerbis apperiden; and hey is gaderid fro hillis. 26 Lambren be to thi clothing; and kidis be to the prijs of feeld. 27 The mylke of geete suffice to thee for thi meetis; in to the necessarie thingis of thin hous, and to lijflore to thin handmaidis.

28 A wickid man fleeth, whanne no man pursueth; but a iust man as a lioun trustyng schal be with out ferdfulnessse. 2 For the synnes of the lond ben many princis therof; and for the wisdom of a man, and for the kunnyng of these thingis that ben seid, the lijf of the duk schal be lengere. 3 A pore man falsli calengyng pore men, is lijk a grete reyn, wherynne hungur is maad redi. 4 Thei that forsaken the lawe, preisen a wickid man; thei that kepen `the lawe, ben kyndlid ayens hym. 5 Wickid men thenken not doom; but thei that seken the Lord, perseyuen alle thingis. 6 Betere is a pore man goyng in his sympilnesse, than a riche man in schrewid weies. 7 He that kepith the lawe, is a wijs sone; but he that fedith glotouns, schendith his fadir. 8 He that gaderith togidere richessis bi vsuris, and fre encrees, gaderith tho togidere ayens pore men. 9 His preyer schal be maad cursid, that bowith awei his eere; that he here not the lawe. 10 He that disseyueth iust men in an yuel weye, schal falle in his perisching; and iuste men schulen welde hise goodis. 11 A ryche man semeth wijs to him silf; but a pore man prudent schal serche him. 12 In enhaunsing of iust men is miche glorie; whanne wickid men regnen, fallyngis of men ben. 13 He that hidith hise grete trespassis, schal not be maad riyful; but he that knouelechith and forsakith tho, schal gete merci. 14 Blessid is the man, which is euere dredful; but he that is `harde of soule, schal falle in to yuel. 15 A roryng lioun, and an hungry bere, is a wickid prince on a pore puple. 16 A duk nedi of prudence schal oppresse many men bi fals challenge; but the daies of hym that hatith auerice, schulen be maad longe. 17 No man susteyneth a man that falsly chalengith the blood of a man, if he fleeth `til to the lake. 18 He that goith simpli, schal be saaf; he that goith bi weiward weies, schal falle down onys. 19 He that worchith his lond, schal be fillid with looues; he that sueth ydelnesse, schal be fillid with nedynesse. 20 A feithful man schal be preysid myche; but he that hastith to be maad riche, schal not be innocent. 21 He that knowith a face in doom, doith not wel; this man forsakith treuthe, yhe, for a mussel of breed. 22 A man that hastith to be maad riche, and hath enuye to othere men; woot not that nedinesse schal come on hym. 23 He that repreueth a man, schal fynde grace aftirward at hym; more than he that disseyueth bi flateryngis of tunge. 24 He that withdrawith ony thing fro his fadir and fro his modir, and seith that this is no synne, is parcener of a manuellere. 25 He that auauntith hym silf, and alargith, reisith stryues; but he that hopith in the Lord, schal be sauyl. 26 He that tristith in his herte, is a fool; but he that goith wiseli, 27 schal be preysid. He that yyueth to a pore man, schal not be nedi; he that dispisith `a pore man bisechyng, schal suffre nedynesse. 28 Whanne vnpiteuse men risen, men schulen be hid; whanne tho `vnpiteuse men han perischid, iust men schulen be multiplied.

29 Sodeyn perischyng schal come on that man, that with hard nol dispisith a blamere; and helth schal not sue hym. 2 The comynalte schal be glad in the multiplyng of iust men; whanne wickid men han take prinshod, the puple schal weyle. 3 A man that loueth wisdom, makith glad his fadir; but he that nurschith `an hoore, schal leese catel. 4 A iust king reisith the lond; an auerouse man schal distrie it. 5 A man that spekith bi flateringe and feyned wordis to his frend; spredith abroad a net to hise steppis. 6 A snare schal wlappe a wickid man doynge synne; and a iust man schal preise, and schal make ioye. 7 A iust man knowith the cause of pore men; an vnpiteuse man knowith not kunnyng. 8 Men ful of pestilence distryen a citee; but wise men turnen awei woodnesse. 9 If a wijs man stryuet with a fool; whether he be wrooth, `ether he leiyith, he schal not fynde reste. 10 Menquelleris haten a simple man; but iust men seken his soule. 11 A fool bringith forth al his spirit; a wise man dilaith, and reserueth in to tyme comyng afterward. 12 A prince that herith wifuli the wordis of a leesyng; schal hawe alle mynystis vnfeithful. 13 A pore man and a leenere metten hem silf; the Lord is liytner of euer ethir. 14 If a kyng demeth pore men in treuthe; his trone schal be maad stidfast with outen ende. 15 A yerde and chastisyng schal yyue wisdom; but a child, which is left to his wille, schendith his modir. 16 Grete trespassis schulen be multiplied in the multiplyng of wickid men; and iust men schulen se the fallyngis of hem. 17 Teche thi sone, and he schal coumforte thee; and he schal yyue delicis to thi soule. 18 Whanne prophesie faylith, the puple schal be distried; but he that kepith the lawe, is blessid. 19 A seruaut mai not be tauyt bi wordis; for he vndirstondith that that thou seist, and dispisith for to answer. 20 Thou hast seyn a man swift to speke; foli schal be hopid more than his amending. 21 He that nurschith his seruaut delicatli fro childhod; schal fynde hym rebel aftirward. 22 A wrathful man territh chidingis; and he that is liyt to hawe indignacioun, schal be more enclynaunt to synnes. 23 Lownesse sueth a proude man; and glorie schal vp take a meke man of spirit. 24 He that takith part with a theef, hatith his soule; he herith a man charyngre greetli, and schewith not. 25 He that dredith a man, schal falle soon; he that hopith in the Lord, shal be reysid. 26 Many men seken the face of the prince; and the doom of alle men schal go forth of the Lord. 27 lust men han abhomyacioun of a wickid man; and wickid men han abhomyacioun of hem, that ben in a riyful weye. A sone keypyng a word, schal be out of perdicoun.

30 The wordis of hym that gaderith, of the sone spuyng.

The prophesie which a man spak, with whom God was, and which man was coumfortid bi God dwellyng with hym, 2 and seide, Y am the moost fool of men; and the wisdom of men is not with me. 3 Y lernede not wisdom; and Y knew not the kunnyng of hooli men. 4 Who stiede in to heuene, and cam doun? Who helde togidere the spirit in hise hondis? who bonde togidere watris as in a cloth? Who reiseid alle the endis of erthe? What is name of hym? and what is the name of his sone, if thou knowist? 5 Ech word of God is a scheld set a fiere, to alle that hopen in hym. 6 Adde thou not any thing to the wordis of hym, and thou be repreued, and be foundun a liere. 7 I preiede thee twei thingis; denye not thou to me, bifor that Y die. 8 Make thou fer fro me vanyte and wordis of leesyng; yyue thou not to me beggery and richessis; yyue thou oneli necessaries to my lijflode; 9 lest perauenture Y be fillid, and be drawun to denye, and seie, Who is the Lord? and lest Y compellid bi nedynesse, stele, and forswere the name of my God. 10 Accuse thou not a seruaunt to his lord, lest perauenture he curse thee, and thou falle doun. 11 A generacioun that cursith his fadir, and that blessith not his modir. 12 A generacioun that semeth cleene to it self, and netheles is not waichun fro hise filthis. 13 A generacioun whose iyen ben hiy, and the iye liddis therof ben reiseid in to hiy thingis. 14 A generacioun that hath swerdis for teeth, and etith with hise wank teeth; that it ete nedi men of erthe, and the porails of men. 15 The watir leche hath twei douytris, seiyng, Brynge, bringe. Thre thingis ben vnable to be fillid, and the fourthe, that seith neuere, It suffisith; 16 helle, and the mouth of the wombe, and the erthe which is neuere fillid with water; but fier seith neuere, It suffisith. (Sheol h7585) 17 Crows of the stonde picke out thilke iye, that scorneth the fadir, and that dispisith the child beryng of his modir; and the briddis of an egle ete that iye. 18 Thre thingis ben hard to me, and outirli Y knowe not the fourthe thing; 19 the weye of an egle in heuene, the weie of a serpent on a stoon, the weie of a schip in the myddil of the see, and the weie of a man in yong wexyng age. 20 Siche is the weie of a womman auowtresse, which etith, and wipith hir mouth, and seith, Y wrouyte not yuel. 21 The erthe is moued bi thre thingis, and the fourthe thing, which it may not susteyne; 22 bi a seruaunt, whanne he regneth; bi a fool, whanne he is fillid with mete; 23 bi an hateful womman, whanne sche is takun in matrymonye; and bi an handmaide, whanne sche is eir of hir ladi. 24 Foure ben the leeste thingis of erthe, and tho ben wisere than wise men; 25 amtis, a feble puple, that maken redi mete in heruest to hem self; 26 a hare, a puple vnmyyti, that settith his bed in a stoon; 27 a locust hath no kyng, and al goith out bi cumpanyes; an euete enforsith with hondis, 28 and dwellith in the housis of kingis. 29 Thre thingis ben, that goon wel, and the fourthe thing, that goith richeli. 30 A lioun, strongeste of beestis, schal not drede at the meetyng of ony man; 31 a cok gird the leendis, and a ram, and noon is that schal ayenstonde him. 32 He that apperith a fool, afir that he is reiseid an hiy; for if he hadde vndurstonde, he hadde sett hond on his mouth. 33 Forsothe he that thristith strongli teetis, to drawe out mylk, thristith out botere; and he that smythith greetli, drawith out blood; and he that stirith iris, bringith forth discordis.

31 The wordis of Lamuel, the king; the visoun bi which his modir tauyte hym. 2 What my derlyng? what the derlyng of my wombe? what the derlyng of my desiris? 3 Yyue thou not thi catel to wymmen, and thi richessis to do awei kyngis. 4 A! Lamuel, nyle thou yiue wyn to kingis; for no pruyete is, where drunkenesse regneth. 5 Lest perauenture thei drynke, and foryete domes, and change the cause of the sones of a pore man. 6 Yyue ye sidur to hem that morenen, and wyn to hem that ben of bitter soule. 7 Drinke thei, and foryete thei her nedynesse; and thenke thei no more on her sorewe. 8 Opene thi mouth for a domb man, 9 and opene thi mouth for the causes of alle sones that passen forth. Deme thou that that is iust, and deme thou a nedi man and a pore man. 10 Who schal fynde a stronge womman? the prijs of her is fer, and fro the laste endis. 11 The herte of hir hosebond tristith in hir; and sche schal not haue nede to spyulis. 12 Sche schal yelde to hym good, and not yuel, in alle the daies of hir lijf. 13 Sche souyte wolle and flex; and wrouyte bi the counsel of hir hondis. 14 Sche is maad as the schip of a marchaunt, that berith his breed fro fer. 15 And sche roos bi nyyt, and yaf prey to hir meyneals, and metis to hir handmaidis. 16 Sche bihelde a feeld, and bouyte it; of the fruyt of hir hondis sche plauntide a vyner. 17 Sche girde hir leendis with strengthe, and made strong hir arm. 18 Sche taastide, and siy, that hir marchaundie was good; hir lanterne schal not be quenched in the niyt. 19 Sche putte hir hondis to stronge thingis, and hir fyngris token the spyndil. 20 Sche openyde hir hond to a nedi man, and stretchide forth hir hondis to a pore man. 21 Sche schal not drede for hir hous of the cooldis of snow; for alle hir meyneals ben clothid with double clothis. 22 Sche made to hir a ray cloth; bijs and purpur is the cloth of hir. 23 Hir hosebonde is noble in the yatis, whanne he sittith with the senatours of erthe. 24 Sche made lynnun cloth, and selde; and yaf a girdil to a Chananei. 25 Strengthe and fairnesse is the clothing of hir; and sche schal leiey in the laste dai. 26 Sche openyde hir mouth to wisdom; and the lawe of merci is in hir tunge. 27 Sche bihelde the pathis of hir hous; and sche eet not breed idili. 28 Hir sones risiden, and prechiden hir moost blessid; hir hosebonde roos, and preiseid hir. 29 Many douytris gaderiden richessis; thou passidist alle. 30 Fairnesse is disseiuable grace, and veyn; thilke womman, that dredith the Lord, schal be preiseid. 31 Yyue ye to hir of the fruyt of hir hondis; and hir werkis preise hir in the yatis.

Ecclesiastes

1 The wordis of Ecclesiastes, sone of Daud, the kyng of Jerusalem. 2 The vanyte of vanytees, seide Ecclesiastes; the vanyte of vanytees, and alle thingis ben vanite. 3 What hath a man more of alle his trauel, bi which he trauelith vndur the sunne? 4 Generacioun passith awei, and generacioun cometh; but the erthe stonidith with outen ende. 5 The sunne risith, and goith doun, and turneth ayen to his place; 6 and there it risith ayen, and compassith bi the south, and turneth ayen to the north. The spirit compassynge alle thingis goith in compas, and turneth ayen in to hise cercles. 7 Alle floodis entren in to the see, and the see fletith not ouer the markis set of God; the floodis turnen ayen to the place fro whennus tho comen forth, that tho flowe eft. 8 Alle thingis ben hard; a man may not declare tho thingis bi word; the iye is not fillid bi siyt, nether the eere is fillid bi hering. 9 What is that thing that was, that that schal come? What is that thing that is maad, that that schal be maad? 10 No thing vndir the sunne is newe, nether ony man may seie, Lo! this thing is newe; for now it yede bfore in worldis, that weren bfore vs. 11 Mynde of the formere thingis is not, but sotheli nether thenkyng of tho thingis, that schulen come afterward, schal be at hem that schulen come in the last tyme. 12 Ecclesiastes was king of Israel in Jerusalem; 13 and Y purposide in my soule to seke and enserche wiseli of alle thingis, that ben maad vndur the sunne. God yaf this werste ocupacioun to the sones of men, that thei schulden be ocupied thereynne. 14 I siy alle thingis that ben maad vndur the sunne, and lo! alle thingis ben vanyte and turment of spirit. 15 Weiward men ben amendid of hard; and the nombre of foolis is greet with outen ende. 16 I spak in myn herte, and Y seide, Lo! Y am made greet, and Y passide in wisdom alle men, that weren bfore me in Jerusalem; and my soule siy many thingis wiseli, and Y lernede. 17 And Y yaf myn herte, that Y schulde knowe prudence and doctryn, and errours and foli. And Y knew that in these thingis also was trauel and turment of spirit; 18 for in myche wisdom is myche indignacioun, and he that encressith kunnyng, encreessith also trauel.

2 Therfor Y seide in myn hertez, Y schal go, and Y schal flowe in delicis, and Y schal vse goodis; and Y siy also that this was vanyte. 2 And leiyng Y arretide errour, and Y seide to ioye, What art thou disseyued in veyn? 3 I thouyte in myn herte to withdrawe my fleisch fro wyn, that Y schulde lede ouer my soule to wisdom, and that Y schulde eschewe foli, til Y schulde se, what were profitable to the sones of men; in which dede the nombre of daies of her lijf vndur the sunne is nedeful. 4 Y magniefiede my werkis, Y bildide housis to me, and Y plauntide vynes; Y made yerdis and orcherdis, 5 and Y settide tho with the trees of al kynde; 6 and Y made cisternes of watris, for to watre the wode of trees growynge. 7 I hadde in possessioun seruauantis and handmaidis; and Y hadde myche meynne, and droues of grete beestis, and grete flockis of scheep, ouer alle men that weren bfore me in Jerusalem. 8 Y gaderide togidere to me siluer and gold, and the castels of kingis and of prouyncis; Y made to me syngeris and syngeressis, and delicis of the

sones of men, and cuppis and vessels in seruyce, to helde out wyne; 9 and Y passide in richess alle men, that weren bfore me in Jerusalem. Also wisdom dwellide stabli with me, 10 and alle thingis whiche myn iyen desiriden, Y denyede not to hem; nether Y refreynede myn herte, that ne it vside al lust, and delitide it silf in these thingis whiche I hadde maad redi; and Y demyde this my part, if Y vside my trauel. 11 And whanne Y hadde turned me to alle werkis whiche myn hondys hadden maad, and to the trauels in whiche Y hadde swet in veyn, Y siy in alle thingis vanyte and turment of the soule, and that no thing vndir sunne dwellith stabli. 12 I passide to biholde wisdom, errours, and foli; Y seide, What is a man, that he may sue the king, his maker? 13 And Y siy, that wisdom yede so mych bfore foli, as miche as liyt is dyuerse fro derknessis. 14 The iyen of a wijs man ben in his heed, a fool goith in derknessis; and Y lernede, that o perisching was of euer either. 15 And Y seide in myn herte, If o deth schal be bothe of the fool and of me, what profitith it to me, that Y yaf more bisynesse to wisdom? And Y spak with my soule, and perseyuede, that this also was vanyte. 16 For mynde of a wijs man schal not be, in lijk maner as nether of a fool with outen ende, and tymes to comynge schulen hile alle thingis togidere with foryetyng; a lerned man dieth in lijk maner and an vnlearned man. 17 And therfor it anoiede me of my lijf, seyng that alle thingis vndur sunne ben yuele, and that alle thingis ben vanyte and turment of the spirit. 18 Eft Y curside al my bisynesse, bi which Y trauelide moost studiosli vndur sunne, and Y schal haue an eir after me, 19 whom Y knowe not, whether he schal be wijs ether a fool; and he schal be lord in my trauels, for whiche Y swatte greetli, and was bisi; and is ony thing so veyn? 20 Werfor Y ceesside, and myn herte forsook for to trauele ferthere vnder sunne. 21 For whi whanne another man trauelith in wisdom, and techyng, and bisynesse, he leeueth thingis getun to an idel man; and therfor this is vanyte, and greet yuel. 22 For whi what schal it profite to a man of al his trauel, and turment of spirit, bi which he was turmentid vndur sunne? 23 Alle hise daies ben ful of sorewis and meschefs, and bi nytt he restith not in soule; and whether this is not vanyte? 24 Whether it is not betere to ete and drynke, and to schewe to hise soule goodis of hise trauels? and this thing is of the hond of God. 25 Who schal deuoure so, and schal flowe in delicis, as Y dide? 26 God yaf wisdom, and kunnyng, and gladnesse to a good man in his siyt; but he yaf turment, and superflu bisynesse to a synnere, that he encreesse, and gadere togidere, and yyue to hym that plesith God; but also this is vanyte, and veyn bisynesse of soule.

3 Alle thingis han tyme, and alle thingis vndur sunne passen bi her spaces. 2 Tyme of birthe, and time of diynge; tyme to plaunte, and tyme to drawe vp that that is plauntid. 3 Tyme to sle, and tyme to make hool; tyme to distrie, and tyme to bilde. 4 Tyme to wepe, and tyme to leieye; tyme to biweile, and tyme to daunse. 5 Tyme to scatere stoonys, and tyme to gadere togidere; tyme to colle, and tyme to be fer fro collyngis. 6 Tyme to wynne, and tyme to leese; tyme to kepe, and tyme to caste awei. 7 Tyme to kitte, and tyme to sewe togidere; tyme to be stille, and tyme to speke. 8 Tyme of loue, and tyme of hatrede;

tyme of batel, and tyme of pees. 9 What hath a man more of his trauel? 10 I siy the turment, which God yaf to the sones of men, that thei be occupied therynne. 11 God made alle thingis good in her tyme, and yaf the world to disputyng of hem, that a man fynde not the werk which God hath wrouyt fro the bigynnyng 'til in to the ende. 12 And Y knew that no thing was betere 'to a man, 'no but to be glad, and to do good werkis in his lijf. 13 For whi ech man that etith and drinkith, and seeth good of his trauel; this is the yifte of God. 14 I haue lerned that alle werkis, whiche God made, lasten stidfastli 'til in to with outen ende; we moun not adde any thing to tho, nether take awei fro tho thingis, whiche God made, that he be dred. 15 That thing that is maad, dwellith perfitli; tho thingis that schulen come, weren bfore; and God restorith that, that is goon. 16 I siy vndur sunne vnfeithfulnesse in the place of doom; and wickidnesse in the place of riytfulnesse. 17 And Y seide in myn herte, The Lord schal deme a iust man, and an vnfeithful man; and the tyme of ech thing schal be thanne. 18 I seide in myn herte of the sones of men, that God schulde preue hem, and schewe that thei ben lijk vnresonable beestis. 19 Therfor oon is the perisching of man and of beestis, and euene condicioun is of euer eithir; as a man dieth, 'so and tho beestis dien; alle beestis brethen in lijk maner, and a man hath no thing more than a beeste. 20 Alle thingis ben suget to vanyte, and alle thingis goen to o place; tho ben maad of erthe, and tho turnen ayen togidere in to erthe. 21 Who knowith, if the spirit of the sones of Adam stieth vpward, and if the spirit of beestis goith downward? 22 And Y perseyuade that no thing is betere, than that a man be glad in his werk, and that this be his part; for who schal brynge hym, that he knowe thingis that schulen come after hym?

4 I turnede me to othere thingis, and Y siy fals chalengis, that ben don vndur the sunne, and the teeris of innocentis, and no man coumfortour; and that thei forsakun of the help of alle men, moun not ayenstonde the violence of hem. 2 And Y preiside more deed men than lyuyng men; 3 and Y demyde hym, that was not borun yit, and siy not the yuels that ben don vndur the sunne, to be blisfulere than euer eithir. 4 Eft Y bihelde alle the trauelis of men, and bisynnesses; and Y perseyuade that tho ben opyn to the enuye of neybore; and therfor in this is vanyte, and superflu bisynesse. 5 A fool foldith togidere hise hondis, and etith hise fleischis, 6 and seith, Betere is an handful with reste, than euer either hondful with trauel and turment of soule. 7 I bihelde and foond also another vanytee vndir the sunne; 8 oon is, and he hath not a secounde; not a sone, not a brother; and netheles he ceesith not for to trauele, nether hise iyen ben fillid with richessis; nether he bithenkith, and seith, To whom trauele Y, and disseyue my soule in goodis? In this also is vanyte, and the worste turment. 9 Therfor it is betere, that tweyne be togidere than oon; for thei han profite of her felouschipe. 10 If oon fallith down, he schal be vndurset of the tothere; wo to hym that is aloone, for whanne he fallith, he hath noon reisyng him. 11 And if tweyne slepen, thei schulen be nurschid togidere; hou schal oon be maad hoot? 12 And if ony man hath maistri ayens oon, tweyne ayen stonden hym; a threfolde corde is brokun of hard. 13 A pore man and wijs is betere than an eld kyng and fool, that kan not bfore se in to tyme to comyng. 14 For sum tyme a man goith out bothe fro prysoun and chaynes to a rewme; and anothir borun in to a rewme is wastid bi nedynesse. 15 I siy alle men lyuyng that goen vndur the sunne, with the secounde yong wexyng man, that schal rise for hym. 16 The noubre of puple, of alle that weren bfore hym, is greet with outen mesure, and thei that schulen come aftirward, schulen not be glad in hym; but also this is vanyte and turment of the spirit.

5 Thou that entrist in to the hous of God, kepe thi foot, and neieye thou for to here; for whi myche betere is obedience than the sacrifices of foolis, that witen not what yuel thei don. 2 Speke thou not ony thing folily, nether thin herte be swift to brynge forth a word bfore God; for God is in heuene, and thou art on erthe, therfor thi wordis be fewe. 3 Dremes suen many bisynnessis, and foli schal be foundun in many wordis. 4 If thou hast avowid ony thing to God, tarie thou not to yelde; for an vnfeithful and fonned biheest displesith hym; but 'yelde thou what euer thing thou hast avowid; 5 and it is myche betere to make not a vowe, than aftir a vowe to yelde not biheestis. 6 Yyue thou not thi mouth, that thou make thi fleisch to do synne; nether seie thou bifor an angel, No puryaunce is; lest perauenture the Lord be wrooth on thi wordis, and distruye alle the werkis of thin hondis. 7 Where ben many dremes, ben ful many vanytees, and wordis with out noubre; but drede thou God. 8 If thou seest false chalengis of ned men, and violent domes, and that riytfulnesse is distried in the prouynce, wondre thou not on this doyng; for another is hiyere than an hiy man, and also othere men ben more hiye aboute these men; 9 and fethermore the kyng of al erthe comaundith to the seruaunt. 10 An auerouse man schal not be fillid of monei; and he that loueth richessis schal not take fruytis of tho; and therfor this is vanyte. 11 Where ben many richessis, also many men ben, that eten tho; and what profitith it to the haldere, no but that he seeth richessis with hise iyen? 12 Slepe is swete to hym that worchith, whether he etith litil ether myche; but the fulnesse of a ryche man suffrieth not hym to slepe. 13 Also anothir sijknese is ful yuel, which Y siy vndur the sunne; richessis ben kept in to the yuel of her lord. 14 For thei perischen in the worste turment; he gendride a sone, that schal be in souereyn nedynesse. 15 As he yede nakid out of his modris wombe, so he schal turne ayen; and he schal take awei with hym no thing of his trauel. 16 Outirli it is a wretchid sijknese; as he cam, so he schal turne ayen. What therfor profitith it to hym, that he trauelide in to the wynde? 17 In alle the daies of his lijf he eet in derknessis, and in many bisynnessis, and in nedynesse, and sorewe. 18 Therfor this semye good to me, that a man ete, and drynke, and vse gladnesse of his trauel, in which he trauelide vndir the sunne, in the noubre of daies of his lijf, which God yaf to hym; and this is his part. 19 And to ech man, to whom God yaf richessis, and catel, and yaf power to hym to ete of tho, and to vse his part, and to be glad of his trauel; this is the yifte of God. 20 For he schal not bithenke miche on the daies of his lijf, for God occupieth his herte with delicis.

6 Also another yuel is, which Y siy vndur the sunne; and certis it is oft vsid anentis men. 2 A man is, to whom God yaf richessis, and catel, and onour; and no thing failith to his soule of alle thingis which he desirith; and God yyueth not power to hym, that he ete therof, but a straunge man shal deuoure it. This is vanyte, and a greet wretchidnesse. 3 If a man gendrieth an hundrid fre sones, and lyueth many yeris, and hath many daies of age, and his soule vsith not the goodis of his catel, and wantith biring; Y pronounce of this man, that a deed borun child is betere than he. 4 For he cometh in veyn, and goith to dernessis; and his name schal be don a wei bi foryetyng. 5 He siy not the sunne, nether knew dyuersyte of good and of yuel; 6 also thouh he lyueth twei thousynde yeeris, and vsith not goodis; whether alle thingis hasten not to o place? 7 Al the trauel of a man is in his mouth, but the soule of hym schal not be fillid with goodis. 8 What hath a wijs man more than a fool? and what hath a pore man, no but that he go thidur, where is lijf? 9 It is betere to se that, that thou coueist, than to desire that, that thou knowist not; but also this is vanyte, and presumpcioun of spirit. 10 The name of hym that schal come, is clepid now, and it is knowun, that he is a man, and he mai not stryue in doom ayens a strongere than hym silf. 11 Wordis ben ful manye, and han myche vanyte in dispytinge. 12 What nede is it to a man to seke grettere thingis than hym silf; sithen he knowith not, what schal bifalle to hym in his lijf, in the noubre of daies of his pilgrimage, and in the tyme that passith as schadowe? ether who may schewe to hym, what thing vndur sunne schal come aftir hym?

7 A good name is betere than preciose oynementis; and the dai of deth is betere than the dai of birthe. 2 It is betere to go to the hous of morenyng, than to the hous of a feeste; for in that hous of morenyng the ende of alle men is monestid, and a man lyuyng thekenith, what is to comyng. 3 Yre is betere than leiyyng; for the soule of a trespassour is amendid bi the heuynesse of cheer. 4 The herte of wise men is where sorewe is; and the herte of foolis is where gladnesse is. 5 It is betere to be repreued of a wijs man, than to be disseyued bi the flateriing of foolis; 6 for as the sown of thornes brennyng vndur a pot, so is the leiyyng of a fool. But also this is vanyte. 7 Fals challenge disturblith a wijs man, and it schal leese the strengthe of his herte. 8 Forsothe the ende of preyer is betere than the bigynnyng. A pacient man is betere than a proud man. 9 Be thou not swift to be wrooth; for ire restith in the bosum of a fool. 10 Seie thou not, What gessist thou is of cause, that the formere tymes weren betere than ben now? for whi siche axyng is fonnid. 11 Forsothe wisdom with richessis is more profitable, and profitith more to men seyng the sunne. 12 For as wisdom defendith, so money defendith; but lernyng and wisdom hath this more, that tho yyuen lijf to her weldere. 13 Biholde thou the werkis of God, that no man may amende hym, whom God hath dispisid. 14 In a good day vse thou goodis, and bifore eschewe thou an yuel day; for God made so this dai as that dai, that a man fynde not iust playnyngis ayens hym. 15 Also Y siy these thingis in the daies of my natyute; a iust man perischith in his riyfulness, and a wickid man lyueth myche tyme in his malice. 16 Nyle thou be iust myche, nether vndurstonde thou more than is nedeful; lest thou be astonyed. 17 Do thou not wickidli myche, and nyle thou be a fool; lest thou die in a tyme not thin. 18 It is good, that thou susteyne a iust man; but also withdrawe thou not thin hond from hym; for he that dredith God, is not negligent of ony thing. 19 Wisdom hath coumfortid a wise man, ouer ten pryncis of a citee. 20 Forsothe no iust man is in erthe, that doith good, and synneth not. 21 But also yyue thou not thin herte to alle wordis, that ben seid; lest perauenture thou here thi seruauant cursyng thee; 22 for thi conscience woot, that also thou hast cursid othere men. 23 I asayed alle thingis in wisdom; Y seide, I schal be maad wijs, and it yede awei ferthere fro me, myche more than it was; 24 and the depthe is hiy, who schal fynde it? 25 I cumpasside alle thingis in my soule, to kunne, and biholde, and seke wisdom and resoun, and to knowe the wickidnesse of a fool, and the error of vnprudent men. 26 And Y foond a womman bitterere than deth, which is the snare of hunteris, and hir herte is a net, and hir hondis ben boondis; he that plesith God schal ascape hir, but he that is a synnere, schal be takun of hir. 27 Lo! Y foond this, seide Ecclesiastes, oon and other, that Y schulde fynde resoun, which my soule sekith yit; 28 and Y foond not. I foond o man of a thousynde; Y foond not a womman of alle. 29 I foond this oonli, that God made a man riyful; and he medlide hym silf with questiouns with out noubre. Who is siche as a wijs man? and who knowith the expownyng of a word?

8 The wisdom of a man schyneth in his cheer; and the myytieste schal change his face. 2 I kepe the mouth of the kyng, and the comaundementis and sweryngis of God. 3 Haste thou not to go awei fro his face, and dwelle thou not in yuel werk. For he schal do al thing, that he wole; 4 and his word is ful of power, and no man mai seie to hym, Whi doist thou so? 5 He that kepith the comaundement of God in this lijf, schal not feele ony thing of yuel; the herte of a wijs man vndurstonidith tyme and answer. 6 Tyme and cesoun is to ech werk; and myche turment is of a man, 7 for he knowith not thingis passid, and he mai not knowe bi ony messenger thingis to comyng. 8 It is not in the power of man to forbede the spirit, nethir he hath power in the dai of deth, nethir he is suffrid to haue reste, whanne the batel neiyeth; nethir wickidnesse schal saue a wickid man. 9 I bihelde alle thes thingis, and Y yaf myn herte in alle werkis, that ben don vndur the sunne. Sum tyme a man is lord of a man, to his yuel. 10 Y siy wickid men bired, which, whanne thei lyueden yit, weren in hooli place; and thei weren preid in the citee, as men of iust werkis; but also this is vanyte. 11 Forsothe for the sentence is not brouyt forth soone ayens yuele men, the sones of men doon yuels with outen ony drede. 12 Netheles of that, that a synnere doith yuel an hundrid sithis, and is suffrid bi pacience, Y knew that good schal be to men dredyng God, that reuerensen his face. 13 Good be not to the wickid man, nethir hise daies be maad longe; but passe thei as schadewe, that dreden not the face of the Lord. 14 Also another vanyte is, which is don on erthe. lust men ben, to whiche yuels comen, as if thei didn the werkis of wickid men; and wickid men ben, that ben so sikur, as if thei han the dedis of iust men; but Y deme also this moost veyn. 15 Therfor Y preysid gladnesse, that no good was to a man vndur the sunne, no but to ete, and drynke, and to be ioiful; and that he schulde bere awei with hym sif oneli this of his trauel, in the daies of his lijf, whiche God yaf to hym vndur the sunne. 16 And Y settide myn herte to knowe wisdom, and to vndurstonde the departing, which is turned in erthe. A man is, that bi daies and nyitis takith not sleep with iyen. 17 And Y vndurstood, that of alle the werkis of God, a man may fynde no resoun of tho thingis, that ben don vndur the sunne; and in as myche as he traueilith more to seke, bi so myche he schal fynde lesse; yhe, thouy a wijs man seith that he knowith, he schal not mow fynde.

9 I tretide alle these thingis in myn herte, to vndirstonde diligentli. Iust men, and wise men ben, and her werkis ben in the hond of God; and netheles a man noot, whether he is worthi of loue or of hatrede. 2 But alle thingis ben kept vncerteyn in to tyme to comynge; for alle thingis bifallen euenli to a iust man and to a wickid man, to a good man and to an yuel man, to a cleene man and to an vnclene man, to a man offrynge offryngis and sacrifices, and to a man dispisyng sacrifices; as a good man, so and a synnere; as a forsworun man, so and he that greetli swerith treuthe. 3 This thing is the worste among alle thingis, that ben don vndur the sunne, that the same thingis bifallen to alle men; wherfor and the hertis of the sones of men ben fillid with malice and dispisyng in her lijf; and aftir these thingis thei schulen be led down to hellis. 4 No man is, that lyueth euere, and that hath trist of this thing; betere is a quik dogge than a deed lioun. 5 For thei that lyuen witen that thei schulen die; but deed men knowen no thing more, nether han meede ferthere; for her mynde is youun to foryetyng. 6 Also the loue, and hatrede, and enuye perischiden togidere; and thei han no part in this world, and in the werk that is don vndur the sunne. 7 Therfor go thou, iust man, and ete thi breed in gladnesse, and drynke thi wyn with ioie; for thi werkis plesen God. 8 In ech tyme thi clothis be white, and oile faile not fro thin heed. 9 Vse thou lijf with the wijf which thou louest, in alle the daies of lijf of thin vnstabilnesse, that ben youun to thee vndur sunne, in al the tyme of thi vanyte; for this is thi part in thi lijf and trauel, bi which thou traueлист vndur the sunne. 10 Worche thou bisili, what euer thing thin hond mai do; for nether werk, nether resoun, nethir kunnyng, nether wisdom schulen be at hellis, whidir thou haastist. (Sheol h7585) 11 I turnede me to another thing, and Y siy vndur sunne, that rennyng is not of swift men, nethir batel is of stronge men, nether breed is of wise men, nether richessis ben of techeris, ne grace is of crafti men; but tyme and hap is in alle thingis. 12 A man knowith not his ende; but as fischis ben takun with an hook, and as briddis ben takun with a snare, so men ben takun in yuel tyme, whanne it cometh sudeynli on hem. 13 Also Y siy this wisdom vndur the sunne, and Y preuede it the mooste. 14 A litil citee, and a fewe men ther ynne; a greet kyng cam ayens it, and cumpasside it with palis, and he bildide strengthis bi compas; and bisegyng was maad perfit. 15 And a pore man and a wijs was foundun ther ynne; and he delyuerede the citee bi his wisdom, and no man bihouyete aftirward on that pore man. 16 And Y seide, that wisdom is betere than strengthe; hou therfor is the wisdom of a pore man dispisid, and hise wordis ben not herd? 17 The wordis of wise men ben herd in silence, more than the cry of a prince among foolis. 18 Betere is wisdom than armuris of batel; and he that synneth in o thing, schal leese many goodis.

10 Flies `that dien, leesen the swetnesse of oynement. Litil foli at a tyme is precioussere than wisdom and glorie. 2 The herte of a wijs man is in his riyt side; and the herte of a fool is in his left side. 3 But also a fool goynge in the weie, whanne he is vnwijs, gessith alle men foolis. 4 If the spirit of hym, that hath power, stieth on thee, forsake thou not thi place; for heeling schal make gretteste synnes to ceesse. 5 An yuel is, which Y siy vndur the sunne, and goith out as bi error fro the face of the prince; a fool set in hiy dignyte, 6 and riche men sitte bynethe. 7 I siy seruauantis on horsis, and princes as seruauantis goynge on the erthe. 8 He that diggith a diche, schal falle in to it; and an eddre schal bite hym, that distrieth an hegge. 9 He that berith ouer stoonys, schal be turmentid in tho; and he that kittith trees, schal be woundid of tho. 10 If yrun is foldid ayen, and this is not as bfore, but is maad blunt, it schal be maad scharp with myche trauel; and wisdom schal sue aftir bisynesse. 11 If a serpent biitith, it biitith in silence; he that bacbiitith priueli, hath no thing lesse than it. 12 The wordis of the mouth of a wijs man is grace; and the lippis of an vnwijs man schulen caste hym down. 13 The bigynnyng of hise wordis is foli; and the laste thing of his mouth is the worste error. 14 A fool multiplieth wordis; a man noot, what was bfore hym, and who mai schewe to hym that, that schal come aftir hym? 15 The trauel of foolis shal turment hem, that kunnen not go in to the citee. 16 Lond, wo to thee, whos kyng is a child, and whose princes eten eerli. 17 Blessid is the lond, whos kyng is noble; and whose priencis eten in her tyme, to susteyne the kynde, and not to waste. 18 The hiynesse of housis schal be maad low in slouthis; and the hous schal droppe in the feblenesse of hondis. 19 In leiyyng thei disposen breed and wyn, that thei drynkynge ete largeli; and alle thingis obeien to monei. 20 In thi thouyt bacbite thou not the kyng, and in the priuete of thi bed, curse thou not a riche man; for the briddis of heuene schulen bere thi vois, and he that hath pennys, schal telle the sentence.

11 Sende thi breed on watris passyng forthe, for aftir many tymes thou schalt fynde it. 2 Yyue thou partis seuene, and also eyte; for thou woost not, what yuel schal come on erthe. 3 If cloudis ben filled, tho schulen schede out reyn on the erthe; if a tre fallith down to the south, ether to the north, in what euer place it fallith down, there it schal be. 4 He that aspieth the wynd, sowith not; and he that biholdith the cloudis, schal neuere repe. 5 As thou knowist not, which is the weye of the spirit, and bi what resoun boоны ben ioyned togidere in the wombe of a womman with childe, so thou knowist not the werkis of God, which is makere of alle thingis. 6 Eerli sowe thi seed, and thin hond ceesse not in the euentid; for thou woost not, what schal come forth more, this ethir that; and if euer eithir cometh forth togidere, it schal be the betere. 7 The liyt is sweet, and delitable to the iyen to se the sunne. 8 If a man lyueth many yeeris, and is glad in alle these, he owith to haue mynde of derk tyme, and of many daies; and whanne tho schulen come, thingis passid schulen be repreued of vanyte. 9 Therfor, thou yonge man, be glad in thi yongthe, and thin herte be in good in the daies of thi yongthe, and go thou in the weies of thin herte, and in the biholdyng of thin iyen; and wite thou, that for alle these thingis God shal brynge thee in to doom. 10 Do thou awei ire fro thin herte, and remoue thou malice fro thi fleisch; for whi yongthe and lust ben veyne thingis.

12 Haue thou mynde on thi creatour in the daies of thi yongthe, bifore that the tyme of thi turment come, and the yeris of thi deth neie, of whiche thou schalt seie, Tho plesen not me. 2 `Haue thou mynde on thi creatour, bifor that the sunne be derk, and the liyt, and sterrys, and the mone; and cloude turne ayen after reyn. 3 Whanne the keperis of the hous schulen be mouyd, and strongeste men schulen tremble; and grynderis schulen be idel, whanne the noumbre schal be maad lesse, and seeris bi the hoolis schulen wexe derk; 4 and schulen close the doris in the street, in the lownesse of vois of a gryndere; and thei schulen rise at the vois of a brid, and alle the douytris of song schulen wexe deef. 5 And hiy thingis schulen drede, and schulen be aferd in the weie; an alemaunde tre schal floure, a locuste schal be maad fat, and capparis schal be distried; for a man schal go in to the hous of his euerlastyngnesse, and weileris schulen go aboute in the street. 6 Haue thou mynde on thi creatour, byfore that a siluerne roop be brokun, and a goldun lace renne ayen, and a watir pot be al to-brokun on the welle, and a wheele be brokun togidere on the cisterne; 7 and dust turne ayen in to his erthe, wherof it was, and the spirit turne ayen to God, that yaf it. 8 The vanyte of vanytees, seide Ecclesiastes, the vanyte of vanytees, and alle thingis ben vanyte. 9 And whanne Ecclesiastes was moost wijs, he tauyte the puple, and he telde out the thingis whiche he dide, 10 and he souyte out wisdom, and made many parabis; he souyte profitable wordis, and he wroot moost riytful wordis, and ful of treuthe. 11 The wordis of wise men ben as prickis, and as nailis fastned deepe, whiche ben youun of o scheepherde bi the counsels of maistris. 12 My sone, seke thou no more than these; noon ende is to make many bookis, and ofte thenkyng is turment of fleisch. 13 Alle we here togydere the ende of spekyng. Drede thou God, and kepe hise heestis; `that is to seie, ech man. 14 God schal brynge alle thingis in to dom, that ben don; for ech thing don bi errour, whether it be good, ether yuel.

Song of Solomon

1 ² Kisse he me with the cos of his mouth. For thi tetis ben betere than wyn, ³ and yyuen odour with beste oynementis. Thi name is oile sched out; therfor yonge damesels loueden thee. ⁴ Drawe thou me after thee; we schulen renne in to the odour of thin oynementis. The kyng ledde me in to hise celeris; we myndeful of thi tetis aboute wyn, schulen make ful out ioye, and schulen be glad in thee; riytful men louen thee. ⁵ Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y am blak, but fair, as the tabernaculis of Cedar, as the skynnes of Salomon. ⁶ Nyle ye biholde me, that Y am blak, for the sunne hath discolourid me; the sones of my modir fouyten ayens me, thei settiden me a kepere in vyneris; Y kepte not my vyner. ⁷ Thou spouse, whom my soule loueth, schewe to me, where thou lesewist, where thou restist in myddai; lest Y bigynne to wandre, afir the flockis of thi felowis. ⁸ A! thou fairest among wymmen, if thou knowist not thi silf, go thou out, and go forth afir the steppis of thi flockis; and feede thi kidis, bisidis the tabernaculis of scheepherdis. ⁹ Mi frendesse, Y licenede thee to myn oost of knyitis in the charis of Farao. ¹⁰ Thi chekis ben feire, as of a turtle; thi necke is as brochis. ¹¹ We schulen make to thee goldun ounementis, departid and maad dyuerse with silver. ¹² Whanne the kyng was in his restyng place, my narde yaf his odour. ¹³ My derlyng is a bundel of myrre to me; he schal dwelle bitwixe my tetis. ¹⁴ My derlyng is to me a cluster of cipre tre, among the vyneres of Engaddi. ¹⁵ Lo! my frendesse, thou art fair; lo! thou art fair, thin iyen ben the iyen of culueris. ¹⁶ Lo, my derling, thou art fair, and schapli; oure bed is fair as flouris. ¹⁷ The trees of oure housis ben of cedre; oure couplis ben of cipresse.

2 I am a flour of the feeld, and a lilye of grete valeis. ² As a lillie among thornes, so is my frendesse among douytris. ³ As an apple tre among the trees of wodis, so my derlyng among sones. I sat vndur the shadewe of hym, whom Y desirede; and his fruyt was swete to my throte. ⁴ The king ledde me in to the wyn celer; he ordeynede charite in me. ⁵ Bisette ye me with flouris, cumpasse ye me with applis; for Y am sijk for loue. ⁶ His left hond is vndur myn heed; and his riyt hond schal biclippe me. ⁷ Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y charge you greetli, bi capretis, and hertis of feeldis, that ye reise not, nether make to awake the dereworthe spousesse, til sche wole. The vois of my derlyng; lo! ⁸ this derlyng cometh leepyng in mounteyns, and skippyng ouer litle hillis. ⁹ My derlyng is lijk a capret, and a calf of hertis; lo! he stondith bihynde oure wal, and biholdith bi the wyndows, and lokith thorou the latisis. ¹⁰ Lo! my derlyng spekith to me, My frendesse, my culuer, my faire spousesse, rise thou, haaste thou, and come thou; ¹¹ for wyntir is passid now, reyn is goon, and is departid awei. ¹² Flouris apperiden in oure lond, the tyme of schridyng is comun; the vois of a turtle is herd in oure lond, ¹³ the fige tre hath brouyt forth hise buddis; vyneris flouryng han youe her odour. My frendesse, my fayre spousesse, rise thou, haaste thou, and come thou. ¹⁴ My culuer is in the hoolis of stoon, in the chyne of a wal with out morter. Schewe thi face to me, thi vois sowne in myn eeris; for thi vois is swete, and thi face is fair. ¹⁵ Catche ye litle foxis to vs, that destrien the vyneris; for oure vyner hath flourid. ¹⁶ My derlyng is to me, and Y am to hym, which is fed among lilies; ¹⁷ til the dai spryng, and schadewis be bowid down. My derlyng, turne thou ayen; be thou lijk a capret, and a calf of hertis, on the hillis of Betel.

3 In my litle bed Y souyte hym bi nytis, whom my soule loueth; Y souyte hym, and Y foond not. ² I shal rise, and Y schal cumpasse the citee, bi litle stretis and large stretis; Y schal seke hym, whom my soule loueth; I souyte hym, and Y foond not. ³ Wakeris, that kepen the citee, founden me. Whether ye sien hym, whom my soule loueth? ⁴ A lilit whanne Y hadde passid hem, Y foond hym, whom my soule loueth; Y helde hym, and Y schal not leue hym, til Y bryng him in to the hous of my modir, and in to the closet of my modir. ⁵ Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y charge you greetli, bi the capretis, and hertis of feeldis, that ye reise not, nether make to awake the dereworthe spousesse, til sche wole. ⁶ Who is this womman, that stieth bi the deseert, as a yerde of smoke of swete smellynge spices, of mirre, and of encence, and of al poudur of an oynement makere? ⁷ Lo! sixti stronge men of the strongeste men of Israel cumpassen the bed of Salomon; and alle thei holden swerdis, ⁸ and ben moost witti to batels; the swerd of ech man is on his hipe, for the drede of nyitis. ⁹ Kyng Salomon made to hym a seete, of the trees of Liban; ¹⁰ he made the pilers therof of siluer; he made a goldun restyng place, a styng of purpur; and he arayed the myddil thingis with charite, for the douytris of Jerusalem. ¹¹ Ye douytris of Sion, go out, and se kyng Salomon in the diademe, bi which his modir crownede hym, in the dai of his spousesyng, and in the dai of the gladnesse of his herte.

4 Mi frendesse, thou art ful fair; thin iyen ben of culueris, with outen that that is hid with ynne; thin heeris ben as the flockis of geete, that stieden fro the hil of Galaad. ² Thi teeth ben as the flockis of clippid sheep, that stieden fro waischyng; alle ben with double lambren, and no bareyn is among tho. ³ Thi lippis ben as a reed lace, and thi speche is swete; as the relif of an appil of Punyk, so ben thi chekis, with outen that, that is hid with ynne. ⁴ Thi necke is as the tour of Dauid, which is bildid with strengthis maad bfore for defense; a thousynde scheldis hangen on it, al armure of stronge men. ⁵ Thi twei tetis ben as twei kidis, twynnes of a capret, that ben fed in lilies, ⁶ til the dai spryng, and shadewis ben bowid down. Y schal go to the mounteyn of myrre, and to the lilit hil of encence. ⁷ My frendesse, thou art al faire, and no wem is in thee. ⁸ My spousesse, come thou fro the Liban; come thou fro the Liban, come thou; thou schalt be crownod from the heed of Amana, fro the cop of Sanyr and Hermon, fro the dennys of lions, fro the hillis of pardis. ⁹ My sister spousesse, thou hast woundid myn herte; thou hast woundid myn herte, in oon of thin iyen, and in oon heer of thi necke. ¹⁰ My sistir spousesse, thi tetis ben ful faire; thi tetis ben feirere than wyn, and the odour of thi clothis is aboute alle swete smellynge oynementis. ¹¹ Spousesse, thi lippis ben an hony coomb droppynge; hony and mylk ben vndur thi tunge, and the odour of thi clothis is as the odour of encence. ¹² Mi sister spousesse, a gardyn closid togidere; a gardyn closid

Frendis, ete ye, and drynke; and derewortheeste frendis, be ye fillid greetli. 2 Y slepe, and myn herte wakith. The vois of my derlyng knockynge; my sister, my frendesse, my culuer, my spousesse vnwemmed, opene thou to me; for myn heed is ful of dew, and myn heeris ben ful of dropis of niytis. 3 I have vnclothid me of my coote; hou schal Y be clothid ther ynne? I haue waische my feet; hou schal Y defoule tho? 4 Mi derlyng putte his hond bi an hooles; and my wombe tremblid at the touchynge therof. 5 Y roos, for to opene to my derlyng; myn hondis droppiden myrre, and my fyngris weren ful of myrre moost preued. 6 Y openede the wicket of my dore to my derlyng; and he hadde bowid awei, and hadde passid. My soule was meltid, as the derlyng spak; Y souyte, and Y foond not hym; Y clepide, and he answerde not to me. 7 Keperis that cumpassiden the citee founden me; thei smytiden me, and woundiden me; the keperis of wallis token away my mentil. 8 Ye douytris of Jerusalem, Y biseche you bi an hooli thing, if ye han founde my derlyng, that ye telle to hym, that Y am sijk for loue. 9 Al! thou faireste of wymmen, of what manner condicioun is thi derlyng `of the louede? of what manner condicioun is thi derling of a derling? for thou hast bisouyt vs bi an hooli thing. 10 My derling is whyt and rodi; chosun of thousyndis. 11 His heed is best gold; hise heeris ben as the bowis of palm trees, and ben blake as a crowe. 12 Hise iyen ben as culueris on the strondis of watris, that ben waischid in mylk, and sitten besidis fulleste ryueris. 13 Hise chekis ben as gardyns of swete smellynge spices, set of oynement makeris; hise lippis ben lilies, droppynge doun the best myrre. 14 Hise hondis ben able to turne aboute, goldun, and ful of iacynctis; his wombe is of yuer, ourned with safiris. 15 Hise lippis ben pilers of marble, that ben foundid on foundementis of gold; his schaplinesse is as of the Liban, he is chosun as cedris. 16 His throte is moost swete, and he is al desirable. Y haue nurschid and Y haue enhaunsid sones; sotheli thei han dispisid me. 3 An oxe knew his lord, and an asse knew the cratche of his lord; but Israel knewe not me, and my puple vndurstood not. 4 Wo to the synful folk, to the puple heuy in wickidnesse, to the weiard seed, to the cursid sones; thei han forsake the Lord, thei han blasfemyd the hooli of Israel, thei ben aliened bacward. 5 On what thing schal Y smyte you more, that encreessen trespassyng? Ech heed is sijk, and ech herte is morenyng. 6 Fro the sole of the foot til to the nol, helthe is not ther ynnre; wounde, and wannesse, and betyng bolnyng is not boundun aboute, nether curid bi medicyn, nether nurschid with oile. 7 Youre lond is forsakun, youre citees ben brent bi fier; aliens deuouren youre cuntrei bfore you, and it schal be disolat as in the distriyng of enemyes. 8 And the douytir of Sion, `that is, Jerusalem, schal be forsakun as a schadewyng place in a vyner, and as an hulke in a place where gourdis wexen, and as a citee which is wastid. 9 If the Lord of oostis hadde not left seed to vs, we hadden be as Sodom, and we hadden be lijk as Gomorre. 10 Ye princes of men of Sodom, here the word of the Lord; and ye puple of Gomorre, perseyue with eeris the lawe of youre God. 11 Wherto offren ye to me the multitude of youre sacrifices? seith the Lord. Y am ful; Y wolde not the brent sacrifices of wetheris, and the ynnere fatnesse of fatte beestis, and the blood of calues, and of lambren, and of buckis of geet. 12 Whanne ye camen bfore my siyt, who axide of youre hondis these thingis, that ye schulden go in myn hallys? 13 Offre ye no more sacrifice in veyn; encense is abhominacioun to me; Y schal not suffre neomenye, and sabat, and othere feestis. 14 Youre cumpenyes ben wickid; my soule hatith youre calendis and youre solemprnytees; tho ben maad diseseful to me, Y trauelide suffryng. 15 And whanne ye stretchen forth youre hondis, Y schal turne awei myn iyen fro you; and whanne ye multiplen preyer, Y schal not here; for whi youre hondis ben ful of blood. 16 Be ye waischun, be ye clene; do ye awei the yuel of youre thouytis fro myn iyen; ceesse ye to do weiardli, lerne ye to do wel. 17 Seke ye doom, helpe ye hym that is oppressid, deme ye to the fadirles and modirles child, defende ye a widewe. 18 And come ye, and repreue ye me, seith the Lord. thei demen not to a fadirles child, and the cause of a widewe entrith not to hem. 24 For this thing, seith the Lord God of oostis, the stronge of Israel, Alas! Y schal be coumfortid on myn enemyes, and Y schal be vengid on myn enemyes. 25 And Y schal turne myn hond to thee, and Y schal sethe out thi filthe to the cleene, and Y schal do awei al thi tyn. 26 And Y schal restore thi iuges, as thei weren bifor to, and thi counsellours, as in elde tyme. 3 For lo! the lordli gouvernour, the Lord of oostis, schal take awei fro Jerusalem and fro Juda a myyti man, and strong, and al the strengthe of breed, and al the strengthe of watir; 2 a strong man, and a man a werriour, and a domesman, and a profete, and a false dyuynour in auteris, and an elde man, 3 a prince ouer fifti men, and a worschiful man in cheer, and a counselour, and a wijs man of principal crafti men, and a prudent man of mystik, ethir goostli, speche. 4 And Y schal yyue children the princes of hem, and men of wymmens condicions schulen be lordis of hem. 5 And the puple schal falle doun, a man to a man, ech man to his neyrbore; a child schal make noyse ayens an eld man, and an vnnoble man ayens a noble man. 6 For a man schal take his brother, the meneal of his fadir, and schal seie, A clooth is to thee, be thou oure prince; forsothe this fallyng be vndur thin hond. 7 And he schal answer in that dai, and seie, Y am no leche, and nether breed, nether cloth is in myn hous; nyle ye make me prince of the puple. 8 For whi Jerusalem felle doun, and Juda felle doun togidere; for the tunge of hem, and the fyndingis of hem weren ayens the Lord, for to terre to wraththe the iyen of his mageste. 9 The knowyng of her cheer schal answer to hem; and thei prechiden her synne, as Sodom dide, and hidden not. Wo to the soule of hem, for whi yuels ben yoldun to hem. 10 Seie ye to the iust man, that it schal be to hym wel; for he schal ete the fruyt of hise fyndyngis. 11 Wo to the wickid man in to yuel; for whi the yeldyng of hise hondis schal be maad to hym. 12 The wrongful axeris of my puple robbiden it, and wymmnen weren lordis therof. Mi puple, thei that seien thee blessid, disseyuen thee, and distrien the weie of thi steppis. 13 The Lord stonidith for to deme, and `the Lord stonidith for to deme pupilis; 14 the Lord schal come to doom, with the eldere men of his puple, and with hise princes; for ye han wastid my vyner, and the raueyn of a pore man is in youre hous. 15 Whi al to-broken ye my puple, and grynden togidere the faces of pore men? seith the Lord God of oostis. 16 And the Lord God seide, For that that the douytris of Syon weren reisd, and yeden with a necke stretchid forth, and yeden bi signes of iyen, and flappiden with hondis, and yeden, and with her feet yeden in wel araied goyng, 17 the Lord schal make ballyd the nol of the douytris of Sion, and the Lord schal make nakid the heer of hem. 18 In that dai the Lord schal take awei the ounement of schoon, and goldun litle bellis lijk the moone, 19 and ribans, and brochis, and ounementis of 5 I schal synge for my derlyng the song of myn vncdis sone, of his vyner. A vyner was maad to my derlyng, in the horne in the sone of oile. 2 And he heggide it, and chees stoonys therof, and plauntide a chosun vyner; and he bildide a tour in the myddis therof, and rerede a presse ther ynne; and he abood, that it schulde bere grapis, and it bare wiede grapis. 3 Now therfor, ye dwellers of Jerusalem, and ye men of Juda, deme bitwixe me and my viner. 4 What is it that Y ouyt to do more to my vyner, and Y dide not to it? whether that Y abood, that it schulde bere grapis, and it bare wiede grapis? 5 And now Y schal schewe to you, what Y schal do to my vyner. Y schal take awei the hegge therof, and it schal be in to rausyschyng; Y schal caste doun the wal therof, and it schal be in to defoulyng; and Y schal sette it desert, 6 ether forsakun. It schal not be kit, and it schal not be diggid, and breris and thornes schulen `growe vp on it; and Y schal comaunde to cloudis, that tho reyne not reyn on it. 7 Forsothe the vyner of the Lord of oostis is the hous of Israel, and the men of Juda ben the delitable buriownyng of hym. Y abood, that it schal make doom, and lo! wickidnesse; and that it schulde do riyfulnessse, and lo! cry. 8 Wo to you that ioynen hows to hous, and couplen feeld to feeld, `til to the ende of place. (Sheol h7585) 15 And a man schal be bowid down, and a man of age schal be maad low; and the iyen of hiy men schulen be pressid down. 16 And the Lord of oostis schal be enhaunsid in doom, and hooli God schal be halewid in riytfulnesse. 17 And lambren schulen be fed bi her ordre, and comelyngis schulen ete desert places turned in to plentee. 18 Wo to you that drawen wickydenesse in the cordis of vanyte, and drawen synne as the boond of a wayn; and ye seien, 19 The werk of hym haaste, and come soone, that we se; and the counsel of the hooli of Israel neiy, and come, and we schulen knowe it. 20 Wo to you that seien yuel good, and good yuel; and putten derknessis liyt, and liyt derknessis; and putten bittir thing in to swete, and swete thing in to bittir. 21 Wo to you that ben wise men in youre iyen, and ben prudent bifor you self. 22 Wo to you that ben myyti to drynke wyn, and ben stronge to meddle drunkenesse; 23 and ye iustifien a wickid man for yiftis, and ye taken awei the riytfulnesse of a iust man fro hym. 24 For this thing, as the tunge of fier deuourith stobil, and the heete of flawme brenneth, so the roote of hem schal be as a deed sparcle, and the seed of hem schal stie as dust; for thei castiden awei the lawe of the Lord of oostis, and blasfemyden the speche of the hooli of Israel. 25 Therfor the strong veniaunce of the Lord was wrooth ayens his puple, and he stretchide forth his hond on it, and smoot it; and hillis weren disturblid, and the deed bodies of hem weren maad as a toord in the myddis of stretis. In alle these thingis the stronge vengeance of him was not turned awei, but yit his hond was stretchid forth. 26 And he schal reise a signe among naciouns afer, and he schal hisse to hym fro the endis of erthe; and lo! he schal haaste, and schal come swiftli. 27 Noon is failynge nethir traueylunge in that oost; he schal not nappe, nether slepe, nether the girdil of his reynes schal be vndo, nether the lace of his scho schal be brokun. 28 Hise arowis ben scharpe, and alle hise bowis ben bent; the houys of hise horsis ben as a flynt, and hise wheelis ben as the feersnesse of tempest. 29 His roryng schal be as of lioun; he schal rore as the whelpis of liouns; and he schal gnaste, and schal holde prey, and schal biclippe, and noon schal be, that schal delyuere. 30 And he schal sowne on it in that dai, as doith the soun of the see; we schulen biholde in to the erthe, and lo! derknessis of tribulacioun, and liyt is maad derk in the derknesse therof.

6 In the yeer in which the kyng Osie was deed, Y siy the Lord sittinge on an hiy seete, and reisid; and the hous was ful of his mageste, and tho thingis that weren vndur hym, filliden the temple. 2 Serafyn stoden on it, sixe wyngis weren to oon, and sixe wyngis to the tothir; with twei wyngis thei hiliden the face of hym, and with twei wyngis thei hiliden the feet of hym, and with twei wyngis thei flowen. 3 And thei crieden `the toon to the tother, and seiden, Hooli, hooli, hooli is the Lord God of oostis; al erthe is ful of his glorie. 4 And the lyntels aboue of the herris were moued togidere of the vois of the criere, and the hous was fillid with smoke. 5 And Y seide, Wo to me, for Y was stille; for Y am a man defoulid in lippis, and Y dwelle in the myddis of the puple hauynge defoulid lippis, and Y siy with myn iyen the kyng Lord of oostis. 6 And oon of serafyn flei to me, and a brennyng cole was in his hond, which cole he hadde take with a tonge fro the auter. 7 And he touchide my mouth, and seide, Lo! Y haue touchid thi lippis with this cole, and thi wickidnesse schal be don awei, and thi synne schal be clensid. 8 And Y herde the vois of the Lord, seiynge, Whom schal Y sende, and who schal go to you? And Y seide, Lo! Y; sende thou me. 9 And he seide, Go thou, and thou schalt seie to this puple, Ye herynge here, and nyle ye vndurstonde; and se ye the profesie, and nyle ye knowe. 10 Make thou blynde the herte of this puple, and aggregge thou the eeris therof, and close thou the iyen therof; lest perauenture it se with hise iyen, and here with hise eeris, and vndurstonde with his herte, and it be conuertid, and Y make it hool. 11 And Y seide, Lord, hou long? And he seide, Til citees ben maad desolat with out dwellere, and housis with out man. And the lond schal be left desert, 12 and the Lord schal make men fer. And that that was forsakun in the myddil of erthe, schal be multiplid, and yit tithing schal be ther ynne; 13 and it schal be conuertid, and it schal be in to schewyng, as a terebynte is, and as an ook, that spredith abroad hise boowis; that schal be hooli seed, that schal stonde ther ynne.

7 And it was don in the daies of Achas, the sone of Joathan, the sone of Osias, kyng of Juda, Rasyn, the kyng of Sirie, and Facee, the sone of Romelie, the kyng of Israel, stieden to Jerusalem, for to fytte ayens it; and thei myyten not ouercome it. 2 And thei telden to the hous of Dauid, and seiden, Sirie hath restid on Effraym, and the herte of hym and of his puple was mouyd togidere, as the trees of wodis ben mouyd of the face of the wynd. 3 And the Lord seide to Isaie, Go thou out, and Jasub, thi sone, which is left, in to the meetyng of Achas, at the laste ende of the water cundit of the hiyere cisterne, in the weie of the feeld of the fullere. 4 And thou schalt seie to hym, Se thou, that thou be stille; nyle thou drede, and thin herte be not aferd of twei tailis of these brondis smokyng in the wraththe of woodnesse, of Rasyn, kyng of Sirie, and of the sone of Romelye. 5 For Sirie, and Effraym, and the sone of Romelie, han bigunne yuel councel ayens thee, and seien, Stie we to Juda, 6 and reise we hym, and drawe we hym out to vs; and sette we a kyng in the myddis therof, the sone of Tabeel. 7 The Lord God seith these thingis, This schal not be, and it schal not stonde; 8 but Damask schal be the heed of Sirie, and Rasyn `schal be the heed of Damask; and yit sixti yeer and fiue, and Effraym schal faile to be a puple; 9 and Samarie shal faile to be the heed of Effraym, and the sone of Romelie `schal faile to be heed of Samarie. Forsothe if ye schulen not bileue, ye schulen not dwelle. 10 And the Lord addide to speke to Achas, 11 and seide, Axe thou to thee a signe of thi Lord God, in to the depthe of helle, ethir in to heiythe aboue. (Sheol h7585) 12 And Achas seide, Y schal not axe, and Y schal not tempte the Lord. 13 And Ysaie seide, Therfor the hous of Daudi, here ye; whether it is lital to you to be diseseful to men, for ye ben diseseful also to my God? 14 For this thing the Lord hym silf schal yyue a signe to you. Lo! a virgyn schal conseyue, and schal bere a sone; and his name schal be clepid Emanuel. 15 He schal ete botere and hony, that he kunne repreue yuel, and cheese good. 16 For whi bifore that the child kunne repreue yuel, and cheese good, the lond, which thou wlatist, schal be forsakun of the face of her twei kyngis. 17 The Lord schal brynge on thee, and on thi puple, and on the hous of thi fadir, daies that camen not fro the daies of departyng of Effraym fro Juda, with the kyng of Assiriens. 18 And it schal be, in that dai the Lord schal hisse to a flie, which is in the laste parte of the floodis of Egypt; and to a bee, which is in the lond of Assur; 19 and `alle so schulen come, and schulen reste in the strondis of valeis, and in caues of stoonis, and in alle places of buyschis, and in alle hoolis. 20 And in that dai the Lord schal schaue with a scharp rasour in these men, that ben biyendis the flood, in the kyng of Assiriens, the heed, and heeris of the feet, and al the beard. 21 And it schal be, in that day a man schal nurische a cow of oxis, and twei scheep, 22 and for the plente of mylk he schal ete botere; for whi ech man that schal be left in the myddis of the lond, schal ete boter and hony. 23 And it schal be, in that dai ech place where a thousand vyneris schulen be worth a thousynde platis of siluer, and schulen be in to thornes and breeris, 24 men schulen entre thidur with bouwis and arowis; for whi breris and thornes schulen be in al the lond. 25 And alle hillis that schulen be purgid with a sarpe, the drede of thornes and of breris schal not come thidir; and it schal be in to lesewe of oxen, and in to treading of scheep.

8 And the Lord seide to me, Take to thee a greet book, and write ther ynn with the poyntil of man, Swiftli drawe thou awei spuylis, take thou prey soone. 2 And Y yaf to me faithful witnessis, Vrie, the prest, and Sacarie, the sone of Barachie. 3 And Y neiyede to the profetesse; and sche conseyuede, and childide a sone. And the Lord seide to me, Clepe thou his name Haste thou to drawe awei spuylis, haaste thou for to take prey. 4 For whi bifor that the child kan clepe his fadir and his modir, the strengthe of Damask schal be doon awei, and the spuylis of Samarie, bifor the kyng of Assiriens. 5 And the Lord addide to speke yit to me, and he seide, 6 For that thing that this puple hath caste awei the watris of Siloe, that goen with silence, and hath take more Rasyn, and the sone of Romelie, for this thing lo! 7 the Lord schal brynge on hem the stronge and many watris of the flood, the king of Assiriens, and al his glorie; and he schal stiye on alle the stremes therof, and he schal flowe on alle the ryueris therof. 8 And he schal go flowyng bi Juda, and he schal passe til to the necke, and schal come; and the spredyng forth of hise wyngis schal be, and schal fille the breede of thi lond, thou Emanuel. 9 Pupilis, be ye gaderid togidere, and be ye ouercomun; and alle londis afer, here ye. Be ye coumfortid, and be ye ouercomun; gird ye you, and be ye ouercomun; 10 take ye counsel, and it schal be destried; speke ye a word, and it schal not be doon, for God is with vs. 11 For whi the Lord seith these thingis to me, as he tauyte me in a stronge hond, that Y schulde not go in to the weie of this puple, 12 and seide, Seie ye not, It is sweryng togidere, for whi alle thingis which this puple spekith is sweryng togidere; and drede ye not the ferdfulnesse therof, nether be ye aferd. 13 Halowe ye the Lord hym silf of oostis; and he schal be youre inward drede, and he schal be youre ferdfulnesse, and he schal be to you in to halewyng. 14 Forsothe he schal be in to a stoon of hirtyng, and in to a stoon of sclandre, to tweyne housis of Israel; in to a snare, and in to fallyng, to hem that dwellen in Jerusalem. 15 And ful many of hem schulen offende, and schulen falle, and thei schulen be al to-brokun, and thei schulen be boundun, and schulen be takun. 16 Bynde thou witnessyng, mark thou the lawe in my disciplis. 17 Y schal abide the Lord, that hath hid his face fro the hous of Jacob, and Y schal abide hym. 18 Lo! Y and my children, whiche the Lord yaf to me in to a signe, and greet wondur to Israel, of the Lord of oostis that dwellith in the hil of Sion. 19 And whanne thei seien to you, Axe ye of coniureris, and of false dyuynouris, that gnasten in her enchauntyngis, whether the puple schal not axe of her God a reuelacioun for quyke men and deed? 20 It is to go to the lawe more and to the witnessyng, that if thei seien not after this word, morewite liyt schal not be to hem. 21 And it schal passe bi that, and it schal falle down, and it schal hungre. And whanne it schal hungre, it schal be wrooth, and schal curse his kyng and his God, and it schal biholde vpward. 22 And it schal loke to the erthe, and lo! tribulacioun, and derknessis, and vnbyndyng, ether discourmfort, and angwisch, and myist pursuyng; and it schal not mow fle awei fro his angwisch.

9 In the firste tyme the lond of Zabulon and the lond of Neptalym was releessid; and at the laste the weie of the see biyende Jordan of Galile of hethene men was maad heuy. 2 The puple that yede in derknessis siy a greet liyt; whanne men dwelliden in the cuntre of schadewe of deth, liyt roos vp to hem. 3 Thou multipliedst folk, thou magnefiedist not gladnesse; thei schulen be glad bifore thee, as thei that ben glad in heruest, as ouercomeris maken ful out ioie, whanne thei han take a prey, whanne thei departen the spuylis. 4 For thou hast ouercome the yok of his birthun, and the yerde of his schuldre, and the ceptre of his wrongful axere, as in the day of Madian. 5 For whi al violent raueyn with noise, and a cloth meddlid with blood schal be in to brennyng, and `schal be the mete of fier. 6 Forsothe a lital child is borun to vs, and a sone is youun to vs, and prinsehod is maad on his schuldre; and his name schal be clepid Wondurful, A counselour, God, Strong, A fadir of the world to comyng, A prince of pees. 7 His empire schal be multiplied, and noon ende schal be of his pees; he schal sitte on the seete of Daudi, and on the rewme of hym, that he conferme it, and make stronge in doom and riytfulnesse, fro hennus forth and til in to with outen ende. The feruent loue of the Lord of oostis schal make this. 8 The Lord sente a word in to Jacob, and it felle in Israel. 9 And al the puple of Effraym schal wite, and thei that dwellen in Samarie, seiynge in the pride and greetnesse of herte, 10 Tijl stoonys fellen down, but we schulen bilde with square stoonys; thei han kit doun sicomoris, but we schulen chaunge cedris. 11 And the Lord schal reise the enemyes of Rasyon on hym, and he schal turne the enemyes of hym in to noyse; 12 God schal make Sirie to come fro the eest, and Filisteis fro the west; and with al the mouth thei schulen deuoure Israel. In alle these thingis the stronge veniaunce of the Lord is not turned awei, but yit his hond is stretchid forth; 13 and the puple is not turned ayen to the Lord smytyng it, and thei souyten not the Lord of oostis. 14 And the Lord schal leese fro Israel the heed and the tail; crokyng and bischrewyng, ether refreynyng, in o dai. 15 An elde man and onourable, he is the heed, and a profete techyng a leesyng, he is the tail. 16 And thei that blessen his puple, schulen be disseyueris, and thei that ben blessid, schulen be cast doun. 17 For this thing the Lord schal not be glad on the yonge men therof, and he schal not haue merci on the fadirles children and widewis therof; for ech man is an ypocrite and weiward, and ech mouth spak foli. In alle these thingis the stronge veniaunce of hym is not turned awei, but yit his hond is stretchid forth; 18 and the puple is not turned ayen to the Lord smytyng it. For whi wickidnesse is kyndlid as fier; it schal deuoure the breris and thornes, and it schal be kyndlid in the thicknesse of the forest, and it schal be wlappid togidere in the pride of smoke. 19 In the wraththe of the Lord of oostis the lond schal be disturblid, and the puple schal be as the mete of fier; a man schal not spare his brothir. 20 And he schal boowe to the ryht half, and he schal hungre, and he schal ete at the left half, and he schal not be fillid; ech man schal deuoure the fleisch of his arm. Manasses schal deuoure Effraym, and Effraym `schal deuoure Manasses, and thei togidere ayens Juda. 21 In alle these thingis the strong veniaunce of hym is not turned awei, but yit his hoond is stretchid forth.

10 Wo to them that maken wickid lawis, and thei writyng han wryte vnriyftfulnesse, for to oppresse pore men in doom, 2 and to do violence to the cause of meke men of my puple; that widewis schulen be the prey of them, and that thei schulden rauysche fadirles children. 3 What schulen ye do in the dai of visitacioun, and of wretchidnesse comyng fro fer? To whos help schulen ye fle? and where schulen ye leeeue youre glorie, 4 that ye be not bowid doun vndur boond, and falle not doun with slayn men? On alle these thingis his strong veniaunce is not turned awei, but yit his hond is stretchid forth. 5 Wo to Assur, he is the yerde and staf of my strong veniaunce; myn indignacioun is in the hond of them. 6 Y schal send hym to a fals folk, and Y schal comaunde to hym ayens the puple of my strong veniaunce; that he take awei the spuylis, and departe prey, and that he sette that puple in to defouling, as the fen of stretis. 7 Forsothe he schal not deme so, and his herte schal not gesse so, but his herte schal be for to al to-breke, and to the sleynge of many folkis. 8 For he schal seie, Whether my princes ben not kyngis to gidere? 9 Whether not as Carcamys, so Calanno; and as Arphat, so Emath? whether not as Damask, so Samarie? 10 As myn hond foond the rewmes of idol, so and the symylacris of hem of Jerusalem and of Samarie. 11 Whether not as Y dide to Samarie, and to the idols therof, so Y schal do to Jerusalem, and to the simylacris therof? 12 And it schal be, whanne the Lord hath fillid alle hise werkis in the hil of Syon and in Jerusalem, Y schal visite on the fruit of the greet doynge herte of the kyng of Assur, and on the glorie of the hiynesse of hise iyen. 13 For he seide, Y haue do in the strengthe of myn honde, and Y haue understonde in my wisdom; and Y haue take awei the endis of peplis, and Y haue robbid the princes of them, and Y as a myyti man haue drawun doun them that saten an hiy. 14 And myn hond foond the strengthe of pupilis as a nest, and as eirun ben gaderid togidere that ben forsakun, so Y gaderid togidere al erthe; and noon was that mouyde a fethere, and openyde the mouth, and grutchide. 15 Whether an ax schal haue glorie ayens hym that kittith with it? ether a sawe schal be enhaunsid ayens hym of whom it is drawun? as if a yerde is reisd ayens hym that reisith it, and a staf is enhaunsid, which sotheli is a tre. 16 For this thing the lordli gouernour, Lord of oostis, schal sende thinnesse in the fatte men of hym, and his glorie kyndlid vndur schal brenne as `the brenning of fier. 17 And the liyt of Israel schal be in fier, and the hooli of it in flawme; and the thorn of him and brere schal be kyndlid and deuourid in o dai. 18 And the glorie of his forest and of his Carnele schal be wastid, fro the soule `til to fleisch; and he schal be fleyngge awei fro drede. 19 And the relifs of the tree of his forest schulen be noumbrid for fewnesse, and a child schal write hem. 20 And it schal be in that dai, the remenaunt of Israel, and thei that fledden of the house of Jacob, schal not adde for to triste on hym that smyth hem; but it schal triste on the hooli Lord of Israel, in treuthe. 21 The relifs, Y seie, the relifs of Jacob, schulen be conuertid to the stronge Lord. 22 Forwhi, Israel, if thi puple is as the grauel of the see, the relifs schulen be turned therof; an endyng maad schort schal make riytfulnesse to be plenteouse. 23 For whi the Lord God of oostis schal make an endyng and a breggyng in the myddis of al erthe. 24 For this thing the Lord God of oostis seith these thingis, My puple, the dwellere of Sion, nyle thou drede of Assur, for he schal smite thee in a yerde, and he schal reise his staf on thee in the weie of Egypt. 25 Forwhi yit a lilit, and a lilit, and myn indignacioun and my strong veniaunce schal be endid on the greet trespas of hem. 26 And the Lord of oostis schal reise a scourge on hym bi the veniaunce of Madian in the stoon of Oreb, and bi his yerde on the see; and he schal reise that yerde in the wei of Egypt. 27 And it schal be in that dai, his birthun schal be takun awei fro thi schuldre, and his yok fro thi necke; and the yok schal wexe rotun fro the face of oile. 28 He schal come in to Aioth, he schal passe in to Magron, at Magynas he schal bitake his vessels to kepyng. 29 Thei passiden swiftli, Gabaa is oure seete, Rama was astonyed, Gabaa of Saul fled. 30 Thou douytir of Gallym, weile with thi vois; thou Laisa, perseyue, thou pore Anatot. 31 Medemena passide; the dwellers of Gabyn fledden; be ye coumfortid. 32 Yit it is dai, that me stonde in Nobe; he schal dryue his hond on the hil of the douyter of Syon, on the lilit

He schal deme not bi the siyt of iyen, nether he schal repreue bi the heryng of eeris; 4 but he schal deme in riytfulnesse pore men, and he schal repreue in equityte, for the mylde men of erthe. And he schal smyte the lond with the yerde of his mouth, and bi the spirit of his lippis he schal sle the wickid man. 5 And riytfulnesse schal be the girdil of hise leendis, and feith schal be the girdyng of hise reynes. 6 A wolf schal dwelle with a lombe, and a parde schal reste with a kide; a calf, and a lioun, and a scheep schulen dwelle togidere, and a litil child schal dryue hem. 7 A calf and a beere schulen be lesewid togidere; the whelpis of hem schulen reste, and a lioun as an oxe schal ete stre. 8 And a yonge soukyng child fro the tete schal delite on the hole of a snake, and he that is wenyd schal putte his hond in the caue of a cocatrice. 9 Thei schulen not anoye, and schulen not sle in al myn hooli hil; forwhi the erthe is fillid with the kunnyng of the Lord, as watris of the see hilynge. 10 In that dai the roote of Jesse, that stondith in to the signe of puplis; hethene men schulen biseche hym, and his sepulchre schal be gloriouse. 11 And it schal be in that day, the Lord schal adde the secounde tyme his hond to haue in possessioun the residue of his puple that schal be left, of Assiriens, and of Egipt, and of Fethros, and of Ethiopie, and of Elan, and of Sennar, and of Emath, and of ylis of the see. 12 And he schal reise a sygne to naciouns, and schal gadere togidere the fleeris awei of Israel; and he schal gadere togidere the scatterid men of Juda fro foure coostis of erthe. 13 And the enuye of Effraym schal be don awei, and the enemyes of Juda schulen perische; Effraym schal not haue enuye to Juda, and Juda schal not fiyte ayens Effraym. 14 And thei schulen fle in to the schuldris of Filisteis bi the see, thei schulen take prey togidere of the sones of the eest; Ydume and Moab schulen be the comaundement of the hond of hem, and the sones of Amon schulen be obedient. 15 And the Lord schal make desolat the tunge of the see of Egipt, and he schal reise his hond on the flood in the strengthe of his spirit; and he schal smyte, ethir departe, it in seuene ryueris, so that schood men passe bi it. 16 And a weie schal be to my residue puple that schal be left, of Assiriens, as it was to Israel, in the dai in which it stiede fro the lond of Egipt.

schulen dwelle there, and heeri beestis schulen skippe there. 22 And bitouris schulen answere there in the housis therof, and flynge serpentis in the templis of lust.

14 It is niy that the tyme therof come, and the daies therof schulen not be maad fer; for whi the Lord schal haue merci of Jacob, and he schal chese yit of Israel, and schal make them for to reste on her lond; a comelyng schal be ioyned to them, and schal cleue to the house of Jacob. 2 And pupilis schulen holde hem, and schulen brynge hem in to her place. And the hous of Israel schal haue hem in possessioun in to seruautis and handmaidis on the lond of the Lord; and thei schulen take tho men that token hem, and thei schulen make suget her wrongful axeris. 3 And it schal be in that dai, whanne God schal yyue to thee reste of thi trauel, and of thi shakying, and of hard seruage, in which thou seruedist bifore, 4 thou schalt take this parable ayens the kyng of Babiloyne, and thou schalt sei, Hou ceesside the wrongful axere, restide tribute? 5 The Lord hath al to-broke the staf of wickid men, the yerde of lordis, 6 that beet pupilis in indignacioun, with vncurable wounde, that sugetide folkis in woodnesse, that pursuede cruely. 7 Ech lond restide, and was stille; it was ioiful, and made ful out ioie. 8 Also fir trees and cedris of the Liban weren glad on thee; sithen thou sleptist, noon stieth that kittith vs down. 9 Helle vndur thee is disturblid for the meeting of thi comyng; he schal reise giauntis to thee; alle the princes of erthe han rise fro her seetis, alle the princes of naciouns. (Sheol h7585) 10 Alle thei schulen answere, and thei shulen sei to thee, And thou art woundid as and we, thou art maad lijk vs. 11 Thi pride is drawun down to hellis, thi deed careyn felle down; a mouyte schal be strewyd vndur thee, and thin hilyng schal be wormes. (Sheol h7585) 12 Al! In the yeer wheryne kyng Achas diede, this birthun was maad. 29 Al thou Filistea, be not glad, for the yerde of thi smytere is maad lesse; for whi a cocatrice schal go out of the roote of an eddre, and his seed schal soupe up a brid. 30 And the firste gendrid of pore men schulen be fed, and pore men schulen reste feithfuli; and Y schal make thi throte to perisch in hungur, and Y schal sle thi relifs. 31 Yelle, thou yate; cry, thou citee, al Filistea is cast down; for whi smoke schal come fro the north, and noon is that schal ascape his oost. 32 And what schal be answerid to the messangeris of folk? for the Lord hath foundid Sion, and the pore men of his puple schulen hope in hym.

Ye schippis of the see, yelle, for the hous is distried, fro whennus coumfort was wont to come; fro the lond of Cethym, and was schewid to hem. 2 Be ye stille, that dwellen in the ile, the marchaundie of Sidon; men passyng the see filliden thee in many watris; 3 the seed of Nylus is heruest, the flood is the corn therof, and it is maad the marchaundie of hethene men. 4 Thou, Sidon, be aschamed, seide the see, the strengthe of the see, and seide, Y traueleide not of child, and Y childide not, and Y nurschide not yonge men, and Y brouyte not fulli virgyns to encreessyng. 5 Whanne it

The Lord sente ayenes Canaan, for to al to-breke the stronge men therof; 12 and he seide, Thou maide, the douyter of Sidon, that suffrist caleng, schalt no more adde, that thou haue glorie. Rise thou, and passe ouer the see in to Sechym; there also no reste schal be to thee. 13 Lo! the lond of Caldeis, sich a puple was not; Assur foundide that Tyre; thei ledde ouer in to caitifte the strong men therof; thei myneden the housis therof, thei settiden it in to fallyng. 14 Yelle, ye schippis of the see, for youre strengthe is distried. 15 And it schal be, in that dai, thou Tire, schalt be in foryetyng bi seuenti yeer, as the daies of o king; but aftir seuenti yeer, as the song of an hoore schal be to Tyre. 16 Thou hoore, youun to foryetyng, take an harpe, cumpasse the citee; syng thou wel, vse thou ofte a song, that mynde be of thee. 17 And it schal be, aftir seuenti yeer, the Lord schal visite Tire, and schal brynge it ayen to hise hiris; and eft it schal be, whanne it schal do fornycacioun with alle rewmes of erthe, on the face of erthe. 18 And the marchaundies therof and the meedis therof schulen be haledwid to the Lord; tho schulen not be hid, nethir schulen be leid vp; for whi the marchaundie therof schal be to hem that dwellen bfore the Lord, that thei ete to fulnesse, and be clothid `til to eldnesse.

24 Lo! the Lord schal distrie the erthe, and schal make it nakid, and schal turmente the face therof; and he schal scatter abroad the dwelleris therof. 2 And it schal be, as the puple, so the preest; as the seruaut, so his lord; as the handmaide, so the ladi of hir; as a biere, so he that sillith; as the leenere, so he that takith borewyng; as he that axith ayen, so he that owith. 3 Bi distrying the lond schal be distried, and schal be maad nakid by rauyschyng; for whi the Lord spak this word. 4 The erthe morenyde, and fleet awei, and is maad sijk; the world fleet awei, the hiynesse of the puple of erthe is maad sijk, 5 and the erthe is slayn of hise dwelleris. For thei passiden lawis, chaungiden riyt, distrieden euerlastyng boond of pees. 6 For this thing cursyng schal deuoure the erthe, and the dwelleris therof schulen do synne; and therfor the louyeris therof schulen be woode, and fewe men schulen be left. 7 Vyndage morenyde, the vyne is sijk; alle men that weren glad in herte weiliden. 8 The ioie of tympanis ceesside, the sowne of glad men restide; the swetnesse of harpe with song was stille. 9 Thei schulen not drynke wyn; a bittere drynk schal be to hem that schulen drynke it. 10 The citee of vanyte is al to-brokun; ech hous is closid, for no man entrith. 11 Cry schal be on wyn in streetis, al gladnesse is forsakun, the ioie of erthe is `takun awei. 12 Desolacioun is left in the citee, and wretchidnesse schal oppresse the yatis. 13 For these thingis schulen be in the myddis of erthe, in the myddis of puplis, as if a fewe fruitis of olyue trees that ben left ben schakun of fro the olyue tre, and racyns, whanne the vyndage is endid. 14 These men schulen reise her vois, and schulen preise, whanne the Lord schal be glorified; thei schulen schewe signes of gladnesse fro the see. 15 For this thing glorifie ye the Lord in techyngis; in the ilis of the see glorifie ye the name of the Lord God of Israel. 16 Fro the endis of erthe we han herd heriyngis, the glorie of the iust. And Y seide, My pryuyte to me, my pryuyte to me. Wo to me, trespassours han trespassid, and han trespassid bi trespassyng of brekeris of the lawe. 17 Ferdfulnesse, and a diche, and a snare on thee, that art a dwellere of erthe. 18 And it schal be, he that schal fle fro the face of ferdfulnesse, schal falle in to the diche; and he that schal delyuere hym siff fro the dich, schal be holdun of the snare; for whi the wyndows of hiye thingis ben openyd, and the fundamentis of erthe schulen be schakun togidere. 19 The erthe schal be brokun with brekyng. 20 The erthe schal be defoulid with defoulyng, the erthe schal be mouyd with mouyng, the erthe schal be schakun with schakyng, as a drunkun man. 21 And it schal be takun awei, as the tabernacle of o nyyt, and the wickidnesse therof schal greue it; and it schal falle down, and it schal not adde, for to rise ayen. And it schal be, in that dai the Lord schal visite on the knyythod of heuene an hiy, and on the kyngis of erthe, that ben on erthe. 22 And thei schulen be gaderid togidere in the gadering togidere of a bundel in to the lake, and thei schulen be closid there in prisoun; and aftir many daies thei schulen be visited. 23 And the moone schal be aschamed, and the sunne schal be confoundid, whanne the Lord of oostis schal regne in the hil of Sion, and in Jerusalem, and schal be glorified in the siyt of hise eldre men.

25 Lord, thou art my God, Y schal enhaunse thee, and Y schal knouleche to thi name; for thou hast do marueils, thin elde feithful thouytis. 2 Amen. For thou hast set the citee in to a briel, a strong citee in to fallyng, the hous of aliens, that it be not a citee, and be not bildid with outen ende. 3 For this thyng a strong puple schal herie thee, the citee of strong folkis schal drede thee. 4 For thou art maad strengthe to a pore man, strengthe to a nedi man in his tribulacioun, hope fro whirlwynd, a schadewyng place fro heete; for whi the spirit of stronge men is as a whirlewynd hurlyng the wal. 5 As bi heete in thirst, thou schalt make meke the noise of aliens; and as bi heete vndur a cloude brennyng, thou schalt make the siouns of stronge men to fade. 6 And the Lord of oostis schal make in this hil to alle puplis the feeste of fatte thingis, the feeste of vyndage of fatte thingis ful of merow, of vyndage wel fyned. 7 And he schal caste doun in this hil the face of boond, boundun togidere on alle puplis, and the web which he weuyde on alle naciouns. 8 And he schal caste doun deth with outen ende, and the Lord God schal do away ech teer fro ech face; and he schal do awei the schenscipe of his puple fro ech lond; for the Lord spak. 9 And thei schulen seie in that dai, Lo! this is oure God; we abididen hym, and he schal saue vs; this is the Lord; we suffriden him, and we schulen make ful out ioie, and schulen be glad in his helthe. 10 For whi the hond of the Lord schal reste in this hil, and Moab schal be threischild vndur hym, as chaffis ben stampid in a wayn. 11 And he schal stretche forth hise hondis vndur hym, as a swymmere stretchith forth to swymme; and he schal make low the glorie of him with hurtyng doun of hise hondis. 12 And the strengthingis of thin hiy wallis schulen falle doun, and schulen be maad low, and schulen be drawun doun to the erthe, `til to the dust.

26 In that dai this song schal be sungun in the lond of Juda. The citee of oure strengthe; the sauour schal be set ther ynn, the wal and the `fore wal. 2 Opene ye the yatis, and the iust folk schal entre, kepyng treuthe. 3 The elde error is gon awei; thou schalt kepe pees, pees, for thou, Lord, we hopiden in thee. 4 Ye han hopid in the Lord, in euerlastyng worldis, in the Lord God, strong with outen ende. 5 For he schal bowe doun hem that dwellen an hiy, and he schal make low an hiy citee; he schal make it low `til to the erthe; he schal drawe it doun `til to the dust. 6 The foot of a pore man schal defoule it, and the steppis of nedi men schulen defoule it. 7 The weie of a iust man is riyful, the path of a iust man is riyful to go. 8 And in the weie of thi domes, Lord, we suffriden thee; thi name, and thi memorial is in desir of soule. 9 My soule schal desire thee in the niyt, but also with my spirit in myn entrails; fro the morewid Y schal wake to thee. Whanne thou schalt make thi domes in erthe, alle dwelleris of the world schulen lerne riyfulnesse. 10 Do we merci to the wickid man, and he schal not lerne to do riyfulnesse; in the lond of seyntis he dide wickid thingis, and he schal not se the glorie of the Lord. 11 Lord, thin hond be enhaunsid, that thei se not; puplis hauynge enuye se, and be schent, and fier deuoure thin enemyes. 12 Lord, thou schalt yyue pees to vs, for thou hast wrouyt alle oure werkis in vs. 13 Oure Lord God, lordis hadden vs in possessioun, withouten thee; oneli in thee hawe we mynde of thi name. 14 Thei that dien, lyue not, and giauntis risen not ayen. Therfor thou hast visityd, and hast al-to broke hem, and thou hast lost al the mynde of hem; and Lord, thou hast foryoue to a folc, 15 thou hast foryoue to a folc. Whether thou art glorified? thou hast maad fer fro thee all the endis of erthe. 16 Lord, in angwisch thei souyten thee; in the tribulacioun of grutchyng thi doctryn to hem. 17 As sche that conseyuede, whanne sche neiyeth sorrowful to the child beryng, crieth in her sorewis, so we ben maad, Lord, of thi face. 18 We han conseyued, and we han as trauelid of child, and we han childid the spirit of helthe; we diden not riyfulnesse in erthe. Therfor the dwelleris of erthe fellen not doun; thi deed men schulen lyue, 19 and my slayn men schulen rise ayen. Ye that dwellen in dust, awake, and herie; for whi the deew of liyt is thi deew, and thou schalt drawe doun the lond of giauntis in to fallyng. 20 Go thou, my puple, entre in to thi beddis, close thi doris on thee, be thou hid a litil at a moment, til indignacioun passe. 21 For lo! the Lord schal go out of his place, to visite the wickidnesse of the dweller of erthe ayens hym; and the erthe schal schewe his blood, and schal no more hile hise slayn men.

27 In that dai the Lord schal visite in his hard swerd, and greet, and strong, on leuyathan, serpent, a barre, and on leuyathan, the crookid serpent; and he schal sle the whal, which is in the see. 2 In that dai the vyner of cleen wyn and good schal synge to him. 3 Y am the Lord that kepe that vyner; sudeynli Y schal yyue drynke to it, lest perauenture it be visitid ayens it; 4 nytt and dai Y kepe it, indignacioun is not to me. Who schal yyue me a thorn and brere? In batel Y schal go on it, Y schal brenne it togidere. 5 Whether rather Y schal holde my strengthe? It schal make pees to me, it schal make pees to me, for 6 the merit of hem that schulen go out with fersnesse fro Jacob. Israel schal floure and brynge forth seed, and thei schulen fille the face of the world with seed. 7 Whether he smoot it bi the wounde of the puple of Jewis smytynge hym? ether as it killide the slayn men of hym, so it was slayn? 8 In mesure ayens mesure, whanne it schal be cast awei, he schal deme it; he bihouyte in his hard spirit, bi the dai of heete. 9 Therfor on this thing wickidnesse schal be foryoun to the hous of Jacob, and this schal be al the fruyt, that the synne therof be don awei, whanne it hath set all the stoonys of the auter as the stoonys of aische hurtlid doun. Wodis and templs schulen not stonde. 10 Forsothe the strong citee schal be desolat, the fair citee schal be left, and schal be forsakun as a desert; there a calf schal be lesewid, and schal ligge there, and schal waste the hiynessis therof. 11 In the drynesse of ripe corn therof wymmen comynge, and thei that techen it, schulen be al to-brokun. Forsothe it is not a wijs puple, therfor he that made it, schal not haue mercy on it; and he that formyde it, schal not spare it. 12 And it schal be, in that dai the Lord schal smyte thee, fro the botme of the flood `til to the stronde of Egypt; and ye sonos of Israel, schulen be gaderid oon and oon. 13 And it schal be, in that dai me schal come with a greet trumpe, and thei that weren lost, schulen come fro the lond of Assiriens, and thei that weren cast out, schulen come fro the lond of Egypt; and they schulen worschipe the Lord, in the hooli hil in Jerusalem.

28 Wo to the coroun of pride, to the drunken men of Effraym, and to the flour fallynge doun of the glorie of the ful out ioiying therof, that weren in the cop of the fatteste valei, and erriden of wyn. 2 Lo! the myyti and strong Lord, as the feersnesse of hail, a whirlwynd brekyng togidere, as the fersnesse of many watris flowynge, and sent out on a large lond. 3 The coroun of pride of the drunken men of Effraym schal be defoulid with feet, 4 and the flour of glorie of the ful out ioiying of hym, that is on the cop of valei of fat thingis, schal be fallyng doun, as a tymeli thing before the ripenesse of heruest; which whanne a man seyng biholdith, anoon as he takith with hond, he schal deuoure it. 5 In that dai the Lord of oostis schal be a coroun of glorie, and a garlond of ful out ioiying, to the residue of his puple; 6 and a spirit of doom to hym that sittith on the trone, and strengthe to hem that turnen ayen fro batel to the yate. 7 But also thei knewen not for wyn, and erriden for drunkenesse; the preest and profete knewen not for drunkenesse; thei weren sopun up of wyn, thei erriden in drunkenesse; thei knewen not a profete, thei knewen not doom. 8 For whi alle bordis weren

fillid with spuyng and filthis, so that ther was no more place. 9 Whom schal he teche kunnyng, and whom schal he make to vndurstonde heryng? Men wenyd fro mylk, men drawun awei fro tetis. 10 For whi comaunde thou, comaunde thou ayen; comaunde thou, comaunde thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; a litil there, a litil there. 11 For whi in speche of lippe, and in other langage he schal speke to this puple, 12 to which he seide, This is my reste; refreische ye a weri man, and this is my refreischyng; and thei nolden here. 13 And the word of the Lord schal be to hem, Sende thou, sende thou ayen; sende thou, sende thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; abide thou, abide thou ayen; a litil there, a litil there; that thei go, and falle backward, and be al to-brokun, and be snarid, and be takun. 14 For this thing, ye men scorneris, that ben lordis ouer my puple which is in Jerusalem, here the word of the Lord. 15 For ye seiden, We han smyte a boond of pees with deth, and we han maad couenaunt with helle; a scourge flowynge whanne it schal passe, schal not come on vs, for we han set a leesyng oure hope, and we ben kyuered with a leesyng. (Sheol h7585) 16 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal sende in the foundementis of Sion a corner stoon precieuse, preuyd, foundid in the foundement; he that bileueth, schal not haaste. 17 And Y schal sette doom in weiyte, and riytfulnesse in mesure; and hail schal distrie the hope of leesyng, and watris schulen flowe on proteccioun. And youre boond of pees with deth schal be don awei, 18 and youre couenaunt with helle schal not stonde; whanne the scourge flowynge schal passe, ye schulen be to it in to defoulyng. (Sheol h7585) 19 Whanne euer it schal passe, it schal take awei yow; for whi erli in the grey morewid it schal passe, in dai and niyt; and oonli trael aloone schal yyue vndurstondyng to heryng. 20 Forsothe the bed is streit, so that the tother falle doun; and a schort mentil schal not hile euer either. 21 For as in the hil of departyngis the Lord schal stonde, as in the valei, which is in Gabaon, he schal be wroth, that he do his werk; his werk alien, that he worche his werk; his werk is straunge fro hym. 22 And now nyle ye scorne, lest perauenture youre boondis be maad streit togidere; for Y herde of the Lord God of oostis, endyng and abreggyng on al erthe. 23 Perseyue ye with eeris, and here ye my vois; perseyue ye, and here ye my speche. 24 Whether he that erith, schal ere al dai, for to sowe, and schal be kerue, and purge his londe? 25 Whether whanne he hath maad euene the face therof, schal he not sowe gith, and spreng abroad comyn? and he schal not sette wheete bi ordre, and barli, and mylium, and fetchis in his coostis? 26 And his God schal teche hym, in doom he schal teche hym. 27 Forsothe gith schal not be threischild in sawis, and a wheel of a wayn schal not cumpasse on comyn; but gith schal be betun out with a yerd, and comyn with a staf. 28 Sotheli breed schal be maad lesse, but he that threischild schal not threische it with outen ende, nether schal trauele it with a wheel of a wayn, nether schal make it lesse with hise clees. 29 And this thing yede out of the Lord God of oostis, that he schulde make wondirful councel, and magnefie riytfulnesse.

29 Wo! Ariel, Ariel, the citee which Daud ouercam; yeer is addid to yeer, solemponytes ben passydy. 2 And Y schal

cumpasse Ariel, and it schal be soreful and morenyng; and Jerusalem schal be to me as Ariel. 3 And Y schal cumpasse as a round trendil in thi cumpasse, and Y schal caste erthe ayens thee, and Y schal sette engynes in to thi bisegying. 4 Thou schalt be maad low, thou schalt speke of erthe, and thi speche schal be herd fro the erthe; and thi vois schal be as the vois of a deed man reisd bi coniuring, and thi speche schal ofte grutche of the erthe. 5 And the multitude of hem that wyndewen thee, schal be as thynne dust; and the multitude of hem that hadden the maistrie ayens thee, schal be as a deed sparcle passyng. 6 And it schal be sudenli, anon it schal be visitid of the Lord of oostis, in thundur, and in mouyng of the erthe, and in greet vois of whirlwynd, and of tempest, and of flawme of fier deuowryng. 7 And the multitude of alle folkis that fouyten ayens Ariel schal be as the dreem of a nyttis visioun; and alle men that fouyten, and bisegiden, and hadden the maistrie ayens it. 8 And as an hungry man dremyth, and etith, but whanne he is awakid, his soule is voide; and as a thirsti man dremeth, and drynkith, and after that he is awakid, he is weri, and thirstith yit, and his soule is voide, so schal be the multitude of alle folkis, that fouyten ayens the hil of Sion. 9 Be ye astoryed, and wondre; wake ye, and douyte ye; be ye drunken, and not of wyn; be ye moued, and not with drunkenesse. 10 For the Lord hath meddlid to you the spirit of sleep; he schal close youre iyen, and schal hile youre profetis, and princes that sien visiouns. 11 And the visioun of alle profetis schal be to you as the wordis of a book aseelid; which whanne thei schulen yyue to hym that kan lettris, thei schulen seie, Rede thou this book; and he schal answer, Y may not, for it is aseelid. 12 And the book schal be youun to him that kan not lettris, and it schal be seid to hym, Rede thou; and he schal answer, Y kan no lettris. 13 And the Lord seide, For that this puple neiyeth with her mouth, and glorifieth me with her lippis, but her herte is fer fro me; and thei dredden me for the comaundement and techyngis of men, therfor lo! 14 Y schal adde, that Y make wondryng to this puple, in a greet myracle and wondrousful; for whi wisdom schal perische fro wise men therof, and the vndurstondyng of prudent men therof schal be hid. 15 Wo to you that ben hiye of herte, that ye hide counsel fro the Lord; the werkis of whiche ben in derknessis, and thei seien, Who seeth vs, and who knowith vs? 16 This thouyt of you is weiward, as if cley thenke ayens a pottere, and the werk seie to his makere, Thou madist not me; and a thing that is maad, seie to his makere, Thou vndurstondist not. 17 Whether not yit in a litil time and schort the Liban schal be turned in to Chermel, and Chermel schal be arettid in to the forest? 18 And in that dai deaf men schulen here the wordis of the book, and the iyen of blynde men schulen se fro derknessis and mysty; 19 and mylde men schulen encreesse gladnesse in the Lord, and pore men schulen make ful out ioie in the hooli of Israel. 20 For he that hadde the maistrie, failide, and the scornere is endid, and alle thei ben kit doun that walkiden on wickidnesse; 21 whiche maden men to do synne in word, and disseyueden a repreuere in the yate, and bowiden away in veyn fro a iust man. 22 For this thing the Lord, that ayen bouyte Abraham, seith these thingis to the hous of Jacob, Jacob schal not be confoundid now, nether

now his cheer schal be aschamed; but whanne he schal se hise sones, 23 the werkis of myn hondis, halewyng my name in the myddis of hym. And thei schulen halewe the hooli of Jacob, and thei schulen preche God of Israel; 24 and thei that erren in spirit, schulen knowe vndurstondyng, and idil men schulen lerne the lawe.

30 Wo! sones forsakeris, seith the Lord, that ye schulden make a council, and not of me; and weue a web, and not bi my spirit, that ye schulden encreesse synne on synne. 2 Whiche goen, to go doun in to Egipt, and ye axiden not my mouth; ye hopynge help in the strengthe of Farao, and ye hauyng trist in the schadewe of Egipt. 3 And the strengthe of Farao schal be to you in to confusioun, and the trist of the schadewe of Egipt in to schenschipec. 4 For whi thi princes weren in Taphnys, and thi messengeris camen til to Anes. 5 Alle thei weren schent on the puple, that myten not profite to hem; thei weren not in to help, and in to ony profit, but in to schame and schenschip. 6 The birthun of werk beestis of the south. In the lond of tribulacioun and of angwisch, a lionesse, and a lioun, of hem a serpent, and a cocatrice; thei weren berynge her richessis on the schuldris of werk beestis, and her tresours on the botche of camels, to a puple that myte not profite to hem. 7 For whi Egipt schal helpe in veyn, and idili. Therfor Y criede on this thing, It is pride oneli; ceesse thou. 8 Now therfor entre thou, and write to it on box, and write thou it diligenti in a book; and it schal be in the last dai in to witnessyng, til in to with outen ende. 9 For it is a puple terryng to wrathfulnesse, and sones lieris, sones that nylen here the lawe of God. 10 Whiche seien to profetis, Nyle ye prophesie; and to biholderis, Nyle ye biholde to vs tho thingis that ben riyful; speke ye thingis plesyng to vs, se ye errouris to vs. 11 Do ye aweil fro me the weie, bowe ye aweil fro me the path; the hooli of Israel ceesse fro oure face. 12 Therfor the hooli of Israel seith these thingis, For that that ye repreuiden this word, and hopiden on fals caleng, and on noise, and tristiden on it, 13 therfor this wickidnesse schal be to you as a brekyng fallynge doun, and souyt in an hiy wal; for sudeynli while it is not hopid, the brekyng therof schal come. 14 And it schal be maad lesse, as a galoun of a pottere is brokun with ful strong brekyng; and a scherd schal not be foundun of the gobetis therof, in which scherd a litil fier schal be borun of brennyng, ethir a litil of watir schal be drawun of the diche. 15 For whi the Lord God, the hooli of Israel, seith these thingis, If ye turnen ayen, and resten, ye schulen be saaf; in stilnesse and in hope schal be youre strengthe. And ye nolden. 16 And ye seiden, Nai, but we schulen fle to horsis; therfor ye schulen fle. And we schulen stie on swifte horsis; therfor thei schulen be swifter, that schulen pursue you. 17 A thousynde men schulen fle fro the face of the drede of oon; and ye schulen fle fro the face of drede of fyue, til ye be left as the mast of a schip in the cop of a munteyn, and as a signe on a litil hil. 18 Therfor the Lord abidith, that he haue mercy on you, and therfor he schal be enhaunsid sparynge you; for whi God is Lord of doom, blessid ben alle thei that abiden hym. 19 Forsothe the puple of Sion schal dwelle in Jerusalem; thou wepyng schal not wepe, he doynge merci schal haue merci on thee; at the vois of thi cry, anon as he herith, he schal answeere to thee. 20 And the Lord schal yyue to thee streyt breed, and schort watir, and schal no more make thi techere to fle awei fro thee; and thin iyen schulen be seynge thi comaundour, 21 and thin eeris schulen here a word bihynde the bak of hym that monestith; This is the weie, go ye therynne, nether to the ryt half nether to the left half. 22 And thou schalt defoule the platis of the grauun ymagis of thi siluer, and the cloth of the yotun ymage of thi gold; and thou schalt scatere tho, as the vncleennesse of a womman in vncleene blood; Go thou out, and thou schalt seie to it. 23 And reyn schal be youun to thi seed, where euere thou schalt sowe in erthe, and the breed of fruytis of erthe schal be moost plenteuouse and fat; in that dai a lomb schal be fed largeli in thi possessioun. 24 And thi bolis and coltis of assis, that worchen the lond, schulen ete barli with chaf meynd togidere, as it is wyndewid in the cornfloor. 25 And strondis of rennyng watris schulen be on ech hiy munteyn, and on ech lital hil reisid, in the dai of sleynge of many men, whanne touris fallen doun. 26 And the liyt of the moone schal be as the liyt of the sunne, and the liyt of the sunne schal be seuenfold, as the liyt of seuen daies, in the dai in which the Lord schal bynde togidere the wounde of his puple, and schal make hool the smytyng of the wounde therof. 27 Lo! the name of the Lord cometh doun fro fer; his strong veniaunce is brennyng and greuouse to bere; hise lippis ben fillid of indignacioun, and his tunge is as fier deuouringe. 28 His spirit is as a stef stream, flowyng `til til the myddis of the necke, to leese folkis in to nouyt, and the bridil of error, that was in the chekis of puplis. 29 Song schal be to you, as the vois of an halewid solempnyte; and gladnesse of herte, as he that goth with a pipe, for to entre in to the hil of the Lord, to the stronge of Israel. 30 And the Lord schal make herd the glorie of his vois, and he schal schewe the ferdfulnesse of his arm in manassyng of strong veniaunce, and in flawme of fier brennyng; he schal hurtle doun in whirlewynd, and in stoon of hail. 31 For whi Assur smytun with a yerde schal drede of the vois of the Lord; 32 and the passyng of the yerd schal be foundid, which yerde the Lord schal make for to reste on hym. In tympanis, and harpis, and in souereyn batels he schal ouercome hem. 33 For whi Tophet, that is, helle, deep and alargid, is maad redi of the kyng fro yistirdai; the nurschyngis therof ben fier and many trees; the blast of the Lord as a stream of brymstoon kyndliith it.

31 Wo to hem that goon doun in to Egipt to help, and hopen in horsis, and han trist on cartis, for tho ben manye, and on knyitis, for thei ben ful stronge; and thei tristiden not on the hooli of Israel, and thei souyten not the Lord. 2 Forsothe he that is wijs, hath brouyt yuel, and took not awei hise wordis; and he schal rise togidere ayens the hous of worste men, and ayens the helpe of hem that worchen wickidnesse. 3 Egipt is a man, and not God; and the horsis of hem ben fleisch, and not spirit; and the Lord schal bowe doun his hond, and the helpere schal falle doun, and he schal falle, to whom help is youun, and alle schulen be wastid togidere. 4 For whi the Lord seith these thingis to me, If a lioun rorith, and a whelp of a lioun on his prey, whanne the multitude of schipherdis cometh ayens hym, he schal not drede of the vois of hem, and he schal not drede of the multitude of hem; so the Lord of oostis schal come doun, for to fitye on the mounteyn of Sion, and on the lital hil therof. 5 As briddis fleyng, so the Lord of oostis schal defende Jerusalem; he defendyng and delyueryng, passyng forth and sauynge. 6 Ye sonnes of Israel, be conuertid, as ye hadden go awei in to depthe. 7 Forsothe in that dai a man schal caste awei the idols of his siluer, and the idols of his gold, whiche youre hondis maden to you in to synne. 8 And Assur schal falle bi swerd, not of man, and a swerd, not of man, schal deuoure hym; and he schal fle, not fro the face of swerd, and hise yonge men schulen be tributaries; 9 and the strengthe of hym schal passe fro ferdfulnesse, and hise princes fleyng schulen drede. The Lord seide, whos fier is in Sion, and his chymeney is in Jerusalem.

32 Lo! the kyng schal regne in riytfulnesse, and princes schulen be souereyns in doom. 2 And a man schal be, as he that is hid fro wynd, and hidith hym silf fro tempest; as stremes of watris in thirst, and the schadewe of a stoon stondyng fer out in a desert lond. 3 The iyen of profetis schulen not dasewe, and the eeris of heereris schulen herke diligenti; 4 and the herte of foolis schal vndurstonde kunnyng, and the tunge of stuttyng men schal speke swiftli, and pleynli. 5 He that is vnwijs, schal no more be clepid prince, and a gileful man schal not be clepid the grettere. 6 Forsothe a fool shal speke foli thingis, and his herte schal do wickidnesse, that he performe feynyng, and speke to the Lord gilefuli; and he schal make voide the soule of an hungry man, and schal take awei drynke fro a thirsti man. 7 The vessels of a gileful man ben worste; for he schal make redi thouytis to leese mylde men in the word of a leesyng, whanne a pore man spak doom. 8 Forsothe a prince schal thanke tho thingis that ben worthi to a prince, and he schal stonde ouer duykis. 9 Riche wymmen, rise ye, and here my vois; douytris tristynge, perseyue ye with eeris my speche. 10 For whi aftir daies and a yeer, and ye that tristen schulen be disturbli; for whi vyndage is endid, gaderyng schal no more come. 11 Ye riche wymmen, be astonyed; ye that tristen, be disturbli; vnclothe ye you, and be ye aschamed; 12 girde youre leendis; weile ye on brestis, on desirable cuntrei, on the plenteuouse vyner. 13 Thornes and breris schulen stie on the erthe of my puple; hou myche more on alle the housis of ioie of the citee makynge ful out ioie? 14 For whi the hous is left, the multitude of the citee is forsakun; derknessis and gropyng ben maad on dennes, `til in to with outen ende. The ioie of wield assis is the lesewe of flockis; 15 til the spirit be sched out on us fro an hiy, and the desert schal be in to Chermel, and Chermel schal be arettid in to a forest. 16 And doom schal dwelle in wildirnesse, and riytfulnesse schal sitte in Chermel; 17 and the werk of riytfulnesse schal be pees, and the tilthe of riytfulnesse schal be stilnesse and sikirnesse, `til in to with outen ende. 18 And my puple schal sitte in the fairnesse of pees, and in the tabernaclis of trist, and in riche reste. 19 But hail schal be in the coming down of the foreste, and bi lownesse the citee schal be maad low. 20 Blessid ben ye, that sowen on alle watris, and putten yn the foot of an oxe and of an asse.

33 Wo to thee, that robbest; whether and thou schalt not be robbid? and that dispisist, whether and thou schalt not be dispisid? Whanne thou hast endid robberyng, thou schalt be robbid; and whanne thou maad weri ceessist to dispise, thou schalt be dispisid. 2 Lord, haue thou merci on vs, for we abiden thee; be thou oure arm in the morewtid, and oure helthe in the tyme of tribulacioun. 3 Pupilis fledden fro the vois of the aungel; hethene men ben scaterid of thin enhaunsyng. 4 And youre spuylis schulen be gaderid togidere, as a bruke is gaderid togidere, as whanne dichis ben ful therof. 5 The Lord is magnefied, for he dwellide an hiy, he fillid Sion with doom and riytfulnesse. 6 And feith schal be in thi tymes; the ritchessis of helthe is wisdom and kunnyng; the drede of the Lord, thilke is the tresour of hym. 7 Lo! seeris withoutenforth schulen crye, aungels of pees schulen wepe bitirli. 8 Weies ben distried, a goere bi the path ceesside; the couenaunt is maad voide, he castide doun citees, he arettide not men. 9 The lond morenyde, and was sijck; the Liban was schent, and was foul; and Saron is maad as desert, and Basan is schakun, and Carmele. 10 Now Y schal ryse, seith the Lord, now I schal be enhaunsid, and now I schal be reisid vp. 11 Ye schulen conseyue heete, ye schulen bryng forth stobil; youre spirit as fier schal deuoure you. 12 And pupilis schulen be as aischis of the brennyng; thornes gaderid togidere schulen be brent in fier. 13 Ye that ben fer, here what thingis Y haue do; and, ye neyboris, knowe my strengthe. 14 Synneris ben al to-brokun in Syon, tremblyng weldide ipocritis; who of you mai dwelle with fier deuowringe? who of you schal dwelle with euerlastinge brennyngis? 15 He that goith in riytfulnessis, and spekiþ treuthe; he that castith awei aueryce of fals calenge, and schakith awei his hondis fro al yifte; he that stoppiþ his eeris, that he heere not blood, and closiþ his iyen, that he se not yuel. 16 This man schal dwelle in hiy thingis, the strengthis of stoons ben the hyynes of hym; breed is youun to hym, hise watris ben feithful. 17 Thei schulen se the kyng in his fairnesse; the iyen of hym schulen biholde the londe fro fer. 18 Eliachym, thin herte schal bithenke drede; where is the lettrid man? Where is he that weieth the wordis of the lawe? where is the techere of lile children? 19 Thou schalt not se a puple vnwijis, a puple of hiy word, so that thou maist not vndurstonde the fair speking of his tunge, in which puple is no wisdom. 20 Biholde thou Sion, the citee of youre solempnyte; thin iyen schulen se Jerusalem, a riche citee, a tabernacle that mai not be borun ouer, nether the nailis therof schulen be takun awei withouten ende; and alle the cordis therof schulen not be brokun. 21 For oneli the worschiful doere oure Lord God is there; the place of floodis is strondis ful large and opyn; the schip of roweris schal not entre bi it, nethir a greet schip schal passe ouer it. 22 For whi the Lord is oure iuge, the Lord is oure lawe yuere, the Lord is oure kyng; he schal saue vs. 23 Thi roopis ben slakid, but tho schulen not auaille; thi mast schal be so, that thou mow not alarge a signe. Thanne the spuylis of many preyes schulen be departid, crokid men schulen rauysche rauelyn. 24 And a neybore schal seie, Y was not sijck; the puple that dwellith in that Jerusalem, wickidnesse schal be takun awei fro it.

34 Neiey, ye hethene men, and here; and ye pupilis, perseyue; the erthe, and the fulnesse therof, the world, and al buriownyng therof, here ye. 2 For whi indignacioun of the Lord is on alle folkis, and strong veniaunce on al the chyualrie of hem; he killide hem, and yaf hem in to sleying. 3 The slayn men of hem schulen be cast forth, and stynk schal stie of the careyns of hem; hillis schulen flete of the blood of hem. 4 And al the chyualrie of heuenys schal faile, and heuenys schulen be foldid togidere as a book, and al the knythythod of tho schal flete doun, as the leef of a vyner and of a fige tre fallith doun. 5 For my swerd is fillid in heuene; lo! it schal come doun on Ydume, and on the puple of my sleying, to doom. 6 The swerd of the Lord is fillid of blood, it is maad fat of the ynner fatnesse of the blood of lambren and of buckis of geet, of the blood of rammes ful of merow; for whi the slayn sacrifice of the Lord is in Bosra, and greet sleying is in the lond of Edom. 7 And vnycornes schulen go doun with hem, and bolis with hem that ben myyti; the lond of hem schal be fillid with blood, and the erthe of hem with ynnere fatnesse of fatte beestis; 8 for it is a dai of veniaunce of the Lord, a yeer of yeldyng of the dom of Sion. 9 And the strondis therof schulen be turned in to pitche, and the erthe therof in to brymstoon; and the lond therof schal be in to brennyng pitch, niyt and dai. 10 It schal not be quenchild withouten ende, the smoke therof schal stie fro generacioun in to generacioun, and it schal be desolat in to worldis of worldis; noon schal passe therbi. 11 And onocrotalus, and an irchoun schulen welde it; and a capret, and a crowe schulen dwelle thereynne; and a mesure schal be stretchid forth thereonne, that it be dryuun to nouyt, and an hangyng plomet in to desolacyoun. 12 The noble men therof schulen not be there; rather thei schulen clepe the kyng in to help, and alle the princes therof schulen be in to nouyt. 13 And thornes and nettis schulen growe in the housis therof, and a tasil in the strengthis therof; and it schal be the couche of dragouns, and the lesewe of ostrichis. 14 And fendis, and wonderful beestis, lijk men in the hiyere part and lijk assis in the nethir part, and an heeri schulen meete; oon schal crie to an other. 15 Lamya schal ligge there, and foond rest there to hir sif; there an irchoun hadde dichis, and nurschide out whelpis, and diggide aboute, and fostride in the schadewe therof; there kitis weren gaderid togidere, oon to another. 16 Seke ye diligentli in the book of the Lord, and rede ye; oon of tho thingis failide not, oon souyte not another; for he comaundide that thing, that goith forth of my mouth, and his spirit he gaderide tho togidere. 17 And he sente to hem eritage, and his hond departide it in mesure; til in to withouten ende tho schulen welde that lond, in generacioun and in to generacioun tho schulen dwelle there ynne.

35 The forsakun Judee and with outen weie schal be glad, and wildirnesse schal make ful out ioye, and schal flour as a lillie. 2 It buriownyng schal buriowne, and it glad and preisynge schal make ful out ioie. The glorie of Liban is youun to it, the fairnesse of Carmele and of Saron; thei schulen se the glorie of the Lord, and the fairnesse of oure God. 3 Coumforte ye comelid hondis, and make ye strong feble knees. 4 Seie ye, Men of lilit coumfort, be ye coumfortid, and nyle ye drede; lo! oure God schal brynge the veniaunce of yeldyng, God hym self schal come, and schal saue vs. 5 Thanne the iyen of blynde men schulen be openyd, and the eeris of deaf men schulen be opyn. 6 Thanne a crokid man schal skippe as an hert, and the tunge of doumbe men schal be openyd; for whi watris ben brokun out in desert, and stremes in wildirnesse. 7 And that that was drie, is maad in to a poond, and the thirsti is maad in to wellis of watris. Grenenesse of rehed, and of spier schal growe in dennes, in whiche dwelliden dragouns bfore. And a path and a weie schal be there, 8 and it schal be clepid an hooli weie, he that is defoulid schal not passe therbi; and this schal be a streijt weie to you, so that foolis erre not therbi. 9 A lioun schal not be there, and an yuel beeste schal not stie therbi, nether schal be foundun there. 10 And thei schulen go, that ben delyuered and ayenbouyt of the Lord; and thei schulen be conuertid, and schulen come in to Sion with preisynge; and euerlastynge gladnesse schal be on the heed of hem; thei schulen haue ioie and gladnesse, and sorewe and weilyng schulen fle awei.

36 And it was don in the fourtenthe yeer of kyng Ezechie, Sennacherib, the kyng of Assiriens, stiede on alle the stronge citees of Juda, and took tho. 2 And the kyng of Assiriens sente Rapsases fro Lachis to Jerusalem, to kyng Ezechie, with greet power; and he stood at the watir cundit of the hiyere sisterne, in the weie of the feeld of a fullere. 3 And Eliachym, the sone of Elchie, that was on the hous, yede out to hym, and Sobna, the scryuen, and Joae, the sone of Asaph, the chaunceler. 4 And Rapsases seide to hem, Seie ye to Ezechie, The greet king, the king of Assiriens, seith these thingis, What is the trist, in which thou tristist? 5 ethir bi what councele ether strengthe disposist thou for to rebelle? on whom hast thou trist, for thou hast go awei fro me? 6 Lo! thou tristist on this brokun staf of rehed, on Egipt, on which if a man restith, it schal entre in to his hoond, and schal perse it; so doith Farao, the kyng of Egipt, to alle men that tristen in hym. 7 That if thou answerist to me, We tristen in oure Lord God; whether it is not he, whose hiye places and auteris Ezechie dide awei, and he seide to Juda and to Jerusalem, Ye schulen worschipe bfore this auter? 8 And now bitake thee to my lord, the kyng of Assiriens, and Y schal yyue to thee twei thousynde of horsis, and thou maist not yyue of thee stieris of tho horsis. 9 And hou schalt thou abide the face of the iuge of o place of the lesse seruauntis of my lord? That if thou tristist in Egipt, and in cartis, and in knyytis; 10 and now whethir Y stiede to this lond with out the Lord, that Y schulde distrie it? The Lord seide to me, Stie thou on this lond, and distrie thou it. 11 And Eliachym, and Sobna, and Joae, seiden to Rapsaces, Speke thou to thi seruauntis bi the langage of Sirie, for we vndurstonden; speke thou not to vs bi the langage of Jewis in the eeris of the puple, which is on the wal. 12 And Rapsaces seide to hem, Whether mi lord sente me to thi lord, and to thee, that Y schulde speke alle these wordis, and not rather to the men that sitten on the wal, that thei ete her toordis, and drynke the pisse of her feet with you? 13 And Rapsaces stood, and criede with greet vois in the langage of Jewis, and seide, Here ye the wordis of the greet kyng, the kyng of Assiriens. 14 The kyng seith these thingis, Ezechie disseyue not you, for he may not delyuere you; 15 and Ezechie yyue not to you trist on the Lord, and seie, The Lord delyuerynge schal delyuere vs; this citee schal not be youun in to the hoond of the kyng of Assiriens. 16 Nyle ye here Ezechie. For whi the kyng of Assiriens seith these thingis, Make ye blessing with me, and go ye out to me; and ete ye ech man his vyner, and ech man his fige tre, and drynke ye ech man the water of his cisterne, 17 til Y come, and take awei you to a lond which is as youre lond; to a lond of whete and of wyn, to a lond of looues and of vyneris. 18 Ezechie disturble not you, and seie, The Lord schal delyuere vs. Whether the goddis of folkis delyuereden ech his lond fro the hond of the kyng of Assiriens? 19 Where is the god of Emath, and of Arphat? Where is the god of Sepharuaym? Whethir thei delyueriden Samarie fro myn hond? 20 Who is of alle goddis of these londis, that delyueride his lond fro myn hond, that the Lord delyuere Jerusalem fro myn hond? 21 And thei weren stille, and answeriden not to hym a word. For whi the kyng comaundide to hem, and seide, Answer ye not to him. 22 And Eliachym, the sone of Elchie, that was on the hous, and Sobna, the scryueyn, and Joae, the sone of Asaph, chaunceler, entriden with to-rent clothis to Ezechie, and telde to hym the wordis of Rapsaces.

37 And it was don, whanne kyng Ezechie hadde herd, he to-rente hise clothis, and he was wlapid in a sak, and entride in to the hous of the Lord. 2 And he sente Eliachym, that was on the hous, and Sobna, the scryuen, and the eldre men of prestis, hild with sackis, to Isaie, the prophete, the sone of Amos. 3 And thei seiden to hym, Ezechie seith these thingis, A dai of tribulacioun, and of angwisch, and of chastisynge, and of blasfemye is this dai; for children camen til to childberyng, and vertu of childberyng is not. 4 Therfor reise thou preier for the relifs that ben foundun, if in ony maner thi Lord God here the wordis of Rapsaces, whom the king of Assiriens, his lord, sente, for to blasfeme Iyunge God, and to dispise bi the wordis, whiche thi Lord God herde. 5 And the seruauntis of kyng Ezechie camen to Isaie; 6 and Isaie seide to hem, Ye schulen seie these thingis to youre lord, The Lord seith these thingis, Drede thou not of the face of wordis whiche thou herdist, bi whiche the children of the kyng of Assiriens blasfemyden me. 7 Lo! Y schal yyue to hym a spirit, and he schal here a messenger; and he schal turne ayen to his londe, and Y schal make hym to falle down bi swerd in his lond. 8 Forsothe Rapsaces turnede ayen, and foond the kyng of Assiriens fitynge ayens Lobna; for he hadde herd, that the kyng was gon fro Lachis. 9 And the kyng herde messengeris seiynge of Theracha, kyng of Ethiopiens, He is gon out to fyte ayens thee. And whanne he hadde herd this thing, he sente messengeris to Ezechie, and seide, Ye schulen seie, 10 spekyng these thingis to Ezechye, kyng of Juda, Thi God disseyue not thee, in whom thou tristist, and seist, Jerusalem schal not be youun in to the hond of the kyng of Assiriens. 11 Lo! thou herdist alle thingis whiche the kynges of Assiriens diden to alle londis whiche thei distrieden; and maist thou be delyuered? 12 Whethir the goddis of folkis delyuereden hem, whiche my fadris distrieden; Gosan, and Aran, and Reseph, and the sones of Eden, that weren in Thalasar? 13 Where is the kyng of Emath, and the kyng of Arphath, and the kyng of the citee of Sepharuaym, and of Ana, and of Aua? 14 And Ezechie took the bookis fro the hond of messangeris, and redde tho; and he stiede in to the hous of the Lord, and spredde abroad tho bfore the Lord; 15 and preiede to the Lord, 16 and seide, Lord of oostis, God of Israel, that sittist on cherubyn, thou art God aloone of alle the rewmes of erthe; thou madist heuene and erthe. 17 Lord, bowe down thin eere, and here; Lord, open thin iyen, and se; and here thou alle the wordis of Sennacherib, whiche he sente for to blasfeme Iyuyng God. 18 For verili, Lord, the kyngis of Assiriens maden londis dissert, and the cuntreis of tho, and yauen the goddis of tho to fier; 19 for thei weren not goddis, but the werkis of mennus hondis, trees and stoonyis; and thei al to-braken tho goddis. 20 And now, oure Lord God, saue thou vs fro the hond of hym; and alle rewmes of erthe knowe, that thou art Lord God aloone. 21 And Isaie, the sone of Amos, sente to Ezechie, and seide, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, For whiche thingis thou preidist me of Sennacherib, the kyng of Assiriens, 22 this is the word which the Lord spak on hym, Thou virgyn, the douyter of Sion, he dispiside thee, he scornede thee; thou virgyn, the douyter of Jerusalem, he moued his heed afir thee. 23 Whom despisist thou, and whom blasfemedist thou? and on whom reisdist thou thi vois, and reisdist the hytnesse of thin iyen? 24 To the hooli of Israel. Bi the hond of thi seruauantis thou dispisidist the Lord, and seidist, In the multitude of my cartis Y stiede on the hiynesses of hillis, on the yockis of Liban; and Y schal kitte down the hiy thingis of cedris therof, and the chosun beechis therof; and Y schal entre in to the hytnesse of the cop therof, in to the forest of Carmele therof. 25 Y diggide, and drank watir; and Y made drie with the step of my foot all the strondis of feeldis. 26 Whether thou, Sennacherib, herdist not what thingis Y yde sum tyme? Fro elde daies Y fourmyde that thing, and now Y haue brouyt; and it is maad in to drawyng vp bi the roote of litle hillis fitynge togidere, and of strong citees. 27 The dwelleris of tho citees trembliden togidere with hond maad schort, and ben aschamed; thei ben maad as hei of the feeld, and the gras of lesewe, and as erbe of roouys, that driede vp bfore that it wexide ripe. 28 Y knew thi dwellyng, and thi goyng out, and thin entryng, and thi woodnesse ayens me. 29 Whanne thou were wood ayens me, thi pride stiede in to myn eeris; therfor Y schal sette a ryng in thi nosethirlis, and a bridil in thi lippis; and Y schal lede thee ayen in to the weie, bi which thou camest. 30 Forsothe to thee, Ezechie, this schal be a signe; ete thou in this yeer tho thingis that growen bi her fre wille, and in the secunde yeer ete thou applis; but in the thridde yeer sowe ye, and repe ye, and plaunte ye vyneris, and ete ye the fruyt of tho. 31 And that that is sauyd of the hous of Juda, and that, that is left, schal sende roote bynethe, and schal make fruyt aboute; 32 for whi relifs schulen go out of Jerusalem, and saluacioun fro the hil of Sion; the feruent loue of the Lord of oostis schal do this thing. 33 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis of the kyng of Assiriens, He schal not entre in to this citee, and he schal not schete there an arowe; and a scheeld schal not ocupie it, and he schal not sende erthe in the cumpas therof. 34 In the weie in which he cam, he schal turne ayen bi it; and he schal not entre in to this citee, seith the Lord. 35 And Y schal defende this citee, that Y saue it, for me, and for Dauid, my seruauant. 36 Forsothe the aungel of the Lord yede out, and killide an hundride thousynde and fourscoor and fyue thousynde in the tentis of Assiriens; and thei risen eerli, and lo! alle men weren careyns of deed men. 37 And Sennacherib yede out of Jude, and wente aweil. And Sennacherib, the kyng of Assiriens, turnede ayen, and dwellide in Nynyue. 38 And it was don, whanne he worschypide Mesrach, his god, in the temple, Aramalech and Sarasar, hise sones, killiden hym with swerd, and fledden in to the lond of Ararath; and Asaradon, his sone, regnyde for hym.

38 In tho daies Ezechie was sijk 'til to the deth; and Isaie, the profete, the sone of Amos, entride to hym, and seide to hym, The Lord seith these thingis, Dispose thi hous, for thou schalt die, and thou schalt not lyue. 2 And Ezechie turnede his face to the wal, and preiede the Lord, and seide, Lord, Y biseche; 3 haue thou mynde, Y biseche, hou Y yede bfore thee in treute, and in perfir herte, and Y yde that that was good bfore thin iyen. And Ezechie wept with greet wepyng. 4 And the word of the Lord was maad to Isaie, and seide, 5 Go thou, and seie to Ezechie, The Lord God of Dauid, thi fadir, seith these thingis, I haue herd thi preier, and Y siy thi teeris. Lo! Y schal adde on thi daies fiftene yeer; 6 and Y schal delyuere thee and this citee fro the hond of the kyng of Assiriens, and Y schal defende it. 7 Forsothe this schal be to thee a signe of the Lord, that the Lord schal do this word, which he spak. 8 Lo! Y schal make the schadewe of lynes, bi which it yede down in the orologie of Achas, in the sunne, to turne ayen backward bi ten lynes. And the sunne turnede ayen bi ten lynes, bi degrees bi whiche it hadde go down. 9 The scripture of Ezechie, kyng of Juda, whanne he hadde be sijk, and hadde rekyuered of his sikennesse. 10 I seide, in the myddil of my daies Y schal go to the yatis of helle. Y souyte the residue of my yeeris; (Sheol h7585) 11 Y seide, Y schal not se the Lord God in the lond of Iyueris; Y schal no more biholde a man, and a dweller of reste. 12 My generacioun is takun aweil, and is foldid togidere fro me, as the tabernacle of scheepherdis is foldid togidere. Mi lijf is kit down as of a webbe; he kittide down me, the while Y was wouun yit. Fro the morewid 'til to the euentid thou schalt ende me; 13 Y hopide til to the morewid; as a lioun, so he al to-brak alle my boonyis. Fro the morewid til to the euentid thou schalt ende me; as the brid of a swalewe, so Y schal crie; 14 Y schal bithenke as a culuer. Myn iyen biholdyng an hiy, ben maad feble. Lord, Y suffre violence, answer thou for me; what schal Y seie, 15 ether what schal answer to me, whanne 'I mysilf haue do? Y schal bithenke to thee alle my yeeris, in the bitternisse of my soule. 16 Lord, if me lyueth so, and the lijf of my spirit is in siche thingis, thou schalt chastise me, and schalt quykene me. 17 Lo! my bitterness is moost bittir in pees; forsothe thou hast delyuered my soule, that it perischide not; thou hast caste away bihynde thi bak alle my synnes. 18 For not helle schal knowleche to thee, nethir deth schal herie thee; thei that goon down in to the lake, schulen not abide thi treuthe. (Sheol h7585) 19 A lyuyng man, a lyuyng man, he schal knowleche to thee, as and Y to dai; the fadir schal make knowun thi treuthe to sones. 20 Lord, make thou me saaf, and we schulen synge oure salmes in all the daies of oure lijf in the hous of the Lord. 21 And Ysaie comaundide, that thei schulden take a gobet of figus, and make a plaster on the wounde; and it schulde be heelid. 22 And Ezechie seide, What signe schal be, that Y schal stie in to the hous of the Lord?

39 In that tyme Marodach Baladan, the sone of Baladam, the kyng of Babiloyne, sente bookis and yiftis to Ezechie; for he hadde herd, that Ezechie hadde be sijk, and was rekyuerid. 2 Forsothe Ezechie was glad on hem, and schewide to hem the selle of swete smellynge spices, and of siluer, and of gold, and of smellynge thingis, and of best oynement, and alle the schoppis of his putenance of houshold, and alle thingis that weren foundun in hise tresours; no word was, which Ezechie schewide not to hem in his hous, and in al his power. 3 Sotheli Ysaie, the prophete, entride to kyng Ezechie, and seide to hym, What seiden thes men, and fro whennus camen thei to thee? And Ezechie seide, Fro a fer lond thei camen to me, fro Babiloyne. 4 And Ysaie seide, What siyen thei in thin hous? And Ezechie seide, Thei sien alle thingis that ben in myn hous; no thing was in my tresours, which Y schewide not to hem. 5 And Ysaie seide to Ezechie, Here thou the word of the Lord of oostis. 6 Lo! daies schulen come, and alle thingis that ben in thin hous, and whiche thingis thi fadris tresoriden til to this dai, schulen be takun awei in to Babiloyne; not ony thing schal be left, seith the Lord. 7 And thei schulen take of thi sones, that schulen go out of thee, whiche thou schalt gendre; and thei schulen be onest seruautis and chast in the paleis of the kyng of Babiloyne. 8 And Ezechie seide to Ysaie, The word of the Lord is good, which he spak. And Ezechie seide, Pees and treuthe be maad oneli in my daies.

40 My puple, be ye coumfortid, be ye coumfortid, seith youre Lord God. 2 Speke ye to the herte of Jerusalem, and clepe ye it, for the malice therof is fillid, the wickidnesse therof is foryouun; it hath resseyued of the hond of the Lord double thingis for alle hise synnes. 3 The vois of a crier in desert, Make ye redi the weie of the Lord, make ye riyftul the pathis of oure God in wildirnesse. 4 Ech valey schal be enhaunsid, and ech mounteyn and litil hil schal be maad low; and schrewid thingis schulen be in to streiyt thingis, and scharpe thingis schulen be in to pleyn weies. 5 And the glorie of the Lord schal be schewid, and ech man schal se togidere, that the mouth of the Lord hath spoke. 6 The vois of God, seiynge, Crie thou. And Y seide, What schal Y crie? Ech fleisch is hei, and al the glorie therof is as the flour of the feeld. 7 The hei is dried vp, and the flour felle down, for the spirit of the Lord blew thereynne. 8 Verely the puple is hey; the hey is dried vp, and the flour felle down; but the word of the Lord dwellith with outen ende. 9 Thou that prechist to Sion, stie on an hiy hil; thou that prechist to Jerusalem, enhaunse thi vois in strengthe; enhaunse thou, nyle thou drede; seie thou to the citees of Juda, Lo! youre God. 10 Lo! the Lord God schal come in strengthe, and his arm schal holde lordschipe; lo! his mede is with hym, and his werk is bifore hym. 11 As a scheepheer he schal fede his flok, he schal gadere lambreen in his arm, and he schal reise in his bosom; he schal bere scheep with lomb. 12 Who mat watris in a fist, and peiside heuenes with a spanne? Who peiside the heuynesse of the erthe with thre fyngris, and weide mounteyns in a weihe, and litte hillis in a balaunce? 13 Who helpide the Spirit of the Lord, ether who was his counceleur, and schewide to hym? 14 With whom took he counceil, and who lernyde hym, and tauyte hym the path of riyftulnesse, and lernyde hym in kunnyng, and schewyde to him the weie of prudence? 15 Lo! folkis ben as a drope of a boket, and ben arettid as the tunge of a balaunce; lo! 16 ylis ben as a litil dust, and the Liban schal not suffice to brenne his sacrifice, and the beestis therof schulen not suffice to brent sacrifice. 17 Alle folkis ben so bifore hym, as if thei ben not; and thei ben rettid as no thing and veyn thing to hym. 18 To whom therfor maden ye God lijk? ether what ymage schulen ye sette to hym? 19 Whether a smyth schal welle togidere an ymage, ether a gold smyth schal figure it in gold, and a worchere in siluer schal diyte it with platis of siluer? 20 A wijs crafti man chees a strong tre, and vnable to be rotun; he sekith how he schal ordeyne a symylacre, that schal not be mouyd. 21 Whether ye witen not? whether ye herden not? whether it was not teld to you fro the begynnynge? whether ye vndurstoden not the foundementis of erthe? 22 Which sittith on the campas of erthe, and the dwelleris therof ben as locustis; which stretchith forth heuenes as nouyt, and spredith abroad tho as a tabernacle to dwelle. 23 Which yueth the sercheris of priuytees, as if thei be not, and made the iugis of erthe as a veyn thing. 24 And sotheli whanne the stok of hem is nether plauntid, nether is sowun, nether is rootid in erthe, he bleew sudenli on hem, and thei drien vp, and a whirle wynd schal take hem awei as stobil. 25 And to what thing ye han ligned me, and han maad euene? seith the hooli. 26 Reise youre iyen an hiy, and se ye, who made thes thingis of nouyt; which ledith out in noumbre the kniythod of tho, and clepith alle bi name, for the multitude of his strengthe, and stalworthnesse, and vertu; nether o residue thing was. 27 Whi seist thou, Jacob, and spekest thou, Israel, My weie is hid fro the Lord, and my doom passide fro my God? 28 Whether thou knowist not, ether herdist thou not? God, euerlastynge Lord, that made of nouyt the endis of erthe, schal not faile, nether schal trauele, nether enserchyng of his wisdom is. 29 That yueth vertu to the weeri, and strengthe to hem that ben not, and multiplieth stalworthnesse. 30 Children schulen faile, and schulen trauele, and yonge men schulen falle down in her sikenesse. 31 But thei that hopen in the Lord, schulen change strengthe, thei schulen take fetheris as egilis; thei schulen renne, and schulen not trauele; thei schulen go, and schulen not faile.

41 Iles, be stille to me, and folkis change strengthe; neiye thei, and thanne speke thei; neiye we togidere to doom. 2

Who reiseid the iust man fro the eest, and clepide hym to sue hym silf? He schal yyue folkis in his siyt, and he schal welde kyngis; he schal yyue as dust to his swerd, and as stobil that is rauyschid of the wynd, to his bowe. 3 He schal pursue hem, he schal go in pees; a path schal not appere in hise feet. 4 Who wrouyte and dide these thingis? clepynge generaciouns at the bigynnyng. Y am the Lord; and Y am the firste and the laste. 5 Ilis sien, and dredden; the laste partis of erthe were astonyed; thei camen niy, and neiyden. 6 Ech man schal helpe his neybore, and schal seie to his brother, Be thou coumfortid. 7 A smyth of metal smytynge with an hamer coumfortide him that polischyde, ethir made fair, in that tyme, seyinge, It is good, to glu; and he fastenede hym with nailis, that he schulde not be mouyd. 8 And thou, Israel, my seruaunte, Jacob, whom Y chees, the seed of Abraham, my frend, in whom Y took thee; 9 fro the laste partis of erthe, and fro the fer partis therof Y clepide thee; and Y seide to thee, Thou art my seruaunt; Y chees thee, and castide not awei thee. 10 Drede thou not, for Y am with thee; boowe thou not awei, for Y am thi God. Y coumfortide thee, and helpide thee; and the riythond of my iust man vp took thee. 11 Lo! alle men schulen be schent, and schulen be aschamed, that fytten ayens thee; thei schulen be as if thei ben not, and men schulen perische, that ayen seien thee. 12 Thou schalt seke hem, and thou schalt not fynde thi rebel men; thei schulen be, as if thei ben not, and as the wastying of a man fytynge ayens thee. 13 For Y am thi Lord God, takynge thin hond, and seiynge to thee, Drede thou not, Y helpide thee. 14 Nyle thou, worm of Jacob, drede, ye that ben deed of Israel. Y helpide thee, seith the Lord, and thin ayen biere, the hooli of Israel. 15 Y haue set thee as a newe wayn threischynge, hauynge sawynge bilis; thou schalt threische mounteyns, and schalt make smal, and thou schalt sette litte hillis as dust. 16 Thou schalt wyndewe hem, and the wynd schal take hem awei, and a whirlewynd schal scatere hem; and thou schalt make ful out ioie in the Lord, and thou schalt be glad in the hooli of Israel. 17 Nedi men and pore seken watris, and tho ben not; the tunge of hem driede for thirst. Y the Lord schal here hem, I God of Israel schal not forsake hem. 18 Y schal opene floodis in hiy hillis, and wellis in the myddis of feeldis; Y schal sette the desert in to poondis of watris, and the lond without weie in to ryuers of watris. 19 Y schal yyue in wildirnesse a cedre, and a thorn, and a myrte tre, and the tre of an olyue; Y schal sette in the desert a fir tre, an elm, and a box tre togidere. 20 That thei se, and knowe, and bihenke, and vnderstonde togidere; that the hond of the Lord dide this thing, and the hooli of Israel made that of nouyt. 21 Make ye niy youre doom, seith the Lord; brynge ye, if in hap ye han any thing, seith the kyng of Jacob. 22 Neiy tho, and telle to vs, what euer thingis schulen come; telle ye the formere thingis that weren, and we schulen sette oure herte, and schulen wite; schewe ye to vs the laste thingis of hem, and tho thingis that schulen come. 23 Telle ye what thingis schulen come in tyme to comynge, and we schulen wite, that ye ben goddis; al so do ye wel, ethir yuele, if ye moun; and speke we, and see we togidere. 24 Lo! ye ben of nouyt, and youre werk is of that that is not; he that chees you, is abhomynacioun. 25 I reiseid fro the north, and he schal come fro the risynge of the sunne; he schal clepe my name. And he schal brynge magistratis as cley, and as a pottere defoulynge erthe. 26 Who tolde fro the bigynnyng, that we wite, and fro the bigynnyng, that we seie, Thou art iust? noon is tellynge, nether biforseiynge, nether herynge youre wordis. 27 The firste schal seie to Sion, Lo! Y am present; and Y schal yyue a gospellere to Jerusalem. 28 And Y siy, and noon was of these, that token councel, and he that was axid, answeride a word. 29 Lo! alle men ben vniust, and her werkis ben wynd and veyn; the symylacris of hem ben wynd, and voide thing.

42 Lo! my seruaunt, Y schal vptake hym, my chosun, my soule pleside to it silf in hym. Whether thou that hast open eeris, schalt not here? 21 And the Lord wolde, that he schulde halewe it, and magnefie the lawe, and enhaunse it. 22 But thilke puple was rauyschid, and wastid; alle thei ben the snare of yonge men, and ben hid in the housis of prisouns. Thei ben maad in to raueyn, and noon is that delyuereth; in to rauyschyng, and noon is that seith, Yelde thou. 23 Who is among you, that herith this, perseyueth, and herkneth thingis to comynge? 24 Who yaf Jacob in to rauyschyng, and Israel to distrieris? Whether not the Lord? He it is, ayens whom thei synneden; and thei nolden go in hise weies, and thei herden not his lawe. 25 And he schedde out on hem the indignacioun of his strong veniaunce, and strong batel; and thei brenten it in cumpas, and it knewe not; and he brente it, and it vndurstood not.

43 And now the Lord God, makynge of nouyt thee, Jacob, and formynge thee, Israel, seith these thingis, Nyle thou drede, for Y ayenbouyte thee, and Y clepide thee bi thi name; thou art my seruaut. 2 Whanne thou schalt go bi watris, Y schal be with thee, and floodis schulen not hile thee; whanne thou schalt go in fier, thou schalt not be brent, and flawme schal not brenne in thee. 3 For Y am thi Lord God, the hooli of Israel, thi sauour. Who among you, who schal telle this, and schal make you to here tho thingis, that ben the firste? yyue thei witnessis of hem, and be thei iustified, and here thei, and seie. 10 Verili ye ben my witnessis, seith the Lord, and my seruaut, whom Y chees; that ye wite, and bileue to me, and vndurstonde, for Y mysilf am; bifore me is no God formere, and after me schal noon be. 11 Y am, Y am the Lord, and with out me is no sauour. 12 I telde, and sauide; Y made heryng, and noon alien God was among you. Ye ben my witnessis, seith the Lord; 13 and Y am God fro the bigynnyng, Y my silf am, and noon is that delyuerith fro myn hoond; Y schal worche, and who schal distrie it? 14 The Lord, youre ayenbiere, the hooli of Israel, seith these thingis, For you Y sente out in to Babilyone, and Y drow down alle barris, and Caldeis hauynge glorie in her schippis. 15 Y am the Lord, youre hooli, youre king, makynge Israel of nouyt. 16 The Lord seith these thingis, that yaf weie in the see, and a path in rennyng watris; 17 which ledde out a carte, and hors, a company, and strong man; thei slepten togidere, nether thei schulen rise ayen;

thei ben al tobrokun as flex, and ben quenchild. 18 Thenke ye not on the formere thingis, and biholde ye not olde thingis. 19 Lo! Y make newe thingis, and now tho schulen bigynne to be maad; sotheli ye schulen know tho. Y schal sette weie in desert, and floodis in a lond without weie. 20 And a beeste of the feelde schal glorifie me, dragouns and ostrigis schulen glorifie me; for Y yaf watris in desert, and floodis in the lond without weie, that Y schulde yyue drynk to my puple, to my chosun puple. 21 Y fourmyde this puple to me, it schal telle my preysyng. 22 Jacob, thou clepidist not me to help; and thou, Israel, trauelidist not for me. 23 Thou offridist not to me the ram of thi brent sacrifice, and thou glorifiedist not me with thi slayn sacrifices. Y made not thee to serue in offryng, nethir Y yaf to thee trauel in encense. 24 Thou bouytist not to me swete smellynge spicerie for siluer, and thou fillidist not me with fatnesse of thi slayn sacrifices; netheles thou madist me to serue in thi synnes, thou yauest trauel to me in thi wickidnessis. 25 Y am, Y my silf am, that do awei thi wickidnessis for me, and Y schal not haue mynde on thy synnes. 26 Brynge me ayen in to mynde, and be we demyd togidere; telle thou, if thou hast ony thing, that thou be iustified. 27 Thi firste fadir synnede, and thin interpretours trespassiden ayens me. 28 And Y made foul hooli princes, and Y yaf Jacob to deth, and Israel in to blasfemye.

He schal be hungri, and he schal faile; he schal not drynke watre, and he schal be feynt. 13 A carpenter stretchide forth a reule, he fourmyde it with an adese; he made it in the corner places, and he turnede it in cumpas; and he made the ymage of a man, as a fair man, dwellynge in the hous. 14 He kittide down cedris, he took an hawthorn, and an ook, that stood among the trees of the forest; he plauntide a pyne apple tre, which he nurschide with reyn, 15 and it was maad in to fier to men. He took of tho, and was warmed, and he brente, and bakide looues; but of the residue he wrouyte a god, and worschipse it, and he made a grauun ymage, and he was bowid bfore that. 16 He brente the myddil therof with fier, and of the myddil therof he sethide fleischis, and eet; he sethide potage, and was fillid; and he was warned, and he seide, Wel! 17 Y am warmed; Y siy fier. 49 Illis, here ye, and pupilis afer, perseyue ye; the Lord clepide me fro the wombe, he thouyete on my name fro the wombe of my modir. 2 And he hath set my mouth as a scharp swerd, he defendide me in the schadewe of his hond, and settide me as a chosun arowe; he hidde me in his arowe caas, 3 and seide to me, Israel, thou art my seruauant, for Y schal haue glorie in thee. 4 And Y seide, Y trauelide in veyn, Y wastide my strengthe with out cause, and veynli; therfor my doom is with the Lord, and my werk is with my God. 5 And now the Lord, formynge me a seruauant to hym silf fro the wombe, seith these thingis, that Y brynge ayen Jacob to hym. And Israel schal not be gaderid togidere; and Y am glorified in the iyen of the Lord, and my God is maad my strengthe. 6 And he seyde, It is lilit, that thou be a seruauant to me, to reise the lynages of Jacob, and to conuerte the drastis of Israel; Y yaf thee in to the liyt of hethene men, that thou be myn helthe `til to the laste part of erthe. 7 The Lord, ayenbiere of Israel, the hooli therof, seith these thingis to a dispisable soule, and to a folk had in abhominacioun, to the seruauant of lordis, Kyngis schulen se, and princes schulen rise togidere, and schulen worschipe, for the Lord, for he is feithful, and for the hooli of Israel, that chees thee. 8 The Lord seith these thingis, In a plesant tyme Y herde thee, and in the dai of helthe Y helpide thee; and Y kepte thee, and yaf thee in to a bonde of pees of the puple, that thou schuldist reise the erthe, and haue in possessioun eritagus, `that ben distried; 9 that thou schuldist seie to hem that ben boundun, Go ye out, and to hem that ben in derknessis, Be ye schewid. Thei schulen be fed on weies, and the lesewis of hem schulen be in alle pleyn thingis. 10 Thei schulen not hungre, and thei schulen no more thirste, and heete, and the sunne schal not smyte hem; for the merciful doere of hem schal gouerne hem, and schal yyue drynk to hem at the wellis of watris. 11 And Y schal sette alle myn hillis in to weie, and my pathis schulen be enhaunsid. 12 Lo! these men schulen come fro fer, and lo! thei schulen come fro the north, and see, and these fro the south lond. 13 Heuenes, herie ye, and, thou erthe, make ful out ioie; hillis, synge ye hertli heriying; for the Lord coumfortide his puple, and schal haue merci on hise pore men. 14 And Syon seide, The Lord hath forsake me, and the Lord hath foryete me. 15 Whether a womman may foryete hir yonge child, that sche haue not merci on the sone of hir wombe? thouy sche foryetith, netheles Y schal not foryete thee. 16 Lo! Y haue write thee in myn hondis; thi wallis ben euer bfore myn iyen. 17 The bilderis ben comun; thei that distrien thee, and scateren, schulen go awei fro thee. 18 Reise thin iyen in cumpas, and se; alle these men ben gaderid togidere, thei ben comun to thee. Y lyue, seith the Lord, for thou schalt be clothid with alle these as with an

Y am bareyn, not berynge child; Y am led ouer, and prisoner; and who nurschide these sones? Y am destitute, and aloone; and where weren these? 22 The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y reise myn hond to hethene men, and Y schal enhaunce my signe to pupilis; and thei schulen brynge thi sones in armes, and thei schulen bere thi douytris on shuldris. 23 And kingis schulen be thi nurseris, and quenys schulen be thi nursis; with cheer cast down in to erthe thei schulen worschipe thee, and thei schulen lick the dust of thi feet; and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord, on whom thei schulen not be schent, that abiden hym. 24 Whether prey schal be takun awei fro a strong man? ether that that is takun of a stalworthe man, mai be saaf? 25 For the Lord seith these thingis, Sotheli and caitifte schal be takun awey from the stronge man, and that that is takun awei of a stalworthe man, schal be saued. Forsothe Y schal deme hem, that demyden thee, and Y schal saue thi sones. 26 And Y schal fede thin enemyes with her fleischis, and thei schulen be greetli fillid with her blood as with must; and eche man schal wite, that Y am the Lord, sauynge thee, and thin ayenbiere, the strong of Jacob.

50 The Lord seith these thingis, What is this book of forsakyng of youre modir, bi which Y lefte her? ether who is he, to whom Y owe, to whom Y seeld you? For lo! ye ben seeld for youre wickidnessis, and for youre grete trespassis Y lefte youre modir. 2 For Y cam, and no man was; Y clepide, and noon was that herde. Whether myn hond is abreggid, and maad lilit, that Y mai not ayenbie? ether vertu is not in me for to delyuere? Lo! in myn blamyng Y schal make the see forsakun, `ether desert, Y schal sette floodis in the drie place; fischis without watir schulen wexe rotun, and schulen dye for thirst. 3 Y schal clothe heuenes with derknessis, and Y schal sette a sak the hilyng of tho. 4 The Lord yaf to me a lerned tunge, that Y kunne susteyne hym bi word that failide; erli the fadir reisith, erli he reisith an eere to me, that Y here as a maister. 5 The Lord God openede an eere to me; forsothe Y ayenseie not, Y yede not abak. 6 I yaf my bodi to smyteris, and my chekis to pulleris; Y turnede not a wei my face fro men blamyng, and spetyng on me. 7 The Lord God is myn helpere, and therfor Y am not schent; therfor Y haue set my face as a stoon maad hard, and Y woot that Y schal not be schent. 8 He is niy, that iustifieth me; who ayenseith me? stonde we togidere. Who is myn aduersarie? neiey he to me. 9 Lo! the Lord God is myn helpere; who therfor is he that condempneth me? Lo! alle schulen be defoulid as a cloth, and a mouyete schal ete hem. 10 Who of you dredith the Lord, and herith the vois of his seruauant? Who yede in derknessis and liyt is not to hym, hope he in the name of the Lord, and triste he on his God. 11 Lo! alle ye kyndlynge fier, and gird with flawmes, go in the liyt of youre fier, and in the flawmes whiche ye han kyndlid to you. This is maad of myn hond to you, ye schulen slepe in sorewis.

51 Here ye me, that suen that that is iust, and seken the Lord. Take ye hede to the stoon, fro whennys ye ben hewun doun, and to the caue of the lake, fro which ye ben kit doun. 2 Take ye heede to Abraham, youre fadir, and to Sare, that childide you; for Y clepide hym oon, and Y blesside hym, and Y multipliede hym. 3 Therfor the Lord schal coumforte Sion, and he schal coumforte alle the fallyngis therof; and he schal sette the desert therof as delices, and the wildirnesse therof as a gardyn of the Lord; ioie and gladnesse schal be foundun therynne, the doying of thankyngis and the vois of heriying. 4 Mi puple, take ye heede to me, and, my lynage, here ye me; for whi a lawe schal go out fro me, and my doom schal reste in to the lyt of pupilis. 5 My iust man is nyy, my sauour is gon out, and myn armes schulen deme pupilis; ilis schulen abide me, and schulen suffre myn arm. 6 Reise youre iyen to heuene, and se ye vndur erthe byneth; for whi heuenes schulen melte awei as smoke, and the erthe schal be al to-brokun as a cloth, and the dwelleris therof schulen perische as these thingis; but myn helthe schal be withouten ende, and my riytfulnesse schal not fayle. 7 Ye puple, that knowen the iust man, here me, my lawe is in the herte of hem; nyle ye drede the schenscipe of men, and drede ye not the blasfemyes of hem. 8 For whi a worm schal ete hem so as a cloth, and a mouyte schal deuoure hem so as wolle; but myn helthe schal be withouten ende, and my riytfulnesse in to generaciouns of generaciouns. 9 Rise thou, rise thou, arm of the Lord, be thou clothyd in strengthe; rise thou, as in elde daies, in generaciouns of worldis. Whether thou smytidist not the proude man, woundidist not the dragoun? 10 Whether thou driedist not the see, the watir of the greet depthe, which settidist the depthe of the see a weie, that men `that weren delyuered, schulden passe? 11 And now thei that ben ayenbouyt of the Lord schulen turne ayen, and schulen come heriynge in to Syon, and euerlastynge gladnesse on the heedis of hem; thei schulen holde ioie and gladnesse, sorewe and weilyng schal fle awei. 12 `Y my silf schal coumforte you; what art thou, that thou drede of a deedli man, and of the sone of man, that schal waxe drie so as hei? 13 And thou hast foryete `the Lord, thi creatour, that stretchide abrood heuenes, and foundide the erthe; and thou dreddist contynueli al dai of the face of his woodnesse, that dide tribulacioun to thee, and made redi for to leese. Where is now the woodnesse of the troblere? 14 Soone he schal come, goynge for to opene; and he schal not sle til to deth, nether his breed schal faile. 15 Forsothe Y am thi Lord God, that disturble the see, and the wawis therof wexen greet; the Lord of oostis is my name. 16 Y haue put my wordis in thi mouth, and Y defendide thee in the schadewe of myn hond; that thou plaunte heuenes, and founde the erthe, and seie to Sion, Thou art my puple. 17 Be thou reysid, be thou reysid, rise thou, Jerusalem, that hast drunke of the hond of the Lord the cuppe of his wraththe; thou hast drunke `til to the botme of the cuppe of sleep, thou hast drunke of `til to the drastis. 18 Noon is that susteyneth it, of alle the sones whiche it gendride; and noon is that takith the hond therof, of alle the sones whiche it nurshide. 19 Twei thingis ben that camen to thee; who schal be sori on thee? distriyng, and defoulyng, and hungur, and swerd.

Who schal coumforte thee? 20 Thi sones ben cast forth, thei slepten in the heed of alle weies, as the beeste orix, takun bi a snare; thei ben ful of indignacioun of the Lord, of blamyng of thi God. 21 Therfor, thou pore, and drunkun, not of wyn, here these thingis. 22 Thi lordli gouernour, the Lord, and thi God, that fauyt for his puple, seith these thingis, Lo! Y haue take fro thyn hond the cuppe of sleep, the botme of the cuppe of myn indignacioun; Y schal not leie to, that thou drynke it ony more. 23 And Y schal sette it in the hond of hem that maden thee low, and seiden to thi soule, Be thou bowid that we passe; and thou hast set thi bodi as erthe, and as a weye to hem that gon forth.

52 Rise thou, Sion, rise thou, be thou clothid in thi strengthe; Jerusalem, the citee of the hooli, be thou clothid in the clothis of thi glorie; for a man vncircumcidid and a man vnclene schal no more leie to, that he passe by thee. 2 Jerusalem, be thou schakun out of dust; rise thou, sitte thou; thou douyter of Sion, prisoner, vnbynde the boondis of thi necke. 3 For the Lord seith these thingis, Ye ben seeld without cause, and ye schulen be ayenbouyt with out siluer. 4 For the Lord God seith these thingis, Mi puple in the bigynnyng yede down in to Egipt, that it schulde be there `an erthe tiliere, and Assur falsli calengide it with out ony cause. 5 And now what is to me here? seith the Lord; for my puple is takun awei with out cause; the lordis therof doen wickidli, seith the Lord, and my name is blasfemyd contynueli al dai. 6 For this thing my puple schal knowe my name in that day, for lo! Y my silf that spak, am present. 7 Ful faire ben the feet of hym that tellith, and prechith pees on hillis, of hym that tellith good, of hym that prechith helthe, and seith, Sion, thi God schal regne. 8 The vois of thi biholderis; thei reysiden the vois, thei schulen herie togidere; for thei schulen se with iye to iye, whanne the Lord hath conuertid Sion. 9 The forsakun thingis of Jerusalem, make ye ioie, and herie ye togidere; for the Lord hath coumfortid his puple, he hath ayenbouyt Jerusalem. 10 The Lord hath maad redi his hooli arm in the iyen of alle folkis, and alle the endis of the erthe schulen se the helthe of oure God. 11 Go ye awei, go ye awei, go ye out fro thennus; nyle ye touche defoulid thing, go ye out fro the myddis therof; be ye clensid, that beren the vessels of the Lord. 12 For ye schulen not go out in noyse, nether ye schulen haaste in fleyng awei; for whi the Lord schal go bfore you, and the God of Israel schal gadere you togidere. 13 Lo! my seruaut schal vndirstonde, and he schal be enhaunsid, and he schal be reysid, and he schal be ful hiy. 14 As many men wondriden on hym, so his biholdyng schal be with out glorie among men, and the fourme of hym among the sones of men. 15 He schal bisprengne many folkis; kyngis schulen holde togidere her mouth on him; for thei schulen se, to whiche it was not teld of hym, and thei that herden not, bihelden.

53 Who bileuyde to oure heryng? and to whom is the arm of the Lord schewide? 2 And he schal stie as a yerde bfore hym, and as a roote fro thirsti lond. And nether schap nether fairnesse was to hym; and we sien hym, and no biholdyng was; 3 and we desiriden hym, dispisid, and the laste of men, a man of sorewis, and knowyngne sikenesse. And his cheer was as hid and dispisid; wherfor and we arettiden not hym. 4 Verili he suffride oure sikenessis, and he bar oure sorewis; and we arettiden hym as a mesel, and smytun of God, and maad low. 5 Forsothe he was woundid for oure wickidnessis, he was defoulid for oure greet trespassis; the lernyng of oure pees was on hym, and we ben maad hool bi his wanne. 6 Alle we erriden as scheep, ech man bowide in to his owne weie, and the Lord puttide in hym the wickidnesse of vs alle. 7 He was offrid, for he wolde, and he openyde not his mouth; as a scheep he schal be led to sleyn, and he schal be dounb as a lomb before hym that clippith it, and he schal not opene his mouth. 8 He is takun away fro angwisch and fro doom; who schal telle out the generacioun of hym? For he was kit down fro the lond of Iyueris. Y smoot hym for the greet trespas of my puple. 9 And he schal yyue vnfeithful men for biryng, and riche men for his deth; for he dide not wickidnesse, nether gile was in his mouth; 10 and the Lord wolde defoule hym in sikenesse. If he puttith his lijf for synne, he schal se seed long duryng, and the wille of the Lord schal be dressid in his hond. 11 For that that his soule trauelide, he schal se, and schal be fillid. Thilke my iust seruaut schal iustifie many men in his kunnyng, and he schal bere the wickidnessis of hem. 12 Therfor Y schal yelde, ethir dele, to hym ful many men, and he schal departe the spuilis of the stronge feendis; for that that he yaf his lijf in to deth, and was arettid with felenouse men; and he dide a wei the synne of many men, and he preiede for trespassouris.

54 Thou bareyn, that childist not, herie; thou that childist not, synge heriyng, and make ioie; for whi many sones ben of the forsakun `womman more than of hir that hadde hosebonde, seith the Lord. 2 Alarge thou the place of thi tente, and stretche forth the skynnes of thi tabernaclis; spare thou not, make longe thi roopis, and make sad thi nailis. 3 For thou schalt perse to the rytside and to the leftside; and thi seed schal enherite hethene men, and schal dwelle in forsakun citees. 4 Nile thou drede, for thou schal not be schent, nether thou schalt be aschamed. For it schal not schame thee; for thou schalt foryete the schenscipe of thi yongthe, and thou schalt no more thenke on the schenscipe of thi widewehod. 5 For he that made thee, schal be lord of thee; the Lord of oostis is his name; and thin ayenbiere, the hooli of Israel, schal be clepid God of al erthe. 6 For the Lord hath clepid thee as a womman forsakun and morenyng in spirit, and a wijf, `that is cast awei fro yongthe. 7 Thi Lord God seide, At a poyn in litil tyme Y forsook thee, and Y schal gadere thee togidere in greeete merciful doyngis. 8 In a moment of indignacioun Y hidde my face a litil fro thee, and in merci euerlastyng Y hadde merci on thee, seide thin ayenbiere, the Lord. 9 As in the daies of Noe, this thing is to me, to whom Y swoor, that Y schulde no more bringe watris of the greet flood on the erthe; so Y swoor, that Y be no more wrooth to thee, and that Y blame not thee. 10 Forsothe hillis schulen be mouyd togidere, and litle hillis schulen tremble togidere; but my merci schal not go a wei fro thee, and the boond of my pees schal not be mouyd, seide the merciful doere, the Lord. 11 Thou litle and pore, drawun out bi tempest, with outen ony coumfort, lo! Y schal strewen thi stoonys bi ordre, and Y schal founde thee in safiris; 12 and Y schal sette iaspis thi touris, and thi yatis in to graun stoonys, and alle thin eendis in to desirable stoonys. 13 Y schal make alle thi sones tauyt of the Lord; and the multitude of pees to thi sones, 14 and thou schalt be foundid in riytfulnesse. Go thou awei fer fro fals caleng, for thou schalt not drede; and fro drede, for it schal not neye to thee. 15 Lo! a straunger schal come, that was not with me; he, that was sum tyme thi comelyng, schal be ioyned to thee. 16 Lo! Y made a smyth blowyng coolis in fier, and bringyng forth a vessel in to his werk; and Y haue maad a sleere, for to leese. 17 Ech vessel which is maad ayens thee, schal not be dressid; and in the doom thou schalt deme ech tunge ayenstondyng thee. This is the eritage of the seruautis of the Lord, and the riytfulnesse of hem at me, seith the Lord.

55 Alle that thirsten, come ye to watris, and ye han not siluer, haaste, bie ye, and ete ye; come ye, bie ye, with out siluer and with outen ony chaungyng, wyn and mylk. 2 Whi peisen ye siluer, and not in looues, and youre trael, not in fulnesse? Ye herynge here me, and ete ye good, and youre soule schal delite in fatnesse. 3 Bowe ye youre eere, and `come ye to me; here ye, and youre soule schal lyue; and Y schal smyte with you a couenaunt euerlastyng, the feithful mercies of Dauid. 4 Lo! Y yaf hym a witnesse to puplis, a duyck and a comaundour to folkis. 5 Lo! thou schalt clepe folkis, whiche thou knewist not; and folkis, that knewen not thee, schulen renne to thee; for thi Lord God, and the hooli of Israel, for he glorifiede thee. 6 Seke ye the Lord, while he mai be foundun; clepe ye hym to help, while he is niy. 7 An vnfeithful man forsake his weie, and a wickid man forsake hise thouytis; and turne he ayen to the Lord, and he schal haue merci on hym, and to oure God, for he is myche to forgyue. 8 For why my thouytis ben not youre thouytis, and my weies ben not youre weies, seith the Lord. 9 For as heuenys ben reisid fro erthe, so my weies ben reisid fro youre weies, and my thouytis fro youre thouytis. 10 And as reyn and snow cometh down fro heuene, and turneth no more ayen thidur, but it fillith the erthe, and bischedith it, and makith it to buriowne, and yyueth seed to hym that sowith, and breed to hym that etith, 11 so schal be my word, that schal go out of my mouth. It schal not turne ayen voide to me, but it schal do what euer thingis Y wolde, and it schal haue prosperite in these thingis to whiche Y sente it. 12 For ye schulen go out in gladnesse, and ye schulen be led forth in pees; mounteyns and litil hillis schulen synge heriyng before you, and alle the trees of the cuntrei schulen make ioie with hond. 13 A fir tre schal grow for a firste, and a mirte tre schal waxe for a nettil; and the Lord schal be nemyd in to a signe euerlastyng, that schal not be doon awei.

56 The Lord seith these thingis, Kepe ye doom, and do ye riytfulnesse, for whi myn helthe is niy, that it come, and my riytfulnesse, that it be schewid. 2 Blessid is the man, that doith this, and the sone of man, that schal take this; kepyng the sabat, that he defoule not it, kepyng hise hondis, that he do not ony yuel. 3 And seie not the sone of a comelyng, that cleueth faste to the Lord, seiynge, Bi departyng the Lord schal departe me fro his puple; and a geldyng, ether a chast man, seie not, Lo!

Y am a drie tree. 4 For the Lord seith these thingis to geldingis, that kepen my sabatis, and chesen what thingis Y wolde, and holden my boond of pees. 5 Y schal yyue to hem a place in myn hous, and in my wallis, and the beste name of sones and douytris; Y schal yyue to hem a name euerlastyng, that schal not perische. 6 And Y schal brynge in to blis the sones of a comelyng, that cleuen faste to the Lord, that thei worschipe hym, and loue his name, that thei be to hym in to seruautis; ech man keypyng the sabat, that he defoule it not, and holdyng my boond of pees; 7 Y schal brynge hem in to myn hooli hil, and Y schal make hem glad in the hous of my preier; her brent sacrifices and her slayn sacrifices schulen plesse me on my auter; for whi myn hous schal be clepid an hous of preier to alle puplis, 8 seith the Lord God, that gaderith togidere the scaterid men of Israel. Yit Y schal gadere togidere to hym alle the gaderid men therof. 9 Alle beestis of the feeld, come ye to deuoure, alle beestis of the forest. 10 Alle the biholderis therof ben blinde, alle thei knewen not; doumbe doggis, that moun not berke, seyng veyn thingis, slepyng, and louyng dremes; 11 and moost vnschamefast doggis knewen not fulnesse. Tho scheepherdis knewen not vndurstondyng; alle thei bowyden in to her weie, ech man to his aueryce, fro the hiyeste `til to the laste. 12 Come ye, take we wyn, and be we fillid of drunkenesse; and it schal be as to dai, so and to morewe, and myche more.

57 A iust man perischith, and noon is, that thenkith in his herte; and men of merci ben gaderid togidere, for noon is that vndurstondith; for whi a iust man is gaderid fro the face of malice. 2 Pees come, reste he in his bed, that yede in his dressyng. 3 But ye, sones of the sekere of fals dyuynyng bi chiteryng of briddys, neiey hidur, the seed of auowtresse, and of an hoore. 4 On whom scorneden ye? on whom maden ye greet the mouth, and puttiden out the tunge? Whether ye ben not cursid sones, a seed of leesyngis? 5 which ben coumfortid in goddis, vndur ech tree ful of bowis, and offren litle children in strondis, vndur hiye stoonys. 6 Thi part is in the partis of the stronde, this is thi part; and to tho thou scheddist out moist offryng, thou offridist sacrifice. Whether Y schal not haue indignacioun on these thingis? 7 Thou puttidist thi bed on an hiy hil and enhaunsid, and thidur thou stiedist to offre sacrifices; 8 and thou settidist thi memorial bihynde the dore, and bihynde the post. For bisidis me thou vnildidist, and tokist auouter; thou alargidist thi bed, and madist a boond of pees with hem; thou louedist the bed of hem with openyd hond, 9 and ournedist thee with kyngis oynement, and thou multiplidist thi pymentis; thou sentist fer thi messengeris, and thou art maad low `til to hellis. (Sheol h7585) 10 Thou traueldidist in the multitude of thi weie, and seidist not, Y schal reste; thou hast founde the weie of thin hond, 11 therfor thou preiedist not. For what thing dreddist thou bisy, for thou liedist, and thouytest not on me? And thou thouytest not in thin herte, that Y am stille, and as not seyng; and thou hast foryete me. 12 Y schal telle thi riyfulnessse, and thi werkis schulen not profite to thee. 13 Whanne thou schalt crie, thi gaderid tresours delyuere thee; and the wynd schal take awei alle tho, a blast schal do awei hem; but he that hath trist on me, schal enherite the lond, and schal haue in possessioun myn hooli hil. 14 And Y schal seie, Make ye weie, yyue ye iurney, bowe ye fro the path, do ye awei hirtynys fro the weie of my puple. 15 For the Lord hiy, and enhaunsid, seith these thingis, that dwellith in euerlastyngnesse, and his hooli name in hiy place, and that dwellith in hooli, and with a contrite and meke spirit, that he quykene the spirit of meke men, and quykene the herte of contrit men. 16 For Y schal not stryue with outen ende, nether Y schal be wrooth `til to the ende; for whi a spirit schal go out fro my face, and Y schal make blastis. 17 Y was wrooth for the wickidnesse of his aueryce, and Y smoot hym. Y hidde my face fro thee, and Y hadde indignacioun; and he yede with out stidfast dwellyng, in the weie of his herte. 18 Y siy hise weies, and Y helide hym, and Y brouyte hym ayen; and Y yaf coumfortyngis to hym, and to the moreneris of hym. 19 Y made the fruyt of lippis pees, pees to hym that is fer, and to hym that is niy, seide the Lord; and Y heelide hym. 20 But wickid men ben as the buyling see, that may not reste; and the wawis therof fleten ayen in to defoulyng, and fen. 21 The Lord God seide, Pees is not to wickid men.

58 Crye thou, ceesse thou not; as a trumpe enhaunse thi vois, and schewe thou to my puple her grete trespassis, and to the hous of Jacob her synnes. 2 For thei seken me fro dai in to dai, and thei wolen knowe my weies; as a folk, that hath do riyfulnessse, and that hath not forsake the doom of her God; thei preien me domes of riyfulnessse, and wolen neiy to God. 3 Whi fastiden we, and thou biheldist not; we mekiden oure soulis, and thou knewist not? Lo! youre wille is foundun in the dai of youre fastyng, and ye axen alle youre dettouris. 4 Lo! ye fasten to chidyngis and stryuyngis, and smyten with the fist wickidli. Nyl ye fast, as `til to this dai, that youre cry be herd an hiy. 5 Whether sich is the fastyng which Y chees, a man to turmente his soule bi dai? whether to bynde his heed as a sercle, and to make redi a sak and aische? Whether thou schalt clepe this a fastyng, and a dai acceptable to the Lord? 6 Whether not this is more the fastyng, which Y chees? Vnbynde thou the byndyngis togidere of vnpitee, releesse thou birthuns pressyng down; delyuere thou hem free, that ben brokun, and breke thou ech birthun. 7 Breke thi breed to an hungri man, and brynge in to thin hous nedi men and herborles; whanne thou seest a nakid man, hile thou hym, and dispise not thi fleisch. 8 Thanne thi liyt schal breke out as the morewid, and thin helthe schal rise ful soone; and thi riyfulnessse schal go bfore thi face, and the glorie of the Lord schal gadere thee. 9 Thanne thou schalt clepe to help, and the Lord schal here; thou schalt crie, and he schal seie, Lo! Y am present, for Y am merciful, thi Lord God. If thou takist awei a chayne fro the myddis of thee, and ceessist to holde forth the fyngur, and to speke that profitith not; 10 whanne thou schedist out thi soule to an hungri man, and fillist a soule, `that is turmentid, thi liyt schal rise in derknessis, and thi derknessis schulen be as myddai. 11 And the Lord thi God schal yyue euere reste to thee, and schal fille thi soule with schynyngis, and schal delyuere thi boonys; and thou schalt be as a watri gardyn, and as a welle of watris, whose waters schulen not faile. 12 And the forsakun thingis of worldis schulen be bildid in thee, and thou schalt reise the foundementis of generacioun and generacioun; and thou schalt be clepid a bildere of heggis, turnynge awei the pathis of wickidnessis. 13 If thou turnest awei thi foot fro the sabat, to do thi wille in myn hooli dai, and clepist the sabat delicat, and hooli, the gloriousse of the Lord, and glorifiest him, while thou doist not thi weies, and thi wille is not foundun, that thou speke a word; 14 thanne thou schalt delite on the Lord, and Y schal reise thee on the hiynesse of erthe, and Y schal fede thee with the eritage of Jacob, thi fadir; for whi the mouth of the Lord spak.

59 Lo! the hoond of the Lord is not abreggid, that he mai not saue, nether his eere is maad hard, that he here not; 2 but youre wickidnessis han departid bitwixe you and youre God, and youre synnes han hid his face fro you, that he schulde not here. 3 For whi youre hondis ben defouled with blood, and youre fyngris with wickidnesse; youre lippis spaken leesynge, and youre tunge spekith wickidnesse. 4 Noon is, that clepith riytfulnesse to help, and noon is, that demeth verili; but thei tristen in nouyt, and speken vanytees; thei conseyueden trauel, and childiden wickidnesse. 5 Thei han broke eiren of snakis, and maden webbis of an yreyn; he that etith of the eiren of hem, schal die, and that that is nurschid, ether brouyt forth, schal breke out in to a cocatrice. 6 The webbis of hem schulen not be in to cloth, nethir thei schulen be hilid with her werkis; the werkis of hem ben vnprofitable werkis, and the werk of wickidnesse is in the hondis of hem. 7 The feet of hem rennen to yuel, and haasten to schede out innocent blood; the thoutis of hem ben vnprofitable thoutis; distriying and defouling ben in the weies of hem. 8 Thei knewen not the weie of pees, and doom is not in the goyngis of hem; the pathis of hem ben bowid to hem; ech that tredith in tho, knowith not pees. 9 Therfor doom is made fer fro vs, and riytfulnesse schal not take vs; we abididen liyt, and lo! derknessis ben; we abididen schynynge, and we yeden in derknessis. 10 We groiden as blynde men the wal, and we as with outen iyen touchiden; we stumbliden in myddai, as in derknessis, in derk places, as deed men. 11 Alle we schulen rore as beeris, and we schulen weile thenkyng as culueris; we abididen doom, and noon is; we abididen helthe, and it is maad fer fro vs. 12 For whi oure wickidnessis ben multiplied bfore thee, and oure synnes answeriden to vs; for our grete trespassis ben with vs, and we knewen oure wickidnessis, 13 to do synne, and to lie ayens the Lord. And we ben turned awei, that we yeden not afir the bak of oure God, that we speken fals caleng, and trespassyng. We conseyueden, and spaken of herte wordis of leesynge; and doom was turned abak, 14 and riytfulnesse stood fer; for whi treuthe felle down in the street, and equite miyt not entre. 15 And treuthe was maad in to foryetynge, and he that yede awei fro yuel, was opyn to robberyng. And the Lord siy, and it apperide yuel in hise iyen, for ther is no doom. 16 And God siy, that a man is not, and he was angwischid, for noon is that renneth to. And his arm schal saue to hym silf, and his riytfulnesse si silf schal conferme hym. 17 He is clothid with riytfulnesse as with an harburion, and the helm of helthe is in his heed; he is clothid with clothis of veniaunce, and he is hilid as with a mentil of feruent worchyng. 18 As to veniaunce, as to yeldyng of indignacioun to hise enemies, and to quityng of tyme to hise aduersaries, he schal yelde while to ylis. 19 And thei that ben at the west, schulen drede the name of the Lord, and thei that ben at the risynge of the sunne, schulen drede the glorie of hym; whanne he schal come as a violent flood, whom the spirit of the Lord compellith. 20 Whan ayen biere schal come to Syon, and to hem that goen ayen fro wickidnesse in Jacob, seith the Lord. 21 This is my boond of pees with hem, seith the Lord; My spirit which is in thee, and my wordis whiche Y haue set in thi mouth, schulen not go awei fro thi mouth, and fro the mouth of thi seed, seith the Lord, fro hennus forth and til into with outen ende.

60 Rise thou, Jerusalem, be thou liytred, for thi liyt is comun, and the glorie of the Lord is risun on thee. 2 For lo! derknessis schulen hile the erthe, and myist schal hile pupils; but the Lord schal rise on thee, and his glorie schal be seyn in thee. 3 And hethene men schulen go in thi liyt, and kyngis `schulen go in the schynynge of thi risynge. 4 Reise thin iyen in cumpas, and se; alle these men ben gaderid togidere, thei ben comun to thee; thi sones schulen come fro fer, and thi douytris schulen rise fro the side. 5 Thanne thou schalt se, and schalt flowe; and thin herte schal wondre, and schal be alargid, whanne the multitude of the see is conuertid to thee, the strengthe of hethene men is comun to thee; 6 the flowyng of camels schal hile thee, the lederis of dromedis of Madian and of Effa; alle men of Saba schulen come, bryngynge gold and encense, and tellynge heriyng to the Lord. 7 Ech scheep of Cedar schal be gaderid to thee, the rammes of Nabaioth schulen mynystre to thee; thei schulen be offrid on myn acceptable auter, and Y schal glorifie the hous of my maieste. 8 Who ben these, that fleen as cloudis, and as culueris at her wyndowis? 9 Forsothe ilis abiden me, and the schippis of the see in the bigynnyng; that Y brynge thi sones fro fer, the siluer of hem, and the gold of hem is with hem, to the name of thi Lord God, and to the hooli of Israel; for he schal glorifie thee. 10 And the sones of pilgrymes schulen bilde thi wallis, and the kyngis of hem schulen mynystre to thee. For Y smoot thee in myn indignacioun, and in my recounselyng Y hadde merci on thee. 11 And thi yatis schulen be openyd contynueli, day and niyt tho schulen not be closid; that the strengthe of hethene men be brouyt to thee, and the kyngis of hem be brouyt. 12 For whi the folk and rewme that serueth not thee, schal perische, and hethene men schulen be distried bi wildirnesse. 13 The glorie of the Liban schal come to thee, a fir tre, and box tre, and pyne appil tre togidere, to ourne the place of myn halewyng; and Y schal glorifie the place of my feet. 14 And the sones of hem that maden thee lowe, schulen come lowe to thee, and alle that bacbitiden thee, schulen worschipe the steppis of thi feet; and schulen clepe thee A citee of the Lord of Sion, of the hooli of Israel. 15 For that that thou were forsakun, and hatid, and noon was that passide bi thee, Y schal sette thee in to pryde of worldis, ioie in generacioun and in to generacioun. 16 And thou schalt souke the mylke of folkis, and thou schalt be sociid with the tete of kyngis; and thou schalt wite that Y am the Lord, sauyng thee, and thin ayen biere, the stronge of Jacob. 17 For bras Y schal bryng gold, and for irun Y schal bryng siluer; and bras for trees, and yrun for stoonys; and Y schal sette thi visitacioun pees, and thi prelatis riytfulnesse. 18 Wickidnesse schal no more be herd in thi lond, nether distriyng and defoulyng in thi coostis; and helthe schal occupie thi wallis, and heriying schal occupie thi yatis. 19 The sunne schal no more be to thee for to schyne bi dai, nether the briytnesse of the moone schal liytne thee; but the Lord schal be in to euerlastyng lyt to thee, and thi God schal be in to thi glorie. 20 Thi sunne schal no more go doun, and thi moone schal not be decreesid; for the Lord schal be in to euerlastyng lyt to thee, and the daies of thi mourenyng schulen be fillid. 21 Forsothe thi puple alle iust men, withouten ende schulen enherite the lond, the seed of my plauntyng, the werk of myn hond for to be glorified. 22 The leeste schal be in to a thousynde, and a litil man schal be in to a ful stronge folk. Y, the Lord, schal make this thing sudenli, in the tyme therof.

61 The spirit of the Lord is on me, for the Lord anoyntide me; he sente me to telle to mylde men, that Y schulde heele men contrite in herte, and preche foryruenesse to caitifs, and openyng to prisoneris; and preche a plesaunt yeer to the Lord, 2 and a dai of veniaunce to oure God; that Y schulde coumforte alle that mourenen; 3 that Y schulde sette coumfort to the mourenenis of Sion, and that Y schulde yyue to them a coroun for aische, oile of ioie for mourenyng, a mentil of preysyng for the spirit of weilyng. And stronge men of riytfulnesse schulen be clepid ther ynnre, the plauntyng of the Lord for to glorifie. 4 And thei schulen bilde thingis `that ben forsakun fro the world, and thei schulen reise elde fallyngis, and thei schulen restore citees `that ben forsakun and distried, in generacioun and in to generacioun. 5 And aliens schulen stonde, and fede youre beestis; and the sones of pilgrymes schulen be youre erthe tilieris and vyn tilieris. 6 But ye schulen be clepid the preestis of the Lord; it schal be seid to you, Ye ben mynysters of oure God. Ye schulen ete the strengthe of hethene men, and ye schulen be nourid in the glorie of hem. 7 For youre double schenschip and schame thei schulen preise the part of hem; for this thing thei schulen haue pesibli double thingis in her lond, and euerlastyng gladnesse schal be to hem. 8 For Y am the Lord, louyng doom, and hatyng raueyn in brent sacrifice. And Y schal yyue the werk of hem in treuthe, and Y schal smyte to hem an euerlastyng boond of pees. 9 And the seed of hem schal be knowun among folkis, and the buriownyng of hem in the myddis of pupilis. Alle men that seen hem, schulen knowe hem, for these ben the seed, whom the Lord blesside. 10 I ioiyinge schal haue ioie in the Lord, and my soule schal make ful out ioiying in my God. For he hath clothid me with clothis of helthe, and he hath compassid me with clothis of riytfulnesse, as a spouse made feir with a coroun, and as a spousesse urning with her brochis. 11 For as the erthe bryngith forth his fruyt, and as a gardyn buriowneth his seed, so the Lord God schal make to growe riytfulnesse, and preysyng bifore alle folkis.

62 For Sion Y schal not be stille, and for Jerusalem Y schal not reste, til the iust man therof go out as schynnyng, and the sauour therof be teendid as a laumpe. 2 And hethene men schulen se thi iust man, and alle kyngis schulen se thi noble man; and a newe name, which the mouth of the Lord nemyde, schal be clepid to thee. 3 And thou schalt be a coroun of glorie in the hond of the Lord, and a diademe of the rewme in the hond of thi God. 4 Thou schalt no more be clepid forsakun, and thi lond schal no more be clepid desolat; but thou schalt be clepid My wille in that, and thi lond schal be enhabitid; for it plesid the Lord in thee, and thi lond schal be enhabited. 5 For a yong man schal dwelle with a virgyn, and thi sones schulen dwelle in thee; and the spouse schal haue ioie on the spousesse, and thi God schal haue ioie on thee. 6 Jerusalem, Y haue ordeyned keperis on thi wallis, al dai and al niyt with outen ende thei schulen not be stille. Ye that thenken on the Lord, be not stille, 7 and yyue ye not silence to him, til he stabilsche, and til he sette Jerusalem `preisyng in erthe. 8 The Lord swoor in his riyt hond and in the arm of his strengthe, Y schal no more yyue thi wheete mete to thin enemyes, and alien sones schulen not drynke thi wyn, in which thou hast traueleid. 9 For thei that schulen gadere it togidere, schulen ete it, and schulen herie the Lord; and thei that beren it togidere, schulen drynke in myn hooli hallis. 10 Passe ye, passe ye bi the yatis; make ye redi weie to the puple, make ye a playn path; and chese ye stoonys, and reise ye a signe to pupilis. 11 Lo! the Lord made herd in the laste partis of the erthe. Seie ye to the douytir of Sion, Lo! thi sauour cometh; lo! his meede is with hym, and his werk is bifore hym. 12 And thei schulen clepe hem the hooli puple, ayenbouyt of the Lord. Forsothe thou schalt be clepid a citee souyt, and not forsakun.

63 Who is this that cometh fro Edom, in died clothis fro Bosra? this fair man in his `long cloth, goyng in the multitude of his vertu? Y that speke riytfulnesse, and am a forfiytere for to saue. 2 Whi therfor is thi clothing reed? and thi clothis ben as of men stampyng in a pressour? 3 Y aloone stampide the presse, and of folkis no man is with me; Y stampide hem in my stronge veniaunce, and Y defoulide hem in my wraththe; and her blood is spreynt on my clothis, and Y made foul alle my clothis. 4 For whi a dai of veniaunce is in myn herte, and the yeer of my yeldyng cometh. 5 I lokide aboute, and noon helpere was; Y souyte, and noon was that helpide; and myn arm sauyste to me, and myn indignacioun, that helpide me. 6 And Y defoulide pupilis in my stronge veniaunce; and Y made hem drunkun in myn indignacioun, and Y drow down her vertu in to erthe. 7 I schal haue mynde on the merciful doyngis of the Lord, Y schal preche the heriying of the Lord on alle thingis whiche the Lord yeldide to vs, and on the multitude `of goodis of the hous of Israel, whiche he yaf to hem bi his foryruenesse, and bi the multitude of hise mercies. 8 And the Lord seide, Netheles it is my puple, sones not denyng, and he was maad a sauour to hem in al the tribulacioun of hem. 9 It was not set in tribulacioun, and the aungel of his face sauyste hem. In his loue and in his foryruenesse he ayenbouyte hem, and he bar hem, and reiseid hem in alle daies of the world. 10 Forsothe thei excitiden hym to wrathfulness, and turmentiden the spirit of his hooli; and he was turned in to an enemye to hem, and he ouercam hem in batel. 11 And he hadde mynde on the daies of the world, of Moises, and of his puple. Where is he, that ledde hem out of the see, with the scheepherdis of his floc? Where is he, that settide the spirit of his holi in the myddil therof; 12 whiche ledde out Moises to the riyt half in the arm of his maieste? which departide watris bfore hem, that he schulde make to hym silf a name euerlastyng; 13 whiche ledde hem out thoruy depthis of watris, as an hors not stumblyng in desert, 14 as a beeste goyng down in the feeld? The Spirit of the Lord was the ledere therof; so thou leddist thi puple, that thou madist to thee a name of glorie. 15 Biholde thou fro heuene, and se fro thin hooli dwellyng place, and fro the seete of thi glorie. Where is thi feruent loue, and thi strengthe, the multitude of thin entrails, and of thi merciful doyngis? 16 Tho withelden hem silf on me. Forsothe thou art oure fadir, and Abraham knew not vs, and Israel knew not vs. 17 Thou, Lord, art oure fadir, and oure ayenbiere; thi name is fro the world. Lord, whi hast thou maad vs to erre fro thi weies? thou hast made hard oure herte, that we dredden not thee? be thou conuertid, for thi seruautis, the lynages of thin eritage. 18 Thei hadden as nouyt thin hooli puple in possessioun, and oure enemyes defouilden thin halewyng. 19 We ben maad as in the bigynnyng, whanne thou were not Lord of vs, nethir thi name was clepid to help on vs.

64 I wolde that thou brakist heuenes, and camest down, that hillis fletiden awei fro thi face, 2 and failiden as brennyng of fier, and brente in fier; that thi name were made knowun to thin enemyes, and folkis weren disturblid of thi face. 3 Whanne thou schalt do merueils, we schulen not abide. Thou camest down, and hillis fletiden awei fro thi face. 4 Fro the world thei herden not, nethir perseyueden with eeris; God, non iye siy, withouten thee, what thingis thou hast maad redi to hem that abiden thee. 5 Thou mettist hym that is glad, and doith riytfulnessse; in thi weies thei schulen bithenke on thee. Lo! thou art wrooth, and we synned; in tho synnes we weren euere, and we schulen be saued. 6 And alle we ben maad as an vncleene man; alle oure riytfulnessse ben as the cloth of a womman in vncleene blood; and alle we fellen down as a leef, and our wickidnessis as wynd han take awei vs. 7 Noon is, that clepith thi name to help, that risith, and holdith thee; thou hast hid thi face fro vs, and thou hast hurtlid down vs in the hond of oure wickidnesse. 8 And now, Lord, thou art oure fadir; forsothe we ben cley, and thou art oure maker, and alle we ben the werkis of thin hondis. 9 Lord, be thou not wrooth ynow, and haue thou no more mynde on oure wickidnesse. Lo! Lord, biholde thou, alle we ben thi puple. 10 The citee of thi seyntuarie is forsakun, Sion is maad deseert, Jerusalem is desolat; 11 the hous of oure halewyng and of oure glorie, where oure fadris herieden thee, is maad in to brennyng of fier; and alle oure desirable thingis ben turned in to fallyngis. 12 Lord, whether on these thingis thou schalt witholde thee? schalt thou be stille, and schalt thou turmente vs greetli?

65 Thei souyten me, that axiden not bfore; thei that souyten not me, founden me. Y seide, Lo! Y, lo! Y, to hethene men that knewen not me, and that clepiden not mi name to help. 2 I stretchide forth myn hondis al dai to a puple vnbileueful, that goith in a weie not good, afir her thoytis. 3 It is a puple that stirith me to wrathfulnessse, euere bfore my face; whiche offren in gardyns, and maken sacrifice on tiel stoonys; 4 whiche dwellen in sepulcris, and slepen in the templis of idols; whiche eten swynes fleisch, and vnhooli iwisch is in the vessels of hem; 5 whiche seien to an hethene man, Go thou awei fro me, neiy thou not to me, for thou art vncleene; these schulen be smoke in my stronge veniaunce, fier brennyng al dai. 6 Lo! it is writun bfore me; Y schal not be stille, but Y schal yelde, and Y schal quyte in to the bosum of hem youre wickidnessis, 7 and the wickidnessis of youre fadris togidere, seith the Lord, whiche maden sacrifice on mounteyns, and diden schenscipe to me on litle hillis; and Y schal mete ayen the firste werk of hem in her bosum. 8 The Lord seith thes thingis, As if a grape be foundun in a clustre, and it be seid, Distrie thou not it, for it is blessing; so Y schal do for my seruantis, that Y leese not al. 9 And Y schal lede out of Jacob seed, and of Juda a man hauyng in possessioun myn hooli hillis; and my chosun men schulen enherite it, and my seruautis schulen dwelle there. 10 And the feeldi places schulen be into floodis of flockis, and the valei of Achar in to a restyng place of droues of neet, to my puple that souyten me. 11 And Y schal noumbre you in swerd, that forsoken the Lord, that foryaten myn hooli hil, whiche setten a boord to fortune, and maken sacrifice theronne, 12 and alle ye schulen falle bi sleyn; for that that Y clepide, and ye answeriden not; Y spak, and ye herden not; and ye diden yuel bifor myn iyen, and ye chesiden tho thingis whiche Y nolde. 13 For these thingis, the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! my seruautis schulen ete, and ye schulen haue hungur; lo! my seruautis schulen drynke, and ye schulen be thirsti; 14 lo! my seruautis schulen be glad, and ye schulen be aschamed; lo! my seruautis schulen herie, for the ful ioie of herte, and ye schulen crie, for the sorewe of herte, and ye schulen yelle, for desolacioun of spirit. 15 And ye schulen leuee youre name in to an ooth to my chosun men; and the Lord God schal sle thee, and he schal clepe hise seruautis bi another name. 16 In which he that is blessid on erthe, schal be blessid in God amen; and he that swerith in erthe, shal swere in God feithfuli; for the formere angwischis ben youn to foryetyng, and for tho ben hid fro youre iyen. 17 For lo! Y make newe heuenes and a newe erthe, and the formere thingis schulen not be in mynde, and schulen not stie on the herte. 18 But ye schulen haue ioie, and make ful out ioiying til in to with outen ende, in these thingis whiche Y make; for lo! Y make Jerusalem ful out ioiying, and the puple therof ioie. 19 And Y schal make ful out ioiying in Jerusalem, and Y schal haue ioie in my puple; and the vois of weping and the vois of cry schal no more be herd ther ynne. 20 A yong child of daies schal no more be there, and an eld man that fillith not hise daies; for whi a child of an hundrid yeer schal die, and a synnere of an hundrid yeer schal be cursid. 21 And thei schulen bilde housis, and schulen enhabite hem, and thei schulen plaunte vynes, and schulen ete the fruytis of tho. 22 Thei schulen not bilde housis, and an othir schal enhabite hem, thei schulen not plaunte, and an othir schal ete; for whi the daies of my puple schulen be after the daies of the tree, and the werkis of 23 her hondis schulen be elde to my chosun men. Thei schulen not trauele in veyn, nether thei schulen gendre in disturblyng; for it is the seed of hem that ben blessid of the Lord, and the cosyngs of hem ben with hem. 24 And it schal be, bifor that thei crien, Y schal here; yit while thei speken, Y schal here. 25 A wolf and a lomb schulen be fed togidere, and a lioun and an oxe schulen ete stree, and to a serpent dust schal be his breed; thei schulen not anoie, nether schulen sle, in al myn hooli hil, seith the Lord.

66 The Lord seith these thingis, Heuene is my seete, and the erthe is the stool of my feet. Which is this hous, which ye schulen bilde to me, and which is this place of my reste? 2 Myn hond made alle these thingis, and alle these thingis ben maad, seith the Lord; but to whom schal Y biholde, no but to a pore man and contrit in spirit, and greetli dredynge my wordis? 3 He that offrith an oxe, is as he that sleeth a man; he that sleeth a sheep, is as he that brayneth a dogge; he that offrith an offryng, is as he that offrith swynes blood; he that thinketh on encense, is as he that blessith an idol; thei chesiden alle thes thingis in her weies, and her soule delitiide in her abhomynaciouns. 4 Wherfor and Y schal chese the scornynge of hem, and Y schal brynge to hem tho thingis whiche thei dredden; for Y clepide, and noon was that answeride; Y spak, and thei herden not; and thei didnen yuel bifor myn iyen, and chesiden tho thingis whiche Y nolde. 5 Here ye the word of the Lord, whiche quaken at his word; youre britheren hatynge you, and castynge a wey for my name, seiden, The Lord be glorified, and we schulen se in youre gladnesse; forsothe thei schulen be schent. 6 The vois of the puple fro the citee, the vois fro the temple, the vois of the Lord yeldynge a reward to hise enemyes. 7 Bifor that sche trauelide of child, sche childide; bifor that the sorewe of hir child beryng cam, sche childide a sone. 8 Who herde euere suche a thing, and who siy a thing lijk this? Whether the erthe schal trauele of child in o dai, ether whether a folk schal be childide togidere? For whi Sion trauelede of child, and childide hir sones. 9 Whether that Y `my silf that make othere to bere child, schal not ber child? seith the Lord. Whether Y that yyue generacioun to othere men, schal be bareyn? seith thi Lord God. 10 Be ye glad with Jerusalem, and alle ye that louen that, make ful out ioye ther ynnre; alle ye that mourenen on that Jerusalem, make ye ioye with it in ioie; 11 that bothe ye souke, and be fillid of the tetis and coumfort therof, that ye mylke, and flowe in delicis, of al maner glorie therof. 12 For whi the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bowe down on it, as a flood of pees, and as a flowynge stream the glorie of hethene men, which ye schulen souke; ye schulen be borun at tetis, and on knees thei schulen speke plesauntly to you. 13 As if a modir spekith faire to ony child, so Y schal coumforte you, and ye schulen be coumfortid in Jerusalem. 14 Ye schulen se, and youre herte schal haue ioie, and youre boonys schulen buriowne as an erbe. And the hond of the Lord schal be knowun in hise seruauantis, and he schal haue indignacioun to hise enemyes. 15 For lo! the Lord schal come in fier, and as a whirlwynd hise charis, to yelde in indignacioun hise strong veniaunce, and his blamyng in the flawme of fier. 16

For whi the Lord schal deme in fier, and in hys swerd to ech fleisch; and slayn men of the Lord schulen be multiplied, 17 that weren halewid, and gessiden hem cleene, in gardyns aftir o yate with ynnre; that eten swynes fleisch, and abhomynacioun, and a mows, thei schulen be waastid togidere, seith the Lord. 18 Forsothe Y come to gadere togidere the werkis of hem, and the thouytis of hem, with alle folkis and langagis; and thei schulen come, and schulen se my glorie. 19 And Y schal sette a signe in hem, and Y schal sende of hem that ben sauyd to hethene men, in to the see, in to Affrik, and in to Liddia, and to hem that holden arowe, in to Italie, and Greek lond, to ilis fer, to hem that herden not of me, and sien not my glorie. And thei schulen telle my glorie to hethene men, 20 and thei schulen brynge alle youre britheren of alle folkis a yifte to the Lord, in horsis, and charis, and in literis, and in mulis, and in cartis, to myn hooli hil, Jerusalem, seith the Lord; as if the sones of Israel bryngen a yifte in a cleene vessel in to the hous of the Lord. 21 And Y schal take of hem in to preestis and dekenes, seith the Lord. 22 For as newe heuenes and newe erthe, whiche Y make to stonde bifore me, seith the Lord, so youre seed schal stonde, and youre name. 23 And a monethe schal be of monethe, and a sabat of sabat; ech man schal come for to worschipe bifore my face, seith the Lord. 24 And thei schulen go out, and schulen se the careyns of men, that trespassiden ayens me; the worm of hem schal not die, and the fier of hem schal not be quenched; and thei schulen be `til to fylling of siyt to ech man.

Jeremiah

1 The wordis of Jeremye, sone of Helchie, of the preestis that weren in Anathot, in the lond of Beniamyn. 2 For the word of the Lord was maad to hym in the daies of Josie, the sone of Amon, kyng of Juda, in the thretenethe yeer of his rewme. 3 And it was don in the daies of Joachym, the sone of Josie, the king of Juda, til to the endyng of the enleuenthe yeer of Sedechie, sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, til the passyng ouer, ether caitiffe, of Jerusalem, in the fyuethe monethe. 4 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 5 and seide, Bifor that Y fourmede thee in the wombe, Y knewe thee; and bifor that thou yedist out of the wombe, Y halewde thee; and Y yaf thee a profete among folkis. 6 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, lo! Y kan not speke, for Y am a child. 7 And the Lord seide to me, Nyle thou seie, that Y am a child; for thou schalt go to alle thingis, to whiche Y schal sende thee, and thou schalt speke alle thingis, what euer thingis Y schal comaunde to thee. 8 Drede thou not of the face of hem, for Y am with thee, to delyuere thee, seith the Lord. 9 And the Lord sente his hond, and touchide my mouth; and the Lord seide to me, Lo! Y haue youe my wordis in thi mouth; lo! 10 Y haue ordeynede thee to day on folkis, and on rewmes, that thou drawe vp, and distrie, and leese, and scatere, and bilde, and plaunte. 11 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and seide, What seest thou, Jeremye? 12 And Y seide, Y se a yerde wakyng. And the Lord seide to me, Thou hast seen wel, for Y schal wake on my word, to do it. 13 And the word of the Lord was maad the secounde tyme to me, and seide, What seest thou? Y se a pot buylyng, and the face therof fro the face of the north. 14 And the Lord seide to me, Fro the north schal be schewid al yuel on alle the dwellers of the lond. 15 For lo! Y schal clepe togidere alle the nacions of rewmes of the north, seith the Lord, and thei schulen come, and sette ech man his seete in the entryng of the yatis of Jerusalem, and on alle the wallis therof in cumpas, and on alle the citees of Juda. 16 And Y schal speke my domes with hem on al the malice of hem, that forsoken me, and maden sacrifice to alien goddis, and worschipiden the werk of her hondis. 17 Therfor girde thou thi leendis, and rise thou, and speke to hem alle thingis whiche Y comaunde to thee; drede thou not of the face of hem, for Y schal not make thee for to drede the cheer of hem. 18 For Y yaf thee to dai in to a strong citee, and in to an yrun piler, and in to a brasun wal, on al the lond, to the kyngis of Juda, and to the princis therof, and to the preestis therof, and to al the puple of the lond. 19 And thei schulen fyte ayens thee, and thei schulen not haue the maistrie; for Y am with thee, seith the Lord, that Y delyuere thee.

2 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and seide, Go thou, and crye in the eeris of Jerusalem, and seie, The Lord seith these thingis, Y hadde mynde on thee, and Y hadde merci on thee in thi yong wexyng age, and on the charite of thi spousyng, whanne thou suedist me in desert, in the lond which is not sowun. 3 Israel was hooli to the Lord, the firste of fruytis of hym; alle men that deuouren that Israel, trespassen; yuelis schulen come on hem, seith the Lord. 4 The hous of Jacob, and alle the lynagis of the hous of Israel, here ye the word of the Lord. 5 The Lord seith these thingis, What of wickidnesse foundun youre fadris in me, for thei yeden fer away fro me, and yeden after vanyte, and weren maad veyn? 6 And thei seiden not, Where is the Lord, that made vs to stie fro the lond of Egipt, that ledde vs ouer thorou desert, bi the lond vnabitable and with out weie, bi the lond of thirst, and bi the ymage of deeth, bi the lond in whiche a man yede not, nether a man dwellide. 7 And Y brouyte you in to the lond of Carmele, that ye schulden ete the fruyt therof, and the goodis therof; and ye entriden, and defouliden my lond, and settiden myn eritage in to abhomynacioun. 8 Preestis seiden not, Where is the Lord? and thei that helden the lawe, knewen not me; and scheepherdis trespassiden ayens me, and profetis profesiden in Baal, and sueden idols. 9 Therfor yit Y schal stryue with you in doom, seith the Lord, and Y schal dispute with youre sones. 10 Go ye to the ilis of Cethym, and se ye; and sende ye in to Cedar, and biholde ye greetli; and se ye, 11 if siche a thing is doon, if a folk chaungide hise goddis; and certeynli thei ben no goddis; but my puple chaungide hise glorie in to an ydol. 12 Heuenes, be ye astonyed on this thing, and, ye yatis of heuene, be ye desolat greetli, seith the Lord. 13 For whi my puple hath don tweyne yuels; thei han forsake me, the welle of quyke watir, and han diggid to hem cisternes, that weren distried, that moun not holde watris. 14 Whether Israel is a boond man, ether is borun boonde? 15 Whi therfor is he maad in to prey? Liouns roriden on hym, and yauen her vois; thei han set the londe of hym in to wilderness, the citees of him ben brent, and noon is that dwellith in tho. 16 Also the sones of Menfis and of Tafnys han defoulid thee, til to the cop of the heed. 17 Whether this is not don to thee, for thou forsokist thi Lord God, in that tyme in which he ledde thee bi the weie? 18 And now what wilt thou to thee in the weie of Egipt, that thou drynke troblid watir? And what is to thee with the weie of Assiriens, that thou drynke water of the flood? 19 Thi malice schal repreue thee, and thi turnyng awei schal blame thee; wite thou and se, that it is yuel and bittir that thou hast forsake thi Lord God, and that his drede is not at thee, seith the Lord God of oostis. 20 Fro the world thou hast broke my yok, thou hast broke my bondis, and seidist, Y schal not serue. For thou hoore didist hordom in ech hiy litil hil, and vndur ech tree ful of bowis. 21 Forsothe Y plauntide thee a chosun vyner, al trewe seed; hou therfor art thou, alien vyner, turned to me in to a schrewid thing? 22 Thouy thou waischist thee with fulleris clei, and multypliist to thee the erbe borith, thou art defoulid in thi wickidnesse bifore me, seith the Lord God. 23 Hou seist thou, Y am not defoulid, Y yede not affir Baalym? Se thi weies in the greet valei, wite thou what thou hast do; a swifte rennere ordeynynge hise weies. 24 A wielde asse customable in wildirnesse drow the wynd of his loue in the desire of his soule; no man schal turne awei it. Alle that seken it, schulen not faile; thei schulen fynde it in the flux of vncleene blood therof. 25 Forbede thi foot fro nakidnesse, and thi throte fro thirst; and thou seidist, Y dispeiride, Y schal not do; for Y louede brennyngli alien goddis, and Y schal go affir hem. 26 As a thief is schent, whanne he is takun, so the hous of Israel ben schent; thei, and kyngis of hem, the princes, and prestis, and the prophetis of hem, 27 that seien to a tree, Thou art my fadir; and to a stoon, Thou hast gendrid me. Thei turneden to me the bak, and not the face; and in the tyme of her turment thei schulen seie, Ryse thou, and delyuere vs. 28 Where ben thi goddis, whiche thou madist to thee? Rise thei, and delyuere thee in the tyme of thi turment; for aftir the noumbre of thi citees weren thi goddis, thou Juda. 29 What wolen ye stryue with me in doom? Alle ye han forsake me, seith the Lord. 30 In veyn Y smoot youre sonnes, thei resseyueden not chastisyng; youre sword deuourde youre prophetis, youre generacioun is distried as a lioun. 31 Se ye the word of the Lord, whether Y am maad a wildirnesse to Israel, ether a lond late bryngyng forth fruyt? Whi therfor seide my puple, We han go awei, we schulen no more come to thee? 32 Whethir a virgyn schal foryete hir ounement? and a spousesse `schal foryete hir brest girdil? But mi puple hath foryete me bi daies with out noumbre. 33 What enforstist thou to schewe thi weie good to seke loue, which ferthermore bothe hast tauyt thi malices thi weies, 34 and the blood of pore men and innocentis is foundun in thi wyngis? Y fond not hem in dichis, but in alle thingis whiche Y remembre bifore. 35 And thou seidist, Y am with out synne and innocent; and therfor thi stronge veniaunce be turned awei fro me. Lo! Y schal stryue with thee in doom; for thou seidist, Y synnede not. 36 Hou vijl art thou maad, rehersyng the weies? and thou schalt be schent of Egipt, as thou were schent of Assur. 37 For whi and thou schalt go out of this lond, and thin hondis schulen be on thin heed; for whi the Lord hath al to-broke thi trist, and thou schalt have no thing to prosperite.

3 It is seid comunli, If a man forsakith his wijf, and sche go awei fro hym, and be weddid to an othere hosebonde, whether he schal turne ayen more to hir? whether thilke womman schal not be defouild, and maad vncleene? Forsothe thou hast do fornicacioun with many louteris; netheles turne thou ayen to me, `seith the Lord, and Y schal resseyue thee. 2 Reise thin iyen in to streijt, and se, where thou art not cast down. Thou hast setun in weies, abidyng hem as a thief in wildirnesse, and thou hast defouild the erthe in thi fornicaciouns and in thi malices. 3 Wherfor the drops of reynes weren forbodun, and no late reyn was. The forhed of a womman hoore is maad to thee; thou noldist be aschamed. 4 Nameli fro this tyme forth clepe thou me, Thou art my fadir, the ledere of my virginyte. 5 Whether thou schalt be wrooth with outen ende, ether schalt contynue in to the ende? Lo! thou hast spoke, and hast do yuels, and thou were myyti. And for wordis of penaunce thou blasfemydist bi wordis of pride; and thou fillidist thin yuel thouyt, and schewidist thi strengthe ayens thi hosebonde, that thou maist do that thing that thou tretidist bi word. 6 And the Lord seide to me, in the daies of Josie, the kyng, Whether thou hast seyn what thing the aduersarie, Israel, hath do? Sche yede to hir silf on ech hiy hil, and vndur ech tre ful of boowis, and dide fornicacioun there. 7 And Y seide, whanne sche hadde do alle these thingis, Turne thou ayen to me; and sche turnede not ayen. And hir sistir, Juda, brekere of the lawe, 8 siy, that for the aduersarie, Israel, dide auowtrie, Y hadde left hir, and Y hadde youe to hir a libel of forsakyng; and Juda, hir sistir, brekere of the lawe, dredde not, but also sche yede, and dide fornicacioun. 9 And bi liytnesse of hir fornicacioun sche defouilde the erthe, and dide auowtrie with a stoon, and with a tree. 10 And in alle these thingis hir sistir, Juda, brekere of the lawe, turnede not ayen to me, in al hir herte, but in a leesyng, seith the Lord God. 11 And the Lord seide to me, The aduersarie, Israel, hath iustified hir soule, in comparisoun of Juda, brekere of the lawe. 12 Go thou, and crye these wordis ayens the north; and thou schalt seie, Thou aduersarie, Israel, turne ayen, seith the Lord, and Y schal not turne awei my face fro you; for Y am hooli, seith the Lord, and Y schal not be wrooth with outen ende. 13 Netheles knowe thou thi wickidnesse; for thou hast trespassid ayens thi Lord God, and thou hast spred abroad thi weies to aliens vndur ech tre ful of bowis; and thou herddest not my vois, seith the Lord. 14 Be ye conuertid, sonnes, turnyng ayen, seith the Lord, for Y am youre hosebonde; and Y schal take you oon of a citee, and twayne of a kynrede, and Y schal lede you in to Sion; 15 and Y schal yyue to you scheepherdis after myn herte, and thei schulen feede you with kunnyng and teching. 16 And whanne ye schulen be multiplied, and encrease in the lond, in tho daies, seith the Lord, thei schulen no more seie, The arke of testament of the Lord; nether it schal stie on the herte, nether thei schulen thenke on it, nether it schal be visitid, nether it schal be ferthre. 17 In that tyme thei schulen clepe Jerusalem The seete of the Lord, and alle hethene men schulen be gaderid togidere to it, in the name of the Lord, in Jerusalem; and thei schulen not go aftir the schrewidnesse of her worste herte. 18 In tho daies the hous of Juda schal go to the hous of Israel; and thei schulen come togidere fro the lond of the north to the lond which Y yaf to youre fadris. 19 Forsothe Y seide, Hou schal Y sette thee among sonnes, and schal yyue to thee a desirable lond, a ful cleer eritage of the oostis of hethene men? And Y seide, Thou schalt clepe me fadir, and thou schalt not ceesse to entre aftir me. 20 But as if a womman dispisith hir louyere, so the hous of Israel dispiside me, seith the Lord. 21 A vois is herd in weies, the weping and yellyng of the sonnes of Israel; for thei maden wickid her weie, thei foryaten her Lord God. 22 Be ye conuertid, sonnes, turnyng ayen, and Y schal heele youre turnyngis awei. Lo! we comen to thee; for thou art oure Lord God. 23 Verili lital hillis weren lieris, the multitude of mounteyns was fals; verili in oure Lord God is the helthe of Israel. 24 Schenschiipe eete the trauel of oure fadris, fro oure yongthe; schenschiipe eet the flockis of hem, and the droues of hem, the sonnes of hem, and the douytris of hem. 25 We schulen slepe in oure schenschiipe, and oure sclauderid schal hile vs; for we synned to oure Lord God, bothe we and oure fadris, fro oure yongthe `til to this dai; and we herden not the vois of oure Lord God.

4 Israel, if thou turnest ayen, seith the Lord, turne thou to me; if thou takist awei thin offendyngis fro my face, thou schalt not be mouyd. 2 And thou schalt swere, The Lord lyueth, in treute and in doom and in riytfulnesse; and alle folkis schulen blesse hym, and schulen preise hym. 3 For the Lord God seith

these thingis to a man of Juda and to a dwellere of Jerusalem, Make ye newe to you a lond tilid of the newe, and nyle ye sowe on thornes. 4 Men of Juda, and dwellers of Jerusalem, be ye circumcidid to the Lord, and do ye away the filthis of youre hertis; lest perauenture myn indignacioun go out as fier, and be kyndlid, and noon be that quenche, for the malice of youre thouytis. 5 Telle ye in Juda, and make ye herd in Jerusalem; speke ye, and synge ye with a trumpe in the lond; crye ye strongli, and seie ye, Be ye gaderid togidere, and entre we in to stronge citees. 6 Reise ye a signe in Sion, coumforte ye, and nyle ye stonde; for Y bringe yuel fro the north, and a greet sorewe. 7 A lioun schal `rise vp fro his denne, and the robbere of folkis schal reise hym silf. He is goon out of his place, to sette thi lond in to wildirnesse; thi citees schulen be distried, abidyng stille with out dwellere. 8 On this thing girde you with heiris; weile ye, and yelle, for the wraththe of the strong veniaunce of the Lord is not turned awei fro you. 9 And it schal be, in that dai, seith the Lord, the herte of the king schal perische, and the herte of princis; and the prestis schulen wondre, and the prophetis schulen be astonyed. 10 And Y seide, Alas! alas! alas! Lord God; therfor whether thou hast disseyed this puple and Jerusalem, seiynge, Pees schal be to you, and lo! a swerd is comun `til to the soule? 11 In that tyme it schal be seide to this puple and to Jerusalem, A brennyng wynd in the weies that ben in desert, ben the weies of the douytir of my puple, not to wyndewe, and not to purge. 12 A spirit ful of hem schal come to me; and now Y, but Y schal speke my domes with hem. 13 Lo! he schal stie as a cloude, and hise charis as a tempest; hise horsis ben swifter than eglis; wo to vs, for we ben distried. 14 Thou Jerusalem, waische thin herte fro malice, that thou be maad saaf. Hou long schulen noiful thouytis dwelle in thee? 15 For whi the vois of a tellere fro Dan, and makyng knowun an idol fro the hil of Effraym. 16 Reise, ye folkis; lo! it is herd in Jerusalem that keperis ben comun fro a fer lond, and yyuen her vois on the citees of Juda. 17 As the keperis of feeldis thei ben maad on it in cumpas; for it stiride me to wrathfulnesse, seith the Lord. 18 Thi weyes and thi thouytis han maad this to thee; this malice of thee, for it is bittir, for it touchide thin herte. 19 Mi wombe akith, my wombe akith; the wittis of myn herte ben disturblid in me. Y schal not be stille, for my soule herde the vois of a trumpe, the cry of batel. 20 Sorewe is clepid on sorewe, and al the lond is distried; my tabernaclis ben wastid sudeynli, my skynnes ben wastid sudeynli. 21 Hou longe schal Y se hem that fleen, schal Y here the vois of a clarioun? 22 For my fonnid puple knew not me; thei ben vnwise sones, and cowardis; thei ben wise to do yuels, but thei kouden not do wel. 23 Y bihelde the lond, and lo! it was void, and nouyt; and Y bihelde heuenes, and no liyt was in tho. 24 Y siy munteyns, and lo! tho weren moydyd, and all litle hillis weren disturblid. 25 Y lokide, and no man was, and ech brid of heuene was gon a wey. 26 Y bihelde, and lo! Carmele is forsakun, and alle citees therof ben distried fro the face of the Lord, and fro the face of the ire of his strong veniaunce. 27 For the Lord seith these thingis, Al the lond schal be forsakun, but netheles Y schal not make an endyng. 28 The erthe schal mourne, and heuenys aboue schulen make sorewe, for that Y spak; Y thouyte, and it repentide not me, nether Y am turned awei fro it. 29 Ech citee fledde fro the vois of a knygt, and of a man schetyng an arowe; thei entriden in to hard places, and stieden in to roochis of stoon; alle citees ben forsakun, and no man dwellith in tho. 30 But what schalt thou `destried do? Whanne thou schalt clothe thee with reed scarlet, whanne thou schalt be ourned with a goldun broche, and schalt anoynte thin iyen with wommans oynement, thou schalt be araied in veyn; thi louteris han dispisid thee, thei schulen seke thi soule. 31 For Y herd a vois as of a womman trauelyng of child, the angwischis as of a womman chilydng; the vois of the douytir of Sion among hem that dien, and spreden abroad her hondis; Wo to me, for my soule failde for hem that ben slayn.

5 Cumpasse ye the weies of Jerusalem, and loke, and biholde ye, and seke ye in the stretis therof, whether ye fynden a man doynge doom, and sekyng feith; and Y schal be merciful to hem. 2 That if also thei seien, The Lord lyueth, yhe, thei schulen swere this falsli. 3 Lord, thin iyen biholden feith; thou hast smyte hem, and thei maden not sorewe; thou hast al to broke hem, and thei forsoken to take chastisyng; thei maden her faces hardere than a stoon, and nolden turne ayen. 4 Forsothe Y seide, In hap thei ben pore men, and foolis, that knowen not the weie of the Lord, and the doom of her God. 5 Therfor Y schal go to the principal men, and Y schal speke to hem; for thei knewen the weie of the Lord, and the doom of her God. And lo! thei han more broke togidere the yok, and han broke boondis. 6 Therfor a lioun of the wode smoot hem; a wolf at euentid wastide hem, a parde wakyng on the citees of hem. Ech man that goith out of hem, schal be takun; for the trespassyngis of hem ben multiplied, the turnyngis awei of hem ben coumfortid. 7 On what thing mai Y be merciful to thee? Thi sones han forsake me, and sweren bi hem that ben not goddis. Y fillide hem, and thei didnen auowtrie, and in the hous of an hoore thei didnen letcherie. 8 Thei ben maad horsis, and stalouns, louteris to wymmen; ech man neiyede to the wijf of his neiybore. 9 Whether Y schal not visite on these thingis, seith the Lord, and schal not my soule take veniaunce in siche a folk? 10 Styte ye on the wallis therof, and distrie ye; but nyle ye make an endyng. Do ye awei the siouns therof, for thei ben not seruauantis of the Lord. 11 For whi the hous of Israel and the hous of Juda hath trespassid bi trespassyng ayens me, seith the Lord; 12 thei denyeden the Lord, and seiden, He is not, nether yuel schal come on vs; we schulen not se swerd and hungur. 13 The profetis spaken ayens the wynd, and noon answer was in hem; therfor these thingis schulen come to hem. 14 The Lord God of oostis seith these thingis, For ye spaken this word, lo! Y yyue my wordis in thi mouth in to fier, and this puple in to trees, and it schal deuoure hem. 15 Lo! thou hous of Israel, seith the Lord, Y schal brynge on you a folk fro fer; a strong folk, an eeld folk, `a folk whos langage thou schalt not knowe, nether schalt vndurstonde what it spekith. 16 The arowe caas therof is as an opyn sepulcre; alle ben stronge men. 17 And it schal ete thi cornes, and it schal deuoure thi breed, thi sones and thi douytris; it schal ete thi flok, and thi droues, it schal ete also thi vyner, and thi fige tre; and it schal al to-breke thi stronge citees bi swerd, in whiche thou hast trist. 18 Netheles in tho daies, seith the Lord, Y schal not make you in to endyng. 19 That if ye seien, Whi hath oure Lord God do alle these thingis to vs? thou schalt seie to hem, As ye forsoken me, and serueden an alien god in youre lond, so ye schulen serue alien goddis in a lond not youre. 20 Telle ye this to the hous of Jacob, and make ye herd in Juda, and seie ye, 21 Here, thou fonned puple, that hast noon herte; whiche han iyen, and seen not, and eeris, and heren not. 22 Therfor schulen not ye drede me, seith the Lord, and schulen not ye make sorewe for my face? Whiche haue set grauel a terme, ether ende, to the see, an euerlastyng comendement, whiche it schal not passe; and the wawis therof schulen be moyud, and schulen not haue power; and schulen wexe greet, and schulen not passe it. 23 Forsothe an herte vnbeleueful and terryng to wraththe is maad to this puple; thei departiden, 24 and yeden awei, and thei seiden not in her herte, Drede we oure Lord God, that yiueh to vs reyn tymeiful, and lateful in his tyme; that kepith to vs the plente of heruest of the year. 25 Your wickidnessis diden awei these thingis, and youre synnes forbediden good fro you. 26 For ther ben foundun in my puple wickid men, settyng tresoun, as foulures settyng snaris and trappis, to take men. 27 As a net, ether a trap, ful of briddis, so the housis of hem ben ful of gile. Therfor thei ben magnified, 28 and maad riche, maad fat with ynne, and maad fat with outforth, and thei passiden worst my wordis; thei demyden not a cause of a widewe, thei dressiden not the cause of a fadirles child, and thei demyden not the doom of pore men. 29 Whether Y schal not visite on these thingis, seith the Lord, ether schal not my soule take veniaunce on sich a folk? 30 Wondur and merueilouse thingis ben maad in the lond; 31 profetis profesieden leesying, and prestis ioieden with her hondis, and my puple louyde sicke thingis. What therfor schal be don in the laste thing therof?

6 Sones of Beniamyn, be ye coumfortid in the myddil of Jerusalem, and make ye noise with a clarioun in Thecua, and reise ye a baner on Bethecarem; for whi yuel and greet sorewe is seyn fro the north. 2 Y haue ligned the douytir of Sion to a fair womman and delicat. 3 Scheepherdis and her flockis schulen come to it; thei han piyt tentis in it in cumpas; ech man schal feede hem, that ben vndur his hond. 4 Halewe ye batel on it. Lo! the eeris of hem ben vncircumcidid, and thei moun not here; lo! the Schede thou out on a litil child with outforth, and on the counsel of yonge men togidere; for a man with his wijf schal be takun, and an eeld man with him that is ful of daies. 12 And the housis of hem, the feeldis and wyues togidere, schulen go to othere men; for Y schal stretche forth myn hond on the dwelleris of the lond, seith the Lord. 13 For fro the lesse `til to the grettere, alle studien to auerise; and alle doon gile, fro the profete `til to the preest. 14 And thei heeliden the sorewe of the douytir of my puple with yuel fame, seiyng, Pees, pees, and no pees was. 15 Thei ben schent, that diden abhomynacioun; yhe, rathere thei weren not schent bi confusioun, and thei kouden not be aschamed. Wherfor thei schulen falle down among hem that schulen falle down; thei schulen falle down in the tyme of her visitacioun, seith the Lord. 16 The Lord seith these thingis, Stonde ye on weies, and se ye, and axe ye of elde pathis, which is the good weie; and go ye ther ynne, and ye schulen fynde refreischyng to youre soulis. And thei seiden, We schulen not go. 17 And Y ordeynede asperis on you, and Y seide, Here ye the vois of a trumpe. And thei seiden, We schulen not here. 18 Therfor, hethene men, here ye, and, thou congregacioun, knowe, hou grete thingis Y schal do to hem. 19 Thou erthe, here, lo! Y schal bryng yeuels on this puple, the fruit of her thouytis; for thei herden not my wordis, and castiden awei my lawe. 20 Wherto bryngen ye to me encense fro Saba, and a tre of spicerie smellyng swetli fro a fer lond? Your brent sacrifices ben not acceptid, and youre slayn sacrifices plesiden not me. 21 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal yyue fallyngis in to this puple, and fadris and sones togidere, a neybore and kynesman, schulen falle in hem, and schulen perische. 22 The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! a puple cometh fro the lond of the north, and a greet folk schal rise togidere fro the endis of erthe. 23 It schal take an arowe and scheld; it is cruel, and schal not haue merci; the vois therof schal sowne as the see, and thei maad redi as a man to batel schulen stie on horsis ayens thee, thou douytir of Sion. 24 We herden the fame therof, oure hondis ben `a clumsid; tribulacioun hath take vs, sorewis han take vs as a womman trauelinge of child. 25 Nyle ye go out to the feeldis, and go ye not in the weie, for the swerd of the enemye, drede in cumpas. 26 The douytir of my puple, be thou gird with heire, and be thou spreynt togidere with aische; make to thee mourenyng of oon aloone gendrid sone, a bitter weilyng, for whi a wastere schal come sodenli on you. 27 I yaf thee a strong preuere in my puple, and thou schalt knowe, and preue the weie of hem. 28 Alle these princis bowyng awei, goyng gilefuli, ben metal and irun; alle ben corrupt. 29 The belu failide, leed is wastid in the fier, the wellere wellide in veyn; for the malices of hem ben not wastid. 30 Clepe ye hem repreuable siluer, for the Lord hath cast hem awei.

7 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, Stonde thou in the yate of the hous of the Lord, and preche there this word, and seie, Al Juda, that entren bi these yatis for to worschipe the Lord, here ye the word of the Lord. 3 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Make ye good youre weies, and youre studies, and Y schal dwelle with you in this place. 4 Nyle ye triste in the wordis of leesying, and seie, The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord is. 5 For if ye blessen youre weies, and your studies; if ye doon doom bitwixe a man and his neyboare; 6 if ye maken not fals caleng to a comelyng, and to a fadirles child, and to a widewe; nether scheden out innocent blood in this place, and goen not after alien goddis, in to yuel to you silf, 7 Y schal dwelle with you in this place, in the lond which Y yaf to youre fadris, fro the world and til in to the world. 8 Lo! ye trusten to you in the wordis of leesying, that schulen not profite to you; 9 to stele, to sle, to do auowtrie, to swere falsli, to make sacrifice to Baalym, and to go aftir alien goddis, whiche ye knowen not. 10 And ye camen, and stoden bifor me in this hous, in which my name is clepid to help; and ye seiden, We ben delyuered, for we han do alle these abhomyaciouns. 11 Whether therfor this hous, wherynne my name is clepid to help bifore youre iyen, is maad a denne of theues? I, Y am, Y siy, seith the Lord. 12 Go ye to my place in Silo, where my name dwellide at the bigynnyng, and se ye what thingis Y dide to it, for the malice of my puple Israel. 13 And now, for ye han do alle these werkis, seith the Lord, and Y spak to you, and roos eerli, and Y spak, and ye herden not, and Y clepide you, and ye answeriden not; 14 Y schal do to this hous, wherynne my name is clepid to help, and in which hous ye han trist, and to the place which Y yaf to you and to youre fadris, as Y dide to Silo. 15 And Y schal caste you forth fro my face, as Y castide forth alle youre britheren, al the seed of Effraym. 16 Therfor nyl thou preie for this puple, nether take thou heriying and preier for hem; and ayenstonde thou not me, for Y schal not here thee. 17 Whether thou seest not, what these men don in the citees of Juda, and in the stretis of Jerusalem? 18 The sones gaderen stickis, and the fadris kyndlen a fier; and wymmen sprengen togidere ynnere fatnesse, to make kakis to the queen of heuene, to make sacrifice to alien goddis, and to terre me to wrathfulnesse. 19 Whether thei stiren me to wrathfulnesse? seith the Lord; whether thei stiren not hem silf in to schenschip of her cheer? 20 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! my strong veniaunce and myn indignacioun is wellid togidere on this place, on men, and on beestis, and on the tree of the cuntrei, and on the fruitis of erthe; and it schal be kyndlid, and it schal not be quenched. 21 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Heepe ye youre brent sacrifices to youre slayn sacrifices, and ete ye fleischis. 22 For Y spak not with youre fadris, and Y comaundide not to hem of the word of brent sacrifices, and of slayn sacrifices, in the dai in which Y ledde hem out of the lond of Egipt. 23 But Y comaundide this word to hem, and Y seide, Here ye my vois, and Y schal be God to you, and ye schulen be a puple to me; and go ye in al the weie which Y comaundide to you, that it be wel to you. 24 And thei herden not, nether bowiden down her eere, but thei yeden in her lustis, and in the schrewidnesse of her yuel herte; and thei ben put bihynde, and not bifore, 25 fro the dai in which her fadris yeden out of the lond of Egipt til to this dai. And Y sente to you alle my seruauantis profetis, and Y roos eerli bi the dai, and Y sente. 26 And thei herden not me, nether bowiden down her eere; but thei maden hard her nol, and wrouyten worse than the fadris of hem. 27 And thou schalt speke to hem alle these wordis, and thei schulen not heere thee; and thou schalt clepe hem, and thei schul not answer to thee. 28 And thou schalt seie to hem, This is the folc, that herde not the vois of her Lord God, nether resseyuede chastysyng; feith perischide, and is takun awei fro the mouth of hem. 29 Clippe thin heer, and cast awei, and take thou weilyng streyti; for the Lord hath cast awei, and hath forsake the generacioun of his strong veniaunce. 30 For the sones of Juda han do yuel bifor myn iyen, seith the Lord; thei han set her offendyngis in the hous, in which my name is clepid to help, that thei schulden defoule that hous; 31 and thei bildiden hiye thingis in Tophet, which is in the valei of the sone of Ennon, that thei schulden brenne her sonen and her douytris bi fier, whiche thingis Y comaundide not, nether thouyte in myn herte. 32 Therfor lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and it schal no more be seid Tophet, and the valei of the sone of Ennon, but the valei of sleyng; and thei schulen birie in Tophet, for ther is no place. 33 And the deed careyn of this puple schal be in to mete to the briddis of heuene, and to the beestis of erthe; and noon schal be that schal dryue awei. 34 And Y schal make to ceesse the vois of ioye, and the vois of gladnesse, and the vois of spouse, and the vois of spousesse fro the citees of Juda, and fro the stretis of Jerusalem; for the lond schal be in desolacioun.

8 In that tyme, seith the Lord, thei schulen caste out the boonys of the kingis of Juda, and the boonys of princes therof, and the boonys of prestis, and the boonys of profetis, and the boonys of hem that dwelliden in Jerusalem fro her sepulcris; 2 and thei schulen leie abroad tho boonys to the sunne, and moone, and to al the knyithod of heuene, which thei louyden, and which thei seruyden, and aftir whiche thei yeden, and whiche thei souyten, and worschipiden; tho schulen not be gaderid, and schulen not be biried; tho schulen be in to a dunghil on the face of erthe. 3 And alle men schulen cheesse deth more than lijf, whiche ben left of this worst kynrede, in alle places that ben left, to whiche places Y castide hem out, seith the Lord of oostis. 4 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, Whether he that schal falle, schal not rise ayen? and whether he that is turned awei, schal not turne ayen? 5 Whi therfor is this puple in Jerusalem turned awei bi turnyng awei ful of strijf? Thei han take leesying, and nolden turne ayen. 6 Y perseyuede, and herkneide; no man spekith that that is good, noon is that doith penaunce for his synne, and seith, What haue Y do? Alle ben turnede togidere to her cours, as an hors goyng bi fersnesse to batel. 7 A kite in the eir knew his tyme; a turtle, and a swalewe, and a siconye, kepten the tyme of her comyng; but my puple knew not the doom of the Lord. 8 Hou seien ye, We ben wise men, and the lawe of the Lord is with vs? Verili the fals wrytyng of scribis wrouyte leesying. 9 Wise men ben schent, ben maad aferd and takun. For thei castiden awei the word of the Lord, and no wisdom is in hem. 10 Therfor Y schal yyue the wymmen of hem to straungeris, and the feeldis of hem to alien eiris; for fro the leeste 'til to the mooste alle suen aueryce, fro a profete 'til to the preest alle maken leesying; 11 and thei heeliden the sorowe of the douytr of my puple to schenschiipe, seiyng, Pees, pees, whanne no pees was. 12 Thei ben schent, for thei didnen abhomyacioun; yhe, rather thei weren not schent bi schenschiipe, and kouden not be aschamed. Therfor thei schulen falle among falleris, in the tyme of her visitacioun thei schulen falle, seith the Lord. 13 I gaderynge schal gadere hem, seith the Lord; no grape is in the vynes, and figis ben not in the fige tre; a leef felle doun, and Y yaf to hem tho thingis that ben go out ouer. 14 Whi sitten we? come ye togidere, entre we in to a strong citee, and be we stille there; for oure Lord hath maad vs to be stille, and yaf to vs drynk the watir of galle; for we han synned to the Lord. 15 We abidden pees, and no good was; we abidden tyme of medicyn, and lo! drede is. 16 Gnastyng of horsis therof is herd fro Dan; al the lond is moued of the vois of neyngis of hise werriours; and thei camen, and deuouriden the lond, and the plente therof, the citee, and the dwelleris therof. 17 For lo! Y schal sende to you the werste serpentis, to whiche is no charmyng; and thei schulen bite you, seith the Lord. 18 My sorewe is on sorewe, myn herte is mourenyng in me. 19 And lo! the vois of cry of the douyter of my puple cometh fro a fer lond. Whether the Lord is not in Sion, ethir the kyng therof is not theyrnye? Whi therfor stiriden thei me to wrathfulnesse bi her grauun ymagis, and bi alien vanytees? 20 Heruest is passid, somer is endid; and we ben not sauuyd. 21 Y am turmentid, and sori on the sorewe of the douyter of my puple; astonyng helde me. 22 Whether resyn is not in Galaad, ether a leche is not there? Whi therfor the wounde of the douytir of my puple is not heeled perfitli?

9 Who schal yyue watir to myn heed, and a welle of teeris to myn iyen? And Y schal biwepe dai and niyt the slayn men of the douyter of my puple. 2 Who schal yyue me in to a wildirnesse of dyuerse weigoeris? And I schal forsake my puple, and Y schal go awey fro hem. For whi alle ben auowteris, and the cumpenyys of trespassouris ayens the lawe; 3 and thei helden forth her tunge as a bouwe of leesyng, and not of treuthe. Thei ben coumfortid in erthe, for thei yeden out fro yuel to yuel, and thei knewen not me, seith the Lord. 4 Ech man kepe hym fro his neybore, and haue no trist in ony brother of hym; for whi ech brother disseyuyng schal disseyue, and ech frend schal go gilefuli. 5 And a man schal scorne his brother, and schal not speke treuthe; for thei tauyten her tunge to speke leesyng; thei traueliden to do wickidli. 6 Thi dwellyng is in the myddis of gile; in gile thei forsoken to knowe me, seith the Lord. 7 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal welle togidere, and Y schal preue hem; for whi what other thing schal Y do for the face of the douyter of my puple? 8 The tunge of hem is an arowe woundyng, and spak gile; in his mouth he spekith pees with his frend, and priueli he settith tresouns to hym. 9 Whether Y schal not visite on these thingis, seith the Lord, ether schal not my soule take veniaunce on sicke a folc? 10 On hillis Y schal take wepyng and mournyng, and weilyng on the faire thingis of desert, for tho ben brent; for no man is passyng forth, and thei herden not the vois of hym that weldith; fro a brid of the eir 'til to scheep, tho passiden ouer, and yeden awey. 11 And Y schal yyue Jerusalem in to heepis of grauel, and in to dennes of dragouns; and Y schal yyue the citees of Juda in to desolacioun, for ther is no dweller. 12 Who is a wise man that schal vnderstonde these thingis, and to whom the word of the mouth of the Lord schal be maad, that he telle this? Whi the erthe perischide, it is brent as desert, for noon is that passith? 13 And the Lord seide, For thei forsoken my lawe, which Y yaf to hem, and thei herden not my vois, and thei yeden not theyrnye; 14 and thei yeden aftir the schrewidnesse of her herte, and aftir Baalym, which thei lerneden of her fadris; 15 therfor the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal fede this puple with wermod, and Y schal yyue to hem drynke the watir of galle. 16 And Y schal scatere hem among hethene men, whiche thei and her fadris knewen not; and Y schal sende swerd aftir hem, til thei ben wastid. 17 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Biholde ye, and clepe ye wymmen 'that weilen, and come thei; and sende ye to tho wymmen that ben wise, and haste thei. 18 Haste thei, and take thei weilyng on you; youre iyen bryng down teeris, and youre iyelidis flowe with watris; 19 for the vois of weilyng is herd fro Sion. Hou ben we distried, and schent greetli? for we han forsake the lond, for oure tabernaculis ben forsakun. 20 Therfor, wymmen, here ye the word of the Lord, and youre eeris take the word of his mouth; and teche ye youre douytis weilyng, and ech womman teche hir neybore mournyng. 21 For whi deth stiede bi youre wyndows, it entride in to youre housis, to leese lile children with outforth, and yonge men fro the stretis. 22 Speke thou, the Lord seith, these thingis, And the deed bodi of a man schal fal doun as a toord on the face of the cuntrei, and as hei bihynde the bak of the mowere, and noon is that gaderith. 23 The Lord seith these thingis, A wise man haue not glorie in his wisdom, and a strong man haue not glorie in his strengthe, and a riche man haue not glorie in hise richessis; but he that hath glorie, 24 haue glorie in this, to wite and knowe me, for Y am the Lord, that do merci and dom and ryhtfulnesse in erthe. For whi these thingis plesen me, seith the Lord. 25 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal visite on ech man that hath prepucie vncircumcidid; on Egypt, 26 and on Juda, and on Edom, and on the sones of Amon, and on Moab, and on alle men that ben clippid on long here, and dwellen in desert; for whi alle hethene men han prepucie, forsothe al the hous of Israel ben vncircumcidid in herte.

10 The hous of Israel, here ye the word which the Lord spak on you. 2 The Lord seith these thingis, Nyle ye lerne aftir the weies of hethene men, and nyle ye drede of the signes of heuene, whiche signes hethene men dreden. 3 For the lawis of pupilis ben veyn, for whi the werk of hondis of a crafti man hath kit doun with an axe a tre of the forest. 4 He made it fair with siluer and gold; with naylis and hameris he ioynede it togidere, that it be not loosid. 5 Idols ben maad in the licnesse of a palm tree, and schulen not speke; tho schulen be takun and be borun, for tho moun not go; therfor nyle ye drede tho, for tho moun nether do yuel, nethir wel. 6 Lord, noon is lijk thee; thou art greet, and thi name is greet in strengthe. 7 A! thou king of folkis, who schal not drede thee? for whi onour is thin among alle wise men of hethene men, and in alle the rewmes of hem noon is lijk thee. 8 Thei schulen be preued, vnwise and foolis

togidere; the techyng of her vanyte is a tre. 9 Siluer wlappid is brouyt fro Tharsis, and gold fro Ophaz; it is the werk of a crafti man, and of the hond of a worchere in metel; iacynt and purpur ben the clothing of tho; alle these thingis ben the werk of werk men. 10 Forsothe the Lord is veri God; he is God lyuynge, and a kyng euerlastyng; the erthe schal be mouyd togidere of his indignacioun, and hethene men schulen not suffre the manaassing of hym. 11 Therfor thus ye schulen seie to hem, Goddis that maden not heuene and erthe, perische fro erthe, and fro these thingis that ben vndur heuene. 12 He is God, that makith the erthe in his strengthe, makith redi the world in his wisdom, and stretchith forth heuenes bi his prudence. 13 At his vois he yyueth the multitude of watris in heuene, and he reisith mystis fro the endis of erthe; he makith leitis into reyn, and ledith out wynd of his tresouris. 14 Ech man is maad a fool of kunnyng, ech crafti man is schent in a grauun ymage; for whi that that he wellide togidere is fals, and no spirit is in tho. 15 Tho ben veyn, and a werk worthi of scorn; tho schulen perische in the tyme of her visitacioun. 16 The part of Jacob is not lijk these, for he that formede alle thingis is God of Jacob, and Israel is the yerde of his eritage; the Lord of oostis is name to hym. 17 Thou that dwellist in bisegyng, gadere fro the lond thi schenschipec; 18 for the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal caste awei fer the dwelleris of the loond in this while; and Y schal yyue tribulacioun to hem, so that thei be not foundun. 19 Wo to me on my sorewe, my wounde is ful yuel; forsothe Y seide, Pleylnli this is my sikenesse, and Y schal bere it. 20 My tabernacle is distried, alle my roopis ben brokun; my sones yeden out fro me, and ben not; noon is that schal stretche forth more my tente, and schal reyse my skynnes. 21 For the scheepherdis diden folili, and souyten not the Lord; therfor thei vndurstoden not, and alle the flok of hem is scaterid. 22 Lo! the vois of hering cometh, and a greet mouyng togidere fro the lond of the north, that it sette the citees of Juda in to wildirnesse, and a dwellynge place of dragouns. 23 Lord, Y woot, that the weie of a man is not of hym, nether it is of a man that he go, and dresse hise steppis. 24 Lord, chastise thou me; netheles in doom and not in thi strong veniaunce, lest perauenture thou dryue me to nouyt. 25 Schede out thin indignacioun on hethene men that knewen not thee, and on prouynces that clepiden not thi name to help; for thei eeten Jacob, and deuouriden hym, and wastiden hym, and destrieden the onour of hym.

11 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, Here ye the wordis of this couenaunt, and speke ye to the men of Juda, and to the dwelleris of Jerusalem; and thou schalt seie to hem, 3 The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Cursid be the man that herith not the wordis of this couenaunt, 4 which Y comaundide to youre fadris, in the dai in which Y ledde hem out of the lond of Egipt, fro the irone furneis; and Y seide, Here ye my vois, and do ye alle thingis whiche Y comaundide to you, and ye schulen be in to a puple to me, and Y schal be in to God to you; 5 that Y reise the ooth which Y swoor to youre fadris, that Y schulde yyue to hem a lond flowyng with mylk and hony, as this dai is. And Y answeride, and seide, Amen, Lord. 6 And the Lord seide to me, Crye thou alle these wordis in the citees of Juda, and with out Jerusalem, and seie thou, Here ye the wordis of this couenaunt, and do ye tho; 7 for Y witnessyng haue witnessid to youre fadris, in the dai in which Y ledde hem out of the lond of Egipt, `til to this dai; Y roos eerli, and witnesside, and seide, Here ye my vois. 8 And thei herden not, nether bowiden doun her eere, but thei yeden forth ech man in the schrewidnesse of his yuel herte; and Y brouyte in on hem alle the wordis of this couenaunt, which Y comaundide that thei schulden do, and thei diden not. 9 And the Lord seide to me, Sweryng togidere is foundun in the men of Juda, and in the dwelleris of Jerusalem; 10 thei turneden ayen to the formere wickidness of her fadris, that nolden here my wordis; and therfor these men yeden aftir alien goddis, for to serue hem; the hous of Israel and the hous of Juda maden voide my couenaunt, which Y made with the fadris of hem. 11 Wherfor the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe in on hem yuels, of whiche thei schulen not mow go out; and thei schulen crie to me, and Y schal not here hem. 12 And the citees of Juda and the dwellers of Jerusalem schulen go, and schulen crye to hem, to whiche thei offren sacrifices; and thei schulen not saue hem in the tyme of her turment. 13 For thou, Juda, thi goddis weren bi the nombre of thi citees, and thou settidist auters of schenschipec, bi the nombre of the weies of Jerusalem, auters to offre sacrifices to Baalym. 14 Therfor nyle thou preie for this puple, and take thou not heriyng and preier for hem; for Y schal not here in the tyme of the cry of hem to me, in the tyme of the turment of hem. 15 What is it, that my derlyng doith many greet trespassis in myn hous? whether hooli fleischis schulen do awei fro thee thi malice, in which thou hast glorie? 16 The Lord clepide thi name an olyue tre, fair, ful of fruyt, schapli; at the vois of a greet speche fier brent an hyt ther ynne, and the buyschis therof ben brent. 17 And the Lord of oostis that plauntide thee, spak yuel on thee, for the yuels of the hous of Israel, and of the hous of Juda, whiche thei diden to hem silf, and offriden to Baalym, to terre me to wraththe. 18 Forsothe, Lord, thou schewidist to me, and Y knew; thou schewidist to me the studies of hem. 19 And Y am as a mylde lomb, which is borun to slayn sacrifice; and Y knew not, that thei thouyten counsels on me, and seiden, Sende we a tre in to the brede of hym, and rase we hym awei fro the lond of Iyuerys, and his name be no more hadde in mynde. 20 But thou, Lord of oostis, that demest iustli, and preuest reynes and hertis, se Y thi veniaunce of hem; for to thee Y schewide my cause. 21 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis to the men of Anathot, that seken thi lijf, and seien, Thou schalt not prophesie in the name of the Lord, and thou schalt not die in oure hondis. 22 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal visite on hem; the yonge men of hem schulen die bi swerd, the sones of hem and the douytris of hem schulen die for hungur; 23 and no relifs, ether children abidyng, schulen be of hem; for Y schal bringe ynne yuel on the men of Anathot, the yeer of the visitacioun of hem.

12 Forsothe, Lord, thou art iust; if Y dispute with thee, netheles Y schal speke iust thingis to thee. Whi hath the weie of wickid men prosperite? It is wel to alle men that breken

the lawe, and doen wickidli? 2 Thou hast plauntid hem, and thei senten roote; thei encreessen, and maken fruyt; thou art niy to the mouth of hem, and fer fro the reynes of hem. 3 And thou, Lord, hast knowe me, thou hast seyn me, and hast preued myn herte with thee. Gadere thou hem togidere as a flock to slayn sacrifice, and halewe thou hem in the dai of sleynge. 4 Hou long schal the erthe mourne, and ech eerbe of the feeld schal be dried, for the malice of hem that dwellen ther ynn? A beeste is wastid, and a brid, for thei seiden, The Lord schal not se oure laste thingis. 5 If thou trauelist rennyng with foot men, hou schalt thou mow stryue with horsis? but whanne thou art sikur in the lond of pees, what schalt thou do in the pride of Jordan? 6 For whi bothe thi britheren and the hous of thi fadir, yhe, thei fouyten ayens thee, and crieden with ful vois aftir thee; bileue thou not to hem, whanne thei speken goodis to thee. 7 I haue left myn hous, Y haue forsake myn eritage; Y yaf my loued soule in to the hondis of enemyes therof. 8 Myn eritage is maad as a lioun in the wode to me; it yaf vois ayens me, therfor Y hate it. 9 Whether myn eritage is a brid of dyuerse colours to me? whether it is a brid dide thorou out? Alle beestis of the feeld, come ye, be ye gaderid togidere; haste ye for to deuoure. 10 Many scheepherdis distrieden my vyner, defouliden my part, yauen my desirable porcioun in to desert of wildirnesse; 11 thei settiden it in to scaterieng, and it mourenyde on me; al the lond is desolat bi desolacioun, for noon is that ayenthenkith in herte. 12 Alle distrieris of the lond camen on alle the weies of desert, for the swerd of the Lord schal deuoure fro the laste part of the lond `til to the laste part therof; no pees is to al fleisch. 13 Thei sowiden wheete, and repiden thornes; thei token erytage, and it schal not profite to hem. Ye schulen be schent of youre fruytis, for the wraththe of the stronge veniaunce of the Lord. 14 The Lord seith these thingis ayens alle my worst neyboris, that touchen the eritage which Y departide to my puple Israel, Lo! Y schal drawe hem out of her lond, and Y schal drawe the hous of Juda out of the myddis of hem. 15 And whanne Y schal drawe out thilke Jewis, Y schal conuerte, and haue merci on hem; and Y schal lede hem ayen, a man to his eritage, and a man in to his lond. 16 And it schal be, if thei `that ben tauyt lernen the weies of my puple, that thei swere in my name, The Lord lyueth, as thei tauyten my puple to swere in Baal, thei schulen be bildid in the myddis of my puple. 17 That if thei heren not, Y schal drawe out that folk by drawyng out and perdicious, seith the Lord.

13 The Lord seith these thingis to me, Go, and take in possessioun to thee a lynnun breigirdil; and thou schalt putte it on thi leendis, and thou schalt not bere it in to watir. 2 And Y took in possessioun a breigirdil, bi the word of the Lord; and Y puttide aboute my leendis. 3 And the word of the Lord was maad to me in the secounde tyme, 4 and seide, Take the brigirdil, which thou haddist in possessioun, which is aboute thi leendis; and rise thou, and go to Eufrates, and hide thou it there, in the hoole of a stoon. 5 And Y yede, and hidde it in Eufrates, as the Lord comaundide to me. 6 And it was don aftir ful many daies, the Lord seide to me, Rise thou, and go to Eufrates, and take fro thennus the brigirdil, whiche Y comaundide to thee, that thou schuldist hide it there. 7 And Y yede to Eufrates, and diggide out, and Y took the breigirdil fro the place, where Y hadde hidde it; and lo! the breigirdil was rotun, so that it was not able to ony vss. 8 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 9 and seide, The Lord seith these thingis, So Y schal make rotun the pride of Juda, and the myche pride of Jerusalem, 10 and this worste puple, that nylen here my wordis, and goen in the schrewidnesse of her herte; and thei yeden aftir alien goddis, to serue hem, and to worschipe hem; and thei schulen be as this breigirdil, which is not able to ony vss. 11 For as a breigirdil cleueth to the leendis of a man, so Y ioynede faste to me al the hous of Israel, and al the hous of Juda, seith the Lord, that thei schulden be to me in to a puple, and in to name, and in to heriyng, and in to glorie; and thei herden not. 12 Therfor thou schalt seie to hem this word, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Ech potel schal be fillid of wyn. And thei schulen seie to thee, Whether we witen not, that ech potel schal be fillid of wyn? 13 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y shal fille with drunkenesse alle the dwelliris of this lond, and the kyngis of the generacioun of Dauith, that sitten on his trone, and the prestis, and profetis, and alle the dwelliris of Jerusalem. 14 And Y schal scatere hem, a man fro his brother, and the fadris and sones togidere, seith the Lord; Y schal not spare, and Y schal not graunte, nether Y schal do mercy, that I leese not hem. 15 Here ye, and perseyue with eeris; nyle ye be reisd, for the Lord spak. 16 Yyue ye glorie to youre Lord God, bifore that it wexe derk, and bifor that youre feet hirte at derk hillis; ye schulen abide liyt, and he schal sette it in to the schadewe of deeth, and in to derknesse. 17 That if ye heren not this, my soule schal wepe in hid place for the face of pride; it wepyng schal wepe, and myn iye shal caste out a teer, for the flock of the Lord is takun. 18 Seye thou to the kyng, and to the ladi, Be ye mekid, sitte ye, for the coroun of youre glorie schal go down fro youre heed. 19 The cities of the south ben closid, and noon is that openith; al Juda is translatid bi perfit passyng ouere, ether goyng out of her lond. 20 Reise ye youre iyen, and se ye, what men comen fro the north; where is the flock which is youun to thee, thi noble scheep? 21 What schalt thou seie, whanne he schal visite thee? for thou hast tauyt hem ayens thee, and thou hast tauyt ayens thin heed. Whether sorewis han not take thee, as a woman trauelyng of child? 22 That if thou seist in thin herte, Whi camen these thingis to me? for the multitude of thi wickidnesse thi schamefulere thingis ben schewid, thi feet ben defoulid. 23 If a man of Ethiopie mai chaunge his skyn, ether a pard mai chaunge hise dyuersitees, and ye moun do wel, whanne ye han lerned yuel. 24 And Y schal sowe hem abroad, as stobil which is rauyschid of the wynd in desert. 25 This is thi lot, and the part of thi mesure of me, seith the Lord; for thou foryetidist me, and tristidist in a leesyng. 26 Wherfor and Y made nakid thin hipis ayens thi face, and thi schenschiappe apperide, 27 thin auowtries, and thin neyyng, and the felonye of thi fornyacioun on litle hillis in the feeld; Y siy thin abhomynaciouns. Jerusalem, wo to thee, thou schalt not be clensid after me til yit.

14 The word of the Lord, that was maad to Jeremye, of the wordis of dryenesse. 2 Jude weilide, and the yatis

therof fellen doun, and ben maad derk in erthe, and the cry of Jerusalem stiede. 3 Grettene men senten her lesse men to water; thei camen to drawe watir, and thei foundun no water, thei brouyten ayen her vessels voide; thei weren schent and turmentid, 4 and thei hiilden her heedis for distriyng of the lond, for reyn cam not in the lond. Erthe tilieris weren schent, thei hiilden her heedis. 5 For whi and an hynde calyde in the feeld, and lefte her calues, for noon eerbe was; 6 and wield assis stoden in rochis, and drowen wynde as dragouns; her iyen failiden, for noon eerbe was. 7 If oure wickidnessis answeren to vs, Lord, do thou for thi name, for oure turnyngis awei ben manye; we han synned ayens thee. 8 Thou abidyng of Israel, the sauour therof in the tyme of tribulacioun, 9 whi schalt thou be as a comelyng in the lond, and as a weigoere bowyng to dwelle? whi schalt thou be as a man of vnstable dwellyng, as a strong man that mai not saue? Forsothe, Lord, thou art in vs, and thin hooli name is clepid to help on vs; forsake thou not vs. 10 The Lord seith these thingis to this puple, that louede to stire hise feet, and restide not, and pleside not the Lord; now he schal haue mynde on the wickidnesses of hem, and he schal visite the synnes of hem. 11 And the Lord seide to me, Nyle thou preie for this puple in to good. 12 Whanne thei schulen faste, Y schal not here the preieris of hem; and if thei offren brent sacrifices and slayn sacrifices, Y schal not resseyue tho, for Y schal waste hem bi swerd and hungur and pestilence. 13 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, profetis seien to hem, Ye schulen not se swerd, and hungur schal not be in you, but he schal yyue to you veri pees in this place. 14 And the Lord seide to me, The profetis profesien falsli in my name; Y sente not hem, and Y comaundide not to hem, nether Y spak to hem; thei profesien to you a fals reuelacioun, and a gileful dyuynyng, and the disseyuyng of her herte. 15 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis of the profetis that profesien in my name, whiche Y sente not, and seien, Swerd and hungur schal not be in this lond; Tho profetis schulen be wastid bi swerd and hungur. 16 And the puplis, to whiche thei profesieden, schulen be cast forth in the weies of Jerusalem, for hungur and swerd, and noon schal be, that schal birie hem; they and the wyues of hem, the sones and the douytris of hem `schulen be cast forth; and Y schal schede out on hem her yuel. 17 And thou schalt seie to hem this word, Myn iyen lede doun a teer bi niyt and dai, and be not stille, for the virgyn, the douyter of my puple, is defouled bi greet defoulyng, with the worste wounde greetli. 18 If Y go out to feeldis, lo! men ben slayn bi swerd; and if Y entre in to the citee, lo! men ben maad leene for hungur; also a profete and a prest yeden in to the lond which thei knewen not. 19 Whether thou castyng awei hast cast awei Juda, ether thi soule hath wlatid Sion? whi therfor hast thou smyte vs, so that noon heeltid is? We abididen pees, and no good is; and we abididen time of heeling, and lo! disturbing is. 20 Lord, we han know oure vnfeithfulnessis, and the wickidnessis of oure fadris, for we han synned to thee. 21 Yyue thou not vs in to schenschip, for thi name, nether do thou dispite to vs; haue thou mynde on the seete of thi glorie, make thou not voide thi boond of pees with vs. 22 Whether in grauun ymagis of hethene men ben thei that reynen, ethir heuenes moun yyue reynes? whether thou art not oure Lord God, whom we abididen? For thou madist alle these thingis.

15 And the Lord seide to me, Thouy Moises and Samuel stoden bfore me, my soule is not to this puple; caste thou hem out fro my face, and go thei out. 2 That if thei seien to thee, Whidur schulen we go out? thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, Thei that to deth, to deth, and thei that to swerd, to swerd, and thei that to hungur, to hungur, and thei that to caitifte, to caitifte. 3 Y schal visite on hem foure spices, seith the Lord; a swerd to sleeynge, and doggis for to reende, and volatilis of the eir, and beestis of the erthe to deuoure and to distrie. 4 And Y schal yyue hem in to feruour to alle rewmes of erthe, for Manasses, the sone of Ezechie, king of Juda, on alle thingis whiche he dide in Jerusalem. 5 For whi who schal haue merci on thee, Jerusalem, ethir who schal be sori for thee, ether who schal go to preie for thi pees? 6 Thou hast forsake me, seith the Lord, thou hast go abac; and Y schal stretche forth myn hond on thee, and Y schal sle thee; Y trauelide preiying. 7 And Y schal scatere hem with a wyndewyng instrument in the yatis of erthe; Y killide, and loste my puple, and netheles thei turneden not ayen fro her weies. 8 The widewis therof ben multiplied to me aboue the gravel of the see; and Y brouyte in to hem a distriere in myddai on the modir of a yonge man, Y sente drede sudeynli on citees. 9 Sche was sijk that childe seune, hir soule failide; the sunne yede doun to hir, whanne dai was yit. Sche was schent, and was aschamed; and Y schal yyue the residue therof in to swerd in the siyt of her enemyes, seith the Lord. 10 Mi modir, wo to me; whi gendridist thou me a man of chidyng, a man of discord in al the lond? Y lente not, nether ony man lente to me; alle men cursen me, the Lord seith. 11 No man bileue to me, if thi remenantis be not in to good, if Y ranne not to thee in the tyme of turment, and in the tyme of tribulacioun and of anguysch, ayens the enemye. 12 Whether yrun and metal schal be ioyned bi pees to irun fro the north? 13 And Y schal yyue freli thi ritchessis and thi tresouris in to rauyschyng, for alle thi synnes, and in alle thin endis. 14 And Y schal bryng thin enemyes fro the lond which thou knowist not; for fier is kyndlid in my strong veniaunce, and it schal brenne on you. 15 Lord, thou knowist, haue thou mynde on me, and visite me, and delyuere me fro hem that pursuen me; nyle thou take me in thi pacience, knowe thou, that Y suffride schenschiipe for thee. 16 Thi wordis ben foundun, and Y eet tho; and thi word was maad to me in to ioye, and in to gladnesse of myn herte; for thi name, Lord God of oostis, is clepid to help on me. 17 Y sat not in the counsel of pleieris, and Y hadde glorie for the face of thin hond; Y sat aloone, for thou fillidist me with bittirnesse. 18 Whi is my sorewe maad euerlastinge, and my wounde dispeirid forsook to be curid? it is maad to me, as a leesyng of vnfeithful watris. 19 For this thing the Lord seith these thingis, If thou turnest, Y schal turne thee, and thou schalt stonde bfore my face; and if thou departist preciouise thing fro vijl thing, thou schalt be as my mouth; thei schulen be turned to thee, and thou schalt not be turned to hem. 20 And Y schal yyue thee in to a brasun wal and strong to this puple, and thei schulen fiyte ayens thee, and schulen not haue the victorie; for Y am with thee, to saue thee, and to delyuere thee, seith the Lord. 21 And Y schal delyuere thee fro the hond of the worste men, and Y schal ayenbie thee fro the hond of stronge men.

16 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and seide, Thou schalt not take a wiif, and sones and douytris schulen not be to thee in this place. 3 For the Lord seith these thingis on sones and douytris, that ben gendrid in this place, and on the modris of hem, that gendride hem, and on the fadris of hem, of whos generacioun thei ben borun in this lond. 4 Thei schulen die bi dethis of sikenessis, thei schulen not be biweild, and thei schulen not be biried; thei schulen be in to a dunghil on the face of erthe, and thei schulen be wastid bi swerd and hungur; and the careyn of hem schal be in to mete to the volatilis of heuene, and to beestis of erthe. 5 For the Lord seith these thingis, Entre thou not in to an hous of feeste, nethir go thou to biweile, nether comfourt thou hem; for Y haue take awei my pees fro this puple, seith the Lord, 'Y haue take awei merci and merciful doyngis. 6 And greete and smalle schulen die in this lond; thei schulen not be biried, nethir schulen be biweild; and thei schulen not kitte hem silf, nethir ballidnesse schal be maad for hem. 7 And thei schulen not breke breed among hem to hym that mourneth, to coumforte on a deed man, and thei schulen not yyue to hem drynk of a cuppe, to coumforte on her fadir and modir. 8 And thou schalt not entre in to the hous of feeste, that thou sitte with hem, and ete, and drynke. 9 For whi the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal take awei fro this place, bifore youre iyen and in youre daies, the vois of ioie, and the vois of gladnesse, and the vois of spouse, and the vois of spousesse. 10 And whanne thou schalt telle alle these wordis to this puple, and thei schulen seie to thee, Whi spak the Lord al this greet yuel on vs? what is oure wickidnesse, ether what is oure synne which we synneden to oure Lord God? 11 thou schalt seie to hem, For youre fadris forsoken me, seith the Lord, and yeden afir alien goddis, and seruyden hem, and worschipiden hem, and thei forsoken me, and kepten not my lawe. 12 But also ye wrouyten worse than youre fadris; for lo! ech man goith afir the schrewidnesse of his yuel herte, that he here not me. 13 And Y schal caste you out of this lond, in to the lond which ye and youre fadris knowen not; and ye schulen serue there to alien goddis dai and niyt, whiche schulen not yyue reste to you. 14 Therfor lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and it schal no more be seid, The Lord lyueth, that ledde the sones of Israel out of the lond of Egipt; 15 but the Lord lyueth, that ledde the sones of Israel fro the lond of the north, and fro alle londis to whiche Y castide hem out; and Y schal lede hem ayen in to her lond which Y yaf to the fadris of hem. 16 Lo! Y schal sende many fischeris to hem, seith the Lord, and thei schulen fische hem; and afir these thingis Y schal sende many hunteris to hem, and thei schulen hunte hem fro ech mounteyn, and fro ech lital hil, and fro the caues of stoonys. 17 For myn iyen ben on alle the weies of hem; tho weies ben not hid fro my face, and the wickidnesse of hem was not priuy fro myn iyen. 18 And Y schal yelde first the double wickidnessis and synnes of hem, for thei defouliden my lond in the slayn beestis of her idols, and filliden myn eritage with her abhormynaciouns. 19 Lord, my strengthe, and my stalworthnesse, and my refuyt in the dai of tribulacioun, hethene men schulen come to thee fro the ferthest places of erthe, and schulen seie, Verili oure fadris helden a leesying in possessioun, vanyte that profitide not to hem. 20 Whether a man schal make goddis to hym silf? and tho ben no goddis. 21 Therfor lo! Y schal schewe to hem bi this while, Y schal schewe to hem myn hond, and my vertu; and thei schulen wite, that the name to me is Lord.

17 The synne of Juda is writun with an irone poyntel, in a nail of adamaunt; it is writun on the breede of the herte of hem, and in the hornes of the auteris of hem. 2 Whanne the sones of hem bithenken on her auteris, and woodis, and on the trees ful of boowis, makeyng sacrifice in the feld in hiye munteyns, 3 Y schal yyue thi strengthe and alle thi tresouris in to rauyschyng, thin hiye thingis for synnes in alle thin endis. 4 And thou schalt be left aloone fro thin eritage which Y yaf to thee; and Y schal make thee to serue thin enemyes, in the lond which thou knowist not; for thou hast kyndlid fier in my strong veniaunce, it schal brenne til in to with outen ende. 5 The Lord seith these thingis, Cursid is the man that trestith in man, and settith fleisch his arm, and his herte goith awei fro the Lord. 6 For he schal be as bromes in desert, and he schal not se, whanne good schal come; but he schal dwelle in drynesse in desert, in the lond of saltnesse, and vnabitable. 7 Blessid is the man that tristith in the Lord, and the Lord schal be his trist. 8 And he schal be as a tre, which is plauntid ouer watris, which sendith hise rootis to moisture; and it schal not drede, whanne heete schal come; and the leef therof schal be greene, and it schal not be moued in the tyme of drynesse, nether ony tyme it schal faile to make fruyte. 9 The herte of man is schrewid, and 'may not be souyt; who schal knowe it? 10 Y am the Lord sekyng the herte, and preuyng the reynes, and Y yyue to ech man after his weye, and afir the fruyt of his fyndyngis. 11 A partriche nurschide tho thingis whiche sche bredde not; he made richessis, and not in doom; in the myddis of hise daies he schal forsake tho, and in hise laste tyme he schal be vnwijs. 12 The seete of glorie of hiynesse was at the bigynnyng the place of oure hallowyng, the abidyng of Israel. 13 Lord, alle thei that forsaken thee, schulen be schent; thei that goen aweie fro thee, schulen be writun in erthe, for thei han forsake the Lord, a veyne of quyk watirs. 14 Lord, heele thou me, and Y schal be heelid; make thou me saaf, and Y schal be saaf; for thou art myn heriyng. 15 Lo! thei seien to me, Where is the word of the Lord? come it. 16 And Y am not disturblid, suyng thee scheep herd, and Y desiride not the dai of man, thou woost. That that yede out of my lippis was riyful in thi siyt. 17 Be thou not to drede to me; thou art myn hope in the dai of turment. 18 Be thei schent, that pursuen me, and be Y not schent; drede thei, and drede not Y; bryng in on hem a dai of turment, and defoule thou hem bi double defouling. 19 The Lord seith these thingis to me, Go thou, and stonde in the yate of the sones of the puple, bi whiche the kingis of Juda entren and goen out, and in alle

the yatis of Jerusalem. 20 And thou schalt seie to hem, Here the word of the Lord, ye kingis of Juda, and al Judee, and alle the dwelleris of Jerusalem, that entren bi these yatis. 21 The Lord God seith these thingis, Kepe ye youre soulis, and nyle ye bere birthuns in the dai of sabat, nether bringe in bi the yatis of Jerusalem. 22 And nyle ye caste birthuns out of youre housis in the dai of sabat, and ye schulen not do ony werk; halewe ye the dai of sabat, as Y comaundide to youre fadris. 23 And thei herden not, nether bowiden doun her eere, but thei maden hard her nol, that thei schulden not here me, and that thei schulden not take chastisyng. 24 And it schal be, if ye heren me, seith the Lord, that ye bere not in birthuns bi the yatis of this citee in the dai of sabat, and if ye halewen the dai of sabat, that ye do not werk ther ynnē, 25 kingis and princes sittynge on the seete of Daud schulen entre bi the yatis of this citee, and styngē in charis and horsis; thei, and the princis of hem, the men of Juda, and the dwelleris of Jerusalem; and this citee schal be enhabitud withouten ende. 26 And thei schulen come fro the citees of Juda, and fro the cumpas of Jerusalem, and fro the lond of Beniamyn, and fro feeldi places, and fro hilli places, and fro the south, beringe brent sacrifice, and slayn sacrifice, and encense; and thei schulen bringe offring in to the hous of the Lord. 27 Forsothe if ye heren not me, that ye halewe the dai of sabat, and that ye bere not a birthun, and that ye bringe not in bi the yatis of Jerusalem in the dai of sabat, Y schal kyndle fier in the yatis therof; and it schal deuoure the housis of Jerusalem, and it schal not be quenched.

18 The word that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, Rise thou, and go doun in to the hous of a pottere, and there thou schalt here my wordis. 3 And Y yede doun in to the hous of a pottere, and lo! he made a werk on a wheel. 4 And the vessel was distried, which he made of clei with hise hondis; and he turnede it, and made it another vessel, as it pleside in hise iyen to make. 5 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 6 and he seide, Whether as this pottere doith, Y mai not do to you, the hous of Israel? seith the Lord. Lo! as clei is in the hond of a pottere, so ye, the hous of Israel, ben in myn hond. 7 Sudenli Y schal speke ayens a folk, and ayens a rewme, that Y drawe out, and distrie, and leese it. 8 If thilke folk doith penaunce of his yuel, which Y spak ayens it, also Y schal do penaunce on the yuel, which Y thouyte to do to it. 9 And Y schal speke sudenli of a folk, and of a rewme, that Y bilde, and plaunte it. 10 If it doith yuel bfore myn iyen, that it here not my vois, Y schal do penaunce on the good which Y spak, that Y schulde do to it. 11 Now therfor seie thou to a man of Juda, and to the dweller of Jerusalem, and seie, The Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y make yuel ayens you, and Y thenke a thouyte ayens you; ech man turne ayen fro his yuel weie, and dresse ye youre weies and youre studies. 12 Whiche seiden, We han dispeirid, for we schulen go after oure thouytis, and we schulen do ech man the schrewidnesse of his yuel herte. 13 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Axe ye hethene men, who herde siche orible thingis, whiche the virgin of Israel hath do greetli? 14 Whether snow of the Liban schal fail fro the stoon of the feeld? ether coolede watris brekyngē out, and fletynge doun moun be takun awei? 15 For my puple hath foryete me, and offriden sacrifices in veyn, and snaperiden in her weies, and in the pathis of the world, that thei yeden bi tho in a weie not trodun; 16 that the lond of hem schulde be in to desolacioun, and in to an hissyng euerlastingē; for whi ech that passith bi it, schal be astonyed, and schal moue his heed. 17 As a brennyngē wynd Y schal scaterē hem bifor the enemy; Y schal schewe to hem the bak and not the face, in the dai of the perdicoun of hem. 18 And thei seiden, Come ye, and thenke we thouytis ayens Jeremye; for whi the lawe schal not perische fro a preest, nether councel schal perische fro a wijs man, nether word schal perische fro a profete; come ye, and smyte we hym with tunge, and take we noon heede to alle the wordis of hym. 19 Lord, yyue thou tent to me, and here thou the vois of myn aduersaries. 20 Whether yuel is yoldun for good, for thei han diggid a pit to my soule; haue thou mynde, that Y stooode in thi siyt, to speke good for hem, and to turne awei thin indignacioun fro hem. 21 Therfor yyue thou the sonēs of hem in to hungur, and lede forth hem in to the hondis of swerd; the wyues of hem be maad with out children, and be maad widewis, and the hosebondis of hem be slayn bi deth; the yonge men of hem be persid togidere bi swerd in batel. 22 Cry be herd of the housis of hem, for thou schalt bringe sudenli a theef on hem; for thei diggiden a pit to take me, and hidden snaris to my feet. 23 But thou, Lord, knowist al the councel of hem ayens me in to deth; do thou not merci to the wickidnesse of hem, and the synne of hem be not doon awei fro thi face; be thei maad fallynge doun in thi siyt, in the tyme of thi stronge veniaunce; vse thou hem to othir thing than thei weren ordeyned.

19 The Lord seith these thingis, Go thou, and take an erthene potel of a pottere, of the eldre men of the puple, and of the eldre men of preestis. 2 And go thou out to the valei of the sonēs of Ennon, which is bisidis the entring of the erthene yate; and there thou schalt preche the wordis whiche Y schal speke to thee; 3 and thou schalt seie, Kyngis of Juda, and the dwelleris of Jerusalem, here ye the word of the Lord. The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe in turment on this place, so that ech man that herith it, hise eeris tyngle. 4 For thei han forsake me, and maad alien this place, and offriden sacrifices to alien goddis ther ynnē, whiche thei, and the fadris of hem, and the kingis of Juda, knewen not; and thei filliden this place with the blood of innocentis, 5 and bildiden hiy thingis to Baalym, to brenne her sonēs in fier, in to brent sacrifice to Baalym; whiche thingis Y comaundide not, nether spak, nether tho stieden in to myn herte. 6 Therfor the Lord seith, Lo! daies comen, and this place schal no more be clepid Tophet, and the valei of the sone of Ennon, but the valei of sleyng. 7 And Y schal distrie the councel of Juda and of Jerusalem in this place, and Y schal distrie hem bi swerd, in the siyt of her enemyes, and in the hond of men sekynge the lyues of hem; and Y schal yyue her deed bodies mete to the briddis of the eir, and to beestis of erthe. 8 And Y schal sette this citee in to wondring, and in to hissing; ech that passith bi it, schal wondre, and hisse on al the veniaunce therof. 9 And Y schal feede hem with the fleischis of her sones, and with the fleischis of her douytris; and ech man schal ete the fleischis of his frend in the bisegyng and angwisch, in which the enemies of hem, and thei that seken the lyues of hem, schulen close hem togidere. 10 And thou schalt al to-breke the potel before the iyen of the men, that schulen go with thee. 11 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, So Y schal al to-breke this puple, and this citee, as the vessel of a pottre is al to-brokn, which mai no more be restorid; and thei schulen be buried in Tophet, for noon other place is to birie. 12 So Y schal do to this place, seith the Lord, and to dwelleris therof, that Y sette this citee as Tophet. 13 And the housis of Jerusalem, and the housis of the kingis of Juda, schulen be as the place of Tophet; alle the vncleene housis, in whose roouys thei sacrificeden to al the chyalrie of heuene, and offriden moist sacrifices to alien goddis. 14 Forsothe Jeremye cam fro Tophet, whidur the Lord hadde sente hym for to profesie; and he stood in the porche of the hous of the Lord, 15 and seide to al the puple, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe in on this citee, and on alle the citees therof, alle the yuelis whiche Y spak ayens it; for thei maden hard her nol, that thei herden not my wordis.

20 And Phassur, the sone of Emyner, the preest, that was ordeyned prince in the hous of the Lord, herde Jeremye profesyng these wordis. 2 And Phassur smoot Jeremye, the profete, and sente hym in to the stockis, that weren in the hiyere yate of Beniamyn, in the hous of the Lord. 3 And whanne it was cleer in the morewe, Phassur ledde Jeremye out of the stockis. And Jeremye seide to hym, The Lord clepide not Phassur thi name, but Drede on ech side. 4 For the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal yyue thee and alle thi freendis in to drede, and thei schulen falle down bi the swerd of her enemyes; and thin iyen schulen se; and Y schal yyue al Juda in the hond of the king of Babiloyne, and he schal lede hem ouer in to Babiloyne, and he schal smyte hem bi swerd. 5 And Y schal yyue al the catel of this citee, and al the trauel therof, and al the prijs; and Y schal yyue alle the tresours of the kingis of Juda in the hond of her enemyes; and thei schulen rauysche tho, and schulen take, and lede forth in to Babiloyne. 6 Forsothe thou, Phassur, and alle the dwelleris of thin hous, schulen go in to caitifte; and thou schalt come in to Babiloyne, and thou schalt die there; and thou schalt be buried there, thou and alle thi freendis, to whiche thou profesiedist a leesyng. 7 Lord, thou disseyuedist me, and Y am disseyued; thou were strongere than Y, and thou haddist the maistrie; Y am maad in to scorn al dai. 8 Alle men bymowen me, for now a while ago Y speke cryng wickidnesse, and Y criede distryng. And the word of the Lord is maad to me in to schenschip, and in to scorn al dai. 9 And Y seide, Y schal not haue mynde on hym, and Y schal no more speke in his name. And the word of the Lord was maad, as fier swalyng in myn herte, and cloosid in my boynys; and Y failiide, not suffryng to bere. 10 For Y herde dispisyngis of many men, and drede in cumpas, Pursue ye, and pursue we hym, of alle men that weren pesible to me, and kepyng my side; if in any maner he be disseyued, and we haue the maistrie ayens hym, and gete veniaunce of hym. 11 Forsothe the Lord as a stronge werriour is with me, therfor thei that pursuen me schulen falle, and schulen be sijk; and thei schulen be schent greetli, for thei vndurstoden not euerlastyng schenschip, that schal neuere be don awei. 12 And thou, Lord of oostis, the preuere of a iust man, which seest the reynes and herte, Y biseche, se Y thi veniaunce of hem; for Y haue schewid my cause to thee. 13 Syng ye to the Lord, herie ye the Lord, for he delyueride the soule of a pore man fro the hond of yuel men. 14 Cursid be the dai where ynne Y was borun, the dai where ynne my modir childide me, be not blessid. 15 Cursid be the man, that telde to my fadir, and seide, A knaue child is borun to thee, and made hym glad as with ioye. 16 Thilke man be as the citees ben, whiche the Lord distriede, and it repented not hym; 17 he that killide not me fro the wombe, here cry eerli, and yellyng in the tyme of myddai; that my modir were a sepulcre to me, and hir wombe were euerlasting conseuyng. 18 Whi yede Y out of the wombe, that Y schulde se trauel and sorewe, and that mi daies schulen be waastid in schenschipe?

21 The word which was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, whanne king Sedechie sente to hym Phassur, the sone of Helchie, and Sofonye, the preest, the sone of Maasie, and seide, 2 Axe thou the Lord for vs, for Nabugodonosor, the kyng of Babiloyne, fiyth ayens vs; if in hap the Lord do with vs bi alle hise merueilis, and he go awei fro vs. 3 And Jeremye seide to hem, Thus ye schulen seie to Sedechie, 4 The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal turne the instrumentis of batel that ben in youre hondis, and with which ye fytten ayens the king of Babiloyne, and ayens Caldeis, that bisegen you in the cumpas of wallis; and Y schal gadere tho togidere in the myddis of this citee. 5 And Y schal ouercome you in hond stretchid forth, and in strong arm, and in stronge veniaunce, and indignacioun, and in greet wraththe; 6 and Y schal smyte the dwelleris of this citee, men and beestis schulen die bi greet pestilence. 7 And after these thingis, seith the Lord, Y schal yyue Sedechie, kyng of Juda, and hise seruauantis, and his puple, and that ben left in this citee fro pestilence, and swerd, and hungur, in the hond of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and in the hond of her enemyes, and in the hond of men sekynge the lijf of hem; and he schal smyte hem bi the scharpnesse of swerd; and he schal not be bowid, nether schal spare, nether schal haue mercy. 8 And thou schalt seie to this puple, The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y yyue before you the weie of lijf, and the weie of deth. 9 He that dwellith in this citee, schal die bi swerd, and hungur, and pestilence; but he that goith out, and fleeth ouer to Caldeis that bisegen you, schal lyue, and his lijf schal be as a prey to hym. 10 For Y haue set my face on this citee in to yuel, and not in to good, seith the Lord; it schal be youun in the hond of the king of Babiloyne, and he schal brenne it with fier. 11 And thou schalt seie to the hous of the king of Juda, the hous of Dauid, Here ye the word of the Lord. 12 The Lord seith these thingis, Deme ye eerli doom, and delyuere ye hym that is oppressid bi violence fro the hond of the fals chalenger; lest perauenture myn indignacioun go out as fier, and be kyndlid, and noon be that quenche, for the malice of youre studies. 13 Lo! Y to thee, dwelleresse of the sad valei and pleyn, seith the Lord, which seien, Who schal smyte vs, and who schal entre in to oure housis? 14 And Y schal visite on you bi the fruyt of youre studies, seith the Lord; and Y schal kyndle fier in the forest therof, and it schal deuoure alle thingis in the cumpas therof.

22 The Lord seith these thingis, Go thou down in to the hous of the kyng of Juda, and thou schalt speke there this word, and schalt seie, 2 Thou kyng of Juda, that sittist on the seete of Dauid, here the word of the Lord, thou, and thi seruauantis, and thi puple, that entren bi these yatis. 3 The Lord seith these thingis, Do ye doom, and riytfulnesse, and delyuere ye hym that is oppressid bi violence fro the hond of the fals chalenger; and nyle ye make sori, nether oppresse ye wickidli a comelyng, and a fadirles child, and a widewe, and schede ye not out innocent blood in this place. 4 For if ye doynge don this word, kyngis of the kyn of Dauid sittynge on his trone schulen entre bi the yatis of this hous, and schulen stie on charis and horsis, thei, and the seruauantis, and the puple of hem. 5 That if ye heren not these wordis, Y swoore in my sif, seith the Lord, that this hous schal be in to wildirnesse. 6 For the Lord seith these thingis on the hous of the kyng of Juda, Galaad, thou art to me the heed of the Liban; credence be not youun to me, if Y sette not thee a wildirnesse, citees vnhabitable. 7 And Y schal halewe on thee a man sleyng, and hise armuris; and thei schulen kitte doun thi chosun cedris, and schulen caste doun in to fier. 8 And many folkis schulen passe bi this citee, and ech man schal seie to his neiybore, Whi dide the Lord thus to this greet citee? 9 And thei schulen answer, For thei forsoken the couenaunt of her Lord God, and worschipiden alien goddis, and serueden hem. 10 Nyle ye biwepe hym that is deed, nether weile ye on hym bi wepyng; biweile ye hym that goith out, for he schal no more turne ayen, nether he schal se the lond of his birthe. 11 For the Lord seith these thingis to Sellum, the sone of Josie, the kyng of Juda, that regnede for Josye, his fadir, He that yede out of this place, schal no more turne ayen hidur; 12 but in the place to which Y translatide him, there he schal die, and he schal no more se this lond. 13 Wo to him that bildith his hous in vnriytfulnesse, and his soleris not in doom; he schal oppresse his freend in veyn, and he schal not yelde his hire to hym. 14 Which seith, Y schal bilde to me a large hous, and wide soleris; which openeth wyndows to hym sif, and makith couplis of cedre, and peynith with reed colour. 15 Whether thou schalt regne, for thou comparisonest thee to a cedre? whether thi fadir eet not, and drank, and dide doom and riytfulnesse thanne, whanne it was wel to hym? 16 He demyde the cause of a pore man, and nedi, in to his good; whether not therfor for he knew me? seith the Lord. 17 Forsothe thin iyen and herte ben to aueryce, and to schede innocent blood, and to fals caleng, and to the perfourmyng of yuel werk. 18 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis to Joachym, the sone of Josie, the kyng of Juda, Thei schulen not biweile hym, Wo brother! and wo sistr! thei schulen not sowne togidere to hym, Wo lord! and wo noble man! 19 He schal be biried with the biring of an asse, he schal be rotun, and cast forth without the yatis of Jerusalem. 20 Stie thou on the Liban, and cry thou, and yyue thi vois in Basan, and cry to hem that passen forth, for alle thi louyeris ben al to-brokun. 21 Y spak to thee in thi plentee, and thou seidist, Y schal not here; this is thi weie fro thi yongthe, for thou herdist not my vois. 22 Wynd schal feede alle thi scheepherdis, and thi louyeris schulen go in to caitifte; 23 and thanne thou that sittist in the Liban, and makist nest in cedris, schalt be schent, and be aschamed of al thi malice. Hou weilidist thou, whanne sorewis weren comun to thee, as the sow of a womman traelyng of child? 24 I lyue, seith the Lord, for thouy Jeconye, the sone of Joachym, kyng of Juda, were a ring in my riyt hond, fro thennus Y schal drawe aweil hym. 25 And Y schal yyue thee in the hond of hem that seken thi lijf, and in the hond of hem whos face thou dredist, and in the hond of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and in the hond of Caldeis. 26 And Y schal sende thee, and thi moder that gendride thee, in to an alien lond, in which ye weren not borun, and there ye schulen die; 27 and thei schulen not turne ayen in to the lond, to which thei reisen her soule, that thei turne ayen thidur. 28 Whether this man Jeconye is an erthene vessel, and al to-brokun? whether a vessel withouten al likyng? Whi ben he and his seed cast aweil, and cast forth in to a lond which thei knewen not? 29 Erthe, erthe, erthe, here thou the word of the Lord. 30 The Lord seith these thingis, Write thou this man bareyn, a man that schal not haue prosperite in hise daies; for of his seed schal be no man, that schal sitte on the seete of Dauid, and haue powere ferthere in Juda.

23 Wo to the scheepherdis, that scateren and to-drawn the floe of my lesewe, seith the Lord. 2 Therfor the Lord God of Israel seith these thingis to the scheepherdis, that feeden my puple, Ye han scaterid my floe, and han cast hem out, and han not visitid hem; lo! Y schal visite on you the malice of youre studies, seith the Lord. 3 And Y schal gadere togidere the remenauntis of my floe fro alle londis, to whiche Y schal caste hem out thidur; and Y schal turne hem to her feeldis, and thei schulen encreesse, and schulen be multiplied. 4 And Y schal reise scheepherdis on hem, and thei schulen feede hem; thei schulen no more drede, and schulen not be aferd; and noon schal be souyt of the noubre seith the Lord. 5 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal reise a iust buriownyng to Dauid; and he schal regne a kyng, and he schal be wijs, and he schal make doom and riytfulnesse in erthe. 6 In tho daies Juda schal be sauid, and Israel schal dwelle tristili; and this is the name which thei schulen clepe hym, The Lord oure riytful. 7 For this thing lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and thei schulen no more seie, The Lord lyueth, that ledde the sones of Israel out of the lond of Egipt; 8 but, The Lord lyueth, that ledde out, and brouyte the seed of the hous of Israel fro the lond of the north, and fro alle londis to whiche Y hadde cast hem out thidur; and thei schulen dwelle in her lond. 9 To the prophetis; Myn herte is contrit in the myddis of me, alle my boonys trembliden togidere; Y am maad as a man drunkun, and as a man weet of wyn, of the face of the Lord, and of the face of the hooli wordis of hym;

10 for the lond is fillid with auowteris. For the erthe mourenede of the face of cursyng; the feeldis of desert ben maad drie, the cours of hem is maad yuel, and her strengthe is vnlijk. 11 For whi the profete and the prest ben defoulid; and in myn hous, seith the Lord, Y foond the yuel of hem. 12 Therfor the weie of hem schal be as slidur in derknessis, for thei schulen be hurtlid, and schulen falle down therynne; for Y schal bringe on hem yuels, the yeer of visitacioun of hem, seith the Lord. 13 And in the profetis of Samarie Y siy fonnednesse, and thei profesieden in Baal, and disseyueden my puple Israel. 14 And in the profetis of Jerusalem Y siy licnesse, auoutrie, and the weie of leesying; and thei confortiden the hondis of the worste men, that ech man schulde not conuerte fro his malice; alle thei ben maad as Sodom to me, and alle the dwellers therof ben maad as Gomorre. 15 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis to the prophetis, Lo! Y schal feed hem with wermod, and Y schal yyue drynke to hem with galle; for whi defoulyng is goen out of the profetis of Jerusalem on al the lond. 16 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Nyle ye here the wordis of profetis, that profesien to you, and disseyuen you; thei speken the visiou of her herte, not of the mouth of the Lord. 17 Thei seien to hem that blasfemen me, The Lord spak, Pees schal be to you; and thei seiden to ech man that goith in the schrewidnesse of his herte, Yuel schal not come on you. 18 For whi who is present in the councel of the Lord, and siy, and herde his word? who bihelde, and herde the word of hym? 19 Lo! the whirlewynd of the Lordis indignacioun schal go out, and tempest brekyng schal come on the heed of wickid men. 20 The strong veniaunce of the Lord schal not turne ayen, til that he do, and til that he fille the thouyt of his herte. In the laste daies ye schulen vnderstonde the councel of hym. 21 Y sente not the profetis, and thei runnen; Y spak not to hem, and thei profesieden. 22 If thei hadden stonde in my councel, and hadde maad knowun my wordis to my puple, forsothe Y hadde turned hem awei fro her yuel weie, and fro her worste thouytis. 23 Gessist thou, whether Y am God of niy, seith the Lord, and not God afer? 24 A man schal not be priuy in hid places, and Y schal not se hym, seith the Lord. Whether Y fille not heuene and erthe? seith the Lord. 25 Y herde what thingis the profetis seiden, profesyinge a leesying in my name, and seiynge, Y dremede dremes. 26 Hou longe is this thing in the herte of profetis, profesyinge a leesying, and profesyinge the disseite of her herte? 27 Whiche wolen make, that my puple foryete my name for the dremes of hem, which ech man tellith to his neybore, as the fadris of hem foryaten my name for Baal. 28 A profete that hath a dreme, telle a drem; and he that hath my word, speke verili my word. What is with chaffis to the wheete? seith the Lord. 29 Whether my wordis ben not as fier brennyng, seith the Lord, and as an hamer al to-brekyng a stoon? 30 Therfor lo! Y am redi to the profetis, seith the Lord, that stelen my wordis, ech man fro his neybore. 31 Lo! Y to the profetis, seith the Lord, that taken her tungis, and seien, The Lord seith. 32 Lo! Y to the profetis, dremyng a leesying, seith the Lord; which telden tho, and disseyueden my puple in her leesying, and in her myraclis, whanne Y hadde not sente hem, nether hadde comaundide to hem; whiche profitiden

no thing to this puple, seith the Lord. 33 Therfor if this puple, ether profete, ether prest, axith thee, and seith, What is the birthun of the Lord? thou schalt seie to hem, Ye ben the birthun, for Y schal caste you awei, seith the Lord; 34 and a profete, and a prest, and the puple, that seith, The birthun of the Lord, Y schal visite on that man, and on his hous. 35 Ye schulen seie these thingis, ech man to his neybore, and to his brother, What answeride the Lord? and what spak the Lord? 36 For the birthun of the Lord schal no more be remembrid, and the word of ech man schal be birthun to hym; and ye han peruertid the wordis of luyng God, of the Lord of oostis, youre God. 37 Thou schalt seie these thingis to the profete, What answeride the Lord to thee? and what spak the Lord? 38 Forsothe if ye seien, The birthun of the Lord, for this thing the Lord seith these thingis, For ye seiden this word, The birthun of the Lord, and Y sente to you, and Y seide, Nyle ye seie, The birthun of the Lord; therfor lo! 39 Y schal take you awei, and schal bere, and Y schal forsake you, and the citee which Y yaf to you, and to youre fadris, fro my face. 40 And Y schal yyue you in to euerlastyng schenschiipe, and in to euerlastyng sclaudir, that schal neuere be doon awei bi foryetyng.

24 The Lord schewide to me, and lo! twei panyeris ful of figys weren set bifor the temple of the Lord, afir that Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, translatide Jeconye, the sone of Joachym, the kyng of Juda, and the princes of hym, and a sutil crafti man, and a goldsmith fro Jerusalem, and brouyte hem in to Babiloyne. 2 And o panyere hadde ful good figis, as figis of the firste tyme ben wont to be; and o panyere hadde ful yuel figis, that miyten not be etun, for tho weren yuel figis. 3 And the Lord seide to me, Jeremye, what thing seest thou? And Y seide, Figis, goode figis, ful goode, and yuele figis, ful yuele, that moun not be etun, for tho ben yuele figis. 4 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 5 and seide, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, As these figis ben goode, so Y schal knowe the transmygracioun of Juda, which I sente out fro this place in to the lond of Caldeis, in to good. 6 And Y schal sette myn iyen on hem to plesse, and Y schal bryng hem ayen in to this lond; and Y schal bilde hem, and Y schal not distrie hem; and Y schal plaunte hem, and Y schal not drawe vp bi the roote. 7 And Y schal yyue to hem an herte, that thei knowe me, for Y am the Lord; and thei schulen be in to a puple to me, and Y schal be in to God to hem, for thei schulen turne ayen to me in al her herte. 8 And as the worste figis ben, that moun not be etun, for tho ben yuele figis, the Lord seith these thingis, So Y schal yyue Sedechie, the kyng of Juda, and the princes of hym, and other men of Jerusalem, that dwelliden in this citee, and that dwellen in the lond of Egipt. 9 And Y schal yyue hem into trauelyng and turment in alle rewmes of erthe, in to schenschiipe, and in to parable, and in to a prouerbe, and in to cursyng, in alle places to whiche Y castide hem out. 10 And Y schal sende in hem a swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, til thei be wastid fro the lond which Y yaf to hem, and to the fadris of hem.

25 The word of the Lord, that was maad to Jeremye, of al the puple of Juda, in the fourthe yeer of Joachym, the sone of

Josie, the king of Juda, aftr that Jeconye was translatid in to Babiloyne; thilke is the firste yeer of Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne; which word Jeremy, 2 the prophete, spak to al the puple of Juda, and to alle the dwelleris of Jerusalem, and seide, 3 Fro the threttenthe yeer of the rewme of Josie, the sone of Amon, the kyng of Juda, `til to this dai, this is the three and twentithe yeer, the word of the Lord was maad to me; and Y spak to you, and Y roos bi niyt and spak, and ye herden not. 4 And the Lord sente to you alle hise seruauntis profetis, and roos ful eerli, and sente, and ye herden not, nether ye bowiden youre eeris, for to here; 5 whanne he seide, Turne ye ayen, ech man fro his yuel weie, and fro youre worste thouytis, and ye schulen dwelle in the lond whiche the Lord yaf to you, and to youre fadris, fro the world and til in to the world. 6 And nyle ye go aftr alien goddis, that ye serue hem, and worschipe hem, nether terre ye me to wrathfulnesse, in the werkis of youre hondis, and Y schal not turmente you. 7 And ye herden not me, seith the Lord, that ye terreden me to wrathfulnesse in the werkis of youre hondis, in to youre yuel. 8 Therfor the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, For that that ye herden not my wordis, lo! 9 Y schal sende, and take alle the kynredis of the north, seith the Lord, and Nabugodonosor, my seruaunt, the kyng of Babiloyne; and Y schal bringe hem on this lond, and on the dwelleris therof, and on alle naciouns, that ben in the cumpas therof; and Y schal sle hem, and Y schal sette hem in to wondryng, and in to hissyng, and in to euerlastyng wildirnesis. 10 And Y schal leese of hem the vois of ioye, and the vois of gladnesse, the vois of spouse, and the vois of spousesse, the vois of queerne, and the liyt of the lanterne. 11 And al the lond therof schal be in to wildirnesse, and in to wondring; and alle these folkis schulen serue the king of Babiloyne seuenti yeer. 12 And whanne seuenti yeer ben fillid, Y schal visite on the kyng of Babiloyne, and on that folc the wickidnesse of hem, seith the Lord, and on the lond of Caldeis, and Y schal set it in to euerlastyng wildirnesse. 13 And Y schal bryng on that lond alle my wordis whiche Y spak ayens it, al thing that is writun in this book; what euer thingis Jeremye profeside ayens alle folkis; 14 for thei serueden to hem, whanne thei weren many folkis, and grete kingis; and Y schal yelde to hem aftr the werkis of hem, and aftr the dedis of her hondis. 15 For the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith thus, Take thou the cuppe of wyn of this woodnesse fro myn hond, and thou schal birlle therof to alle hethene men, to whiche Y schal sende thee. 16 And thei schulen drynke, and schulen be disturblid, and schulen be woode of the face of swerd, which Y schal sende among hem. 17 And Y took the cuppe fro the hond of the Lord, and Y birlide to alle folkis, to whiche the Lord sente me; 18 to Jerusalem, and to alle the citees of Juda, and to the kyngis therof, and to the princes therof; that Y schulde yyue hem in to wildirnesse, and in to wondring, and in to hissyng, and in to cursing, as this dai is; to Farao, 19 the king of Egipt, and to hise seruauntis, and to hise princes, and to al hise puple; 20 and to alle men generali, to alle the kyngis of the lond Ansitidis, and to alle the kyngis of the lond Filistiyim, and to Ascalon, and to Gaza, and to Acoron, and to the residues of Azotus; 21 to Idumee, and to Moab, and to the sones of Amon; 22 and to alle

the kyngis of Tirus, and to alle the kingis of Sidon, and to the kingis of the lond of iis that ben biyendis the see; 23 and to Dedan, and Theman, and Buz, and to alle men that ben clippid on the long heer; 24 and to alle the kingis of Arabie, and to alle the kingis of the west, that dwellen in desert; 25 and to alle the kingis of Zambri, and to alle the kingis of Elam, and to alle the kyngis of Medeis; and to alle the kingis of the north, 26 of niy and of fer, to ech man ayens his brothir; and to alle the rewmes of erthe, that ben on the face therof; and kyng Sesac schal drynke after hem. 27 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Drynke ye, and be ye drunkun, and spue ye, and falle ye down, and nyle ye rise fro the face of swerd which Y schal sende among you. 28 And whanne thei nylen take the cuppe fro thin hond, that thei drynke, thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Ye drynkyng schulen drynke; 29 for lo! in the citee in which my name is clepid to help, Y bigynne to turmente, and schulen ye as innocentis be with out peyne? ye schulen not be with out peyne, for Y clepe swerd on alle the dwelleris of erthe, seith the Lord of oostis. 30 And thou schalt profesie to hem alle these wordis, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord schal rore fro an hiy, and fro his hooli dwellyng place he schal yyue his vois; he rorynge schal rore on his fairnesse; a myry song, as of men tredyng in pressouris, schal be sungun ayens alle dwelleris of erthe. 31 Sown is comun til to the laste partis of erthe, for whi doom is to the Lord with folkis, he is demed with ech fleisch; the Lord seith, Y haue youre wickid men to the swerd. 32 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! turment schal go out fro folk in to folk, and a greet whirlywynd schal go out fro the endis of erthe. 33 And the slayn men of the Lord schulen be in that dai fro the ende of the erthe `til to the ende therof; thei schulen not be biweilid, nether schulen be gaderid togidere, nether schulen be biried; thei schulen ligge in to a dunghil on the face of erthe. 34 Yelle, ye scheepherdis, and crye, and, ye princypals of the floc, bispreyng you with aische; for youre daies ben fillid, that ye be slayn, and youre scateryngis ben fillid, and ye schulen falle as precious vessels. 35 And fleyng schal perische fro scheepherdis, and sauynng schal perische fro the princypals of the floc. 36 The vois of the crye of scheepherdis, and the yellyng of the princypals of the floc, for the Lord hath wastid the lesewis of hem. 37 And the feeldis of pees weren stille, for the face of wraththe of the strong veniaunce of the Lord. 38 He as a lion hath forsake his tabernacle, for the lond of hem is maad in to desolacioun, of the face of wraththe of the culuer, and of the face of wraththe of the strong veniaunce of the Lord.

26 In the bigynnyng of the rewme of Joachym, the sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, this word was maad of the Lord, and seide, 2 The Lord seide these thingis, Stonde thou in the porche of the hous of the Lord, and thou schalt speke to alle the citees of Juda, fro whiche thei comen for to worschipe in the hous of the Lord, alle the wordis whiche Y comaundide to thee, that thou speke to hem; nyle thou withdrawe a word; 3 if perauenture thei heren, and ben conuertid, ech man fro his yuele weie, and it repente me of the yuel which Y thouyte to do to hem for the malices of her studies. 4 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord seith these thingis, If ye heren not me, that ye go in my lawe which Y yaf to you, 5 that ye here the wordis of my seruauantis, profetis, whiche Y risynge bi nyte, and dressynge, sente to you, and ye herden not; 6 Y schal yyue this hous as Silo, and Y schal yyue this citee in to cursyng to alle folkis of erthe. 7 And the prestis, and profetis, and al the puple herden Jeremye spekyng these wordis in the hous of the Lord. 8 And whanne Jeremye hadde fillid spekyng alle thingis, whiche the Lord hadde comaundid to hym, that he schulde speke to al the puple, the prestis, and profetis, and al the puple token hym, and seiden, Die he bi deeth; 9 whi profesiede he in the name of the Lord, and seide, This hous schal be as Silo, and this citee schal be desolat, for no dwellere is? And al the puple was gaderid togidere ayens Jeremye, in the hous of the Lord. 10 And the princes of Juda herden alle these wordis; and thei stieden fro the kyngis hous in to the hous of the Lord, and saten in the entryng of the newe yate of the hous of the Lord. 11 And the prestis and profetis spaken to the princes, and to al the puple, and seiden, Doom of deth is to this man, for he profesiede ayens this citee, as ye herden with youre eeris. 12 And Jeremye seide to alle the princes, and to al the puple, and seide, The Lord sente me, that Y schulde prophesie to this hous, and to this citee, alle the wordis whiche ye herden. 13 Now therfor make ye good youre weies, and youre studies, and here ye the vois of youre Lord God; and it schal repente the Lord of the yuel which he spak ayens you. 14 Lo! forsothe Y am in youre hondis; do ye to me, as it is good and riyful bifore youre iyen. 15 Netheles wite ye, and knowe, that if ye sleen me, ye schulen bitraie innocent blood ayens you silt, and ayens this citee, and the dwelleris therof; for in trefwe the Lord sente me to you, that Y schulde speke in youre eeris alle these wordis. 16 And the princes and al the puple seiden to the preestis and profetis, Doom of deth is not to this man; for he spak to vs in the name of oure Lord God. 17 Therfor men of the eldere men of the lond rysiden vp, and seiden to al the companye of the puple, 18 and spaken, Mychee of Morasten was a profete in the daies of Ezechie, king of Juda; and he seide to al the puple of Juda, and seide, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Sion schal be erid as a feeld, and Jerusalem schal be in to an heep of stoonys, and the hil of the hous of the Lord schal be in to hiy thingis of woodis. 19 Whether Ezechie, kyng of Juda, and al Juda condemnede hym bi deth? Whether thei dredden not the Lord, and bisouyten the face of the Lord? and it repented the Lord of the yuel which he spak ayens hem. Therfor do we not greet yuel ayens oure soulis. 20 Also Vrye, the sone of Semey, of Cariathiarym, was a man profesyng in the name of the Lord; and he profesiede ayens this citee, and ayens this lond, bi alle the wordis of Jeremye. 21 And kyng Joachym, and alle the myyti men, and princes of hem, herden these wordis; and the kyng souyte to sle hym; and Vrye herde, and dredde, and he fledde, and entride in to Egipt. 22 And kyng Joachym sente men in to Egipt, Elnathan, the sone of Achobor, and men with hym, in to Egipt; 23 and thei ledde Vrye out of Egipt, and brouyten hym to kyng Joachym; and the kyng killide hym bi swerd, and castide forth his careyn in the sepulchris of the comyn puple vnnoable. 24 Therfor the hond of Aicham, sone of Saphan, was with Jeremye, that he was not bitakun in to the hondis of the puple, and that it killide not hym.

27 In the bigynnyng of the rewme of Joachym, the sone of Josie, kyng of Juda, this word was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, and seide, 2 The Lord seith these thingis to me, Make thou to thee boondis and chaynes, and thou schalt putte tho in thi necke; 3 and thou schalt sende tho to the kyng of Edom, and to the kyng of Moab, and to the kyng of the sones of Amon, and to the kyng of Tyre, and to the kyng of Sidon, bi the hond of messengeris that camen to Jerusalem, and to Sedechie, kyng of Juda. 4 And thou schalt comaunde to hem, that thei speke to her lordis, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Ye schulen seie these thingis to youre lordis, 5 Y made erthe, and man, and beestis that ben on the face of al erthe, in my greet strengthe, and in myn arm holdun forth; and Y yaf it to hym that plesyde bifore myn iyen. 6 And now therfor Y yaf alle these londis in the hond of Nabugodonosor, my seruauant, the kyng of Babiloyne; ferthermore and Y yaf to hym the beestis of the feeld, that thei serue hym. 7 And alle folkis schulen serue hym, and his sone, and the sone of his sone, til the tyme of his lond and of hym come; and many folkis and grete kyngis schulen serue hym. 8 Forsothe the folk and rewme that serueth not Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, and whoeuer bowith not his necke vndur the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne, Y schal visite on that folk in swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, seith the Lord, til Y waaste hem in his hond. 9 Therfor nyle ye here youre profetis, and false dyuynouris, and dremeris, and dyuyners bi chiteryng and fleyng of briddis, and witchis, that seien to you, Ye schulen not serue the kyng of Babiloyne; 10 for thei profesien a lessyng to you, that thei make you fer fro youre lond, and caste out you, and ye perische. 11 Certis the folk that makith suget her nol vndur the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne, and serueth hym, Y schal dismytte it in his lond, seith the Lord; and it schal tile that lond, and schal dwelle thereynne. 12 And Y spak bi alle these wordis to Sedechie, kyng of Juda, and Y seide, Make ye suget youre neckis vndur the yok of the kyng of Babiloyne, and serue ye hym, and his puple, and ye schulen lyue. 13 Whi schulen ye die, thou and thi puple, bi swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, as the Lord spak to the folk, that nolde serue to the kyng of Babiloyne? 14 Nyle ye here the wordis of profetis seyinge to you, Ye schulen not serue the kyng of Babiloyne; for thei speken leesyng to you, for Y sente not hem, seith the Lord; 15 and thei profesien falsly in my name, that thei caste out you, and that ye perische, bothe ye and the profetis that profesien to you. 16 And Y spak to the preestis, and to this puple, and Y seide, The Lord God seith these thingis, Nyle ye here the wordis of youre profetis, that profesien to you, and seien, Lo! the vessels of the Lord schulen turne ayen now soone fro Babiloyne; for thei profesien a leesyng to you. 17 Therfor nyle ye here hem, but serue ye to the kyng of Babiloyne, that ye lyue; whi is this citee youun in to wildirnesse? 18 And if thei ben profetis, and if the word of God is in hem, renne thei to the Lord of oostis, that the vessels whiche weren left in the hous of the Lord, and in the hous of the kyng of Juda, and in Jerusalem, come not in to Babiloyne. 19 For the Lord of oostis seith these thingis to the pilers, and to the see, that is, a greet waischyng vessel, and to the foundementis, and to the remenauntis of vessels, that weren left in this citee, 20 whiche Nabugodonosor, king of Babiloyne, took not, whanne he translatide Jeconye, the sone of Joachim, king of Juda, fro Jerusalem in to Babiloyne, and alle the principal men of Juda and of Jerusalem. 21 For the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis to the vessels that ben left in the hous of the Lord, and in the hous of the king of Juda, and in Jerusalem, Tho schulen be translatid in to Babiloyne, 22 and schulen be there `til to the dai of her visitacioun, seith the Lord; and Y schal make tho to be brouyt, and to be restorid in this place.

And the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, afir that Ananye, the profete, brak the chayne fro the necke of Jeremye; and the Lord seide, 13 Go thou, and seie to Ananye, The Lord seith these thingis, Thou hast al to-broke the chaynes of tre, and thou schalt make yrun chaynes for tho. 14 For the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Y haue set an yrun yok on the necke of alle these folkis, that thei serue Nabugodonosor, the king of Babiloyne, and thei schulen serue hym; fethermore and Y yaf to hym the beestis of erthe. 15 And Jeremye, the profete, seide to Ananye, the profete, Ananye, here thou; the Lord sente not thee, and thou madist this puple for to triste in a leesyng. 16 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal sende thee out fro the face of erthe; in this yeer thou schalt die, for thou spakest ayens the Lord. 17 And Ananye, the profete, diede in that yeer, in the seuenthe monethe.

29 And these ben the wordis of the book, whiche Jeremye, the profete, sente fro Jerusalem to the residues of elders men of passyng ouer, and to the preestis, and to the profetis, and to al the puple, whom Nabugodonosor hadde ledde ouer fro Jerusalem in to Babiloyne, 2 after that Jeconye, the kyng, yede out, and the ladi, and the onest seruauntis and chast, and the princis of Juda yeden out of Jerusalem, and a sutel crafti man, and a goldsmyth of Jerusalem, 3 in the hond of Elasa, sone of Saphan, and of Gamalie, the sone of Elchie, whiche Sedechie, the kyng of Juda, sente to Nabugodonosor, the kyng of Babiloyne, in to Babiloyne. 4 And Jeremye seide, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis to al the passyng ouer, which Y translatide fro Jerusalem in to Babiloyne, 5 Bilde ye housis, and enhabite, and plaunte ye orcherdis, and ete ye fruyt of tho; 6 take ye wyues, and gendre ye sones and douytris, and yyue ye wyues to youre sones, and yyue ye youre douytris to hosebondis, and bere thei sones and douytris; and be ye multiplied there, and nyle ye be fewe in noubre. 7 And seke ye pees of the citees, to whiche Y made you to passe ouer; and preie ye the Lord for it, for in the pees therof schal be pees to you. 8 The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Your profetis, that ben in the myddis of you, and youre dyuynours disseyue you not; and take ye noon heede to youre dremes, whiche ye dremen; 9 for thei profesien falsli to you in my name, and Y sente not hem, seith the Lord. 10 For the Lord seith thes thingis, Whanne seuenti yeer bigynnen to be fillid in Babiloyne, Y schal visite you, and Y schal reise on you my good word, and Y schal brynge you ayen to this place. 11 For Y knowe the thouytis whiche Y thenke on you, seith the Lord, the thouytis of pees, and not of turment, that Y yyue to you an ende and pacience. 12 And ye schulen clepe me to help, and ye schulen go, and schulen worschipe me, and Y schal here you; 13 ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen fynde, whanne ye seken me in al youre herte. 14 And Y schal be foundun of you, seith the Lord, and Y schal brynge ayen youre caitifte, and Y schal gadere you fro alle folkis, and fro alle places, to whiche Y castide out you, seith the Lord; and Y schal make you to turne ayen fro the place, to which Y made you to passe ouer. 15 For ye seiden, The Lord schal reise profetis to vs in Babiloyne. 16 For the Lord seith these thingis to the kyng, that sittith on the seete of Dauid, and to al the puple, dwellere of this citee, to youre britheren, that yeden not out with you in to the passyng ouer, 17 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal visite on Semei Neelamyte, and on his seed; and no man sitynge in the myddis of this puple schal be to hym; and he schal not se the good, which Y schal do to my puple, seith the Lord, for he spak trespassyng ayens the Lord.

30 This is the word, that was maad of the Lord to Jeremye, 2 and seide, The Lord God of Israel seith these thingis, and spekith, Write to thee in a book, alle these wordis whiche Y spak to thee. 3 For lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal turne the turnyng of my puple Israel and Juda, seith the Lord; and Y schal turne hem to the lond which Y yaf to the fadris of hem, and thei schulen haue it in possessioun. 4 And these ben the wordis, whiche the Lord spak to Israel, and to Juda, 5 For the Lord seith these thingis, We herden a word of drede; inward drede is, and pees is not. 6 Axe ye, and se, if a male berith child; whi therfor siy Y the hond of ech man on his leende, as of a womman traueleyng of child, and alle faces ben turned in to yelow colour? 7 Wo! for thilke day is greet, nether ony is lyk it; and it is a tyme of tribulacioun to Jacob, and of hym schal be sauuyd. 8 And it schal be, in that dai, seith the Lord of oostis, Y schal al-to-breke the yok of hym fro thi necke, and Y schal breke hise bondis; and aliens schulen no more be lordis of it, 9 but thei schulen serue to her Lord God, and to Dauid,

Y schal saue thee fro a fer lond, and thi seed fro the lond of the caitiftee of hem. And Jacob schal turne ayen, and schal reste, and schal flowe with alle goodis; and noon schal be whom he schal drede. 11 For Y am with thee, seith the Lord, for to saue thee. Forsothe Y vnderstood, that it was the word of the Lord. 9 And Y bouyte the feeld, which is in Anathot, of Ananeel, the sone of my fadris brothir. And Y paiede to hym siluer, seuene stateris, and ten platis of siluer; 10 and Y wroot in a book, and Y seelide, and Y yaf witnessis. And Y weiede siluer in a balaunce; 11 and Y took the book aseelid of possessioun, and axingis and answerys of the seller and bier, and couenantis, and seelis withoutforth. 12 And Y yaf the book of possessioun to Baruc, the sone of Neri, sone of Maasie, before the iyen of Ananeel, the sone of my fadris brother, and before the iyen of witnessis that weren writun in the book of biyng, before the iyen of alle Jewis, that saten in the porche of the prisoun. 13 And Y comaundide to Baruc before hem, 14 and Y seide, The Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Take thou these bookis, this seelid book of biyng, and this book which is opyn, and putte thou tho in an erthen vessel, that tho moun dwelle bi many daies. 15 For whi the Lord of oostis, God of Israel, seith these thingis, Yit housis, and feeldis, and vynes schulen be weldid in this lond. 16 And Y priiede to the Lord, afir that Y bitook the book of possessioun to Baruc, the sone of Nery; and Y seide, Alas! 17 alas! alas! He schal sitte aloone, and he schal be stille; for he reiseid hym silf aboute hym silf. 29 Joth. He schal sette his mouth in dust, if peraventure hope is. 30 Joth. He schal yyue the cheke to a man that smyith hym; he schal be fillid with schenschipis. 31 Caph. For the Lord schal not putte awei with outen ende. 32 Caph. For if he castide awei, and he schal do merci bi the multitude of hise mercies. 33 Caph. For he makide not low of his herte; and castide not awei the sones of men. Lameth. 34 That he schulde al to-foule vndur hise feet alle the boundun men of erthe. Lameth. 35 That he schulde bowe doun the dom of man, in the siyt of the cheer of the hiyeste. 36 Lameth. That he schulde peruerte a man in his dom, the Lord knew not. 37 Men. Who is this that seide, that a thing schulde be don, whanne the Lord comaundide not? 38 Men. Nether goodis nether yuels schulen go out of the mouth of the hiyeste. 39 Men. What grutchide a man lyuynghe, a man for hise synnes? 40 Nun. Serche we oure weies, and seke we, and turne we ayen to the Lord. 41 Nun. Reise we oure hertis with hondis, to the Lord in to heuenes. 42 Nun. We han do wickidli, and han terrid thee to wraethe; therfor thou art not able to be preied. 43 Sameth. Thou hilidist in stronge veniaunce, and smitidist vs; thou killidist, and sparidist not. 44 Sameth. Thou settidist a clowde to thee, that preier passe not. 45 Sameth. Thou settidist me, drawing vp bi the roote, and castynghe out, in the myddis of pupilis. 46 Ayn. Alle enemyes openyden her mouth on vs. 47 Ayn. Inward drede and snare is maad to vs, profesie and defoulyng. 48 Ayn. Myn iyen ledden doun departyngis of watris, for the defoulyng of the douyter of my puple. 49 Phe. Myn iye was turmentid, and was not stille; for no reste was. 50 Phe. Vntil the Lord bihelde, and siy fro heuenes. 51 Phe. Myn iye robbide my soule in alle the douytris of my citee. 52 Sade. Myn enemyes token me with out cause, bi huntynge as a brid. 53 Sade. My lijf slood in to a lake; and thei puttiden a stoon on me. 54 Sade. Watris flowiden ouer myn heed; Y seide, Y perischide. 55 Coph. Lord, Y clepide to help thi name, fro the laste lake. 56 Coph. Thou herddest my vois; turne thou not awei thin eere fro my sobbyng and cries. 57 Coph. Thou neiydist to me in the dai, wherynne Y clepide thee to help; thou seidist, Drede thou not. 58 Res. Lord, ayenbiere of my lijf, thou demydist the cause of my soule. 59 Res. Lord, thou siest the wickidnesse of hem ayens me; deme thou my doom. 60 Res. Thou siest al the woodnesse, alle the thouytis of hem ayenus me. 61 Syn. Lord, thou herdist the schenshipis of hem; alle the thouytis of hem ayens me. 62 Syn. The lippis of men risynge ayens me, and the thouytis of hem ayens me al dai. 63 Syn. Se thou the sittynge and risynge ayen of hem; Y am the salm of hem. 64 Thau. Lord, thou schalt yelde while to hem, bi the werkis of her hondis. 65 Tau. Thou schalt yyue to hem the scheeld of herte, thi trauel. 66 Tau. Lord, thou schalt pursue hem in thi strong veniaunce, and thou schalt defoule hem vndur heuenes.

4 Aleph. How is gold maad derk, the beste colour is chaungid? the stonyis of the seyntuarie ben scaterid in the heed of alle stretis. 2 Beth. The noble sonos of Sion, and clothid with the best gold, hou ben thei arettid in to erthene vessels, in to the werk of the hondis of a pottere? 3 Gimel. But also lamyas maden nakid her tetis, yauen mylk to her whelpis; the douyter of my puple is cruel, as an ostrig in desert. 4 Deleth. The tonge of the soukynghe childe cleued to his palat in thirst; litle children axiden breed, and noon was that brak to hem. 5 He. Thei that eeten lustfuli, perischiden in weies; thei that weren nurschid in cradels, biclippiden toordis. 6 Vau. And the wickidnesse of the douyter of my puple is maad more than the synne of men of Sodom, that was distried in a moment, and hondis token not therynne. 7 Zai. Nazareis therof weren whitere than snow, schynnyngere than mylk; rodier than elde yuer, fairere than safire. 8 Heth. The face of hem was maad blackere than coolis, and thei weren not knowun in stretis; the skyn cleuyde to her boonys, it driede, and was maad as a tre. 9 Teth. It was betere to men slayn with swerd, than to men slayn with hungur; for these men wexiden rotun, thei weren wastid of the bareynesse of erthe. 10 Joth. The hondis of merciful wymmen sethiden her children; thei weren maad the metis of tho wymmen in the sorewe of the douyter of my puple. 11 Caph. The Lord fillide his strong veniaunce, he schedde out the ire of his indignacioun; and the Lord kyndlide a fier in Sion, and it deuouride the foundementis therof. 12 Lamet. The kyngis of erthe, and alle dwelleris of the world bileueden not, that an aduersarie and enemy schulde entre bi the yatis of Jerusalem. 13 Men. For the synnes of the profetis therof, and for wickidnessis of preestis therof, that schedden out the blood of iust men in the myddis therof. 14 Nun. Blynde men erryden in stretis, thei weren defoulid in blood; and whanne thei myten not go, thei helden her hemmes. 15 Samet. Thei crieden to hem, Departe awei, ye defoulide men, departe ye, go ye awei, nyle ye touche; forsothe thei chidden, and weren strid; thei seiden among hethene men, God schal no more leie to, that he dwelle among hem. 16 Ayn. The face of the Lord departide hem, he schal no more leie to, that he biholde hem; thei weren not aschamed of the faces of preestis, nether thei hadden merci on eld men. 17 Phe. The while we stoden yit, oure iyen failiden to oure veyn help; whanne we bihelden ententif to a folc, that myyte not saue vs. 18 Sade. Oure steppis weren slidir in the weie of oure stretis; oure ende neiyede, oure daies weren fillid, for oure ende cam. 19 Coph. Oure pursueris weren swifter than the eglis of heuene; thei pursueden vs on hillis, thei settiden buschementis to vs in desert. 20 Res. The spirit of oure mouth, Crist the Lord, was takun in oure synnes; to whom we seiden, We schulen lyue in thi schadewe among hethene men. 21 Syn. Thou douyter of Edom, make ioie, and be glad, that dwellist in the lond of Hus; the cuppe schal come also to thee, thou schalt be maad drunkun, and schalt be maad bare. 22 Thau. Thou douyter of Sion, thi wickidnesse is fillid; he schal not adde more, that he make thee to passe ouer; thou douyter of Edom, he schal visite thi wickidnesse, he schal vnlike thi synnes.

5 Lord, haue thou mynde what bifelle to vs; se thou, and biholde oure schenschepe. 2 Oure eritage is turned to aliens, oure housis ben turned to straungers. 3 We ben maad fadirles children with out fadir; oure modris ben as widewis. 4 We drunken oure watir for monei, we bouyten oure trees for siluer. 5 We weren dryuun bi oure heedis, and reste was not youun to feynt men. 6 We yauen hond to Egipt, and to Assiriens, that we schulden be fillid with breed. 7 Oure fadris synneden, and ben not, and we baren the wickidnessis of hem. 8 Seruauntis weren lordis of vs, and noon was, that ayenbouyete fro the hond of hem. 9 In oure lyues we brouyten breed to vs, fro the face of swerd in desert. 10 Oure skynne is brent as a furneis, of the face of tempestis of hungur. 11 Thei maden low wymmen in Sion, and virgyns in the citees of Juda. 12 Princes weren handig bi the hond; thei weren not aschamed of the faces of elde men. 13 Thei mysusiden yonge wexynge men vnchastli, and children fellen down in tree. 14 Elde men failiden fro yatis; yonge men failiden of the queer of singeris. 15 The ioie of oure herte failide; oure song is turned in to mourenyng. 16 The coroun of oure heed fellen down; wo to vs! for we synneden. 17 Therfor oure herte is maad soreful, therfor oure iyen ben maad derk. 18 For the hil of Sion, for it perischide; foxis yeden in it. 19 But thou, Lord, schal dwelle with outen ende; thi seete schal dwelle in generacioun and in to generacioun. 20 Whi schalt thou foryete vs with outen ende, schalt thou forsake vs in to lengthe of daies? 21 Lord, conuerte thou vs to thee, and we schal be conuertid; make thou newe oure daies, as at the bigynnyng. 22 But thou castynge awei hast cast awei vs; thou art wrooth ayens vs greetli.

Ezekiel

1 And it was don, in the thritithe yeer, in the fourthe monethe, in the fyuethe dai of the moneth, whanne Y was in the myddis of caitifs, bisidis the flood Chobar, heuenes weren openyd, and Y siy the reuelaciouns of God. 2 In the fyuethe dai of the monethe; thilke is the fyuethe yeer of passing ouer of Joachym, kyng of Juda; 3 the word of the Lord was maad to Ezechiel, preest, the sone of Busi, in the lond of Caldeis, bisidis the flood Chobar; and the hond of the Lord was maad there on hym. 4 And Y siy, and lo! a whirlewynd cam fro the north, and a greet cloude, and fier wlappynge in, and briytnesse in the cumpas therof; and as the licnesse of electre fro the myddis therof, that is, fro the myddis of the fier. 5 And of myddis therof was a licnesse of fourre beestis. And this was the biholdyng of tho, the licnesse of a man in tho. 6 And fourre faces weren to oon, and fourre wyngis weren to oon. 7 And the feet of tho weren streiyt feet, and the soole of the foote of tho was as the soole of a foot of a calf, and sparclis, as the biholdyng of buylyng bras. 8 And the hondis of a man weren vndur the wyngis of tho, in fourre partis. And tho hadden faces and wyngis bi fourre partis; 9 and the wyngis of tho weren ioyned togidir of oon to another. Tho turneden not ayen, whanne tho yeden, but eche yede bifore his face. 10 Forsothe the licnesse `of the face of tho was the face of a man and the face of a lioun at the riythalf of tho fourre. Forsothe the face of an oxe was at the left half of tho fourre; and the face of an egle was aboue tho fourre. 11 And the faces of tho and the wengis of tho weren stretchid forth aboue. Twei wyngis of eche weren ioyned togidere, and tweyne hiliden the bodies of tho. 12 And ech of tho yede bifore his face. Where the fersnesse of the wynd was, thidur tho yeden, and turneden not ayen, whanne tho yeden. 13 And the licnesse of the beestis, and the biholdyng of tho, was as of brennyng coolis of fier, and as the biholdyng of laumpis. This was the siyt rennyng aboue in the myddis of beestis, the schynyng of fier, and leit goyng out of the fier. 14 And the beestis yeden, and turneden ayen at the licnesse of leit schynyng. 15 And whanne Y bihelde the beestis, o wheel, hauyng fourre faces, apperide on the erthe, bisidis the beestis. 16 And the biholdyng of the wheelis and the werk of tho was as the siyt of the see; and o licnesse was of tho fourre; and the biholdyng and the werkis of tho, as if a wheel be in the myddis of a wheel. 17 Tho goyng yeden bi fourre partis of tho, and turneden not ayen, whanne tho yeden. 18 Also stature, and hynesse, and orible biholdyng was to the wheelis; and al the bodi was ful of iyen in the cumpas of tho fourre. 19 And whanne the beestis yeden, the wheelis also yeden togidere bisidis tho. And whanne the beestis weren reisid fro the erthe, the wheelis also weren reisid togidere. 20 Whidur euere the spirit yede, whanne the spirit yede thedur, also the wheelis suyng it weren reisid togidere; for whi the spirit of lijf was in the wheelis. 21 Tho yeden with the beestis goyng, and tho stoden with the beestis stondyng. And with the beestis reisid fro erthe, also the wheelis suyng tho beestis weren reisid togidere; for the spirit of lijf was in the wheelis. 22 And the licnesse of the firmament was aboue the heed of the beestis, and as the biholdyng of orible cristal, and stretchid abrood on the heed of tho beestis aboue. 23 Forsothe vndur the firmament the wyngis of tho beestis weren streiyt, of oon to anothir; ech beeste hilide his bodi with twei wyngis, and an other was hilid in lijk maner. 24 And Y herde the sown of wyngis, as the sown of many watris, as the sown of hiy God. Whanne tho yeden, ther was as a sown of multitude, as the sown of oostis of batel; and whanne tho stoden, the wyngis of tho weren late doun. 25 For whi whanne a vois was maad on the firmament, that was on the heed of tho, tho stoden, and leten doun her wyngis. 26 And on the firmament, that was aboue the heed of tho, was as the biholdyng of a saphire stoon, the licnesse of a trone; and on the licnesse of the trone was a licnesse, as the biholdyng of a man aboue. 27 And Y siy as a licnesse of electre, as the biholding of fier with ynne, bi the cumpas therof; fro the lendis of hym and aboue, and fro the lendis of him til to byneth, Y siy as the licnesse of fier schynyng in cumpas, 28 as the biholdyng of the reynbowe, whanne it is in the cloude in the dai of reyn. This was the biholdyng of schynyng bi cumpas. This was a siyt of the licnesse of the glorie of the Lord. And Y siy, and felle doun on my face; and Y herde the vois of a spekere.

2 And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, stonde on thi feet, and Y schal speke with thee. 2 And the spirit entride in to me, after that he spak to me, and settide me on my feet. And Y herde oon spekyng to me, 3 and seiynge, Sone of man, Y sende thee to the sones of Israel, to folkis apostatas, `ether goyng a bak fro feith, that yeden awei fro me; the fadris of hem braken my couenaunt til to this dai. 4 And the sones ben of hard face, and of vnchastisable herte, to whiche Y sende thee. And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis; 5 if perauenture nameli thei heren, and if perauenture thei resten, for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. And thei schulen wite, that a profete is in the myddis of hem. 6 Therefore thou, sone of man, drede not hem, nether drede thou the wordis of hem; for vnbeleuful men and distrieris ben with thee, and thou dwelst with scoriouus. Drede thou not the wordis of hem, and drede thou not the faces of hem, for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 7 Therfor thou schalt speke my wordis to hem, if perauenture thei heren, and resten, for thei ben terroris to wraththe. 8 But thou, sone of man, here what euer thingis Y schal speke to thee; and nyle thou be a terrere to wraththe, as the hows of Israel is a terrere to wraththe. Opene thi mouth, and ete what euer thingis Y yyue to thee. 9 And Y siy, and lo! an hond was sent to me, in which a book was foldid togidere. 10 And he spredde abrood it bifor me, that was writun with ynne and with outforth. And lamentaciouns, and song, and wo, weren writun ther ynne.

3 And he seide to me, Sone of man, ete thou what euer thing thou fyndist, ete thou this volym; and go thou, and speke to the sones of Israel. 2 And Y openyde my mouth, and he fedde me with that volym. 3 And he seide to me, Sone of man, thi wombe schal ete, and thin entrails schulen be fillid with this volym, which Y yyue to thee. And Y eet it, and it was maad as swete hony in my mouth. 4 And he seide to me, Sone of man, go thou to the hous of Israel, and thou schalt speke my wordis to hem. 5 For thou schalt not be sent to a puple of hiy word, and of vnknowun langage; thou schalt be sent to the hous of Israel, 6 nether to many puplis of hiy word, and of vnknowun langage, of whiche thou maist not here the wordis. And if thou were sent to hem, thei schulden here thee. 7 But the hous of Israel nylen here thee, for thei nylen here me. For al the hous of Israel is of vnschamefast forheed, and of hard herte. 8 Lo! Y yaf thi face strongere than the faces of hem, and thi forheed hardere than the forheedis of hem. 9 Y yaf thi face as an adamaunt, and as a flynt; drede thou not hem, nether drede thou of the face of hem, for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 10 And he seide to me, Sone of man, take in thin herte, and here with thin eeris alle these my wordis, whiche Y speke to thee. 11 And go thou, and entre to the passyng ouer, to the sones of thi puple. And thou schalt speke to hem, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, if perauenture thei heren, and resten. 12 And the spirit took me, and Y herde after me the vois of a greet mouyng. The blessid glorie of the Lord was herd fro his place; 13 and Y herde the vois of wyngis of the beestis smytynge oon an othir, and the vois of wheelis syunge the beestis, and the vois of greet stiryng. 14 Also the spirit reiseid me, and took me. And Y yede forth bittir in the indignacioun of my spirit; for the hond of the Lord was with me, and coumfortide me. 15 And Y cam to the passyng ouer, to the heap of newe fruytis, to hem that dwelliden bisidis the flood Chobar. And Y sat where thei saten, and Y dwellide there seuene daies, weilynge, in the myddis of hem. 16 Forsothe whanne seuene daies weren passid, the word of the Lord was maad to me, and seide, Sone of man, 17 Y yaf thee `a spiere to the hous of Israel. And thou schalt here of my mouth a word, and thou schalt telle to hem of me. 18 If whanne Y seie to the wickid man, Thou schalt die bi deth, thou tellist not to hym, and spekist not to hym, that he be turned fro his wickid weie, and lyue; thilke wickid man schal die in his wickidnesse, but Y schal seke his blood of thin hond. 19 Forsothe if thou tellist to the wickid man, and he is not conuertid fro his wickidnesse, and fro his wickid weie; sotheli he schal die in his wickidnesse, but thou hast delyuerid thi soule. 20 But also if a iust man is turned fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse, Y schal sette an hirtyng bifor hym; he schal die, for thou teldist not to hym; he schal die in his synne, and hise riytfulnesis, whiche he dide, schulen not be in mynde, but Y schal seke his blood of thin hond. 21 Forsothe if thou tellist to a iust man, that a iust man do not synne, and he doith not synne, he lyuyng schal lyue, for thou teldist to hym, and thou hast delyuered thi soule. 22 And the hond of the Lord was maad on me, and he seide to me, Rise thou, and go out in to the feeld, and there Y schal speke with thee. 23 And Y roos, and yede out in to the feeld. And lo! the glorie of the Lord stood there, as the glorie which Y siy bisidis the flood Chobar; and Y felle down on my face. 24 And the spirit entride in to me, and settide me on my feet. And he spak to me, and seide to me, Entre thou, and be thou closid in the myddis of thin hous. 25 And thou, sone of man, lo! boondis ben youun on thee, and thei schulen bynde thee with tho, and thou schalt not go out in the myddis of hem. 26 And Y schal make thi tunge to cleue to the roof of thi mouth, and thou schalt be doumbe, and thou schalt not be as a man rebuykinge; for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 27 But whanne Y schal speke to thee, Y schal opene thi mouth, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, He that herith, here, and he that restith, reste; for it is an hous terryng to wraththe.

4 And thou, sone of man, take to thee a tijl stoon; and thou schalt sette it bifore thee, and thou schalt discriue ther ynne the citee of Jerusalem. 2 And thou schalt ordeyne bisegyng ayenus that Jerusalem; and thou schalt bilde strengthis, and thou schalt bere togidere erthe, and thou shalt yyue oostis of batel ayens it, and thou schalt sette engynes in cumpas. 3 And take thou to thee an irone friyng panne; and thou schalt sette it in to an irone wal bitwixe thee and bitwixe the cite; and thou schalt sette stidfastli thi face to it, and it schal be in to bisegyng, and thou schalt cumpasse it; it is a signe to the hous of Israel. 4 And thou schalt slepe on thi left side, and thou schalt putte the wickidnessis of the hous of Israel on that side, in the noubre of daies in which thou shalt slepe on that side, and thou schalt take the wickidnesse of hem. 5 Forsothe Y yaf to thee the yeeris of the wickidnesse of hem bi noubre of daies, thre hundrid and nynti daies; and thou schalt bere the wickidnesse of the hous of Israel. 6 And whanne thou hast fillid these thingis, thou schalt slepe the secounde tyme on thi riytside. And thou schalt take the wickidnesse of the hous of Juda bi fourti daies; Y yaf to thee a dai for a yeer, a dai sotheli for a yeer. 7 And thou schalt turne thi face to the biseging of Jerusalem; and thin arm schal be stretchid forth, and thou schalt profesie ayens it. 8 Lo! Y haue compassid thee with boondis, and thou schalt not turne thee fro thi side in `to other side, tille thou fille the daies of thi bisegyng. 9 And take thou to thee wheete, and barli, and beenys, and tillis, and mylie, and vetchis; and thou schalt putte tho in to o vesselle. And thou schalt make to thee looues for the noubre of daies, bi whiche thou schalt slepe on thi side; bi thre hundrid and nynti daies thou schalt ete it. 10 Forsothe thi mete, which thou schalt ete, schal be in weiyte twenti staters in a dai; fro tyme til to tyme thou schalt ete it. 11 And thou schalt drynke watir in mesure, the sixte part of hyn; fro tyme til to tyme thou schalt drynke it. 12 And thou schalt ete it as barli breed bakun vndur the aischis; and with `a toord that goith out of a man thou schalt hile, it bifore the iyen of hem. 13 The Lord seith these thingis, So the sones of Israel schulen ete her breed defouliid among hethene men, to whiche Y schal caste hem out. 14 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, lo! my soule is not defouliid, and fro my yong childhed til to now Y eet not a thing deed bi it silf, and to-rent of beestis; and al vnclene fleisch entride not in to my mouth. 15 And he seide to me, Lo! Y haue youe to thee the dung of oxis for mennus toordis; and thou schalt make thi breed with it. 16 And he seide to me, Sone of man, lo! Y schal al to-breke the staf of breed in Jerusalem, and thei schulen ete her breed in weiyte and in bisynesse, and thei schulen drynke water in mesure and in angwisch; 17 that whanne breed and watir failen, eche man falle doun to his brother, and thei faile in her wickidnessis.

5 And thou, sone of man, take to thee a scharp swerd, schauynge heeris; and thou schalt take it, and schalt leede it bi thin heed, and bi thi berd. And thou schalt take to thee a balaunce of weiyte, and thou schalt departe tho. 2 Thou schalt brenne the thridde part with fier in the myddis of the citee, bi the fylling of daies of bisegying. And thou schalt take the thridde part, and schalt kitte bi swerd in the cumpas therof. But thou schalt scatere `the tother thridde part in to the wynd; and Y schal make nakid a swerd aftir hem. 3 And thou schalt take therof a litil noubre, and thou schalt bynde tho in the hiynesse of thi mentil. 4 And eft thou schalt take of hem, and thou schalt caste forth hem in to the myddis of the fier. And thou schalt brenne hem in fier; and fier schal go out of that in to al the hous of Israel. 5 The Lord God seith these thingis, This is Jerusalem; Y haue sette it in the myddis of hethene men, and londis in the cumpas therof. 6 And it dispiside my domes, that it was more wickid than hethene men; and it dispiside my comaundementis more than londis that ben in the cumpas therof. For thei han cast awei my domes, and thei yeden not in my comaundementis. 7 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For ye `han passid hethene men that ben in youre cumpas, and ye yeden not in my comaundementis, and ye diden not my domes, and ye wrouyten not bi the domes of hethene men that ben in youre cumpas; 8 therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to thee, and Y my silf schal make domes in the myddis of thee, bifor the iyen of hethene men; and Y schal do thingis in thee, 9 whiche Y dide not, and to whiche Y schal no more make lijk thingis, for alle thin abhomynaciouns. 10 Therfor fadris schulen ete sones in the myddis of thee, and sones schulen ete her fadris; and Y schal make domes in thee, and Y schal wyndewe alle thin remenauntis in to ech wynd. 11 Therfor Y lyue, seith the Lord God, no but for that that thou defoulidist myn hooli thing in alle thin offenciouns, and in alle thin abhomynaciouns; and Y schal breke, and myn iye schal not spare, and Y schal not do merci. 12 The thridde part of thee schal die bi pestilence, and schal be wastid bi hungur in the middis of thee; and the thridde part of thee schal falle down bi swerd in thi cumpas; forsothe Y schal scatere thi thridde part in to ech wynd, and Y schal drawe out a swerd after hem. 13 And Y schal fille my stronge veniaunce, and Y schal make myn indignacioun to reste in hem, and Y schal be coumfortid. And thei schulen wite, that Y the Lord spak in my feruent loue, whanne Y schal fille al myn indignacioun in hem. 14 And Y schal yyue thee in to desert, in to schenscipe to hethene men that ben in thi cumpas, in the siyt of ech that passith forth. 15 And thou schalt be schenscipe `and blasfemye, ensauple and wondryng, among hethene men that ben in thi cumpas, whanne Y schal make domes in thee, in strong veniaunce, and indignacioun, and in blamyngis of ire. 16 Y the Lord haue spoke, whanne Y schal sende in to hem the worste arowis of hungur, that schulen bere deth; and whiche Y schal sende, that Y leese you. And Y schal gadere hungur on you, and Y schal al to-breke in you the sadnesse of breed. 17 And Y schal sende in to you hungur, and worste beestis, til to the deth; and pestilence and blood schulen passe bi thee, and Y schal bringe in swerd on thee; Y the Lord spak.

He that is fer, shal die bi pestilence. 12 Forsothe he that is niy, shal falle bi swerd. And he that is laft and bisegid, shal die bi hungur. And Y schal fille myn indignacioun in hem. 13 And ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne youre slayn men schulen be in the myddis of youre idols, in the cumpas of youre auteris, in eche hiy litil hil, and in alle the hiynesis of mounteyns, and vndur ech tree ful of wode, and vndur ech ook ful of boowis, that is, a place where thei brenten encense swete smellynge to alle her idols. 14 And Y schal stretche forth myn hond on hem, and Y schal make her lond desolat and destitute, fro desert Deblata, in alle the dwellyngis of hem; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

7 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 `and he seide, And thou, sone of man, the Lord God of the lond of Israel seith these thingis, The ende cometh, the ende cometh, on foure coostis of the lond. 3 Now an ende is on thee, and Y shal sende in my strong veniaunce on thee, and Y schal deme thee bi thi weies, and Y schal sette alle thin abhomynaciouns ayens thee. 4 And myn iye shal not spare on thee, and Y schal not do mercy. A yerde flouride, 11 pride buriownede, wickidnesse roos in the yerde of vnpitee; not of hem, and not of the puple, nether of the sown of hem, and no reste shal be in hem. 12 The tyme cometh, the dai neyede; he that bieth, be not glad, and he that sillith, mourne not; for whi ire is on al the puple therof. 13 For he that sillith, schal not turne ayen to that that he seelde, and yit the lijf of hem is in lyueris; for whi the reuelacioun to al the multitude therof shal not go ayen, and a man schal not be coumfortid in the wickidnesse of his lijf. 14 Syng ye with a trumpe, alle men be maad redi, and noon is that schal go to batel; for whi my wraththe is on al the puple therof. 15 Swerd is with out forth, pestilence and hungur with ynne; he that is in the feeld, schal die bi swerd; and thei that ben in the citee, schulen be deuourid bi pestilence and hungur. 16 And thei schulen be sauyd that fleeen of hem; and thei schulen be as culueris of grete valeis in hillis, alle quakyng, ech man in his wickidnesse. 17 Alle hondis schulen be aclumsid, and alle knees schulen flowe with watris. 18 And thei schulen girde hem with heiris, and inward drede schal hile hem; and schenschiipe schal be in ech face, and ballidnesse schal be in alle the heedis of hem. 19 The siluer of hem schal be cast out, and the gold of hem schal be in to a dunghil; the siluer of hem and the gold of hem schal not mowe delyuere hem in the dai of the strong veniaunce of the Lord. Thei schulen not fille her soule, and the wombis of hem schulen not be fillid; for it is maad the sclandre of hir wickidnesse. 20 And thei setteden the ournement of her brochis in to pride; and thei maden of it the ymagis of her abhomynaciouns and simylacris. For this thing Y yaf it to hem, in to vnclennesse. 21 And Y schal yyue it in to the hondis of aliens, to rauysche, and to the vnpitouse men of erthe, in to prey, and thei schulen defoule it. 22 And Y schal turne awey my face fro hem, and thei schulen defoule my priuete; and harlotis schulen entre in to it, and schulen defoule it. 23 Make thou a closyng to gidere; for the lond is ful of doom of bloodis, and the citee is ful of wickidnesse. 24 And Y schal bryng the worste of hethene men, and thei schulen haue in possessioun the housis of hem; and Y schal make the pride of miyti men to ceesse, and enemyes schulen haue in possessioun the seyntuaries of hem. 25 In anguysch comyng aboute thei schulen seke pees, and it schal not be. 26 Disturblyng schal come on disturblyng, and heryng on heryng; and thei schulen seke of the profete a reuelacioun, and lawe shal perische fro the preest, and counsel fro eldre men. 27 The kyng schal mourne, and the prince schal be clothid in weilyng, and the hondis of the puple of the lond schulen be disturbid; bi the weie of hem Y schal do to hem, and bi the domes of hem Y schal deme hem; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

8 And it was doon in the sixte yeer, in the sixte monethe, in the fyue the dai of the monethe, Y sat in myn hous, and the elde men of Juda saten bfore me; and the hond of the Lord God felle there on me. 2 And Y siy, and lo! a licesse as the biholding of fier; fro the biholding of hise leendis and bynethe was fier, and fro hise leendis and aboue was as the biholding of schynyng, as the siyt of electre. 3 And the licesse of an hond was sent out, and took me bi the heer of myn heed; and the spirit reiseide me bitwixe heuene and erthe, and brouyte me in to Jerusalem, in the siyt of God, bisidis the ynnere dore that bihelde to the north, where the idol of enuye was set, to stire indignacioun. 4 And lo! the glorie of God of Israel was there, bi siyt which Y siy in the feeld. 5 And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, reise thin iyen to the weie of the north; and Y reiseide myn iyen to the weie of the north, and lo! fro the north of the yate of the auter the idol of enuye was in that entryng. 6 And he seide to me, Sone of man, gessist thou whether thou seest what thing these men doon, the grete abhomynaciouns whiche the hous of Israel doith here, that Y go fer awey fro my seyntuarie? and yit thou schalt turne, and schalt se grettere abhomynaciouns. 7 And he ledde me with ynne to the dore of the halle; and Y siy, and lo! oon hoole in the wal. 8 And he seide to me, Sone of man, digge thou the wal; and whanne Y hadde diggid the wal, o dore apperide. 9 And he seide to me, Entre thou, and se the worste abhomynaciouns, whiche these men doon here. 10 And Y entride, and siy; and lo! ech licesse of `crepyng beestis, and abhomynacioun of beestis, and alle idols of the hous of Israel, weren peyntid in the wal al aboute in cumpas. 11 And seuenti men of the elders of the hous of Israel stoden; and Jeconye, the sone of Saphan, stood in the myddis of hem, stondyng bfore the peyntyngis; and ech man hadde a censere in his hond, and the smoke of a cloude of encense stiede. 12 And he seide to me, Certis, sone of man, thou seest what thingis the elders men of the hous of Israel doen in derknessis, ech man in the hid place of his bed; for thei seiyn, The Lord seeth not vs, the Lord hath forsake the lond. 13 And the Lord seide to me, Yit thou schalt turne, and schalt se gretter abhomynaciouns, whiche these men doon. 14 And he ledde me with ynne, bi the dore of the yate of the hous of the Lord, which dore bihelde to the north; and lo! wymmen saten there, biweilyng Adonydes. 15 And the Lord seide to me, Certis, sone of man, thou hast seyng; yit thou schalt turne, and schalt se grettere abhomynaciouns than these. 16 And he ledde me with ynne, in to the ynnere halle of the hous of the Lord; and lo! in the dore of the temple of the Lord, bitwixe the porche and the auter, weren as fyue and twenti men hauyng the backis ayens the temple of the Lord, and her faces to the eest; and thei worschiden at the risyng of the sunne. 17 And the Lord seide to me, Certis, sone of man, thou hast seyng; whether this is a liyt thing to the hous of Juda, that thei schulden do these abhomynaciouns, whiche thei diden here? For thei filliden the lond with wickidnesse, and turneden to terre me to wraththe; and lo! thei applien a braunche to her nose thirlis. 18 Therfor and Y schal do in strong veniaunce; myn iye schal not spare, nether Y schal do merci; and whanne thei schulen crie to myneris with greet vois, Y schal not here hem.

9 And he criede in myn eeris with greet vois, and seide, The visytynge of the citee han neiyed, and ech man hath in his hond an instrument of sleyng. 2 And lo! sixe men camen fro the weie of the hiyere yate, that biholdith to the north, and the instrument of deth of ech man was in his hond; also o man in the myddis of hem was clothid with lynnun clothis, and a pennere of a writere at hise reynes; and thei entriden, and stoden bisidis the brasun auter. 3 And the glorie of the Lord of Israel was takun vp fro cherub, which glorie was on it, to the threisfold of the hous; and the Lord clepide the man that was clothid with lynnun clothis, and hadde a pennere of a writere in hise leendis. 4 And the Lord seide to hym, Passe thou bi the myddis of the citee, in the myddis of Jerusalem, and marke thou Thau on the forhedis of men weilynge and sorewyng on alle abhormynaciouns that ben doon in the myddis therof. 5 And he seide to hem in myn heryng, Go ye thorouy the citee, and sue ye hym, and smytte ye; youre iye spare not, nether do ye merci. 6 Sle ye til to deth, an eld man, a yong man, and a virgyn, a litil child, and wymmen; but sle ye not ony man, on whom ye seen Thau; and bigynne ye at my seyntuarie. Therfore thei bigunnen at the elders men, that weren bifore the face of the hous. 7 And he seide to hem, Defoule ye the hous, and fille ye the hallis with slayn men; go ye out. And thei yeden out, and killiden hem that weren in the citee. 8 And lo! whanne the sleyng was fillid, Y was left. And Y felle down on my face, and Y criede, and seide, Alas! alas! alas! Lord God, therfor whether thou schalt leese alle remenauntis of Israel, and schalt schede out thi stronge veniaunce on Jerusalem? 9 And he seide to me, The wickidnesse of the hous of Israel and of Juda is ful greet, and the lond is fillid of bloodis, and the citee is fillid with turnyng awei; for thei seiden, The Lord hath forsake the lond, and the Lord seeth not. 10 Therfor and myn iye schal not spare, nether Y schal do merci; Y schal yelde the weie of hem on the heed of hem. 11 And lo! the man that was clothid in lynnun clothis, that hadde a pennere in his bak, answeride a word, and seide, Y haue do, as thou comaundidist to me.

10 And Y siy, and lo! in the firmament that was on the heed of cherubyns, as a saphir stoon, and as the fourme of licnesse of a kyngis seete apperide theron. 2 And he seide to the man that was clothid in lynnun clothis, and spak, Entre thou in the myddis of wheelis, that ben vndur cherubyns, and fille thin hond with coolis of fier, that ben bitwixe cherubyns, and schede thou out on the citee. 3 And he entride in my siyt; forsothe cherubyns stoden at the riyt side of the hous, whanne the man entride, and a clowde fillide the ynnere halle. 4 And the glorie of the Lord was reisid fro aboue cherubyns to the threisfold of the hous; and the hous was fillid with a clowde, and the halle was fillid with schynyng of the glorie of the Lord. 5 And the sown of wyngis of cherubyns was herd til to the outermere halle, as the vois of almyti God spekyng. 6 And whanne he hadde comaundid to the man that was clothid in lynnun clothis, and hadde seid, Take thou fier fro the myddis of the wheelis, that ben bitwixe cherubyns, he entride, and stood bisidis the wheel. 7 And cherub stretchide forth his hond fro the myddis of cherubyns, to the fier that was bitwixe cherubyns; and took, and yaf in to the hondis of hym that was clothid in lynnun clothis; and he took, and yede out. 8 And the licnesse of the hond of a man apperide in cherubyns, vndur the wyngis of tho. 9 And Y siy, and lo! foure wheelis weren bisidis cherubyns; o wheel bisidis o cherub, and another wheel bisidis another cherub; forsothe the licnesse of wheelis was as the siyt of the stoon crisolitis. 10 And the biholdyng of tho was o licnesse of foure, as if a wheel be in the myddis of a wheel. 11 And whanne tho yeden, tho yeden in to foure partis; tho turneden not ayen goyng, but to the place to which that that was the firste wheel bowide to go, also othere suyden, and turneden not ayen. 12 And al the bodi of tho wheelis, and the neckis, and hondis, and wyngis of the beestis, and the cercelis, weren ful of iyen, in the cumpas of foure wheelis. 13 And he clepide tho wheelis volible, ether able to go al aboute, in myn heryng. 14 Forsothe o beeste hadde foure faces; o face was the face of cherub, and the secounde face the face of a man, and in the thridde was the face of a lion, and in the fourthe was the face of an egle; 15 and the cherubyns weren reisid. Thilke is the beeste, which Y hadde seyn bisidis the flood Chobar. 16 And whanne cherubyns yeden, also the wheelis bisidis tho yeden to gidere; whanne cherubyns reisiden her wyngis, that tho schulden be enhaunsid fro the erthe, the wheelis abididen not stille, but also tho weren bisidis cherubyns. 17 The wheelis stoden with tho cherubyns stondyng, and weren reisid with the cherubyns reisid; for the spirit of lijf was in tho wheelis. 18 And the glorie of the Lord yede out fro the threisfold of the temple, and stood on the cherubyns. 19 And cherubyns reisiden her wyngis, and weren enhaunsid fro the erthe bifore me; and whanne tho yeden out, also the wheelis sueden; and it stood in the entryng of the eest yate of the hous of the Lord, and the glorie of God of Israel was on tho. 20 Thilke is the beeste, which Y siy vndur God of Israel, bisidis the flood Chobar. And Y vnderstood that foure cherubyns weren; 21 foure faces weren to oon, and foure wyngis weren to oon; and the licnesse of the hond of a man was vndur the wyngis of tho. 22 And the licnesse of the cheris of tho weren thilke cheeris whiche Y hadde seyn bisidis the flood Chobar; and the biholdyng of tho, and the fersnesse of ech, was to entre bifor his face.

11 And the spirit reiseid me, and ledde me with ynnere to the eest yate of the hous of the Lord, that biholdith the risyng of the sunne. And lo! in the entryng of the yate weren fyue and twenti men; and Y siy in the myddis of hem Jeconye, the sone of Assur, and Pheltie, the sone of Banaie, princes of the puple. 2 And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, these ben the men that thenken wickidnesse, and treten the worse counsel in this citee, 3 and seien, Whether housis weren not bildid a while ago? this is the cawdrun, forsothe we ben fleischis. 4 Therfor profesie thou of hem, profesie thou, sone of man. 5 And the Spirit of the Lord felle in to me, and seide to me, Speke thou, The Lord seith these thingis, Ye hous of Israel spoken thus, and Y knewe the thouytis of youre herte; 6 ye killiden ful many men in this citee, and ye filliden the weies therof with slayn men. 7 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Youre slayn men, whiche ye puttiden in the myddis therof, these ben fleischis, and this is the cawdrun; and Y schal lede you out of the myddis therof. 8 Ye dredden swerd, and Y schal brynge in swerd on you, seith the Lord God. 9 And Y schal caste you out of the myddis therof, and Y schal yyue you in to the hond of enemyes, and Y schal make domes in you. 10 Bi swerd ye schulen falle down, Y schal deme you in the endis of Israel; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 11 This schal not be to you in to a cawdrun, and ye schulen not be in to fleischis in the myddis therof; Y schal deme you in the endis of Israel, 12 and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. For ye yeden not in myn heestis, and ye dyden not my domes, but ye wrouyten bi the domes of hethene men, that ben in youre cumpas. 13 And it was doon, whanne Y profesiede, Pheltie, the sone of Banaie, was deed; and Y felle down on my face, and Y criede with greet vois, and seide, Alas! alas! alas! Lord God, thou makist endyng of the remenauntis of Israel. 14 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 15 and he seide, Sone of man, thi britheren, thi kynes men, and al the hous of Israel, and alle men, to whiche the dwelleris of Jerusalem seiden, Go ye awei fro the Lord, the lond is youun to vs in to possessioun. 16 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For Y made hem fer among hethene men, and for Y scatteride hem in londis, Y schal be to hem in to a litil hawewyng, in the londis to whiche thei camen. 17 Therfor speke thou, The Lord God seith these thingis, Y schal gadere you fro puplis, and Y schal gadere you togidere fro londis, in whiche ye ben scatered; and Y schal yyue the erthe of Israel to you. 18 And thei schulen entre thidur, and schulen do awei alle offenciouns, and alle abhomynaciouns therof in that dai. 19 And Y schal yyue to hem oon herte, and Y schal yyue a newe spirit in the entrails of hem; and Y schal take awei a stony herte fro the fleisch of hem, and Y schal yyue to hem an herte of fleisch; 20 that thei go in my comaundementis, and kepe my domes, and do tho; and that thei be in to a puple to me, and Y be in to God to hem. 21 But of whiche the herte goith after her offendyngis and abhomynaciouns, Y schal sette the weie of hem in her heed, seith the Lord God. 22 And the cherubyns reisiden her wyngis, and the wheelis yeden with tho, and the glorie of God of Israel was on tho. 23 And the glorie of the Lord stiede fro the myddis of the citee, and stood on the hil, which is at the eest of the citee. 24 And the spirit reiseide me, and brouyte me in to Caldee, to the passyng ouer, in visioun bi the spirit of God; and the visioun which Y hadde seyn, was takun awei fro me. 25 And Y spak to the passyng ouer alle the wordis of the Lord, whiche he hadde schewid to me.

12 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, thou dweldest in the myddis of an hous terryng to wraththe, which han iyen to se, and seen not, and eeris to here, and heren not; for it is an hous terryng to wraththe. 3 Therfor thou, sone of man, make to thee vessels of passing ouer, and thou schalt passe ouer bi dai bifor hem; forsothe thou schalt passe ouer fro thi place to another place, in the siyt of hem, if perauenture thei biholden, for it is an hous

terryng to wraththe. 4 And thou schalt bere withoutforth thi vessels, as the vessels of a man passyng ouer bi dai, in the siyt of hem; sotheli thou schalt go out in the euentid bifore hem, as a man passyng forth goith out. 5 Bifore the iyen of hem digge the wal to thee, and thou 6 schalt go out thorouy it in the siyt of hem. Thou schalt be borun on schuldris, thou schalt be borun out in derknesse; thou schalt hile thi face, and thou schalt not se the erthe, for Y haue youe thee a signe 7 of thing to comynge to the hous of Israel. Therfor Y dide as the Lord comaundide to me; Y brouyte forth my vessels, as the vessels of a man passyng ouer bi dai, and in the euentid Y diggide a wal to me with hond; Y yede out in derknesse, and Y was borun on schuldris, 8 in the siyt of hem. And the word of the Lord was maad eerli to me, 9 and he seide, Sone of man, whether the hous of Israel, the hous terryng to wraththe, seiden not to thee, What doist thou? 10 Seie thou to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, This birthun is on the duyck, which is in Jerusalem, and on al the hous of Israel, which is in the myddis of hem. 11 Seie thou, Y am youre signe of thing to comynge; as Y dide, so it schal be don to hem; thei schulen go in to passyng ouer, and in to caitifte. 12 And the duyck which is in the myddis of hem, schal be borun out on schuldris, and he schal go out in derknesse; thei schulen digge the wal, and lede hym out; his face schal be hilid, that he se not with iye the erthe. 13 And Y schal stretche forth my net on hym, and he schal be takun in my net; and Y schal lede hym in to Babilyone, in to the lond of Caldeis, and he schal not se that lond, and he schal die there. 14 And Y schal scatere in to ech wynd alle men that ben aboute hym, his help, and hise compenyas; and Y schal draw out the swerd afir hem. 15 And thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal scatere hem among hethene men, and schal sowe hem abroad in londis. 16 And Y schal leue of hem a fewe men fro swerd, and hungur, and pestilence, that thei telle out alle the grete trespassis of hem among hethene men, to which thei schulen entre; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 17 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 18 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, ete thi breed in disturbyng, but also drynke thi water in haaste and mourening. 19 And thou schalt seie to the puple of the lond, The Lord God seith these thingis to hem that dwellen in Jerusalem, in the lond of Israel, Thei schulen ete her breed in angwisch, and thei schulen drynke her watir in desolacioun; that the lond be desolat of his multitude, for the wickidnesse of alle men that dwellen ther ynne. 20 And citees that ben now enhabitid, shulen be desolat, and the lond schal be forsakun; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 21 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 22 and he seide, Sone of man, what is this prouerbe to you, of men seiynge in the lond of Israel, Daies schulen be differrid in to long tyme, and ech visioun shal perische? 23 Therfor seie thou to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Y schal make this prouerbe to ceesse, and it schal no more be seid comynli in Israel; and speke thou to hem, that the daies han neiyid, and ech word of profesie. 24 For whi ech visioun schal no more be voide, nether bifor tellyng of thing to comynge schal be douteiful in the myddis of the sones of Israel; 25 for Y the Lord schal speke what euer word Y schal speke, and it schal be don; it schal no more be delaied, but in youre daies, ye hous terryng to wratthe, Y schal speke a word, and Y schal do that word, seith the Lord God. 26 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, Thou, 27 sone of man, lo! the hous of Israel, of hem that seien, The visioun which this man seeth, is in to manye daies, and this man profesieti in to longe tymes. 28 Therfor seie thou to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Ech word of me schal no more be deferrid; the word which Y schal speke, schal be fillid, seith the Lord God.

13 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, profesie thou to the profetis of Israel that profesien; and thou schalt seie to hem that profesien of her herte, 3 Here ye the word of the Lord. The Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to the vnwise profetis, that suen her spirit, and seen no thing; 4 Israel, thi profetis weren as foxis in desert. 5 Ye stieden not euene ayens, nether ayensetiden a wal for the hous of Israel, that ye schulden stonde in batel in the dai of the Lord. 6 Thei seen veyn thingis, and deuynen a leesyng, and seien, The Lord seith, whanne the Lord sente not hem; and thei contynueden to conferme the word. 7 Whether ye seen not a veyn visioun, and spaken fals diuynynge, and seiden, The Lord seith, whanne Y spak not? 8 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For ye spaken veyn thingis, and sien a leesyng, therfor lo! Y to you, seith the Lord God. 9 And myn hond schal be on the profetis that seen veyn thingis, and dyuynen a leesyng; thei schulen not be in the counsel of my puple, and thei schulen not be writun in the scripture of the hous of Israel, nether thei schulen entre in to the lond of Israel; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God. 10 For thei disseyueden my puple, and seiden, Pees, pees, and no pees is; and it bildide a wal, but thei pargitiden it with fen with out chaffis. 11 Seie thou to hem that pargiten with out temperure, that it schal falle down; for a strong reyn schal be flowynge, and I shal yyue ful grete stoones fallinge fro aboue, and Y schal yyue a wynd of tempest that distrieth. 12 For lo! the wal felle doun. Whether it schal not be seid to you, Where is the pargetynge, which ye pargetiden? 13 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal make the spirit of tempestis to breke out in myn indignacioun, and strong reyn flowynge in my strong veniaunce schal be, and greet stoonys in wratthe in to wastynge. 14 And Y schal distrie the wal, which ye pargetiden with out temperure, and Y schal make it euene with the erthe; and the foundement therof schal be schewid, and it schal falle doun, and it schal be wastid in the myddis therof; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 15 And Y schal fille myn indignacioun in the wal, and in hem that pargeten it with out temperure; and Y schal seie to you, The wal is not, and thei ben not, 16 that pargeten it, the profetis of Israel, that profesien to Jerusalem, and seen to it the visioun of pees, and pees is not, seith the Lord God. 17 And thou, sone of man, sette thi face ayens the douytris of thi puple, that profesien of her herte; and profesie thou on hem, 18 and seie thou, The Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to hem that sowen togidere cuschens vndur ech cubit of hond, and maken pilewis vndur the heed of ech age, to take soulis; and whanne thei disseyueden

the soulis of my puple, thei quykenyden the soulis of hem. 19 And thei defoulden me to my puple, for an handful of barli, and for a gobet of breed, that thei schulden sle soulis that dien not, and quykene soulis that lyuen not; and thei lieden to my puple, bileuyng to leesyingis. 20 For this thing the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to youre cuschens, bi whiche ye disseyuen soulis flynge; and Y schal al to-breke tho fro youre armes, and Y schal delyuere soulis which ye disseyuen, soulis to fle. 21 And Y schal al to-breke youre pilewis, and Y schal delyuere my puple fro youre hond; and thei schulen no more be in youre hondis, to be robbid; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 22 For that that ye maden falsli the herte of a iust man to morene, whom Y made not sori; and ye coumfortiden the hondis of a wickid man, that he schulde not turne ayen fro his yuel weie, and lyue. 23 Therfor ye schulen not se veyn thingis, and ye schulen no more dyuynen false dyuynynge; and Y schal delyuere my puple fro youre hond, and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

14 And men of the eldris of Israel camen to me, and saten bifor me. 2 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, Sone of man, 3 these men han set her vncleynesses in her hertis, and han set stidfastli the sclandre of her wickidnesse ayens her face. Whether Y that am axid, schal answere to hem? 4 For this thing speke thou to hem, and thou schalt seie to hem, These thingis seith the Lord God, A man, a man of the hous of Israel, that settith hise vncleynessis in his herte, and settith stidfastli the sclandre of his wickidnesse ayens his face, and cometh to the profete, and axith me bi hym, Y the Lord schal answere to hym in the multitude of hise vncleynessis; 5 that the hous of Israel be takun in her herte, bi which thei yeden awei fro me in alle her idols. 6 Therfor seie thou to the hous of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Be ye conuertid, and go ye awei fro youre idols, and turne awei youre faces fro alle youre filthis. 7 For whi a man, a man of the hous of Israel, and of conuersis, who euer is a comelyng in Israel, if he is alienyng fro me, and settith hise idols in his herte, and settith stidfastli the sclandir of his wickidnesse ayens his face, and he cometh to the profete, to axe me bi hym, Y the Lord schal answere hym bi my silf. 8 And Y schal sette my face on that man, and Y schal make hym in to ensauple, and in to a prouerbe, and Y schal leese hym fro the myddis of my puple; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 9 And whanne a profete errith, and spekith a word, Y the Lord schal disseyue that profete; and Y schal stretche forth myn hond on hym, and Y schal do hym awei fro the myddis of my puple Israel. 10 And thei schulen bere her wickidnesse; bi the wickidnesse of the axere, so the wickidnesse of the profete schal be; 11 that the hous of Israel erre no more fro me, nether be defouldid in alle her trespassyngis; but that it be in to a puple to me, and Y be in to a God to hem, seith the Lord of oostis. 12 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, 13 Sone of man, whanne the lond synneth ayens me, that it trespassynge do trespass, Y schal stretche forth myn hond on it, and Y schal al to-breke the yerde of breed therof; and Y schal sende hungur in to it, and Y schal sle of it man and beeste. 14 And if these thre men Noe, Danyel, and Job, ben

Lo! thei schulen go out to you, and ye schulen se the weie of hem, and the fyndyngis of hem; and ye schulen be coumfortid on the yuel, which Y brouyte in on Jerusalem, in alle thingis whiche Y bar in on it. 23 And thei schulen coumforte you, whanne ye schulen se the weie of hem and the fyndyngis of hem; and ye schulen knowe, that not in veyn Y dide alle thingis, what euer thingis Y dide there ynne, seith the Lord almyty.

15 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, what schal be don to the tre of a vyne, of alle the trees of woodis, that ben among the trees of woodis? 3 Whether tymbre schal be takun therof, that werk be maad? ether shal a stake be maad therof, that ony vessel hange ther onne? 4 Lo! it is youun in to mete; fier wastide euer eithir part therof, and the myddis therof is dryuun in to deed sparle; whether it schal be profitable to werk? 5 Yhe, whanne it was hool, it was not couenable to werk; hou myche more whanne fier hath deuourid, and hath brent it, no thing of werk schal be maad therof? 6 Therfor the Lord God seith thes thingis, As the tre of a vyne is among the trees of woodis, which Y yaf to fier to deuoure, so Y yaf the dwelleris of Jerusalem, 7 and Y schal sette my face ayens hem. Thei schulen go out of the fier, and fier schal waaste hem; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal sette my face ayens hem, 8 and schal yyue the lond with out weie and desolat, for thei weren trespassours, seith the Lord God.

16 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, make thou knowun to Jerusalem her abhomynaciouns; and thou schalt seie, 3 The Lord God seith these thingis. Al! thou Jerusalem, thi rote and thi generacioun is of the lond of Canaan; thi fadir is Amorrei, and thi moder is Cetei. 4 And whanne thou were borun, thi nawle was not kit awei in the dai of thi birthe, and thou were not waischun in watir in to helthe, nethir saltid with salt, nether wlapid in clothis. 5 An iye sparide not on thee, that it hauynge merci on thee, dide to thee oon of these thingis; but thou were cast forth on the face of erthe, in the castyng out of thi soule, in the dai in which thou were borun. 6 Forsothe Y passide bi thee, and Y siy thee defoulid in thi blood; and Y seide to thee, whanne thou were in thi blood, Lyue thou; sotheli Y seide to thee in thi blood, Lyue thou. 7 Y yaf thee multiplid as the seed of a feeld, and thou were multiplid, and maad greet; and thou entridist, and camest fulli to wymmens ournyng; thi tetis wexiden greet, and thin heer wexide; and thou were nakid, and ful of schenschipec. 8 And Y passide bi thee, and Y siy thee, and lo! thi tyme, the tyme of louyeris; and Y spredde abroad my clothing on thee, and Y hilide thi schenschipec. And Y swoor to thee, and Y made a couenaunt with thee, seith the Lord God, and thou were maad a wijf to me. 9 And Y waischide thee in water, and Y clenside awei thi blood fro thee, and Y anyontide thee with oile. 10 And Y clothide thee with clothis of dyuerse colours, and Y schodde thee in iacynt, and Y girde thee with biys; 11 and Y clothide thee with sutil thingis, and Y ournede thee with ournement. 12 And Y yaf bies in thin hondis, and a wrethe aboute thi necke; and Y yaf a ryng on thi mouth, and cerclis to thin eeris, and a coroun of fairnesse in thin heed. 13 And thou were ourned with gold and siluer, and thou were clothid with biys and ray cloth with rounde ymagis, and many colours. Thou etist cleene flour of wheete, and hony, and oile, and thou were maad fair ful greetli; and thou encreessidist in to a rewme, 14 and thi name yede out in to hethene men for thi fairnesse; for thou were perfet in my fairnesse which Y hadde sett on thee, seith the Lord God. 15 And thou haddist trist in thi fairnesse, and didist fornicacioun in thi name; and thou settidist forth thi fornicacioun to ech that passide forth, that thou schuldist be maad his. 16 And thou tokist of my clothis, and madist to thee hiy thingis set aboute on ech side; and thou didist fornicacioun on tho, as it was not don, nether schal be don. 17 And thou tokist the vessels of thi fairnesse, of my gold and of my siluer, which Y yaf to thee; and thou madist to thee ymagis of men, and didist fornicacioun in tho. 18 And thou tokist thi clothis of many colours, and thou were clothid in tho; and thou settidist myn oile and myn encence in the siyt of tho. 19 And thou settidist my breed, which Y yaf to thee, flour of wheete, and oile, and hony, bi whiche Y nurschide thee, in the siyt of tho, in to odour of swetnesse; and it was don, seith the Lord God. 20 And thou tokist thi sones and thi douytris, whiche thou gendridist to me, and offridist to tho, for to be deuourid. Whether thi fornicacioun is liti! 21 Thou offridist my sones, and yauest hem, and halewidist to tho. 22 And aftir alle thin abhomynaciouns and fornicaciouns, thou bihouytest not on the daies of thi yong wexynge age, whanne thou were nakid, and ful of schenschipec, and were defoulid in thi blood. 23 And after al thi malice, wo, wo bifelle to thee, seith the Lord God. 24 And thou bildidist to thee a bordel hous, and madist to thee a place of hordom in alle stretis. 25 At ech heed of the weie thou bildidist a signe of thin hordom, and madist thi fairnesse abhomynable; and thou departidist thi feet to ech man passyng forth, and multeplidist thi fornicaciouns. 26 And thou didist fornicacioun with the sones of Egipt, thi neiyboris of grete fleischis, and thou multepliedist thi fornicacioun, to terre me to wraththe. 27 Lo! Y schal stretch forth myn hond on thee, and Y schal take awei thi iustifyng; and Y schal yyue thee in to the soulis of hem that haten thee, of the douytris of Palestyns, that ben aschamed in thi weie ful of greet trespas. 28 And thou didist fornicacioun with the sones of Assiens, for thou were not fillid yit; and after that thou didist fornicacioun, nether so thou were fillid. 29 And thou multepliedist thi fornicacioun in the lond of Canaan with Caldeis, and nether so thou were fillid. 30 In what thing schal Y clense thin herte, seith the Lord God, whanne thou doist alle these werkis of a woman an hoore, and gredi axere? 31 For thou madist thi bordel hous in 'the heed of ech weie, and thou madist thin hiy place in ech street; and thou were not maad as an hoore ful of anoyng, 32 encreessynge prijs, but as a womman auoutresse, that bryngith in aliens on hir hosebonde. 33 Hiris ben youun to alle hooris, but thou hast youe hire to alle thi louyeris; and thou yauest to hem, that thei schulden entre to thee on ech side, to do fornicacioun with thee. 34 And it was don in thee ayens the custom of wymmen in thi fornicaciouns, and fornicacioun schal not be after thee; for in that that thou yauest hiris, and tokist not hiris, the contrarie was don in thee. 35 Therfor, thou hoore, here the word of the Lord. 36 The Lord God seith these thingis, For thi riches is sched out, and thi schenschiipe is schewid in thi fornicaciouns on thi louyeris, and on the idols of thin abhomynaciouns, in the blood of thi sones, whiche thou yauest to hem; lo! 37 Y schal gadere to gidere alle thi louyeris, with whiche thou were meddlid, and alle men whiche thou louedist, with alle men whiche thou hatidist; and Y schal gadere hem on thee on ech side, and Y schal make nakid thi schenschiipe bfore hem, and thei schulen se al thi filthe. 38 And Y schal deme thee bi the domes of auoutressis, and schedinge out blood; 39 and Y schal yyue thee in to the blood of strong veniaunce, and of feruour. And Y schal yyue thee in to the hondis of hem, and thei schulen destrie thi bordel hous, and thei schulen destrie the place of thin hordom; and thei schulen make thee nakid of thi clothis, and thei schulen take awei the vessels of thi fairnesse, and thei schulen forsake thee nakid, and ful of schenschiipe. 40 And thei schulen bringe on thee a multitude, and thei schulen stoon thee with stoonys, and thei schulen sle thee with her swardis. 41 And thei schulen brenne thin housis with fier, and thei schulen make domes in thee, bfor the iyen of ful many wymmen; and thou schalt ceese to do fornicacioun, and thou schalt no more yyue hiris. 42 And myn indignacioun schal reste in thee, and my feruent loue schal be takun awei fro thee; and Y schal reste, and Y schal no more be wrooth, 43 for thou haddist not mynde on the daies of thi yong wexynge age, and thou terrorist me to ire in alle these thingis. Werfor and Y yaf thi weies in thin heed, seith the Lord God, and Y dide not aftir thi grete trespas, in alle these thin abhomynaciouns. 44 Lo! ech man that seith a prouerbe comynli, schal take it in thee, 45 and schal seie, As the modir, so and the douytir of hir. Thou art the douytir of thi modir, that castide away hir hosebonde and hir sones; and thou art the sister of thi sistris, that castiden a wei her hosebondis and her sones. Thi modir is Cetei, and thi fadir is Ammorrei; 46 and thi gretter sister is Samarie, sche and hir douytris, that dwellen at thi left side; but thi sistir lesse than thou, that dwellith at thi riyt side, is Sodom, and hir douytris. 47 But thou yedist not in the weies of hem, nethir thou didist aftir the grete trespas of hem; hast thou do almost a litil lesse cursidere dedis than thei, in alle thi weies? 48 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for Sodom, thi sister, did not, sche and hir douytris, as thou didist, and thi douytris. 49 Lo! this was the wickidnesse of Sodom, thi sister, pride, fulnesse of breed, and habundaunce, and idilnesse of hir, and of hir douytris; and thei puttiden not hond to a ned man and pore. 50 And thei weren enhaunsid, and diden other abhomynaciouns bfore me; and Y took hem awei, as thou hast seyn. 51 And Samarie synnede not the half of thi synnes, but thou hast ouercome hem in thi grete trespas; and thou hast iustified thi sistris in alle thin abhomynaciouns, whiche thou wrouytist. 52 Therfor and thou bere thi schenschiipe, that hast ouercome thi sistris with thi synnes, and didist more cursidli than thei; for thei ben iustified of thee. Therfor and be thou schent, and bere thi schenschiipe, which hast iustified thi sistris. 53 And Y schal conuerte and restore hem by the conuersioun of Sodom with hir douytris, and bi the conuersioun of Samarie and of hir douytris; and Y schal conuerte thi turnyng ayen in the myddis of hem, 54 that thou bere thi schenschiipe, and be aschamed in alle thingis whiche thou didist, coumfortynge hem. 55 And thi sister Sodom and hir douytris schulen turne ayen to her eldnesse; and Samarie and hir douytris schulen turne ayen to her eeldnesse; and thou and thi douytris turne ayen to youre eldnesse. 56 Forsothe Sodom, thi sister, was not herd in thi mouth, in the dai of thi pride, 57 bfore that thi malice was schewid, as in this tyme, in to schenschiipe of the douytris of Sirie, and of alle douytris in thi cumpas, of the douytris of Palestyn that ben aboute thee bi cumpas. 58 Thou hast bore thi greet trespas, and thi schenschiipe, seith the Lord God. 59 For the Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal do to thee as thou dispisidist the ooth, that thou schuldist make voide the couenaunt; 60 and Y schal haue mynde on my couenaunt with thee in the daies of thi yongthe, and Y schal reise to thee a couenaunt euerlastynge. 61 And thou schalt haue mynde on thi weies, and schalt be aschamed, whanne thou schalt resseyue thi sistris grettere than thou, with thi lesse sistris; and Y schal yyue hem in to douytris to thee, but not of thi couenaunt. 62 And Y schal reise my couenaunt with thee, and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord, that thou haue mynde, and be aschamed; 63 and that it be no more to thee to opene the mouth for thi schame, whanne Y schal be plesid to thee in alle thingis whiche thou didist, seith the Lord God.

17 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, sette forth a derk speche, and telle thou a parable to the hous of Israel; 3 and thou schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis. A greet egle of grete wyngis, with long stretchyng out of membris, ful of fetheris and of dyuersite, cam to the Liban, and took awei the merowe of the cedre. 4 He pullide awei the hiynesse of boowis therof, and bar it ouer in to the lond of Chanaan, and settide it in the citee of marchauntis. 5

And he took of the seed of the lond, and settide it in the lond for seed, that it schulde make stidfast roote on many watris; he settide it in the hiyere part. 6 And whanne it hadde growe, it encreesside in to a largere vyner, in lowe stature; for the boowis therof bihelden to that egle, and the rootis therof weren vndur that egle; therof it was maad a vyner, and it made fruyt in to siouns, and sente out boowis. 7 And another greet egle was maad, with grete wyngis, and many fetheris; and lo! this vyner as sendynge hise rootis to that egle, stretchide forth his siouns to that egle, that he schulde moiste it of the cornfloris of his seed. 8 Which is plauntid in a good lond on many watris, that it make boowis, and bere fruyt, that it be in to a greet vyner. 9 Seie thou, Ezechiel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Therfor whether he schal haue prosperite? Whether Nabugodonosor schal not pulle awei the rootis of hym, and schal streyne the fruytis of hym? And he schal make drie alle the siouns of buriowning therof, and it schal be drie; and not in greet arm, nether in myche puple, that he schulde drawe it out bi the rootis. 10 Lo! it is plauntid, therfor whether it schal haue prosperite? Whether not whanne brennyng wynd schal touche it, it schal be maad drye, and schal waxe drie in the cornfloris of his seed? 11 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, Seie thou to the hous terryng to wraththe, 12 Witen ye not what these thingis signefien? Seie thou, Lo! the king of Babiloyn cometh in to Jerusalem; and he schal take the kyng and the princis therof, and he schal leede hem to hym sili in to Babiloyn. 13 And he schal take of the seed of the rewme, and schal smyte with it a boond of pees, and he schal take of it an ooth; but also he schal take awei the stronge men of the lond, 14 that it be a meke rewme, and be not reisid, but that it kepe the couenaunt of hym, and holde it. 15 Which yede awei fro hym, and sente messengeris in to Egipt, that it schulde yyue to hym horsis and miche puple. Whether he that dide these thingis, schal haue prosperite, ether schal gete helthe? and whether he that brekith couenaunt, schal ascape? 16 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for in the place of the king that made hym kyng, whos ooth he made voide, and brak the couenaunt, which he hadde with hym, in the myddis of Babiloyn he schal die. 17 And not in greet oost, nether in myche puple Farao schal make batel ayens hym, in the castyng of erthe, and in bildyng of palis, that he sle many persones. 18 For he dispiside the ooth, that he schulde breke the boond of pees, and lo! he yaf his hond; and whanne he hath do alle these thingis, he schal not ascape. 19 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Y lyue, for Y schal sette on his heed the ooth which he dispiside, and the boond of pees which he brak. 20 And Y schal spredde abroad my net on hym, and he schal be takun in my net, and Y schal brynge hym in to Babiloyn; and there Y schal deme hym in the trespassyng, bi which he dispiside me. 21 And alle hise flieris a wei with al his compenye schulen falle doun bi swerd, forsothe the remenauntis schulen be schaterid in to ech wynd; and ye schulen wite, that Y the Lord spak. 22 The Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal take of the merowe of an hiy cedre, and Y schal sette a tendir thing of the cop of hise braunchis; Y schal streyne, and Y schal plaunte on an hiy hil, and apperynge fer. 23 In the hiy hil of

Israel Y schal plaunte it; and it schal breke out in to buriownyng, and it schal make fruyt, and it schal be in to a greet cedre, and alle briddis schulen dwelle vndur it; ech volatil schal make nest vndur the schadewe of hise boowis. 24 And alle trees of the cuntrei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord; Y made low the hiy tre, and Y enhaunsid the low tre, and Y made drie the greene tree, and Y made the drie tree to brynge forth boowis; Y the Lord haue spoke, and Y haue do.

18 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, What is it, that ye turnen a parable among you in to this prouerbe, in the lond of Israel, and seien, Fadris eeten a bittir grape, and the teeth of sones ben an egge, ether astonyed? 3 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, this parable schal no more be in to a prouerbe to you in Israel. 4 Lo! alle soulis ben myne; as the soule of the fadir, so and the soule of the sone is myn. Thilke soule that doith synne, schal die. 5 And if a man is iust, and doith doom and riytfulnesse, 6 etith not in hillis, and reisith not hise iyen to the idols of the hous of Israel; and defoulith not the wijf of his neybore, and neiyeth not to a womman defouled with vncleene blood; 7 and makith not a man sori, yeldith the wed to the dettour, rauyschith no thing bi violence, yueth his breed to the hungri, and hiliith a nakid man with a cloth; 8 leeneth not to vsure, and takith not more; turneth awei his hond fro wickidnesse, and makith trewe dom bitwixe man and man; 9 and goith in my comaundementis, and kepith my domes, that he do treuthe; this is a iust man, he schal lyue in lijf, seith the Lord God. 10 That if he gendrith a sone, a theef, shedinge out blood, 11 and doith oon of thes thingis, and sotheli not doing alle these thingis, but etinge in hillis, and defoulyng the wijf of his neybore; 12 makyng soreful a nedy man and pore, rauyschyng raueyns, not yeldinge a wed, reisynge hise iyen to idols, doyng abhomynacioun; yuynge to vsure, and takynge more; 13 whether he schal lyue? he schal not lyue; whanne he hath do alle these abhomynable thingis, he schal die bi deth, his blood schal be in hym. 14 That if he gendrith a sone, which seeth alle the synnes of his fadir, whiche he dide, and dredith, and doith noon lijf tho; 15 etith not on hillis, and reisith not hise iyen to the idols of the hous of Israel; and defoulith not the wijf of his neybore, 16 and makith not sori a man, withholdith not a wed, and rauyschith not raueyn, yueth his breed to the hungri, and hiliith the nakid with a cloth; 17 turneth a wei his hond fro the wrong of a pore man, takith not vsure and ouerhabundance, that is, no thing more than he lente, and doith my domes, and goith in my comaundementis; this sone schal not die in the wickidnesse of his fadir, but he schal lyue in lijf. 18 For his fadir made fals caleng, and dide violence to his brother, and wrouyte yuel in the myddis of his puple, lo! he is deed in his wickidnesse. 19 And ye seien, Whi berith not the sone the wickidnesse of the fadir? That is to seie, for the sone wrouyte doom and riytfulnesse, he kepte alle my comaundementis, and dide tho, he schal lyue in lijf. 20 Thilke soule that doith synne, schal die; the sone schal not bere the wickidnesse of the fadir, and the fadir schal not bere the wickidnesse of the sone; the riytfulnesse of a iust man schal be on hym, and the wickidnesse of a wickid man schal be on hym. 21 Forsothe if a wickid man doith penaunce of alle hise synnes whiche he wrouyte, and kepih alle myn heestis, and doith dom and riytfulnesse, he schal lyue bi lijf, and schal not die. 22 Y schal not haue mynde of alle his wickidnessis whiche he wrouyte; he schal lyue in his riytfulnesse which he wrouyte. 23 Whether the deth of the wickid man is of my wille, seith the Lord God, and not that he be conuertid fro his weies, and lyue? 24 Forsothe if a iust man turneth away hym silf fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse bi alle hise abhominaciouns, which a wickid man is wont to worche, whether he schal lyue? Alle hise riytfulnessis whiche he hidede, schulen not be had in mynde; in his trespassing bi which he trespasside, and in his synne which he synnede, he schal die in tho. 25 And ye seiden, The weie of the Lord is not euene. Therfor, the hous of Israel, here ye, whether my weie is not euene, and not more youre weies ben schrewid? 26 For whanne a riytful man turneth awei hym silf fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse, he schal die in it, he schal die in the vnriytwisnesse which he wrouyte. 27 And whanne a wickid man turneth awei hym silf fro his wickidnesse which he wrouyte, and doith dom and riytfulnesse, he schal quykene his soule. 28 For he biholdinge and turnyng awei hym silf fro alle hise wickidnessis which he wrouyte, schal lyue in lijf, and schal not die. 29 And the sones of Israel seiden, The weie of the Lord is not euene. Whether my weies ben not euene, ye hous of Israel, and not more youre weies ben schrewid? 30 Therfor, thou hous of Israel, Y schal deme ech man bi hise weies, seith the Lord God. Turne ye togidere, and do ye penaunce for alle youre wickidnessis, and wickidnesse schal not be to you in to falling. 31 Caste awei fro you alle youre trespassingis, bi whiche ye trespassiden, and make ye a newe herte and a newe spirit to you, and whi schulen ye die, the hous of Israel? 32 For Y nyle the deeth of hym that dieth, seith the Lord God; turne ye ayen, and lyue ye.

19 And thou, sone of man, take weiling on the princes of Israel; 2 and thou schalt seie, Whi thi modir, a lionesse, lai among lions? In the myddis of litle lions sche nurschide hir whelpis, 3 and ledde out oon of hir litle lions; he was maad a lioun, and he lernede to take prei, and to ete men. 4 And hethene men herden of hym, and token hym not withouten her woundis; and thei brouyten hym in chaynes in to the lond of Egypt. 5 Which modir whanne sche hadde seyn, that sche was sijk, and the abiding of hym perischide, took oon of her litle lions, and made hym a lioun. 6 Which yede among lions, and was maad a lioun; 7 and lernede to take prey, and to deuoure men. He lernede to make widewis, and to brynge the citees of men in to desert; and the lond and the fulnesse therof was maad desolat, of the vois of his roryng. 8 And hethene men camen togidere ayens hym on ech side fro prouynces, and spredde on hym her net; he was takun in the woundis of tho hethene men. 9 And thei senten hym in to a caue in chaines, and brouyten hym to the kyng of Babiloyne; and thei senten hym in to prisoun, that his vois were no more herd on the hillis of Israel. 10 Thi modir as a vyner in thi blood was plauntid on watre; the fruitis therof and the boowis therof encreessiden of many watris. 11 And sadde yerdis weren maad to it in to septris of lordis, and the stature therof was enhaunsid among boowis; and it siy his hiynesse in the multitude of hise siouns. 12 And it was drawun out in wraththe, and was cast forth in to erthe; and a brennyng wynd dryede the fruyt therof, and the yerdis of strengthe therof welewidde, and weren maad drie, and fier eet it. 13 And now it is plauntid ouer in desert, in a lond with out weie, and thristi. 14 And fier yede out of the yerde of the braunchis therof, that eet the fruyt therof. And a stronge yerde, the ceptre of lordis, was not in it. It is weilyng, and it schal be in to weilyng.

20 And it was doon in the seuenthe yeer, in the fyuethe monethe, in the tenthe dai of the monethe, men of the eldris of Israel camen to axe the Lord; and thei saten bifor me. 2 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 3 and he seide, Sone of man, speke thou to the eldere men of Israel; and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Whether ye camen to axe me? Y lyue, for Y schal not answer to you, seith the Lord God. Sone of man, 4 if thou demest hem, if thou demest, schewe thou to hem the abhominaciouns of her fadris. 5 And thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, In the dai in which Y chees Israel, and reiseide myn hond for the generacioun of the hous of Jacob, and Y apperide to hem in the lond of Egypt, and Y reiseide myn hond for hem, and Y seide, Y am youre Lord God, 6 in that dai Y reiseide myn hond for hem, that Y schulde leede hem out of the lond of Egypt, in to the lond which Y hadde purueiede to hem, the lond flowyng with mylk and hony, which is noble among alle londis. 7 And Y seide to hem, Ech man caste awei the offencions of hise iyen, and nyle ye be defouild in the idols of Egypt; Y am youre Lord God. 8 And thei terriden me to wraththe, and nolden here me; ech man castide not awei the abhominaciouns of hise iyen, nether thei forsoken the idols of Egypt. 9 And Y seide, that Y wold schede out myn indignacioun on hem, and fille my wraththe in hem, in the myddis of the lond of Egypt. And Y dide for my name, that it schulde not be defouild bifore hethene men, in the myddis of whiche thei weren, and among whiche Y apperide to hem, that Y schulde lede hem out of the lond of Egypt. 10 Therfor Y castide hem out of the lond of Egypt, and Y ledde hem out in to desert; 11 and Y yaf to hem my comaundementis, and Y schewide to hem my doomes, which a man schal do, and lyue in tho. 12 Furthermore and Y yaf to hem my sabatis, that it schulde be a sygne bitwixe me and hem, and that thei schulden wite, that Y am the Lord halewynghe hem. 13 And the hous of Israel terriden me to wraththe in desert; thei yeden not in my comaundementis, and thei castiden awei my domes, whiche a man that doith, schal lyue in tho; and thei defouilden greetli my sabatis. Therfor Y seide, that Y wolde schede out my strong veniaunce on hem in desert, and waste hem; 14 and Y dide for my name, lest it were defouild bifor hethene men, fro whiche Y castide hem out in the siyt of tho. 15 Therfor Y reiseide myn hond on hem in the desert, that Y brouyte not hem in to the lond which Y yaf to hem, the lond flowyng with mylk and hony, the beste of alle londis. 16 For thei castiden awei my domes, and yeden not in my comaundementis, and thei defouilden my sabatis; for the herte of hem yede after idols. 17 And myn iye sparide on hem, that Y killide not hem, nether Y wastide hem in the desert. 18 Forsothe Y seide to the sones of hem in wildirnesse, Nyle ye go in the comaundementis of youre fadris, nether kepe ye the domes of hem, nethir be ye defoulid in the idols of hem. 19 Y am youre Lord God, go ye in my comaundementis, and kepe ye my domes, and do ye tho. 20 And halowe ye my sabatis, that it be a signe bitwixe me and you, and that it be knowun, that Y am youre Lord God. 21 And the sones terriden me to wraththe, and yeden not in my comaundementis, and kepten not my domes, that thei diden tho, whiche whanne a man hath do, he schal lyue in tho, and thei defouliden my sabatis. And Y manaasside to hem, that Y wolde schede out my stronge veniaunce on hem, and fille my wraththe in hem in the desert. 22 But Y turnede awei myn hond, and Y dide this for my name, that it were not defoulid bifore hethene men, fro whiche Y castide hem out bifore the iyen of tho. 23 Eft Y reiseide myn hond ayens hem in wildirnesse, that Y schulde scatere hem in to naciouns, and wyndewe hem in to londis; 24 for that that thei hadden not do my domes, and hadden repreuyd my comaundementis, and hadden defoulid my sabatis, and her iyen hadden be after the idols of her fadris. 25 Therfor and Y yaf to hem comaundementis not good, and domes in whiche thei schulen not lyue. 26 And Y defoulide hem in her yiftis, whanne thei offriden to me for her trespassis al thing that openeth the wombe; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 27 Wherfor speke thou, sone of man, to the hous of Israel, and thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Yit and in this youre fadris blasfemyden me, whanne thei dispisyngge hadden forsake me, 28 and Y hadde brouyte hem in to the lond on which Y reiseide myn hond, that Y schulde yuue to hem, thei siyen ech hiy litil hil, and ech tree ful of boowis, and thei offriden there her sacrifices, and thei yauen there her offryngis, in to terring to wraththe; and thei settiden there the odour of her swetnesse, and thei offriden her moiste sacrifices. 29 And Y seide to hem, What is the hiy thing, to whiche ye entren? And the name therof is clepid Hiy Thing til to this dai. 30 Therfor seie thou to the hous of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Certis ye ben defoulid in the weie of youre fadris, and ye don fornyacioun aftir the offendingis of hem, 31 and in the offryng of youre yiftis, whanne ye leden ouer youre sonas bi fier, ye ben defoulid in alle youre idols til to dai, and schal Y answere to you, the hous of Israel? Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for Y schal not answere to you; 32 nether the thouyte of youre soul schal be don, that seien, We schulen be as hethene men, and as naciouns of erthe, that we worschipe trees and stoonys. 33 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for in strong hond, and in arm stretchid forth, and in strong veniaunce sched out, I schal regne on you. 34 And Y schal lede out you fro puplis, and Y schal gadere you fro londis, in whiche ye ben scaterid; in strong hond, and in arm stretchid forth, and in strong veniaunce sched out Y schal regne on you. 35 And Y schal bringe you in to desert of puplis, and Y schal be demed there with you face to face. 36 As Y stryuede in doom ayens youre fadris in the desert of the lond of Egipt, so Y schal deme you, seith the Lord; 37 and Y schal make you suget to my septe, and Y schal bringe in you in the boondis of pees. 38 And Y schal chese of you trespassouris, and wickid men; and Y schal leede hem out of the lond of her dwelling, and thei schulen not entre in to the lond of Israel; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 39 And ye, the hous of Israel, the Lord God seith these thingis, Go ye ech man aftir youre idols, and serue ye tho. That and if ye heren not me in this, and defoulen more myn hooli name in youre yiftis, 40 and in youre idols, in myn hooli hil, in the hiy hil of Israel, seith the Lord God, ye schulen be punyschid greuouusliere. There al the hous of Israel schal serue me, sotheli alle men in the lond, in which thei schulen plese me; and there Y schal seke youre firste fruytis, and the bigynnyng of youre tithis in alle youre halewyngis. 41 Y schal resseieue you in to odour of swetnesse, whanne Y schal leede you out of puplis, and schal gadere you fro londis, in whiche ye weren scaterid; and Y schal be halewid in you bifor the iyen of naciouns. 42 And ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal bringe you in to the lond of Israel, in to the lond for which Y reiseide myn hond, that Y schulde yuue it to youre fadris. 43 And ye schulen haue mynde there on youre weies, and on alle youre grete trespassis, bi whiche ye ben defoulid in tho; and ye schulen displese you in youre siyt, in alle youre malices whiche ye diden. 44 And ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal do wel to you for my name; not bi youre yuel weies, nether bi youre worste trespassis, ye hous of Israel, seith the Lord God. 45 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 46 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette thi face ayens the weie of the south, and droppe thou to the south, and profesie thou to the forest of the myddai feeld. 47 And thou schalt seie to the myddai forest, Here thou the word of the Lord. The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal kyndle a fier in thee, and Y schal brenne in thee ech green tre, and ech drie tre; the flawme of brennyng schal not be quenchild, and ech face schal be brent ther ynnre, fro the south til to the north. 48 And ech man schal se, that Y the Lord haue kyndlid it, and it schal not be quenchild. 49 And Y seide, A! A! A! Lord God, thei seien of me, Whethir this man spekith not bi parabis?

21 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette thi face to Jerusalem, and droppe thou to the seyntuaries, and profesie thou ayens the erthe of Israel. 3 And thou schalt seie to the lond of Israel, The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to thee, and Y schal caste my swerd out of his schethe, and Y schal sle in thee a iust man and a wickid man. 4 Forsothe for that that Y haue slayn in thee a iust man and a wickid man, therfor my swerd schal go out of his schethe to ech man, fro the south til to the north; 5 that ech man wite, that Y the Lord haue drawe out my swerd fro his schethe, that schal not be clepid ayen. 6 And thou, sone of man, weile in sorewe of leendis, and in bitternessis thou schalt weile bifore hem. 7 And whanne thei schulen seie to thee, Whi weilst thou? thou schalt seie, For hering, for it cometh; and ech herte shal faile, and alle hondis schulen be aclumsid, and ech spirit schal be sike, and watris schulen flete down bi alle knees; lo! it cometh, and it shal be don, seith the Lord God. 8 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 9 and he seide, Sone of man, profesie thou; and thou schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis, Speke thou, The swerd, the swerd is maad scharp, and is maad briyt; 10 it is maad scharp to sle sacrifices; it is maad briyt, that it schyne. Thou that mouest the ceptre of my sone, hast kit doun ech tree. 11 And Y yaf it to be forbischild, that it be holdun with hond; this swerd is maad scharp, and this is maad briyt, that it be in the hond of the sleere. 12 Sone of man, crie thou, and yelle, for this swerd is maad in my puple, this in alle the duykis of Israel; thei that fledden ben youun to swerd with my puple. Therfor smite thou on thin hipe, for it is preuyd; 13 and this whanne it hath distried the ceptre, and it schal not be, seith the Lord God. 14 Therfor, sone of man, profesie thou, and smyte thou hond to hond, and the swerd be doubled, and the swerd of sleeris be treblid; this is the swerd of greet sleyng, that schal make hem astonyed, 15 and to faile in herte, and multiplieth fallingis. In alle the yatis of hem Y yaf disturbling of a swerd, scharp and maad briyt to schyne, gird to sleynge. 16 Be thou maad scharp, go thou to the riyt side, ether to the left side, whidur euer the desir of thi face is. 17 Certis and Y schal smyte with hond to hond, and Y schal fille myn indignacioun; Y the Lord spak. 18 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 19 and he seide, And thou, sone of man, sette to thee twei weies, that the swerd of the king of Babiloyne come; bothe schulen go out of o lond, and bi the hond he schal take coniecting; he schal coniecte in the heed of the weie of the citee, 20 settinge a weye, that the swerd come to Rabath of the sones of Amon, and to Juda in to Jerusalem moost strong. 21 For the king of Babiloyne stood in the meeting of twey weies, in the heed of twei weies, and souyte dyuynng, and medlide arowis; he axide idols, and took councel at entrails. 22 Dyuynng was maad to his riyt side on Jerusalem, that he sette engyns, that he opene mouth in sleyng, that he reise vois in yelling, that he sette engyns ayens the yatis, that he bere togidere erthe, that he bilde strengthinges. 23 And he shal be as counceling in veyn goddis answer bifor the iyen of hem, and seruynge the reste of sabatis; but he schal haue mynde on wickidnesse, to take. 24 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For that that ye hadden mynde on youre wickidnesse, and schewiden youre trespassyngis, and youre synnes apperiden in alle youre thouytis, forsothe for that that ye hadden mynde, ye schulen be takun bi hond. 25 But thou, cursid wickid duyck of Israel, whos dai bifor determyned is comun in the tyme of wickidnesse, 26 the Lord God seith these thingis, Do awei the mitre, take awei the coroun; whether it is not this that reiseide the meke man, and made low the hiy man? 27 Wickidnesse, wickidnesse, wickidnesse Y schal putte it; and this schal not be doon til he come, whos the doom is, and Y schal bitake to hym. 28 And thou, sone of man, profesie, and seie, The Lord God seith these thingis to the sones of Amon, and to the schenschiipe of hem; and thou schalt seie, A! thou swerd, A! thou swerd, drawun out to sle, maad bryte, that thou sle and schyne, 29 whanne veyn thingis weren seien to thee, and leesingis weren dyuynnd, that thou schuldist be youun on the neckis of wickid men woundid, the dai of whiche bifore determyned schal come in the tyme of wickidnesse, turne thou ayen in to thi schethe, 30 in to the place in which thou were maad. Y schal deme thee in the lond of thi birthe, 31 and Y schal schede out myn indignacioun on thee; in the fier of my strong veniaunce Y schal blowe in thee, and Y schal yyue thee in to the hondis of vnwise men, and makinge deth. 32 Thou schalt be mete to fier, thi blood schal be in the middis of erthe; thou schalt be youun to foryetyng, for Y the Lord spak.

22 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, And thou, sone of man, whether thou demest not the citee of bloodis? 3 And thou schalt schewe to it alle hise abhomynaciouns, and thou schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis, This is a citee schedinge out blood in the myddis of it silf, that the tyme therof come; and which made idols ayens it silf, that it shulde be defoulid. 4 In thi blood which is shed out of thee, thou trespassidist, and thou art defoulid in thin idols whiche thou madist; and thou madist thi daies to neieye, and thou brouytist the time of thi yeeris. Therfor Y yaf thee schenschiipe to hethene men, and scornng to alle londis that ben niy thee, 5 and that ben fer fro thee; thou foul citee, noble, greet in perisching, thei schulen haue victorie of thee. 6 Lo! princes of Israel, alle in her arm, weren in thee, to schede out blood. 7 Thei punyschiden with wrongis fadir and modir in thee, thei calengiden falsli a comelyng in the myddis of thee, thei maden sori a fadirles child and a widewe at thee. 8 Ye dispisiden my seyntuaries, and ye defouliden my sabatis. 9 Men bacbiteris weren in thee, to schede out blood, and eten on hillis in thee; thei wrouyten greet trespas in the myddis of thee. 10 Thei vnhiliden the schamefulere thingis of the fadir in thee, thei maden low in thee the vnclenesse of a womman in vnclene blood. 11 And ech man wrouyte abhomynacioun ayens the wijf of his neyboire, and the fadir of the hosebonde defoulide his sones wijf vnleuefuli; a brother oppresside in thee his sister, the douytir of his fadir. 12 Thei token yiftis at thee, to schede out blood; thou tokist vsure and ouerabundaunce, and thou calengidist greedili thi neyboris, and thou hast foryete me, seith the Lord God. 13 Lo! Y haue smyte togidere myn hondis on thin aueryce, which thou didist, and on the blood which is sched out in the myddis of thee. 14 Whether thin herte schal susteyne, ether thin hondis schulen haue power in the daies whiche Y schal make to thee? For Y the Lord spak, and Y schal do. 15 And Y schal scatere thee in to naciouns, and Y schal wyndewe thee in to londis; and Y schal make thin vnclenesse to faile fro thee, 16 and Y schal welde thee in the siyt of hethene men; and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord. 17 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, 18 Thou, sone of man, the hous of Israel is turned to me in to dros, ether filthe of irun; alle these ben bras, and tyn, and irun, and leed, in the myddis of furneis, thei ben maad the dros of siluer. 19 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For that alle ye ben turned in to dros, lo! Y schal gadere you togidere in the myddis of Jerusalem, 20 bi gadering togidere of siluer, and of latoun, and of irun, and of tyn, and of leed, in the myddis of furneis; and Y schal kindle ther ynne a fier, to welle togidere; so Y schal gadere you togidere in my strong veniaunce, and in my wraththe, and Y schal reste. And Y schal welle you togidere, 21 and Y schal gadere you togidere, and Y schal sette you a fier in the fier of my strong veniaunce, and ye schulen be wellid togidere in the myddis therof. 22 As siluer is wellid togidere in the myddis of a furneis, so ye schulen be in the myddis therof; and ye schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y haue sched out myn indignacioun on you. 23 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 24 and he seide, Sone of man, seie thou to it, Thou art a lond vncleene, and not bireyned in the dai of strong veniaunce. 25 Sweringe togidere, ether conspiringe of profetis is in the myddis therof; as a lioun roringe and takinge prei, thei deuouriden men, thei token richessis and prijs; thei multipliden widewis therof in the myddis therof. 26 Preestis therof dispisiden my lawe, and defouliden my seyntuaries; thei hadden not difference bitwixe hooli thing and vnholi, thei vnderstoden not bitwixe defoulid thing and cleene thing; and thei turneden awei her iyen fro my sabatis, and Y was defoulid in the myddis of hem. 27 The princes therof in the myddis therof weren as wolues rauyschinge prey, to schede out blood, and to leese men, and in suynghe lucris gredili. 28 Forsothe the profetis therof pargetiden hem with out temperure, and seyen veyn thingis, and dyuyneden leesingis to hem, and seiden, The Lord God seith these thingis, whanne the Lord spak not. 29 The puples of the lond calengiden fals caleng, and rauyschiden bi violence; thei turmentiden a nedi man and pore, and oppressiden a comeling bi fals caleng, with out doom. 30 And Y souyte of hem a man, that schulde sette an hegge bitwixe, and stonde set ayens me for the lond, that Y schulde not distrie it, and Y foond not. 31 And Y schedde out on hem myn indignacioun, and Y wastide hem in the fier of my wrahtthe; Y yeldide the weie of hem on the heed of hem, seith the Lord God.

23 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, twei wymmen weren the douytris of o modir, and diden fornicacioun in Egipt; 3 in her yonge wexyng age thei diden fornicacioun; there the brestis of hem weren maad low, and the tetis of the tyme of mariage of hem weren brokun. 4 Forsothe the names of hem ben, Oolla, the more sistir, and Ooliba the lesse sistir of hir. And Y hadde hem, and thei childiden sones and douytris; certis the names of hem ben Samarie Oolla, and Jerusalem Ooliba. 5 Therfor Oolla dide fornicacioun on me, and was wood on hir louteris, on Assiriens neynghe, 6 clothid with iacinct, princes, and magistratis, yonge men of coueytise, alle kniytis, and stieris of horsis. 7 And sche yaf hir fornicaciouns on hem, on alle the chosun sones of Assiriens; and in alle on whiche sche was wood, sche was defoulid in the vnclennesis of hem. 8 Ferthermore and sche lefte not hir fornicaciouns, whiche sche hadde in Egipt; for whi and thei slepten with hir in the yongthe of hir, and thei braken the tetis of the tyme of mariage of hir, and thei scheden out her fornicacioun on hir. 9 Therfor Y yaf hir in to the hondis of hir louteris, in to the hondis of the sones of Assur, on whos letcherie sche was wood. 10 Thei diskuyderiden the schenschiipe of hir; thei token awei the sones and the douytris of hir, and killiden hir with swerd; and the wymmen weren maad famouse, that is, sclaudrid, and thei diden domes in hir. 11 And whanne hir sistir Ooliba hadde seyn this, sche was wood in letcherie more than that sistre, and yaf vnschamefastli hir fornicacioun on the fornicacioun of hir sistre, 12 to the sones of Assiriens, to

And whanne sche hadde seyn men peyntid in the wal, the ymagis of Caldeis expressid with colouris, 15 and gird on the reynes with kniytis girdlis, and cappis peyntid in the heedis of hem, the foormes of alle duykis, the licnesse of the sones of Babiloyne, and of the lond of Caldeis, in which thei weren borun; 16 sche was wood on hem bi coueitise of hir iyen, and sche sente messangeris to hem in to Caldee. 17 And whanne the sones of Babiloyne weren comun to hir, to the bed of tetis, thei defouliden hir in her letcheries of virgyns; and sche was defoulid of hem, and the soule of hir was fillid of hem. 18 Also sche made nakid hir fornicaciouns, and diskuyered hir schenschiipe; and my soule yede awei fro hir, as my soule hadde go awei fro hir sistir. 19 For sche multiplied hir fornicaciouns, and hadde mynde on the daies of hir yongthe, in whiche sche dide fornicacioun in the lond of Egipt. 20 And sche was wood in letcherie on the liggyng bi of hem, whos fleischis ben as the fleischis of assis, and as the membris of horsis ben the membris of hem. 21 And thou visitidist the grete trespas of thi yongthe, whanne thi brestis weren maad low in Egipt, and the tetis of the tyme of thi mariage weren brokun. 22 Therfor, thou Ooliba, the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Thi greet 30 trespas and thi fornicaciouns han do these thingis to thee; for thou didist fornicacioun afir hethene men, among whiche thou were defoulid in the idols of hem. 31 Thou yedist in the weie of thi sister, and Y schal yyue the cuppe of hir in thin hond. 32 The Lord God seith these thingis, Thou schalt drinke the cuppe of thi sistir, the depthe, and the broodnesse;

thou that art most able to take, schalt be in to scornynge, and in to mouwying. 33 Thou schalt be fillid with drunkenesse and sorewe, with the cuppe of mourenying and of heuynesse, with the cuppe of thi sister Samarie. 34 And thou schalt drynke it, and thou schalt drinke of til to the drastis, and thou schalt deuoure the relifs therof, and thou schalt to-reende thi brestis, for Y the Lord spak, seith the Lord God. 35 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For thou hast foryete me, and hast cast forth me bihynde thi bodi, bere thou also thi greet trespas and thi fornicacioun. 36 And the Lord God seide to me, and spak, Sone of man, whether thou demest Ooliba and Oolla, and tellist to hem the grete trespassis of hem? 37 For thei didnen auowtrie, and blood was in the hondis of hem, and thei didnen fornicacioun with her idols; fethermore and thei offriden to tho the sones whiche thei gendriden to me, for to be deuourid. 38 But also thei didnen this to me, thei defouleden my seyntuarie in that dai, and maden vnhooli my sabatis. 39 And whanne thei sacrificiden her sones to her idols, and enriden in to my seyntuarie in that dai, that thei schulden defoule it, thei didnen also these thingis in the myddis of myn hous. 40 Thei senten to men comyng fro fer, to whiche thei hadden sent messangeris. Therfor lo! thei camen, to whiche thou waischidist thee, and anyntidist thin iyen with oynement of wymmen, and thou were ourned with wymmens atier. 41 Thou satist in a ful fair bed, and a boord was ourned bifor thee; thou settidist myn encense and myn oynement on it. 42 And a vois of multitude makynge ful out ioie was ther ynne; and in men that weren brouyt of the multitude of men, and camen fro desert, thei settiden bies in the hondis of hem, and faire corouns on the heedis of hem. 43 And Y seide to hir, that was defouled in auoutries, Now also this schal do fornyacioun in hir fornicacioun. 44 And thei enriden to hir; as to a womman, an hoore, so thei enriden to Oolla and to Ooliba, cursid wymmen. 45 Therfor these men ben iust, these schulen deme thilke wymmen bi the doom of auoutressis, and bi the doom of hem that scheden out blood; for thei ben auoutressis, and blood is in the hondis of hem, and thei didnen fornicacioun with her idols. 46 For the Lord God seith these thingis, Bringhe thou multitudis to hem, and yyue thou hem in to noise, and in to raueyn; 47 and be thei stoonyd with the stoonys of puplis, and be thei stikid togidere with the swerdis of hem. Thi richessis and al thi multitude that was in the myddis of thee fellen doun; 35 alle the dwellers of ilis and the kyngis of tho weren astonyed on thee. Alle thei weren smytun with tempest, and chaungiden cheris; 36 the marchauntis of puplis hissiden on thee. Thou art brouyt to nouyt, and thou schalt not be til `in to with outen ende.

28 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, seie thou to the prince of Tire, The Lord God seith these thingis, For thin herte was reisid, and thou seidist, Y am God, and Y sat in the chaier of God, in the herte of the see, sithen thou art man and not God, and thou yauest thin herte as the herte of God; lo! 3 thou art wisere than Danyel, ech priuete is not hid fro thee; 4 in thi wisdom and prudence thou madist to thee strengthe, and thou gatist to thee gold and siluer in thi tresouris; 5 in the multitude of thi wisdom, and in thi marchaundie thou multipliedist to thee strengthe, and thin herte was reisid in thi strengthe; 6 therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For thin herte was reisid as the herte of God, therfor lo! 7 Y schal brynge on thee aliens, the strongeste of hethene. And thei schulen make nakid her swerdis on the fairnesse of thi wisdom, and thei schulen defoule thi fairnesse. 8 Thei schulen sle, and drawe doun thee; and thou schalt die bi the deth of vncircumcidid men, in the herte of the see. 9 Whether thou schalt seie, and speke, Y am God, bifore hem that sleen thee; sithen thou art a man, and not God? 10 In the hond of hem that sleen thee, bi deth of vncircumcidid men, thou schalt die in the hond of aliens; for Y the Lord spak, seith the Lord God. 11 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, Thou, sone of man, reise thou weilyng on the kyng of Tیره; 12 and thou schalt seie to hym, The Lord God seith these thingis, Thou a preente of licnesse, ful of wisdom, perfit in fairnesse, 13 were in delicis of paradys of God. Ech precieuse stoon was thin hilyng, sardius, topacius, and iaspis, crisolitus, and onix, and birille, safire, and carbuncle, and smaragde; also gold was the werk of thi fairnesse, and thin hoolis weren maad redi, in the dai in which thou were maad. 14 Thou were cherub holdun forth, and hilynge; and Y settide thee in the hooli hil of God. In the myddis of stoonus set a fier thou yedist, 15 perfit in thi weies for the dai of thi making, til wickidnesse was foundun in thee. 16 In the multitude of thi marchaundie thin ynnere thingis weren fillid of wickidnesse, and thou didist synne; and Y castide thee out of the hil of God, and, thou cherub hilynge fer, Y loste thee fro the myddis of stoonys set a fier. 17 And thin herte was reisd in thi fairnesse, thou lostist thi wisdom in thi fairnesse. Y castide thee doun in to erthe, Y yaf thee bfore the face of kingis, that thei schulden se thee. 18 In the multitude of thi wickidnessis, and in wickidnesse of thi marchaundie thou defoulidist thin haleywyng; therfor Y schal brynge forth fier of the myddis of thee, that schal ete thee; and Y schal yyue thee in to aische on erthe, in the siyt of alle men seyng thee. 19 Alle men that schulen se thee among hethene men, schulen be astonyed on thee; thou art maad nouyt, and thou schalt not be with outen ende. 20 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 21 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, sette thi face ayens Sidon, and thou schalt profesie of it; 22 and schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to thee, Sidon, and Y schal be glorified in the myddis of thee; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal do domes in it, and Y schal be halewid ther ynnere. 23 And Y schal sende pestilence in to it, and blood in the stretis therof, and slayn men bi swerd schulen falle doun in the myddis therof bi cumpas; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God. 24 And there schal no more be an hirtyng of bitternesse to the hous of Israel, and a thorn bryngyng in sorewe on ech side bi the cumpas of hem that ben aduersaries to hem; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God. 25 The Lord God seith these thingis, Whanne Y schal gadere togidere the hous of Israel fro puplis, among whiche thei ben scaterid, Y schal be halewid in hem bifor hethene men. And thei schulen dwelle in her lond, which Y yaf to my seruauht Jacob. 26 And thei schulen dwelle sikir ther ynnere, and thei schulen bilde housis, and thei schulen plaunte vynes, and thei schulen dwelle tristili, whanne Y schal make domes in alle men that ben aduersaries to hem bi cumpas; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God of hem.

29 In the tenthre year, in the tweluethre monethe, in the firstre dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, 2 Thou, sone of man, sette thi face ayens Farao, king of Egipt; and thou schalt profesie of hym, and of al Egipt. 3 Speke thou, and thou schalt seie, The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to thee, thou Farao, kyng of Egipt, thou grete dragoun, that liggist in the myddis of thi floodis, and seist, The flood is myn, and Y made myslyf. 4 And Y schal sette a bridil in thi chekis, and Y schal glue the fischis of thi floodis to thi scalis; and Y schal drawe thee out of the myddis of thi floodis, and alle thi fischis schulen cleue to thi scalis. 5 And Y schal caste thee forth in to desert, and alle the fischis of thi flood; on the face of erthe thou schalt falle doun, thou schalt not be gaderid, nethir schalt be gaderid togidere; to the beestis of erthe, and to the volatilis of the eir Y yaf thee to be deuourid. 6 And alle the dwelleris of Egipt schulen knowe, that Y am the Lord. For that that thou were a staf of rehed to the hous of Israel, whanne thei token thee with hond, 7 and thou were brokun, and to-rentist ech schuldre of hem, and whanne thei residen on thee, thou were maad lesse, and thou hast discomfortid alle the reynes of hem; 8 therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal bringe a swerd on thee, and Y schal sle of thee man and beeste; 9 and the lond of Egipt schal be in to desert, and in to wildirnesse, and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. For that that thou seidist, The flood is myn, and Y made it, therfor lo! 10 Y to thee, and to thi floodis. And Y schal yyue 'in to wildirnesses the lond of Egipt distried bi swerd, fro the tour of Sienes til to the termes of Ethiopie. 11 The foot of man schal not passe bi it, nether the foot of beeste schal go in it, and it schal not be enhabitid in fourti year. 12 And Y schal yyue the lond of Egipt forsakun, in the myddis of londis forsakun, and the citees therof in the myddis of a citee distried, and tho schulen be desolat bi fourti year. And Y schal scaterre Egiptians in to naciouns, and Y schal wyndewe hem in to londis. 13 For the Lord God seith these thingis, After the ende of fourti year Y schal gadere togidere Egipt fro puplis, among whiche thei weren scaterid; 14 and Y schal bringe ayen the caitife of Egipte. And Y schal sette hem in the lond of Phatures, in the lond of her birthe; and thei schulen be there in to a meke rewme, 15 and among othere rewmes it schal be most low, and it schal no more be reisd ouer naciouns. And Y schal make hem lesse, that thei regne not on hethene men; 16 and thei schulen no more be to the hous of Israel in trist, techinge wickidnesse, that thei fle, and sue hem; and thei schulen knowe, that Y am the Lord God. 17 And it was don in the seuene and twentiethre year, in the firstre monethe, in the firstre dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 18 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, made his oost to serue bi greet seruyce ayens Tیره; ech heed was maad ballid, and ech schuldir was maad bare of heer, and meede was not yoldun of Tیره to hym, nether to his oost, for the seruyce bi which he seruede to me ayens it. 19 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y schal yyue Nabugodonosor, kyng of Babiloyne, in the lond of Egipt, and he schal take the multitude therof; and he schal take in preye the clothis therof, and he schal rauysche the spuylis therof, and meede schal be to his oost, 20 and to the werk for which he seruyde to me ayens it; and Y yaf the lond of Egipt to hym, for that that he trauelide to me, seith the Lord God. 21 In that dai an horn of the hous of Israel schal come forth, and Y schal yyue to thee an open mouth in the myddis of hem; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

30 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, profesie thou, and seie, The Lord

God seith these thingis, Yelle ye, Wo! 3 wo! to the dai, for the dai is niy; and the dai of the Lord neiyth, the dai of a cloude. The tyme of hethene men schal be; 4 and a swerd schal come in to Egipt, and drede schal be in Ethiopie, whanne woundid men schulen falle down in Egipt, and the multitude therof schal be takun awei, and the foundementis therof schulen be distried. 5 Ethiopie, and Libie, and Lidiens, and al the residue comyn puple, and Chub, and the sones of the lond of boond of pees schulen falle down bi swerd with hem. 6 The Lord God seith these thingis, And thei that vndursetten Egipt schulen falle down, and the pride of the lordschipe therof schal be destried; fro the tour of Sienes thei schulen falle bi swerd ther ynn, seith the Lord of oostis. 7 And thei schulen be distried in the myddis of londis maad desolat, and the citees therof schulen be in the myddis of citees forsakun. 8 And thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord God, whanne Y schal yyue fier in Egipt, and alle the helperis therof schulen be al to-brokun. 9 In that dai messengeris schulen go out fro my face in schippis with thre ordris of ooris, to al to-breke the trist of Ethiopie; and drede schal be in hem in the dai of Egipt, for with out doute it schal come. 10 The Lord God seith these thingis, And I schal make to ceesse the multitude of Egipt in the hond of Nabugodonosor, king of Babiloyne. 11 He and his puple with hym, the strongeste men of hethene men, schulen be brouyt, to leese the lond; and thei schulen drawe out her swerdis on Egipt, and thei schulen fille the lond with slayn men. 12 And Y schal make drie the botmes of floodis, and Y schal yyue the lond in the hond of the worste men; and I schal distrie the lond, and the fulnesse therof in the hond of aliens; Y the Lord spak. 13 The Lord God seith these thingis, And Y schal leese simylacris, and Y schal make idols to ceesse fro Memphis, and a duyck of the lond of Egipt schal no more be. And Y schal yyue drede in the lond of Egipt, 14 and Y schal leese the lond of Phatures. And Y schal yyue fier in Tafnys, and Y schal make my domes in Alisaundre. 15 And Y schal schede out myn indignacioun on Pelusium, the strengthe of Egipt; and Y schal sle the multitude of Alisaundre, 16 and Y schal yyue fier in Egipt. Pelusium, as a womman trauelynge of child, schal haue sorewe, and Alisaundre schal be destried, and in Memphis schulen be ech daies angwischis. 17 The yonge men of Heliopoleos and of Bubasti schulen falle down bi swerd, and tho citees schulen be led caitifs. 18 And in Tafnys the dai schal wexe blak, whanne Y schal al to-breke there the ceptris of Egipt, and the pride of the power therof schal faile there ynn. A cloude schal hile it; forsothe the douytris therof schulen be led in to caitiffe, and Y schal make domes in Egipt; 19 and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 20 And it was doon in the enleuenthe yeer, in the firste monethe, in the seuenthe dai of the moneth, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 21 and he seide, Thou sone of man, Y haue broke the arm of Farao, kyng of Egipt; and lo! it is not wlapid, that helthe schulde be restorid therto, that it schulde be boundun with clothis, and woundun with lynnun clothis, and that he myyte holde swerd, whanne he hadde resseyued strengthe. 22 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y to Farao, king of Egipt; and Y schal make lesse his strong arm but brokun, and Y schal caste down the swerd fro his hond. 23 And Y schal scatere Egipt among hethene men, and Y schal wyndewe hem in londis. 24 And Y schal coumforte the armes of the kyng of Babiloyne, and Y schal yyue my swerd in the hond of hym; and Y schal breke the armes of Farao, and men slayn bfore his face schulen weile bi weilyngis. 25 And Y schal coumforte the armes of the kyng of Babiloyne, and the armes of Farao schulen falle down. And thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal yyue my swerd in the hond of the kyng of Babiloyne; and he schal stretche forth it on the lond of Egipt. 26 And Y schal scatere Egipt in to naciouns, and Y schal wyndewe hem in to londis; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord.

31 And it was don in the enleuenthe yeer, in the thridde moneth, in the firste dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, seie to Farao, kyng of Egipt, and to his puple, To whom art thou maad lijk in th greetnesse? 3 Lo! Assur as a cedre in Liban, fair in braunchis, and ful of boowis, and hiy bi hiynesse; and his heihte was reisid among thicke bowis. 4 Watris nurschiden hym, the depthe of watris enhaunsid him; hise floodis fletiden out in the cumpas of hise rootis, and he sente out hise strondis to alle the trees of the cuntrei. 5 Therfor his hiynesse was enhaunsid ouer alle trees of the cuntrei, and hise trees weren multiplied, and hise braunchis weren reisid, for many watris. 6 And whanne he hadde stretchid forth his schadewe, alle the volatils of the eir maden nestis in hise braunchis; and alle the beestis of forestis gendriden vndur hise boowis, and the cumpeny of ful many folkis dwellide vndur the schadewynge place of hym. 7 And he was ful fair in his greetnesse, and in alargyng of hise trees; for the roote of hym was bisidis many watris. 8 Cedris in the paradijs of God weren not hiyere than he; fir trees atteyneden not euenli to the hiynesse of hym, and plane trees weren not euene with the boowis of hym. Ech tree of paradijs of God was not maad lic hym and his fairnesse. 9 For Y made hym fair, and with many and thicke boowis; and alle the trees of lust, that weren in the paradijs of God, hadden enuye to hym. 10 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, For that that he was reisid in hiynesse, and he yaf his hiynesse greene and thicke, and his herte was reisid in his hiynesse; 11 now Y haue youe hym in to the hondis of the strongeste man of hethene men. And he doynge schal do to that Assur; after the vnfeithfulnesse of hym Y castide hym out. 12 And aliens, and the moost cruel men of naciouns, schulen kitte hym down, and schulen caste hym forth on hillis. And hise braunchis schulen falle down in alle grete valeis, and hise trees schulen be brokun in alle roochis of stoon of erthe. And alle the puplis of erthe schulen go awei fro his schadewing place, and schulen forsake hym. 13 Alle volatils of the eir dwelliden in the fallyng of hym, and alle beestis of the cuntrei weren in the braunchis of hym. 14 Wherfor alle the trees of watris schulen not be reisid in hir hiynesse, nether schulen sette hir hiynesse among places ful of woode, and ful of boowis, and alle trees that ben moistid of watris schulen not stonde in the hiynesse of tho. For alle thei ben youun in to deth, to the ferthest lond in the myddis of the sones of men, to hem that goon down in to the lake. 15 The Lord God seith these thingis, In the dai whanne he yede down to hellis, Y brouyte yn mourenyng; Y hilde hym with depthe of watris, and I forbode his floodis, and Y refreynede many watris. The Liban was sori on him, and alle the trees of the feeld (Sheol h7585) 16 weren shakun of the soun of his falling. I mouide togidere hethene men, whanne Y ledde hym down to helle, with hem that yeden down in to the lake. And alle trees of likyng, noble trees, and ful cleere in the Liban, alle that weren moistid with watris, weren coumfortid in the loweste lond. (Sheol h7585) 17 For whi also thei schulen go down with hym to helle, to slayn men with swerd; and the arm of ech man schal sitte vndur the schadewyng place of hym, in the myddis of naciouns. (Sheol h7585) 18 To whom art thou ligned, thou noble and hy among the trees of likyng? Lo! thou art led down with the trees of likyng to the fertheeste lond. In the myddis of vncircumcidid men thou schalt slepe, with hem that ben slayn bi swerd. Thilke is Farao, and al the multitude of hym, seith the Lord God.

32 And it was don in the twelueth yee, in the twelueth monethe, in the firste dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, take weilyng on Farao, kyng of Egipt, and thou schalt seie to hym, Thou were maad lijk to a lioun of hethene men, and to a dragoun whiche is in the see. And thou wyndewist with horn in thi floodis, and thou disturblidist watris with thi feet, and defoulidist the floodis of tho. 3 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, Y schal spredde abroad my net on thee in the multitude of many puples, and Y schal drawe thee out in my net; 4 and Y schal caste forth thee in to erthe. On the face of the feeld Y schal caste thee awei, and Y schal make alle the volatils of heuene to dwelle on thee, and Y schal fille of thee the beestis of al erthe. 5 And Y schal yyue thi fleischis on hillis, and Y schal fille thi litle hillis with thi root; 6 and Y schal moiste the erthe with the stynk of thi blood on mounteyns, and valeis schulen be fillid of thee. 7 And whanne thou schalt be quenchild, Y schal hile heuenes, and Y schal make blak the sterris therof; Y schal kyure the sunne with a clowde, and the moone schal not yyue hir liyt. 8 Y schal make alle the liyt yyueris of heuene to mourne on thee, and Y schal yyue derknessis on thi lond, seith the Lord God; whanne thi woundid men schulen falle down in the myddis of erthe, seith the Lord God. 9 And Y schal terre to wraththe the herte of many pupilis, whanne Y schal bringe in thi sorewe among folkis, on londis whiche thou knowist not. 10 And Y schal make many pupilis to wondre on thee, and the kyngis of hem schulen drede with ful greet hidousnesse on thee, for alle thi wickidnessis whiche thou wrouytist, whanne my swerd schal bigynne to flee on the faces of hem. And alle men schulen be astonyed sudenli, for her lijf, in the dai of her fallyng. 11 For the Lord God seith these thingis, The swerd of the king of Babiloyne schal come to thee; 12 in swerdis of stronge men Y schal caste down thi multitude, alle these folkis ben not able to be ouercomun. And thei schulen waste the pride of Egipt, and the multitude therof schal be distried. 13 And Y schal leese alle the beestis therof, that weren on ful many watris; and the foot of a man schal no more trouble tho watris, nether the cleef of beestis schal trouble tho. 14 Thanne Y schal yelde the watris of hem clenneste, and Y schal brynge the floodis of hem as oile, seith the Lord God, 15 whanne Y schal yyue desolat the lond of Egipt. Forsothe the lond schal be forsakun of his fulnesse, whanne Y schal smyte alle the dwellers therof; and thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord. 16 It is a weiling, and the douytris of hethene men schulen biweile hym; thei schulen biweile hym on Egipt, and thei schulen biweile hym on the multitude therof, seith the Lord God. 17 And it was don in the twelueth yee, in the fiftenthe dai of the monethe, the word of the Lord was maad to me, 18 and he seide, Sone of man, synge thou a song of weilyng on the multitude of Egipt, and drawe thou down it the same, and the douytris of stronge hethene men to the laste lond, with hem that yeden down in to the lake. 19 In as myche as thou art fairere, go down, and slepe with vncircumcidid men. 20 In the myddis of slayn men thei schulen falle down bi swerd; a swerd is youun, and thei drowen it to, and alle the pupilis therof. 21 The myytieste of stronge men schulen speke to hym, fro the myddis of helle, whiche with her helperis yeden down, and slepten vncircumcidid, and slayn bi swerd. (Sheol h7585) 22 There is Assur, and al his multitude; the sepulcris of hem ben in the cumpas of hym, alle slayn men, and that fellen down bi swerd, 23 whose sepulcris ben youun in the laste thingis of the lake. And the multitude of hym is maad bi the cumpas of his sepulcre, alle slayn men, and fallynge down bi swerd, whiche yauen sum tyme her ferdfulnesse in the lond of Iyuyng men. 24 There is Helam, and al the multitude therof bi the cumpas of his sepulcre; alle these weren slayn, and fallynge down bi swerd, that yeden down vncircumcidid to the laste lond; whiche settiden her drede in the lond of Iyuyng men, and baren her schenschiipe with hem that goon down in to the lake. 25 In the myddis of slayn men thei puttiden his bed in alle the pupilis of hym; his sepulcre is in the cumpas of hym. Alle these weren vncircumcidid and slayn bi swerd, for thei yauen drede in the lond of Iyuyng men, and baren her schenschiipe with hem that gon down in to the lake; thei ben set in the myddis of slayn men. 26 There ben Mosoch and Tubal, and al the multitude therof; the sepulcris therof ben in the cumpasse therof. Alle these men vncircumcidid weren slayn, and fallynge down bi swerd, for thei yauen her drede in the lond of Iyuyng men. 27 And thei schulen not slepe with stronge men, and fallynge down, and vncircumcidid, that yeden down in to helle with her armuris, and puttiden her swerdis vndur her heedis. And the wickidnessis of hem weren in the boonys of hem, for thei weren maad the drede of stronge men in the lond of Iyuyng men. (Sheol h7585) 28 And thou therfor schalt be al to-fould in the myddis of vncircumcidid men, and schalt slepe with hem that ben slayn bi swerd. 29 There is Idumee, and the kingis therof, and alle duykis therof, that ben youun with her oost, with men slayn bi swerd, and which slepten with vncircumcidid men, and with hem that yeden down in to the lake. 30 There ben alle princes of the north, and alle hunteris, that weren led forth with slayn men, that ben dredinge and schent in her strengthe, which slepten vncircumcidid with men slayn bi swerd, and baren her schenschiipe with hem that yeden down in to the lake. 31 Farao siy hem, and was coumfortid on al his multitude that was slayn bi swerd. And Farao and al his oost, seith the Lord God, baren her schenscipe with hem that yeden down in to the lake; 32 for he yaf his drede in the lond of Iyuyng men. And Farao and al his multitude slepte in the myddis of vncircumcidid men, with men slayn bi swerd, seith the Lord God.

33 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Thou, sone of man, speke to the sonnes of thi puple, and thou schalt seie to hem, A lond whanne Y bringe in a swerd on it, and the puple of the lond takith o man of hise laste men, and makith hym aspiere on hym, 3 and he seeth a swerd comyng on the lond, and sowneth with a clarioun, and tellith to the puple, 4 forsothe a man that herith, who euer he is, the sowne of the clarioun, and kepith not him silf, and the swerd cometh, and takith hym awei, the blood of hym schal be on the heed of hym. 5 He herde the sown of the clarioun, and kepte not hym silf, his blood schal be in hym; forsothe if he kepith hym silf, he schal saue his lijf. 6 That if the aspiere seeth a swerd comyng, and sowneth not with a clarioun, and the puple kepith not hym silf, and the swerd cometh, and takith awei a man of hem, sotheli he is takun in his wickidnesse; but Y schal seke the blood of hym of the hond of the aspiere. 7 And, thou, sone of man, Y yaf thee aspiere to the hous of Israel; therfor thou schalt here of my mouth a word, and schalt telle to hem of me. 8 If whanne Y seie to the wickid man, Thou, wickid man, schalt die bi deth, thou spekest not, that the wickid man kepe hym silf fro his weie, thilke wickid man schal die in his wickidnesse, but Y schal seke his blood of thin hond. 9 Forsothe if whanne thou tellist to the wickid man, that he be conuertid fro his weies, he is not conuertid fro his weie, he schal die in his wickidnesse; certis thou hast delyuered thi soule. 10 Therefore thou, sone of man, seie to the hous of Israel, Thus ye spaken, seiynge, Oure wickidnessis and oure synnes ben on vs, and we failen in tho; hou therfor moun we lyue? seie thou to hem, 11 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, Y nyle the deth of the wickid man, but that the wickid man be conuertid fro his weie, and lyue; be ye conuertid fro youre worste weies, and whi schulen ye die, the hous of Israel? 12 Therfor thou, sone of man, seie to the sonnes of thi puple, The riytfulnesse of a riytful man schal not delyuere hym, in whateuer dai he doith synne; and the wickidnesse of a wickid man schal not anoye him, in what euere dai he is conuertid fro his wickidnesse; and a iust man schal not mowe lyue in his riytfulnesse, in what euer dai he doith synne. 13 Also if Y seie to a iust man, that he schal lyue bi lijf, and he tristith in his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnesse, alle his riytfulnessis schulen be youun to foryetyng, and in his wickidnesse which he wrouyte, in that he schal die. 14 Forsothe if Y seie to the wickid man, Thou schalt die bi deth, and he doith penaunce for his synne, and doith dom and riytfulnesse, 15 and if thilke wickid man restorith a wed, and yeldith raueyn, and goith in comaundementis of lijf, and doith not ony vniust thing, he schal lyue bi lijf, and schal not die. 16 Alle hise synnes which he synnede, schulen not be arettid to hym; he hide doom and riytfulnesse, he schal lyue bi lijf. 17 And the sonnes of thi puple seiden, The weie of the Lord is not euene weiyte; and the weie of hem is vniust. 18 For whanne a iust man goith awei fro his riytfulnesse, and doith wickidnessis, he schal die in tho; 19 and whanne a wickid man goith awei fro his wickidnesse, and doith dom and riytfulnes, he schal lyue in tho. 20 And ye seien, The weie of the Lord is not riytful. Y schal deme ech man bi hise weies of you, the hous of Israel. 21 And it was doon in the tweluethe yeer, in the tenthe monethe, in the fyuethe dai of the monethe of our passyng ouer, he that fledde fro Jerusalem cam to me, and seide, The citee is distried. 22 Forsothe the hond of the Lord was maad to me in the euentid, bifore that he cam that fledde, and he openyde my mouth, til he cam to me eerli; and whanne my mouth was openyd, Y was no more stille. 23 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, and he seide, 24 Thou, sone of man, thei that dwellen in `thingis in poynt to falle down on the erthe of Israel, seien, spekyng, Abraham was oon, and bi eritage he hadde the lond in possessioun; forsothe we ben manye, the lond is youun to vs in to possessioun. 25 Therfor thou schalt seie to hem, The Lord God seith these thingis, Whether ye that eten in blood, and reisen youre iyen to youre vnclennesis, and scheden blood, schulen haue in possessioun the lond bi eritage? 26 Ye stoden in youre swerdis, ye diden youre abhominaciouns, and ech man defoulde the wijf of his neiybore; and schulen ye welde the lond bi eritage? 27 Thou schalt seie these thingis to hem, Thus seith the Lord God, Y lyue, for thei that dwellen in `thingis redi to falle down, schulen falle down bi swerd, and he that is in the feld, schal be youun to beestis to be deuourid; but thei that ben in stronge holdis and in dennes, schulen die bi pestilence. 28 And Y schal yyue the lond in to wildirnesse, and in to desert, and the pryde and strengthe therof schal faile; and the hillis of Israel schulen be maad desolat, for noon is that schal passe bi tho. 29 And thei schulen wite, that Y am the Lord, whanne Y schal yyue her lond desolat and desert, for alle her abhominaciouns whiche thei wrouyten. 30 And thou, sone of man, the sonnes of thi puple that speken of thee bisidis wallis, and in the doris of housis, and seien, oon to an other, a man to his neiybore, and speken, Come ye, and here we, what is the word goyng out fro the Lord; 31 and thei comen to thee, as if my puple enirth, and my puple sitten bifore thee, and thei heren thi wordis, and doon not tho; for thei turnen tho in to the song of her mouth, and her herte sueth her auerice; 32 and it is to hem as a song of musik, which is songun bi soft and swete sown; and thei heren thi wordis, and thei doon not tho; 33 and whanne that that is bifore seide cometh, for lo! it cometh, thanne thei schulen wite, that `profetis weren among hem.

34 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 2 and he seide, Sone of man, profesie thou of the schepherdis of Israel, profesie thou; and thou schalt seie to the schepherdis, The Lord God seith these thingis, Wo to the schepherdis of Israel, that fedden hym silf; whether flockis ben not fed of schepherdis? 3 Ye eeten mylk, and weren hilid with wollis, and ye killiden that that was fat; but ye fedden not my floc. 4 Ye maden not sad that that was vnstidfast, and ye maden not hool that that was sijck; ye bounden not that that was brokun, and ye brouyten not ayen that that was cast awei, and ye souyten not that that perischide;

but ye comaundiden to hem with sturnenesse, and with power. 5 And my scheep weren scaterid, for no sheepherde was; and thei weren maad in to deuouryng of alle beestis of the feeld, and thei weren scaterid. 6 My flockis erriden in alle mounteyns, and in ech hiy hil, and my flockis weren scaterid on al the face of erthe, and noon was that souyte. 7 Therfor, sheepherdis, here ye the word of the Lord; 8 Y lyue, seith the Lord God, for whi for that that my flockis ben maad in to raueyn, and my scheep in to deuouryng of alle beestis of the feeld, for that that no sheepherde was, for the sheepherdis souyten not my floc, but the sheepherdis fedden hem silf, and fedden not my flockis; therfor, 9 sheepherdis, here ye the word of the Lord, 10 The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y my silf am ouer sheepherdis; Y schal seke my floc of the hond of hem, and Y schal make hem to ceesse, that thei fede no more my floc, and that the sheepherdis feede no more hem silf. And Y schal delyuere my floc fro the mouth of hem, and it schal no more be in to mete to hem. 11 For the Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y my silf schal seke my scheep, and Y schal visite hem. 12 As a sheepherde visitith his floc, in the dai whanne he is in the myddis of hise scheep that ben scaterid, so Y schal visite my scheep; and Y schal delyuere hem fro alle places in whiche thei weren scaterid, in the dai of cloude, and of derknesse. 13 And Y schal leede hem out of puplis, and Y schal gadere hem fro londis, and Y schal brynge hem in to her lond, and Y schal feede hem in the hillis of Israel, in ryueris, and in alle seetis of erthe. 14 Y schal feede hem in moost plenteouse pasturis, and the lesewis of hem schulen be in the hiy hillis of Israel; there thei schulen reste in greene eerbis, and in fatte lesewis thei schulen be fed on the hillis of Israel. 15 Y schal fede my scheep, and Y schal make hem to ligge, seith the Lord God. 16 I schal seke that that perischide, and Y schal brynge ayen that that was cast awei; and Y schal bynde that that was brokun, and Y schal make sad that that was sijik; and Y schal kepe that that was fat and strong; and Y schal feede hem in doom; 17 forsothe ye ben my flockis. The Lord God seith these thingis, Lo! Y deme bitwixe beeste and beeste, and a wethir and a buc of geet. 18 Whether it was not enow to you to deuoure good pasturis? Ferthermore and ye defouliden with youre feet the remenauntis of youre lesewis, and whanne ye drunken clereste watir, ye disturbliden the residue with youre feet. 19 And my scheep weren fed with tho thingis that weren defoulid with youre feet; and thei drunken these thingis, that youre feet hadden troblid. 20 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis to you, Lo! Y my silf deme bitwixe a fat beeste and a leene beeste. 21 For that that ye hurliden with sidis, and schuldris, and wyndewiden with youre hornes alle sike beestis, til tho weren scaterid withoutforth, I schal saue my floc, 22 and it schal no more be in to raueyn. And Y schal deme bitwixe beeste and beeste; 23 and Y schal reise on tho o sheepherde, my seruauant Dauid, that schal fede tho; he schal fede tho, and he schal be 'in to a sheepherde to hem. 24 Forsothe Y the Lord schal be in to God to hem, and my seruauant Dauid schal be prince in the myddis of hem; Y the Lord spak. 25 And Y schal make with hem a couenaunt of pees, and Y schal make worste beestis to ceesse fro erthe; and thei that

And al the entryng of tho, and the licnessis and doris of tho, 12 weren lijk the doris of treseries that weren in the weye biholdyng to the south; a dore was in the heed of the weye, which weie was bifor the porche departid to men entringe bi the eest weie. 13 And he seide to me, The treseries of the north, and the treseries of the south, that ben bifor the bilydng departid, these ben hooli treseries, in whiche the preestis ben clothid, that neiyen to the Lord in to the hooli of hooli thingis; there thei schulen putte the hooli of hooli thingis, and offryngis for synne, and for trespas; for it is an hooli place. 14 Sotheli whanne prestis han entrid, thei schulen go out of hooli thingis in to the outermore halle; and there thei schulen putte vp her clothis, in whiche thei mynystren, for tho ben hooli; and thei schulen be clothid in othere clothis, and so thei schulen go forth to the puple. 15 And whanne he hadde fillid the mesuris of the ynnere hous, he ledde me out bi the weie of the yate that biheelde to the eest weie; and he mat it on ech side bi cumpas. 16 Forsothe he mat ayens the eest wynd with the rehed of mesure bi cumpas fyue hundrid rehedis, in a rehed of mesure bi cumpas. 17 And he mat ayens the wynd of the north fyue hundred rehedis, in the rehed of mesure bi cumpas. 18 And at the south wynd he mat fyue hundrid rehedis, with a rehed of mesure bi cumpas. 19 And at the west wynd he mat fyue hundrid rehedis, with the rehed of mesure. 20 Bi foure wyndis he mat the wal therof on ech side bi cumpas, the lengthe of fyue hundrid, and the breede of fyue hundrid, departyng bitwixe the seyntuarie and the place of the comyn puple.

43 And he ledde me out to the yate, that bihelde to the eest weie. 2 And lo! the glorie of God of Israel entride bi the eest weie; and a vois was to it, as the vois of many watris, and the erthe schynede of the mageste of hym. 3 And Y siy a visioun, bi the licnesse whiche Y hadde seyn, whanne he cam to distrie the citee; and the licnesse was lijk the biholdyng whiche Y hadde seyn bisidis the flood Chobar. 4 And Y felle down on my face, and the mageste of the Lord entride in to the temple, bi the weie of the yate that biheeld to the eest. 5 And the Spirit reiseide me, and ledde me in to the ynnere halle; and lo! the hous was fillid of the glorie of the Lord. 6 And Y herde oon spekyng to me of the hous. And the man that stood bisidis me, 7 seide to me, Thou, son of man, this is the place of my seete, and the place of the steppis of my feet, where Y dwelle in the myddis of the sones of Israel withouten ende; and the hous of Israel schulen no more defoule myn hooli name, thei, and the kyngis of hem in her fornicaciouns, and in the fallyngis of her kyngis, and in hiy places. 8 Whiche maden her threisfold bisidis my threisfold, and her postis bisidis my postis, and a wal was bitwixe me and hem; and thei defouliden myn hooli name in abhominaciouns whiche thei diden; wherfor Y wastide hem in my wraththe. 9 Now therfor putte thei awei fer her fornicacioun, and the fallyng of her kyngis fro me; and Y schal dwelle euere in the myddis of hem. 10 But thou, sone of man, schewe the temple to the hous of Israel, and be thei schent of her wickednessis; and mete thei the bilding, 11 and be thei aschamed of alle thingis whiche thei diden. Thou schalt schewe to hem, and thou schalt write bifore the iyen of hem the figure of the hous, and of the bilydng therof; the outgoyngis, and the entryngis, and al the discryuyng therof, and alle the comaundementis therof, and al the ordre therof, and alle the lawis therof; that thei kepe alle the discryuyngis therof, and comaundementis therof, and do tho. 12 This is the lawe of the hous, in the hynesse of the hil; alle the coostis therof in cumpas is the hooli of hooli thingis; therfor this is the lawe of the hous. 13 Forsothe these ben the mesuris of the auter, in a verieste cubit, that hadde a cubit and a spanne; in the bosum therof was a cubit in lengthe, and a cubit in breede; and the ende therof til to the brenke, and o spanne in cumpas; also this was the diche of the auter. 14 And fro the bosum of the erthe til to the laste heiythe weren twei cubitis, and the breede of o cubit; and fro the lesse heiythe til to the grettere heiythe were foure cubitis, and the breede was of o cubit; 15 forsothe thilke ariel, that is, the hiyere part of the auter, was of foure cubitis; and fro the auter til to aboue weren foure hornes. 16 And the auter of twelue cubitis in lengthe was foure cornerid with euene sidis, bi twelue cubitis of breede. 17 And the heiythe of fourtene cubitis of lengthe was bi fourtene cubitis of breede, in foure corneris therof. And a coroun of half a cubit was in the cumpas therof, and the bosum therof was of o cubit bi cumpas; forsothe the degrees therof weren turned to the eest. 18 And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, the Lord God seith these thingis, These ben the customs of the auter, in what euer dai it is maad, that me offre on it brent sacrifice, and blood be sched out. 19 And thou schalt yyue to preestis and dekenes, that ben of the seed of Sadoch, that neiyen to me, seith the Lord God, that thei offre to me a calf of the drooue for synne. 20 And thou schalt take of the blood therof, and schalt putte on foure hornes therof, and on foure corneris of heiythe, and on the coroun in cumpas; and thou schalt clense it, and make clene. 21 And thou schalt take the calf which is offrid for synne, and thou schalt brenne it in a departid place of the hous, with out the seyntuarie. 22 And in the secounde dai thou schalt offre a buk of geet, which is with out wem, for synne; and thei schulen clense the auter, as thei clensiden in the calf. 23 And whanne thou hast fillid that clensyng, thou schalt offre a calf of the drooue, which calf is without wem, and a wether with out wem of the floc. 24 And thou schalt offre tho in the siyt of the Lord; and prestis schulen putte salt on tho, and schulen offre tho in to brent sacrifice to the Lord. 25 Bi seuene daies thou schalt make a buk of geet for synne, ech dai; and thei schulen offre a calf of the drooue, and a wether vnwemmed of scheep. 26 Bi seuene daies thei schulen clense the auter, and schulen make it cleene, and thei schulen fille the hond therof. 27 Forsothe whanne seuene daies ben fillid, in the eiythe dai and fether prestis schulen make on the auter youre brent sacrifices, and tho thingis whiche thei offren for pees; and Y schal be plesid to you, seith the Lord God.

44 And he turnede me to the weie of the yate of the outermore seyntuarie, which yate byhelde to the eest, and was closid. 2 And the Lord seide to me, This yate schal be closid, and schal not be opened, and a man schal not passe thorou it; for the Lord God of Israel entride bi it, and it schal be closid to the prince. 3 The prince hym self schal sitte ther ynnere, that he ete breed bifor the Lord; he schal go yn bi the weie of the yate of the porche, and he schal go out bi the weie therof. 4 And he ledde me bi the weie of the north yate, in the siyt of the hous; and Y siy, and lo! the glorie of the Lord fillide the hous of the Lord; and Y felle down on my face. 5 And the Lord seide to me, Thou, sone of man, sette thin herte, and se with thin iyen, and here with thin eiris alle thingis whiche Y speke to thee, of al the ceremonyes of the hous of the Lord, and of alle the lawis therof; and thou schalt sette thin herte in the weies of the temple, bi alle the goyngis out of the seyntuarie. 6 And thou schalt seie to the hous of Israel terryng me to wraththe, The Lord God seith these thingis, Ye hous of Israel, alle youre grete trespassis suffice to you, 7 for ye bryngen in alien sones, vncircumcidid in herte, and vncircumcidid in fleisch, that thei be in my seyntuarie, and defoule myn hous. And ye offren my looues, ynnere fatnesse, and blood, and breken my couenaunt in alle youre grete trespassis. 8 And ye kepten not the comaundementis of my seyntuarie, and ye settiden keperis of my keypyngis in my seyntuarie to you self. 9 The Lord God seith these thingis, Ech alien `that is vncircumcidid in herte, and vncircumcidid in fleisch, schal not entre in to my seyntuarie; ech alien sone, which is in the myddis of the sones of Israel. 10 But also Leuytis, `ether men of the lynage of Leuy, that yeden fer a wei fro me in the errour of the sones of Israel, and erriden fro me aftir her idols, and baren her wickidnesse, 11 thei schulen be keepers of housis in my seyntuarie, and porteris of yatis of the hous, and mynysters of the hous; thei schulen sle brent sacrifices, and sacrifices for victorie of the puple; and thei schulen stonde in the siyt of the prestis, for to mynystre to hem. 12 For that that thei mynystren to tho in the siyt of her idols, and weren maad to the hous of Israel in to offendyng of wickidnesse; therfor Y reise myn hond on them, seith the Lord God, and thei baren her wickidnesse. 13 And thei schulen not neie to me, that thei vse preesthod to me, nether thei schulen neie to al my seyntuarie bisidis hooly of hooli thingis, but thei schulen bere her schenschepe, and her grete trespassis whiche thei diden. 14 And Y schal make hem porteris of the hous, in al the seruyce therof, and in alle thingis that ben don ther ynnere. 15 Forsothe preestis and dekenes, the sones of Sadoch, that kepten the cerymonyes of my seyntuarie, whanne the sones of Israel erriden fro me, thei schulen neie to me, for to mynystre to me; and thei schulen stonde in my siyt, that thei offre to me ynnere fatnesse and blood, seith the Lord God. 16 Thei schulen entre in to my seyntuarie, and thei schulen neie to my boord, that thei mynystre to me, and kepe my ceremonyes. 17 And whanne thei schulen entre in to the yatis of the ynnere halle, 18 thei schulen be clothid with lynnun clothis, nether ony wollun thing schal `be don on hem, whanne thei mynystren in the yatis of the ynnere halle, and with ynnere; lynnun cappis, ether mytris, schulen be in the heedis of hem, and lynnun brechis schulen be in the leendis of hem, and thei schulen not be gird in swoot. 19 And whanne thei schulen go out at the outermere halle to the puple, thei schulen dispuyle hem of her clothis, in whiche thei mynystren, and thei schulen leie tho vp in the treserie of

45 And whanne ye schulen bigynne to departe the lond bi partis, departe ye the firste thingis to the Lord, an halewid thing of the lond, fyue and twenti thousynde of rehedis in lengthe, and ten thousynde of rehedis in breede; it schal be halewid in al the coost therof by cumpas. 2 And it schal be halewid on ech part in fyue hundrid rehedis bi fyue hundrid, in foure sidis bi cumpas, and in fifti cubitis in to the subarbis therof bi cumpas. 3 And fro this mesure thou schalt mete the lengthe of fyue and twenti thousynde of rehedis, and the breede of ten thousynde; and the temple and the hooli of hooli thingis schal be in it. 4 An halewid thing of the lond schal be to prestis, the mynysters of seyntuarie, that neien to the seruyce of the Lord; and a place schal be to hem in to housis, and in to the seyntuarie of hoolynesse. 5 Sotheli fyue and twenti thousynde of lengthe schulen be, and ten thousynde of breede; but the dekenes that mynystren to the hous, thei schulen haue in possessioun twenti treseries. 6 And ye schulen yyue the possessioun of the citee, fyue thousynde rehedis of breede, and fyue and twenti thousynde of lengthe, bi the departyng of the seyntuarie, to al the hous of Israel. 7 And ye schulen yyue a porcioun to the prince on this side and on that side, bisidis the departyng of the seyntuarie, and bisidis the possessioun of the citee, ayens the face of departyng of seyntuarie, and ayens

the face of possessioun of the citee; fro the side of the se til to the see, and fro the side of the eest 'til to the eest, schal be of the possessioun of the prince. Forsothe the lengthe bi ech of the partis, fro the west ende til to the eest ende of the lond, 8 schal be possessioun to hym in Israel; and the princes schulen no more robbe my puple, but thei schulen yyue the lond to the hous of Israel, bi the lynagis of hem. 9 The Lord God seith these thingis, O! princes of Israel, suffice it to you, leue ye wickidnesse 'and raueyns, and do ye doom and riytfulnesse; departe ye youre niy coostis fro my puple, seith the Lord God. 10 A iust balauce, and a iust mesure clepid ephi, and a iust mesure clepid bathus, schulen be to you. 11 Ephi and bathus schulen be euene, and of o mesure, that bathus take the tenthe part of the mesure clepid corus, and that ephi take the tenthe part of the mesure corus; bi the mesure of corus schal be euene weiyng of tho. 12 Forsothe a sicle schal haue twenti halpens; certis twenti siclis, and fyue and twenti siclis, and fiftene siclis maken a besaunt. 13 And these ben the firste fruytis whiche ye schulen take awei; the sixte part of ephi of a corus of wheete, and the sixte part of ephi of a corus of barli. 14 Also the mesure of oile; a bathus of oile is the tenthe part of corus, and ten bathus maken o corus; for ten bathus fillen o corus. 15 And 'a ram of the floc of twei hundrid, of these whiche the men of Israel nurschen, in to sacrifice, and in to brent sacrifice, and in to pesible sacrifices, to clense for hem, seith the Lord God. 16 Al the puple of the lond schal be boundun in these firste fruytis to the prince of Israel. 17 And on the prince schulen be brent sacrifices, and sacrifice, and moiste sacrifices, in solemprnytees, and in kalendis, ether bigynnyngis of monethis, and in sabatis, and in alle the solemprnytees of the hous of Israel; he schal make sacrifice, for synne, and brent sacrifice, and pesible sacrifices, to clense for the hous of Israel. 18 The Lord God seith these thingis, In the firste moneth, in the firste dai of the monethe, thou schalt take a calf with out wem of the drooue, and thou schalt clense the seyntuarie. 19 And the preest schal take of the blood of the beeste, that schal be for synne; and he schal putte in the postis of the hous, and in foure corneris of the heiythe of the auter, and in the postis of the yate of the ynnere halle. 20 And thus thou schalt do in the seuenthe dai of the monethe, for ech that knew not, and was disseyued bi error, and thou schalt clense for the hous. 21 In the firste monethe, in the fourten the dai of the monethe, the solemprnytee of pask schal be to you; therf looues schulen be etun bi seuene daies. 22 And the prince schal make a calf for synne in that dai, for hym siilf and for al the puple of the lond. 23 And in the solemprnytee of seuene daies he schal make brent sacrifice to the Lord; he schal offre seuene caluys and seuene wetheris with out wem ech dai, bi seuene daies, and ech dai a buc of geet, for synne. 24 And he schal make the sacrifice of ephi bi a calf, and of ephi bi a wether, and of oile the mesure hyn, bi ech ephi. 25 In the seuenthe monethe, in the fiftenthe dai of the monethe, in the solemprnytee, he schal make as tho ben biforseid, bi seuene daies, as wel for synne as for brent sacrifice, and in sacrifice, and in oile.

46 The Lord God seith these thingis, The yate of the ynnere halle, that biholdith to the eest, schal be closid bi sixe

Also he schal make the sacrifice ephi bi a wether; but of lambren as his hond fyndith, and of oile the mesure hyn, bi ech ephi. 8 And whanne the prince schal entre, entre he bi the weie of the porche of the yate, and go he out bi the same weie. 9 And whanne the puple of the lond schal entre in the siyt of the Lord, in solemprnytees, which puple entrith bi the yate of the north, for to worschipe, go it out bi the wei of the south yate. Certis the puple that entrith bi the weie of the south yate, go out bi the weie of the north yate. It schal not turne ayen bi the weie of the yate, bi which it entride, but euene ayens that weie it schal go out. 10 Forsothe the prince schal be in the myddis of hem; he schal entre with hem that entren, and he schal go out with hem that goen out. 11 And in feiris and in solemprnytees, the sacrifice of ephi schal be bi a calf, and ephi bi a wether; in lambren schal be sacrifice as his hond fyndith, and of oile the mesure hyn, bi ech ephi. 12 Forsothe whanne the prince makith a wilful brent sacrifice, ether wilful pesible sacrifice to the Lord, the yate that biholdith to the eest, schal be openyd to hym; and he schal make his brent sacrifice, and hise pesible sacrifices, as it is wont to be doon in the dai of sabat; and he schal go out, and the yate schal be closid after that he yede out. 13 And he schal make brent sacrifice ech day to the Lord, a lomb with out wem of the same year; euere he schal make it in the morewtid, 14 and he schal make sacrifice on it ful eerli; eerli he schal make the sixte part of ephi, and of oile the thridde part of hyn, that it be meddlid with the floure of wheete; it is a lawful sacrifice, contynuel and euerlastinge, to the Lord. 15 He schal make a lomb, and sacrifice, and oile, ful eerli; he schal make eerli brent sacrifice euerlastyng. 16 The Lord God seith these thingis, If the prince yyueth an hous to ony of hise sones, the eritage of hym schal be of hise sones; thei schulen weld it bi eritage. 17 Forsothe if he yyueth a biquet of his eritage to oon of hise seruauantis, it schal be his 'til to the yeer of remysсион, and it schal turne ayen to the prince; forsothe the eritage of hym schal be to hise sones. 18 And the prince schal not take bi violence of the eritage of the puple, and of the possessioun of hem; but of his owne possessioun he schal yyue eritage to hise sones, that my puple be not scaterid, ech man fro his possessioun. 19 And he ledde me in bi the entryng, that

And he mat a thousynde, the stronde which Y myyte not passe; for the depe watris of the stronde hadden wexe greet, that mai not be waad ouer. 6 And he seide to me, Certis, sone of man, thou hast seyn. And he seide to me; and he turnede me to the ryuere of the stronde. 7 And whanne Y hadde turned me, lo! in the ryuer of the stronde ful many trees on euer either side. 8 And he seide to me, These watris that goon out to the heepis of soond of the eest, and goen down to pleyn places of desert, schulen entre in to the see, and schulen go out; and the watris schulen be heelid. 9 And ech lyuyng beeste that creepith, schal lyue, whidur euere the stronde schal come; and fischis many ynow schulen be, afir that these watris comen thidur, and schulen be heelid, and schulen lyue; alle thingis to whiche the stronde schal come, schulen lyue. 10 And fisshers schulen stonde on the watris; fro Engaddi `til to Engallym schal be dryng of nettis; ful many kyndis of fischis therof schulen be, as the fischis of the greet see, of ful greet multitude; 11 but in brynkis therof and in marais watris shulen not be heelid, for tho `schulen be youun in to places of makynge of salt. 12 And ech tree berynge fruit schal growe on the stronde, in the ryueris therof on ech side; a leef therof schal not falle down, and the fruyt therof schal not faile; bi alle monethis it schal bere firste fruytis, for the watris therof schulen go out of the seyntuarie; and the fruytis therof schulen be in to mete, and the leeuys therof to medicyn. 13 The Lord God seith these thingis, This is the ende, in which ye schulen welde the lond, in the twelue lynagis of Israel; for Joseph hath double part.

2 In the secounde yeer of the rewme of Nabugodonosor, Nabugodonosor siy a dreem; and his spirit was aferd, and his dreem fledde awei fro hym. 2 Therfor the kyng comaundide, that the dyuynours, and astronomyens, and witchis, and Caldeis schulden be clepid togidere, that thei schulden telle to the kyng hise dremys; and whanne thei weren comun, thei stoden bifor the king. 3 And the king seide to hem, Y siy a dreem, and Y am schent in mynde, and Y knowe not what Y siy. 4 And Caldeis answeriden the kyng bi Sirik langage, Kyng, liue thou with outen ende; seie thi dreem to thi seruauntis, and we schulen schewe to thee the expownyng therof. 5 And the kyng answeride, and seide to Caldeis, The word is goen awei fro me; if ye schewen not to me the dreem, and expownyng therof, ye schulen perische, and youre housis schulen be forfeitid. 6 Forsothe if ye tellen the dreem, and the expownyng therof, ye schulen take of me meedis and yiftis, and myche onour; therfor schewe ye to me the dreem, and the interpretyng therof. 7 Thei answeriden the secounde tyme, and seiden, The kyng seie the dreem to hise seruauntis, and we schulen schewe the interpretyng therof. 8 The kyng answeride, and seide, Certis Y woot, that ye ayenbien the tyme, and witen that the word is goen awei fro me. 9 Therfor if ye schewen not to me the dreem, o sentence is of you, for ye maken an interpretyng bothe fals and ful of disseit, that ye speke to me til the tyme passe; therfor seie ye the dreem to me, that Y wite, that ye speke also the veri interpretyng therof. 10 Therfor Caldeis answeriden bifor the kyng, and seiden, Kyng, no man is on erthe, that mai fille thi word; but nether ony greet man and myyti of kyngis axith siche a word of ony dyuynour, and astronomyen, and of a man of Caldee. 11 For the word which thou, kyng, axist, is greuouse, nether ony schal be foundun, that schal schewe it in the siyt of the king, outakun goddis, whos lyuyng is not with men. 12 And whanne this word was herd, the kyng comaundide, in woodnesse and in greet ire, that alle the wise men of Babiloyne schulden perische. 13 And bi the sentence goon out, the wise men weren slayn; and Danyel and hise felows weren souyt, that thei schulden perische. 14 Thanne Danyel axide of the lawe and sentence, of Ariok, prync of chyalrie of the kyng, that was gon out to sle the wise men of Babiloyne. 15 And he axide hym, that hadde take power of the kyng, for what cause so cruel a sentence yede out fro the face of the kyng. Therfor whanne Ariok hadde schewid the thing to Danyel, 16 Danyel entride, and preyede the kyng, that he schulde yyue tyme to hym to schewe the soilyng to the kyng. 17 And he entride in to his hous, and schewide the nede to Ananye, and to Misael, and Asarie, 18 hise felowis, that thei schulden axe merci of the face of God of heuene on this sacrament; and that Danyel and hise felowis schulden not perische with othere wise men of Babiloyne. 19 Thanne the priyute was schewid to Danyel bi a visioun in nyyt. And Danyel blesside God of heuene, and seide, 20 The name of the Lord be blessid fro the world, and til in to the world, for wisdom and strengthe ben hise; 21 and he chaungith tymes and ages, he translatith rewmes and ordeyneth; he yyueth wisdom to wise men, and kunnyng to hem that vndurstonden techyng, ether chastisyng; 22 he schewith deepe thingis and hid, and he knowth thingis set in derknessis, and liyt is with hym. 23 God of oure fadris, Y knowleche to thee, and Y herie thee, for thou hast youe wisdom and strengthe to me; and now thou hast schewid to me tho thingis, whiche we preieden thee, for thou hast openyd to vs the word of the kyng. 24 Aftir these thingis Danyel entride to Ariok, whom the kyng hadde ordeyned, that he schulde leese the wise men of Babiloyne, and thus he spak to hym, Leese thou not the wise men of Babiloyne; leede thou me in bifor the siyt of the kyng, and Y schal telle the soilyng to the kyng. 25 Thanne Ariok hastyng lede in Danyel to the kyng, and seide to him, Y haue foundun a man of the sones of passyng ouer of Juda, that schal telle the soilyng to the kyng. 26 The kyng answeride, and seide to Danyel, to whom the name was Balthasar, Whethir gessist thou, that thou maist verilii schewe to me the dreem which Y siy, and the interpretyng therof? 27 And Danyel answeride bfore the king, and seide, The priuytee which the kyng axith, wise men, and astronomyens, and dyuynours, and lokeris of auteris, moun not schewe to the kyng. 28 But God is in heuene, that schewith priuytees, which hath schewid to thee, thou king Nabugodonosor, what thingis schulen come in the laste tymes. Thi dreem and visious of thin heed, in thi bed, ben sich. 29 Thou, kyng, bigunnest to thenke in thi bed, what was to comynge aftir these thingis; and he that schewith priuetees, schewide to thee what thingis schulen come. 30 And this sacrament is schewid to me, not bi wisdom which is in me more than in alle lyyunge men, but that the interpretyng schulde be maad opyn to the kyng, and thou schuldist knowe the thouytis of thi soule. 31 Thou, kyng, siyest, and lo! as o greet ymage; thilke ymage was greet, and hiy in stature, and stood bfore thee, and the loking therof was ferdful. 32 The heed of this ymage was of best gold, but the brest and armes weren of siluer; certis the wombe and thies weren of bras, 33 but the leggis weren of irun; forsothe sum part of the feet was of irun, sum was of erthe. 34 Thou siyest thus, til a stoon was kit doun of the hil, with outen hondis, and smoot the ymage in the irun feet therof and erthene feet, and al to-brak tho. 35 Thanne the irun, tijl stoon, ether erthene vessel, bras, siluer, and gold, weren al to-brokun togidere, and dryuun as in to a deed sparcle of a large somer halle, that ben rauyschid of wynd, and no place is foundun to tho; forsothe the stoon, that smoot the ymage, was maad a greet hil, and fillide al erthe. 36 This is the dreem. Also, thou kyng, we schulen seie bifor thee the interpretyng therof. 37 Thou art kyng of kyngis, and God of heuene yaf to thee rewme, strengthe, and empire, and glorie; 38 and he yaf in thin hond alle thingis, in whiche the sones of men, and the beestis of the feeld, and the briddis of the eir dwellen, and ordeynede alle thingis vndur thi lordschip; therfor thou art the goldun heed. 39 And another rewme lesse than thou schal rise aftir thee; and the thridde rewme, an other of bras, that schal haue the empire of al erthe. 40 And the fourthe rewme schal be as irun, as irun makith lesse, and makith tame alle thingis, so it schal make lesse, and schal al to-breke alle these rewmes. 41 Forsothe that thou siest a part of the feet and fyngris of erthe of a pottere, and a part of irun, the rewme schal be departid; which netheles schal rise of the plauntynge of irun, `bi that that thou siest irun meynd with a tijl stoon of clei, 42 and the toos of the feet in parti of irun, and in parti of erthe, in parti the rewme schal be sad, and in parti to-brokun. 43 Forsothe that thou siest irun meynd with a tiel stoon of clei, sotheli tho schulen be meynd togidere with mannus seed; but tho schulen not cleue to hem silf, as irun mai not be meddlid with tyel stoon. 44 Forsothe in the daies of tho rewmes, God of heuene shal reise a rewme, that schal not be distried with outen ende, and his rewme schal not be youun to another puple; it schal make lesse, and schal waste alle these rewmes, and it schal stonde with outen ende, 45 bi this that thou siest, that a stoon was kit doun of the hil with outen hondis, and maad lesse the tiel stoon, and irun, and bras, and siluer, and gold. Greet God hath schewid to the kyng, what thingis schulen come aftirward; and the dreem is trewe, and the interpretyng therof is feithful. 46 Thanne king Nabugodonosor felle doun on his face, and worschipeide Danyel, and comaundide sacrifices and encense to be brouyt, that tho schulden be sacrificid to hym. 47 Therfor the kyng spak, and seide to Danyel, Verili youre God is God of goddis, and Lord of kyngis, that schewith mysteries, for thou mytist opene this sacrament. 48 Thanne the kyng reiseide Danyel an hiy, and yaf many yiftis and grete to hym; and ordeynede hym prince and prefect, ether cheef iustise, ouer alle the prouynces of Babiloyne, and maister ouer alle the wise men of Babiloyne. 49 Forsothe Danyel axide of the kyng, and ordeynede Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago ouer alle the werkis of the prouynce of Babiloyne; but Danyel hym silf was in the yatis of the kyng.

3 Nabugodonosor, the kyng, made a goldun ymage, in the heiythe of sixti cubitis, and in the breede of sixe cubitis; and he settide it in the feeld of Duram, of the prouynce of Babiloyne. 2 Therfor Nabugodonosor sente to gadere togidere the wise men, magistratis, and iugis, and duykis, and tirauntis, and prefectis, and alle princes of cuntreis, that thei schulden come togidere to the haleywng of the ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor hadde reiseid. 3 Thanne the wise men, magistratis, and iugis, and duykis, and tirauntis, and beste men, that weren set in poweris, and alle the princes of cuntreis, weren gaderid togidere, that thei schulden come togidere to the haleywng of the ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor hadde reiseid. Forsothe thei stoden in the siyt of the ymage, which Nabugodonosor hadde set; and a bedele criede myytili, 4 It is seid to you, puplis, kynredis, and langagis; 5 in the our in which ye heren the soun of trumpe, and of pipe, and of harpe, of sambuke, of sawtre, and of symphonye, and of al kynde of musikis, falle ye doun, and worschipe the goldun ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor made. 6 Sotheli if ony man fallith not doun, and worschipith not, in the same our he schal be sent in to the furneis of fier brennyng. 7 Therfor aftir these thingis, anoon as alle puplis herden the soun of trumpe, of pipe, and of harpe, of sambuke, and of sawtre, of symphonye, and of al kynde of musikis, alle puplis, lynagis, and langagis fellen doun, and worschipiden the golden ymage, which the kyng Nabugodonosor hadde maad. 8 And anoon in that tyme men of Caldee neiyiden, and accusiden the Jewis, 9 and seiden to the kyng Nabugodonosor, Kyng, lyue thou with outen ende. 10 Thou, kyng, hast set a decree, that ech man that herith the sown of trumpe, of pipe, and of harpe, of sambuke, and of sawtree, and of symphonie, and of al kynde of musikis, bowe doun hym silf, and worschipe the goldun ymage; forsothe if ony man fallith not doun, 11 and worschiph not, be he sent in to the furneis of fier brennyng. 12 Therfor men Jewis ben, Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, whiche thou hast ordeynede on the werkis of the cuntrei of Babiloyne. Thou kyng, these men han dispisid thi decree; thei onouren not thi goddis, and thei worschpen not the goldun ymage, which thou reisdid. 13 Thanne Nabugodonosor comaundide, in woodnesse and in wraththe, that Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago schulden be brouyt; whiche weren brouyt anoon in the siyt of the kyng. 14 And the kyng Nabugodonosor pronounside, and seide to hem, Whether verili Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, ye onouren not my goddis, and worschpen not the golden ymage, which Y made? 15 Now therfor be ye redi, in what euer our ye heren the sown of trumpe, of pipe, of harpe, of sambuke, of sawtree, and of symphonie, and of al kynde of musikis, bowe ye doun you, and worschipe the ymage which Y made; that if ye worschpen not, in the same our ye schulen be sent in to the furneis of fier brennyng; and who is God, that schal delyuere you fro myn hond? 16 Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago answeriden, and seiden to the king Nabugodonosor, It nedith not, that we answeere of this thing to thee. 17 For whi oure God, whom we worschpen, mai rauysche vs fro the chymenei of fier brennyng, and mai delyuere fro thin hondis, thou kyng. 18 That if he nyle, be it knowun to thee, thou kyng, that we onouren not thi goddis, and we worschpen not the goldun ymage, which thou hast reisd. 19 Thanne Nabugodonosor was fillid of woodnesse, and the biholdyng of his face was chaungid on Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago. And he comaundide, that the furneis schulde be maad hattere seuenfold, than it was wont to be maad hoot. 20 And he comaundide to the strongeste men of his oost, that thei schulden bynde the feet of Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, and sende hem in to the furneis of fier brennyng. 21 And anoon the men weren boundun, with brechis, and cappis, and schoon, and clothis, and weren sent in to the myddis of the furneis of fier brennyng; 22 for whi comaundement of the kyng constreinede. Forsothe the furneis was maad ful hoot; certis the flawme of the fier killid tho men, that hadden sent Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago in to the furneis. 23 Sotheli these thre men, Sidrac, Misaac, and Abdenago, fellen doun boundun in the myddis of the chymenei of fier brennyng. 24 Thanne kyng Nabugodonosor was astonyed, and roos hastily, and seide to hise beste men, Whether we senten not thre men feterid in to the myddis of the fier? Whiche answeriden the kyng, and seiden, Verili, kyng. 25 The kyng answeride, and seide, Lo! Y se foure men vnboundun, and goynge in the myddis of the fier, and no thing of corrupcioun is in hem; and the licnesse of the fourthe is lijk the sone of God. 26 Thanne the kyng Nabugodonosor neiyde to the dore of the furneis of fier brennyng, and seide, Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, the seruautis of hiy God lyuynge, go ye out, and come ye. And anoon Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, yeden out of the myddis of the fier. 27 And the wise men, and magistratis, and iugis, and miyti men of the kyng, weren gaderid togidere, and bihelden tho men, for the fier hadde had no thing of power in the bodies of hem, and an heer of her heed was not brent; also the breechis of hem weren not chaungid, and the odour of fier hadde not passid bi hem. 28 And Nabugodonosor brac out, and seide, Blessid be the God of hem, that is, of Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, that sente his aungel, and delyueride hise seruautis, that bileuyden in to hym, and chaungiden the word of the kyng, and yauen her bodies, that thei schulden not serue, and that thei schulden not worschipe ony god, outakun her God aloone. 29 Therfor this decree is set of me, that ech puple, and langagis, and lynagis, who euer spekith blasfemye ayen God of Sidrac, and of Mysaac, and of Abdenago, perische, and his hous be distried; for noon other is God, that mai saue so. 30 Thanne the kyng auauinside Sidrac, Mysaac, and Abdenago, in the prouynce of Babiloyne; and sente in to al the lond a pistle, conteynynge these wordis.

4 Nabugodonosor, the kyng, writith thus to alle puplis and langagis, that dwellen in al erthe, pees be multiplied to you. 2 Hiy God made at me myracilis and merueils; 3 therfor it pleside me to preche hise myracilis, for tho ben greet, and hise merueils, for tho ben stronge; and his rewme is an euerlastyng rewme, and his power is in generacioun and in to generacioun. 4 I, Nabugodonosor, was restful in myn hous, and flouryng in my paleis; 5 Y siy a dreem, that made me aferd; and my thouytis in my bed, and the siytis of myn heed disturbliden me. 6 And a decre was set forth bi me, that alle the wise men of Babiloyne schulden be brouyt in bifor my siyt, and that thei schulden schewe to me the soilyng of the dreem. 7 Than false dyuynours, astronomyens, Caldeis, and biholderis of auteris entriden; and Y telde the dreem in the siyt of hem, and thei schewiden not to me the soilyng therof, til the felowe in office, 8 Danyel, to whom the name was Balthasar, bi the name of my God, entride in my siyt, which Danyel hath the spirit of hooli goddis in hym silf; and Y spak the dreem bifor hym. 9 Balthasar, prince of dyuynouris, whom Y knowe, that thou hast in thee the spirit of hooli goddis, and ech sacrament, ether preuytee, is not vnpossible to thee, telle thou to me the visious of my dreemes, whiche Y siy, and the soilyng of tho. 10 This is the visiou of myn heed in my bed. Y siy, and lo! a tree was in the myddis of erthe, and the hiynesse therof was ful greet. 11 And the tree was greet and strong, and the heiythe therof touchide heuene, and the biholdyng therof was `til to the endis of al erthe. 12 The leeuys therof weren ful faire, and the fruyt therof was ful myche, and the mete of alle was in it; beestis and wielde beestis dwelliden vndur it, and briddis of the eir lyuynge in the braunchis therof, and ech man ete of it. 13 Thus Y siy in the visiou of myn heed, on my bed. And lo! a wakere, and hooli man cam doun fro heuene, 14 and he criede strongli, and seide thus, Hewe ye doun the tree, and kitte ye doun the bowis therof, and schake ye awei the leeuys therof, and scatere ye abrood the fruytis therof; beestis fle awei, that be vndur it, and briddis fro the bowis therof. 15 Netheles suffre ye the seed of rootis therof in erthe, and be he boondun with a boond of irun and of bras, in erbis that ben with out forth, and in the deew of heuene be he died, and his part be with wielde beestis in the erbe of erthe. 16 His herte be chaungid fro mannus herte, and the herte of a wielde beeste be youun to hym, and seuene tymes be chaungid on hym. 17 In the sentence of wakeris it is demed, and it is the word and axyng of seyntis, til lyuynge men knowe, that hiy God is Lord in the rewme of men; and he schal yyue it to whom euere he wole, and he schal ordeyne on it the mekeste man. 18 Y, Nabugodonosor, the kyng, siy this dreem. Therfor thou, Balthasar, telle hastili the interpretyng, for alle the wise men of my rewme moun not seie to me the soilyng; but thou maist, for the spirit of hooli goddis is in thee. 19 Thanne Danyel, to whom the name was Balthasar, began to thenke priueli with ynne hym silf, as in oon our, and hise thouytis disturbliden hym. Forsothe the kyng answeride, and seide, Balthasar, the dreem and the interpretyng therof disturbe not thee. Balthasar answeride, and seide, My lord, the dreem be to hem that haten thee, and the interpretyng therof be to thin enemies. 20 The tree which thou siyest hiy and strong, whos heiythe stretchith `til to heuene, and the biholding therof in to ech lond, 21 and the faireste braunchis therof, and the fruyt therof ful myche, and the mete of alle in it, and beestis of the feeld dwellynge vndur it, and the briddis of the eir dwellynge in the boowis therof, 22 thou art, kyng, that art magnified, and wexidist strong, and thi greetnesse encreesside, and cam `til to heuene, and thi power in to the endis of al erthe. 23 Sotheli that the kyng siy a wakere and hooli come doun fro heuene, and seie, Hewe ye doun the tree, and distrie ye it, netheles leeu ye the seed of rootis therof in erthe, and be he boundun with irun and bras, in erbis with out forth, and be he bispreynt with the deew of heuene, and his mete be with wielde beestis, til seuene tymes be chaungid on hym; 24 this is the interpretyng of the sentence of the hiyeste, which sentence is comun on my lord, the kyng. 25 Thei schulen caste thee out fro men, and thi dwellyng schal be with beestys and wielde beestis, and thou schalt ete hey, as an oxe doith, but also thou schalt be bisched with the dew of heuene, also seuene tymes schulen be chaungid on thee, til thou knowe, that hiy God is Lord `on the rewme of men, and yyueth it to whom euere he wole. 26 Forsothe that he comaundide, that the seed of rootis therof, that is, of the tree, schulde be left, thi rewme schal dwelle to thee, aftir that thou knowist that the power is of heuene. 27 Wherfor, kyng, my counsel plesse thee, and ayenbie thi synnes with almesdedis, and ayenbie thi wickidnessis with mercies of pore men; in hap God schal foryyue thi trespassis. 28 Alle these thingis camen on Nabugodonosor, the kyng. 29 After the ende of twelue monethis he walkide in the halle of Babiloyne; 30 and the kyng answeride, and seide, Whether this is not Babiloyne, the greet citee, which Y bildide in to the hous of rewme, in the miyt of my strengthe, and in the glorie of my fairnesse? 31 Whanne the word was yit in the mouth of the kyng, a vois felle doun fro heuene, Nabugodonosor, kyng, it is seid to thee, Thi rewme is passid fro thee, 32 and thei schulen caste thee out fro men, and thi dwellyng schal be with beestis and wielde beestis; thou schalt ete hey, as an oxe doith, and seuene tymes schulen be chaungid on thee, til thou knowe, that hiy God is Lord in the rewme of men, and yyueth it to whom euere he wole. 33 In the same our the word was fillid on Nabugodonosor, and he was cast out fro men, and he eet hey, as an oxe doith, and his bodi was colouryd with the deew of heuene, til hise heeris wexiden at the licnesse of eglis, and hise nailis as the nailis of briddis. 34 Therfor after the ende of daies, Y, Nabugodonosor, reiseide myn iyen to heuene, and my wit was yoldun to me; and Y blesside the hiyeste, and Y heriede, and glorifiede hym that lyueth with outen ende; for whi his power is euerlastyng power, and his rewme is in generacioun and in to generacioun. 35 And alle the dwellers of erthe ben arettid in to noyt at hym; for bi his wille he doith, bothe in the vertues of heuene, and in the dwellers of erthe, and noon is, that ayenstondith his hond, and seith to hym, Whi didist thou so? 36 In that tyme my wit turnede ayen to me, and Y cam fulli to the onour and fairnesse of my rewme, and my figure turnede ayen to me; and my beste men and my magistratis souyten me, and Y was set in my rewme, and my greet doying was encreessid grettir to me. 37 Now therfor Y Nabugodonosor herie, and magnefie, and glorifie the kyng of heuene; for alle hise werkis ben trewe, and alle his weies ben domes; and he may make meke hem that goon in pride.

5 Balthasar, the kyng, made a greet feeste to hise beste men a thousynde, and ech man drank aftir his age. 2 Forsothe the kyng thanne drunkun comaundide, that the goldun and siluerne vessels schulden be brouyt forth, whiche Nabugodonosor, his fadir, hadde borun out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, that the kyng, and hise beste men, hise wyues, and concubyns schulden drynke in tho vessels. 3 Thanne the goldun vessels and siluerne, whiche he hadde borun out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, weren brouyt forth; and the kyng, and hise beste men, and hise wyues, and concubyns, drunken in tho vessels. 4 Thei drunken wyn, and herieden her goddis of gold, and of siluer, of bras, and of irun, and of tree, and of stoon. 5 In the same our fyngris apperiden, as of the hond of a man, writynge ayens the candilstike, in the pleyn part of the wal of the kyngis halle; and the kyng bihelde the fyngris of the hond writynge. 6 Thanne the face of the kyng was chaungid, and hise thouytis disturbliden hym; and the ioyncuris of hise reynes weren loosid, and hise knees weren hurtlid to hem silf togidere. 7 Therfor the kyng criede strongli, that thei schulden brynge yn astronomyens, Caldeis, and dyuynouris bi lokyng of auteris. And the kyng spak, and seide to the wise men of Babiloyne, Who euere redith this scripture, and makith opyn the interpretyng therof to me, schal be clothid in purpur; and he schal haue a goldun bie in the necke, and he schal be the thridde in my rewme. 8 Thanne alle the wise men of the kyng entriden, and miyten not rede the scripture, nether schewe to the kyng the interpretyng therof. 9 Wherof kyng Balthasar was disturblid ynow, and his cheer was chaungid, but also hise beste men weren disturblid. 10 Forsothe the queen entride in to the hous of feeste, for the thing that hadde bifeld to the king, and beste men; and sche spak, and seide, Kyng, lyue thou withouten ende. Thi thouytis disturbe not thee, and thi face be not chaungid. 11 A man is in thi rewme, that hath the spirit of hooli goddis in hym silf, and in the daies of thi fadir kunnyng and wisdom weren foundun in hym; for whi and

Nabugodonosor, thi fadir, made him prince of astronomyens, of enchaunteris, of Caldeis, and of dyuynouris bi lokyng on auteris; sotheli thi fadir, thou kyng, dide this; 12 for more spirit, and more prudent, and vndurstondyng, and interpretyng of dremes, and schewyng of priuetees, and assoilyng of boundun thingis weren foundun in hym, that is, in Danyel, to whom the kyng puttide the name Balthasar. Now therfor Daniel be clepid, and he schal telle the interpretyng. Therfor Daniel was brouyt in bifor the kyng. To whom the forseid kyng seide, 13 Art thou Danyel, of the sones of caitifte of Juda, whom my fader, the kyng, brouyte fro Judee? 14 Y haue herd of thee, that thou hast in thee the spirit of goddis, and more kunnyng, and vndurstondyng, and wisdom be foundun in thee. 15 And now wise men, astronomyens, enriden in my siyt, to rede this scripture, and to schewe to me the interpretyng therof; and thei myyten not seie to me the vndurstondyng of this word. 16 Certis Y haue herde of thee, that thou maist interprete derk thingis, and vnbynde boundun thingis; therfor if thou maist rede the scripture, and schewe to me the interpretyng therof, thou schalt be clothid in purpur, and thou schalt haue a goldun bie aboute thi necke, and thou schalt be the thridde prince in my rewme. 17 To whiche thingis Danyel answeride, and seide bifore the kyng, Thi yiftis be to thee, and yyue thou to another man the yiftis of thin hous; forsothe, kyng, Y schal rede the scripture to thee, and Y schal schewe to thee the interpretyng therof. 18 O! thou kyng, hiyeste God yaf rewme, and greet worschipe, and glorie, and onour, to Nabugodonosor, thi fadir. 19 And for greet worschip which he hadde youe to thilke Nabugodonosor, alle puplis, lynagis, and langagis, trembliden and dreden hym; he killide whiche he wolde, and he smoot whiche he wolde, and he enhaunsid whiche he wolde, and he made low which he wolde. 20 Forsothe whanne his herte was reisid, and his spirit was maad obstynat in pride, he was put down of the seete of his rewme; 21 and his glorie was takun awei, and he was cast out fro the sones of men; but also his herte was set with beestis, and his dwellyng was with welde assis; also he eet hei as an oxo doith, and his bodi was colourid with the deew of heuene, til he knewe, that the hiyeste hath power in the rewme of men, and he schal reise on it whom euer he wole. 22 And thou, Balthasar, the sone of hym, mekideest not thin herte, whanne thou knewist alle these thingis; 23 but thou were reisid ayens the Lord of heuene, and the vessels of his hous weren brouyt bifore thee, and thou, and thi beste men, and thi wyues, and thi concubyns, drunken wyn in tho vessels; and thou heriedist goddis of siluer, and of gold, and of bras, and of irun, and of tree, and of stoon, that seen not, nether heren, nether feelen; certis thou glorifiedist not God, that hath thi blast, and alle thi weies in his hond. 24 Therfor the fyngur of the hond was sent of hym, which hond wroot this thing that is writun. 25 Sotheli this is the scripture which is discryued, Mane, Techel, Phares. 26 And this is the interpretyng of the word. Mane, God hath noumbrid thi rewme, and hath fillid it; 27 Techel, thou art weied in a balaunce, and thou art foundun hauynge lesse; 28 Phares, thi rewme is departid, and is youun to Medeis and Perseis. 29 Thanne, for the kyng comaundide, Daniel was clothid in purpur, and a goldun bie was youun aboute in his necke; and it was prechid of hym, that he hadde power, and was the thridde in the rewme. 30 In the same niyt Balthasar, the kyng of Caldeis, was slayn; 31 and Daryus of Medeis was successour in to the rewme, and he was two and sixti yeer eld.

6 It pleside Darius, and he ordeynede sixe score duykis ouer the rewme, that thei schulden be in al his rewme. 2 And ouer hem he ordeynede thre princes, of whiche Danyel was oon; that the duykis schulden yelde resoun to hem, and that the kyng schulde not suffre ony dise. 3 Therfor Danyel ouercam alle the princes and duykis, for more spirit of God was in hym. 4 Certis the kyng thouyte to ordeyne hym on al the rewme. Werfor princes and duykis souyten to fynde occasioun to Danyel, of the side of the kyng; and thei miyten fynde no cause and suspicioun, for he was feithful, and no blame and suspicioun was foundun in hym. 5 Therfor tho men seiden, We schulen not fynde ony occasioun to this Danyel, no but in hap in the lawe of his God. 6 Thanne the princes and duykis maden fals suggestioun to the kyng, and spaken thus to hym, Kyng Darius, lyue thou with onten ende. 7 Alle the princes of thi rewme, and magistratis, and duykis, senatours, and iugis, han maad a counsel, that a decree and comaundement of the emperour go out, that ech man that axith ony axyng of what euer god and man, til to thretti daies, no but of thee, thou kyng, he be sent in to the lake of liouns. 8 Now therfor, kyng, conferme thou the sentence, and write thou the decree, that this that is ordeyned of Medeis and Perseis be not chaungid, nethir be it leueful to ony man to breke. 9 Forsothe Darius, the kyng, settide forth, and confermyde the decree. 10 And whanne Danyel hadde founde this thing, that is, the lawe ordeyned, he entride in to his hous; and the while the wyndows weren open in his soler ayens Jerusalem, in thre tymes in the dai he bowide hise knees, and worschipide, and knoulechide bifore his God, as he was wont to do bifore. 11 Therfor tho men enqueriden ful bisili, and founden Danyel preiynge, and bisechyng his God. 12 And thei neiyiden and spaken to the kyng of the comaundement, Kyng, whether thou ordeynedist not, that ech man that axide ony of goddis and of men, til to thretti daies, no but thee, thou kyng, he schulde be sent in to the lake of liouns? To whiche men the kyng answeride, and seide, The word is soth, bi the decree of Medeis and Perseis, which it is not leueful to breke. 13 Thanne thei answeriden, and seiden bifore the kyng, Danyel, of the sones of caitifte of Juda, reckide not of thi lawe, and of the comaundement, which thou ordeynedist, but thre tymes bi the dai he preieth in his bisechyng. 14 And whanne the kyng hadde herd this word, he was sori ynow, and he settide the herte for Danyel, for to do delyuere hym; and til to the goyng down of the sunne he trauelide for to do delyuere hym. 15 But tho men vndurstoden the kyng, and seiden to hym, Wite thou, kyng, that it is the lawe of Medeis and of Perseis, that it is not leueful that ony decree be chaungid, 16 which the kyng ordeyneth. Thanne the kyng comaundide, and thei brouyten Danyel, and senten hym in to the lake of liouns. And the kyng seide to Danyel, Thi God, whom thou worschapist euere, he schal delyuere thee. 17 And o stoon was brouyt, and was put on the mouth of the lake, which the kyng aselide with his ryng, and with the ryng of hise beste men, lest any thing were don ayens Danyel. 18 Thanne the kyng yede in to his hous, and slepte with out soper, and metis weren not brouyte bifore hym; fethermore and sleep yede awei fro hym. 19 Thanne the kyng roos in the firste morewtid, and yede hastili to the lake of liouns; 20 and he neiyde to the lake, and criede on Danyel with wepyng voys, and spak to hym, Danyel, the seruaut of God lyuyng, gessist thou, whether thi God, whom thou seruest euere, myte delyuere thee fro liouns? 21 And Danyel answeride the kyng, and seide, King, lyue thou with outen ende. 22 My God sente his aungel, and closide togidere the mouthis of liouns, and tho noiened not me, for riytfulnesse is foundun in me bifore hym; but also, thou kyng, Y dide no trespas bifore thee. 23 Thanne the kyng made ioie greetli on hym, and comaundide Danyel to be led out of the lake. And Danyel was led out of the lake, and noon hirtyng was foundun in hym, for he bileuede to his God. 24 Forsothe the kyng comaundide, tho men, that accusiden Danyel, weren brouyt, and weren sent in to the lake of liouns, thei, and the sones of hem, and the wyues of hem; and thei camen not `til to the pawment of the lake, til the liouns rauyschiden hem, and al to-braken alle the boonyis of hem. 25 Thanne Darius, the kyng, wroot to alle puplis, lynagis, and langagis, dwellynge in al erthe, Pees be multiplied to you. 26 Therfor a decree is ordeyned of me, that in al myn empire and rewme men tremble, and drede the God of Danyel; for he is God lyuyng, and euerlastyng in to worldis, and his rewme schal not be distried, and his power is `til in to with outen ende. 27 He is delyuerer and sauour, makyng myraclis and merueils in heuene and in erthe, which delyuerede Danyel fro the lake of liouns. 28 Certis Danyel dwellide stabli `til to the rewme of Darius, and `til to the rewme of Sirus of Persey.

7 In the firste yeer of Balthasar, kyng of Babiloyne, Danyel siy a sweuene. Forsothe he wroot the visioun of his hed in his bed, and the dreem, and comprehendide in schort word; and he touchide schortli the sentence, 2 and seide, Y siy in my visioun in niyt, and lo! foure wyndis of heuene fouyten in the myddis of the greet see. 3 And foure grete beestis dyuerse bitwixe hem silf stieden fro the see. 4 The firste beeste was as a lionesse, and hadde wyngis of an egle. Y bihelde til the wyngis therof weren pullid awei, and it was takun awei fro erthe, and it stood as a man on the feet, and the herte therof was youun to it. 5 And lo! another beeste, lijk a bere in parti, stood, and thre ordris weren in the mouth therof, and thre princes in the teeth therof. And thus thei seiden to it, Rise thou, ete thou ful many fleischis. 6 Aftir these thingis Y bihelde, and lo! anothir beeste as a pard, and it hadde on it silf foure wyngis of a brid, and foure heedis weren in the beeste, and power was youun to it. 7 Aftir these thingis Y bihelde in the visioun of niyt, and lo! the fourthe beeste, ferdful, and wonderful, and ful strong. It hadde grete irun teeth, and it ete, and made lesse, and defoulide with hise feet othere thingis; forsothe it was vnlijk othere beestis, which Y hadde seyn bifore it, and it hadde ten hornes. 8 Y bihelde the hornes, and lo! an other litil horn cam forth of the myddis of tho, and thre of the firste hornes weren drawun out fro the face therof; and lo! iyen as iyen of a man weren in this horn, and a mouth spekyng grete thingis. 9 Y bihelde, til that trones weren set, and the elde of daies sat; his cloth was whijt as snow, and the heeris of his heed weren as cleene wolles, his trone was as flawmes of fier, hise wheelis weren fier kyndlid. 10 A flood of fier and rennyng faste yede out fro his face, a thousynde thousynde mynistriden to hym, and ten sithis a thousynde sithis an hundrid thousynde stoden niy hym; the dom sat, and bookis weren opened. 11 Y bihelde for the voys of grete wordis whiche thilke horn spak; and Y siy that the beeste was slayn, and his bodi was perischid, and was youun to be brent in fier. 12 And Y siy that the power of othere beestis was takun awei, and the tymes of lijf weren ordeyned to hem, til to tyme and tyme. 13 Therfor Y bihelde in the visyoun of niyt, and lo! as a sone of man cam with the cloudis of heuene; and he cam fulli til to the elde of daies, and in the siyt of hym thei offriden hym. 14 And he yaf to hym power, and onour, and rewme, and alle the puplis, lynagis, and langagis schulen serue hym; his power is euerlastyng power, that schal not be takun awei, and his rewme, that schal not be corrupt. 15 My spirit hadde orroure, ether hidousnesse; Y, Danyel, was aferd in these thingis, and the siytis of myn heed disturbliden me. 16 Y neiyede to oon of the stonderis niy, and Y axide of hym the treuthe of alle these thingis. And he seide to me the interpretyng of wordis, and he tauyte me. 17 These foure grete beestis ben foure rewmes, that schulen rise of erthe. 18 Forsothe hooli men schulen take the rewme of hiyeste God, and thei schulen holde the rewme, til in to the world, and `til in to the world of worldis. 19 Aftir these thingis Y wolde lerne diligenti of the fourthe beeste, that was greetli vnlijk fro alle, and was ful ferdful, the teeth and nailis therof weren of irun; it eet, and made lesse, and defoulide with hise feet othere thingis. 20 And of ten hornes whiche it hadde in the heed, and of the tother horn, that cam forth, bifore which thre hornes fellen down, and of that horn that hadde iyen, and a mouth spekyng grete thingis, and was grettere than othere; 21 I bihelde, and lo! thilke horn made batel ayens hooli men, and hadde maistrie of hem, 22 til the elde of daies cam, and hiy God yaf doom to hooli men; and lo! tyme cam, and hooli men goten rewme. 23 And he seide thus, The fourthe beeste schal be the fourthe rewme in erthe, that schal be more than alle rewmes, and it schal deuoure al erthe, and it schal defoule, and make lesse that erthe. 24 Forsothe ten hornes schulen be ten kyngis of that rewme; and another kyng schal rise after hem, and he schal be mytiere than the formere, and he schal make low thre kyngis. 25 And he schal speke wordis ayens the hiy God, and he schal defoule the seyntis of the hiyeste; and he schal gesse, that he mai chaunge tymes and lawis; and thei schulen be youun in to his hondis, til to tyme, and times, and the half of tyme. 26 And doom schal sitte, that the power be takun awei, and be al to-brokun, and perische til in to the ende. 27 Sotheli that the rewme, and power, and the greetnesse of rewme, which is vndur ech heuene, be youun to the puple of the seintis of the hiyeste, whos rewme is euerlastyng rewme, and alle kingis schulen serue, and obeie to hym. 28 Hidir to is the ende of the word. Y, Danyel, was disturblid myche in my thouytis, and my face was chaungid in me; forsothe Y kepte the word in myn herte.

8 In the thridde yeer of the rewme of Balthasar, the king, a visoun apperide to me. Y, Danyel, after that thing that Y hadde seyn in the bigynnyng, 2 siy in my visoun, whanne Y was in the castel of Susis, which is in the cuntrei of Helam; sotheli Y siy in the visoun that Y was on the yate Vlay. 3 And Y reiseide myn iyen, and Y siy; and lo! o ram stood bifore the mareis, and hadde hiy hornes, and oon hiyere than the tother, and vndurwexynge. 4 Aftirward Y siy the ram wyndewynge with hornes ayens the eest, and ayens the west, and ayens the north, and ayens the south; and alle beestis myyten not ayenstonde it, nether be deluyered for the hondis of it. And it dide bi his wille, and was magniefied. 5 And Y vndurstood. Lo! forsothe a buk of geet cam fro the west on the face of al erthe, and touchide not the erthe; forsothe the buk of geet hadde a noble horn bitwixe hise iyen; 6 and he cam til to that horned ram, which Y hadde seyn stondynge bifore the yate, and he ran in the fersnesse of his strengthe to that ram. 7 And whanne he hadde neiyd niy the ram, he hurlide fersly on hym, and he smoot the ram, and al to-brak tweyne hornes of hym, and the ram miyte not ayenstonde hym. And whanne he hadde sent that ram in to erthe, he defoulide; and no man miyte delyuere the ram fro his hond. 8 Forsothe the buk of geet was maad ful greet; and whanne he hadde encreessid, the greet horn was brokun, and foure hornes risiden vndur it, bi foure wyndis of heuene. 9 Forsothe of oon of hem yede out o litil horn, and it was maad greet ayens the south, and ayens the eest, and ayens the strengthe. 10 And it was magniefied til to the strengthe of heuene, and it castide doun of the strengthe and of steris, and defoulide tho. 11 And he was magniefied til to the prince of strengthe, and he took awei fro hym the contynuel sacrifice, and castide doun the place of his halewyng. 12 Forsothe strengthe was youun to hym ayens the contynuel sacrifice for synnes, and treuthe schal be cast doun in erthe; and he schal haue prosperite, and schal do. 13 And Y herde oon of hooli aungels spekyng; and oon hooli aungel seide to another, Y noot to whom spekinge, Hou long the visoun, and the contynuel sacrifice, and the synne of desolacioun, which is maad, and the seyntuarie, and the strengthe schal be defoulid? 14 And he seide to hym, Til to the euentid and morewid, two thousynde daies and thre hundrid; and the seyntuarie schal be clensid. 15 Forsothe it was doon, whanne Y, Danyel, siy the visoun, and axide the vndurstondynge, lo! as the licnesse of a man stood in my siyt. 16 And Y herde the voys of a man bitwixe Vlai, and he criede, and seide, Gabriel, make thou Danyel to vndurstonde this visoun. 17 And he cam, and stood bisidis where Y stood; and whanne he was comun, Y dredde, and felle on my face. And he seide to me, Thou, sone of man, vndurstonde, for the visoun schal be fillid in the tyme of ende. 18 And whanne he spak to me, Y slood doun ʒlat to the erthe. And he touchide me, and settide me in my degree. 19 And he seide to me, Y schal schewe to thee what thingis schulen come in the laste of cursing, for the tyme hath his ende. 20 The ram, whom thou siyest haue hornes, is the kyng of Medeis and of Perseis. 21 Forsothe the buk of geet is the kyng of Grekis; and the greet horn that was bitwixe hise iyen, he is the firste kyng.

22 Forsothe that whanne that horn was brokun, foure hornes risiden for it, foure kyngis schulen rise of the folc of hym, but not in the strengthe of hym. 23 And after the rewme of hem, whanne ʒwickidnessis han encreessid, a kyng schal rise vnschamefast in face, and vndurstondynge proposisiouns, ether resouns set forth; and his strengthe schal be maad stalworthe, 24 but not in hise strengthis. And more than it mai be bileuyd he schal waste alle thingis, and he schal haue prosperite, and schal do. And he schal sle stronge men, and the puple of seyntis, 25 bi his wille, and gile schal be dressid in his hond. And he schal magnefie his herte, and in abundaunce of alle thingis he schal sle ful many men. And he schal rise ayens the prince of princes, and withouten hond he schal be al to-brokun. 26 And the visoun, which is seid in the morewid and euentid, is trewe. Therfor seele thou the visoun, for it schal be after many daies. 27 And Y, Danyel, was astonyed, and was sijk bi ful many daies; and whanne Y hadde rise, Y dide the werkis of the kyng; and Y was astonyed at the visoun, and ʒnoon was that interpretide.

9 In the firste yeer of Darius, the sone of Assuerus, of the seed of Medeis, that was emperour on the rewme of Caldeis, 2 in the firste yeer of his rewme, Y, Danyel, vndurstood in bookis the noumbre of yeeris, of which noumbre the word of the Lord was maad to Jeremye, the profete, that seuenti yeer of desolacioun of Jerusalem schulde be fillid. 3 And Y settide my face to my Lord God, to preie and to biseche in fastyngis, in sak, and aische. 4 And Y preiede my Lord God, and Y knouelechide, and seide, Y biseche, thou Lord God, greet and ferdful, kepyng couenaunt and mercy to hem that louen thee, and kepen thi comaundementis. 5 We han synned, we han do wickidnesse, we diden unfeithfuli, and yeden awei, and bowiden awei fro thi comaundementis and domes. 6 We obeieden not to thi seruauantis, profetis, that spaken in thi name to oure kyngis, to oure princes, and to oure fadris, and to al the puple of the lond. 7 Lord, riyfulnessse is to thee, forsothe schenschiipe of face is to vs, as is to dai to a man of Juda, and to the dwelleris of Jerusalem, and to al Israel, to these men that ben niy, and to these men that ben afer in alle londis, to which thou castidist hem out for the wickidnessis of hem, in whiche, Lord, thei synneden ayens thee. 8 Shame of face is to vs, to oure kyngis, to oure princes, and to oure fadris, that synneden; 9 but merci and benygnytee is to thee, oure Lord God. For we yeden awei fro thee, 10 and herden not the voys of oure Lord God, that we schulden go in the lawe of hym, whiche he settide to vs bi hise seruauantis, profetis. 11 And al Israel braken thi lawe, and bowiden awei, that thei herden not thi voys; and cursyng, and wlatyng, which is writun in the book of Moises, the seruauant of God, droppide on vs, for we synneden to hym. 12 And he ordeynede hise wordis, whiche he spak on vs, and on oure princes, that demyden vs, that thei schulden brynge in on vs greet yuel, what maner yuel was neuer vndur al heuene, bi that that is doon in Jerusalem, 13 as it is writun in the lawe of Moises. Al this yuel cam on vs, and, oure Lord God, we preiden not thi face, that we schulden turne ayen fro oure wickidnessis, and schulden thenke thi treuthe. 14 And the Lord wakide on malice, and brouyt it on vs; oure Lord God is iust in alle his werkis whiche he made, for we herden not his vois. 15 And now, Lord God, that leddist thi puple out of the lond of Egypt in strong hond, and madist to thee a name bi this dai, we han synnede, 16 we han do wickidnesse, Lord, ayens thi riytfulnesse. Y biseche, thi wraththe and thi stronge veniaunce be turned away fro thi citee Jerusalem, and fro thi hooli hil; for whi for oure synnes, and for the wickidnessis of oure fadris, Jerusalem and thi puple ben in schenschiipe, to alle men bi oure cumpas. 17 But now, oure God, here thou the preyer of thi seruaut, and the bisechyngis of him, and schewe thi face on thi seyntuarie, which is forsakun. 18 My God, for thi silt boowe down thin eere, and here; opene thin iyen, and se oure desolacioun, and the citee, on which thi name is clepid to help. For not in oure iustifyngis we setten forth mekeli preiers bifor thi face, but in thi many merciful doyngis. 19 Lord, here thou; Lord, be thou plesid, perseyue thou, and do; my Lord God, tarie thou not, for thi silt, for thi name is clepid to help on the citee, and on thi puple. 20 And whanne Y spak yit, and preiede, and knouelechide my synnes, and the synnes of my puple Israel, that Y schulde sette forth mekeli my preieris in the siyt of my God, for the hooli hil of my God, 21 the while Y spak yit in my preyer, lo! the man Gabriel, whom Y hadde seyn in visioun at the bigynnyng, flei soone, and touchide me in the tyme of euentid sacrifice; 22 and he tauyt me, and he spak to me, and seide, Danyel, now Y yede out, that Y schulde teche thee, and thou schuldist vndurstonde. 23 Fro the bigynnyng of thi preieris a word yede out. Forsothe Y cam to schewe to thee, for thou art a man of desiris; therfor perseyue thou the word, and vndurstonde thou the visioun. 24 Seuenti woukis of yeeris ben abreggid on thi puple, and on thin hooli citee, that trespassyng be endid, and synne take an ende, and that wickidnesse be doon awei, and euerlastyng riytfulnesse be brouyt, and that the visioun, and prophesie be fillid, and the hooli of seyntis be anoyntid. 25 Therfor wite thou, and perseyue; fro the goyng out of the word, that Jerusalem be bildid eft, til to Crist, the duyck, schulen be seuene woukis of yeeris and two and sixti woukis of yeeris; and eft the street schal be bildid, and wallis, in the angwisch of tymes. 26 And after two and sixti woukis `of yeeris Crist schal be slayn. And it schal not be his puple, that schal denye hym. And the puple with the duyck to comyng schal distrie the citee, and the seyntuarie; and the ende therof schal be distriyng, and after the ende of batel schal be ordeynede desolacioun. 27 Forsothe o wouk `of yeeris schal conferme the couenaunt to many men, and the offryng and sacrifice schal faile in the myddis of the wouke of yeeris; and abhomynacioun of desolacioun schal be in the temple, and the desolacioun schal contynue til to the parformyng and ende.

10 In the thridde yeer of the rewme of Sirus, kyng of Perseis, a word was schewid to Danyel, Balthasar bi name; and a trewe word, and greet strengthe, and he vndurstood the word; for whi vndurstondyng is nedeful in visioun. 2 In tho daies Y, Danyel, mourenyde bi the daies of thre woukis; 3 Y eet not desirable breed, and fleisch, and wyn entride not into my mouth, but nethir Y was annoynted with oynement, til the daies of thre woukis weren fillid. 4 Forsothe in the foure and twentithe dai of

And whanne he hadde seid this word to me, Y stood quakyng. 12 And he seide to me, Danyel, nyle thou drede, for fro the firste dai in which thou settidist thin herte to vndurstonde, that thou schuldist turmente thee in the siyt of thi God, thi wordis weren herd, and Y cam for thi wordis. 13 Forsothe the prince of the rewme of Perseis ayenstode me oon and twenti daies, and lo! Do sche away hir fornicaciouns fro hir face, and hir auowtries fro the myddis of hir brestis; 3 lest perauenture Y spuyle hir nakid, and sette hir nakid bi the dai of hir natyuyte. And Y schal sette hir as a wildirnesse, and Y schal ordeyne hir as a lond with out weie, and Y schal sle hir in thirst. 4 And Y schal not haue merci on the sones of hir, for thei ben sones of fornicaciouns; 5 for the modir of hem dide fornicacioun, sche is schent that conseyuede hem, for sche seide, Y schal go after my louyeris that yeuen looues to me, and my watris, and my wolfe, and my flex, and myn oile, and my drynke. 6 For this thing lo! Y schal hegge thi weie with thornes, and Y schal hegge it with a wal, and sche schal not fynde hir pathis. 7 And sche schal sue hir louyeris, and schal not take hem, and sche schal seke hem, and schal not fynde; and sche schal seie, Y schal go, and turne ayen to my formere hosebonde, for it was wel to me thanne more than now. 8 And this Jerusalem wiste not, that Y yaf to hir wheete, wyn, and oile; and Y multiplied siluer and gold to hir, whiche thei maden to Baal. 9 Therfor Y schal turne, and take my wheete in his tyme, and my wiyn in his tyme; and Y schal delyuere my wolfe, and my flex, bi which thei hilden the schenschipe therof. 10 And now Y schal schewe the foli of hir bifore the iyen of hir louyeris, and a man schal not delyuere hir fro myn hond; 11 and Y schal make to ceesse al the ioye therof, the solempnyte therof, the neomenye therof, the sabat therof, and alle the feeste tymes therof. 12 And Y schal distrie the vyner therof, of whiche sche seide, These ben myn hiris, whiche my louyeris yauen to me; and Y schal sette it in to a forest, and a beeste of the feeld schal ete it. 13 And Y schal visite on it the daies of Baalym, in whiche it brente encense, and was ourned with hir eere ryng, and hir broche, and yede after hir louyeris, and foryat me, seith the Lord. 14 For this thing lo! Y schal yyue mylk to it, and Y schal brynge it in to wildirnesse, and Y schal speke to the herte therof. 15 And Y schal yyue to it vyn tilieris therof of the same place, and the valei of Achar, that is, of disturbyng, for to opene hope. And it schal synge there bi the daies of hir yongthe, and bi the daies of hir stiyng fro the lond of Egypt. 16 And it schal be in that dai, seith the Lord, sche schal clepe me Myn hosebonde, and sche schal no more clepe me Baalym; 17 and Y schal take awei the names of Baalym fro hir mouth, and sche schal no more haue mynde of the name of tho. 18 And Y schal smyte to hem a boond of pees in that dai with the beeste of the feeld, and with the brid of the eir, and with the crepyng beeste of erthe. And Y schal al to-breke bowe, and swerd, and batel fro erthe; and Y schal make hem to slepe tristiili. 19 And Y schal spouse thee to me withouten ende; and Y schal spouse thee to me in riyftulnesse, and in dom, and in merci, and in merciful doyngis. 20 And Y schal spouse thee to me in feith; and thou schalt wite, that Y am the Lord. 21 And it schal be, in that dai Y schal here, seith the Lord, and Y schal here heuenes, and tho schulen here the erthe; 22 and the erthe schal here wheete, and wyn, and oile, and these schulen here Jesrael. 23 And Y schal sowe it to me in to a lond, and Y schal haue merci on it that was with out merci. And Y schal seie to that, that is not my puple, Thou art my puple, and it schal seie, Thou art my God.

3 And the Lord seide to me, Yit go thou, and loue a womman loued of a frend, and a womman auoutresse, as the Lord loueth the sones of Israel; and thei biholden to alien goddis, and louen the draffis of grapis. 2 And Y dalf it to me bi fiftene pens, and bi a corus of barli, and bi half a corus of barli. 3 And Y seide to it, Bi many daies thou shalt abide me; thou schalt not do fornicacioun, and thou schalt not be with an hosebonde, but also Y schal abide thee. 4 For bi many daies the sones of Israel schulen sitte with out kyng, with out prince, and with out sacrifice, and with out auter, and with out prestis cloth, and with out terafyn, that is, ymagis. 5 And after these thingis the sones of Israel schulen turne ayen, and schulen seke her Lord God, and Daid, her king; and thei schulen drede at the Lord, and at the good of him, in the laste of daies.

4 Sones of Israel, here ye the word of the Lord, for whi doom is to the Lord with the dwelleris of erthe; for whi trewthe is not, and merci is not, and kunnyng of the Lord is not in erthe. 2

Curs, and leesyng, and manquelling, and thefte, and auowtrie flowiden, and blood touchide blood. 3 For this thing the erthe schal mourne, and ech that dwellith in that lond, schal be sijk, in the beeste of the feeld, and in the brid of the eir; but also the fischis of the see schulen be gaderid togidere. 4 Netheles ech man deme not, and a man be not repreuyd; for thi puple is as thei that ayen seien the prest. 5 And thou schalt falle to dai, and the profete also schal falle with thee; in the niyt Y made thi modir to be stille. 6 My puple was stille, for it hadde not kunnyng; for thou hast putte awei kunnyng, Y schal putte thee awei, that thou vse not presthod to me; and for thou hast foryet the lawe of thi God, also Y schal foryet thei sones. 7 Bi the multitude of hem, so thei synneden ayens me. Y schal chaunge the glorie of hem in to schenschipec. 8 Thei schulen ete the synnes of my puple, and thei schulen reise the soulis of hem to the wickidnesse of hem. 9 And it schal be, as the puple so the prest; and Y schal visite on hym the weies of hym, and Y schal yelde to him the thouytis of hym. 10 And thei schulen ete, and thei schulen not be fillid; thei didnen fornicacioun, and ceessiden not, for thei forsoken the Lord in not keypyng. 11 Fornycacioun, and wyyn, and drunkenesse doen awei the herte. 12 My puple axide in his tre, and the staf therof telde to it; for the spirit of fornicacioun disseyuode hem, and thei didnen fornicacioun fro her God. 13 On the heedis of mounteyns thei maden sacrifice, and on the litil hillis thei brenten encense vndur an ook, and a popeler, and terebynte, for the schadewe therof was good. Therfor youre douytris schulen do fornicacioun, and youre wyues schulen be auoutressis. 14 Y schal not visite on youre douytris, whanne thei don fornicacioun, and on youre wyues, whanne thei doon auowtrie; for thei lyuyden with hooris, and maden sacrifice with men turned in to wymmens condiciouns. And the puple that vndirstondith not, schal be betun. 15 If thou, Israel, doist fornicacioun, nameli Juda trespassse not; and nyle ye entre in to Galgala, and stie ye not in to Bethauen, nether swere ye, The Lord lyueth. 16 For as a wielde cow Israel bowide awei; now the Lord schal fede hem as a lomb in broodnesse. 17 Effraym is the partener of idols, leeuwe thou him; 18 the feeste of hem is departid. Bi fornicacioun thei didnen fornicacioun, the defenders therof louyden to bryng schenschipec. 19 The spirit boond hym in hise wyngis, and thei schulen be schent of her sacrifices.

5 Preestis, here ye this, and the hous of Israel, perseyue ye, and the hous of the kyng, herkne ye; for whi doom is to you, for ye ben maad a snare to lokyng afer, and as a net spred abroad on Thabor. 2 And ye bowiden doun sacrifices in to depthe; and Y am the lernere of alle hem. 3 Y knowe Effraym, and Israel is not hid fro me; for now Effraym dide fornicacioun, Israel is defouild. 4 Thei schulen not yiue her thouytis, that thei turne ayen to her God; for the spirit of fornicacioun is in the myddis of hem, and thei knewen not the Lord. 5 And the boost of Israel schal answere in to the face therof, and Israel and Effraym schulen falle in her wickidnesse; also Judas schal falle with hem. 6 In her flockis, and in her droues thei schulen go to seke the Lord, and thei schulen not fynde; he is takun awei fro hem. 7 Thei trespassiden ayens the Lord, for thei gendriden alien sones; now the monethe schal deuoure hem with her partis. 8 Sowne ye with a clarioun in Gabaa, with a trumpe in Rama; yelle ye in Bethauen, after thi bak, Beniamyn. 9 Effraym schal be in to desolacioun, in the dai of amending, and in the lynagis of Israel Y schewide feith. 10 The princes of Juda ben maad as takyng terme; Y schal schede out on hem my wratthe as watir. 11 Effraym suffrih fals chalenge, and is brokun bi doom; for he bigan to go after filthis. 12 And Y am as a mouyte to Effraym, and as rot to the hous of Juda. 13 And Effraym siy his sikenesse, and Judas siy his boond. And Effraym yede to Assur, and sente to the kyng veniere. And he mai not saue you, nether he mai vnbynde the boond fro you. 14 For Y am as a lionesse to Effraym, and as a whelp of a lion to the hous of Juda. 15 Y my silf schal take, and go, and take awei, and noon is that schal delyuere. I schal go, and turne ayen to my place, til ye failen, and seken my face.

6 In her tribulacioun thei schulen rise eerli to me. Come ye, and turne we ayen to the Lord; 2 for he took, and schal heele vs; he schal smyte, and schal make vs hool. 3 He schal quykene vs after twei daies, and in the thridde dai he schal reise vs, and we schulen lyue in his siyt. We schulen wite, and sue, that we knowe the Lord. His goyng out is maad redi at the morewtid, and he schal come as a reyn to vs, which is timeful and lateful to the erthe. 4 Effraym, what schal Y do to thee? Juda, what schal Y do to thee? Yourc merci is as a cloude of the morewtid, and as deew passyng forthe eerli. 5 For this thing Y hewide in profetis, Y killide hem in the wordis of my mouth; 6 and thi domes schulen go out as liyt. For Y wolde merci, and not sacrifice, and Y wolde the kunnyng of God, more than brent sacrificis. 7 But thei as Adam braken the couenaunt; there thei trespassiden ayens me. 8 Galaad the citee of hem that worchen idol, is supplauntid with blood; and 9 as the chekis of men that ben theues. Partener of prestis sleyng in the weie men goyng fro Sichem, for thei wrouyten greet trespassse. 10 In the hous of Israel Y siy an orible thing; there the fornicaciouns of Effraym. 11 Israel is defouild; but also thou, Juda, sette heruest to thee, whanne Y schal turne the caitiftee of my puple.

7 Whanne Y wolde heele Israel, the wickidnesse of Effraym was schewid, and the malice of Samarie was schewid, for thei wrouyten a leesyng. And a niyt theef entride, and robbid; a dai theef was withoutforth. 2 And lest thei seien in her hertis, that Y haue mynde on al the malice of hem, now her fyndyngis han cumpassid hem, tho ben maad bifor my face. 3 In her malice thei gladiden the kyng, and in her leesyngis thei gladiden the princes. 4 Alle that doen auoutrie, ben as an ouene maad hoot of a bakere. The citee restide a litil fro the medlyng of sour douy, til al was maad sour of sour douy. 5 The dai of oure kyng; the princis bigunnen to be wood of wyn; he stretchide forth his hoond with scornis. 6 For thei applyden her herte as an ouene, whanne he settide tresoun to hem. Al the niyt he slepte bakyng hem, in the morewtid he was maad hoot, as the fier of flawme. 7 Alle weren maad hoot as an ouene, and thei deuouriden her iugis. Alle the kyngis of hem fellen down, and noon is among hem that crieth to me. 8 Effraym hym silf was medlid among pupilis; Effraym was maad a loof bakun vndur aischis, which is not turned ayen. 9 Aliens eeten the strengthe of hym, and he knew not; but also hoor heeris weren sched out in hym, and he knew not. 10 And the pride of Israel schal be maad low in the face therof; thei turneden not ayen to her Lord God, and thei souyten not hym in alle these thingis. 11 And Effraym was maad as a culuer disseyued, not hauynge herte. Thei clepiden Egypt to help, thei yeden to Assiriens. 12 And whanne thei ben goen forth, Y schal sprede abroad on hem my net, Y schal drawe hem doun as a brid of the eir. Y schal beete hem, bi the heryng of the company of hem. 13 Wo to hem, for thei yeden awei fro me; thei schulen be distried, for thei trespassiden ayens me. And Y ayenbouyte hem, and thei spaken leesynge ayenus me. 14 And thei crieden not to me in her herte, but yelliden in her beddis. Thei chewiden code on wheete, and wyn, and thei yeden awei fro me. 15 And Y tauyte, and coumfortide the armes of hem, and thei thouyten malice ayens me. 16 Thei turneden ayen, that thei schulden be with out yok; thei ben maad as a gileful bowe. The princis of hem schulen falle doun bi swerd, for the woodnesse of her tunge; this is the scornynge of hem in the lond of Egypt.

8 A trumpe be in thi throte, as an egle on the hous of the Lord; for that that thei yeden ouer my boond of pees, and braken my lawe. 2 Thei clepiden me to helpe, A! my God, we Israel han knowe thee. 3 Israel hath cast awei good, the enemye schal pursue hym. 4 Thei regnyden, and not of me; thei weren princes, and Y knew not. Thei maden her gold and siluer idols to hem, that thei schulden perische. 5 A! Samarie, thi calf is cast awei; my strong veniaunce is wrooth ayens hem. Hou long moun thei not be clensid? 6 for also it is of Israel. A crafti man made it, and it is not god; for the calf of Samarie schal be in to webbis of ireyns. 7 For thei schulen sowe wynd, and thei schulen repe whirlewynd. A stalke stondynge is not in hem, the seed schal not make mele; that if also it makith mele, aliens schulen ete it. 8 Israel is deuouryd; now Israel is maad as an vnclene vessel among naciouns, 9 for thei stieden to Assur. Effraym is a wiede asse, solitarie to hym silf. Thei yauen yiftis to louteris; 10 but also with meede thei hiriden naciouns. Now Y schal gadere hem togidere, and thei schulen reste a lital fro birthun of the kyng and of princes. 11 For Efraym multipliede auteris to do synne, auteris weren maad to hym in to trespas. 12 Y schal write to hem my many fold lawis, that ben arettid as alien lawis. 13 Thei schulen brynge sacrifices, thei shulen offre, and ete fleischis; and the Lord schal not resseyue tho. Now he schal haue mynde on the wickidness of hem, and he schal visite the synnes of hem; thei schulen turne in to Egypt. 14 And Israel foryat his makere, and bildide templs to idols, and Judas multipliede stronge citees; and Y schal sende fier in to the citees of hym, and it schal deuoure the housis of hym.

9 Israel, nyle thou be glad, nyle thou make ful out ioie as puplis; for thou hast do fornicacioun fro thi God. Thou louedist meede on alle the cornflooris of wheete. 2 The cornfloor and pressour schal not feede hem, and wyn schal lie to hem. 3 Thei schulen not dwelle in the lond of the Lord. Effraym turnede ayen in to Egypt, and eet defoulid thing among Assiriens. 4

Thei schulen not offre wyn to the Lord, and thei schulen not plesse hym. The sacrificis of hem ben as breed of mourneris; alle that schulen ete it schulen be defoulid. For the breed of hem is to the lijf of hem; thei schulen not entre in to the hous of the Lord. 5 What schulen ye do in the solempne dai, in the dai of the feeste of the Lord? 6 For lo! thei ben goon out fro distrying. Egypt schal gadere hem togidere, Memphis schal birie hem. A nettle schal enherite the desirable siluer of hem, a clote schal be in the tabernaclis of hem. 7 Daies of visitacioun ben comun, daies of yeldyng ben comun. Knowe ye, that Israel is a fool, a wood profete, a spiritual man, for the multitude of thi wickidnesse is also the multitude of woodnesse. 8 The biholdere of Effraym with my God is a profete; a snare of fallynge is maad now on alle the weies of hym, woodnesse is in the hous of his God. 9 Thei synneden deepli, as in the daies of Gabaa. The Lord schal haue mynde on the wickidnesse of hem, and schal visite the synnes of hem. 10 Y foond Israel as grapis in desert, Y siy the fadris of hem as the firste applis of a fige tree, in the cop therof; but thei entriden to Belfegor, and weren alienyd in confusioun, and thei weren maad abhominable as tho thingis whiche thei louyden. 11 Effraym as a brid fley awei; the glorie of hem is of childberyng, and of the wombe, and of conseyuyng. 12 That if thei nurschen her sones, Y schal make hem with out children among men. But also wo to hem, whanne Y schal go awei fro hem. 13 Y siy that Effraym was as Tire, foundid in fairnesse; and Effraym schal lede out hise sones to the sleere. 14 Lord, yyue thou to hem; what schalt thou yyue to hem? yyue thou to hem a wombe with out children, and drie tetis. 15 Alle the wickidnessis of hem ben in Galgal, for there Y hadde hem hateful; for the malice of her fyndyngis. Y schal caste hem out of myn hous; Y schal not leie to, that Y loue hem. Alle the princes of hem goen awei. 16 Effraym is smyten, the roote of hem is dried vp; thei schulen not make fruyt. That thouy thei gendren, Y schal sle the moost louyd thingis of her wombe. 17 My God schal caste hem away, for thei herden not hym; and thei schulen be of vnstable dwellyng among naciouns.

10 Israel was a vyne ful of bowis, fruyt was maad euene to hym; bi the multitude of his fruyt he multipliede auteris, bi the plente of his lond he was plenteuouse. 2 In simylacris the herte of hem is departid, now thei schulen perische. He schal breke the simylacris of hem, he schal robbe the auteris of hem. 3 For thanne thei schulen seie, A kyng is not to vs, for we dreden not the Lord. And what schal a kyng do to vs? 4 Speke ye wordis of vnprofitable visioun, and ye schulen smyte boond of pees with leesynge; and doom as bittirnesse schal burioune on the forewis of the feelde. 5 The dwelleris of Samarie worschpiden the kien of Bethauen. For the puple therof mourenyde on that calf, and the keperis of the hous therof; thei maden ful out ioie on it in the glorie therof, for it passide fro that puple. 6 For also it was borun to Assur, a yifte to the king veniere. Confusioun schal take Effraym, and Israel schal be schent in his wille. 7 Samarie made his kyng to passe, as froth on the face of water. And the hiy thingis of idol, the synne of Israel, schulen be lost. 8 A cloote and a brere schal stie on the auters of hem. And thei schulen seie to mounteyns, Hile ye vs, and to litle hillis, Falle ye down on vs. 9 Fro the daies of Gabaa Israel synnede; there thei stoden. Batel schal not take hem in Gabaa, 10 on the sones of wickidnesse. Bi my desir Y schal chastise hem; pupilis schulen be gaderid togidere on hem, whanne thei schulen be chastisid for her twei wickidnessis. 11 Effraym is a cow calf, tauyt for to loue threischyng; and Y yede on the fairenesse of the necke therof. Y schal stie on Effraym. Judas schal ere, and Jacob schal breke forewis to hym silf. 12 Sowe ye to you riyftfulnesse in treuthe, and repe ye in the mouthe of merci, and make ye newe to you a feld newli brouyte to tilthe. Forsothe tyme is to seke the Lord, whanne he cometh, that schal teche you riyftfulnesse. 13 Ye han erid vnfeithfulnesse, ye han rope wickidnesse, ye han ete the corn of leesyng. For thou tristydist in thi weles, and in the multitude of thi stronge men. 14 Noise schal rise in thi puple, and alle thi stronge holdis schulen be distried; as Salmāna was distried of the hous of hym, that took veniaunce on Baal; in the dai of batel, whanne the modir was hurlid down on the sones. 15 So Bethel dide to you, for the face of malice of youre wickidnessis.

11 As the morewid passith, the king of Israel schal passe forth. For Israel was a child, and Y louyde hym; and fro Egypt Y clepide my sone. 2 Thei clepiden hem, so thei yeden awei fro the face of hem. Thei offriden to Baalym, and maden sacrifice to symylacris. 3 And Y as a nurse of Effraym bare hem in myn armes, and thei wisten not, that Y kepte hem. 4 Y schal drawe hem in the ropis of Adam, in the boondis of charite. And Y schal be to hem as he that enhaunsith the yok on the chekis of hem; and Y bowide down to hym, that he schulde ete. 5 He schal not turne ayen in to the lond of Egypt. And Assur, he schal be kyng of hym, for thei nolden turne. 6 A swerd bigan in the citees therof, and it schal waaste the chosun men therof, and schal eete the heedis of hem. 7 And my puple schal hange, at my comynge ayen. But a yok schal be put to hem togidere, that schal not be takun awei. 8 Hou schal Y yyue thee, Effraym? schal Y defende thee, Israel? hou schal Y yyue thee? As Adama Y schal sette thee; as Seboym. Myn herte is turned in me; my repentaunce is disturblid togidere. 9 Y schal not do the strong veniaunce of my wraththe. Y schal not turne, to leese Effraym; for Y am God, and not man. Y am hooli in the myddis of thee, and Y schal not entre in to a citee. 10 Thei schulen go after the Lord. He shal rore as a lioun, for he shal rore, and the sones of the see schulen drede. 11 And thei schulen fle awei as a brid fro Egypt, and as a culuer fro the lond of Assiriens. And Y schal sette hem in her housis, seith the Lord. 12 Effraym cumpasside me in denying, the hous of Israel in gile. But Judas a witnessse yede down with God, and with feithful seyntis.

12 Effraym fedith wynd, and sueth heete. Al dai he multiplieth leesyng, and distriyng; and he made boond of pees with Assiriens, and bar oile in to Egypt. 2 Therfor the doom of the Lord is with Juda, and visityng is on Jacob; bi the weies of hym, and bi the fyndyngis of hym he schal yelde to hym. 3 In the wombe he supplauntide his brother, and in his strengthe he was dressid with the aungel. 4 And he was strong to the aungel, and was coumfortid; he wepte, and preiede hym; in Bethel he foond hym, and there he spak with vs. 5 And the Lord God of oostis, the Lord, is the memorial of hym. 6 And thou schalt turne to thi God. Kepe thou merci and doom, and hope thou euere in thi God. 7 Chanaan louyde fals caleng, a gileful balaunce in his hond. 8 And Effraym seide, Netheles Y am maad riche, Y haue founde an idol to me; alle my trauelis schulen not fynde to me the wickidnesse, whiche Y synnede. 9 And Y am thi Lord God fro the lond of Egypt; yit Y schal make thee to sitte in tabernaclis, as in the daies of feeste. 10 And Y spak bi profetis, and Y multiplied profesie, and Y was licned in the hond of profetis. 11 If Galaad worshipith an idol, therfor thei erren in veyn offryng to oxis in Galgal; for whi and the auteris of hem schulen be as heepis on the forewis of the feeld. 12 Jacob fledde in to the cuntrei of Sirie, and Israel seruyde for a wijf, and seruyde, ether kepte, for a wijf. 13 But bi a profete the Lord ledde Israel out of Egypt, and bi a profete he was kept. 14 Effraym terride me to wrathfulnesse in hise bitternessis, and the blood of hym schal come on hym; and his Lord schal restore to hym the schenschipec of him.

13 For Effraym spak, hidousnesse assailide Israel; and he trespasside in Baal, and was deed. 2 And now thei addiden to do synne, and maden to hem a yotun ymage of her siluer, as the licesse of idols; al is the makyng of crafti men. To these thei seien, Al ye men, offre, and worschipec caluys. 3 Therfor thei schulen be as a morewid cloude, and as the deew of morewid, that passith forth, as dust rauschide bi whirlewynd fro the corn floor, and as smoke of a chymenei. 4 Forsothe Y am thi Lord God, that ledde thee fro the loond of Egypt; and thou schalt not knowe God, outakun me, and no sayour is, outakun me. 5 Y knewe thee in the desert, in the lond of wildirnesse. 6 Bi her lesewis thei weren fillid, and hadden abundaunce; thei reisen her herte, and foryaten me. 7 And Y schal be as a lionesse to hem, as a parde in the weye of Assiriens. 8 Y as a femal bere, whanne the whelps ben rauschid, schal mete hem; and schal al to-breke the ynnere thingis of the mawe of hem. And Y as a lioun schal waaste hem there; a beeste of the feeld schal al to-rende hem. 9 Israel, thi perdicion is of thee; thin help is oneli of me. 10 Where is thi kyng? moost saue he thee now in alle thi citees; and where ben thi iugis, of whiche thou seidist, Yyue thou to me a kyng, and princes? 11 Y schal yyue to thee a kyng in my strong veniaunce, and Y schal take awei in myn indignacioun. 12 The wickidnesse of Effraym is boundun togidere; his synne is hid. 13 The sorewis of a womman trauelynge of child schulen come to hym; he is a sone not wijs. For now he schal not stonde in the defoulyng of sones. 14 Y schal delyuere hem fro the hoond of deeth, and Y schal ayenbie hem fro deth. Thou deth, Y schal be thi deth; thou helle, Y schal be thi mussel. (Sheol h7585) 15 Coumfort is hid fro myn iyen, for he schal departe bitwixe britheren. The Lord schal brynge a brennyng wynd, styngye fro desert; and it schal make drie the veynes therof, and it schal make desolat the welle therof; and he schal rauschyc the treasour of ech desirable vessel. 16 Samarie perische, for it stirde his God to bittirnesse; perische it bi swerd. The litle children of hem be hurtlid doun, and the wymmen with child therof be koruun.

14 Israel, be thou conuertid to thi Lord God, for thou fellist doun in thi wickidnesse. 2 Take ye wordis with you, and be ye conuertid to the Lord; and seie ye to hym, Do thou awei al wickidnesse, and take thou good; and we schulen yelde the caluys of oure lippis. 3 Assur schal not saue vs, we schulen not stie on hors; and we schulen no more seie, Oure goddis ben the werkis of oure hondis; for thou schalt haue merci on that modirles child, which is in thee. 4 Y schal make hool the sorewis of hem; Y schal loue hem wilfuli, for my strong veniaunce is turned awei fro hem. 5 Y schal be as a dew, and Israel schal buriowne as a liliie. And the root therof schal breke out as of the Liban; 6 the braunchis therof schulen go. And the glorye therof schal be as an olyue tree, and the odour therof schal be as of the Liban. 7 Thei schulen be conuertid, and sitte in the schadewe of hym; thei schulen lyue bi wheete, and schulen buriowne as a vyne. The memorial therof schal be as the wyne of Liban. 8 Effraym, what schulen idols do more to me? Y schal here him, and Y schal dresse him as a greene fir tree. Thi fruit is foundun of me. 9 Who is wijs, and schal vndurstonde these thingis? who is vndurstandyng, and schal kunne these thingis?
For the weies of the Lord ben riytful, and iust men schulen go in tho; but trespassours schulen falle in tho.

Joel

1 The word of the Lord is this, that was maad to Joel, the sone of Phatuel. 2 Elde men, here ye this, and alle dwellers of the lond, perseuyue ye with eeris. If this thing was don in youre daies, ether in the daies of youre fadris. 3 Of this thing telle ye to your sones, and your sones telle to her sones, and the sones of hem telle to another generacioun. 4 A locuste eet the residue of a worte worm, and a bruke eet the residue of a locuste, and rust eet the residue of a bruke. 5 Drunken men, wake ye, and wepe; and yelle ye, alle that drynken wyn in swetnesse; for it perischide fro youre mouth. 6 For whi a folc strong and vnnoumbrable stiede on my lond. The teeth therof ben as the teeth of a lioun, and the cheek teeth therof ben as of a whelp of a lioun. 7 It settide my vyner in to desert, and took awei the riynde of my fige tre. It made nakid and spuylide that vyner, and castide forth; the braunchis therof ben maad white. 8 Weile thou, as a virgyn gird with a sak on the hosebonde of hir tyme of mariage. 9 Sacrifice and moist sacrifice perischide fro the hous of the Lord; and preestis, the mynystis of the Lord, moureneden. 10 The cuntrey is maad bare of puple. The erthe mourenyde; for whete is distried. Wyn is schent, and oile was sijk, ether failide. 11 The erthe tilieris ben schent, the vyn tilieris yelliden on wheete and barli; for the ripe corn of the feeld is perischid. 12 The vyner is schent; and the fige tre was sijk. The pomgarnate tre, and the palm tre, and the fir tre, and alle trees of the feeld drieniden vp; for ioie is schent fro the sones of men. 13 Ye prestis, girde you, and weile; ye mynystis of the auter, yelle. Mynystis of my God, entre ye, ligge ye in sak; for whi sacrifice and moist sacrifice perischide fro the hous of youre God. 14 Halewe ye fastyng, clepe ye cumpeny, gadere ye togidere elde men, and alle dwellers of the erthe in to the hous of youre God; and crie ye to the Lord, A! 15 A! A! to the dai; for the dai of the Lord is niy, and schal come as a tempest for the myyti. 16 Whether foodis perischiden not bfore youre iyen; gladnesse and ful out ioie perischide fro the hous of youre God? 17 Beestis wexen rotun in her drit. Bernes ben distried, celeris ben distried, for wheete is schent. 18 Whi weilide a beeste? whi lowiden the flockis of oxun and kien? for no lesewe is to hem; but also the flockis of scheep perischiden. 19 Lord, Y schal crye to thee, for fier eet the faire thingis of desert, and flawme brente all the trees of the cuntrei. 20 But also beestis of the feeld, as a corn floor thirstyng reyn, bihelden to thee; for the wellis of watris ben dried vp, and fier deuouride the faire thingis of desert.

2 Synge ye with a trumpe in Sion, yelle ye in myn hooli hil. Alle the dwellers of erthe be disturblid; for the dai of the Lord cometh, 2 for the dai of derkniss and of myist is niy, the dai of cloude and of whirlewynde. As the morewid spred abroad on hillis, a myche puple and strong. Noon was lijk it fro the bigynnyng, and after it schal not be, til in to yeeris of generacioun and of generacioun. 3 Bfore the face therof schal be fier deuouryng, and after it schal be brennyng flawme; as a gardyn of liking the lond schal be bifor him, and wildirnesse of desert schal be after him, and noon is that schal ascape him. 4

The loking of hem schal be as the loking of horsis, and as horse men so thei schulen renne. 5 As the sown of cartis on the heedis of hillis thei schulen skippe; as the sowne of the flawme of fier deuouryng stobil, as a strong puple maad redi to batel. 6 Pupilis schulen be turmentid of the face therof, alle facis schulen be dryun in to a pot. 7 As stronge men thei schulen renne, as men werriours thei schulen stie on the wal. Men schulen go in her weies, and thei schulen not bowe awei fro her pathis. 8 Ech man schal not make streyt his brother, ech man schal go in his path; but also thei schulen falle down bi wyndows, and schulen not be hirt. 9 Thei schulen entre in to the citee, thei schulen renne on the wal; thei schulen stie on housis, thei schulen entre as a niyt theef bi wyndows. 10 The erthe tremblide of his face, heuenys weren mouyd, the sunne and the moone weren maad derk, and sterris withdrawen her schynyng. 11 And the Lord yaf his vois bifor the face of his oost, for hise oostis ben ful manye; for tho ben stronge, and doen the word of hym. For the dai of the Lord is greet, and ful ferdful, and who schal suffre it? 12 Now therfor seith the Lord, Be ye conuertid to me in al youre herte, in fastyng, and wepyng, and weilyng; 13 and kerue ye youre hertis, and not youre clothis, and be ye conuertid to youre Lord God, for he is benygne, and merciful, pacient, and of myche merci, and abidyng, ether foryuyng, on malice. 14 Who woot, if God be conuertid, and foryue, and leeue blessing afir hym? sacrifice and moist sacrifice to oure Lord God. 15 Synge ye with a trumpe in Sion, halewe ye fastyng, clepe ye cumpany; gadere ye togidere the puple, halewe ye the chirche, 16 gadere ye togidere elde men, gadere ye togidere litte children, and soukyng the brestis; a spouse go out of his bed, and a spousesse of hir chaumbre. 17 Prestis, the mynystis of the Lord, schulen wepe bitwixe the porche and the auter, and schulen seie, Lord! spare thou, spare thi puple, and yyue thou not thin eritage in to schenschiipe, that naciouns be lordis of hem. Whi seien thei among pupilis, Where is the God of hem? 18 The Lord louyde gelousli his lond, and sparide his puple. 19 And the Lord answeride, and seide to his puple, Lo! Y schal sende to you wheete, and wyn, and oile, and ye schulen be fillid with tho; and Y schal no more yyue you schenschiipe among hethene men. 20 And Y schal make hym that is at the north fer fro you; and Y schal cast hym out in to a lond with out weie, and desert; his face ayens the eest see, and the laste part therof at the last see; and the stynk therof schal stie, and the root therof schal stie, for he dide proudli. 21 Erthe, nyle thou drede, make thou ful out ioie, and be glad; for the Lord magniefiede that he schulde do. 22 Beestis of the cuntrei, nyle ye drede, for the faire thingis of desert buriownden; for the tre brouyte his fruyt, the fige tre and vyner yauen her vertu. 23 And the sones of Sion, make ye ful out ioie, and be ye glad in youre Lord God, for he yaf to you a techere of riyfulnessse, and he schal make morewid reyn and euentid reyn to come down to you, as in the bigynnyng. 24 And cornflooris schulen be fillid of wheete, and pressours schulen flowe with wyn, and oile. 25 And Y schal yelde to you the yeris whiche the locuste, bruke, and rust, and wort worm, my greet strengthe, eet, which Y sente in to you. 26 And ye schulen ete etyng, and ye schulen be fillid;

and ye schulen herie the name of youre Lord God, that made merueils with you; and my puple schal not be schent with outen ende. 27 And ye schulen wite, that Y am in the myddis of Israel; and Y am youre Lord God, and `noon is more; and my puple schal not be schent with outen ende. 28 And it schal be, after these thingis Y schal schede out my spirit on ech man, and youre sones and youre douytris schulen profesie; youre elde men schulen dreme dremes, and youre yonge men schulen se visious. 29 But also Y schal schede out my spirit on my seruauantis, and handmaydis, in tho daies; 30 and Y schal yyue grete wondris in heuene, and in erthe, blood, and fier, and the heete of smoke. 31 The sunne schal be turned in to derknessis, and the moone in to blood, bifor that the greet dai and orrible of the Lord come. 32 And it schal be, ech that clepith to helpe the name of the Lord, schal be saaf; for whi saluacioun schal be in the hil of Sion and in Jerusalem, as the Lord seide, and in the residue men, whiche the Lord clepith.

3 For lo! in tho daies, and in that tyme, whanne Y schal turne the caitiffe of Juda and of Jerusalem, 2 Y schal gadere alle folkis, and Y schal lede hem in to the valei of Josephat; and Y schal dispute there with hem on my puple, and myn eritage Israel, whiche thei scateriden among naciouns; and thei departiden my lond, and senten lot on my puple; 3 and thei settiden a knaue child in the bordel hous, and seelden a damesel for wyn, that thei schulden drynke. 4 But what to me and to you, thou Tire, and Sidon, and ech ende of Palestyns? Whethir ye schulen yelde vengyng to me? and if ye vengen you ayens me, soone swiftili Y schal yelde while to you on youre heed. 5 Ye token away my siluer and gold, and ye brouyten my desirable thingis and faireste thingis in to youre templeis of idols. 6 And ye selden the sones of Juda, and the sones of Jerusalem to the sones of Grekis, that ye schulden make hem fer fro her coostis. 7 Lo! Y schal reise hem fro the place in which ye seelden hem; and Y schal turne youre yeldyng in to youre heed. 8 And Y schal stille youre sones and youre douytris in the hondis of the sones of Juda, and thei schulen selle hem to Sabeis, a fer folc, for the Lord spak. 9 Crye ye this thing among hethene men, halewe ye batel, reise ye stronge men; alle men werriours, neiy, and stie. 10 Beete ye togydere youre plowis in to swerdis, and youre mattokkis in to speeris; a sijk man seie, that Y am strong. 11 Alle folkis, breke ye out, and come fro cumpas, and be ye gaderid togidere; there the Lord schal make thi stronge men to die. 12 Folkis rise togidere, and stie in to the valei of Josofat; for Y schal sitte there, to deme alle folkis in cumpas. 13 Sende ye sikelis, `ether sithis, for ripe corn wexide; come ye, and go ye down, for the pressour is ful; pressouris ben plenteuouse, for the malice of hem is multiplied. 14 Puplis, puplis in the valei of kittyng down; for the dai of the Lord is nyy in the valei of kittyng down. 15 The sunne and the moone ben maad derk, and sterris withdrawen her schynyng. 16 And the Lord schal rore fro Sion, and schal yyue his vois fro Jerusalem, and heuenes and erthe schulen be moyyd; and the Lord is the hope of his puple, and the strengthe of the sones of Israel. 17 And ye schulen wite, that Y am youre Lord God,

1 The wordis of Amos ben these, that was in the scheperdis thingis of Thecue, whiche he siy on Israel, in the daies of Osie, king of Juda, and in the daies of Jeroboam, sone of Joas, kyng of Israel, bifor twei yeeris of the erthe mouynge. 2 And he seide, The Lord schal rore fro Sion, and schal yyue his vois fro Jerusalem; and the faire thingis of scheperdis mourenyden, and the cop of Carmele was maad drie. 3 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Damask, and on foure, I schal not conuerte it, for it threischide Galaad in irun waynes. 4 And Y schal sende fier in to the hous of Asael, and it schal deuoure the housis of Benadab. 5 And Y schal al to-breke the barre of Damask, and Y schal leese a dweller from the feeld of idol, and hym that holdith the ceptre from the hous of lust and of letcherie; and the puple of Sirie schal be translatid to Sirenen, seith the Lord. 6 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Gasa, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte it, for it translatide perfitt caitifte, to close that togidere in Idumee. 7 And Y schal sende fier in to the wal of Gasa, and it schal deuoure the housis therof. 8 And Y schal leese the dwelleris of Azotus, and hym that holdith the ceptre of Ascalon; and Y schal turne myn hond on Accaron, and the remenauntis of Filisteis schulen perische, seith the Lord God. 9 The Lord God seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Tire, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte it, for thei closiden togidere perfitt caitifte in Idumee, and hadde not mynde on the boond of pees of britheren. 10 And Y schal sende fier in to the wal of Tire, and it schal deuoure the housis therof. 11 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Edom, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte it, for it persuede bi swerd his brother, and defoulide the merci of hym, and helde ferthere his woodnesse, and kepte his indignacioun `til in to the ende. 12 Y schal sende fier in to Theman, and it schal deuoure the housis of Bosra. 13 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of the sonnes of Amon, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte hym, for he karf the wymmen with childe of Galaad, for to alarge his terme. 14 And Y schal kyndle fier in the wal of Rabbe, and it schal deuoure the housis therof, in yellyng in the dai of batel, and in whirlwynd in the dai of mouyng togidere. 15 And Melchon schal go in to caitifte, he and hise princes togidere, seith the Lord.

2 The Lord God seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Moab, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte it, for it brente the boonys of the kyng of Idumee til to aische. 2 And Y schal sende fier in to Moab, and it schal deuoure the housis of Carioth; and Moab schal die in sown, in the noise of a trumpe. 3 And Y schal leese a iuge of the myddis therof, and Y schal sle with it alle the princes therof, seith the Lord. 4 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Juda, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte hym, for he hath caste awei the lawe of the Lord, and kepte not the comaundementis of hym; for her idols, after whiche the fadris of hem yeden, disseyueden hem. 5 And Y schal sende fier in to Juda, and it schal deuoure the housis of Jerusalem. 6 The Lord seith these thingis, On thre grete trespassis of Israel, and on foure, Y schal not conuerte hym, for that that he seelde a iust man for siluer, and a pore man for schoon. 7 Whiche al to-foulen the heedis of pore men on the dust of erthe, and bowen awei the weie of meke men; and the sone and his fadir yeden to a damesele, that thei schulden defoule myn hooli name. 8 And thei eeten on clothis leid to wedde bisidis ech auter, and drunken the wyn of dampned men in the hous of her God. 9 Forsothe Y distriede Ammorrei fro the face of hem, whos hiynesse was the hiynesse of cedris, and he was strong as an ook; and Y al to-brak the fruyt of hym aboue, and the rootis of hym bynethe. 10 Y am, that made you to stie fro the lond of Egypt, and ledde you out in desert bi fourti yeer, that ye schulden welde the lond of Ammorrei. 11 And Y reiseid of youre sonnes in to profetis, and Nayareis of youre yonge men. Whether it is not so, ye sonnes of Israel? seith the Lord. 12 And ye birliden wyn to Nayareis, and comaundiden to profetis, and seiden, Profecie ye not. 13 Lo! Y schal charke vndur you, as a wayn chargid with hei charkith. 14 And fliyt schal perische fro a swift man, and a strong man schal not holde his vertu, and a stalworthe man schal not saue his lijf; 15 and he that holdith a bowe schal not stonde, and a swift man schal not be sauyn by hise feet; and the stiere of an hors schal not saue his lijf, 16 and a stronge man of herte schal fle nakid among stronge men in that dai, seith the Lord.

3 Sonnes of Israel, here ye the word which the Lord spak on you, and on al the kynrede, which Y ledde out of the lond of Egypt, 2 and seide, Oneli Y knewe you of alle the kynredis of erthe; therfor Y schal visite on you alle youre wickidnessis. 3 Whether tweyne schulen go togidere, no but it acorde to hem? 4 Whether a lioun schal rore in a forest, no but he haue prey? Whether the whelp of a lioun schal yyue vois fro his denne, no but he take ony thing? 5 Whether a brid schal falle in to a snare of erthe, with outen a foulere? Whether a snare schal be takun awei fro erthe, bifor that it tak sum thing? 6 Whether a trumpe schal sowne in a citee, and the puple schal not drede? Whether yuel schal be in a citee, which yuel the Lord schal not make? 7 For the Lord God schal not make a word, no but he schewe his priuyte to hise seruauantis profetis. 8 A lioun schal rore, who schal not drede? the Lord God spak, who schal not profesie? 9 Make ye herd in the housis of Azotus, and in the housis of the lond of Egypt; and seie ye, Be ye gaderid togidere on the hillis of Samarye, and se ye many woodnessis in the myddis therof, and hem that suffren fals calenge in the priuy places therof. 10 And thei kouden not do riytful thing, seith the Lord, and tresouriden wickidnesse and raueyn in her housis. 11 Therfor the Lord God seith these thingis, The lond schal be troblid, and be cumpassid; and thi strengthe schal be drawun down of thee, and thin housis schulen be rauyschid. 12 The Lord God seith these thingis, As if a scheperder rauyschith fro the mouth of a lioun tweyne hipis, ether the laste thing of the eere, so the children of Israel schulen be rauyschid, that dwellen in Samarie, in the cuntrei of bed, and in the bed of Damask. 13 Here ye, and witnesse ye in the hous of Jacob, seith the Lord God of oostis. 14 For in the dai, whanne Y schal bigynne to visite the trespassyngis of Israel on hym, Y schal visite also on the auteris of Bethel; and the hornes of the auter schulen be kit awei, and schulen falle doun in to erthe. 15 And Y schal smyte the wynter hous with the somer hous, and the housis of yuer schulen perische, and many housis schulen be distried, seith the Lord.

4 Ye fatte kien, that ben in the hil of Samarie, here this word; whiche maken fals caleng to nedi men, and breken pore men; which seien to youre lordis, Bringe ye, and we schulen drynke. 2 The Lord God swoor in his hooli, for lo! daies schulen come on you; and thei schulen reise you in schaftis, and youre remenauntis in buylynge pottis. 3 And ye schulen go out bi the openyngis, oon ayens another, and ye schulen be cast forth in to Armon, seith the Lord. 4 Come ye to Bethel, and do ye wickidli; to Galgala, and multiplie ye trespassyng; and offre ye eerli youre sacrifices, in thre daies youre tithis. 5 And sacrifice ye heriying of breed maad sour, and clepe ye wilful offryngis, and telle ye; for ye, sones of Israel, wolden so, seith the Lord God. 6 Wherfor and Y yaf to you astonyng of teeth in alle youre citees, and nedinesse of looues in alle youre places; and ye turneden not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 7 Also Y forbeed reyn fro you, whanne thre monethis weren yit to comyng, til to ripe corn; and Y reynede on o citee, and on another citee Y reynede not; o part was bireyned, and the part driede vp on which Y reynede not. 8 And tweyne and thre citees camen to o citee, to drynke watir, and tho weren not fillid; and ye camen not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 9 Y smoot you with brennyng wynd, and with rust, the multitude of youre orcherdis, and of youre vnyeris; and a wort worm eet youre olyue places, and youre fige places; and ye camen not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 10 Y sente in to you deth in the weie of Egipt, Y smoot with swerd youre yonge men, til to the caitifte of youre horsis, and Y made the styng of youre oostis to stie in to youre nose thirlis; and ye camen not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 11 Y distriede you, as God distriede Sodom and Gomorre, and ye ben maad as a brond rauyschid of brennyng; and ye turneden not ayen to me, seith the Lord. 12 Wherfor, thou Israel, Y schal do these thingis to thee; but aftir that Y schal do to thee these thingis, Israel, be maad redi in to ayen comyng of thi God. 13 For lo! he fourmeth hillis, and makith wynd, and tellith to man his speche; and he makith a morew myist, and goith on hiy thingis of erthe; the Lord God of oostis is the name of hym.

5 Here ye this word, for Y reise on you a weilyng. 2 The hous of Israel felle doun, he schal not put to, that it rise ayen; the virgyn of Israel is cast doun in to hir lond, noon is that schal reise hir. 3 For the Lord God seith these thingis, The citee of which a thousynde wenten out, an hundrid schulen be left ther ynne; and of which an hundrid wenten out, ten schulen be left ther ynne, in the hous of Israel. 4 For the Lord seith these thingis to the hous of Israel, Seke ye me, and ye schulen lyue; 5 and nyle ye seke Bethel, and nyle ye entre in to Galgala, and ye schulen not passe to Bersabee; for whi Galgal schal be led caitif, and Bethel schal be vnprofitable. 6 Seke ye the Lord, and lyue ye, lest perauenture the hous of Joseph be brent as fier; and it schal deuoure Bethel, and there schal not be, that schal quenche. 7 Whiche conuerten doom in to wermood, and forsaken riytwisnesse in the lond, 8 and forsaken hym that makith Arture and Orion, and hym that turneth derknessis in to the morewid, and him that chaungith dai in to niyt; which clepith watris of the see, and heldith out hem on the face of erthe; the Lord is name of hym. 9 Which scorneth distriying on the stronge, and bringith robberyng on the myyti. 10 Thei hatiden a man repreuyng in the yate, and thei wlatiden a man spekyng perfitli. 11 Therfor for that that ye robbiden a pore man, and token fro hym the chosun prey, ye schulen bilde housis with square stoon, and ye schulen not dwelle in hem; ye schulen plaunte moost louyd vnynerdis, and ye schulen not drynke the wyn of hem. 12 For Y knew youre grete trespassis many, and youre stronge synnes; enemies of the riytwis man, takyng yifte, and beryng doun pore men in the yate. 13 Therfor a prudent man schal be stille in that time, for the time is yuel. 14 Seke ye good, and not yuel, that ye lyue, and the Lord God of oostis schal be with you, as ye seiden. 15 Hate ye yuel, and loue ye good, and ordeyne ye in the gate doom; if perauenture the Lord God of oostis haue merci on the remenauntis of Joseph. 16 Therfor the Lord God of oostis, hauyng lordschipe, seith these thingis, Weilyng schal be in alle stretis, and in alle thingis that ben withoutforth it schal be seid, Wo! wo! and thei schulen clepe an erthe tilier to mourenyng, and hem that kunnen weile, to weilyng. 17 And weilyng schal be in alle weies, for Y schal passe forth in the myddil of the see, seith the Lord. 18 Wo to hem that desiren the dai of the Lord; wher to desiren ye it to you? This dai of the Lord schal be derknessis, and not liyt. 19 As if a man renne fro the face of a lioun, and a bere renne to hym; and he entre in to the hous, and lene with his hond on the wal, and a serpent dwellyng in schadewe bite hym. 20 Whether the dai of the Lord schal not be derknessis, and not liyt; and myist, and not schynyng ther ynne? 21 Y hatide and castide awei youre feeste daies, and Y schal not take the odour of youre cumpenyes. 22 That if ye offren to me youre brent sacrifices, and yiftis, Y schal not resseyue, and Y schal not biholde avowis of youre fatte thingis. 23 Do thou awei fro me the noise of thi songis, and Y schal not here the songis of thin harpe. 24 And doom schal be schewid as watir, and riytfulnesse as a strong stream. 25 Whether ye, the hous of Israel, offriden to me sacrifices for enemies to be ouercomun, and sacrifice in desert fourti yeeris? 26 And ye han bore tabernaclis to Moloch, youre god, and ymage of youre idols, the sterre of youre god, which ye maden to you. 27 And Y schal make you for to passe ouer Damask, seide the Lord; God of oostis is the name of him.

6 Wo to you, that ben ful of richessis in Sion, and tristen in the hil of Samarie, ye principal men, the heedis of puplis, that goen proudli in to the hous of Israel. 2 Go ye in to Calamyne, and se ye, and go ye fro thennus in to Emath the greet; and go ye doun in to Geth of Palestyns, and to alle the beste rewmes of hem, if her terme be broddere than youre terme. 3 And ye ben departid in to yuel dai, and neiyen to the seete of wickidnesse; 4 and ye slepen in beddis of yuer, and doen letcherie in youre beddis; and ye eten a lomb of the flok, and calues of the myddil of droue; 5 and ye syngen at vois of sautree. As Dauid thei gessiden hem for to haue instrumentis of song, and drynken wyn in viols; 6 and with beste oynement thei weren anoynted; and in no thing thei hadden compassioun on the sorewe, ether defoulyng, of Joseph. 7 Wherefor now thei schulen passe in the heed of men passynge ouer, and the doying of men doynge letcherie schal be don awei. 8 The Lord God swoor in his soule, seith the Lord God of oostis, Y wate the pride of Jacob, and Y hate the housis of hym, and Y schal bitake the citee with hise dwellleris; 9 that if ten men ben left in oon hous, and thei schulen die. 10 And his neyboore schal take hym, and schal brenne hym, that he bere out boonys of the hous. And he schal seie to hym, that is in the priuy places of the hous, Whether ther is yit anentis thee? And he schal answer, An ende is. And he schal seie to hym, Be thou stille, and thenke thou not on the name of the Lord. 11 For lo! the Lord schal comaunde, and schal smyte the grettere hous with fallyngis, and the lesse hous with brekyngis. 12 Whether horsis moun renne in stoonys, ether it mai be eerid with wielde oxun? For ye turneden doom in to bitterness, and the fruyt of riytfulnesse in to wermod. 13 And ye ben glad in nouyt, and ye seien, Whether not in oure strengthe we token to vs hornes? 14 Lo! Y schal reise on you, the hous of Israel, seith the Lord God of oostis, a folc; and it schal al to-breke you fro entre of Emath `til to the stream of desert.

7 The Lord God schewide these thingis to me; and lo! a makere of locust in bigynnyng of buriownynge thingis of euentid reyn, and lo! euentid reyn after the clippere of the kyng. 2 And it was don, whanne he hadde endid for to ete the erbe of erthe, Y seide, Lord God, Y biseche, be thou merciful; who schal reise Jacob, for he is lital? 3 The Lord hadde merci on this thing; It schal not be, seide the Lord God. 4 The Lord God schewide to me these thingis; and lo! the Lord God schal clepe doom to fier, and it schal deuoure myche depthe of watir, and it eet togidere a part. 5 And Y seide, Lord God, Y biseche, reste thou; who schal reise Jacob, for he is lital? 6 The Lord hadde merci on this thing; But and this thing schal not be, seide the Lord God. 7 The Lord God schewide to me these thingis; and lo! the Lord standinge on a wal plastrid, and in the hond of hym was a trulle of a masoun. 8 And the Lord seide to me, What seest thou, Amos? And Y seide, A trulle of a masoun. And the Lord seide, Lo! I schal putte a trulle in the myddil of my puple Israel; Y schal no more putte to, for to ouerlede it; 9 and the hiy thingis of idol schulen be distried, and the halewyngis of Israel schulen be desolat; and Y schal rise on the hous of Jeroboam bi swerd. 10 And Amasie, prest of Bethel, sente to Jeroboam, kyng of Israel, and seide, Amos rebellide ayens thee, in the myddil of the hous of Israel; the lond mai not susteyne alle hise wordis. 11 For Amos seith these thingis, Jeroboam schal die bi swerd, and Israel caitif schal passe fro his lond. 12 And Amasie seide to Amos, Thou that seest, go; fle thou in to the lond of Juda, and ete thou there thi breed; and there thou schalt profesie. 13 And thou schalt no more put to, that thou profesie in Bethel, for it is the halewyng of the king, and is the hous of the rewme. 14 And Amos answeride, and seide to Amasie, Y am not a profete, and Y am not sone of profete; but an herde of neet Y am, drawyng vp sicomoris. 15 And the Lord took me, whanne Y suede the floc; and the Lord seide to me, Go, and profesie thou to my puple Israel. 16 And now here thou the word of the Lord. Thou seist, Thou schalt not profesie on Israel, and thou schal not droppe on the hous of idol. 17 For this thing the Lord seith these thingis, Thi wijf schal do fornicacioun in the citee, and thi sones and thi douytris schal falle bi swerd, and thi lond schal be motun with a lital coord; and thou schalt die in a pollutid lond, and Israel caitif schal passe fro his lond.

8 The Lord God schewide to me these thingis; and lo! an hook of applis. 2 And the Lord seide, What seist thou, Amos? And Y seide, An hook of applis. And the Lord seide to me, The ende is comun on my puple Israel; Y schal no more putte to, that Y passe bi hym. 3 And the herris, ether twistis, of the temple schulen greetli sowne in that dai, seith the Lord God. Many men schulen die, silence schal be cast forth in ech place. 4 Here ye this thing, whiche al to-broken a pore man, and maken nedi men of the lond for to faile; 5 and ye seien, Whanne schal heruest passe, and we schulen sille marchaundises? and the sabat, and we schulen opene wheete? that we make lesse the mesure, and encrease the cicle, and `vndur put gileful balauncis; 6 that we welde bi siluer nedi men and pore men for schoon, and we sille outcastyngis of wheete? 7 The Lord swoor ayens the pride of Jacob, Y schal not foryete til to the ende alle the werkis of hem. 8 Whether on this thing the erthe schal not be mouyd togidere, and eche dwellere therof schal mourene? And it schal stie vp as al the flood, and schal be cast out, and schal flete awei as the stronde of Egypt. 9 And it schal be, seith the Lord, in that dai the sunne schal go doun in myddai, and Y schal make the erthe for to be derk in the dai of liyt. 10 And Y schal conuerte youre feeste daies in to mourenyng, and alle youre songis in to weilyng; and Y schal brynge yn on ech bac of you a sak, and on ech heed of you ballidnesse; and Y schal put it as the mourenyng of oon bigetun sone, and the laste thingis therof as a bittir dai. 11 Lo! the daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal sende out hungur in to erthe; not hungur of breed, nether thirst of watir, but of herynge the word of God. 12 And thei schulen be mouyd to gidere fro the see til to the see, and fro the north til to the eest thei schulen cumpasse, sekyng the word of the Lord, and thei schulen not fynde. 13 In that dai faire maidens schulen faile, and yonge men in thirst, whiche sweren in trespas of Samarie, 14 and seien, Dan, thi god Iyueh, and the weie of Bersabee Iyueh; and thei schulen falle, and thei schulen no more rise ayen.

9 I siy the Lord stondynge on the auter, and he seide, Smyte thou the herre, and the ouer threshfoldis be mouyd togidere; for auerice is in the heed of alle, and Y schal sle bi swerd the laste of hem; ther schal no flyt be to hem, and he that schal fle of hem, schal not be sauayd. 2 If thei schulen go doun til to helle, fro thennus myn hond schal lede out hem; and if thei schulen `stie til in to heuene, fro thennus Y schal drawe hem doun. (Sheol h7585) 3 And if thei schulen be hid in the cop of Carnele, fro thennus Y sekyng the schal do awei hem; and if thei schulen hide hem silf fro myn iyen in the depnesse of the see, there Y shal comaunde to a serpente, and it schal bite hem. 4 And if thei schulen go awei in to caitifte bifore her enemyes, there Y

schal comaunde to swerd, and it schal sle hem. And Y schal putte myn iyen on hem in to yuel, and not in to good. 5 And the Lord God of oostis schal do these thingis, that touchith erthe, and it schal faile, and alle men dwellynge ther yinne schulen mourene; and it schal stie vp as ech stronde, and it schal flete awei as flood of Egipt. 6 He that bildith his styng vp in heuene, schal do these thingis, and foundide his birthun on erthe; which clepith watris of the see, and heldith out hem on the face of erthe; the Lord is name of hym. 7 Whether not as sones of Ethiopiens ye ben to me, the sones of Israel? seith the Lord God. Whether Y made not Israel for to stie vp fro the lond of Egipt, and Palestines fro Capodosie, and Siriens fro Cirenen? 8 Lo! the iyen of the Lord God ben on the rewme synnyng, and Y schal al to-breke it fro the face of erthe; netheles Y al to-brekyng schal not al to-breke the hous of Jacob, seith the Lord. 9 For lo! Y schal comaunde, and schal schake the hous of Israel in alle folkis, as wheete is in a riddil, and a litil stoon schal not falle on erthe. 10 Alle synneris of my puple schulen die bi swerd, whiche seien, Yuel schal not neiy, and schal not come on vs. 11 In that dai Y schal reise the tabernacle of Dauith, that felle down, and Y schal ayen bilde openyngis of wallis therof, and Y schal restore the thingis that fellen down; and Y schal ayen bilde it, 12 as in olde daies, that thei welde the remenauntis of Idume, and alle naciouns; for that my name is clepun to help on hem, seith the Lord doynge these thingis. 13 Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and the erere schal take the repere, and 'the stampere of grape schal take the man sowynge seed; and mounteyns schulen droppe swetnesse, and alle smale hillis schulen be tilid. 14 And Y schal conuerte the caitifte of my puple Israel, and thei schulen bilde forsakun citees, and schulen dwelle; and schulen plaunte vyneyerdis, and thei schulen drynke wyn of hem; and schulen make gardyns, and schulen ete fruitis of hem. 15 And Y schal plaunte hem on her lond, and Y schal no more drawe out hem of her lond, which Y yaf to hem, seith the Lord thi God.

Micah

1 The word of the Lord, which was maad to `Mychee of Morasti, in the daies of Joathan, Achas, Ezechie, kyngis of Juda; which word he sai on Samarie, and Jerusalem. 2 Here ye, alle puplis, and the erthe perseyue, and plenteie therof, and be the Lord God to you in to a witness, the Lord fro his hooli temple. 3 For lo! the Lord schal go out of his place, and schal come doun, and schal trede on hiy thingis of erthe. 4 And mounteyns schulen be waastid vndur hym, and valeis schulen be kit, as wex fro the face of fier, as watirs that rennen in to a pit. 5 In the grete trespas of Jacob is al this thing, and in the synnes of the hous of Israel. Which is the greet trespas of Jacob? whether not Samarie? and whiche ben the hiy thingis of Juda? whether not Jerusalem? 6 And Y schal put Samarie as an heep of stoonys in the feeld, whanne a vynyerd is plaunti; and Y schal drawe aweie the stoonys therof in to a valei, and Y schal schewe the foundementis therof. 7 And alle `grauun ymagis therof schulen be betun togidere, and alle hiris therof schulen be brent in fier; and Y schal putte alle idols therof in to pernicioun; for of hiris of an hoore tho ben gaderid, and `til to hire of an hoore tho schulen turne ayen. 8 On this thing Y schal weile and yelle, Y schal go spuyli; and nakid; Y schal make weilyng of dragouns, and mournyng as of ostrigis. 9 For wounde therof is dispeirid; for it cam til to Juda, it touchide the yate of my puple, til to Jerusalem. 10 In Geth nyle ye telle, bi teeris wepe ye not; in the hous of dust with dust togidere sprynge you. 11 And ye a fair dwellyng passe, which is confoundid with yuel fame; it is not goon out, which dwellith in the goyng out; a niy hous schal take of you weilyng, which stood to it self. 12 For it is maad sijk to good, which dwellith in bitternessis. For yuel cam doun fro the Lord in to the yate of Jerusalem, noise of foure horsid cart, 13 of drede to the puple dwellynge at Lachis. It is the bigynnyng of synne of the douyter of Sion, for the grete trespas of Israel ben foundun in thee. 14 Therfor he schal yuue werriours on the eritage of Geth, on housis of leesyng in to deseit to kyngis of Israel. 15 Yit Y schal brynge an eir to thee, that dwellist in Maresa; the glorie of Israel schal come til to Odolla. 16 Be thou maad ballid, and be thou clippid on the sones of thi delices; alarge thi ballidnesse as an egle, for thei ben lad caitif fro thee.

2 Wo to you, that thenken vnprofitable thing, and worchen yuele in youre beddis; in the morewtid liyt thei don it, for the hond of hem is ayenus God. 2 Thei coueitiden feeldis, and tooken violentli; and rauyschiden housis, and falsli calengiden a man and his hous, a man and his eritage. 3 Therfor the Lord seith these thingis, Lo! Y thenke on this meynnee yuel, fro which ye schulen not take aweie youre neckis; and ye schulen not walke proude, for the worste tyme is. 4 In that dai a parable schal be takun on you, and a song schal be songun with swetnesse of men, seyng, Bi robbery we ben distried; a part of my puple is chaungid; hou schal he go aweie fro me, whanne he turneth ayen that schal departe youre cuntreis? 5 For this thing `noon schal be to thee sendyng a litil corde of sort in compeny of the Lord. 6 A! thou Israel, speke ye not spekyng; it schal not droppe on these men, confusioun schal not catche, 7 seith the hous of Jacob. Whether the Spirit of the Lord is abreggid, either siche ben the thouytis of hym? Whether my wordis ben not gode, with hym that goith rytli? 8 And ayenward my puple roos togidere in to an aduersarie; ye token aweie the mantil aboute the coote, and ye turneden in to batel hem that wenten sympli. 9 Ye castiden the wymmen of my puple out of the hous of her delices; fro the litte children of hem ye token aweie myn heriying with outen ende. 10 Rise ye, and go, for here ye han not reste; for the vnclennesse therof it schal be corrupt with the worst rot. 11 Y wolde that Y were not a man hauynge spirit, and rather Y spak a leesyng. Y schal droppe to thee in to wyn, and in to drunkenesse; and this puple schal be, on whom it is droppid. 12 With gaderyng Y schal gadere Jacob; Y schal lede togidere thee al in to oon, the relifs of Israel. Y schal put hym togidere, as a floc in folde; as scheep in the myddil of fooldis thei schulen make noise, of multitude of men. 13 For he schal stie schewynge weie bifore hem; thei schulen departe, and passe the yate, and schulen go out therbi; and the kyng of hem schal passe bifore hem, and the Lord in the heed of hem.

3 And Y seide, Ye princis of Jacob, and duykis of the hous of Israel, here. Whether it be not youre for to knowe doom, whiche haten good, 2 and louen yuele? Whiche violentli taken aweie the skynnes of hem fro aboute hem, and the fleisch of hem fro aboute the bonys of hem. 3 Whiche eeten the fleisch of my puple, and hiliden the skyn of hem fro aboute; and broken togidere the boonys of hem, and kittiden togidere as in a cawdroun, and as fleisch in the myddil of a pot. 4 Thanne thei schulen crie to the Lord, and he schal not here hem; and he schal hide hise face fro hem in that tyme, as thei didn wickidli in her fyndingis. 5 The Lord God seith these thingis on the profetis that disseyuen my puple, and biten with her teeth, and prechen pees; and if ony man yuueh not in the mouth of hem ony thing, thei halewen batel on hym. 6 Therfor niyt schal be to you for visioun, or profesie, and derknesse to you for dyuynacioun; and sunne schal go doun on the profetis, and the dai schal be maad derk on hem. 7 And thei schulen be confoundid that seen visiouns, and dyuynours schulen be confoundid, and alle schulen hile her cheris, for it is not the answer of God. 8 Netheles Y am fillid with strengthe of Spirit of the Lord, and in doom and vertu, that Y schewe to Jacob his greet trespas, and to Israel his synne. 9 Here these thingis, ye princis of the hous of Jacob, and domesmen of the hous of Israel, whiche wlaten dom, and peruerten alle ryt thingis; 10 whiche bilden Sion in bloodis, and Jerusalem in wickidnesse. 11 Princis therof demyden for yiftis, and prestis therof tauyten for hire, and profetis therof dyuyneden for money; and on the Lord thei restiden, and seiden, Whether the Lord is not in the myddil of us? yuelis schulen not come on vs. 12 For this thing bi cause of you, Sion as a feeld schal be erid; and Jerusalem schal be as an heep of stoonys, and the hil of the temple schal be in to hiye thingis of woodis.

hillis. And pupilis schulen flete to him, and many pupilis schulen haaste, 2 and schulen seie, Come ye, stie we til to the hil of the Lord, and to the hous of God of Jacob; and he schal teche vs of hise weies, and we schulen go in hise pathis. For lawe schal go out fro Syon, and the word of the Lord fro Jerusalem; 3 and he schal deme bitwixe many pupilis, and schal chastise stronge folkis til in to fer. And thei schulen bete togidere her swerdis in to scharis, and her speris in to picoisis; a folc schal not take swerd ayens folc, and thei schulen no more lerne for to fitye. 4 And a man schal sitte vndur his vyneyerd, and vndur his fige tree; and ther schal not be that schal make aferd, for the mouth of the Lord of oostis spak. 5 For alle pupilis schulen go, ech man in the name of his Lord God; but we schulen walke in the name of oure Lord God in to the world, and ouer. 6 In that dai, seith the Lord, Y schal gadere the haltynge, and Y schal gadere hir that Y castide awei, and whom Y turmentide Y schal coumforte. 7 And Y schal putte the haltynge in to relifs, ether remenauntis, and hir that trauelide, in a strong folc. And the Lord schal regne on hem in the hil of Sion, fro this now and til in to with outen ende. 8 And thou, derk tour of the floc of the douyter of Sion, til to thee he schal come, and the first power schal come, the rewme of the douytir of Jerusalem. 9 Now whi art thou drawun togidere with mournyng? whether a kyng is not to thee, ether thi counselour perischide? for sorowe hath take thee, as a womman traueling of child. 10 Thou douyter of Sion, make sorewe, and haaste, as a womman trauelynge of child; for now thou schalt go out of the citee, and schalt dwelle in cuntree, and schalt come til to Babiloyne; there thou schalt be delyuered, there the Lord schal ayen bie thee, fro the hond of thin enemyes. 11 And now many folkis ben gaderid on thee, whiche seien, Be it stonyd, and oure iye biholde in to Sion. 12 Forsothe thei knewen not the thouytis of the Lord, and vndurstoden not the counsel of hym, for he gaderide hem as the hei of feeld. 13 Rise thou, douyter of Sion, and threische, for Y schal putte thin horn of irun, and Y schal putte thi nailis brasun; and thou schalt make lesse, ether waste, many pupilis, and schalt sle to the Lord the raueyns of hem, and the strengthe of hem to the Lord of al erthe.

5 Now thou, douyter of a thief, schalt be distried; thei puttiden on vs bisegying, in a yerde thei schulen smyte the cheke of the iuge of Israel. 2 And thou, Bethleem Efrata, art litil in the thousyndis of Juda; he that is the lordli gouernour in Israel, schal go out of thee to me; and the goyng out of hym is fro bigynnyng, fro daies of euerlastyngnesse. 3 For this thing he shal yyue hem til to the tyme in which the traueling of child schal bere child, and the relifs of hise britheren schulen be conuertid to the sones of Israel. 4 And he schal stonde, and schal fede in the strengthe of the Lord, in the heiythe of the name of his Lord God; and thei schulen be conuertid, for now he schal be magnefied til to the endis of al erthe. 5 And this schal be pees, whanne Assirius schal come in to oure lond, and whanne he schal trede in oure housis; and we schulen reise on hym seuen scheepherdis, and eyte primatis men, ether the firste in dignytee. 6 And thei schulen frete the lond of Assur bi swerd, and the lond of Nembroth bi speris of hym; and he schal delyuere vs fro Assur, whanne he schal come in to oure

lond, and whanne he schal trede in oure coostis. 7 And relifs of Jacob schulen be in the myddil of many pupilis, as dew of the Lord, and as dropis on erbe, whiche abidith not man, and schal not abide sones of men. 8 And relifs of Jacob schulen be in hethene men, in the myddil of many pupilis, as a lioun in beestis of the woodis, and as a whelpe of a lioun rorynge in flockis of scheep; and whanne he passith, and defoulith, and takith, there is not that schal delyuere. 9 And thin hond schal be reisd on thin enemyes, and alle thin enemyes schulen perische. 10 And i schal be, in that dai, seith the Lord, Y schal take awei thin horsis fro the myddil of thee, and Y schal distrie thi foure horsis cartis. 11 And Y schal leese the citees of thi lond, and Y schal distrie alle thi strengthis; 12 and Y schal do awei witchecraftis fro thin hond, and dyuynaciouns schulen not be in thee. 13 And Y schal make for to perische thi grauun ymagis, and Y schal breke togidere fro the myddil of thee thin ymagis, and thou schalt no more worschipe the werkis of thin hondis. 14 And Y schal drawe out of the middis of thee thi woodis, and Y schal al to-breke thi citees. 15 And Y schal make in woodnesse and indignacioun veniaunce in alle folkis, whiche herden not.

6 Here ye whiche thingis the Lord spekith. Rise thou, stryue thou bi doom ayens mounteyns, and litte hillis here thi vois. 2 Mounteyns, and the stronge foundementis of erthe, here the doom of the Lord; for the doom of the Lord with his puple, and he schal be demyd with Israel. 3 Mi puple, what haue Y don to thee, ether what was Y greouse to thee? Answer thou to me. 4 For Y ledde thee out of the lond of Egipt, and of the hous of seruage Y delyuerede thee; and Y sente bifore thi face Moises, and Aaron, and Marye. 5 My puple, bithenke, Y preie, what Balaac, kyng of Moab, thouyte, and what Balaam, sone of Beor, of Sethym, answeride to hym til to Galgala, that thou schuldist knowe the riytwisnesse of the Lord. 6 What worthi thing schal Y offre to the Lord? schal Y bowe the knee to the hiye God? Whether Y schal offre to hym brent sacrifices, and calues of o year? 7 Whether God mai be paid in thousyndis of wetheris, ether in many thousyndis of fatte geet buckis? Whether Y schal yyue my firste bigetun for my greet trespas, the fruyt of my wombe for synne of my soule? 8 Y schal schewe to thee, thou man, what is good, and what the Lord axith of thee; forsothe for to do doom, and for to loue merci, and be bisi for to walke with thi God. 9 The vois of the Lord crieth to the citee, and heelthe schal be to alle men dredynge thi name. Ye lynagis, here; and who schal approue it? 10 Yit fier is in the hous of the vnpiouse man, the tresouris of wickidnesse, and a lesse mesure ful of wraththe. 11 Whether Y schal iustifie the wickid balaunce, and the gileful weiytis of litil sak, 12 in whiche riche men therof ben fillid with wickidnesse? And men dwellynge ther ynne spaken leesyng, and the tunge of hem was gileful in the mouth of hem. 13 And Y therfor bigan for to smyte thee, in perdicoun on thi synnes. 14 Thou schalt ete, and schalt not be fillid, and thi mekyng is in the middil of thee; and thou schalt take, and schalt not saue; and which thou schalt saue, Y schal yyue in to swerd. 15 Thou schalt sowe, and schal not reape; thou schalt trede the frut of oliue, and schalt not be anyntid with oile; and must, and schalt not drynke wyn. 16 And thou keptist the heestis of Amry, and al the werk of the hous of Acab, and hast walkid in the lustis of hem, that Y schulde yyue thee in to perdicioun, and men dwellynge in it in to scornynge, and ye schulen bere the schenschipe of my puple.

7 Wo to me, for Y am maad as he that gaderith in heruest rasyns of grapis; there is no clustre for to ete; my soule desiride figis ripe before othere. 2 The hooli perischide fro erthe, and riytful is not in men; alle asprien, ether setten tresoun, in blood, a man huntith his brother to deth. 3 The yuel of her hondis thei seien good; the prince axith, and the domesman is in yeldyng; and a greet man spak the desir of his soule, and thei sturbliiden togidere it. 4 He that is best in hem, is as a paluyre; and he that is riytful, is as a thorn of hegge. The dai of thi biholdyng, thi visityng cometh, now schal be distryng of hem. 5 Nyle ye bileue to a frend, and nyle ye truste in a duyck; fro hir that slepith in thi bosum, kepe thou closyngis of thi mouth. 6 For the sone doith wrong to the fadir, and the douyter schal rise ayens hir modir, and the wijf of the sone ayens the modir of hir hosebonde; the enemyes of a man ben the homeli, ether houshold meynee, of hym. 7 Forsothe Y schal biholde to the Lord, Y schal abide God my sauour; the Lord my God schal here me. 8 Thou, myn enemye, be not glad on me, for Y felle doun, Y schal rise; whanne Y sitte in derknessis, the Lord is my liyt. 9 Y schal bere wraththe of the Lord, for Y haue synned to hym, til he deme my cause, and make my doom; he schal lede out me in to liyt, Y schal se riytwisnesse of hym. 10 And myn enemye schal biholde me, and sche schal be hilid with confusioun, which seith to me, Where is thi Lord God? Myn iyen schulen se hir, now sche schal be in to defoullyng, as clei of stretis. 11 Dai schal come, that thi wallis be bildid; in that dai lawe schal be maad afer. 12 In that dai and Assur schal come til to thee, and 'til to stronge citees, and fro stronge citees til to flood; and to see fro see, and to hil fro hil. 13 And erthe schal be in to desolacioun for her dwellers, and for fruyt of the thouytis of hem. 14 Fede thou thi puple in thi yerde, the floe of thin eritage, that dwellen aloone in wielde wode; in the myddil of Carmel thei schulen be fed of Basan and of Galaad, 15 bi elde daies, bi daies of thi goyng out of the lond of Egypt. Y schal schewe to hym wondrous thingis; 16 hethene men schulen se, and thei schulen be confoundid on al her strengthe; thei schulen putte hondis on her mouth, the eris of hem schulen be deef; 17 thei schulen licke dust as a serpent; as crepyng thingis of erthe thei schulen be disturblid of her housis; thei schulen not desire oure Lord God, and thei schulen drede thee. 18 God, who is lijk thee, that doist awei wickidnesse, and berist ouer the synne of relifs of thin eritage? He shal no more sende in his stronge veniaunce, for he is wilynge merci; he schal turne ayen, 19 and haue merci on vs. He schal put doun oure wickidnessis, and schal caste fer in to depnesse of the see alle oure synnes. 20 Thou schalt yyue treuthe to Jacob, merci to Abraham, whiche thou sworist to oure fadris fro elde daies.

Nahum

1 The birthun of Nynyue; the book of visioun of Naum Helcesei.

2 The Lord is a punyschere, and the Lord is vengynge; the Lord is venginge, and hauynge strong veniaunce; the Lord is vengynge ayens hise aduersaries, and he is wratthing to hise enemyes. 3 The Lord is pacient, and greet in strengthe, and he clensynge schal not make innocent. The Lord cometh in tempest, and the weies of hym ben in whirlwynd, and cloudis ben the dust of hise feet; 4 he blameth the see, and drieth it, and bryngith alle flodis to desert. Basan is maad sijck, and Carmel, and the flour of Liban langwischide. 5 Mounteyns ben mouyd togidere of hym, and lital hillis ben desolat. And erthe tremblide togidere fro the face of him, and the roundenesse of erthe, and alle dwellynge ther ynn. 6 Who schal stonde bfore the face of his indignacioun? and who schal ayenstonde in the wratthe of his stronge veniaunce? His indignacioun is sched out as fier, and stoonys ben brokun of hym. 7 The Lord is good, and coumfortynge in the dai of tribulacioun, and knowynge hem that hopen in hym. 8 And in greet flood passynge forth, he schal make ende of his place; and derknessis schulen pursue hise enemyes. 9 What thenken ye ayens the Lord? He schal make ende; double tribulacioun schal not rise togidere. 10 For as thornes byclyppen hem togidere, so the feeste of hem drynkynge togidere schal be wastyd, as stobul ful of drienesse. 11 Of thee schal go out a man thenkyng malice ayens the Lord, and trete trespassyng in soule. 12 The Lord seith these thingis, If thi schulen be parfit, and so manye, and thus thei shulen be clippid, and it schal passe bi. I turmentide thee, and Y schal no more turmente thee. 13 And now Y schal al to-breke the yerde of hym fro thi bak, and Y schal breke thi bondis. 14 And the Lord schal comaunde on thee, it schal no more be sowun of thi name. Of the hous of thi god Y schal sle; Y schal putte thi sepulcre a `grauun ymage, and wellid togidere, for thou art vnworschpid. 15 Lo! on hillis the feet of the euangelisyng and tellynge pees. Juda, halewe thou thi feeste daies, and yelde thi vowis, for whi Belial schal no more put to, that he passe forth in thee; al Belial perischide.

2 He stiede up, that schal scatere bfore thee, that schal kepe bisechyng; biholde thou the weie, coumforte leendis, strengthe thou vertu greetli. 2 For as the Lord yeldide the pride of Jacob, so the pride of Israel; for distrieris scatteriden hem, and distrieden the generaciouns of hem. 3 The scheld of stronge men of hym ben firi, men of the oost ben in rede clothis; raynes of fire of chare, in the dai of his makynge redi; and the leederis therof ben asleep. 4 In weies thei ben troblid togidere, cartis of foure horsis ben hurtlid togidere in stretis; the siyte of hem as laumpis, as leitis rennyng aboute. 5 He schal bithenke of his stronge men, thei schulen falle in her weies; and swiftli thei schulen stie on the wallis therof, and schadewyng place schal be maad redi. 6 Yatis of floodis ben openyd, and the temple is brokun doun to erthe. 7 And a knytt is led awei caitif, and the handmaidis therof schulen be dryuun sorewyng as culueris, grutchynge in her hertis. 8 And Nynyue, as a cisterne of watris the watris therof; forsothe thei fledden; stonde ye, stonde ye, and there is not that schal turne ayen. 9 Rauysche ye siluer, rauysche ye gold; and there is noon ende of richessis, of alle desirable vessels. 10 It is distried, and kit, and to-rent, and herte failynge, and vnknytinge of smale knees, and failynge in alle reynes; and the face of alle ben as blacnesse of a pot. 11 Where is the dwellyng of liouns, and lesewis of whelpis of liouns? To whiche citee the lioun yede, that the whelp of the lioun schulde entre thidur, and there is not that schal make aferd. 12 The lioun took ynow to hise whelpis, and slowy to his lionessis; and fillide her dennes with prei, and his couche with raueyn. 13 Lo! Y to thee, seith the Lord God of oostis; and Y schal brenne thi cartis of foure horsis til to the hiyeste, and swerd schal ete thi smale liouns; and Y schal distrie thi prei fro the lond, and the vois of thi messengeris schulen no more be herd.

3 Wo to the citee of bloodis, al of leesyng, ful of to-reendynge; raueyn shal not go awei fro thee. 2 Vois of scourge, and vois of bire of wheel, and of hors makynge noise, and of foure horsid carte brennyng, and of knyt styng vp. 3 and of schynynge swerd, and glesenyng spere, and of slayn multitude, and of greuouse fallyng, nether ther is eende of careyns. And thei schulen falle togidere in her bodies, 4 for the multitude of fornicaciouns of the hoore fair and plesaunt, and hauynge witchecraftis; which seelde folkis in her fornicaciouns, and meynes in her enchantementis, ether sorceries. 5 Lo! Y to thee, seith the Lord God of oostis; and Y schal schewe thi schameful thingis in thi face; and Y schal schewe to folkis thi nakidnesse, and to rewmes thin yuel fame. 6 And Y schal cast out on thee thin abhomynaciouns, and Y schal punysche thee with dispitis, and Y schal putte thee in to ensauple. 7 And it schal be, ech man that schal se thee, schal skippe awei fro thee, and schal seie, Nynyue is distried. Who schal moue heed on thee? wherof schal Y seke to thee a coumfortour? 8 Whether thou art betere than Alisaundre of pupilis, that dwellith in floodis? Watris ben in campas therof, whos richessis is the see, watris ben wallis therof. 9 Ethiopie is strengthe therof, and Egipt, and there is noon ende; Affrik and Libie weren in help therof. 10 But and it in `passyng ouer is led in to caitifte; the litle children therof ben hurtlid doun in the heed of alle weies. And on the noble men therof thei kesten lot, and alle grete men therof ben set togidere in gyues. 11 And thou therfor schalt be drunkun, and schalt be dispisid, and thou schalt seke helpe of enemye. 12 Al thi strengthis as a fige tree, with hise figis vnripe; if thei schulen be schakun, thei schulen falle in to the mouth of the etere. 13 Lo! thi puple ben wymmen in the myddil of thee; the yatis of thi lond schulen be schewid to openyng to thin enemyes; fier schal deuoure thin herris. 14 Drawe vp to thee water for asegyng, bilde thi strengthis; entre in fen, and trede, thou vndurgoyng holde a tiel stoon. 15 There fier schal ete thee, thou schalt perische bi swerd, it schal deuoure thee, as bruke doith; be thou gaderid togidere as a bruke, be thou multiplied as a locuste. 16 Thou madist thi marchaundes mo than ben steris of heuene; a bruke is spred abroad, and flei awei. 17 Thi keperis ben as locustis, and thi litle children ben as locustis of locustis, whiche sitten togidere in heggis in the dai of coold; the sun is risun, and thei fledden awei, and the place of hem is not knowun, where thei weren. 18 Thi scheepherdis naptin, thou kyng Assur, thi princes schulen be biried; thi puple ofte was hid in hillis, and ther is not that schal gadere. 19 Thi sorewe is not priuy, thi wounde is worst; alle men that herden thin heryng, pressiden togidere hond on thee, for on whom passide not thi malice euermore?

Habakkuk

1 The birthun that Abacuk, the profete, sai. 2 Hou longe, Lord, schal Y crye, and thou schalt not here? Y suffrynge violence schal crie an hyi to thee, and thou schalt not saue? 3 Whi schewidist thou to me wickidnesse and trael, for to se prey and vnriytwisnesse ayens me? Whi biholdist thou dispiseris, and art stille, the while an vnpitouse man defoulith a riyfulere than hym self? And thou schalt make men as fischis of the see, and as crepynge thingis not hauynge a ledere; and doom is maad, and ayenseiying is more myti. 4 For this thing lawe is `to-brokun, and doom cometh not til to the ende; for the vnpitouse man hath miyt ayens the iust, therfor weiward doom schal go out. 5 Biholde ye in hethene men, and se ye, and wondre ye, and greetli drede ye; for a werk is doon in youre daies, which no man schal bileue, whanne it schal be teld. 6 For lo! Y schal reise Caldeis, a bittir folk and swift, goynge on the breede of erthe, that he welde tabernaclis not hise. 7 It is orible, and dredeful; the dom and birthun therof schal go out of it self. 8 His horsis ben liytere than pardis, and swifter than euentyd woluyis, and hise horse men schulen be scaterid abroad; for whi `horse men schulen come fro fer, thei schulen fle as an egle hastynge to ete. 9 Alle men schulen come to preye, the faces of hem is as a brennynge wynd; and he schal gadere as grauel caltife, 10 and he schal haue victorie of kyngis, and tirauntis schulen be of his scornynge. He schal leiye on al strengthe, and schal bere togidere heep of erthe, and schal take it. 11 Thanne the spirit schal be chaungid, and he schal passe forth, and falle down; this is the strengthe of hym, of his god. 12 Whether `thou, Lord, art not my God, myn hooli, and we schulen not die? Lord, in to doom thou hast set hym, and thou groundidist hym strong, that thou schuldist chastise. 13 Thin iyen ben clene, se thou not yuel, and thou schalt not mowe biholde to wickidnesse. Whi biholdist thou not on men doyng wickidli, and thou art stille, while the vnpitouse man deuourith a more iust man than hymself? 14 And thou schalt make men as fischis of the see, and as a crepynge thing not hauynge prince. 15 He schal lifte vp al in the hook; he drawide it in his greet net, and gaderide in to his net; on this thing he schal be glad, and make ioie with outforth. 16 Therefore he schal offere to his greet net, and schal make sacrifice to his net; for in hem his part is maad fat, and his mete is chosun. 17 Therfor for this thing he spredith abroad his greet net, and eue more he ceesith not for to sle folkis.

2 On my kepyng Y schal stonde, and schal pitche a grees on wardyng; and Y schal biholde, that Y se what thing schal be seid to me; and what Y schal answeere to hym that repreuith me. 2 And the Lord answeride to me, and seide, Write thou the reuelacioun, and make it pleyn on tablis, that he renne, that schal rede it. 3 For yit the visioun is fer, and it schal appere in to ende, and schal not lie; if it schal make dwellyng, abide thou it, for it comynge schal come, and schal not tarie. 4 Lo! the soule of hym, that is vnbileueful, schal not be riyful in hym self; forsothe the iust man schal lyue in his feith. 5 And as wyn disseyueth a man drynkyng, so schal the proude man be, and he schal not be maad feir; for as helle he alargide his soule, and he is as deth, and he is not fillid; and he schal gadere to hym alle folkis, and he shal kepe togidere to hym alle pupilis. (Sheol h7585) 6 Whether not alle these pupilis schulen take a parable on hym, and the speking of derk sentencis of hym? And it schal be seid, Wo to hym that multiplieth thingis not his owne; hou longe, and he aggreggith ayens hym self thicke clei? 7 Whether not sudeynli thei schulen rise to gidere, that schulen bite thee? And thei schulen be reisid to-teerynge thee, and thou schalt be in to raueyn to hem; and thin asperis in yuel schulen wake. 8 For thou robbidist many folkis, alle schulen robbe thee, wiche schulen be left of pupilis, for blood of man, and for wickidnesse of lond of the citee, and of alle men dwellynge in it. 9 Wo to hym that gaderith yuel coueitise to his hous, that his nest be in hyi, and gessith hym for to be delyuered of the hond of yuel. 10 Thou thouytest confusioun to thin hous; thou hast slayn many pupilis, and thi soule synnede. 11 For a stoon of the wal schal crie, and a tree that is bitwixe ioynturis of bilyngis schal answeere. 12 Wo to hym that bildith a citee in bloodis, and makith redi a citee in wickidnesse. 13 Whether not these thingis ben of the Lord of oostis? For pupilis schulen trauele in myche fier, and folkis in veyn, and thei schulen faile. 14 For the erthe schal be fillid, that it knowe the glorie of the Lord, as watris hilynge the see. 15 Wo to hym that yyueth drynk to his frend, and sendith his galle, and makith drunkun, that he biholde his nakidnesse. 16 He is fillid with yuel fame for glorie; and thou drynke, and be aslept; the cuppe of the riythalf of the Lord schal cumpasse thee, and `castynge vp of yuel fame on thi glorie. 17 For the wickidnesse of Liban schal kyuere thee, and destruccion of beestis schal make hem aferd, of bloodis of man, and of wickidnesse of lond, and of the citee, and of alle men dwellynge ther ynne. 18 What profitith the `grauun ymage, for his makere grauyde it, a wellid thing togidere and fals ymage? for the makere therof hopide in makynge, that he made doumbe symylacris. 19 Wo to hym that seith to a tre, Wake thou; Rise thou, to a stoon beyng stille; whether he schal mow teche? Lo! this is kyuerid with gold and siluer, and no spirit is in his entrails. 20 Forsothe the Lord is in his hooli temple, al erthe be stille fro his face.

3 The preier of Abacuk, the profete, for vnkunynge men. Lord, Y herde thin heryng, and Y dredde; 2 Lord, it is thi werk, in the myddil of yeeris quykene thou it. In the middil of yeeris thou schalt make knowun; whanne thou schalt be wrooth, thou schalt haue mynde of mercy. 3 God schal come fro the south, and the hooli fro the mount of Faran. The glorie of hym kyueride heuenes, and the erthe is ful of his heryng. 4 The schynynge of hym schal be as liyt; hornes in hondis of hym. 5 There the strengthe of hym was hid, deth schal go bfore his face; the deuul schal go out bfore hise feet. 6 He stood, and mat the erthe; he bihelde, and vnboond folkis, and hillis of the world weren al to-brokun; the litle hillis of the world weren bowid down, of the weies of his euerlastyngnesse. 7 For wickidnesse Y sai the tentis of Ethiope, the skynnes of the lond of Madian schulen be troblid. 8 Lord, whether in floodis thou art wrooth, ether in floodis is thi strong veniaunce, ether in the see is thin indignacioun? Which shalt stie on thin horsis; and thi foure horsid cartis is saluacioun. 9 Thou reisyng schalt reise thi bouwe, othis to lynagis whiche thou hast spoke; thou schalt departe the floodis of erthe. 10 Watris saien thee, and hillis sorewiden, the goter of watris passide; depnesse yaf his vois, hiynesse reaside hise hondis. 11 The sunne and moone stoden in her dwellyng place; in the liyt of thin arowis thei schulen go, in the schynyng of thi spere glisnyng. 12 In gnastyng thou schalt defoule erthe, and in strong veniaunce thou schalt astonye folkis. 13 Thou art gon out in to helthe of thi puple, in to helthe with thi crist; thou hast smyte the heed of the hous of the vnpitouse man, thou hast maad nakid the foundement til to the necke. 14 Thou cursidist the ceptris, ether powers, of hym, the heed of hise fityteris, to men comyng as whirlwynde for to scatere me; the ioiying withoutforth of hem, as of hym that deuourith a pore man in hidlis. 15 Thou madist a weie in the see to thin horsis, in clei of many watris. 16 Y herde, and my wombe is troblid togidere; my lippis trembliden togidere of the vois. Rot entre in my boonys, and sprengende vndur me; that Y reste ayen in the dai of tribulacioun, and Y schal stie vp to oure puple gird togidere. 17 For the fige tre schal not floure, and buriownyng schal not be in vynyerd; the werk of olyue tre schal lie, and feeldis schulen not bryng mete; a scheep schal be kit awei fro the fold, and droue schal not be in cratchis. 18 Forsothe Y schal haue ioye in the Lord, and Y schal make ioie with outforth in God my Jhesu. 19 God the Lord is my strengthe, and he schal putte my feet as of hertis; and on myn hiye thingis, the ouercomere schal lede forth me, syngyng in salmes.

7 And it is maad in the fourthe yeer of Darius, kyng, the word of the Lord was maad to Sacarie, in the fourthe dai of the nynthe monethe, that is Caslew. 2 And Sarasar, and Rogumelech, and men that weren with hem, senten to the hous of the Lord, for to preye the face of the Lord; 3 that thei schulden seie to prestis of the hous of the Lord of oostis, and to profetis, and speke, Whether it is to wepe to me in the fyue the monethe, ether Y schal halowe me, as Y dide now many yeeris? 4 And the word of the Lord was maad to me, 5 and seide, Speke thou to al the puple of the lond, and to prestis, and seie thou, Whanne ye fastiden, and weiliden in the fyue the monethe, bi these seuenti yeeris, whether ye fastiden a fast to me? 6 And 8 And the word of the Lord of oostis was maad to me, 2 and seide, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Y hatide Sion with greet feruour, and with greet indignacioun Y hatide it. 3 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Y am turned ayen to Sion, and Y schal dwelle in the myddil of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem schal be clepid a citee of treuthe, and hil of the Lord schal be clepid an hil halewid. 4 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Yit elde men and elde wymmen schulen dwelle in the stretis of Jerusalem, and the staf of man in his hond, for the multitude of yearis. 5 And the stretis of the cite schulen be fillid with `yonge children and maidens, pleiynge in the stretis `of it. 6 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Though it schal be seyn hard bifor the iyen of relifs of this puple in tho daies, whether bifor myn iyen it schal be hard, seith the Lord of oostis? 7 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Lo! Nyle ye drede, be youre hondis coumfortid; 14 for the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, As Y thouyte for to turmente you, whanne youre fadris hadden terrid me to wratthe, 15 seith the Lord, and Y hadde not merci, so Y conuertid thouyte in these daies for to do wel to the hous of Juda and Jerusalem; nyle ye drede. 16 Therfor these ben the wordis whiche ye schulen do; speke ye treuthe, ech man with his neiybore; deme ye treuthe and dom of pees in youre yatis; 17 and thenke ye not in youre hertis, ony man yuel ayens his frend, and loue ye not a fals ooth; for alle thes thingis it ben, whiche Y hate, seith the Lord. 18 And the word of the Lord of oostis was maad to me, 19 and seide, The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Fastyng of the fourthe monethe, `and fastyng of the fyuethe, and fastyng of the seuenthe, and fasting of the tenthe, schal be to the hous of Juda in to ioie and gladnes, and in to solemnpitees ful cleer; loue ye oneli treuthe and pees. 20 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, Pupilis schulen come on ech side, and dwelle in many citees; 21 and the dwelleris schulen go, oon to an other, and seie, Go we, and biseche the face of the Lord, and seke we the Lord of oostis; also I shal go. 22 And many pupilis schulen come, and strong folkis, for to seke the Lord of oostis in Jerusalem, and for to biseche the face of the Lord. 23 The Lord of oostis seith these thingis, In tho daies, in whiche ten men of alle langagis of hethene men schulen catche, and thei schulen catche the hemme of a man Jew, and seye, We schulen go with you; for we han herd, that God is with you.

For this thing, ye pore men of the floc, here. And Y took to me twei yerdys; on Y clepide Fairnesse, and the tother Y clepide Litil Corde; and Y fedde the floc. 8 And Y kittide down thre scheepherdis in o monethe, and my soule is drawun togidere in hem; for also the soule of hem variiede in me. 9 And Y seide, Y schal not fede you; that that dieth, die; and that that is kit down, be kit down; and the residues deuoure, ech the fleisch of his neybore. 10 And Y took my yerde, that was clepid Fairnesse, and Y kittide down it, that Y schulde make void my couenaunt, that Y smoot with alle puplis. 11 And it `is led forth void in that dai; and the pore of floc that kepen to me, knewen thus, for it is the word of the Lord. 12 And Y seide to hem, If it is good in youre iyen, brynge ye my meede; and if nai, reste ye. And thei weiden my meede, thretti platis of siluer. 13 And the Lord seide to me, Caste awei it to a makere of ymagis, the fair prijs, bi which Y am preisid of hem. And Y took thritti platis of siluer, and Y castide forth hem in the hous of the Lord, to the makere of ymagis. 14 And Y kittide down my secunde yerde, that was clepide Litil Corde, that Y schulde departe the brotherhed bitwixe Juda and Israel. 15 And the Lord seide to me, Yit take to thee vessels of a fonnid scheepherde; 16 for lo! And Jerusalem schal be enhabited eftsoone in his place, `in Jerusalem. 7 And the Lord schal saue the tabernaculis of Juda, as in bigynnyng, that the hous of Dauid `glorie not greetli, and the glorie of men dwellynge in Jerusalem be not ayens Juda. 8 In that dai the Lord schal defende the dwellers of Jerusalem; and he that schal offende of hem, schal be in that dai as Dauid, and the hous of Dauid schal be as of God, as the aungel of the Lord in the siyt of hym. 9 And it schal be, in that dai Y schal seke for to al-to-breke alle folkis that comen ayens Jerusalem. 10 And Y schal helde out on the hous of Dauid, and on dwellers of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace, and of preieris; and thei schulen biholde to me, whom thei `fitchiden togidere. And thei schulen biweile hym with weilyng, as on `the oon bigetun; and thei schulen sorewe on hym, as it is wont `for to be sorewid in the deth of the firste bigetun. 11 In that dai greet weilyng schal be in Jerusalem, as the weilyng of Adremon in the feeld of Magedon. 12 And erthe schal weile; meynees and meynees bi hem silf; the meynees of the hous of Dauid bi hem silf, and the wymmen of hem bi hem silf; 13 meynees of the hous of Nathan bi hem silf, and the wymmen of hem bi hem silf; meynees of the hous of Leuy bi hem silf, and the wymmen of hem bi hem silf; meynees of Semei bi hem silf, and the wymmen of hem bi hem silf. 14 All othere meynees, meynees and meynees bi hem silf, and the wymmen of hem bi hem silf.

Malachi

1 The birthun of the word of the Lord to Israel, in the hond of Malachie, the profete. 2 Y louyde you, seith the Lord, and ye seiden, In what thing louydist thou vs? Whether Esau was not the brother of Jacob, seith the Lord, and Y louyde Jacob, 3 forsothe Y hate Esau? And Y haue put Seir the hillis of hym in to wildirnesse, and his eritage in to dragouns of desert. 4 That if Idumee seith, We ben distried, but we schulen turne ayen, and bilde tho thingis that ben distried; the Lord of oostis seith these thingis, These schulen bilde, and Y schal distrie; and thei schulen be clepid termes of wickidnesse, and a puple to whom the Lord is wroth, til in to with outen ende. 5 And youre iyen schulen se, and ye schulen seie, The Lord be magniefed on the terme of Israel. 6 The sone onourith the fader, and the seruauent schal drede his lord; therfor if Y am fadir, wher is myn onour? and if Y am lord, wher is my drede? seith the Lord of oostis. 7 Al ye prestis, to you that dispisen my name; and ye seiden, Wherynne han we dispisid thi name? 8 Ye offren on myn auter vncleene breed, and ye seien, Wherynne han we defouled thee? In that thing that ye seien, The boord of the Lord is dispisid. 9 If ye offren a blynd beest to be sacrificid, whether it is not yuel? And if ye offren a crokid and sike beeste, whether it is not yuel? Offre thou it to thi duyck, if it schal plesse hym, ether if he schal resseyue thi face, seith the Lord of oostis. 10 And now biseche ye the cheer of the Lord, that he haue merci on you; for of youre hond this thing is doon, if in any maner he resseieue youre faces, seith the Lord of oostis. 11 Who is 'in you that closith doris, and brenneth myn auter 'of his owne wille, ethir freli? Wille is not to me in you, seith the Lord of oostis; and Y schal not resseyue a yifte of youre hond. 12 For fro rysyng of the sunne til to goyng doun, my name is greet in hethene men; and in ech place a cleene offering is sacrificid, and offrid to my name; for my name is greet in hethene men, seith the Lord of oostis. 13 And ye han defouled it in that that ye seien, The boord of the Lord is defouled, and that that is put aboue is 'worthi to be dispisid, with fier that deuourith it. 14 And ye seiden, Lo! of trauel; and ye han blowe it a wei, seith the Lord of oostis. And ye brouyten in of raueyns a crokid thng and sijk, and brouyten in a yifte; whether Y schal resseyue it of youre hond? seith the Lord. 15 Cursid is the gileful, that hath in his floc a male beeste, and 'he makyng a vow offrih a feble to the Lord; for Y am a greet kyng, seith the Lord of oostis, and my name is dredful 'in folkis.

2 And now, Al ye preestis, this maundement is to you. 2 If ye wolen here, and if ye 'wolen not putte on the herte, that ye yyue glorie to my name, seith the Lord of oostis, Y schal sende nedynesse in to you, and Y schal curse to youre blessyngis; and Y schal curse hem, for ye han not putte on the herte. 3 Lo! Y schal caste to you the arm, and Y schal scatere on youre cheere the drit of youre solempnytees, and it schal take you with it. 4 And ye schulen wite, that Y sente to you this maundement, that my couenaunt were with Leuy, seith the Lord of oostis. 5 My couenaunt was with hym of lijf and pees; and Y yaf to hym a drede, and he dredde me, and he dredde of face of my name. 6

The lawe of trewthe was in his mouth, and wickidnesse was not foundun in hise lippis; in pees and in equite he walkide with me, and he turnede awei many men fro wickidnesse. 7 For the lippis of a prest kepen science, and thei schulen ayen seke the lawe of 'the mouth of hym, for he is an aungel of the Lord of oostes. 8 But ye wenten awei fro the weie, and sclaunderen ful many men in the lawe; ye maden voide the couenaunt of Leuy, seith the Lord of oostis. 9 For which thing and Y yaf you worthi to be dispisid, and bowen to alle puplis, as ye kepten not my weies, and token a face in the lawe. 10 Whether not o fadir is of alle you? whether o God made not of nouyt you? Whi therfor ech of you dispisith his brother, and defoulith the couenaunt of youre fadris? 11 Judas trespasside, and abhomynacioun is maad in Israel, and in Jerusalem; for Judas defoulide the haleywyng of the Lord, which he louyde, and he hadde the douyter of an alien god. 12 The Lord schal distrie the man that dide this thing, the maister and disciple, fro the tabernacle of Jacob, and him that offrih a yifte to the Lord of oostis. 13 And eftsoone ye diden this thing; ye hiliden with teeris the auter of the Lord, with wepyng and mourenyng; so that Y biholde no more to sacrifice, nether resseyue ony thing plesant of youre hond. 14 And ye seiden, For what cause? For the Lord witnesside bitwixe thee and the wijf of thi 'puberte, that is, tyme of mariage, which thou dispisidist, and this is thi felowe, and wijf of thi couenaunt. 15 Whether oon made not, and residue of spirit is his? and what sekith oon, no but the seed of God? Therfore kepe ye youre spirit, and nyle thou dispise the wijf of thi yongthe; 16 whanne thou hatist hir, leue thou hir, seith the Lord God of Israel. Forsothe wickidnesse schal kyure the closyng of hym, seith the Lord of oostis; kepe ye youre spirit, and nyle ye dispise. 17 Ye maden the Lord for to trauele in youre wordis, and ye seiden, Wherynne maden we hym for to trauele? In that that ye seien, Ech man that doith yuel, is good in the siyt of the Lord, and sicke plesen to hym; ether certis wher is the God of doom?

3 Lo! Y sende myn aungel, and he schal make redi weie bifor my face; and anon the lordshipere, whom ye seken, schal come to his hooli temple, and the aungel of testament, whom ye wolen. Lo! he cometh, seith the Lord of oostis; 2 and who schal mowe thenke the dai of his comyng? and who schal stonde for to se hym? For he schal be as fier wellynge togidere, and as erbe of fulleris; 3 and he schal sitte wellynge togidere and clensyng siluer, and he schal purge the sones of Leuy; and he schal purge hem as gold and as siluer, and thei schulen be offryng to the Lord sacrifices in riyfulness. 4 And the sacrifice of Juda and of Jerusalem schal plesse to the Lord, as the daies of the world, and as olde yeeris. 5 And Y schal come to you in doom, and Y schal be a swift wisesse to mysdoeris, 'ether enchaunteris of deuelis craft, and to auouteris, and forsworn men, and that falsli calengen the hire of the hirid man, and widewis, and fadirles, 'ether modirles, children, and oppressen a pilgrym, 'nether dreden me, seith the Lord of oostis. 6 Forsothe Y am the Lord, and am not chaungid; and ye sones of Jacob ben not wastid. 7 Forsothe fro daies of youre fadris ye wenten awei fro my lawful thingis, and kepten not; turne ye ayen to me, and Y schal ayen turne to you, seith the Lord of oostis. And ye seiden, In what thing schulen we turne ayen? 8 If a man schal turmente God, for ye `togidere fitchen me. And ye seiden, In what thing `togidere fitchen we thee? In tithis and in `firste fruitis; 9 and ye ben cursid in nedynesse, and alle ye folc disseyuen me, and `togidere fitchen. 10 Brynge ye yn ech tithe in to my berne, that mete be in myn hous, and preue ye me on this thing, seith the Lord, if Y schal not opene to you the goteris of heuene, and schal schede out to you blessing, til to abundaunce. 11 And Y schal blame for you that that deuourith, and he schal not distrie the fruit of youre lond; nether bareyn vyneyerd schal be in the feeld, 12 seith the Lord of oostis, and alle folkis schulen seie you blessing; for ye schulen be a desirable lond, seith the Lord of oostis. 13 Youre wordis wexiden strong on me, seith the Lord; and ye seiden, What han we spokun ayens thee? 14 And ye seiden, He is veyn, that serueth God; and what wynnyng for we kepten hise heestis, and for we wenten soreful bfore the Lord of oostis? 15 Therfor now we seien proude men blessing; for thei ben bildid doyng vnpitee, and thei temptiden God, and ben maad saaf. 16 Thanne men dredynge God spaken, ech with his neybore; and the Lord perseyuede, and herde, and a book of mynde is writun bifor hym to `men dredynge God, and thenkyng his name. 17 And thei schulen be to me, seith the Lord of oostis, in the dai in which Y schal make, in to a special tresour; and Y schal spare hem, as a man sparith his sone seruyng to hym. 18 And ye schulen be conuertid, and ye schulen se, what is bitwixe the iust man and vnpytouse, bitwixe `the seruyng to the Lord and `not seruyng to hym.

4 For lo! a dai schal come, brennyng as a chymenei; and alle proude men, and alle doyng vnpitee schulen be stobul; and the dai comyng schal enflaume hem, seith the Lord of oostis, which schal not leeue to hem rote and buriownyng. 2 And to you dredynge my name the sunne of riytwisnesse schal rise, and heelthe in pennys of hym; and ye schulen go out, and schulen skippe, as a calf of the droue. 3 And ye schulen to-trede vnpytouse men, whanne thei schulen be aische vndur the soole of youre feet, in the dai in which Y do, seith the Lord of oostis. 4 Bithenke ye on the lawe of my seruaunt Moises, which Y comaundide to hym in Oreb, to al Israel comaundementis and domes. 5 Lo! Y schal sende to you Elie, the profete, bfore that the greet dai and orible of the Lord come. 6 And he schal conuerte the herte of fadris to sones, and the herte of sones to fadris of hem, lest perauenture Y come, and smyte the erthe with curs.

Whanne Marie, the modir of Jhesu, was spousid to Joseph, bifore thei camen togidere, she was foundun hauynge of the Hooli Goost in the wombe. 19 And Joseph, hir hosebonde, for he was riytful, and wolde not puplische hir, he wolde priueli haue left hir. 20 But while he thouyte thes thingis, lo! the aungel of the Lord apperide `in sleep to hym, and seide, Joseph, the sone of David, nyle thou drede to take Marie, thi wijf; for that thing that is borun in hir is of the Hooli Goost. 21 And she shal bere a sone, and thou shalt clepe his name Jhesus; for he schal make his puple saaf fro her synnes. 22 For al this thing was don, that it schulde be fulfillid, that was seid of the Lord bi a prophete, seiynge, Lo! 23 a virgyn shal haue in wombe, and she schal bere a sone, and thei schulen clepe his name Emanuel, that is to seie, God with vs. 24 And Joseph roos fro sleepe, and dide as the aungel of the Lord comaundide hym, and took Marie, his wijf; 25 and he knew her not, til she hadde borun her firste bigete sone, and clepid his name Jhesus.

2 Therfor whanne Jhesus was borun in Bethleem of Juda, in the daies of king Eroude, lo! astromyenes camen fro the eest to Jerusalem, 2 and seiden, Where is he, that is borun king of Jewis? for we han seyn his sterre in the eest, and we comen to worschipe him. 3 But king Eroude herde, and was trublid, and al Jerusalem with hym. 4 And he gaderide to gidre alle the prynces of prestis, and scribis of the puple, and enqueride of hem, where Crist shulde be borun. 5 And thei seiden to hym, In Bethleem of Juda; for so it is writun bi a profete, 6 And thou, Bethleem, the lond of Juda, art not the leest among the prynces of Juda; for of thee a duyck schal go out, that schal gouerne my puple of Israel.

7 Thanne Eroude clepide pryueli the astromyens, and lernyde bisili of hem the tyme of the sterre that apperide to hem. 8 And he sente hem in to Bethleem, and seide, Go ye, and axe ye bisili of the child, and whanne yee han foundun, telle ye it to me, that Y also come, and worschipe hym. 9 And whanne thei hadden herd the kyng, thei wenten forth. And lo! the sterre, that thei siyen in the eest, wente bifore hem, til it cam, and stood aboue, where the child was. 10 And thei siyen the sterre, and ioiyeden with a ful greet ioye. 11 And thei entriden in to the hous, and founden the child with Marie, his modir; and thei felden doun, and worschipiden him. And whanne thei hadden openyd her tresouris, thei offryden to hym yiftis, gold, encense, and myrrre. 12 And whanne thei hadden take an aunswere in sleep, that thei schulden not turne ayen to Eroude, thei turneden ayen bi anothir weie in to her cuntrey. 13 And whanne thei weren goon, lo! the aungel of the Lord apperide to Joseph in sleep, and seide, Rise vp, and take the child and his modir, and fle in to Egipt, and be thou there, til that I seie to thee; for it is to come, that Eroude seke the child, to destrie hym. 14 And Joseph roos, and took the child and his modir bi noyt, and wente in to Egipt, 15 and he was there to the deeth of Eroude; that it schulde be fulfillid, that was seid of the Lord bi the profete, seiynge, Fro Egipt Y haue clepid my sone. 16 Thanne Eroude seyng that he was disseyued of the astromyens, was ful wrooth; and he sente, and slowe alle the children, that weren in Bethleem, and in alle the coostis therof, fro two yeer age and with inne, aftir the tyme that he had enquerid of the astromyens. 17 Thanne `it was fulfillid, that was seid bi Jeremye, the profete, 18 seiynge, A vois was herd an hiy, wepyng and moche weilyng, Rachel biwepyng hir sonen, and she wolde not be coumfortid, for thei ben noyt. 19 But whanne Eroude was deed, loo! the aungel of the Lord apperide to Joseph in sleep in Egipt, 20 and seide, Ryse vp, and take the child and his modir, and go in to the lond of Israel; for thei that souyten the lijf of the childe ben deed. 21 Joseph roos, and took the child and his modir, and cam in to the loond of Israel. 22 And he herde that Archilaus regnede in Judee for Eroude, his fadir, and dredde to go thidir. And he was warned in sleep, and wente in to the parties of Galilee; 23 and cam, and dwelte in a citee, that ys clepid Nazareth, that it schulde be fulfillid, that was seid bi profetis, For he shal be clepid a Nazarey.

3 In the daies Joon Baptist cam, and prechide in the desert of Judee, 2 and seide, Do ye penance, for the kyngdom of heuenes shal neie. 3 For this is he, of whom it is seid bi Ysaie, the prophete, seiynge, A vois of a crier in desert, Make ye redi the weies of the Lord; make ye riyt the pathis of hym. 4 And this Joon hadde clothing of camels heeris, and a girdil of skynne aboute hise leendis; and his mete was honysoukis, and hony of the wode. 5 Thanne Jerusalem wente out to hym, and al Judee, and al the cuntre aboute Jordan; 6 and thei weren waichun of hym in Jordan, `and knowlechiden her synnes. 7 But he siy manye of the Farysees and of Saduceis comynge to his baptyem, and seide to hem, Generaciouns of eddris, who shewide to you to fle fro the wraththe that is to come? 8 Therfor do ye worthi fruyte of penance, 9 and nyle ye seie with ynne you, We han Abraham to fadir; for Y seie to you, that God is myyti to reise vp of these stooness the sones of Abraham. 10 And now the ax is put to the roote of the tree; therefore euery tree that makith not good fruyt, shal be kit down, and shal be cast in to the fier. 11 Y waische you in water, in to penaunce; but he that shal come after me is strongere than Y, whos schoon Y am not worthi to bere; he shal baptise you in the Hooli Goost and fier. 12 Whos wynewing cloth is in his hoond, and he shal fulli clense his corn flore, and shal gadere his whete in to his berne; but the chaffe he shal brenne with fier that mai not be quenchild. 13 Thanne Jhesus cam fro Galilee in to Jordan to Joon, to be baptised of hym. 14 And Joon forbode him, and seide, Y owe to be baptisid of thee, and thou comest to me? 15 But Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, Suffre nowe, for thus it fallith to vs to fulfille al riytfulnesse. 16 Thanne Joon suffride hym. And whanne Jhesus was baptisid, anoon he wente up fro the watir; and lo! heuenes weren openyd to hym, and he saie the Spirit of God comynge doun as a dowue, and comynge on hym; and loo! 17 a vois fro heuenes, seynge, This is my louyd sone, in which Y haue plesid to me.

4 Thanne Jhesus was led of a spirit in to desert, to be temptid of the feend. 2 And whanne he hadde fastid fourti daies and fourti nyttis, aftirward he hungride. 3 And the tempter cam nyy, and seide to hym, If thou art Goddis sone, seie that thes stooness be maad looues. 4 Which answeride, and seide to hym, It is writun, Not oonli in breed luyeth man, but in ech word that cometh of Goddis mouth. 5 Thanne the feend took hym in to the hooli citee, and settide hym on the pynacle of the temple, 6 and seide to hym, If thou art Goddis sone, sende thee adoun; for it is writun, That to hise aungels he comaundide of thee, and thei schulen take thee in hondis, lest peraunture thou hirte thi foot at a stoon. 7 Eftsoone Jhesus seide to hym, It is writun, Thou shalt not tempte thi Lord God. 8 Eftsoone the feend took hym in to a ful hii hil, and schewide to hym alle the rewmes of the world, and the ioye of hem; 9 and seide to hym, Alle these `Y schal yyue to thee, if thou falle doun and worschipe me. 10 Thanne Jhesus seide to hym, Goo, Sathanas; for it is writun, Thou schalt worschipe thi Lord God, and to hym aloune thou shalt serue. 11 Thanne the feend lafte hym; and lo! aungels camen nyy, and serueden to hym. 12 But whanne Jhesus hadde herd that Joon was takun, he wente in to Galilee. 13 And he lefte the citee of Nazareth, and cam, and dwelte in the citee of Cafarnaum, beside the see, in the coostis of Zabulon and Neptalym, 14 that it shulde be fulfillid, that was seid by Ysaie, the profete, seynge, 15 The lond of Sabulon and the lond of Neptalym, the weie of the see ouer Jordan, of Galilee of hethen men, 16 the puple that walkide in darknessis saye greet liyt, and while men satten in the cuntre of shadewe of deth, liyt aroos to hem. 17 Fro that tyme Jhesus bigan to preche, and seie, Do ye penaunce, for the kyngdom of heuenes schal come niy. 18 And Jhesus walkide bisidis the see of Galilee, and saye twei britheren, Symount, that is clepid Petre, and Andrewe, his brothir, castynge nettis in to the see; for thei weren fischeris. 19 And he seide to hem, Come ye aftir me, and Y shal make you to be maad fischeris of men. 20 And anoon thei leften the nettis, and sueden hym. 21 And he yede forth fro that place, and saie tweyne othere britheren, James of Zebede, and Joon, his brother, in a schip with Zebede, her fadir, amendinge her nettis, and he clepide hem. 22 And anoon thei leften the nettis and the fadir, and sueden hym. 23 And Jhesus yede aboute al Galilee, techynge in the synagogis of hem, and prechynge the gospel of the kyngdom, and heelynge euery languor and eche sekenesse among the puple. 24 And his fame wente in to al Sirie; and thei brouyten to hym alle that weren at male ese, and that weren take with dyuerse languores and turmentis, and hem that hadden feendis, and lunatike men, and men in palsey, and he heelide hem. 25 And ther sueden hym myche puple of Galile, and of Decapoli, and of Jerusalem, and of Judee, and of biyende Jordan.

5 And Jhesus, seyng the puple, wente vp in to an hil; and whanne he was set, hise disciplis camen to hym. 2 And he openyde his mouth, and taute hym, and seide, 3 Blessed ben pore men in spirit, for the kyngdom of heuenes is herne. 4 Blessid ben mylde men, for thei schulen welde the erthe. 5 Blessid ben thei that mornen, for thei schulen be coumfortid. 6 Blessid ben thei that hungren and thristen riytwisnesse, for thei schulen be fulfillid. 7 Blessid ben merciful men, for thei schulen gete merci. 8 Blessid ben thei that ben of clene herte, for thei schulen se God. 9 Blessid ben pesible men, for thei schulen be clepid Goddis children. 10 Blessid ben thei that suffren persecusioun for riytfulnesse, for the kingdam of heuenes is herne. 11 `Ye schulen be blessid, whanne men schulen curse you, and schulen pursue you, and shulen seie al yuel ayens you liynge, for me. 12 loie ye, and be ye glad, for youre meede is plenteuouse in heuenes; for so thei han pursued `also profetis that weren bifor you. 13 Ye ben salt of the erthe; that if the salt vanysche away, whereynne schal it be saltid? To no thing it is worth ouere, no but that it be cast out, and be defouldid of men. 14 Ye ben liyt of the world; a citee set on an hil may not be hid; 15 ne me teendith not a lanterne, and puttith it vndur a busschel, but on a candilstike, that it yyue liyt to alle that ben in the hous. 16 So schyne youre liyt befor men, that thei se youre goode werkis, and glorifie youre fadir that is in heuenes. 17 Nil ye deme, that Y cam to vndo the lawe, or the profetis; Y cam not to vndo the lawe, but to fulfille. 18 Forsothe Y seie to you, til heuene and erthe passe, o lettir or o titel shal not passe fro the lawe, til alle thingis be doon. 19 Therfor he that brekith oon of these leeste maundementis, and techith thus men, schal be clepid the leste in the rewme of heuenes; `but he that doith, and techith, schal be clepid greet in the kyngdom of heuenes. 20 And Y seie to you, that but your riytfulnesse be more plenteuouse than of scribis and of Farisees, ye schulen not entre into the kyngdom of heuenes. 21 Ye han herd that it was seid to elde men, Thou schalt not slee; and he that sleeth, schal be gilty to doom. 22 But Y seie to you, that ech man that is wrooth to his brothir, schal be gilty to doom; and he that seith to his brother, Fy! schal be gilty to the counseil; but he that seith, Fool, schal be gilty to the fier of helle. (Geenna g1067) 23 Therfor if thou offrist thi yifte `at the auter, and ther thou bithenkist, that thi brothir hath sum what ayens thee, 24 leewe there thi yifte bifer the auter, and go first to be recounselid to thi brothir, and thanne thou schalt come, and schalt offre thi yifte. 25 Be thou consentynge to thin aduersarie soone, while thou art in the weie with hym, lest perauenture thin aduersarie take thee to the domesman, and the domesman take thee to the mynystre, and thou be sent in to prisoun. 26 Treuli Y seie to thee, thou shalt not go out fro thennus, til thou yelde the last ferthing. 27 Ye han herd that it was seid to elde men, Thou schalt `do no letcherie. 28 But Y seie to you, that every man that seeth a womman for to coueite hir, hath now do letcherie bi hir in his herte. 29 That if thi ryht iye sclaunder thee, pulle hym out, and caste fro thee; for it spedith to thee, that oon of thi membris perische, than that al thi bodi go in to helle. (Geenna g1067) 30 And if thi ryht hond sclaunder thee, kitte hym awaye, and caste fro thee; for it spedith to thee that oon of thi membris perische, than that al thi bodi go in to helle. (Geenna g1067) 31 And it hath be seyde, Who euere leeueth his wif, yyue he to hir a libel of forsakyng. 32 But Y seie to you, that every man that leeueth his wif, outtakun cause of fornycacioun, makith hir to do letcherie, and he that weddith the forsakun wif, doith auowtrye. 33 Eftsoone ye han herd, that it was seid to elde men, Thou schalt not forswere, but thou schalt yelde thin othis to the Lord. 34 But Y seie to you, that ye swere not `for any thing; nethir bi heuene, for it is the trone of God; 35 nether bi the erthe, for it is the stole of his feet; nether bi Jerusalem, for it is the citee of a greet kyng; nether thou shalt not swere bi thin heed, 36 for thou maist not make oon heere white, ne blacke; 37 but be youre word, Yhe, yhe; Nay, nay; and that that is more than these, is of yuel. 38 Ye han herd that it hath be seid, Iye for iye, and tothe for tothe. 39 But Y seie to you, that ye ayenstonde not an yuel man; but if ony smyte thee in the ryht cheke, schewe to him also the tothir; 40 and to hym that wole stryue with thee in doom, and take away thi coote, leewe thou `to him also thi mantil; 41 and who euer constreyneth thee a thousynde pacis, go thou with hym othir tweyne. 42 Yyue thou to hym that axith of thee, and turne not away fro hym that wole borewe of thee. 43 Ye han herd that it was seid, Thou shalt loue thi neyibore, and hate thin enemye. 44 But Y seie to you, loue ye youre enemyes, do ye wel to hem that hatiden you, and preye ye for hem that pursuen, and sclaunderen you; 45 that ye be the sones of your fadir that is in heuenes, that makith his sunne to rise vpon goode `and yuele men, and reyneth on iust men and vniuste. 46 For if ye louen hem that louen you, what mede schulen ye han? whether pupplicants doon not this? 47 And if ye greten youre britheren oonli, what schulen ye do more? ne doon not hethene men this? 48 Therefore be ye parfyt, as youre heuenli fadir is parfyt.

6 Takith hede, that ye do not youre rytwisnesse bifer men, to be seyn of hem, ellis ye schulen haue no meede at youre fadir that is in heuenes. 2 Therefore whanne thou doist almes, nyle thou trumpe tofore thee, as ypocritis doon in synagogis and stretis, that thei be worshipid of men; sotheli Y seie to you, they han resseyued her meede. 3 But whanne thou doist almes, knowe not thi left hond what thi ryht hond doith, that thin almes be in hidils, 4 and thi fadir that seeth in hiddils, schal quyte thee. 5 And whanne ye preyen, ye schulen not be as ipocritis, that louen to preye stondynge in synagogis and corneris of stretis, to be seyn of men; treuli Y seie to you, thei han resseyued her meede. 6 But whanne thou schalt preye, entre in to thi couche, and whanne the dore is schet, preye thi fadir in hidils, and thi fadir that seeth in hidils, schal yelde to thee. 7 But in preying nyle yee speke myche, as hethene men doon, for thei gessen that thei ben herd in her myche speche. 8 Therfor nyle ye be maad lich to hem, for your fadir woot what is nede to you, bifer that ye axen hym. 9 And thus ye schulen preye, Oure fadir that art in heuenes, halewid be thi name; 10 thi kyngdom come to; be thi wille don `in erthe as in heuene; 11 yyue to vs this dai oure `breed ouer othir substaunce; 12 and foryyue to vs oure dettis, as we foryyuen to oure dettouris; 13 and lede vs not in to temptacioun, but delyuere vs fro yuel. Amen. 14 For if ye foryyuen to men her synnes, youre heuenli fadir schal foryyue to you youre trespassis. 15 Sotheli if ye foryyuen not to men, nether youre fadir schal foryyue to you youre synnes. 16 But whanne ye fasten, nyle ye be maad as ypocritis sorewful, for thei defacen hem self, to seme fastyng to men; treuli Y seie to you, they han resseyued her meede. 17 But whanne thou fastist, anynte thin heed, and waische thi face, 18 that thou be not seen fastynge to men, but to thi fadir that is in hidils, and thi fadir that seeth in priuey, shal yelde to thee. 19 Nyle ye tresoure to you tresouris in erthe, where ruste and mouyte destrieth, and where theues deluen out and stelen; 20 but gadere to you tresouris in heuene, where nether ruste ne mouyte distrieth, and where theues deluen not out, ne stelen. 21 For where thi tresoure is, there also thin herte is. 22 The lanterne of thi bodi is thin iye; if thin iye be symple, al thi bodi shal be liytful; 23 but if thin iye be weiward, al thi bodi shal be derk. If thanne the liyt that is in thee be derknnessis, how grete schulen thilk derknnessis be? 24 No man may serue tweyn lordis, for ethir he schal hate `the toon, and loue the tother; ethir he shal susteyne `the toon, and dispise the tothir. Ye moun not serue God and richessis. 25 Therfor I seie to you, that ye be not bisi to youre lijf, what ye schulen ete; nether to youre bodi, with what ye schulen be clothid. Whether lijf is not more than meete, and the bodie more than cloth? 26 Biholde ye the foulis of the eire, for thei sowen not, nethir repen, nethir gaderen in to bernes; and youre fadir of heuene fedith hem. Whether ye ben not more worthi than thei? 27 But who of you thenkyng mai putte to his stature o cubit? 28 And of clothing what ben ye bisey? Biholde ye the lilies of the feeld, how thei wexen. Thei trauelen not, nether spynnen; 29 and Y seie to you, Salomon in al his glorie was not keuered as oon of these. 30 And if God clothith thus the hei of the feeld, that to day is, and to morewe is cast in to an ouen, hou myche more you of litel feith? 31 Therfor nyle ye be bisi, seiynge, What schulen we ete? or, What schulen we drinke? or, With what thing schulen we be keuered? 32 For hethene men seken alle these thingis; and youre fadir woot, that ye han nede to alle these thingis. 33 Therfor seke ye first the kyngdom of God, and his riytfulnesse, and alle these thingis shulen be cast to you. 34

Therfor nyle ye be bisy in to the morew, for the morew shal be bisi to `hym silf; for it suffisith to the dai his owen malice.

7 Nile ye deme, `that ye be not demed; for in what doom ye demen, 2 ye schulen be demed, and in what mesure ye meten, it schal be meten ayen to you. 3 But what seest thou a litil mote in the iye of thi brother, and seest not a beam in thin owne iye? 4 Or hou seist thou to thi brothir, Brothir, suffre
I schal do out a mote fro thin iye, and lo! a beam is in thin owne iye? 5 Ipocrite, `do thou out first the beam of thin iye, and thanne thou schalt se to do out the mote of the iye of thi brothir.
6 Nile ye yyue hooli thing to houndis, nethir caste ye youre margaritis bifore swyne, lest perauenture thei defoulen hem with her feet, and the houndis be turned, and al to-tere you. 7 Axe ye, and it schal be youun to you; seke ye, and ye schulen fynde; knocke ye, and it schal be openyd to you. 8 For ech that axith, takith; and he that sekith, fyndith; and it schal be openyd to hym, that knockith. 9 What man of you is, that if his sone axe hym breed, whethir he wole take hym a stoon? 10 Or if he axe fische, whether he wole take hym an edder? 11 Therfor if ye, whanne ye ben yuele men, kunnen yyue good yiftis to youre sones, hou myche more youre fadir that is in heuenes schal yyue good thingis to men that axen hym? 12 Therfor alle thingis, what euere thingis ye wolen that men do to you, do ye to hem, for this is the lawe and the prophetis. 13 Entre ye bi the streyt yate; for the yate that ledith to perdition is large, and the weie is broode, and there ben many that entren bi it. 14 Hou streit is the yate, and narwy the weye, that ledith to lijf, and ther ben fewe that fynden it. 15 Be ye war of fals prophetis, that comen to you in clothingis of scheep, but withynneforth thei ben as wolues of raueyn; 16 of her fruytis ye schulen knowe hem. Whether men gaderen grapis of thornes, or figus of breris? 17 So euery good tre makith good fruytis; but an yuel tre makith yuel fruytis.
18 A good tre may not make yuel fruytis, nethir an yuel tre make good fruytis. 19 Euery tre that makith not good fruyt, schal be kyt down, and schal be cast in to the fier. 20 Therfor of her fruytis ye schulen knowe hem. 21 Not ech man that seith to me, Lord, Lord, schal entre in to the kyngdom of heuenes; but he that doith the wille of my fadir that is in heuenes, he schal entre in to the kyngdom of heuenes. 22 Many schulen seie to me in that dai, Lord, Lord, whether we han not prophesied in thi name, and han caste out feendis in thi name, and han doon many vertues in thi name? 23 And thanne Y schal knouleche to hem, That Y knewe you neuere; departe awei fro me, ye that worchen wickednesse.
24 Therfor ech man that herith these my wordis, and doith hem, schal be maad lijck to a wise man, that hath bildid his hous on a stoon. 25 And reyn felde down, and flodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and russchiden `in to that hous; and it felde not down, for it was foundun on a stoon. 26 And euery man that herith these my wordis, and doith hem not, is lijck to a fool, that hath bildid his hous on grauel. 27 And reyn cam down, and floodis camen, and wyndis blewen, and thei hurliden ayen that hous; and it felde down, and the fallyng down therof was greet. 28 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid these wordis, the puple wondride on his techyng; 29 for he tauyte hem, as he that hadde power, and not as the scribis `of hem, and the Farisees.

8 But whanne Jhesus was come down fro the hil, mych puple suede hym. 2 And loo! a leprouse man cam, and worschipe hym, and seide, Lord, if thou wolt, thou maist make me clene.
3 And Jhesus helde forth the hoond, and touchide hym, and seide, Y wole, be thou maad cleene. And anon the lepre of him was clensid. 4 And Jhesus seide to hym, Se, seie thou to no man; but go, shewe thee to the prestis, and offre the yift that Moyses comaundide, in witnessyng to hem. 5 And whanne he hadde entrid in to Cafarnaum, `the centurien neiyede to him, and priiede him, 6 and seide, Lord, my childe lijth in the hous sijk on the palesie, and is yuel turmentid. 7 And Jhesus seide to him, Y schal come, and schal heele him. 8 And the centurien answeride, and seide to hym, Lord, Y am not worthi, that thou entre vndur my roof; but oonli seie thou bi word, and my childe shal be heelid. 9 For whi Y am a man ordeyned vndur power, and haue knytyt vndir me; and Y seie to this, Go, and he goith;
and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my seruauant,
Do this, and he doith it. 10 And Jhesus herde these thingis, and wondride, and seide to men `that sieden him, Treuli Y
seie to you, Y foond not so greet feith in Israel. 11 And Y seie to you, that many schulen come fro the eest and the west, and schulen reste with Abraham and Ysaac and Jacob in the kyngdom of heuenes; 12 but the sones of the rewme schulen be cast out in to vtmer derknessis; there schal be wepyng, and grynting of teeth. 13 And Jhesus seide to the centurioun, Go, and as thou hast bileuyd, be it doon to thee. And the child was heelid fro that hour. 14 And whanne Jhesus was comun in to the hous of Symount Petre, he say his wyues modir liggyng, and shakun with feueris. 15 And he touchide hir hoond, and the feuer lefte hir; and she roos, and seruede hem. 16 And whanne it was euen, thei brouyten to hym manye that hadden deuelis, and he castide out spiritis bi word, and heelide alle that weren yuel at ese; 17 that it were fulfillid, that was seid by Ysaie, the profete, seiynge, He took oure infirmytees, and bar oure sicknessis. 18 And Jhesus say myche puple aboute him, and bade hise disciplis go ouer the watir. 19 And a scribe neiyede, and seide to hym, Maistir, Y shal sue thee, whidir euer thou schalt go. 20 And Jhesus seide to hym, Foxis han dennes, and briddis of heuene han nestis, but mannus sone hath not where `he schal reste his heed. 21 Anothir of his disciplis seide to him, Lord, suffre me to go first, and birie my fader. 22 But Jhesus seide to hym, Sue thou me, and lete deed men birie her deede men. 23 And whanne he was goon vp in to a litil schip, his disciplis sieden hym. 24 And loo! a greet stiring was maad in the see, so that the schip was hilid with waves; but he slepte.
25 And hise disciplis camen to hym, and reysiden hym, and seiden, Lord, saue vs; we perischen. 26 And Jhesus seide to hem, What ben ye of litil feith agaste? Thanne he roos, and comaundide to the wyndis and the see, and a greet pesibilnesse was maad. 27 And men wondriden, and seiden, What maner man is he this, for the wyndis and the see obeischen to him? 28
And whanne Jhesus was comun ouer the watir in to the cuntre of men of Gerasa, twey men metten hym, that hadden deuelis, and camen out of graues, ful woode, so that noo man myyte go bi that weie. 29 And lo! thei crieden, and seiden, What to vs and to thee, Jhesu, the sone of God? `art thou comun hidir bfore the tyme to turmente vs? 30 And not fer fro hem was a flocke of many swyne lesewyng. 31 And the deuelis preyeden hym, and seiden, If thou castist out vs fro hennes, sende vs in to the droue of swyne. 32 And he seide to hem, Go ye. And thei yeden out, and wenten in to the swyne; and loo! in a greet bire al the droue wente heedlyng in to the see, and thei weren deed in the watris. 33 And the hirdis fledden away, and camen in to the citee, and telden alle these thingis, and of hem that hadden the feendis. 34 And lo! al the citee wente out ayens Jhesu; and whanne thei hadden seyn hym, thei preieden, that he wolde passe fro her coostis.

9 And Jhesus wente vp in to a boot, and passide ouer the watir, and cam in to his citee. 2 And lo! thei brouyten to hym a man sike in palesie, liggyng in a bed. And Jhesus saw the feith of hem, and seide to the man sike in palesye, Sone, haue thou trist; thi synnes ben foryouun to thee. 3 And lo! summe of the scribis seiden withynne hem sif, This blasfemeth. 4 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn her thouytis, he seide, Wherto thenken ye yuele thingis in youre hertis? 5 What is liyttere to seye, Thi synnes ben foryouun to thee, ethir `to seie, Rise thou, and walke? 6 But that ye wite that mannus sone hath power to forryue synnes in erthe, thanne he seide to the sijk man in palesie, Rise vp; take thi bed, and go in to thin hous. 7 And he roos, and wente in to his hous. 8 And the puple seyng drede, and glorifiede God, that yaf suche power to men. 9 And whanne Jhesus passide fro thennus, he say a man, Matheu bi name, sittyng in a tolbothe. And he seide to hym, Sue thou me. 10 And he roos, and folewide hym. And it was don, the while he sat `at the mete in the hous, lo! many pupplicans and synful men camen, and saten `at the mete with Jhesu and hise disciplis. 11 And Farisees sien, and seiden to hise disciplis, Whi ethir youre maister with pupplicans and synful men? 12 And Jhesus herde, and seide, A leche is not nedeful to men that faren wel, but to men that ben yuel at ese. 13 But go ye, and lerne what it is, Y wole merci, and not sacrifice; for I cam, not to clepe riytful men, but synful men. 14 Thanne the disciplis of Joon camen to hym, and seiden, Whi we and Farisees fasten ofte, but thi disciplis fasten not? 15 And Jhesus seide to hem, Whether the sones of the spouse moun morne, as long as the spouse is with hem? But daies schulen come, whanne the spouse schal be takun a wei fro hem, and thanne thei schulen faste. 16 And no man putteth a clout of buystous clothe in to an elde clothing; for it doith away the fulnesse of the cloth, and a wers breking is maad. 17 Nethir men putten newe wyne in to elde botelis, ellis the botels ben to-broke, and distried, and the wyn sched out. But men putten newe wyne in to newe botels, and bothe ben kept. 18 Whiles that Jhesus spak thes thingis to hem, lo! a prince cam, and worschipide hym, and seide, Lord, my douyter is now deed; but come thou, and putte thin hond on hir, and she schal lyue. 19 And Jhesus roos, and `hise disciplis, and sueden

hym. 20 And lo! a womman, that hadde the blodi flux twelue yere, neiyede bihynde, and touchide the hem of his cloth. 21 For sche seide with ynne hir self, Yif Y touche oonli the cloth of hym, Y schal be saaf. 22 And Jhesus turnede, and say hir, and seide, Douytir, haue thou trist; thi feith hath maad thee saaf. And the womman was hool fro that our. 23 And whanne Jhesus cam in to the hous of the prince, and say mynstrallis, and the puple makynge noise, 24 he seide, Go ye a wei, for the damysel is not deed, but slepith. And thei scorniden hym. 25 And whanne the folc was put out, he wente in, and helde hir hond; and the damysel roos. 26 And this fame wente out in to al that loond. 27 And whanne Jhesus passide fro thennus, twei blynde men cryng sieden hym, and seiden, Thou sone of Dauid, haue merci on vs. 28 And whanne he cam in to the hous, the blynde men camen to hym; and Jhesus seide to hem, What wolen ye, that I do to you? And thei seiden, Lord, that oure iyen be opened. And Jhesus seide, Bileuen ye, that Y mai do this thing to you? Thei seien to him, Yhe, Lord. 29 Thanne he touchide her iyen, and seide, Aftir youre feith be it doon to you. 30 And the iyen of hem were opened. And Jhesus thretenede hem, and seide, Se ye, that no man wite. 31 But thei yeden out, and diffameden hym thorou al that lond. 32 And whanne thei weren gon out, loo! thei brouyten to hym a doumbe man, hauyng a deuel. 33 And whanne the deuel was cast out, the doumb man spak. And the puple wondride, and seide, It hath not be say thus in Israel. 34 But the Farisees seiden, In the prince of deuelis he castith out deuelis. 35 And Jhesus wente `aboute alle the `cites and castels, techinge in the synagogis of hem, and prechyng the gospel of the kyngdom, and helyng euey langour and euey siknesse. 36 And he siy the puple, and hadde reuthe on hem; for thei weren trauelid, and liggyng as scheep not hauyng a scheepherde. 37 Thanne he seide to hise disciplis, Sotheli there is myche ripe corn, but fewe werk men. 38 Therfor preye ye the lord of the ripe corn, that he sende werke men in to his ripe corn.

10 And whanne his twelue disciplis weren clepid togidere, he yaf to hem powere of vnclene spiritis, to caste hem out of men, and to heele eueri langour, and sijknesse. 2 And these ben the names of the twelue apostlis; the firste, Symount, that is clepid Petre, and Andrew, his brothir; James of Zebede, and Joon, his brothir; Filip, and Bartholomeu; 3 Thomas, and Matheu, puppican; and James Alfey, and Tadee; 4 Symount Chanane, and Judas Scarioth, that bitrayede Crist. 5 Jhesus sente these twelue, and comaundide hem, and seide, Go ye not `in to the weie of hethene men, and entre ye not in to the cites of Samaritans; 6 but rather go ye to the scheep of the hous of Israel, that han perischid. 7 And go ye, and preche ye, and seie, that the kyngdam of heuenes shal neiy; 8 heele ye sike men, reise ye deede men, clense ye mesels, caste ye out deuelis; freli ye han takun, freli yyue ye. 9 Nyle ye welde gold, nether siluer, ne money in youre girdlis, not a scrippe in the weie, 10 nether twei cootis, nethir shoon, nether a yerde; for a werkman is worthi his mete. 11 In to what euere citee or castel ye schulen entre, axe ye who therynne is worthi, and there dwelle ye, til ye go out. 12 And whanne ye goon in to an hous, `grete ye it, and seyn, Pees to this hous. 13 And if thilk hous be worthi, youre pees schal come on it; but if that hous be not worthi, youre pees schal turne ayen to you. 14 And who euere resseyueth not you, nethir herith youre wordis, go ye fro that hous or citee, and spreng of the dust of youre feet. 15 Treuli Y seie to you, it shal be more suffrable to the loond of men of Sodom and of Gommor in the dai of iugement, than to thilke citee. 16 Lo! Y sende you as scheep in the myddil of wolues; therfor be ye sly as serpentis, and symple as dowues. 17 But be ye war of men, for thei schulen take you in counseilis, and thei schulen bete you in her synagogis; 18 and to meyris, or presidentis, and to kyngis, ye schulen be lad for me, in witnessyng to hem, and to the hethen men. 19 But whanne thei take you, nyle ye thenke, hou or what thing ye schulen speke, for it shal be youun `to you in that our, what ye schulen speke; 20 for it ben not ye that speken, but the spirit of youre fadir, that spekith in you. 21 `And the brother shal take the brother in to deeth, and the fader the sone, and sones schulen rise ayens fadir and modir, and schulen turmente hem bi deeth. 22 And ye schulen be in hate to alle men for my name; but he that shall dwelle stille in to the ende, shal be saaf. 23 And whanne thei pursuen you in this citee, fle ye in to anothir. Treuli Y seie to you, ye schulen not ende the citees of Israel, to for that mannus sone come. 24 The disciple is not above the maistir, ne the seruaunt aboue hys lord; 25 it is ynowy to the disciple, that he be as his maistir, and to the seruaunt as his lord. If thei han clepid the hosebonde man Belsabub, hou myche more his houshold meyne? 26 Therfor drede ye not hem; for no thing is hid, that schal not be shewid; and no thing is priuey, that schal not be wist. 27 That thing that Y seie to you in derknessis, seie ye in the liyt; and preche ye on housis, that thing that ye heeren in the ere. 28 And nyle ye drede hem that sleen the bodi; for thei moun not sle the soule; but rather drede ye hym, that mai lese bothe soule and bodi in to helle. (Geenna g1067) 29 Whether twei sparewis ben not seeld for an halpeny? and oon of hem shal not falle on the erthe with outen youre fadir. 30 `And alle the heeris of youre heed ben noumbrid. 31 Therfor nyle ye drede; ye ben betere than many sparewis. 32 Therfor euery man that schal knouleche me bfore men, Y schal knouleche hym bifor my fadir that is in heuenes. 33 But he that shal denye me bifor men, and I shal denye him bifor my fadir that is in heuenes. 34 Nyle ye deme, that Y cam to sende pees in to erthe; Y cam not to sende pees, but swerd. 35 For Y cam to departe a man ayens his fadir, and the douytir ayens hir modir, and the sones wijf ayens the housbondis modir; 36 and the enemyes of a man ben `thei, that ben homeli with him. 37 He that loueth fadir or modir more than me, is not worthi to me. And he that loueth sone or douytir ouer me, is not worthi to me. 38 And he that takith not his croos, and sueth me, is not worthi to me. 39 He that fyndith his lijf, shal lose it; and he that lesith his lijf for me, shal fynde it. 40 He that resseyueth you, resseyueth me; and he that resseyueth me, resseyueth hym that sente me. 41 He that resseyueth a prophete in the name of a prophete, shal take the mede of a prophete. And he that resseyueth a iust man in the name of a iust man, schal take the mede of a iust man. 42 And who euer yyueth drynke to oon of these leeste a cuppe of coolde watir onli in the name of a disciple, treuli Y seie to you, he shal not leese his mede.

11 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid, he comaundide to hise twelue disciplis, and passide fro thennus to teche and preche in the citees of hem. 2 But whanne Joon in boondis hadde herd the werkis of Crist, he sente tweyne of hise disciplis, 3 and seide to him, `Art thou he that schal come, or we abiden another? 4 And Jhesus answeride, and seide `to hem, Go ye, and telle ayen to Joon tho thingis that ye han herd and seyn. 5 Blynde men seen, crokid men goon, meselis ben maad clene, deefe men heren, deed men rysen ayen, pore men ben takun to `prechyng of the gospel. 6 And he is blessid, that shal not be sclaudrid in me. 7 And whanne thei weren goon awei, Jhesus bigan to seie of Joon to the puple, What thing wenten ye out in to desert to se? a reed wawed with the wynd? 8 Or what thing wenten ye out to see? a man clothid with softe clothis? Lo! thei that ben clothid with softe clothis ben in the housis of kyngis. 9 But what thing wenten ye out to se? a prophete? Yhe, Y seie to you, and more than a prophete. 10 For this is he, of whom it is writun, Lo! Y sende myn aungel bifor thi face, that shal make redi thi weye bifor thee. 11 Treuli Y seie to you, ther roos noon more than Joon Baptist among the children of wymmen; but he that is lesse in the kyngdom of heuenes, is more than he. 12 And fro the daies of Joon Baptist til now the kyngdom of heuenes suffrih violence, and violent men rauyschen it. 13 For alle prophetis and the lawe `til to Joon prophecieden; and if ye wolen resseyue, 14 he is Elie that is to come. 15 He that hath eris of heryng, here he. 16 But to whom schal Y gesse this generacioun lijk? It is lijk to children sittynge in chepyng, that crien to her peeris, 17 and seien, We han songun to you, and ye han not daunsid; we han morned to you, and ye han not weilid. 18 For Joon cam nether etynge ne drynkyng, and thei seien, He hath a deuel. 19 The sone of man cam etynge and drynkyng, and thei seien, Lo! a man a gloutun, and a drinkere of wijne, and a freend of puppicanis and of synful men. And wisdom is iustified of her sones. 20 Thanne Jhesus bigan to seye reproof to citees, in whiche ful manye vertues of him weren doon, for thei diden not penaunce. 21 Wo to thee! Corosaym, woo to thee! Bethsaida; for if the vertues that ben doon in you hadden be doon in Tyre and Sidon, sumtyme thei hadden don penaunce in heyre and aische. 22 Netheles Y seie to you, it schal be lesse payne to Tyre and Sidon in the dai of doom, than to you. 23 And thou, Cafarnaum, whethir thou schalt be arerid vp in to heuene? Thou shalt go down in to helle. For if the vertues that ben don in thee, hadden be don in Sodom, perauenture thei schulden haue dwellid `in to this dai. (Hadēs g86) 24 Netheles Y seie to you, that to the lond of Sodom it schal be `lesse payne in the dai of doom, than to thee. 25 In thilke tyme Jhesus answeride, and seide, Y knowleche to thee, fadir, lord of heuene and of erthe, for thou hast hid these thingis fro wijse men, and redi, and hast schewid hem to litte children; 26 so, fadir, for so it was plesynge tofore thee. 27 Alle thingis ben youune to me of my fadir; and no man knewe the sone, but the fadir, nethir ony man knewe the fadir, but the sone, and to whom the sone wolde schewe. 28 Alle ye that traueilen, and ben chargid, come to me, and Y schal fulfille you. 29 Take ye my yok on you, and lerne ye of me, for Y am mylde and meke in herte; and ye schulen fynde reste to youre soulis. 30 For my yok is softe, and my charge liyt.

12 In that tyme Jhesus wente bi cornes in the sabot day; and hise disciplis hungriden, and bigunnen to plucke the eris of corn, and to ete. 2 And Fariseis, seynge, seiden to hym, Lo! thi disciplis don that thing that is not leueful to hem to do in sabatis. 3 And he seide to hem, Whether ye han not red, what Dauid dide, whanne he hungride, and thei that weren with hym? 4 hou he entride in to the hous of God, and eet looues of proposicioun, whiche looues it was not leueful to hym to ete, nether to hem that weren with hym, but to prestis aloone? 5 Or whether ye han not red in the lawe, that in sabotis prestis in the temple defoulen the sabotis, and thei ben with oute blame? 6 And Y seie to you, that here is a gretter than the temple. 7 And if ye wisten, what it is, Y wole merci, and not sacrifice, ye schulden neuer haue condempned innocentis. 8 For mannus Sone is lord, yhe, of the sabot. 9 And whanne he passide fro thennus, he cam in to the synagoge of hem. 10 And lo! a man that hadde a drye hoond. And thei axiden hym, and seiden, Whether it be leueful to hele in the sabot? that thei schulden acuse hym. 11 And he seide to hem, What man of you schal be, that hath o scheep, and if it falle in to a diche in the sabotis, whether he shal not holde, and lifte it vp? 12 How myche more is a man better than a scheep? Therfor it is leueful to do good in the sabatis. 13 Thanne he seide to the man, Stretche forth thin hoond. And he strauyte forth; and it was restorid to heelthe as the tothir. 14 And the Farisees wenten out, and maden a counsel ayens hym, hou thei schulden distrie hym. 15 And Jhesus knewe it, and wente awei fro thennus; and many sueden hym, and he helide hem alle. 16 And he comaundide to hem, that thei schulden not make hym knowun; 17 that that thing were fulfillid, that was seid by Isaie, the prophete, seiyng, Lo! 18 my child, whom Y haue chosun, my derling, in whom it hath wel plesid to my soule; Y shal put my spirit on him, and he shal telle dom to hethen men. 19 He shal not stryue, ne crye, nethir ony man shal here his voice in stretis. 20 A brisid rehed he shal not breke, and he schal not quenche smokyng flax, til he caste out doom to vitorie; 21 and hethene men schulen hope in his name. 22 Thanne a man blynde and doumbe, that hadde a feend, was brouyt to hym; and he helide hym, so that he spak, and say. 23 And al the puple wondride, and seide, Whether this be the sone of Dauid? 24 But the Farisees herden, and seiden, He this casteth not out feendis, but in Belsabub, prince of feendis. 25 And Jhesus, wityng her thouytis, seide to hem, Eche kingdom departid ayens it silf, schal be desolatid, and eche cite, or hous, departid ayens it self, schal not stonde. 26 And if Satanas castith out Satanas, he is departid ayens him silf; therfor hou schal his kingdom stonde? 27 And if Y in Belsabub caste out deuelis, in whom youre sones casten out? Therfor thei schulen be youre domes men. 28 But if Y in the Spirit of God caste out feendis, thanne the kyngdom of God is comen in to you. 29 Ethir hou may ony man entre in to the hous of a stronge man, and take away hise vessels, but he first bynde the stronge man, and thanne he schal spuyle his hous? 30 He that is not with me, is ayens me; and he that gaderith not togidere with me, scatterith abroad. 31 Therfor I seie to you, al synne and blasfemye shal be foryoun to men, but the spirit of blasfemye shal not be foryoun. 32 And who euere seith a word ayens mannus sone, it shal be foryoun to him; but who that seieth a word ayens the Hooli Goost, it shal not be foryoun to hym, nether in this world, ne in the tothir. (aion g165) 33 Ethir make ye the tree good, and his fruyt good; ether make ye the tree yuel and his fruyt yuel; for a tree is knowun of the fruyt. 34 Ye generacioun of eddis, hou moun ye speke goode thingis, whanne ye ben yuele? For the mouth spekith of plente of the herte. 35 A good man bryngith forth good thingis of good tresoure, and an yuel man bringith forth yuel thingis of yuel tresoure. 36 And Y seie to you, that of euery idel word, that men speken, thei schulen yelde resoun therof in the dai of doom; 37 for of thi wordis thou schalt be iustified, and of thi wordis thou shalt be dampned. 38 Thanne summe of the scribis and Farisees answeriden to hym, and seiden, Mayster, we wolen se a tokne of thee. 39 Which answeride, and seide to hem, An yuel kynrede and a spouse brekere sekith a tokene, and a tokene shal not be youn to it, but the tokene of Jonas, the prophete. 40 For as Jonas was in the wombe of a whal thre daies and thre nytytis, so mannus sone shal be in the herte of the erthe thre daies and thre nytytis. 41 Men of Nynyue schulen rise in doom with this generacioun, and schulen condempne it; for thei diden penaunce in the prechyng of Jonas, and lo! here a gretter than Jonas. 42 The queene of the south shal rise in doom with this generacioun, and schal condempne it; for she cam fro the eendis of the erthe to here the wisdom of Salomon, and lo! here a gretter than Salomon. 43 Whanne an vnclene spirit goith out fro a man, he goith bi drie places, and sekith rest, and fyndith not. 44 Thanne he seith, Y shal turne ayen in to myn hous, fro whannys Y wente out. And he cometh, and fyndith it voide, and clensid with besyms, and maad faire. 45 Thanne he goith, and takith with him seuene othere spiritus worse than hym silf; and thei entren, and dwellen there. And the laste thingis of that man ben maad worse than the formere. So it shal be to this worste generacioun. 46 Yit whil he spak to the puple, lo! his modir and his bretheren stoden withouteforth, sekyng to speke to hym. 47 And a man seide to hym, Lo! thi modir and thi britheren stonden withouteforth, sekyng thee. 48 He answeride to the man, that spak to hym, and seide, Who is my modir? and who ben my britheren? 49 And he helde forth his hoond in to hise disciplis, and seide, Lo! my modir and my bretheren; 50 for who euer doith the wille of my fadir that is in heuenes, he is my brothir, and sistir, and modir.

13 In that dai Jhesus yede out of the hous, and sat bisidis the see. 2 And myche puple was gaderid to hym, so that he wente up in to a boot, and sat; and al the puple stood on the brenke. 3 And he spac to hem many thingis in parabis, and seide, Lo! he that sowith, yede out to sowe his seed. 4 And while he sowith, summe seedis felden bisidis the weie, and briddis of the eir camen, and eeten hem. 5 But othere seedis felden in to stony places, where thei hadden not myche erthe; and anoon thei sprongen vp, for thei hadden not depnesse of erthe. 6 But whanne the sonne was risun, thei swaliden, and for thei hadden not roote, thei drieden vp. 7 And other seedis felden among thornes; and thornes woxen vp, and strangeleden hem. 8 But othere seedis felden in to good lond, and yauen fruyt; summe an hundrid foold, an othir sixti foold, an othir thritti foold. 9 He that hath eris of heryng, here he. 10 And the disciplis camen nyy, and seiden to him, Whi spekest thou in parabis to hem? 11 And he answeride, and seide to hem, 'For to you it is youun to knowe the priuytees of the kyngdom of heuenes; but it is not youun to hem. 12 For it shal be youun to hym that hath, and he shal haue plente; but if a man hath not, also that thing that he hath shal be takun awei fro hym. 13 Therfor Y speke to hem in parabis, for thei seyng seen not, and thei herynge heren not, nether vnderstonden; 14 that the prophesie of Ysaie 'seyng be fulfillid 'in hem, With heryng ye schulen here, and ye shulen not vnderstonde; and ye seyng schulen se, and ye shulen not se; 15 for the herte of this puple is greetli fattid, and thei herden heuyli with eeris, and thei han closed her iyen, lest sumtime thei seen with iyen, and with eeris heeren, and vnderstonden in herte, and thei be conuertid, and Y heele hem. 16 But youre iyen that seen ben blesside, and youre eeris that heren. 17 Forsothe Y seie to you, that manye profetis and iust men coueitiden to se tho thingis that ye seen, and thei sayn not, and to heere tho thingis that ye heren, and thei herden not. 18 Therfor here ye the parable of the sowere. 19 Ech that herith the word of the rewme, and vnderstondith not, the yuel spirit cometh, and rauyschith that that is sowun in his herte; this it is, that is sowun bisidis the weie. 20 But this that is sowun on the stony loond, this it is, that herith the word of God, and anoon with ioye takith it. 21 And he hath not roote in hym silf, but is temporal. For whanne tribulacioun and persecucioun is maad for the word, anoon he is sclaudrid. 22 But he that is sowun in thornes, is this that heerith the word, and the bisynesse of this world, and the fallace of ritchessis strangulith the word, and it is maad with outen fruyt. (aiōn g165) 23 But he that is sowun in to good loond, is this that herith the word, and vnderstondeth, and bryngith forth fruyt. And summe makith an hundrid fold, treuli anothir sixti fold, and another thritti fold. 24 Anothir parable Jhesus puttide forth to hem, and seide, The kyngdom of heuenes is maad lijk to a man, that sewe good seed in his feld. 25 And whanne men slepten, his enemy cam, and sewe aboue taris in the myddil of whete, and wente awei. 26 But whanne the erbe was growed, and made fruyt, thanne the taris apperiden. 27 And the seruautis of the hosebonde man camen, and seiden to hym, Lord, whether hast thou not sowun good seed in thi feeld? where of thanne hath it taris? 28 And he seide to hem, An enemy hath do this thing. And the seruautis seiden to him, 'Wolt thou that we goon, and gaderen hem? 29 And he seide, Nay, lest perauenture ye in gaderynge taris drawn vp with hem the whete bi the roote. 30 Suffre ye hem bothe to wexe in to repyng tyme; and in the tyme of ripe corne Y shal seie to the reperis, First gadere ye to gidere the taris, and bynde hem to gidere in knytnhis to be brent, but gadere ye whete in to my berne. 31 Another parable Jhesus puttide forth to hem, and seide, The kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to a corn of seneuey, which a man took, and sewe in his feeld. 32 Which is the leeste of alle seedis, but whanne it hath woxen, it is the moste of alle wortis, and is maad a tre; so that briddis of the eir comen, and dwellen in the bowis therof. 33 Another parable Jhesus spac to hem, The kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to sour douy, which a womman took, and hidde in thre mesuris of mele, til it were alle sowrid. 34 Jhesus spac alle thes thingis in parabis to the puple, and he spac not to hem with out parabis, that it schulde be fulfillid, 35 that is seid bi the prophete, seyngne, Y shal opene my mouth in parabis; Y shal telle out hid thingis fro the makying of the world. 36 Thanne he lefte the puple, and cam in to an hous; and hise disciplis camen to him, and seiden, Expowne to vs the parable of taris of the feeld. 37 Which answeride, and seide, He that sowith good seed is mannus sone; 38 the feeld is the world; but the good seed, these ben sones of the kyngdom, but taris, these ben yuele children; 39 the enemye that sowith hem is the feend; and the ripe corn is the endyng of the world, the reperis ben aungels. (aiōn g165) 40 Therfor as taris ben gaderid togidere, and ben brent in fier, so it shal be in the endyng of the world. (aiōn g165) 41 Mannus sone shal sende hise aungels, and thei schulen gadere fro his rewme alle sclaudris, and hem that doon wickidnesse; 42 and thei schulen sende hem in to the chymney of fier, there shal be weping and betyng to gidere of teeth. 43 Thanne iuste men schulen schyne as the sunne, in the rewme of her fadir. He that hath eeris of heryng, here he. 44 The kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to tresour hid in a feld, which a man that fyndith, hidith; and for ioye of it he goith, and sillith alle thingis that he hath, and bieth thilk feeld. 45 Eftsoone the kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to a marchaunt, that sechith good margaritis; 46 but whanne he hath foundun o precious margarite, he wente, and selde alle thingis that he hadde, and bouyte it. 47 Eft the kyngdom of heuenes is lijk to a nette cast into the see, and that gaderith to gidere of al kynde of fischis; 48 which whanne it was ful, thei drowen vp, and seten bi the brekke, and chesen the goode in to her vessels, but the yuel thei kesten out. 49 So it schal be in the endyng of the world. Aungels schulen go out, and schulen departe yuel men fro the myddil of iuste men. (aiōn g165) 50 And thei shulen sende hem in to the chymnei of fier; ther shal be weping and gryntyng of teeth. 51 Han ye vnderstonde alle these thingis? Thei seien to hym, Yhe. 52 He seith to hem, Therfor euery wise man of lawe in the kyngdom of heuenes, is lijk to an hosebonde man, that bryngith forth of his tresoure newe thingis and elde. 53 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid these parabis, he passide fro thennus. 54 And he cam in to his cuntrei, and tauyte hem in her synagogis, so that thei wondriden, and seiden, Fro whennus this wisdam and vertues camen to this? 55 Whether 'is not this the sone of a carpentere? Whether his modir be not seid Marie? and hise britheren, James, and Joseph, and Symount, and Judas? and hise sistris, 56 whether thei alle ben not among us? Fro whennus thanne 'alle thes thingis camen to this? 57 And so thei weren sclaudrid in hym. But Jhesus seide to hem, A profete is not with oute worship, but in his owen cuntre, and in his owen hous. 58 And he dide not there manye vertues, for the vnbileue of hem.

14 In that tyme Eroude tetrarke, prynce of the fourthe part, herde the fame of Jhesu; 2 and seide to hise children, This is Joon Baptist, he is rysun fro deeth, and therfor vertues worchen in hym. 3 For Heroude hadde holde Joon, and bounde hym, and puttide hym in to prisoun for Herodias, the wijf of his brothir. 4 For Joon seide to him, It is not leueful to thee to haue hir. 5 And he willynge to sle hym, dredde the puple; for thei hadden hym as a prophete. 6 But in the dai of Heroudis birthe, the douytir of Herodias daunside in the myddil, and pleside Heroude. 7 Wherefor with an ooth he bihiyte to yyue to hir, what euere thing she hadde axid of hym. 8 And she bifor warned of hir modir, seide, Yif thou to me here the heed of Joon Baptist in a disch. 9 And the kyng was soreful, but for the ooth, and for hem that saten to gidere at the mete, he comaundide to be youun. 10 And he sente, and bihede Joon in the prisoun. 11 And his heed was brouyt in a dische, and it was youun to the damysel, and she bar it to hir modir. 12 And hise disciplis camen, and token his bodi, and birieden it; and thei camen, and tolden to Jhesu. 13 And whanne Jhesus hadde herd this thing, he wente fro thennus in a boot, in to desert place bisides. And whanne the puple hadde herd, thei folewidn hym on her feet fro citees. 14 And Jhesus yede out, and sai a greet puple, and hadde reuthe on hem, and heelide the sike men of hem. 15 But whanne the euentid was com, hise disciplis camen to him, and seiden, The place is desert, and the tyme is now passid; lat the puple go in to townes, to bye hem mete. 16 Jhesus seide to hem, Thei han not nede to go; yyue ye hem sumwhat to ete. 17 Thei answeriden, We han not heere, but fyue looues and twei fischis. 18 And he seide to hem, Brynge ye hem hidur to me. 19 And whanne he hadde comaundid the puple to sitte to mete on the heyte, he took fyue looues and twei fischis, and he bihelde in to heuene, and blesside, and brak, and yaf to hise disciplis; and the disciplis yauen to the puple. 20 And alle eten, and weren fulfillid. And thei token the relifs of brokun gobetis, twelue cofynes ful. 21 And the noubre of men that eten was fyue thousynde of men, outakun wymmen and lytle children. 22 And anoon Jhesus compellide the disciplis to go vp in to a boot, and go bifor hym ouer the see, while he lefte the puple. 23 And whanne the puple was left, he stiede aloone in to an hil for to preie. But whanne the eueryng was come, he was there aloone. 24 And the boot in the myddel of the see was schoggid with wawis, for the wynd was contrarie to hem. 25 But in the fourthe wakyng of the niyt, he cam to hem walkyng above the see. 26 And thei, seyng hym walking on the see, weren disturblid, and seiden, That it is a fantum; and for drede thei crieden. 27 And anoon Jhesus spac to hem, and seide, Haue ye trust, Y am; nyle ye drede. 28 And Petre answeride, and seide, Lord, if thou art, comaunde me to come to thee on the watris. 29 And he seide, Come thou. And Petre yede down fro the boot, and walkide on the watris to come to Jhesu. 30 But he siy the wynd strong, and was aferde; and whanne he bigan to drenche, he criede, and seide, Lord, make me saaf. 31 And anoon Jhesus helde forth his hoond, and took Petre, and seide to hym, Thou of litil feith, whi hast thou doutid? 32 And whanne he hadde stied in to the boot, the wynd ceessid. 33 And thei, that weren in the boot, camen, and worschipiden hym, and seiden, Verili, thou art Goddis sone. 34 And whanne thei hadden passid ouer the see, thei camen in to the loond of Genesar. 35 And whanne men of that place hadden knowe hym, thei senten in to al that cuntre; and thei brouyten to hym alle that hadden siknesse. 36 And thei preiden hym, that thei schulden touche the hemme of his clothing; and who euere touchiden weren maad saaf.

15 Thanne the scribis and the Farisees camen to hym fro Jerusalem, and seiden, 2 Whi breken thi disciplis the tradiciouns of elders men? for thei waisschen not her hondis, whanne thei eten breed. 3 He answeride, and seide to hem, Whi breken ye the maundement of God for youre tradicioun? 4 For God seide, Honoure thi fadir and thi modir, and he that cursith fadir or modir, die bi deeth. 5 But ye seien, Who euer seith to fadir or modir, What euere yifte is of me, it schal profite to thee; 6 and he hath not worschpid his fadir or his modir; and ye han maad the maundement of God voide for youre tradicioun. 7 Ypocritis, Isaie, the prophete, prophesiede wel of you, 8 and seide, This puple honourith me with lippis, but her herte is fer fro me; 9 and thei worschpen me with outen cause, techyngne the doctrines and maundementis of men. 10 And whanne the puple weren clepid to gidere to hym, he seide to hem, Here ye, and vnderstonde ye. 11 That thing that entrih in to the mouth, defoulih not a man; but that thing that cometh out of the mouth, defoulih a man. 12 Thanne hise disciplis camen, and seiden to hym, Thou knowist, that, if this word be herd, the Farisees ben sclaudrid? 13 And he answeride, and seide, Eueri plauntyng, that my fadir of heuene hath not plauntid, shal be drawun vp by the roote. 14 Suffre ye hem; thei ben blynde, and leederis of blynde men. And if a blynd man lede a blynd man, bothe fallen down in to the diche. 15 Petre answeride, and seide to hym, Expowne to vs this parable. 16 And he seide, Yit ye ben also with oute vnderstondyng? 17 Vnderstonden ye not, that al thing that entrih in to the mouth, goith in to the wombe, and is sent out in to the goyng awei? 18 But tho thingis that comen forth fro the mouth, goon out of the herte, and tho thingis defoulen a man. 19 For of the herte goon out yuele thouytis, mansleyngis, auowtries, fornyaciouns, theftis, fals witnessyngis, blasfemyes. 20 Thes thingis it ben that defoulen a man; but to ete with hondis not waischun, defoulih not a man. 21 And Jhesus yede out fro thennus, and wente in to the coostis of Tire and Sidon. 22 And lo! a womman of Canane yede out of tho coostis, and criede, and seide to him, Lord, the sone of Dauid, haue merci on me; my douyter is yuel traueilid of a feend. 23 And he answeride not to hir a word. And hise disciplis camen, and preiden hym, and seiden, Leue thou hir, for she crieth aftir vs. 24 He answeride, and seide, Y am not sent, but to the sheep of the hous of Israel that perischiden. 25 And she cam, and worschpide hym, and seide, Lord, helpe me. 26 Which answeride, and seide, It is not good to take the breed of children, and caste to houndis. 27 And she seide, Yhis, Lord; for whelpis eten of the crummes, that fallen down fro the bord of her lordis. 28 Thanne Jhesus answeride, and seide to hir, A! womman, thi feith is greet; be it doon to thee, as thou wolt. And hir douytir was helid fro that hour. 29 And whanne Jhesus hadde passed fro thennus, he cam bisidis the see of Galilee. And he yede vp in to an hil, and sat there. 30 And myche puple cam to hym, and hadden with hem doumbe men and crokid, feble and blynde, and many other; and thei castiden down hem at hise feet. And he helide hem, 31 so that the puple wondriden seynge doumbe men spekyng, and crokid goynge, blynde men seyng; and thei magnyfiden God of Israel. 32 And Jhesus, whanne hise disciplis weren clepid to gidere, seide to hem, Y haue reuthe of the puple, for thei han abiden now thre daies with me, and han no thing to ete; and Y wole not leue hem fastyng, lest thei failen in the weie. 33 And the disciplis seien to him, Wherof thanne so many looues among vs in desert, to fulfill so greet a puple? 34 And Jhesus seide to hem, Hou many looues han ye? And thei seiden, Seuene, and a fewe smale fisshis. 35 And he comaundide to the puple, to sitte to mete on the erthe. 36 And he took seuene looues and fyue fisshis, and dide thankyngis, and brak, and yaf to hise disciplis; and the disciplis yauen to the puple. 37 And alle eten, and weren fulfillid, and thei token that that was left of relifes, seuene lepis fulle. 38 And thei that eten weren foure thousynde of men, with outen litle children and wymmen. 39 And whanne he hadde left the puple, he wente vp in to a boot, and cam in to the coostis of Magedan.

16 And the Farisees and the Saducees camen to hym temptyng, and preieden hym to schewe hem a tokene fro heuene. 2 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Whanne the euentid is comun, ye seien, It schal be clere, for heuene is rodi; 3 and the morewid, To dai tempest, for heuene schyneth heueli. 4 Thanne ye kunne deme the face of heuene, but ye moun not wite the tokens of tymes. An yuel generacioun and auoutresse sekith a tokene; and a tokene schal not be youun to it, but the tokene of Jonas, the profete. And whanne he hadde left hem, he wente forth. 5 And whanne his disciplis camen ouer the see, thei foryaten to take looues. 6 And he seide to hem, Biholde ye, and be war of the soure dowy of Farisees and Saducees. 7 And thei thouyten among hem, and seiden, For we han not take looues. 8 But Jhesus wityng seide to hem, What denken ye among you of litel feith, for ye han not looues? 9 Yit `vndurston den not ye, nether han mynde of fyue looues in to fyue thousynde of men, and hou many cofyns ye token? 10 nether of seuene looues in to foure thousynde of men, and hou many lepis ye token? 11 Whi vndurston den ye not, for Y seide not to you of breed, Be ye war of the sourdow of Farisees and of Saducees? 12 Thanne thei vndurstoden, that he seide not to be war of sourdow of looues, but of the techyng of Farisees and Saducees. 13 And Jhesus cam in to the parties of Cesarie of Filip, and axide hise disciplis, and seide, Whom seien men to be mannus sone? 14 And thei seiden, Summe Joon Baptist; othere Elie; and othere Jeremye, or oon of the prophetis. 15

Jhesus seide to hem, But whom seien ye me to be? 16 Symount Petre answeride, and seide, Thou art Crist, the sone of God lyuynge. 17 Jhesus answeride, and seide to him, Blessid art thou, Symount Bariona; for fleisch and blood schewide not to thee, but my fadir that is in heuenes. 18 And Y seie to thee, that thou art Petre, and on this stoon Y schal bilde my chirche, and the yatis of helle schulen not haue miyt ayens it. (Hades g86) 19 And to thee Y shal yyue the keies of the kingdom of heuenes; and what euer thou shalt bynde on erthe, schal be boundun also in heuenes; and what euer thou schalt vnbynde on erthe, schal be vnbounden also in heuenes. 20 Thanne he comaundide to hise disciplis, that thei schulden seie to no man, that he was Crist. 21 Fro that tyme Jhesus bigan to schewe to hise disciplis, that it bihofte hym go to Jerusalem, and suffre many thingis, of the eldere men, and of scribis, and princis of prestis; and be slayn, and the thridde dai to rise ayen. 22 And Petre took hym, and bigan to blame him, and seide, Fer be it fro thee, Lord; this thing schal not be to thee. 23 And he turnede, and seide to Petre, Sathanas, go after me; thou art a sclandre to me; for thou sauerist not tho thingis that ben of God, but tho thingis that ben of men. 24 Thanne Jhesus seide to his disciplis, If ony man wole come after me, denye he hym silf, and take his cros, and sue me; for he that wole make his lijf saaf, 25 shal leese it; and he that schal leese his lijf for me, schal fynde it. 26 For what profitth it to a man, if he wyne al the world, and suffre peiryng of his soule? or what chaunging schal a man yyue for his soule? 27 For mannes sone schal come in glorie of his fader, with his aungels, and thanne he schal yelde to ech man after his werkis. 28 Treuli Y seie to you, `ther ben summe of hem that stonden here, whiche schulen not taste deth, til thei seen mannus sone comyng in his kyngdom.

17 And after sixe daies Jhesus took Petre, and James, and Joon, his brother, and ledde hem aside in to an hii hil, 2 and was turned in to an othir licnesse bifor hem. And his face schone as the sunne; and hise clothis weren maad white as snowe. 3 And lo! Moises and Elie apperiden to hem, and spaken with hym. 4 And Petre answeride, and seide to Jhesu, Lord, it is good vs to be here. If thou wolt, make we here thre tabernaclis; to thee oon, to Moises oon, and oon to Elye. Yit the while he spak, lo! 5 a bryt cloude ouerschadewide hem; and lo! a voice out of the cloude, that seide, This is my dereworth sone, in whom Y haue wel pleside to me; here ye hym. 6 And the disciplis herden, and felden down on her faces, and dredden greetli. 7 And Jhesus cam, and touchide hem, and seide to hem, Rise vp, and nyle ye drede. 8 And thei liften vp her iyen, and saien no man, but Jhesu aloone. 9 And as thei camen down of the hille, Jhesus comaundide to hem, and seide, Seie ye to no man the visioun, til mannus sone rise ayen fro deeth. 10 And his disciplis axiden hym, and seiden, What thanne seien the scribis, that it bihoueth that Elie come first? 11 He answeride, and seide to hem, Elie schal come, and he schal restore alle thingis. 12 And Y seie to you, that Elie is now comun, and thei knewen hym not, but thei diden in him what euer thingis thei wolden; and so mannus sone schal suffre of hem. 13 Thanne

the disciplis vndurstoden, that he seide to hem of Joon Baptist. 14 And whanne he cam to the puple, a man cam to hym, and felde doun on hise knees bifor hym, and seide, 15 Lord, haue merci on my sone; for he is lunatike, and suffriþh yuele, for ofte tymes he fallith in to the fier, and ofte tymes in to water. 16 And Y brouyte hym to thi disciplis, and thei myyten not heele hym. 17 Jhesus answeride, and seide, A! thou generacion vnbeleueful and weiward; hou long schal Y be with you? hou long schal Y suffre you? Brynge ye hym hider to me. 18 And Jhesus blamede hym, and the deuel wente out fro hym; and the child was heeled fro that our. 19 Thanne the disciplis camen to Jhesu priueli, and seiden to hym, Whi myyten not we caste hym out? 20 Jhesus seith to hem, For youre vnbeleue. Treuli Y seie to you, if ye han feith, as a corn of seneueye, ye schulen seie to this hil, Passe thou hennus, and it schal passe; and no thing schal be vnpossible to you; 21 but this kynde is not caste out, but bi preiyng and fastyng. 22 And whilis thei weren abidyng togidere in Galilee, Jhesus seide to hem, Mannus sone schal be bitraied in to the hondis of men; 23 and thei schulen sle hym, and the thridde day he schal rise ayen to lijf. And thei weren ful sori. 24 And whanne thei camen to Cafarnaum, thei that token tribute, camen to Petre, and seiden to hym, Your maister payeth not tribute? 25 And he seide, Yhis. And whanne he was comen in to the hous, Jhesus cam bifor hym, and seide, Symount, what semeth to thee? Kyngis of erthe, of whom taken thei tribute? of her sones, ether of aliens? 26 And he seide, Of aliens. Jhesus seide to hym, Thanne sones ben fre. 27 But that we sclaunder hem not, go to the see, and caste an hook, and take thilke fisch that first cometh vp; and, whanne his mouth is opened, thou schalt fynde a stater, and yyue for thee and for me.

18 In that our the disciplis camen to Jhesu, and seiden, Who, gessist thou, is gretter in the kyngdom of heuenes? 2 And Jhesus clepide a litil child, and putte hym in the myddil of hem; 3 and seide, Y seie treuthe to you, but ye be turned, and maad as litile children, ye schulen not entre in to the kyngdom of heuenes. 4 Therfor who euer mekith hym as this litil child, he is gretter in the kyngdom of heuenes. 5 And he that resseyueth o siche litil child in my name, resseyueth me. 6 But who so sclaunderith oon of these smale, that bileuen in me, it spedith to hym that a mylnstoon `of assis be hangid in his necke, and he be drenchid in the depnesse of the see. 7 Woo to the world, for sclaundris; for it is nede that sclaundris come; netheles wo to thilke man bi whom a sclaunder cometh. 8 And if thin hoond or thi foot sclaundereth thee, kitte it of, and caste awei fro thee. It is betere to thee to entre to lijf feble, ethir crouel, than hauynge tweyne hoondis or twey feet to be sent in to eterlastyng fier. (aiōnios g166) 9 And if thin iye sclaundereth thee, pulle it out, and caste awei fro thee. It is betere to thee with oon iye to entre in to lijf, thanne hauynge tweyn iyen to be sent in to the fier of helle. (Geenna g1067) 10 Se ye, that ye dispise not oon of these litte. For Y seie to you, that the aungels of hem in heuenes seen euermore the face of my fadir that is in heuenes. 11 For mannus sone cam to saue that thing that perischide. 12 What semeth to you? If ther weren to sum man an hundrid scheep, and oon of hem hath errid, whethir he schal not leeuie nynti and nyne in desert, and schal go to seche that that erride? 13 And if it falle that he fynde it, treuli Y seie to you, that he schal haue ioye theron more than on nynti and nyne that erriden not. 14 So it is not the wille bifor youre fadir that is in heuenes, that oon of these litte perische. 15 But if thi brother synneth ayens thee, go thou, and repreue hym, bitwixe thee and hym aloone; if he herith thee, thou hast wonnun thi brother. 16 And if he herith thee not, take with thee oon or tweyne, that euery word stonde in the mouth of tweyne or thre witnessis. 17 And if he herith not hem, seie thou to the chirche. But if he herith not the chirche, be he as an hethen and a pupplan to thee. 18 Y seie to you treuli, what euer thingis ye bynden on erthe, tho schulen be boundun also in heuene; and what euer thingis ye vnbynden on erthe, tho schulen be vnboundun also in heuene. 19 Eftsoone Y seie to you, that if tweyne of you consenten on the erthe, of euery thing what euer thei axen, it schal be don to hem of my fadir that is in heuenes. 20 For where tweyne or thre ben gaderid in my name, there Y am in the myddil of hem. 21 Thanne Petre cam to hym, and seide, Lord, how ofte schal my brother synne ayens me, and Y schal forgyue hym? 22 Whether til seuen tymes? Jhesus seith to hym, Y seie not to thee, til seuene sithis; but til seuenti sithis seuene sithis. 23 Therfor the kyngdom of heuenes is ligned to a kyng, that wolde rekyn with hise seruauntis. 24 And whanne he bigan to rekene, oon that ouyte ten thousynde talentis, was brouyt to hym. 25 And whanne he hadde not wherof to yelde, his lord comaundide hym to be seld, and his wijf, and children, and alle thingis that he hadde, and to be paied. 26 But thilke seruaunt felde doun, and preiede hym, and seide, Haue pacience in me, and Y schal yelde to thee alle thingis. 27 And the lord hadde merci on that seruaunt, and suffride hym to go, and foryaf to hym the dette. 28 But thilke seruaunt yede out, and foonde oon of his euen seruauntis, that ouyte hym an hundrid pens; and he helde hym, and stranglide hym, and seide, Yelde that that thou owest. 29 And his euen seruaunt felle doun, and preyede hym, and seide, Haue pacience in me, and Y schal quyte alle thingis to thee. 30 But he wolde not; but wente out, and putte hym in to prisoun, til he paiede al the dette. 31 And hise euen seruauntis, seynge the thingis that weren don, soweweden greetli. And thei camen, and telden to her lord alle the thingis that weren don. 32 Thanne his lord clepide hym, and seide to hym, Wickid seruaunt, Y foryaf to thee al the dette, for thou preiedist me. 33 Therfor whether it bihouede not also thee to haue merci on thin euen seruaunt, as Y hadde merci on thee? 34 And his lord was wroth, and took hym to turmentouris, til he paiede al the dette. 35 So my fadir of heuene schal do to you, if ye forgyuen not euery man to his brother, of youre hertes.

19 And it was don, whanne Jhesus hadde endid these wordis, he passide fro Galilee, and cam in to the coostis of Judee ouer Jordan. 2 And myche puple suede him, and he heeled hem there. 3 And Farisees camen to him, temptyng him, and seiden, Whether it be leueful to a man to leeuie his wijf, for on cause? 4 Which answeride, and seide to hem, Han ye not red, for he that made men at the bigynnyng, made hem male and female? 5 And he seide, For this thing a man schal leue fadir and modir, and he schal draw to his wijf; and thei schulen be tweyne in o fleisch. 6 And so thei ben not now tweyne, but o fleisch. Therfor a man departe not that thing that God hath ioyned. 7 Thei seien to hym, What thanne comaundide Moises, to yyue a libel of forsakyng, and to leuee of? 8 And he seide to hem, For Moises, for the hardnesse of youre herte, suffride you leuee youre wyues; but fro the bigynnyng it was not so. 9 And Y seie to you, that who euer leueth his wijf, but for fornicacioun, and weddith another, doith letcherie; and he that weddith the forsakun wijf, doith letcherie. 10 His disciplis seien to him, If the cause of a man with a wijf is so, it spedith not to be weddith. 11 And he seide to hem, Not alle men taken this word; but to whiche it is youun. 12 For ther ben geldingis, whiche ben thus born of the modris wombe; and ther ben geldyngis, that ben maad of men; and there ben geldyngis, that han geldid hem silf, for the kyngdom of heuenes. He that may take, `take he. 13 Thanne litle children weren brouyte to hym, that he schulde putte hondis to hem, and preie. 14 And the disciplis blamyden hem. But Jhesus seide to hem, Suffre ye that litle children come to me, and nyle ye forbede hem; for of siche is the kyngdom of heuenes. 15 And whanne he hadde put to hem hondis, he wente fro thennus. 16 And lo! oon cam, and seide to hym, Good maister, what good schal Y do, that Y haue euerlastyng lif? (aiōnios g166) 17 Which seith to hym, What axist thou me of good thing? There is o good God. But if thou wolt entre to lijf, kepe the comaundementis. 18 He seith to hym, Whiche? And Jhesus seide, Thou schalt not do mansleyng, thou schalt not do auowtrie, thou schalt not do thefte, thou schalt not seie fals witnessyng; 19 worschipe thi fadir and thi modir, and, thou schalt loue thi neiybore as thi silf. 20 The yonge man seith to hym, Y haue kept alle these thingis fro my youthe, what yit failith to me? 21 Jhesus seith to hym, If thou wolt be perfite, go, and sille alle thingis that thou hast, and yyue to pore men, and thou schalt haue tresoure in heuene; and come, and sue me. 22 And whanne the yong man hadde herd these wordis, he wente awei sorrowful, for he hadde many possessions. 23 And Jhesus seide to hise disciplis, Y seie to you treuthe, for a riche man of hard schal entre in to the kyngdom of heuenes. 24 And eftsoone Y seie to you, it is liyter a camel to passe thorou a needlis iye, thanne a riche man to entre in to the kyngdom of heuens. 25 Whanne these thingis weren herd, the disciplis wondriden greetli, and seiden, Who thanne may be saaf? 26 Jhesus bihelde, and seide to hem, Anentis men this thing is impossible; but anentis God alle thingis ben possible. 27 Thanne Petre answeride, and seide to hym, Lo! we han forsake alle thingis, and we han suede thee; what thanne schal be to vs? 28 Jhesus seide to hem, Truli I seie to you, that ye that han forsake alle thingis, and han sued me, in the regeneracioun whanne mannus sone schal sitte in the sete of his maieste, ye schulen sitte on twelue setis, demyng the twelue kynredis of Israel. 29 And every man that forsakith hous, britheren or sistren, fadir or modir, wijf ethir children, or feeldis, for my name, he schal take an hundrid foold, and schal welde euerlastyng lijf. (aiōnios g166)

30 But manye schulen be, the firste the laste, and the laste the firste.

20 The kyngdom of heuenes is lijc to an housbonde man, that wente out first bi the morewe, to hire werk men in to his vyneyerd. 2 And whanne the couenaunt was maad with werk men, of a peny for the dai, he sente hem in to his vyneyerd. 3 And he yede out aboute the thridde our, and say othere stondyng idel in the chepyng. 4 And he seide to hem, Go ye also in to myn vyneyrd, and that that schal be riyful, Y schal yyue to you. 5 And thei wenten forth. Eftsoones he wente out aboute the sixte our, and the nynthe, and dide in lijc maner. 6 But aboute the elleuenthe our he wente out, and foond other stondyng; and he seide to hem, What stonden ye idel here al dai? 7 Thei seien to him, For no man hath hirid vs. He seith to hem, Go ye also in to my vyneyerd. 8 And whanne eueryng was comun, the lord of the vyneyerd seith to his procuratoure, Clepe the werk men, and yelde to hem her hire, and bigynne thou at the laste til to the firste. 9 And so whanne thei weren comun, that camen aboute the elleuenthe our, also thei token eueryche of hem a peny. 10 But the firste camen, and demeden, that thei schulden take more, but thei token ech oon bi hem silf a peny; 11 and in the takyng grutchiden ayens the hosebonde man, and seiden, 12 These laste wrouyten oon our, and thou hast maad hem euen to vs, that han born the charge of the dai, and heete? 13 And he answeride to oon of hem, and seide, Freend, Y do thee noon wrong; whether thou hast not acordid with me for a peny? 14 Take thou that that is thin, and go; for Y wole yyue to this laste man, as to thee. 15 Whether it is not leueful to me to do that that Y wole? Whether thin iye is wickid, for Y am good? 16 So the laste schulen be the firste, and the firste the laste; `for many ben clepid, but fewe ben chosun. 17 And Jhesus wente vp to Jerusalem, and took hise twelue disciplis in priuete, and seide to hem, Lo! 18 we goon vp to Jerusalem, and mannus sone schal be bitakun to princis of prestis, and scribis; and thei schulen condemne him to deeth. 19 And thei schulen bitake hym to hethene men, for to be scorned, and scourgid, and crucified; and the thridde day he schal rise ayen to lijf. 20 Thanne the modir of the sones of Zebedee cam to hym with hir sones, onouryng, and axyng sum thing of hym. 21 And he seide to hir, What wolt thou? She seith to hym, Seie that thes tweyne my sones sitte, oon at thi riythalf, and oon at thi lefthalf, in thi kyngdom. 22 Jhesus answeride, and seide, Ye witen not what ye axen. Moun ye drynke the cuppe which Y schal drynke? Thei seien to hym, We moun. 23 He seith to hem, Ye schulen drinke my cuppe; but to sitte at my riythalf or lefthalf, it is not myn to yyue to you; but to whiche it is maad redi of my fadir. 24 And the ten heryng, hadden indignacioun of the twei britheren. 25 But Jhesus clepide hem to hym, and seide, Ye witen, that princis of hethene men ben lordis of hem, and thei that ben gretter, vsen power on hem. 26 It schal not be so among you; but who euer wole be maad gretter among you, be he youre mynystre; 27 and who euer among you wole be the firste, he schal be youre seruaut. 28 As mannus sone cam not to be seruayd, but to serue, and to yyue his lijf redempcioun for manye. 29 And whanne thei yeden out of Jerico, miche puple suede him. 30 And lo! twei blynde men saten bisydis the weie, and herden that Jhesus passide; and thei crieden, and seiden, Lord, the sone of Daud, haue merci on vs. 31 And the puple blamede hem, that thei schulden be stille; and thei crieden the more, and seiden, Lord, the sone of Daud, haue merci on vs. 32 And Jhesus stood, and clepide hem, and seide, What wolen ye, that Y do to you? 33 Thei seien to him, Lord, that oure iyen be opened. 34 And Jhesus hadde merci on hem, and touchide her iyen; and anon thei sayen, and sieden him.

21 And whanne Jhesus cam ny to Jerusalem, and cam to Bethfage, at the mount of Olyuete, thanne sente he his twei disciplis, and seide to hem, 2 Go ye in to the castel that is ayens you, and anon ye schulen fynde an asse tied, and a colt with hir; vntien ye, and brynge to me. 3 And if any man seie to you any thing, seie ye, that the Lord hath nede to hem; and anon he schal leue hem. 4 Al this was doon, that that thing schulde be fulfillid, that was seid bi the prophete, seyinge, Seie ye to the douyter of Syon, Lo! 5 thi kyng cometh to thee, meke, sitynge on an asse, and a fole of an asse vnder yok. 6 And the disciplis yeden, and diden as Jhesus comaundide hem. 7 And thei brouyten an asse, and the fole, and leiden her clothis on hem, and maden hym sitte aboue. 8 And ful myche puple strewiden her clothis in the weie; othere kittiden branchis of trees, and strewiden in the weie. 9 And the puple that wente bfore, and that sieden, crieden, and seiden, Osanna to the sone of Daud; blessid is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Osanna in hiy thingis. 10 And whanne he was entrid in to Jerusalem, al the citee was stirid, and seide, Who is this? 11 But the puple seide, This is Jhesus, the prophete, of Nazareth of Galilee. 12 And Jhesus entride in to the temple of God, and castide out of the temple alle that bouyten and solden; and he turnede vpsedoun the bordis of chaungeris, and the chayeris of men that solden culeris. 13 And he seith to hem, It is writun, Myn hous schal be clepid an hous of preier; but ye han maad it a denne of theues. 14 And blynde and crokid camen to hym in the temple, and he heelide hem. 15 But the princis of prestis and scribis, seyng the merueilouse thingis that he dide, and children cryingng in the temple, and seyinge, Osanna to the sone of Daud, hadden indignacioun, 16 and seiden to hym, Herist thou what these seien? And Jhesus seide to hem, Yhe; whether ye han neuer redde, That of the mouth of yonge children, and of soukynghe childryn, thou hast maad perfitt heryng? 17 And whanne he hadde left hem, he wente forth out of the citee, in to Bethanye; and there he dwelte, and tauyte hem of the kyngdom of God. 18 But on the morowe, he, turnyng ayen in to the citee, hungride. 19 And he saye a fige tree bisidis the weie, and cam to it, and foond no thing ther ynne but leuees oneli. And he seide to it, Neuer fruyt come forth of thee, in to with outen eende, And anon the fige tre was dried vp. (aion g165) 20 And disciplis `sawen, and wondriden, seyinge, Hou anon it driede. 21 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, if ye haue feith, and douten not, not onli ye schulen do of the fige tree, but also if ye seyn to this hil, Take, and caste thee in to the see, it schal be don so. 22 And alle thingis what euere ye bileuynge schulen axe in preyer, ye schulen take. 23 And whanne he cam in to the temple, the princis of prestis and elder men of the puple camen to hym that tauyte, and seiden, In what power doist thou these thingis? and who yaf thee this power? 24 Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, And Y schal axe you o word, the which if ye tellen me, Y schal seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis. 25 Of whennys was the baptyng of Joon; of heuene, or of men? And thei thouyten with ynne hem silf, 26 seyinge, If we seien of heuene, he schal seie to vs, Whi thanne bileuen ye not to hym? If we seien of men, we dreden the puple, for alle hadden Joon as a prophete. 27 And thei answeriden to Jhesu, and seiden, We witen not. And he seide to hem, Nether Y seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis. 28 But what semeth to you? A man hadde twey sones; and he cam to the firste, and seide, Sone, go worche this dai in my vyneyerd. 29 And he answeride, and seide, Y nyle; but afterward he forthouyte, and wente forth. 30 But he cam to `the tother, and seide on lijk maner. And he answeride, and seide, Lord, Y go; and he wente not. 31 Who of the tweyne dide the fadris wille? Thei seien to hym, The firste. Jhesus seith to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, for pupplicans and hooris schulen go bifor you `in to the kyngdom of God. 32 For Joon cam to you in the weie of riytwisnesse, and ye bileueden not to him; but pupplicans and hooris bileueden to hym. But ye sayn, and hadden no forthenkyng afir, that ye bileueden to hym. 33 Here ye another parable. There was an hosebonde man, that plauntide a vynerd, and heggide it aboute, and dalfe a presour ther ynne, and bildide a tour, and hiride it to erthe tilieris, and wente fer in pilgimage. 34 But whanne the tyme of fruytis neiyede, he sente his seruauantis to the erthe tilieris, to take fruytis of it. 35 And the erthetilieris token his seruauantis, and beeten `the toon, thei slowen another, and thei stonyden another. 36 Eftsoone he sente othere seruauantis, mo than the firste, and in lijk maner thei diden to hem. 37 And at the laste he sente his sone to hem, and seide, Thei schulen drede my sone. 38 But the erthe tilieris, seyng the sone, seiden with ynne hem silf, This is the eire; come ye, sle we hym, and we schulen haue his eritage. 39 And thei token, and castiden hym out of the vynerd, and slowen hym. 40 Therfor whanne the lord of the vyneyerd schal come, what schal he do to thilke erthe tilieris? 41 Thei seien to hym, He schal leese yuele the yuele men, and he schal sette to hire his vyneyerd to othere erthetilieris, whyche schulen yelde to hym fruyt in her tymes. 42 Jhesus seith to hem, Redden ye neuer in scripturis, The stoon which bilderis repreuden, this is maad in to the heed of the corner? Of the Lord this thing is don, and it is merueilous bifor oure iyen. 43 Therfor Y seie to you, that the kyngdom of God schal be takun fro you, and shal be youun to a folc doyng fruytis of it. 44 And he that schal falle on this stoon, schal be brokun; but on whom it schal falle, it schal al tobrise hym. 45 And whanne the princes of prestis and Farisees hadden herd hise parabis, thei knewen that he seide of hem. 46 And thei souyten to holde hym, but thei dredren the puple, for thei hadden hym as a prophete.

22 And Jhesus answeride, and spak eftsoone in parabis to hem, 2 and seide, The kyngdom of heuenes is maad lijk to a kyng that made weddyngis to his sone. 3 And he sente hise seruautis for to clepe men that weren bode to the weddyngis, and thei wolden not come. 4 Eftsoone he sente othere seruautis, and seide, Seie ye to the men that ben bode to the feeste, Lo! Y haue maad redi my meete, my bolis and my volatilis ben slayn, and alle thingis ben redy; come ye to the weddyngis. 5 But thei dispisiden, and wenten forth, oon in to his toun, anothir to his marchaundise. 6 But othere helden his seruautis, and turmentiden hem, and slowen. 7 But the kyng, whanne he hadde herd, was wroth; and he sente hise oostis, and he destruyede tho manquelleris, and brente her citee. 8 Thanne he seide to hise seruautis, The weddyngis ben redi, but thei that weren clepid to the feeste, weren not worthi. 9 Therfor go ye to the endis of weies, and whom euere ye fynden, clepe ye to the weddyngis. 10 And hise seruautis yeden out in to weies, and gadriden togider alle that thei founden, good and yuele; and the bridale was fullilid with men sittynge at the mete. 11 And the kyng entride, to se men sittynge at the mete; and he siye there a man not clothid with bride cloth. 12 And he seide to hym, Freend, hou entridist thou hidir with out bride clothis? And he was doumbe. 13 Thanne the kyng bad hise mynystris, Bynde hym bothe hondis and feet, and sende ye him in to vtmer derknessis; there schal be wepyng and grentyng of teeth. 14 For many ben clepid, but fewe ben chosun. 15 Thanne Farisees yeden awei, and token a counsel to take Jhesu in word. 16 And thei senden to hym her disciplis, with Erodians, and seien, Maister, we witen, that thou art sothefast, and thou techist in treuthe the weie of God, and thou chargist not of ony man, for thou biholdist not the persooone of men. 17 Therfor seie to vs, what it seemeth to thee. Is it leueful that tribute be youun to the emperoure, ether nay? 18 And whanne Jhesus hadde knowe the wickidnesse of hem, he seide, Ypocritis, what tempten ye me? 19 Schewe ye to me the prynte of the money. And thei brouyten to hym a peny. 20 And Jhesus seide to hem, Whos is this ymage, and the writyng aboue? 21 Thei seien to hym, The emperouris. Thanne he seide to hem, Therfor yelde ye to the emperoure tho thingis that ben the emperouris, and to God tho thingis that ben of God. 22 And thei herden, and wondriden; and thei leften hym, and wenten away. 23 In that dai Saduceis, that seien there is no risyng ayen to lijf, camen to hym, and axiden him, 24 and seiden, Mayster, Moises seide, if ony man is deed, not hauynge a sone, that his brother wedde his wijf, and reise seed to his brothir. 25 And seuen britheren weren at vs; and the firste weddide a wijf, and is deed. And he hadde no seed, and lefte his wijf to his brother; 26 also the secounde, and the thridde, til to the seuenthe. 27 But the laste of alle, the woman is deed. 28 Also in the risyng ayen to lijf, whos wijf of the seuene schal sche be? for alle hadden hir. 29 Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Ye erren, and ye knowen not scripturis, ne the vertu of God. 30 For in the risyng ayen to lijf, nether thei schulen wedde, nethir schulen be weddid; but thei ben as the aungels of God in heuene. 31 And of the risyng ayen of deed men, han ye not red, that is seid of the Lord, that seith to you, 32 Y am God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob? he is not God of deede men, but of luyunge men. 33 And the puple herynge, wondriden in his techynge. 34 And Fariseis herden that he hadde put silence to Saduceis, and camen togidere. 35 And oon of hem, a techere of the lawe, axide Jhesu, and temptide him, 36 Maistir, which is a greet maundement in the lawe? 37 Jhesus seide to him, Thou schalt loue thi Lord God, of al thin herte, and in al thi soule, and in al thi mynde. 38 This is the firste and the moste maundement. 39 And the secounde is lijk to this; Thou schalt loue thi neiyebore as thi silf. 40 In these twey maundementis hangith al the lawe and the profetis. 41 And whanne the Farisees weren gederid togidere, Jhesus axide hem, 42 and seide, What semeth to you of Crist, whos sone is he? Thei seien to hym, Of Daudid. 43 He seith to hem, Hou thanne Daudid in spirit clepith hym Lord, 44 and seith, The Lord seide to my Lord, Sitte on my rythalf, til Y putte thin enemyes a stool of thi feet? 45 Thanne if Daudid clepith hym Lord, hou is he his sone? 46 And no man miyte answer a word to hym, nethir ony man was hardi fro that day, to axe hym more.

23 Thanne Jhesus spac to the puple, and to hise disciplis, 2 and seide, On the chayere of Moises, scribis and Farisees han sete. 3 Therfor kepe ye, and do ye alle thingis, what euer thingis thei seien to you. But nyle ye do afir her werkis; for thei seien, and don not. 4 And thei bynden greuouse chargis, and that moun not be borun, and putten on schuldris of men; but with her fyngur thei wolen not moue hem. 5 Therfor thei don alle her werkis that thei be seen of men; for thei drawn abroad her filateries, and magnifien hemmes. 6 And thei louen the first sittynge placis in soperis, and the first chaieris in synagogis; 7 and salutaciouns in chepyng, and to be clepid of men maystir. 8 But nyle ye be clepid maister; for oon is youre maystir, and alle ye ben britheren. 9 And nyle ye clepe to you a fadir on erthe, for oon is your fadir, that is in heuenes. 10 Nether be ye clepid maistris, for oon is youre maister, Crist. 11 He that is grettest among you, schal be youre mynystre. 12 For he that hieth himself, schal be mekid; and he that mekith hym silf, schal be enhaunsid. 13 But wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that closen the kyngdom of heuenes bfore men; and ye entren not, nether suffren men entrynge to entre. 14 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that eten the housis of widowis, and preien bi longe preier; for this thing ye schulen take more doom. 15 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ypocritis, that goon aboute the see and the loond, to make o prosilite; and whanne he is maad, ye maken hym a sone of helle, double more than ye ben. (Geenna g1067) 16 Wo to you, blynde lederis, that seien, Who euer swerith bi the temple of God, it is no thing; but he that swerith in the gold of the temple, is dettoure. 17 Ye foolis and blynde, for what is grettere, the gold, or the temple that halewith the gold? 18 And who euer swerith in the auter, it is no thing; but he that swerith in the yifte that is on the auter, owith. 19 Blynde men, for what is more, the yifte, or the auter that halewith the yifte? 20 Therfor he that swerith in the auter, swerith in it, and in alle thingis that ben ther on. 21 And he that swerith in the temple, swerith in it, and in hym that dwellith in the temple. 22

And he that swerith in heuene, swerith in the trone of God, and in hym that sittith ther on. 23 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ypocritis, that tithen mynte, anete, and cummyn, and han left tho thingis that ben of more charge of the lawe, doom, and merci, and feith. And it bihofte to do these thingis, and not to leewe tho. 24 Blynde lederis, clensing a gnatte, but swolewyng a camel. 25 Woo to you, scribis and Farisees, ypocritis, that clensen the cuppe and the plater with outforth; but with ynne ye ben ful of raueyne and vnclennesse. 26 Thou blynde Farisee, clense the cuppe and the plater with ynneforth, that that that is with outforth be maad cleane. 27 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that ben lik to sepulcris whitid, whiche with outforth semen faire to men; but with ynne thei ben fulle of boonus of deed men, and of al filthe. 28 So ye with outforth semen iust to men; but with ynne ye ben ful of ypocrisy and wickidnesse. 29 Wo to you, scribis and Farisees, ipocritis, that bilden sepulcris of profetis, and maken faire the birielis of iust men, 30 and seien, If we hadden be in the daies of oure fadris, we schulden not haue be her felowis in the blood of prophetis. 31 And so ye ben in witnessyng to you sif, that ye ben the sones of hem that slown the prophetis. 32 And fulfille ye the mesure of youre fadris. 33 Ye eddris, and eddris briddis, hou schulen ye fle fro the doom of helle? (Geenna g1067) 34 Therfor lo! Y sende to you profetis, and wise men, and scribis; and of hem ye schulen sle and crucifie, and of hem ye schulen scourge in youre sinagogis, and schulen pursue fro cite in to cite; 35 that al the iust blood come on you, that was sched on the erthe, fro the blood of iust Abel to the blood of Zacarie, the sone of Barachie, whom ye slown bitwixe the temple and the auter. 36 Treuli Y seie to you, alle these thingis schulen come on this generacioun. 37 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that sleest prophetis, and stoonest hem that ben sent to thee, hou ofte wolde Y gadere togidere thi children, as an henne gaderith togidir her chikenes vndir hir wengis, and thou woldist not. 38 Lo! youre hous schal be left to you desert. 39 And Y seie to you, ye schulen not se me fro hennus forth, til ye seien, Blessid is he, that cometh in the name of the Lord.

24 And Jhesus wente out of the temple; and his disciplis camen to hym, to schewe hym the bilydngis of the temple. 2 But he answeride, and seide to hem, Seen ye alle these thingis? Treuli Y seie to you, a stoon schal not be left here on a stoon, that ne it schal be destried. 3 And whanne he satte on the hille of Olyuete, hise disciplis camen to hym priueli, and seiden, Seie vs, whanne these thingis schulen be, and what token of thi comyng, and of the ending of the world. (aiōn g165) 4 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Loke ye, that no man disseyue you. 5 For many schulen come in my name, and schulen seie, Y am Crist; and thei schulen disseyue manye. 6 For ye schulen here batels, and opyniouns of batels; se ye that ye be not disturblid; for it byhoueth these thingis to be don, but not yit is the ende. 7 Folk schal rise togidere ayens folc, and rewme ayens rewme, and pestilences, and hungiris, and the erthemouyngis schulen be bi placis; 8 and alle these ben bigynnyngis of sorewes. 9 Thanne men schulen bitake you in to tribulacion, and schulen sle you, and ye schulen be in hate to alle folk for my name. 10 And thanne many schulen be sclaudrid, and bitraye ech other, and thei schulen hate ech other. 11 And many false prophetis schulen rise, and disseyue manye. 12 And for wickidnesse schal `be plenteuouse, the charite of manye schal wexe coold; 13 but he that schal dwelle stable in to the ende, schal be saaf. 14 And this gospel of the kyngdom schal be prechid in al the world, in witnessyng to al folc; 15 and thanne the ende schal come. Therfor whanne ye se the abhomynacioun of discomfort, that is seid of Danyel, the prophete, stondynge in the hooli place; he that redith, vndirstonde he; 16 thanne thei that ben in Judee, fle to the mounteyns; and he that is in the hous roof, 17 come not doun to take any thing of his hous; and he that is in the feeld, 18 turne not ayen to take his coote. 19 But wo to hem that ben with child, and nurischen in tho daies. 20 Preye ye, that youre fleyng be not maad in wynter, or in the saboth. 21 For thanne schal be greet tribulacioun, what maner `was not fro the bigynnyng of the world to now, nether schal be maad. 22 And but tho daies hadden be abreggide, ech flesch schulde not be maad saaf; but tho daies schulen be maad schort, for the chosun men. 23 Thanne if only man seie to you, Lo! here is Crist, or there, nyle ye bileue. 24 For false Cristis and false prophetis schulen rise, and thei schulen yyue grete tokenes and wondrys; so that also the chosun be led in to erreure, if it may be done. 25 Lo! Y haue bifor seid to you. 26 Therfor if thei seie to you, Lo! he is in desert, nyle ye go out; lo! in priuey placis, nyle ye trowe. 27 For as leit goith out fro the eest, and apperith in to the weste, so schal be also the coming of mannus sone. 28 Where euer the bodi schal be, also the eglis schulen be gaderid thidur. 29 And anon after the tribulacioun of tho daies, the sunne schal be maad derk, and the moone schal not yyue hir liyt, and the sterris schulen falle fro heuene, and the vertues of heuenes schulen be moued. 30 And thanne the tokene of mannus sone schal appere in heuene, and thanne alle kynredis of the erthe schulen weile; and thei schulen see mannus sone comynge in the cloudis of heuene, with miche vertu and maieste. 31 And he schal sende hise aungels with a trumpe, and a greet vois; and thei schulen gedere hise chosun fro foure wyndis, fro the hiyest thingis of heuenes to the endis of hem. 32 And lerne ye the parable of a fige tre. Whanne his braunche is now tendir, and the leeuves ben sprongun, ye witen that somer is nyy; 33 so and ye whanne ye seen alle these thingis, wite ye that it is nyy, in the yatis. 34 Treuli Y seie to you, for this generacioun schal not passe, til alle thingis be don; 35 heuene and erthe schulen passe, but my wordis schulen not passe. 36 But of thilke dai and our no man wote, nethir aungels of heuenes, but the fadir aloone. 37 But as it was in the daies of Noe, so schal be the comyng of mannus sone. 38 For as in the daies before the greet flood, thei weren etynge and drynkynge, weddynge and takynge to weddyng, to that dai, that Noe entride in to the schippe; 39 and thei knewen not, til the greet flood cam, and took alle men, so schal be the comyng of mannus sone. 40 Thanne tweyne schulen be in o feeld, oon schal be takun, and another left; 41 twey wymmen schulen be gryndynge in o queerne, oon schal be takun, and `the tother left; tweyn in a bedde, `the toon schal be takun, and the tother left. 42 Therfor wake ye, for ye witen not in what our the Lord schal come. 43 But wite ye this, that if the hosebonde man wiste in what our the thefe were to come, certis he wolde wake, and suffre not his hous to be vndurmyned. 44 And therfor be ye redi, for in what our ye gessen not, mannus sone schal come. 45 Who gessist thou is a trewe seruaunt and prudent, whom his lord ordeyned on his meynne, to yyue hem mete in tyme? 46 Blessed is that seruaunt, whom his lord, whanne he schal come, schal fynde so doyng. 47 Treuli Y seye to you, for on alle his goodis he schal ordeyne hym. 48 But if thilke yuel seruaunt seie in his herte, My lord tarieth to come, 49 and bigynneth to smyte hise euen seruauntis, and ete, and drynke with drunken men; 50 the lord of that seruaunt schal come in the dai which he hopith not, and in the our that he knowith not, 51 and schal departe hym, and putte his part with ypocritis; there schal be wepyng, and gryntyng of teeth.

25 Thanne the kyngdome of heuenes schal be lijk to ten virgyns, whiche token her laumpis, and wenten out ayens the hosebonde and the wijf; 2 and fyue of hem weren foolis, and fyue prudent. 3 But the fyue foolis token her laumpis, and token not oile with hem; 4 but the prudent token oile in her vessels with the laumpis. 5 And whilis the hosebonde tariede, alle thei nappiden and slepten. 6 But at mydnytt a cry was maad, Lo! the spouse cometh, go ye oute to mete with him. 7 Thanne alle tho virgyns risen vp, and araieden her laumpis. 8 And the foolis seiden to the wise, Yyue ye to vs of youre oile, for oure laumpis ben quenched. 9 The prudent answeriden, and seiden, Lest perauenture it suffice not to vs and to you, go ye rather to men that sellen, and bie to you. 10 And while thei wenten for to bie, the spouse cam; and tho that weren redi, entreden with him to the weddyngis; and the yate was schit. 11 And at the last the othere virgyns camen, and seiden, Lord, lord, opene to vs. 12 And he answeride, and seide, Treuli Y seie to you, Y knowe you not. 13 Therfor wake ye, for ye witen not the dai ne the our. 14 For as a man that goith in pilgrimage, clepide hise seruauntis, and bitook to hem hise goodis; 15 and to oon he yaf fyue talentis, and to another tweyne, and to another oon, to ech after his owne vertu; and wente forth anon. 16 And he that hadde fyue besauntis, wente forth, and wrouyte in hem, and wan othere fyue. 17 Also and he that hadde takun tweyne, wan othere tweyne. 18 But he that hadde takun oon, yede forth, and dalf in to the erthe, and hidde the money of his lord. 19 But after long tyme, the lord of tho seruauntis cam, and rekenede with hem. 20 And he that hadde takun fyue besauntis, cam, and brouyte othere fyue, and seide, Lord, thou bytokist to me fyue besauntis, loo! Y haue getun aboute fyue othere. 21 His lord seide to hym, Wel be thou, good seruaunt and feithful; for on fewe thingis thou hast be trewe, Y schal ordeyne thee on manye thingis; entre thou in to the ioie of thi lord. 22 And he that hadde takun tweyne talentis, cam, and seide, Lord, thou bitokist to me tweyne besauntis; loo! 23 Y haue wonnen ouer othir tweyne. His lord seide to him, Wel be thou, good seruaunt and trewe; for on fewe thingis thou hast be trewe, Y schal ordeyne thee on many thingis; entre thou in to the ioie of thi lord. 24 But he that hadde takun o besaunt, cam, and seide, Lord, Y woot that thou art

an hard man; thou repist where thou hast not sowe, and thou gederist togidere where thou hast not spred abroad; 25 and Y dredynge wente, and hidde thi besaunt in the erthe; lo! thou hast that that is thin. 26 His lord answeride, and seide to hym, Yuel seruaunt and slowe, wistist thou that Y repe where Y sewe not, and gadir to gidere where Y spredde not abroad? 27 Therfor it bihofte thee to bitake my money to chaungeris, that whanne Y cam, Y schulde resseyue that that is myn with vsuris. 28 Therfor take awei fro hym the besaunt, and yyue ye to hym that hath ten besauntis. 29 For to euery man that hath me schal yyue, and he schal encrease; but fro hym that hath not, also that that hym semeth to haue, schal be taken away fro him. 30 And caste ye out the vnprofitable seruaunt in to vtmer derknessis; ther schal be wepyng, and gryntyng of teeth. 31 Whanne mannus sone schal come in his maieste, and alle hise aungels with hym, thanne he schal sitte on the sege of his maieste; 32 and alle folkis schulen be gaderid bifor hym, 33 and he schal departe hem atwynne, as a scheeperde departith scheep from kidis; and he schal sette the scheep on his riythalf, and the kidis on the lefthalf. 34 Thanne the kyng schal seie to hem, that schulen be on his riythalf, Come ye, the blessid of my fadir, take ye in possessioun the kyngdome maad redi to you fro the makynge of the world. 35 For Y hungride, and ye yauen me to ete; Y thristide, and ye yauen me to drynke; Y was herboreles, and ye herboriden me; 36 nakid, and ye hiliden me; sijk, and ye visitiden me; Y was in prisoun, and ye camen to me. 37 Thanne iust men schulen answer to hym, and seie, Lord, whanne siyen we thee hungry, and we fedden thee; thristi, and we yauen to thee drynk? 38 and whanne sayn we thee herborles, and we herboreden thee; or nakid, and we hiliden thee? 39 or whanne sayn we thee sijk, or in prisoun, and we camen to thee? 40 And the kyng answerynge schal seie to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, as longe as ye diden to oon of these my leeste britheren, ye diden to me. 41 Thanne the kyng schal seie also to hem, that schulen be on his lefthalf, Departe fro me, ye cursid, in to euerlastynge fijr, that is maad redi to the deuel and hise aungels. (aiōnios g166) 42 For Y hungride, and ye yauen not me to ete; Y thristide, and ye yauen not me to drynke; 43 Y was herborles, and ye herberden not me; nakid, and ye keuerden not me; sijk, and in prisoun, and ye visitiden not me. 44 Thanne and thei schulen answer to hym, and schulen seie, Lord, whanne sayn we thee hungrynge, or thristynge, or herboreles, or nakid, or sijk, or in prisoun, and we serueden not to thee? 45 Thanne he schal answer to hem, and seie, Treuli Y seie to you, hou longe ye diden not to oon of these leeste, nether ye diden to me. 46 And these schulen goo in to euerlastynge turment; but the iust men schulen go in to euerlastynge lijf. (aiōnios g166)

26 And it was doon, whanne Jhesus hadde endid alle these wordis, he seide to hise disciplis, 2 Ye witen, that aftir twei daies pask schal be maad, and mannus sone schal be bitakun to be crucified. 3 Than the princes of prestis and the elder men of the puple were gaderid in to the halle of the prince of prestis, that was seid Cayfas, 4 and maden a counsel to holde Jhesu with gile, and sle him; 5 but thei seiden, Not in the haliday, lest perauenture noyse were maad in the puple. 6 And whanne Jhesus was in Betanye, in the hous of Symount leprous, 7 a womman that hadde a box of alabastre of precious oynement, cam to hym, and schedde out on the heed of hym restyng. 8 And disciplis seyngne hadden dedeyn, and seiden, Wherto this loss? for it myyte be seld for myche, 9 and be youun to pore men. 10 But Jhesus knewe, and seide to hem, What ben ye heuy to this womman? for sche hath wrouyt in me a good werk. 11 For ye schulen euere haue pore men with you, but ye schulen not algatis haue me. 12 This womman sendyng this oynement in to my bodi, dide to birie me. 13 Treuli Y seie to you, where euer this gospel schal be prechid in al the world, it schal be seid, that sche dide this, in mynde of hym. 14 Thanne oon of the twelue, that was clepid Judas Scarioth, wente forth to the princis of prestis, 15 and seide to hem, What wolen ye yyue to me, and Y schal bitake hym to you? And thei ordeyneden to hym thretti pans of siluer. 16 And fro that tyme he souyte oportunte, to bitraye hym. 17 And in the firste dai of therf looues the disciplis camen to Jhesu, and seiden, Where wolt thou we make redi to thee, to ete paske? 18 Jhesus seide, Go ye into the citee to `sum man, and seie to hym, The maistr seith, My tyme is nyy; at thee Y make paske with my disciplis. 19 And the disciplis diden, as Jhesus comaundide to hem; and thei maden the paske redi. 20 And whanne euentid was come, he sat to mete with hise twelue disciplis. 21 And he seide to hem, as thei eten, Treuli Y seie to you, that oon of you schal bitraye me. 22 And thei ful sori bigunnen ech bi hym silf to seie, Lord, whether `Y am? 23 And he answeride, and seide, He that puttith with me his hoond in the plater, schal bitraye me. 24 Forsothe mannus sone goith, as it is writun of hym; but wo to that man, bi whom mannus sone schal be betrayed; it were good to hym, if that man hadde not be borun. 25 But Judas that bitraiede hym, answeride, seiynge, Maister, whether `Y am? And whanne he was accusid of the princis of prestis, and of the eldere men of the puple, he answeride no thing. 13 Thanne Pilat seith to him, Herist thou not, hou many witnessyngis thei seien ayens thee? 14 And he answeride not `to hym ony word, so that the iustice wondride greetli. 15 But for a solempne dai the iustice was wont to delyuere to the puple oon boundun, whom thei wolden. 16 And he hadde tho a famous man boundun, that was seid Barrabas. 17 Therfor Pilate seide to hem, whanne thei weren to gidere, Whom wolen ye, that Y delyuere to you? whether Barabas, or Jhesu, that is seid Crist? 18 For he wiste, that bi enuye thei bitraieden hym. 19 And while he sat for domesman, his wijf sente to hym, and seide, No thing to thee and to that

iust man; for Y haue suffrid this dai many thingis for hym, bi a visoun. 20 Forsothe the prince of prestis, and the eldere men counseiliden the puple, that thei schulden axe Barabas, but thei schulden distrye Jhesu. 21 But the iustice answeride, and seide to hem, Whom of the tweyn wolen ye, that be delyuerit to you? And thei seiden, Barabas. 22 Pilat seith to hem, What thanne schal Y do of Jhesu, that is seid Crist? 23 Alle seien, `Be he crucified. The iustice seith to hem, What yuel hath he doon? And thei crieden more, and seiden, Be he crucified. 24 And Pilat seyngte that he profitide no thing, but that the more noyse was maad, took watir, and waischide hise hondis bifor the puple, and seide, Y am giltyte of the blood of this riytful man; bise you. 25 And al the puple answeride, and seide, His blood be on vs, and on oure children. 26 Thanne he deliuerede to hem Barabas, but he took to hem Jhesu scourgid, to be crucified. 27 Thanne knytytis of the iustice token Jhesu in the moot halle, and gadriden to hym al the cumpeny `of knytytis. 28 And thei vnclothiden hym, and diden aboute hym a reed mantil; 29 and thei foldiden a coroun of thornes, and putten on his heed, and a rehed in his riyt hoond; and thei kneiden bifore hym, and scornyn den hym, and seiden, Heil, kyng of Jewis. 30 And thei speten on hym, and tooken a rehede, and smoot his heed. 31 And aftir that thei hadden scorned him, thei vnclothiden hym of the mantil, and thei clothiden hym with hise clothis, and ledden hym to `crucifien hym. 32 And as thei yeden out, thei founden a man of Cirenen comynge fro the toun, Symont bi name; thei constreyneden hym to take his cross. 33 And thei camen in to a place that is clepid Golgatha, that is, the place of Caluarie. 34 And thei yauen hym to drynke wyne meynd with galle; and whanne he hadde tastid, he wolde not drynke. 35 And aftir that thei hadden crucified hym, thei departiden his clothis, and kesten lotte, to fulfillle that is seid bi the prophete, seiynge, Thei partiden to hem my clothis, and on my clooth thei kesten lott. 36 And thei seten, and kepten him; 37 and setten aboute his heed his cause writun, This is Jhesu of Nazareth, kyng of Jewis. 38 Thanne twey theues weren crucified with hym, oon on the riythalf, and oon on the lefthalf. 39 And men that passiden forth blasfemed den hym, 40 mouynge her heedis, and seiynge, Vath to thee, that distriest the temple of God, and in the thridd dai bildist it ayen; saue thou thi silf; if thou art the sone of God, come doun of the cross. 41 Also and princis of prestis scornynge, with scribis and elder men, 42 seiden, He made othere men saaf, he may not make hym silf saaf; if he is kyng of Israel, come he now doun fro the crosse, and we bileuen to hym; 43 he tristide in God; delyuer he hym now, if he wole; for he seide, That Y am Goddis sone. 44 And the theues, that weren crucified with hym, vpbreididen hym of the same thing. 45 But fro the sixte our derknessis weren maad on al the erthe, to the nynthe our. 46 And aboute the nynthe our Jhesus criede with a greet vois, and seide, Heli, Heli, lamazabatany, that is, My God, my God, whi hast thou forsake me? 47 And summen that stoden there, and herynge, seiden, This clepith Helye. 48 And anon oon of hem rennyng, took and fillide a sponge with vynegre, and puttide on a rehede, and yaf to hym to drynke. 49 But othir seiden, Suffre thou; se we whether Helie come to deliuer hym.

50 Forsothe Jhesus eftsoone criede with a greet voyce, and yaf vp the goost. 51 And lo! the veil of the temple was to-rent in twey parties, fro the hiest to the lowest. And the erthe schoke, and stoonus weren cloue; and brielis weren openyd, 52 and many bodies of seyntis that hadden slepte, rysen vp. 53 And thei yeden out of her brielis, and aftir his resurreccioun thei camen in to the holi citee, and apperiden to many. 54 And the centurien and thei that weren with hym kepinge Jhesu, whanne thei saien the erthe schakyng, and tho thingis that weren doon, thei dredden greetli, 55 and seiden, Verili this was Goddis sone. And ther weren there many wymmen afer, that sueden Jhesu fro Galilee, and mynstryden to hym. 56 Among whiche was Marie Magdalene, and Marie, the modir of James, and of Joseph, and the modir of Zebedees sones. 57 But whanne the euenyng was come, ther cam a riche man of Armathi, Joseph bi name, and he was a discipule of Jhesu. 58 He wente to Pilat, and axide the bodi of Jhesu. 59 Thanne Pilat comaundide the bodie to be youun. And whanne the bodi was takun, Joseph lappide it in a clene sendel, 60 and leide it in his newe briel, that he hadde hewun in a stoon; and he walewide a greet stoon to the dore of the briel, and wente awei. 61 But Marie Maudelene and anothir Marie weren there, sittynge ayens the sepulcre. 62 And on `the tother dai, that is aftir pask euen, the princis of prestis and the Farisees camen togidere to Pilat, 63 and seiden, Sir, we han mynde, that thilke giloure seide yit lyuynge, Aftir thre daies Y schal rise ayen to lijf. 64 Therfor comaunde thou, that the sepulcre be kept in to the thridde dai; lest hise disciplis comen, and stelen hym, and seie to the puple, He hath rise fro deeth; and the laste errour schal be worse than the formere. 65 Pilat seide to hem, Ye han the kepyng; go ye, kepe ye as ye kunnen. 66 And thei yeden forth, and kepten the sepulcre, markynge the stoon, with keperis.

28 But in the euentid of the sabat, that bigynneth to schyne in the firste dai of the woke, Marie Mawdelene cam, and another Marie, to se the sepulcre. 2 And lo! ther was maad a greet ertheschakyng; for the aungel of the Lord cam down fro heuene, and neiyede, and turnede awei the stoon, and sat thereon. 3 And his lokyng was as leit, and hise clothis as snowe; 4 and for drede of hym the keperis weren afeerd, and thei weren maad as deede men. 5 But the aungel answeride, and seide to the wymmen, Nyle ye drede, for Y woot that ye seken Jhesu, that was crucified; 6 he is not here, for he is risun, as he seide; come ye, and se ye the place, where the Lord was leid. 7 And go ye soone, and seie ye to his disciplis, that he is risun. And lo! he schal go bfore you in to Galilee; there ye schulen se hym. 8 Lo! Y haue biforseid to you. And thei wenten out soone fro the brielis, with drede and greet ioye, rennyng to telle to hise disciplis. 9 And lo! Jhesus mette hem, and seide, Heile ye. And thei neiyeden, and heelden his feet, and worschipiden him. 10 Thanne Jhesus seide to hem, Nyle ye drede; go ye, `telle ye to my britheren, that thei go in to Galile; there thei schulen se me. 11 And whanne thei weren goon, lo! summe of the keperis camen in to the citee, and telden to the princis of prestis alle thingis that weren doon. 12 And whanne thei weren gaderid togidere with the elder men, and hadden take her

And this word is pupplischid among the Jewis, til in to this day. 16 And the enleuen disciplis wenten in to Galilee, in to an hille, where Jhesus hadde ordeyned to hem. 17 And thei sayn hym, and worschipiden; but summe of hem doutiden. 18 And Jhesus cam nyy, and spak to hem, and seide, Al power in heuene and in erthe is youun to me. 19 Therfor go ye, and teche alle folkis, baptisyng hem in the name of the Fadir, and of the Sone, and of the Hooli Goost; 20 techynge hem to kepe alle thingis, what euer thingis Y haue comaundid to you; and lo! Y am with you in alle daies, in to the ende of the world. (aïōn g165)

He blasfemeth; who may foryyue synnes, but God aloone? 8 And whanne Jhesus hadde knowe this bi the Hooli Goost, that thei thouyten so with ynne hem silf, he seith to hem, What thenken ye these thingis in youre hertis? 9 What is liyter to seie to the sijk man in palesie, Synnes ben foryouun to thee, or to seie, Ryse, take thi bed, and walke? 10 But that ye wite that mannus sone hath power in erthe to foryyue synnes, he seide to the sijk man in palesie, Y seie to thee, 11 ryse vp, take thi bed, and go in to thin hous. 12 And anoon he roos vp, and whanne he hadde take the bed, he wente bifor alle men, so that alle men wondriden, and onoureden God, and seiden, For we seien neuer so. 13 And he wente out eftsoone to the see, and al the puple cam to hym; and he tauyte hem. 14 And whanne he passide, he sai y Leuy of Alfei sittynge at the tolbothe, and he seide to hym, Sue me. And he roos, and suede hym. 15 And it was doon, whanne

he sat at the mete in his hous, many pupplicans and synful men saten togidere at the mete with Jhesu and hise discipulis; for there weren many that folewiden hym. 16 And scribis and Farisees seyng, that he eet with pupplicans and synful men, seiden to hise discipulis, Whi eith and drynkith youre maystir with pupplicans and synneris? 17 Whanne this was herd, Jhesus seide to hem, Hoole men han no nede to a leche, but thei that ben yuel at eese; for Y cam not to clepe iust men, but synneris. 18 And the discipulis of Joon and the Farisees weren fastyng; and thei camen, and seien to hym, Whi fasten the discipulis of Joon, and the Farisees fasten, but thi discipulis fasten not? 19 And Jhesus seide to hem, Whether the sones of sposailis moun faste, as longe as the spouse is with hem? As long tyme as thei haue the spouse with hem, thei moun not faste. 20 But daies schulen come, whanne the spouse schal be takun awei fro hem, and thanne thei schulen faste in tho daies. 21 No man sewith a patche of newe clooth to an elde clooth, ellis he takith awei the newe patche fro the elde, and a more brekyng is maad. 22 And no man puttith newe wyn in to elde botelis, ellis the wyn schal breste the botels, and the wyn schal be sched out, and the botels schulen perische. But newe wyn schal be put into newe botels. 23 And it was doon eftsoones, whanne the Lord walkid in the sabotis bi the cornes, and hise discipulis bigunnen to passe forth, and plucke eeris of the corn. 24 And the Farisees seiden to hym, Lo! what thi discipulis doon in sabotis, that is not leueful. 25 And he seide to hem, Radden ye neuer what David dide, whanne he hadde nede, and he hungride, and thei that weren with hym? 26 Hou he wente in to the hous of God, vndur Abiathar, prince of prestis, and eete looues of propocioun, which it was not leueful to ete, but to preestis aloone, and he yaf to hem that weren with hym. 27 And he seide to hem, The sabat is maad for man, and not a man for the sabat; 28 and so mannus sone is lord also of the sabat.

3 And he entride eftsoone in to the synagoge, and there was a man hauynge a drye hoond. 2 And thei aspieden hym, if he helide in the sabatis, to accuse him. 3 And he seide to the man that hadde a drie hoond, Rise in to the myddil. 4 And he seith to hem, Is it leueful to do wel in the sabatis, ether yuel? to make a soul saaf, ether to leese? And thei weren stille. 5 And he biheeld hem aboute with wraththe, and hadde sorewe on the blyndnesse of her herte, and seith to the man, Hold forth thin hoond. And he helde forth, and his hoond was restorid to hym. 6 Sotheli Farisees yeden out anoon, and maden a counsel with Erodians ayens hym, hou thei schulden lese hym. 7 But Jhesus with hise discipulis wente to the see; and myche puple fro Galilee and Judee suede hym, 8 and fro Jerusalem, and fro Ydume, and fro biyondis Jordan, and thei that weren aboute Tire and Sidon, a greet multitude, heringe the thingis that he dide, and cam to hym. 9 And Jhesus seide to hise discipulis, that the boot schulde serue hym, for the puple, lest thei thristen hym; 10 for he heelide many, so that thei felden fast to hym, to touche hym. And hou many euer hadde syknessis, and vnclene spirits, 11 whanne thei seyen hym, felden down to hym, and crieden, seiynge, Thou art the sone of God. 12 And greetli he manasside hem, that thei schulden not make hym knowun. 13 And he wente in to an hille, and clepide to hym whom he wolde; and thei camen to hym. 14 And he made, that there weren twelue with hym, to sende hem to preche. 15 And he yaf to hem pouwer to heele siknessis, and to caste out feendis. 16 And to Symount he yaf a name Petre, and he clepide James of Zebede and Joon, 17 the brother of James, and he yaf to hem names Boenarges, that is, sones of thundryng. 18 And he clepide Andrew and Filip, and Bartholomew and Matheu, and Thomas and James Alfey, and Thadee, 19 and Symount Cananee, and Judas Scarioth, that bitraide hym. 20 And thei camen to an hous, and the puple cam togidere eftsoone, so that thei miyten not ete breed. 21 And whanne his kynnysmen hadden herd, thei wenten out to holde him; for thei seiden, that he is turned in to woodnesse. 22 And the scribis that camen down fro Jerusalem, seiden, That he hath Belsabub, and that in the prince of deuelis he castith out fendis. 23 And he clepide hem togidir, and he seide to hem in parablis, Hou may Sathanas caste out Sathanas? 24 And if a rewme be departid ayens it silf, thilke rewme may not stonde. 25 And if an hous be disparpoillid on it silf, thilke hous may not stonde. 26 And if Sathanas hath risun ayens hym silf, he is departid, and he schal not mowe stonde, but hath an ende. 27 No man may go in to a stronge mannus hous, and take away hise vessels, but he bynde first the stronge man, and thanne he schal spoile his hous. 28 Treuli Y seie to you, that alle synnes and blasfemyes, bi whiche thei han blasfemed, schulen be foryouun to the sones of men. 29 But he that blasfemeth ayens the Hooli Goost, hath not remissioun in to with outen ende, but he schal be gilti of euerlastyng trespas. (aiðon g165, aiðonios g166) 30 For thei seiden, He hath an vnclene spirit. 31 And his modir and britheren camen, and thei stoden withoutforth, and senten to hym, and clepiden hym. 32 And the puple sat aboute hym; and thei seien to hym, Lo! thi modir and thi britheren with outforth seken thee. 33 And he answeride to hem, and seide, Who is my modir and my britheren? 34 And he bihelde thilke that saten aboute hym, and seide, Lo! my modir and my britheren. 35 For who that doith the wille of God, he is my brothir, and my sistir, and modir.

4 And eft Jhesus bigan to teche at the see; and myche puple was gaderid to hym, so that he wente in to a boot, and sat in the see, and al the puple was aboute the see on the loond. 2 And he tauyte hem in parablis many thingis. And he seide to hem in his techyng, 3 Here ye. Lo! a man sowynge goith out to sowe. 4 And the while he sowith, summe seed felde aboute the weie, and briddis of heuene camen, and eeten it. 5 Othere felde down on stony places, where it had not myche erthe; and anoon it spronge vp, for it had not depnesse of erthe. 6 And whanne the sunne roos vp, it welewide for heete, and it driede vp, for it hadde no roote. 7 And othere felde down in to thornes, and thornes sprongen vp, and strangliden it, and it yaf not fruyt. 8 And other felde down in to good loond, and yaf fruyt, springynge vp, and wexynge; and oon brouyte thretti foold, and oon sixti fold, and oon an hundrid fold. 9 And he seide, He that hath eeris of heryng, here he. 10 And whanne he was bi hym silf, tho twelue that weren with hym axiden hym to expowne the parable. 11 And he seide to hem, To you it is youun to knowe the priuete of the kyngdom of God. But to hem that ben with outforth, alle thingis be maad in parablis, that thei seyng se, 12 and se not, and thei herynge here and vnderstonde not; lest sum tyme thei be conuertid, and synnes be foryouun to hem. 13 And he seide to hem, Knowe not ye this parable? and hou ye schulen knowe alle parablis? 14 He that sowith, sowith a word. 15 But these it ben that ben aboute the weie, where the word is sowun; and whanne thei han herd, anoon cometh Satanas, and takith awei the word that is sowun in her hertis. 16 And in lijk maner ben these that ben sowun on stony placis, whiche whanne thei han herd the word, anoon thei taken it with ioie; 17 and thei han not roote in hem silf, but thei ben lastyng a lital tyme; aftirward whanne tribulacioun risith, and persecucioun for the word, anoon thei ben sclaudrid. 18 And ther ben othir that ben sowun in thornes; these it ben that heren the word, 19 and dise of the world, and disseit of ritchessis, and othir charge of coueytise entrieth, and stranglieth the word, and it is maad with out fruyt. (aïōn g165) 20 And these it ben that ben sowun on good lond, whiche heren the word, and taken, and maken fruyt, oon thrith fold, oon sixti fold, and oon an hundrid fold. 21 And he seide to hem, Wher a lanterne cometh, that it be put vndur a buschel, or vndur a bed? nay, but that it be put on a candilstike? 22 Ther is no thing hid, that schal not be maad opyn; nethir any thing is pryuey, that schal not come in to opyn. 23 If ony man haue eiris of heryng, here he. 24 And he seide to hem, Se ye what ye heren. In what mesure ye meten, it schal be metun to you ayen, and be cast to you. 25 For it schal be youun to hym that hath, and it schal be takun awei fro him that hath not, also that that he hath. 26 And he seide, So the kingdom of God is, as if a man caste seede in to the erthe, 27 and he sleepe, and it rise up niyt and dai, and bryng forth seede, and waxe faste, while he woot not. 28 For the erthe makith fruyt, first the gras, aftirward the ere, and aftir ful fruyt in the ere. 29 And whanne of it silf it hath brouyt forth fruyt, anoon he sendith a sikil, for repyng tyme is come. 30 And he seide, To what thing schulen we likne the kyngdom of God? or to what parable schulen we comparisoun it? 31 As a corne of seneuei, which whanne it is sowun in the erthe, is lesse than alle seedis that ben in the erthe; 32 and whanne it is sprongun up, it waxith in to a tre, and is maad gretter than alle erbis; and it makith grete braunchis, so that briddis of heuene moun dwelle vndur the schadewe therof. 33 And in many suche parablis he spak to hem the word, as thei myyten here; 34 and he spak not to hem with out parable. But he expownede to hise disciplis alle thingis bi hemsilf. 35 And he seide to hem in that dai, whanne eueryng was come, Passe we ayenward. 36 And thei leften the puple, and token hym, so that he was in a boot; and othere bootys weren with hym. 37 And a greet storm of wynde was maad, and keste wawis in to the boot, so that the boot was ful. 38 And he was in the hyndir part of the boot, and slepte on a pilewe. And thei reisen hym, and seien to hym, Maistir, perteyneth it not to thee, that we perischen? 39 And he roos vp, and manasside the wynde, and seide to the see, Be stille, waxe doumbe. And the wynde ceesside, and greet pesiblenesse was maad. 40 And he seide to hem, What dreden ye? Ye han no feith yit? 41 And thei dreden with greet drede, and seiden `ech to other, Who, gessist thou, is this? for the wynde and the see obeschen to hym.

5 And thei camen ouer the see in to the cuntree of Gerasenes. 2 And aftir that he was goon out of the boot, anoon a man in an vnclene spirit ran out of birielis to hym. 3 Which man hadde an hous in biriels, and nether with cheynes now myyte ony man bynde hym. 4 For ofte tymes he was boundun in stockis and chaynes, and he hadde broke the chaynes, and hadde broke the stockis to smale gobetis, and no man myyte make hym tame. 5 And euermore, nyt and dai, in birielis and in hillis, he was cryng and betyng hym silf with stoonus. 6 And he siy Jhesus afer, and ran, and worschipe hym. 7 And he criede with greet voice, and seide, What to me and to thee, thou Jhesu, the sone of the hiest God? Y coniore thee bi God, that thou turmente me not. 8 And Jhesus seide to hym, Thou vnclene spirit, go out fro the man. 9 And Jhesus axide hym, What is thi name? And he seith to hym, A legioun is my name; for we ben many. 10 And he preiede Jhesu myche, that he schulde not putte hym out of the cuntrei. 11 And there was there aboute the hille a greet flok of swyn lesewyng. 12 And the spiritis preieden Jhesu, and seiden, Sende vs into the swyn, that we entre in to hem. 13 And anoon Jhesus grauntide to hem. And the vnclene spiritis yeden out, and entriden in to the swyn, and with a greet birre the flocke was cast down in to the see, a twei thousynde, and thei weren dreynt in the see. 14 And thei that kepten hem, fledden, and tolden in to the citee, and in to the feeldis; and thei wenten out, to se what was don. 15 And thei camen to Jhesu, and sayn hym that hadde be trauelid of the feend, syttinge clothid, and of hool mynde; and thei dredden. 16 And thei that saien, hou it was don to hym that hadde a feend, and of the swyne, telden to hem. 17 And thei bigunnen to preie hym, that he schulde go a wei fro her coostis. 18 And whanne he yede up in to a boot, he that was trauelid of the deuel, bigan to preie hym, that he schulde be with hym. 19 But Jhesus resseyuede hym not, but seide to hym, Go thou in to thin hous to thine, and telle to hem, hou grete thingis the Lord hath don to thee, and hadde merci of thee. 20 And he wente forth, and bigan to preche in Decapoli, hou grete thingis Jhesus hadde don to hym; and alle men wondriden. 21 And whanne Jhesus hadde gon vp in to the boot eftsoone ouer the see, myche puple cam togidere to him, and was aboute the see. 22 And oon of the princis of synagogis, bi name Jayrus, cam, and siy hym, and felde down at hise feet, 23 and preyede hym myche, and seide, My douyter is ny y deed; come thou, putte thin hoond on her, that sche be saaf, and lyue. 24 And he wente forth with hym, and myche puple suede hym, and thruste hym. 25 And a womman hadde ben in the blod fluxe twelue yeer, 26 and hadde resseyued many thingis of ful many lechis, and hadde spendid al hir good, and was nothing amendid, but was rather the wors, whanne sche hadde herd of Jhesu, 27 sche cam among the puple bihynde, and touchide his cloth. 28 For sche seide, That if Y touche yhe his cloth, Y schal be saaf. 29 And anoon the welle of hir blood was dried vp, and sche felide in bodi that sche was heelid of the siknesse. 30 And anoon Jhesus knewe in hym silf the vertu that was goon out of hym, and turnede to the puple, and seide, Who touchide my clothis? 31 And hise disciplis seiden to hym, Thou seest the puple thristinge thee, and seist, Who touchide me? 32 And Jhesus lokide aboute to se hir that hadde don this thing. 33 And the womman dredde, and quakide, witynge that it was doon in hir, and cam, and felde doun bifor hym, and seide to hym al the treuthe. 34 And Jhesus seide to hyr, Douytir, thi feith hath maad thee saaf; go in pees, and he thou hool of thi siknesse. 35 Yit while he spak, messangeris camen to the prince of the synagoge, and seien, Thi douytir is deed; what traueilist thou the maistir ferther? 36 But whanne the word was herd that was seid, Jhesus seide to the prince of the synagoge, Nyle thou drede, oonli bileue thou. 37 And he took no man to sue hym, but Petir, and James, and Joon, the brother of James. 38 And thei camen in to the hous of the prince of the synagoge. And he saie noyse, and men wepynge and weilynge myche. 39 And he yede ynne, and seide to hem, What ben ye troublid, and wepen? The damesel is not deed, but slepith. 40 And thei scorneden hym. But whanne alle weren put out, he takith the fadir and the modir of the damesel, and hem that weren with hym, and thei entren, where the damysel laye. 41 And he helde the hoond of the damesel, and seide to hir, Tabita, cumy, that is to seie, Damysel, Y seie to thee, arise. 42 And anoon the damysel roos, and walkide; and sche was of twelue yeer. And thei weren abaischid with a greet stonyng. And he comaundide to hem greetli, that no man schulde wite it. 43 And he comaundide to yyue hir mete.

6 And he yede out fro thennus, and wente in to his owne cuntre; and hise disciplis folewiden him. 2 And whanne the sabat was come, Jhesus bigan to teche in a synagoge. And many herden, and wondriden in his techyng, and seiden, Of whennus to this alle these thingis? and what is the wisdom that is youun to hym, and sicke vertues wiche ben maad bi hise hondis? 3 Whether this is not a carpenter, the sone of Marie, the brother of James and of Joseph and of Judas and of Symount? whether hise sistris ben not here with vs? And thei weren sclaudrid in hym. 4 And Jhesus seide to hem, That a profete is not without onoure, but in his owne cuntrey, and among his kynne, and in his hous. 5 And he myyte not do there ony vertu, saue that he helide a fewe sijk men, leiynge on hem hise hoondis. 6 And he wondride for the vnbileue of hem. And he wente aboute casteles on ech side, and tauyte. 7 And he clepide togidere twelue, and bigan to sende hem bi two togidere; and yaf to hem power of vnclene spiritis, 8 and comaundide hem, that thei schulde not take ony thing in the weie, but a yerde oneli, not a scrippe, ne breed, nether money in the girdil, 9 but schod with sandalies, and that thei schulden not be clothid with twei cootis. 10 And he seide to hem, Whidur euer ye entren in to an hous, dwelle ye there, til ye goon out fro thennus. 11 And who euer resseyueth you not, ne herith you, go ye out fro thennus, and schake awei the powdir fro youre feet, in to witnessyng to hem. 12 And thei yeden forth, and prechiden, that men schulden do penance. 13 And thei castiden out many

And Eroude herde hym, and he dide many thingis, and gladli herde hym. 21 And whanne a couenable dai was fallun, Eroude in his birthdai made a soper to the princis, and tribunes, and to the grettest of Galilee. 22 And whanne the douyter of thilke Erodias was comun ynne, and daunside, and pleside to Eroude, and also to men that saten at the mete, the kyng seide to the damysel, Axe thou of me what thou wilt, and Y schal yyue to thee. 23 And he swore to hir, That what euer thou axe, Y schal yyue to thee, thouy it be half my kyngdom. 24 And whanne sche hadde goon out, sche seide to hir modir, What schal Y axe? And sche seide, The heed of Joon Baptist. 25 And whanne sche was comun ynne anoon with haast to the kyng, sche axide, and seide, Y wole that anoon thou yyue to me in a dische the heed of Joon Baptist. 26 And the kyng was sori for the ooth, and for men that saten togidere at the meete he wolde not make hir sori; 27 but sente a manqueller and comaundide, that Joones heed were brouyt in a dische. And he bihedide hym in the prisoun, 28 and brouyte his heed in a disch, and yaf it to the damysel, and the damysel yaf to hir modir. 29 And whanne this thing was herd, hise disciplis camen, and token his bodi, and leiden it in a briel. 30 And the apostlis camen togidere to Jhesu, and telden to hym alle thingis, that thei hadden don, and tauyt. 31 And he seide to hem, Come ye bi you silf in to a desert place; and reste ye a litil. For there were many that camen, and wenten ayen, and thei hadden not space to ete. 32 And thei yeden in to a boot, and wenten in to a desert place bi hem silf. 33 And thei sayn hem go awei, and many knewen, and thei wenten afoote fro alle citees, and runnen thidur, and camen bifor hem. 34 And Jhesus yede out, and sai myche puple, and hadde reuth on hem, for thei weren as scheep not hauynge a scheepherd. And thei wondriden more `with ynne hem self; 52 for thei vnderstoden not of the looues; for her herte was blyndid. 53 And whanne thei weren passid ouer the see, thei camen in to the lond of Genasareth, and settiden to loond. 54 And whanne thei weren gon out of the boot, anoon thei knewen hym. 55 And thei ranne thorou al that cuntre, and bigunnen to brynghe sijk men in beddis on eche side, where thei herden that he was. 56 And whidur euer `he entride in to villagis, ethir in to townes, or in to citees, thei setten sijk men in stretis, and preiden hym, that thei schulden touche namely the hemme of his cloth; and hou many that touchiden hym, weren maad saaf.

7 And the Farisees and summe of the scribis camen fro Jerusalem togidir to hym. 2 And whanne thei hadden seen summe of hise disciplis ete breed with vnwaisschen hoondis, thei blameden. 3 The Farisees and alle the Jewis eten not, but thei waisschen ofte her hoondis, holdynghe the tradiciouns of eldere men. 4 And whanne thei turnen ayen fro chepyng, thei eten not, but thei ben waisschen; and many other thingis ben, `that ben taken `to hem to kepe, wasschyngis of cuppis, and of watir vessels, and of vessels of bras, and of beddis. 5 And Farisees and scribis axiden hym, and seiden, Whi gon not thi disciplis aftir the tradicioun of eldere men, but with vnwasschen hondis thei eten breed? 6 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Ysaie prophesiede wel of you, ypocritis, as it is writun, This puple worshipith me with lippis, but her herte is fer fro me; 7 and in veyn thei worschpen me, techinge the doctrines and the heestis of men. 8 For ye leeuken the maundement of God, and holden the tradiciouns of men, wasschyngis of watir vessels, and of cuppis; and many othir thingis lijk to these ye doon. 9 And he seide to hem, Wel ye han maad the maundement of God voide, `to kepe youre tradicioun. 10 For Moyses seide, Worschipe thi fadir and thi modir; and he that cursith fadir or modir, die he by deeth. 11 But ye seien, If a man seie to fadir or modir, Corban, that is, What euer yifte is of me, it schal profite to thee; 12 and ouer ye suffren not hym do any thing to fadir or modir, 13 and ye breken the word of God bi youre tradicioun, that ye han youun; and ye don many suche thingis. 14 And he

eftsoone clepide the puple, and seide to hem, Ye alle here me, and vnderstonde. 15 No thing that is withouten a man, that entrih in to hym, may defoule him; but tho thingis that comen forth of a man, tho it ben that defoulen a man. 16 If ony man haue eeris of hering, here he. 17 And whanne he was entrid in to an hous, fro the puple, hise disciplis axiden hym the parable. 18 And he seide to hem, Ye ben vnwise also. Vnderstonde ye not, that al thing without forth that entreth in to a man, may not defoule hym? 19 for it hath not entrid in to his herte, but in to the wombe, and bynethe it goith out, purgynghe alle metis. 20 But he seide, The thingis that gon out of a man, tho defoulen a man. 21 For fro with ynne, of the herte of men comen forth yuel thouytis, auowtries, 22 fornyaciouns, mansleyngis, theftis, auaricis, wickidnessis, gile, vnchastite, yuel iye, blasfemyes, pride, foli. 23 Alle these yuels comen forth fro with ynne, and defoulen a man. 24 And Jhesus roos vp fro thennus, and wente in to the coostis of Tyre and of Sidon. And he yede in to an hous, and wolde that no man wiste; and he myyte not be hid. 25 For a womman, anoon as sche herd of hym, whos douytir hadde an vnclene spirit, entride, and fel down at hise feet. 26 And the womman was hethen, of the generacioun of Sirofenyce. And sche priiede hym, that he wolde caste out a deuyl fro hir douyter. 27 And he seide to hir, Suffre thou, that the children be fulfillid first; for it is not good to take the breed of children, and yyue to houndis. 28 And sche answeride, and seide to him, Yis, Lord; for litil whelpis eten vndur the bord, of the crummes of children. 29 And Jhesus seide to hir, Go thou, for this word the feend wente out of thi douytir. 30 And whanne sche was gon in to hir hous home, sche foonde the damysel ligyng on the bed, and the deuyl gon out fro hir. 31 And eftsoones Jhesus yede out fro the coostis of Tyre, and cam thorou Sidon to the see of Galilee, bitwixe the myddil of the coostis of Decapoleos. 32 And thei bryngen to hym a man deaf and doumbe, and prieden hym to leye his hoond on hym. 33 And he took hym asidis fro the puple, and puttide hise fyngris in to hise eris; and he spetide, and touchide his tonge. 34 And he bihelde in to heuene, and sorewide with ynne, and seide, Effeta, that is, Be thou openyd. 35 And anoon hise eris weren openyd, and the boond of his tunge was vnboundun, and he spak riytli. 36 And he comaundide to hem, that thei schulden seie to no man; but hou myche he comaundide to hem, so myche more thei prechiden, 37 and bi so myche more thei wondriden, and seiden, He dide wel alle thingis, and he made deaf men to here, and doumbe men to speke.

8 In the daies eft, whanne myche puple was with Jhesu, and hadden not what thei schulden ete, whanne hise disciplis weren clepid togidir, 2 he seide to hem, I haue reuth on the puple, for lo! now the thridde dai thei abiden me, and han not what to ete; 3 and if Y leeuken hem fastyng in to her hous, thei schulen faile in the weie; for summe of hem camen fro fer. 4 And hise disciplis answerden to hym, Wherof schal a man mowe fille hem with looues here in wildirnesse? 5 And he axide hem, Hou many looues han ye? 6 Whiche seiden, Seuene. And he comaundide the puple to sitte down on the erthe. And he took the seuene looues, and dide thankyngis, and brak, and yaf to hise disciplis, that thei schulden sette forth. And thei settiden forth to the puple. 7 And thei hadden a few smale fischis; and he blesside hem, and comaundide, that thei weren sette forth. 8 And thei eten, and weren fulfillid; and thei token vp that that lefte of relifs, seuene lepis. 9 And thei that eeten, weren as foure thousynde of men; and he lefte hem. 10 And anoon he wente vp in to a boot, with hise disciplis, and cam in to the coostis of Dalmamytha. 11 And the Farisees wenten out, and bigunnen to dispuyte with hym, and axiden a tokne of hym fro heuene, and temptiden hym. 12 And he sorewunge `with ynne in spirit, seide, What sekith this generacioun a tokne? Treuli Y seie to you, a tokene schal not be youun to this generacioun. 13 And he lefte hem, and wente vp eftsoone in to a boot, and wente ouer the see. 14 And thei foryaten to take breed, and thei hadden not with hem but o loof in the boot. 15 And he comaundide hem, and seide, Se ye, and `be war of the sowre dowy of Farisees, and of the sowrdowy of Eroude. 16 And thei thouyten, and seiden oon to anothir, For we han not looues. 17 And whanne this thing was knowun, Jhesus seide to hem, What thenken ye, for ye han not looues? Yit ye knowun not, ne vndurstonden; yit ye han youre herte blyndid. 18 Ye hauynge iyen, seen not, and ye hauynge eeris, heren not; nethir ye han mynde, 19 whanne Y brak fyue looues among fyue thousynde, and hou many cofynes ful of brokun meete `ye tokun vp? Thei seien to hym, Twelue. 20 Whanne also seuene looues among foure thousynde of men, hou many lepis of brokun mete tokun ye vp? 21 And thei seien to hym, Seuene. And he seide to hem, Hou vndurstonden ye not yit? 22 And thei camen to Bethsaida, and thei bryngen to hym a blynde man, and thei preieden hym, that he schulde touche hym. 23 And whanne he hadde take the blynde mannus hoond, he ledde hym out of the street, and spete in to hise iyen, and sette hise hoondis on hym; and he axide hym, if he saye any thing. 24 And he bihelde, and seide, Y se men as trees walkynge. 25 Aftirward eftsoones he sette hise hondis on hise iyen, and he bigan to see, and he was restorid, so that he sai y cleerli alle thingis. 26 And he sente hym in to his hous, and seide, Go in to thin hous; and if thou goist in to the streete, seie to no man. 27 And Jhesus entride and hise disciplis in to the castels of Cesarye of Philip. And in the weie he axide hise disciplis, and seide to hem, Whom seien men that Y am? 28 Whiche answeriden to hym, and seiden, Summen seien, Joon Baptist; other seien, Heli; and other seien, as oon of the prophetis. 29 Thanne he seith to hem, But whom seien ye that Y am? Petre answeride, and seide to hym, Thou art Crist. 30 And he chargide hem, that thei schulden not seie of hym to ony man. 31 And he bigan to teche hem, that it bihoueth mannus sone to suffre many thingis, and to be reprevud of the elder men, and of the hyest prestis, and the scribis, and to be slayn, and aftir thre dayes, to rise ayen. 32 And he spak pleynli the word. And Peter took hym, and bigan to blame hym, and seide, Lord, be thou merciful to thee, for this schal not be. 33 And he turnede, and sai y hise disciplis, and manasside Petir, and seide, Go after me, Satanas; for thou sauerist not tho thingis that ben of God, but tho thingis that ben of men. 34 And whanne the puple was clepid togidere, with hise disciplis, he seide to hem, if ony man wole come after me, denye he hym silf, and take his cros, and sue he me. 35 For he that wole make saaf his lijf, schal leese it; and he that leesith his lijf for me, and for the gospel, schal make it saaf. 36 For what profitith it to a man, if he wyinne al the world, and do peiryng to his soule? 37 or what chaunging schal a man yyue for his soule? 38 But who that knoulechith me and my wordis in this generacioun avowtresse and synful, also mannus sone schal knouleche him, whanne he schal come in the glorie of his fadir, with his aungels.

9 And he seide to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, that there ben summen stondynge here, whiche schulen not taste deth, til thei seen the rewme of God comynge in vertu. 2 And aftir sixe daies Jhesus took Petre, and James, and Joon, and ledde hem bi hem silf aloone in to an hiy hille; and he was transfigurid bifor hem. 3 And hise clothis weren maad ful schynyng and white as snow, whiche maner white clothis a fuller may not make on erthe. 4 And Helie with Moises apperide to hem, and thei spaken with Jhesu. 5 And Petre answeride, and seide to Jhesu, Maister, it is good vs to be here; and make we here thre tabernacilis, oon to thee, oon to Moyses, and oon to Helie. 6 For he wiste not what he schulde seie; for thei weren agaste bi drede. 7 And ther was maad a cloude overschadewynge hem; and a vois cam of the cloude, and seide, This is my moost derworth sone, here ye hym. 8 And anoon thei bihelden aboute, and sayn no more ony man, but Jhesu oonli with hem. 9 And whanne thei camen doun fro the hille, he comaundide hem, that thei schulden not telle to ony man tho thingis that thei hadden seen, but whanne mannus sone hath risun ayen fro deeth. 10 And thei helden the word at hem silf, sekyng what this schulde be, whanne he hadde risun ayen fro deth. 11 And thei axiden hym, and seiden, What thanne seien Farisees and scribis, for it bihoueth `Helie to come first. 12 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Whanne Helie cometh, he schal first restore alle thingis; and as it is writun of mannus sone, that he suffre many thingis, and be dispisid. 13 And Y seie to you, that Helie is comun, and thei diden to hym what euer thingis thei wolden, as it is writun of hym. 14 And he comynge to hise disciplis, sai y a greet cumpany aboute hem, and scribis disputynge with hem. 15 And anoon al the puple seyng Jhesu, was astonyed, and thei dredden; and thei rennyng greten hym. 16 And he axide hem, What disputen ye among you? 17 And oon of the cumpany answerde, and seide, Mayster, Y haue brouyt to thee my sone, that hath a doumbe spirit; and where euer he takith hym, 18 he hurtliith hym doun, and he fometh, and betith togidir with teeth, and wexith drye. And Y seide to thi disciplis, that thei schulden caste hym out, and thei myyten not. 19 And he answeride to hem, and seide, A! thou generacioun out of bileue, hou longe schal Y be among you, hou longe schal Y suffre you? Brynge ye hym to me. 20 And thei brouyten hym. And whanne he had seyn him, anoon the spirit troublide him; and was throw doun to grounde, and walewide, and fomed. 21 And he axide his fadir, Hou longe `is it, sith this `hath falle to hym? And he seide, Fro childhode; 22 and ofte he hath put hym in to fier, and in to watir, to leese hym; but if thou maiste any thing, helpe vs, and haue merci on vs. 23 And Jhesus seide to hym, If thou maiste bileue, alle thingis ben possible to man that bileueth. 24 And anoon the fadir of the child criede with teeris, and seide, Lord, Y bileue; Lord, helpe thou myn vnbileue. 25 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn the puple rennyng togidere, he manasside the vncleue spirit, and seide to hym, Thou deef and doumbe spirit, Y comaunde thee, go out fro hym, and entre no more in to hym. 26 And he crynge, and myche to breidyng him, wente out fro hym; and he was maad as deed, so that many seiden, that he was deed. 27 And Jhesus helde his hoond, and lifte hym vp; and he roos. 28 And whanne he hadde entrid in to an hous, hise disciplis axiden hym priueli, Whi myn not we caste hym out? 29 And he seide to hem, This kynde in no thing may go out, but in preier and fastyng. 30 And thei yeden fro thennus, and wente forth in to Galile; and thei wolden not, that ony man wiste. 31 And he tauyte hise disciplis, and seide to hem, For mannus sone schal be bitrayed in to the hondis of men, and thei schulen sle hym, and he slayn schal ryse ayen on the thridde day. 32 And thei knewen not the word, and dredden to axe hym. 33 And thei camen to Cafarnaum. And whanne thei weren in the hous, he axide hem, What tretiden ye in the weie? 34 And thei weren stille; for thei disputiden among hem in the weie, who of hem schulde be grettest. 35 And he sat, and clepide the twelue, and seide to hem, If ony man wole be the firste among you, he schal be the laste of alle, and the mynyster of alle. 36 And he took a child, and sette hym in the myddil of hem; and whanne he hadde biclippid hym, he seide to hem, 37 Who euer resseyueth oon of such children in my name, he resseyueth me; and who euer resseyueth me, he resseyueth not me aloone, but hym that sente me. 38 Joon answeride to hym, and seide, Maister, we sayn oon castyng out feendis in thi name, which sueth not vs, and we han forbodun hym. 39 And Jhesus seide, Nyle ye forbode him; for ther is no man that doith vertu in my name, and may soone speke yuel of me. 40 He that is not ayens vs, is for vs. 41 And who euer yyueth you a cuppe of coold water to drynke in my name, for ye ben of Crist, treuli Y seie to you, he schal not leese his mede. 42 And who euer schal sclandre oon of these litte that bileuen in me, it were betere to hym that a mylne stoon `of assis were don aboute his necke, and he were cast in to the see. 43 And if thin hoond sclandre thee, kitte it away; it is betere to thee to entre feble in to lijf, than haue two hondis, and go in to helle, in to fier that neuer schal be quenchild, (Geenna g1067) 44 where the worm of hem dieth not, and the fier is not quenchild. 45 And if thi foote sclandre thee, kitte it of; it is betere to thee to entre crokid in to euerlastyng lijf, than haue twei feet, and be sent in to helle of fier, that neuer schal be quenchild, (Geenna g1067) 46 where the worme of hem dieth not, and the fier is not quenchild. 47 That if thin iye sclandre thee, cast it out; it is betere to thee to entre gogil iyed in to the reume of God, than haue twey iyen, and be sent in to helle of fier, where the worme of hem dieth not, (Geenna g1067) 48 and the fier is not quenchild. 49 And every man schal be saltid with fier, and every slayn sacrifice schal be maad sauery with salt. 50 Salt is good; if salt be vnsauery, in what thing schulen ye make it sauery? Haue ye salt among you, and haue ye pees among you.

10 And Jhesus roos vp fro thennus, and cam in to the coostis of Judee ouer Jordan; and eftsoones the puple cam togidere to hym, and as he was wont, eftsoone he tauyte hem. 2 And the Farisees camen, and axiden hym, Whether it be leueful to a man to leewe his wijf? and thei temptiden hym. 3 And he answeride, and seide to hem, What comaundide Moises to you? 4 And thei seiden, Moises suffride to write a libel of forsaking, and to forsake. 5 `To whiche Jhesus answeride, and seide, For the hardnesse of youre herte Moises wroot to you this comaundement. 6 But fro the bigynnyng of creature God made hem male and female; 7 and seide, For this thing a man schal leewe his fadir and modir, 8 and schal drawe to hys wijf, and thei schulen be tweyne in o flesch. And so now thei ben not tweyne, but o flesch. 9 Therfor that thing that God ioynede togidere, no man departe. 10 And eftsoone in the hous hise disciplis axiden hym of the same thing. 11 And he seide to hem, Who euer leeuith his wijf, and weddith another, he doith auowtri on hir. 12 And if the wijf leewe hir housebonde, and be weddid to another man, sche doith letcherie. 13 And thei brouyten to hym litte children, that he schulde touche hem; and the disciplis threteneden the men, that brouyten hem. 14 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn hem, he baar heuy, and seide to hem, Suffre ye litte children to come to me, and forbode ye hem not, for of suche is the kyngdom of God. 15 Treuli Y seie to you, who euer resseyueth not the kyngdom of God as a litil child, he schal not entre in to it. 16 And he biclippide hem, and leide hise hondis on hem, and blisside hem. 17 And whanne Jhesus was gon out in the weie, a man ranne bifore, and knelide bifor hym, and preiede hym, and seide, Good maister, what schal Y do, that Y resseyue euerlastyng lijf? (aiōnios g166) 18 And Jhesus seide to hym, What seist thou, that Y am good? Ther is no man good, but God hym self. 19 Thou knowist the comaundementis, do thou noon auowtrie, `sle not, stele not, seie not fals witnessyng, do no fraude, worschipe thi fadir and thi modir. 20 And he answeride, and seide to hym, Maister, Y haue kept alle these thingis fro my yongthe. 21 And Jhesus bihelde hym, and louede hym, and seide to hym, O thing failleth to thee; go thou, and sille alle thingis that thou hast, and yyue to pore men, and thou schalt haue tresoure in heuene; and come, sue thou me. 22 And he was ful sori in the word, and wente awei mornyng, for he hadde many possessions. 23 And Jhesus bihelde aboute, and seide to hise disciplis, Hou hard thei that han ritchessis schulen entre in to the kyngdom of God. 24 And the disciplis weren astonyed in hise wordis. And Jhesus eftsoone answeride, and seide `to hem, Ye litte children, hou hard it is for men that tristen in ritchessis to entre in to the kyngdom of God. 25 It is liyer a camele to passe thorou a nedlis iye, than a riche man to entre in to the kyngdom of God. 26 And thei wondriden more, and seiden among hem self, And who may be sauyd? 27 And Jhesus bihelde hem, and seide, Anentis men it is impossible, but not anentis God; for alle thingis ben possible anentis God. 28 And Petir bigan to seie to hym, Lo! we han left alle thingis, and han sued thee. 29 Jhesus answeride, and seide, Treuli Y seie to you, ther is no man that leueth hous, or britheren, or sistris, or fadir, or modir, or children, or feeldis for me and for the gospel, 30 which schal not take an hundrid fold so myche now in this tyme, housis, and britheren, and sistris, and modris, and children, and feeldis, with persecuciouns, and in the world to comynge euerlastynge lijf. (aïōn g165, aiōnios g166) 31 But many schulen be, the firste the last, and the last the firste. 32 And thei weren in the weie goynge vp to Jerusalem; and Jhesus wente bifor hem, and thei wondriden, and foleweden, and dredden. And eftsoone Jhesus took the twelue, and bigan to seie to hem, what thingis weren to come to hym. 33 For lo! we stien to Jerusalem, and mannus sone schal be bitraied to the princis of prestis, and to scribis, and to the eldre men; and thei schulen dampne hym bi deth, and thei schulen take hym to hethene men. And thei schulen scorne hym, 34 and bispete hym, and bete him; and thei schulen sle hym, and in the thriddre dai he schal rise ayen. 35 And James and Joon, Zebedees sones, camen to hym, and seiden, Maister, we wolen, that what euer we axen, thou do to vs. 36 And he seide to hem, What wolen ye that Y do to you? 37 And thei seiden, Graunte to vs, that we sitten 'the toon at thi riythalf, and the tother at thi left half, in thi glorie. 38 And Jhesus seide to hem, Ye witen not what ye axen; moun ye drynke the cuppe, which Y schal drynke, or be waischun with the baptym, in which Y am baptisid? 39 And thei seiden to hym, We moun. And Jhesus seide to hem, Ye schulen drynke the cuppe that Y drynke, and ye schulen be waschun with the baptym, in which Y am baptisid; 40 but to sitte at my riythalf or lefthalf is not myn to yyue to you, but to whiche it is maad redi. 41 And the ten herden, and bigunnen to haue indignacioun of James and Joon. 42 But Jhesus clepide hem, and seide to hem, Ye witen, that thei that semen to haue prynshode of folkis, ben lordis of hem, and the princes of hem han power of hem. 43 But it is not so among you, but who euer wole be maad gretter, schal be youre mynyster; 44 and who euer wole be the firste among you, schal be seruauant of alle. 45 For whi mannus sone cam not, that it schulde be mynystrid to hym, but that he schulde mynystre, and yyue his lijf ayenbiyng for manye. 46 And thei camen to Jerico; and whanne he yede forth for Jerico, and hise disciplis, and a ful myche puple, Barthymeus, a blynde man, the sone of Thimei, sat bisidis the weie, and beggide. 47 And whanne he herde, that it is Jhesus of Nazareth, he bigan to crie, and seie, Jhesu, the sone of Dauid, haue merci on me. 48 And manye thretneden hym, that he schulde be stille; and he criede myche the more, Jhesu, the sone of Dauid, haue merci on me. 49 And Jhesus stood, and comaundide hym to be clepid; and thei clepen the blynde man, and seien to hym, Be thou of betere herte, rise vp, he clepith thee. 50 And he castide awei his cloth, and skippide, and cam to hym. 51 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, What wolt thou, that Y schal do to thee? The blynde man seide to hym, Maister, that Y se. 52 Jhesus seide to hym, Go thou, thi feith hath maad thee saaf. And anoon he saye, and suede hym in the weie.

11 And whanne Jhesus cam nyy to Jerusalem and to Betanye, to the mount of Olyues, he sendith tweyne of hise disciplis, and seith to hem, 2 Go ye in to the castel that is ayens you; and anoon as ye entren there ye schulen fynde a colt tied, on which no man hath sete yit; vntie ye, and brynge hym. 3 And if ony man seye ony thing to you, What doen ye? seie ye, that he is nedeful to the Lord, and anoon he schal leewe hym hidir. 4 And thei yeden forth, and founden a colt tied bifor the yate with out forth, in the metyng of twei weies; and thei vntieden hym. 5 And summe of hem that stoden there seiden to hem, What doen ye, vntiynge the colt? 6 And thei seiden to hem, as Jhesus comaundide hem; and thei leften it to hem. 7 And thei brouyten the colt to Jhesu, and thei leiden on hym her clothis, and Jhesus sat on hym. 8 And many strewiden her clothis in the weie, othere men kittiden braunchis fro trees, and strewiden in the weie. 9 And thei that wenten bifor, and that sueden, crieden, and seiden, Osanna, 10 blissid is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; blessid be the kyngdom of oure fadir Dauid that is come; Osanna in hiyest thingis. 11 And he entride in to Jerusalem, in to the temple; and whanne he 'hadde seyn al thing aboute, whanne it was eue, he wente out in to Betanye, with the twelue. 12 And anothir daye, whanne he wente out of Betanye, he hungride. 13 And whanne he hadde seyn a fige tree afer hauynge leeuues, he cam, if happili he schulde fynde ony thing theron; and whanne he cam to it, he foonde no thing, out takun leeuues; for it was not tyme of figis. 14 And Jhesus answeride and seide to it, Now neuer ete ony man fruyt of thee more. And hise disciplis herden; (aïōn g165) 15 and thei camen to Jerusalem. And whanne he was entrid in to the temple, he bigan to caste out silleris and biggeris in the temple; and he turnede vpsodoun the bordis of chaungeris, and the chayeris of men that selden culueris; 16 and he suffride not, that ony man schulde bere a vessel thorou the temple. 17 And he tauyte hem, and seide, Whether it is not writun, That myn hous schal be clepid the hous of preyng to alle folkis? but ye han maad it a denne of theues. 18 And whanne this thing was herd, the princis of prestis and scribis souyten hou thei schulden leese hym; for thei dredden hym, for al the puple wondride on his techyng. 19 And whanne euenyng was come, he wente out of the citee. 20 And as thei passiden forth eerli, thei sayn the fige tree maad drye fro the rootis. 21 And Petir bithouyte hym, and seide to hym, Maister, lo! the fige tree, whom thou cursidist, is dried vp. 22 And Jhesus answeride and seide to hem, Haue ye the feith of God; 23 treuli Y seie to you, that who euer seith to this hil, Be thou takun, and cast in to the see; and doute not in his herte, but bileueth, that what euer he seie, schal be don, it schal be don to hym. 24 Therfor Y seie to you, alle thingis what euer thingis ye preynge schulen axe, bileue ye that ye schulen take, and thei schulen come to you. 25 And whanne ye schulen stonde to preye, foryyue ye, if ye han ony thing ayens ony man, that youre fadir that is in heuenes, foryyue to you youre synnes. 26 And if ye foryyuen not, nether youre fadir that is in heuenes, schal foryyue to you youre synnes. 27 And eftsoone thei camen to Jerusalem. And whanne he walkide in the temple, the hiyeste prestis, and scribis, and the elder men camen to hym, 28 and seyen to hym, In what power doist thou these thingis? or who yaf to thee this power, that thou do these thingis? 29 Jhesus answeride and seide to hem, And Y schal axe you o word, and answer ye to me, and Y schal seie to you in what power Y do these thingis. 30 Whether was the baptyem of Joon of heuene, or of men? answer ye to me. 31 And thei thouyten with ynne hem silf, seiynge, If we seien of heuene, he schal seie to vs, Whi thanne bileuen ye not to him; 32 if we seien of men, we dreden the puple; for alle men hadden Joon, that he was verili a prophete. 33 And thei answeyden, and seien to Jhesu, We witen neuer. And Jhesu answerde, and seide to hem, Nether Y seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis.

12 And Jhesus bigan to speke to hem in parabis. A man plaunteide a vynyerd, and sette an hegge aboute it, and dalf a lake, and bildide a toure, and hiryde it to tilieris, and wente forth in pilgrimage. 2 And he sente to the erthe tilieris in tyme a seruaunt, to resseyue of the erthe tilieris of the fruyt of the vynyerd. 3 And thei token hym, and beeten, and leften hym voide. 4 And eftsoone he sente to hem anothir seruaunt, and thei woundiden hym in the heed, and turmentiden hym. 5 And eftsoone he sente another, and thei slowen hym, and othir mo, betynge summe, and sleyng othere. 6 But yit he hadde a moost derworth sone, and he sente hym last to hem, and seide, Perauenture thei schulen drede my sone. 7 But the erthtilieris seiden togidere, This is the eire; come ye, sle we hym, and the eritage schal be ourun. 8 And thei tokun hym, and killiden, and castiden out without the vynyerd. 9 Thanne what schal the lord of the vynyerd do? He schal come, and lese the tilieris, and yyue the vynyerd to othere. 10 Whether ye han not red this scripture, The stoon which the bileris han dissipid, this is maad in to the heed of the corner? 11 This thing is doon of the Lord, and is wondirful in oure iyen. 12 And thei souyten to holde hym, and thei dreden the puple; for thei knewen that to hem he seide this parable; and thei leften hym, 13 and thei wenten awei. And thei senten to hym summe of the Farisees and Erodians, to take hym in word. 14 Whiche camen, and seien to hym, Maistir, we witen that thou art sothfast, and reckist not of ony man; for nethir thou biholdist in to the face of man, but thou techist the weie of God in treuthe. Is it leeuful that tribute be youun to the emperoure, or we schulen not yyue? 15 Which witynge her pryuei falsnesse, seide to hem, What tempten ye me? brynge ye to me a peny, that Y se. 16 And thei brouyten to hym. And he seide to hem, Whos is this ymage, and the wrytyng? Thei seien to him, The emperouris. 17 And Jhesus answerde and seide to hem, Thanne yelde ye to the emperour tho thingis that ben of the emperours; and to God tho thingis that ben of God. 18 And thei wondriden of hym. And Saduces, that seien that ther is no resurreccioun, camen to hym, and axeden hym, 19 and seiden, Maister, Moyse wroot to vs, that if the brother of a man were deed, and lefte his wijf, and haue no sones, his brother take his wijf, and reise vp seed to his brother. 20 Thanne seuene britheren ther weren; and the firste took a wijf, and diede, and lefte no seed. 21 And the secounde took hir, and he diede, and nether this lefte seed. 22

And the thridde also. And in lijk manere the seuene token hir, and leften not seed. And the womman the laste of alle `is deed. 23 Thanne in the resurreccioun, whanne thei schulen rise ayen, whos wijf of these schal sche be? for seuene hadden hir to wijf. 24 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Whether ye erren not therfor, that ye knowe not scripturis, nethir the vertu of God? 25 For whanne thei schulen rise ayen fro deeth, nethir thei schulen wedde, nethir schulen be weddid, but thei schulen be as aungels of God in heuenes. 26 And of deed men, that thei risen ayen, han ye not red in the book of Moises, on the buysch, hou God spak to hym, and seide, Y am God of Abraham, and God of Isaac, and God of Jacob? 27 He is not God of deed men, but of lyuyng men; therfor ye erren myche. 28 And oon of the scribis, that hadde herde hem dispuytyng togidir, cam nyy, and sai that Jhesus had wel answeride hem, and axide hym, which was the firste maundement of alle. 29 And Jhesus answeride to him, that the firste maundement of alle is, Here thou, Israel, thi Lord God is o God; 30 and thou schalt loue thi Lord God of al thin herte, and of al thi soule, and of al thi mynde, and of al thi myyt. 31 This is the firste maundement. And the secounde is lijk to this, Thou schalt loue thi neybore as thi silf. Ther is noon other maundement gretter than these. 32 And the scribe seide to hym, Maister, in treuthe thou hast wel seid; for o God is, and ther is noon other, outakun hym; 33 that he be loued of al the herte, and of al the mynde, and of al the vndurstondynge, and of al the soule, and of al strengthe, and to loue the neybore as hym silf, is gretter than alle brent offryngis and sacrifices. 34 And Jhesus seyng that he hadde answerid wiseli, seide to hym, Thou art not fer from the kyngdom of God. 35 And thanne no man durste axe hym no more ony thing. And Jhesus answeride and seide, techynge in the temple, Hou seien scribis, that Crist is the sone of Dauid? 36 For Dauid hym silf seide in the Hooli Goost, the Lord seide to my lord, Sitte on my riythalf, til Y putte thin enemyes the stool of thi feet. 37 Thanne Dauid hym silf clepith him lord, hou thanne is he his sone? And myche puple gladli herde hym. 38 And he seide to hem in his techyng, Be ye war of scribis, that wolen wandre in stolis, 39 and be salutid in chepyng, and sitte in synagogis in the firste chaileris, and the firste sittyn placis in soperis; 40 whiche deuouren the housis of widewis vndur colour of long preier; thei schulen take the longer doom. 41 And Jhesus sittynge ayens the tresorie, bihelde hou the puple castide monei in to the tresorie; and many riche men castiden many thingis. 42 But whanne a pore widewe was comun, sche keste two mynutis, that is, a ferthing. 43 And he clepide togidere hise disciplis, and seide to hem, Treuli Y seie to you, that this pore widewe keste more thanne alle, that kesten in to the tresorie. 44 For alle kesten of that thing that thei hadden plente of; but this of her pouert keste alle thingis that sche hadde, al hir lyuelode.

13 And whanne he wente out of the temple, oon of hise disciplis seide to hym, Maister, biholde, what maner stoonys, and what maner bildyngis. 2 And Jhesu answeride, and seide to hym, Seest thou alle these grete bildyngis? ther schal not be left a stoon on a stoon, which schal not be distried. 3 And

whanne he sat in the mount of Olyues ayens the temple, Petir and James and Joon and Andrew axiden hym bi hem sif, 4 Seie thou to vs, whanne these thingis schulen be don, and what tokene schal be, whanne alle these thingis schulen bigynne to be endid. 5 And Jhesus answeride, and bigan to seie to hem, Loke ye, that no man disseyue you; 6 for manye schulen come in my name, seiynge, That Y am; and thei schulen disseyue manye. 7 And whanne ye here batels and opynyons of batels, drede ye not; for it bihoueth these thingis to be doon, but not yit anoon is the ende. 8 For folk schal rise on folk, and rewme on rewme, and erthe mouyngis and hungur schulen be bi placis; these thingis schulen be bigynnynge of sorewis. 9 But se ye you sif, for thei schulen take you in counsels, and ye schulen be betun in synagogis; and ye schulen stonde bifor kyngis and domesmen for me, in witnessyng to hem. 10 And it bihoueth, that the gospel be first prechid among al folk. 11 And whanne thei taken you, and leden you forth, nyle ye bifore thenke what ye schulen speke, but speke ye that thing that schal be youun to you in that our; for ye ben not the spekeris, but the Hooli Goost. 12 For a brother schal bitake the brother in to deeth, and the fadir the sone, and sones schulen rise togider ayens fadris and modris, and punysche hem bi deeth. 13 And ye schulen be in hate to alle men for my name; but he that lastith in to the ende, schal be saaf. 14 But whanne ye schulen se the abhominacioun of discourtfort, stondynge where it owith not; he that redith, vndurstonde; thanne thei that be in Judee, fle `in to hillis. 15 And he that is aboute the roof, come not down in to the hous, nethir entre he, to take any thing of his hous; 16 and he that schal be in the feeld, turne not ayen bihynde to take his cloth. 17 But wo to hem that ben with child, and norischen in tho daies. 18 Therfor preye ye, that thei be not don in wyntir. 19 But thilke daies of tribulacioun schulen be suche, whiche maner weren not fro the bigynnynge of creature, which God hath maad, til now, nethir schulen be. 20 And but the Lord hadde abredgide tho daies, al fleische hadde not be saaf; but for the chosun whiche he chees, the Lord hath maad schort the daies. 21 And thanne if any man seie to you, Lo! here is Crist, lo! there, bileue ye not. 22 For false Cristis and false prophetis schulen rise, and schulen yyue tokens and wondris, to disseyue, if it may be don, yhe, hem that be chosun. 23 Therfor take ye kepe; lo! Y haue bifor seid to you alle thingis. 24 But in tho daies, afir that tribulacioun, the sunne schal be maad derk, and the moon schal not yyue hir liyt, 25 and the steris of heuene schulen falle down, and the vertues that ben in heuenes, schulen be moued. 26 And thanne thei schulen se mannus sone comynge in cloudis of heuene, with greet vertu and glorie. 27 And thanne he schal sende hise aungelis, and schal geder hise chosun fro the foure wyndis, fro the hiyest thing of erthe til to the hiyest thing of heuene. 28 But of the fige tree lerne ye the parable. Whanne now his braunche is tendre, and leeues ben sprongun out, ye knowen that somer is nyy. 29 So whanne ye seen these thingis be don, wite ye, that it is nyy in the doris. 30 Treuli Y seie to you, that this generacioun schal not passe awei, til alle these thingis be don. 31 Heuene and erthe schulen passe, but my wordis schulen not passe. 32 But of that dai or our no man woot, nether aungels in heuene, nether the sone, but the fadir. 33 Se ye, wake ye, and preie ye; for ye witen not, whanne the tyme is. 34 For as a man that is gon fer in pilgrimage, lefte his hous, and yaf to his seruautis power of euery work, and comaundide to the porter, that he wake. 35 Therfor wake ye, for ye witen not, whanne the lord of the hous cometh, in the euentide, or at mydnyyt, or at cockis crowyng, or in the mornynge; 36 leste whanne he cometh sodenli, he fynde you slepyng. 37 Forsothe that that Y seie to you, Y seie to alle, Wake ye.

14 Pask and the feest of therf looues was after twei daies. And the hiyest preestis and scribis souyten, hou thei schulden holde hym with gile, and sle. 2 But thei seiden, Not in the feeste dai, lest peraventure a noyse were maad among the puple. 3 And whanne he was at Betanye, in the hous of Symount leprous, and restide, a womman cam, that hadde a boxe of alabastre of precious oynement spikenard; and whanne the boxe of alabastre was brokun, sche helde it on his heed. 4 But there weren summe that beren it heuyli with ynne hem sif, and seiden, Wher to is this losse of oynement maad? 5 For this oynement myyte haue be sold more than for thre hundrid pens, and be youun to pore men. And thei groyneden ayens hir. 6 But Jhesus seide, Suffre ye hir; what be ye heuy to hir? sche hath wrouyt a good werk in me. 7 For euermore ye schulen haue pore men with you, and whanne ye wolen, ye moun do wel to hem; but ye schulen not euer more haue me. 8 Sche dide that that sche hadde; sche cam bifore to anynte my bodi in to biriynge. 9 Treuli Y seie to you, where euer this gospel be prechid in al the world, and that that `this womman hath don, schal be told in to mynde of hym. 10 And Judas Scarioth, oon of the twelue, wente to the hiyest prestis, to bitraye hym to hem. 11 And thei herden, and ioyeden, and bihiyten to yyue hym money. And he souyt hou he schulde bitraye hym couenabili. 12 And the firste dai of therf looues, whanne thei offriden pask, the disciplis seyn to hym, Whidir `wilt thou that we go, and make redi to thee, that thou ete the pask? 13 And he sendith tweyn of hise disciplis, and seith to hem, Go ye in to the citee, and a man berynge a galoun of watir schal meete you; sue ye hym. 14 And whidur euer he entrieth, seie ye to the lord of the hous, That the maister seith, Where is myn etynge place, where Y schal ete pask with my disciplis? 15 And he schal schewe to you a grete soupyng place arayed, and there make ye redi to vs. 16 And hise disciplis wenten forth, and camen in to the citee, and founden as he hadde seid to hem; and thei maden redy the pask. 17 And whanne the euentid was come, he cam with the twelue. 18 And whanne thei saten `at the mete, and eeten, Jhesus seide, Treuli Y seie to you, that oon of you that etith with me, schal bitray me. 19 And thei bigunnen to be sori, and to seie to hym, ech bi hem sif, Whether Y? 20 Which seide to hem, Oon of twelue that puttith the hoond with me in the plater. 21 And sotheli mannus sone goith, as it is writun of hym; but wo to that man, by whom mannus sone schal be bitrayed. It were good to hym, yf thilke man hadde not be borun. 22 And while thei eeten, Jhesus took breed, and blessid, and brak, and yaf to hem, and seide, Take ye; this is my bodi. 23 And whanne he hadde take the cuppe, he dide thankyngis, and yaf to hem, and alle dronken therof. 24 And he seide to hem, This is my blood of the newe testament, which schal be sched for many. 25 Treuli Y seye to you, for now Y schal not drynke of this fruyt of vyne, in to that dai whane Y schal drynke it newe in the rewme of God. 26 And whanne the ympne was seid, thei wenten out in to the hil of Olyues. 27 And Jhesus seide to hem, Alle ye schulen be sclaudrid in me in this nyyt; for it is writun, Y schal smyte the scheepherde, and the scheep of the flok schulen be disparplid. 28 But aftir that Y schal rise ayen, Y schal go bifor you in to Galilee. 29 And Petir seide to hym, Thouy alle schulen be sclaudrid, but not Y. 30 And Jhesus seide to hym, Treuli Y seie to thee, that to dai bifore that the cok in this nyit crowe twies, thou schalt thries denye me. 31 But he seide more, Thouy it bihoueth, that Y die togider with thee, Y schal not forsake thee. And in lijk maner alle seiden. 32 And thei camen in to a place, whos name is Gethsamany. And he seide to hise disciplis, Sitte ye here, while Y preye. 33 And he took Petir and James and Joon with hym, and bigan to drede, and to be anoyed. 34 And he seide to hem, My soule is soweful to the deeth; abide ye here, and wake ye with me. 35 And whanne he was gon forth a litil, he felde down on the erthe, and preiede, that if it myyte be, that the our schulde passe fro hym. 36 And he seide, Abba, fadir, alle thingis ben possible to thee, bere ouer fro me this cuppe; but not that Y wole, but that thou wolt, be don. 37 And he cam, and foond hem slepyng. And he seide to Petir, Symount, slepist thou? myytist thou not wake with me oon our? 38 Wake ye, and `preie ye, that ye entre not in to temptacioun; for the spirit is redi, but the fleische is sijck. 39 And eftsoone he yede, and preiede, and seide the same word; 40 and turnede ayen eftsoone, and foond hem slepyng; for her iyen weren heuyed. And thei knewen not, what thei schulden answer to hym. 41 And he cam the thridde tyme, and seide to hem, Slep ye now, and reste ye; it suffisith. The hour is comun; lo! mannus sone schal be bitraied in to the hondis of synful men. 42 Rise ye, go we; lo! he that schal bitraye me is nyy. 43 And yit while he spak, Judas Scarioth, oon of the twelue, cam, and with him miche puple with swerdis and stauas, sent fro the hiyest prestis, and the scribis, and fro the eldre men. 44 And his traytour hadde youun to hem a tokene, and seide, Whom euer Y kisse, he it is; holde ye hym, and lede ye warli. 45 And whanne he cam, anon he came to hym, and seide, Maistir; and he kissede hym. 46 And thei leiden hondis on hym, and helden hym. 47 But oon of the men that stoden aboute, drowy out a swerd, and smoot the seruauant of the hiyest preest, and kittide of his eere. 48 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, As to a theef ye han gon out with swerdis and stauas, to take me? 49 Dai bi dai Y was among you, and taute ye in the temple, and ye helden not me; but that the scripturis be fulfillid. 50 Thanne alle hise disciplis forsoken hym, and fledden. 51 But a yong man, clothid with lynnun cloth on the bare, suede hym; and thei helden hym. 52 And he lefte the lynnyn clothing, and fleiy nakid awei fro hem. 53 And thei ledden Jhesu to the hiyest preest. And alle the prestis and scribis and eldere men camen togidir. 54 But Petir suede hym afer in to the halle of the hiyest preest. And he sat with the mynystis, and warmede hym at the fier. 55 And the hiyest prestis, and al the counsel, souyten witnessyng ayens Jhesu to take hym to the deeth; but thei founden not. 56 For manye seiden fals witnessyng ayens hym, and the witnessyngis weren not couenable. 57 And summe risen vp, and baren fals witnessyng ayens hym, 58 and seiden, For we `han herd hym seiyng, Y schal vndo this temple maad with hondis, and aftir the thridde dai Y schal bilde another not maad with hondis. 59 And the witnessyng `of hem was not couenable. 60 And the hiyest prest roos vp in to the myddil, and axide Jhesu, and seide, Answerist thou no thing to tho thingis that ben put ayens thee of these? 61 But he was stille, and answeride no thing. Eftsoone the hiyest prest axide hym, and seide to hym, Art thou Crist, the sone of the blessid God? 62 And Jhesus seide to hym, Y am; and ye schulen se mannus sone sittynge on the riythalf of the vertu of God, and comynge in the cloudis of heuene. 63 And the hiyest preest torente hise clothis, and seide, What yit dissiren we witnessis? 64 Ye han herd blasfemye. What semeth to you? And thei alle condempneden hym to be gilty of deeth. 65 And summe bigunnen to bispete hym, `and to hile his face, and to smite hym with buffetis, and seie to hym, Areede thou. And the mynystis beeten hym with stokis. 66 And whanne Petir was in the halle bynethen, oon of the damesels of the hiyest prest cam. 67 And whanne sche hadde seyn Petir warmynge hym, sche bihelde hym, and seide, And thou were with Jhesu of Nazareth. 68 And he denyede, and seide, Nethir Y woot, nethir Y knowe, what thou seist. And he wente without forth bifor the halle; and anon the cok crewe. 69 And eftsoone whanne another damesel hadde seyn hym, sche bigan to seye to men that stoden aboute, That this is of hem. 70 And he eftsoone denyede. And aftir a litil, eftsoone thei that stoden nyy, seiden to Petir, Verili thou art of hem, for thou art of Galilee also. 71 But he bigan to curse and to swere, For Y knowe not this man, whom ye seien. 72 And anon eftsoones the cok crew. And Petir bihouyte on the word that Jhesus hadde seide to hym, Bifor the cok crowe twies, thries thou schalt denye me. And he bigan to wepe.

15 And anon in the morewid the hiyeste prestis maden a counsel with the elder men, and the scribis, and with al the counsel, and bounden Jhesu and ledden, and bitoken hym to Pilat. 2 And Pilat axide hym, Art thou kyng of Jewis? And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, Thou seist. 3 And the hieste prestis accusiden hym in many thingis. 4 But Pilat eftsoone axide hym, and seide, Answerist thou no thing? Seest thou in hou many thingis thei accusen thee? 5 But Jhesus answeride no more, so that Pilat wondride. 6 But bi the feeste dai he was wont to leeuue to hem oon of men boundun, whom euer thei axiden. 7 And `oon ther was that was seid Barabas, that was boundun with men of dissencioun, that hadden don manslautyir in seducioun. 8 And whanne the puple was gon vp, he bigan to preie, as he euer more dide to hem. 9 And Pilat answeride `to hem, and seide, Wolen ye Y leeuue to you the kyng of Jewis? 10 For he wiste, that the hiyeste prestis hadden takun hym bi enuye. 11 But the bischopis stireden the puple, that he schulde rather leeuue to hem Barabas. 12 And eftsoone

Pilat answerde, and seide to hem, What thanne wolen ye that Y schal do to the kyng of Jewis? 13 And thei eftsoone crieden, Crucifie hym. 14 But Pilat seide to hem, What yuel hath he don? And thei crieden the more, Crucifie hym. 15 And Pilat, wyllynge to make aseeth to the puple, lefte to hem Barabas, and bitok to hem Jhesu, betun with scourgis, to be crucified. 16 And knyytis ledden hym with ynneforth, in to the porche of the mote halle. And thei clepiden togidir al the company of knyytis, 17 and clothiden hym with purpur. But Eroude tetrark, whanne he was blamed of Joon for Erodias, 19 the wijf of his brother, and for alle the yuelis that Eroude dide, 20 encreside this ouer alle, and schitte Joon in prisoun. 21 And it was don, whanne al the puple was baptised, and whanne Jhesu was baptised, and preiede, heuene was openyd. 22 And the Hooli Goost cam down in bodilicnesse, as a dowue on hym; and a vois was maad fro heuene, Thou art my derworth sone, in thee it hath plesid to me. 23 And Jhesu hym silf was bigynninge as of thritti yeer, that he was gessid the sone of Joseph, which was of Heli, 24 which was of Mathath, which was of Leuy, which was of Melchi, that was of Jamne, 25 that was of Joseph, that was of Matatie, that was of Amos, that was of Naum, that was of Hely, that was of Nagge, 26 that was of Mathath, that was of Matatie, that was of Semei, that was of Joseph, that was of Juda, that was of Johanna, 27 that was of Resa, that was of Zorobabel, that was of Salatiel, 28 that was of Neri, that was of Melchi, that was of Addi, that was of Cosan, that was of Elmadan, that was of Her, 29 that was of Jhesu, that was of Eleasar, that was of Jorum, that was of Matath, 30 that was of Leuy, that was of Symeon, that was of Juda, that was of Joseph, that was of Jona, that was of Eliachym, 31 that was of Melca, that was of Menna, that of Mathatha, that was of Nathan, 32 that was of David, that was of Jesse, that was of Obeth, that was of Boz, that was of Salmon, that was of Nason, 33 that was of Amynadab, that was of Aram, that was of Esrom, that was of Fares, 34 that was of Judas, that was of Jacob, that was of Isaac, that was of Abraham, that was of Tare, that was of Nachor, 35 that was of Seruth, that was of Ragau, that was of Faleth, that was of Heber, 36 that was of Sale, that was of Chaynan, that was of Arfaxath, that was of Sem, that was of Noe, that was of Lameth, 37 that was of Matussale, that was of Enok, that was of Jareth, that was of Malaliel, that was of Cainan, that was of Enos, 38 that was of Seth, that was of Adam, that was of God.

4 And Jhesus ful of the Hooli Goost turnede ayen fro Jordan, and was led bi the spirit into desert fourti daies, 2 and was temptid of the deucl, and eet nothing in tho daies; and whanne tho daies weren endid, he hungride. 3 And the deucl seide to him, If thou art Goddis sone, seie to this stoon, that it be maad breed. 4 And Jhesus answeride to hym, It is writun, That a man lyueth not in breed aloone, but in euery word of God. 5 And the deucl ladde hym in to an hiy hil, and schewide to hym alle the rewmes of the world in a moment of tyme; 6 and seide to hym, Y schal yyue to thee al this power, and the glorie of hem, for to me thei ben youun, and to whom Y wole, Y yyue hem; 7 therfor if thou falle doun, and worschipec bifore me, alle thingis schulen be thine. 8 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, It is writun, Thou schalt worschipec thi Lord God, and to hym aloone thou schalt serue. 9 And he ledde hym in to Jerusalem, and sette hym on the pynacle of the temple, and seide to hym, If thou art Goddis sone, sende thi silf fro hennes doun; 10 for it is writun, For he hath comaundide to hise aungels of thee, that thei kepe thee in alle thi weies, 11 and that thei schulen take thee in hondis, lest perauenture thou hirte thi foote at a stoon. 12 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to him, It is seid, Thou schalt not tempte thi Lord God. 13 And whanne euery temptacioun was endid, the feend wente a wei fro hym for a tyme. 14 And Jhesus turnede ayen in the vertu of the spirit in to Galilee, and the fame

wente forth of hym thorou al the cuntre. 15 And he tauyte in the synagogis of hem, and was magnified of alle men. 16 And he cam to Nazareth, where he was norisschid, and entride aftir his custom in the sabat dai in to a synagoge, and roos to reed. 17 And the book of Ysaye, the prophete, was takun to hym; and as he turnede the book, he foond a place, where it was wrytun, 18 The Spirit of the Lord on me, for which thing he anoyntide me; he sente me to preche to pore men, to hele contrite men in herte, 19 and to preche remyssion to prisoneris, and siyt to blynde men, and to delyuere brokun men in to remission; to preche the yeer of the Lord plesaunt, and the dai of yeldyng ayen. 20 And whanne he hadde closid the book, he yaf ayen to the mynystre, and sat; and the iyen of alle men in the synagoge were biholdyng in to hym. 21 And he bigan to seie to hem, For in this dai this scripture is fulfillid in youre eeris. 22 And alle men yauen witnessyng to hym, and wondriden in the wordis of grace, that camen forth of his mouth. And thei seiden, Whether this is not the sone of Joseph? 23 And he seide to hem, Sotheli ye schulen seie to me this liknesse, Leech, heele thi silf. The Farisees seiden to Jhesu, Hou grete thingis han we herd don in Cafarnaum, do thou also here in thi cuntre. 24 And he seide, Treuli Y seie to you, that no profete is resseyued in his owne cuntre. 25 In treuthe Y seie to you, that many widowis weren in the daies of Elie, the prophete, in Israel, whanne heuene was closid thre yeer and sixe monethis, whanne greet hungur was maad in al the erthe; 26 and to noon of hem was Elye sent, but in to Sarepta of Sydon, to a widowe. 27 And many meseles weren in Israel, vndur Helisee, the prophete, and noon of hem was clensid, but Naaman of Sirye. 28 And alle in the synagoge herynge these thingis, weren fillid with wraththe. 29 And thei risen vp, and drouen hym out with out the citee, and ledden hym to the cop of the hil on which her citee was bildid, to caste hym down. 30 But Jhesus passide, and wente thorou the myddil of hem; and cam down in to Cafarnaum, 31 a citee of Galilee, and there he tauyte hem in sabotis. 32 And thei weren astonyed in his techyng, for his word was in power. 33 And in her synagoge was a man hauynge an vnclene feend, and he criede with greet vois, 34 and seide, Suffre, what to vs and to thee, Jhesu of Nazareth? art thou comun to leese vs? Y knowe, that thou art the hooli of God. 35 And Jhesu blamede hym, and seide, Wexe doumbe, and go out fro hym. And whanne the feend hadde cast hym forth in to the myddil, he wente a wei fro hym, and he noyede hym no thing. 36 And drede was maad in alle men, and thei spaken togider, and seiden, What is this word, for in power and vertu he comaundith to vnclene spiritis, and thei gon out? 37 And the fame was pupplischid of him in to ech place of the cuntre. 38 And Jhesu roos vp fro the synagoge, and entride in to the hous of Symount; and the modir of Symountis wijf was holdun with grete fyueris, and thei preieden hym for hir. 39 And Jhesu stood ouer hir, and comaundide to the feuer, and it lefte hir; and anon sche roos vp, and seruede hem. 40 And whanne the sunne wente down, alle that hadden sijke men with dyuerse langours, ledden hem to hym; and he sette his hoondis on ech bi `hem silf, and heelide hem. 41 And feendis wenten out fro manye, and crieden, and seiden, For thou art the sone of God. And he blamede, and suffride hem not to speke, for thei wisten hym, that he was Crist. 42 And whanne the dai was come, he yede out, and wente in to a desert place; and the puple souyten hym, and thei camen to hym, and thei helden hym, that he schulde not go a wei fro hem. 43 To whiche he seide, For also to othere citees it bihoueth me to preche the kyngdom of God, for therfor Y am sent. 44 And he prechide in the synagogis of Galilee.

5 And it was don, whanne the puple cam fast to Jhesu, to here the word of God, he stood bisidis the pool of Genasereth, 2 and saiye two bootis stondyng bisidis the pool; and the fischeris weren go down, and waischiden her nettis. 3 And he wente vp in to a boot, that was Symoundis, and priede hym to lede it a litil fro the loond; and he seet, and tauyte the puple out of the boot. 4 And as he ceesside to speke, he seide to Symount, Lede thou in to the depthe, and slake youre nettis to take fisch. 5 And Symount answeride, and seide to hym, Comaundoure, we traueliden al the nytt, and token no thing, but in thi word Y schal leye out the net. 6 And whanne thei hadden do this thing, thei closiden togidir a greet multitude of fischis; and her net was brokun. 7 And thei bikenyden to felawis, that weren in anothir boot, that thei schulden come, and helpe hem. And thei camen, and filliden bothe the bootis, so that thei weren almost drenchid. 8 And whanne Symount Petir saiye this thing, he felde down to the knees of Jhesu, and seide, Lord, go fro me, for Y am a synful man. 9 For he was on ech side astonyed, and alle that weren with hym, in the takyng of fischis whiche thei token. 10 Sotheli in lijk maner James and Joon, the sones of Zebedee, that weren felowis of Symount Petre. And Jhesu seide to Symount, Nyle thou drede; now fro this tyme thou schalt take men. 11 And whanne the bootis weren led vp to the loond, thei leften alle thingis, and thei sueden hym. 12 And it was don, whanne he was in oon of the citees, lo! a man ful of lepre; and seynge Jhesu felle down on his face, and preyede hym, and seide, Lord, if thou wolt, thou maist make me clene. 13 And Jhesu held forth his hoond, and touchide hym, and seide, Y wole, be thou maad cleene. And anon the lepre passide awei fro hym. 14 And Jhesu comaundide to hym, that he schulde seie to no man; But go, schewe thou thee to a preest, and offre for thi clensyng, as Moises bad, in to witnessyng to hem. 15 And the word walkide aboute the more of hym; and myche puple camen togidere, to here, and to be heeled of her sicknessis. 16 And he wente in to desert, and priede. 17 And it was don in oon of the daies, he sat, and tauyte; and there weren Farisees sittynge, and doctouris of the lawe, that camen of eche castel of Galilee, and of Judee, and of Jerusalem; and the vertu of the Lord was to heele sike men. 18 And lo! men beren in a bed a man that was sijck in the palsye, and thei souyten to bere hym in, and sette bifor hym. 19 And thei founden not in what partie thei schulden bere hym in, for the puple, `and thei wenten on the roof, and bi the sclattis thei leeten hym down with the bed, in to the myddil, bifor Jhesu. 20 And whanne Jhesu saiye the feith of hem, he seide, Man, thi synnes ben foryouun to thee. 21 And the scribis and Farisees bigunnen to thenke, seiynge, Who is this, that spekih blasfemyes? who may foryue synnes, but God aloone?

22 And as Jhesus knewe the thoytis of hem, he answeride, and seide to hem, What thenken ye yuele thingis in youre hertes? 23 What is liyter to seie, Synnes ben foryouun to thee, or to seie, Rise vp, and walke? 24 But that ye wite, that mannus sone hath power in erthe to foryue synnes, he seide to the sijk man in palesie, Y seie to thee, ryse vp, take thi bed, and go in to thin hous. 25 And anoon he roos vp bifor hem, and took the bed in which he lay, and wente in to his hous, and magnyfiede God. 26 And greet wondur took alle, and thei magnyfieden God; and thei weren fulfillid with greet drede, and seiden, For we han seyn merueilouse thingis to dai. 27 And after these thingis Jhesus wente out, and saiȝ a puppican, Leuy bi name, sittynge at the tolbothe. And he seide to hym, Sue thou me; 28 and whanne he hadde left alle thingis, he roos vp, and suede hym. 29 And Leuy made to hym a greet feeste in his hous; and ther was a greet cumpanye of puppicans, and of othere that weren with hem, sittynge at the mete. 30 And Farisees and the scribis of hem grutchiden, and seiden to hise disciplis, Whi eten ye and drynken with puppicans and synful men? 31 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Thei that ben hoole han no nede to a leche, but thei that ben sijke; 32 for Y cam not to clepe iuste men, but synful men to penaunce. 33 And thei seiden to hym, Whi the disciplis of Joon fasten ofte, and maken preieris, also and of Farisees, but thine eten and drynken? 34 To whiche he seide, Whether ye moun make the sones of the spouse to faste, while the spouse is with hem? 35 But daies schulen come, whanne the spouse schal be takun a wei fro hem, and thanne thei schulen faste in tho daies. 36 And he seide to hem also a liknesse; For no man takith a pece fro a newe cloth, and puttith it in to an oold clothing; ellis bothe he brekith the newe, and the pece of the newe acordith not to the elde. 37 And no man puttith newe wyne in to oolde botels; ellis the newe wyn schal breke the botels, and the wyn schal be sched out, and the botels schulen perische. 38 But newe wyne owith to be put in to newe botels, and bothe ben kept. 39 And no man drynkynge the elde, wole anoon the newe; for he seith, The olde is the betere.

6 And it was don in the secounde firste sabat, whanne he passid bi cornes, hise disciplis pluckiden eeris of corn; and thei frotynge with her hondis, eeten. 2 And summe of the Farisees seiden to hem, What doon ye that, that is not leueful in the sabotis? 3 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, Han ye not redde, what Dauith dide, whanne he hungride, and thei that weren with hym; 4 hou he entride in to the hous of God, and took looues of propocioun, and eet, and yaf to hem that weren with hem; whiche looues it was not leueful to eete, but oonli to prestis. 5 And he seide to hem, For mannus sone is lord, yhe, of the sabat. 6 And it was don in another sabat, that he entride in to a synagoge, and tauyte. And a man was there, and his ryt hoond was drie. 7 And the scribis and Farisees aspieden hym, if he wolde heele hym in the sabat, that thei schulden fynde cause, whereof thei schulden accuse hym. 8 And he wiste the thoytis of hem, and he seide to the man that hadde a drie hoond, Rise vp, and stonde in to the myddil. And he roos, and stood. 9 And Jhesus seide to hem, Y axe you, if it is leueful to do wel in the sabat, or yuel? to make a soule saaf, or to leese? 10 And whanne he hadde biholde alle men aboute, he seide to the man, Hold forth thin hoond. And he held forth, and his hoond was restorid to helthe. 11 And thei weren fulfillid with vnwisdom, and spaken togidir, what thei schulden do of Jhesu. 12 And it was don in tho daies, he wente out in to an hil to preye; and he was al nyet dwellynge in the preier of God. 13 And whanne the day was come, he clepide hise disciplis, and chees twelue of hem, whiche he clepide also apostlis; 14 Symount, whom he clepide Petir, and Andrew, his brothir, James and Joon, 15 Filip and Bartholomew, Matheu and Thomas, James Alpei, and Symount, that is clepid Zelotes, 16 Judas of James, and Judas Scarioth, that was traytoure. 17 And Jhesus cam down fro the hil with hem, and stood in a feeldi place; and the cumpeny of hise disciplis, and a greet multitude of puple, of al Judee, and Jerusalem, and of the see coostis, and of Tyre and Sidon, 18 that camen to here hym, and to be heelid of her sicknessis; and thei that weren trauelid of vnleene spiritis, weren heelid. 19 And al puple souyte to touche hym, for vertu wente out of hym, and heelide alle. 20 And whanne hise iyen weren cast vp in to hise disciplis, he seide, Blessid be ye, `pore men, for the kyngdom of God is youre. 21 Blessid be ye, that now hungren, for ye schulen be fulfillid. Blessid be ye, that now wepen, for ye schulen leiye. 22 Ye schulen be blessid, whanne men schulen hate you, and departe you awei, and putte schenschip to you, and cast out youre name as yuel, for mannus sone. 23 Joye ye in that dai, and be ye glad; for lo! youre meede is myche in heuene; for aftir these thingis the fadris of hem diden to prophetis. 24 Netheles wo to you, riche men, that han youre coumfort. 25 Wo to you that ben fulfillid, for ye schulen hungre. Wo to you that now leiyen, for ye schulen morne, and wepe. 26 Wo to you, whanne alle men schulen blesse you; aftir these thingis the fadris of hem diden to profetis. 27 But Y seie to you that heren, loue ye youre enemyes, do ye wel to hem that hatiden you; 28 blesse ye men that cursen you, preye ye for men that defamen you. 29 And to him that smytith thee on o cheeke, schewe also the tothir; and fro hym that takith awei fro thee a cloth, nyle thou forbode the coote. 30 And yyue to eche that axith thee, and if a man takith awei tho thingis that ben thine, axe thou not ayen. 31 And as ye wolen that men do to you, do ye also to hem in lijk maner. 32 And if ye louen hem that louen you, what thanke is to you? for synful men louen men that louen hem. 33 And if ye don wel to hem that don wel to you, what grace is to you? synful men don this thing. 34 And if ye leenen to hem of whiche ye hopen to take ayen, what thanke is to you? for synful men leenen to synful men, to take ayen as myche. 35 Netheles loue ye youre enemyes, and do ye wel, and leene ye, hopeinge no thing therof, and youre mede schal be myche, and ye schulen be the sones of the Heyest, for he is benygne on vnkynde men and yuele men. 36 Therfor be ye merciful, as youre fadir is merciful. 37 Nyle ye deme, and ye schulen not be demed. Nyle ye condempne, and ye schulen not be condempned; foryue ye, and it schal be foryouun to you. 38 Yyue ye, and it schal be youun to you. Thei schulen yyue in to youre bosum a good mesure, and wel fillid, and schakun togidir, and ouerflowynge; for bi the same mesure, bi whiche ye meeten, it schal be metun `ayen to you. 39 And he seide to hem a liknesse, Whether the blynde may leede the blynde? ne fallen thei not bothe `in to the diche? 40 A disciple is not aboue the maistir; but eche schal be perfite, if he be as his maister. 41 And what seest thou in thi brotheris iye a moot, but thou biholdist not a beam, that is in thin owne iye? 42 Or hou maist thou seie to thi brother, Brothir, suffre, Y schal caste out the moot of thin iye, and thou biholdist not a beam in thin owne iye? Ipocrite, first take out the beam of thin iye, and thanne thou schalt se to take the moot of thi brotheris iye. 43 It is not a good tree, that makith yuel fruytis, nether an yuel tree, that makith good fruytis; 44 for euery tre is knowun of his fruyt. And men gaderen not figus of thornes, nethir men gaderen a grape of a buysche of breris. 45 A good man of the good tresoure of his herte bryngith forth good thingis, and an yuel man of the yuel tresoure bryngith forth yuel thingis; for of the plente of the herte the mouth spekith. 46 And what clepen ye me, Lord, Lord, and doon not tho thingis that Y seie. 47 Eche that cometh to me, and herith my wordis, and doith hem, Y schal schewe to you, to whom he is lijk. 48 He is lijk to a man that bildith an hous, that diggide deepe, and sette the foundement on a stoon. And whanne greet flood was maad, the flood was hurtlid to that hous, and it miyte not moue it, for it was foundid on a sad stoon. 49 But he that herith, and doith not, is lijk to a man bilydng his hous on erthe with outen foundement; in to which the flood was hurlid, and anon it felle doun; and the fallyng doun of that hous was maad greet.

7 And whanne he hadde fulfillid alle hise wordis in to the eeris of the puple, he entride in to Cafarnaum. 2 But a seruauent of a centurien, that was precious to hym, was sijk, and drawynge to the deeth. 3 And whanne he hadde herd of Jhesu, he sente to hym the eldere men of Jewis, and preiede hym, that he wolde come, and heele his seruauent. 4 And whanne thei camen to Jhesu, thei preieden hym bisili, and seiden to hym, For he is worthi, that thou graunte to hym this thing; 5 for he loueth oure folk, and he bildide to vs a synagoge. 6 And Jhesus wente with hem. And whanne he was not fer fro the hous, the centurien sente to hym freendis, and seide, Lord, nyle thou be trauelid, for Y am not worthi, that thou entre vnder my roof; 7 for which thing and Y demede not my silf worthi, that Y come to thee; but seie thou bi word, and my child schal be helid. 8 For Y am a man ordeyned vndur power, and haue knytyis vndur me; and Y seie to this, Go, and he goith, and to anothir, Come, and he cometh, and to my seruauent, Do this thing, and he doith. 9 And whanne this thing was herd, Jhesus wondride; and seide to the puple suyng hym, Treuli Y seie to you, nether in Israel Y foond so greet feith. 10 And thei that weren sent, turneden ayen home, and founden the seruauent hool, which was sijk. 11 And it was don aftirward, Jhesus wente in to a citee, that is clepid Naym, and hise disciplis; and ful greet puple wente with hym. 12 And whanne he cam nyy to the yate of the citee, lo! the sone of a womman that hadde no mo children, was borun out deed; and this was a widowe; and myche puple of the citee with hir. 13 And whanne the Lord Jhesu hadde seyn hir, he hadde reuthe on hir, and seide to hir, Nyle thou wepe. 14 And he cam nyy, and touchide the beere; and thei that baren stoden. And he seide, Yonge man, Y seie to thee, rise vp. 15 And he that was deed sat vp ayen, and bigan to speke; and he yaf hym to his modir. 16 And drede took alle men, and thei magnyfieden God, and seiden, For a grete profete is rysun among vs, and, For God hath visitid his puple. 17 And this word wente out of hym in to al Judee, and in to al the cuntre aboute. 18 And Joones disciplis toolden hym of alle these thingis. 19 And Joon clepide tweyn of hise disciplis, and sente hem to Jhesu, and seide, Art thou he that is to come, or abiden we anothir? 20 And whanne the men cam to hym, thei seiden, Joon Baptist sente vs to thee, and seide, Art thou he that is to come, or we abiden anothir? 21 And in that our he heelide many men of her sijknessis, and woundis, and yuel spiritis; and he yaf siyt to many blynde men. 22 And Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Go ye ayen, and telle ye to Joon tho thingis that ye han herd and seyn; blynde men seyn, crokid men goen, mesels ben maad cleene, deaf men heren, deed men risen ayen, pore men ben takun to prechyng of the gospel. 23 And he that schal not be sclaudrid in me, is blessid. 24 And whanne the messengeris of Joon weren go forth, he bigan to seie of Joon to the puple, 25 What wenten ye out in to desert to se? a reed waggid with the wynd? 26 But what wenten ye out to se? a man clothid with softe clothis? Lo! thei that ben in precious cloth and in delcis, ben in kyngis housis. But what wenten ye out to se? a profete? Yhe, Y seie to you, and more than a profete. 27 This is he, of whom it is writun, Lo! Y sende myn aungel bifor thi face, which schal make `thi weie redi bifor thee. 28 Certis Y seie to you, there is no man more prophete among children of wymmen, than is Joon; but he that is lesse in the kyngdom of heuenes, is more than he. 29 And al the puple herynge, and pupplicans, that hadden be baptisid with baptyem of Joon, iustifieden God; 30 but the Farisees and the wise men of the lawe, that weren not baptisid of hym, dispisiden the counsel of God ayens hem silf. 31 And the Lord seide, Therfor to whom schal Y seie `men of this generacioun lijk, and to whom ben thei lijk? 32 Thei ben lijk to children sittyng in chepyng, and spekyng together, and seyinge, We han sungun to you with pipis, and ye han not daunsid; we han maad mornyng, and ye han not wept. 33 For Joon Baptist cam, nethir etyngne breed, ne drynkyngne wyne, and ye seyen, He hath a feend. 34 Mannus sone cam etyngne and drynkyngne, and ye seien, Lo! a man a deuourer, and drynkyngne wyne, a frend of pupplicans and of synful men. 35 And wisdom is iustified of her sones. 36 But oon of the Farisees preiede Jhesu, that he schulde ete with hym. And he entride in to the hous of the Farise, and sat at the mete. 37 And lo! a synful womman, that was in the citee, as sche knewe, that Jhesu sat at the mete in the hous of the Farisee, sche brouyte an alabaustre box of oynement; 38 and sche stood bihynde bysidis hise feet, and bigan to moiste hise feet with teeris, and wipide with the heeris of hir heed, and kiste hise feet, and anoyntide with oynement. 39 And the Farise seyngne, that hadde clepide hym, seide within hym silf, seiynge, If this were a prophete, he schulde wite, who and what maner womman it were that touchith hym, for sche is a synful womman. 40 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hym, Symount, Y haue sumthing to seie to thee. And he seide, Maistir, seie thou. 41 And he answeride, Twei dettouris weren to o lener; and oon auyt fyue hundrid pans, and `the other fifti; 42 but whanne thei hadden not wherof `thei schulden yeelde, he foryaf to bothe. Who thanne loueth hym more? 43 Symount answeride, and seide, Y gesse, that he to whom he foryaf more. And he answeride to hym, Thou hast demyd riytli. 44 And he turnede to the womman, and seide to Symount, Seest thou this womman? I entride into thin hous, thou yaf no watir to my feet; but this hath moistid my feet with teeris, and wipide with hir heeris. 45 Thou hast not youun to me a cosse; but this, sithen sche entride, ceesside not to kisse my feet. 46 Thou anyontidist not myn heed with oile; but this anyontide my feet with oynement. 47 For the which thing Y seie to thee, many synnes ben foryouun to hir, for sche hath loued myche; and to whom is lesse foryouun, he loueth lesse. 48 And Jhesus seide to hir, Thi synnes ben foryouun to thee. 49 And thei that saten to gider at the mete, bigunnen to seie with ynnem self, Who is this that foryueth synnes. 50 But he seide to the womman, Thi feith hath maad thee saaf; go thou in pees.

8 And it was don aftirward, and Jhesus made iourney bi citees and castels, prechyng and euangelisyng the rewme of God, and twelue with hym; 2 and sum wymmen that weren heelid of wickid spiritis and sijknnessis, Marie, that is clepid Maudeleyn, of whom seuene deuellis wenten out, 3 and Joone, the wijf of Chuse, the procuratoure of Eroude, and Susanne, and many othir, that mynystriden to hym of her ritchesse. 4 And whanne myche puple was come togidir, and men hiyeden to hym fro the citees, he seide bi a symylitude, 5 He that sowith, yede out to sowe his seed. And while he sowith, sum fel bisidis the weie, and was defoulid, and briddis of the eir eten it. 6 And othir fel on a stoon, and it sprunge vp, and driede, for it hadde not moisture. 7 And othir fel among thornes, and the thornes sprongen vp togider, and strangliden it. 8 And othir fel in to good erthe, and it sprungun made an hundrid foold fruyt. He seide these thingis, and criede, He that hath eeris of heryng, here he. 9 But hise disciplis axiden him, what this parable was. 10 And he seide to hem, To you it is grauntid to knowe the pryuate of the kyngdom of God; but to othir men in parablis, that thei seyng se not, and thei herynge vnderstonde not. 11 And this is the parable. 12 The seed is Goddis word; and thei that ben bisidis the weie, ben these that heren; and aftirward the feend cometh, and takith awei the word fro her herte, lest thei bileuyng be maad saaf. 13 But thei that fel on a stoon, ben these that whanne thei han herd, resseyuen the word with ioye. And these han not rootis; for at a tyme thei bileuen, and in tyme of temptacioun thei goen awei. 14 But that that fel among thornes, ben these that herden, and of bisynnessis, and ritchessis, and lustis of lijf thei gon forth, and ben stranglid, and bryngen forth no fruyt. 15 But that that fel in to good erthe, ben these that, in a good herte, and best heren the word, and holdun, and brenge forth fruyt in pacience. 16 No man lithenth a lanterne, and hiliith it with a vessel, or puttith it vndur a bed, but on a candilstike, that men that entren seen liyt. 17 For the

is no priuei thing, which schal not be openyd, nether hid thing, which schal not be knowun, and come in to open. 18 Therfor se ye, hou ye heren; for it schal be youun to hym that hath, and who euer hath not, also that that he weneth that he haue, schal be takun awei fro hym. 19 And his modir and britheren camen to hym; and thei myyten not come to hym for the puple. 20 And it was teeld to hym, Thi modir and thi britheren stonden with outforth, willynge to se thee. 21 And he answeride, and seide to hem, My modir and my britheren ben these, that heren the word of God, and doon it. 22 And it was don in oon of daies, he wente vp in to a boot, and hise discipulis. And he seide to hem, Passe we ouer the see. And thei wenten vp. 23 And while thei rowiden, he slepte. And a tempest of wynde cam down in to the watir, and thei weren dryuun hidur and thidur with wawis, and weren in perel. 24 And thei camen nyy, and residen hym, and seiden, Comaundoure, we perischen. And he roos, and blamyde the wynde, and the tempest of the watir; and it ceesside, and pesibilte was maad. 25 And he seide to hem, Where is youre feith? Which dredyng wondriden, and seiden togidir, Who, gessist thou, is this? for he comaundith to wyndis and to the see, and thei obaien to hym. 26 And thei rowiden to the cuntree of Gerasenus, that is ayens Galilee. 27 And whanne he wente out to the loond, a man ran to hym, that hadde a deuel long tyme, and he was not clothid with cloth, nether dwellide in hous, but in sepulcris. 28 This, whanne he saiþ Jhesu, fel down bifor hym, and he cryng with a greet vois seide, What to me and to thee, Jhesu, the sone of the hiyest God? Y biseche thee, that thou turmente `not me. 29 For he comaundide the vnleene spirit, that he schulde go out fro the man. For he took hym ofte tymes, and he was boundun with cheynes, and kept in stockis, and, whanne the boondis weren brokun, he was lad of deuellis in to desert. 30 And Jhesus axide hym, and seide, What name is to thee? And he seide, A legioun; for many deuellis weren entrid in to hym. 31 And thei preyden hym, that he schulde not comaunde hem, that thei schulden go in to helle. (Abyssos g12) 32 And there was a flok of many swyne lesewyng in an hil, and thei preieden hym, that he schulde suffre hem to entre in to hem. And he suffride hem. 33 And so the deuellis wenten out fro the man, and entriden in to the swyne; and with a birre the flok wente heedlyng in to the pool, and was drenchid. 34 And whanne the hirdis sayn this thing don, thei flowen, and tolden in to the cite, and in to the townes. 35 And thei yeden out to se that thing that was don. And thei camen to Jhesu, and thei founden the man sittinge clothid, fro whom the deuellis wenten out, and in hool mynde at hise feet; and thei dreden. 36 And thei that sayn tolden to hem, hou he was maad hool of the legioun. 37 And al the multitude of the cuntre of Gerasenus preiede hym, that he schulde go fro hem, for thei werun holdun with greet drede. He wente vp in to a boot, and turnede ayen. 38 And the man of whom the deuellis weren gon out, preide hym, that he schulde be with hym. Jhesus lefte hym, 39 and seide, Go ayen in to thin hous, and telle hou grete thingis God hath don to thee. And he wente thorow al the cite, and prechide, hou grete thingis Jhesus hadde don to hym. 40 And it was don, whanne Jhesus was gon ayen, the puple resseyuede hym; for alle weren abidyng hym. 41 And lo! a man, to whom the name was Jayrus, and he was prynce of a synagoge; and he fel doun at the feet of Jhesu, and priiede hym, that he schulde entre in to his hous, 42 for he hadde but o douyter `almost of twelue yeer eelde, and sche was deed. And it bifel, the while he wente, he was thrungun of the puple. 43 And a womman that hadde a flux of blood twelue yeer, and hadde spendid al hir catel in leechis, and sche miyte not be curid of ony, 44 and sche cam nyy bihynde, and touchide the hem of his cloth, and anoon the fluxe of hir blood ceesside. 45 And Jhesus seide, Who is that touchide me? And whanne alle men denyeden, Petre seide, and thei that weren with hym, Comaundour, the puple thristen, and disesen thee, and thou seist, Who touchide me? 46 And Jhesus seide, Summan hath touchid me, for that vertu yede out of me. 47 And the womman seynge, that it was not hid fro hym, cam tremblyng, and fel doun at hise feet, and for what cause sche hadde touchid hym sche schewide bifor al the puple, and hou anoon sche was helid. 48 And he seide to hir, Douytir, thi feith hath maad thee saaf; go thou in pees. 49 And yit while he spak, a man cam from the prince of the synagoge, and seide to hym, Thi douytir is deed, nyle thou trauel the maister. 50 And whanne this word was herd, Jhesus answeride to the fadir of the damysel, Nyle thou drede, but bileue thou oonli, and sche schal be saaf. 51 And whanne he cam to the hous, he suffride no man to entre with hym, but Petir and Joon and James, and the fadir and the modir of the damysel. 52 And alle wepten, and biweileden hir. And he seide, Nyle ye wepe, for the damysel is not deed, but slepith. 53 And thei scorneden hym, and wisten that sche was deed. 54 But he helde hir hoond, and criede, and seide, Damysel, rise vp. 55 And hir spirit turnede ayen, and sche roos anoon. And he comaundide to yyue to hir to ete. 56 And hir fadir and modir wondriden greetli; and he comaundide hem, that thei schulden not seie to ony that thing that was don.

9 And whanne the twelue apostlis weren clepid togidir, Jhesus yaf to hem vertu and power on alle deuellis, and that thei schulden heele sijknensis. 2 And he sente hem for to preche the kyngdom of God, and to heele sijk men. 3 And he seide to hem, No thing take ye in the weie, nether yerde, ne scrippe, nether breed, ne money, and nether haue ye two cootis. 4 And in to what hous that ye entren, dwelle ye there, and go ye not out fro thennus. 5 And who euer resseyuen not you, go ye out of that citee, and schake ye of the poudir of youre feet in to witnessyng on hem. 6 And thei yeden forth, and wenten aboute bi castels, prechyng and helyng euery where. 7 And Eroude tetrak herde alle thingis that weren don of hym, and he doutide, 8 for that it was seide of sum men, that Joon was risen fro deth; and of summen, that Elie hadde apperid; but of othere, that oon of the elde prophetis was risun. 9 And Eroude seide, Y haue biheedid Joon; and who is this, of whom Y here siche thingis? And he souyte to se hym. 10 And the apostlis turneden ayen, and tolden to hym alle thingis that thei hadden don. And he took hem, and wente bisidis in to a desert place, that is Bethsada. 11 And whanne the puple knewen this, thei folewiden hym. And he resseyuede hem, and spak to hem of the kyngdom of God; and he heelide hem that hadden neede of cure. 12 And the dai bigan to bowe doun, and the twelue camen, and seiden to hym, Leeue the puple, that thei go, and turne in to castels and townes, that ben aboute, that thei fynde mete, for we ben here in a desert place. 13 And he seide to hem, Yue ye to hem to ete. And thei seiden, Ther ben not to vs mo than fyue looues and twei fischis, but perauenture that we go, and bie meetis to al this puple. 14 And the men weren almost fyue thousynde. And he seide to hise disciplis, Make ye hem sitte to mete bi companyes, a fifti to gidir. 15 And thei diden so, and thei maden alle men sitte to mete. 16 And whanne he hadde take the fyue looues and twei fischis, he biheelde in to heuene, and blessing hem, and brak, and delide to hise disciplis, that thei schulden sette forth bifor the companyes. 17 And alle men eeten, and weren fulfillid; and that that lefte to hem of brokun metis was takun vp, twelue cofyns. 18 And it was don, whanne he was aloone preyinge, hise disciplis weren with hym, and he axide hem, and seide, Whom seien the puple that Y am? 19 And thei answeriden, and seiden, Joon Baptist, othir seien Elie, and othir seien, o profete of the formere is risun. 20 And he seide to hem, But who seien ye that Y am? Symount Petir answeride, and seide, The Crist of God. 21 And he blamyng hem comaundide that thei schulden seie to no man, 22 and seide these thingis, For it bihoueth mannus sone to suffre many thingis, and to be repreued of the elder men, and of the princis of prestis, and of scribis, and to be slayn, and the thridde dai to rise ayen. 23 And he seide to alle, If ony wole come aftir me, denye he hym silf, and take he his cross euery dai, and sue he me. 24 For he that wole make his lijf saaf schal leese it; and he that leesith his lijf for me, schal make it saaf. 25 And what profitith it to a man, if he wyne al the world, and leese hymself, and do peiryng of him silf. 26 For who so schameth me and my wordis, mannus sone schal schame hym, whanne he cometh in his maieste, and of the fadris, and of the hooli aungels. 27 And Y seie to you, verily ther ben summe stondyng here, whiche schulen not taste deeth, til thei seen the rewme of God. 28 And it was don aftir these wordis almost eyfte daies, and he took Petre and James and Joon, and he stiede in to an hil, to preye. 29 And while he priiede, the licnesse of his cheer was chaungid, and his clothing was whit schynyng. 30 And lo! two men spaken with hym, 31 and Moises and Helie weren seen in maieste; and thei sayn his goyng out, which he schulde fulfille in Jerusalem. 32 And Petre, and thei that weren with hym, weren heuy of sleep, and thei wakyng saien his majeste, and the twey men that stoden with hym. 33 And it was don, whanne thei departiden fro hym, Petir seide to Jhesu, Comaundour, it is good that we be here, and make we here thre tabernaclis, oon to thee, and oon to Moises, and oon to Elie. And he wiste not what he schulde seie. 34 But while he spak these thingis, a cloude was maad, and ouerschadewide hem; and thei dredden, whanne thei entriden in to the cloude. 35 And a vois was maad out of the cloude, and seide, This is my derworth sone, here ye hym. 36 And while the vois was maad, Jhesu was foundun aloone. And thei weren stille, and to no man seiden in tho daies ouyt of tho thingis, that thei hadden seyn. 37 But it was doon in the dai suyng, whanne thei camen doun

of the hil, myche puple mette hem. 38 And lo! a man of the company crieð, and seide, Maister, Y biseche thee, biholde my sone, for Y haue no mo; and lo! 39 a spirit takith hym, and sudenli he crieth, and hurtlið doun, and to-drawith hym with fome, and vnneth he goith awei al to-drawynge hym. 40 And Y preiede thi disciplis, that thei schulden caste hym out, and thei myyten not. 41 And Jhesus answerde and seide to hem, A! vnfeithful generacioun and weiward, hou long schal Y be at you, and suffre you? brynge hidur thi sone. 42 And whanne he cam nyy, the deuel hurtlið hym doun, and to-braidide hym. And Jhesus blamyde `the vnclene spirit, and heelide the child, and yeldide him to his fadir. 43 And alle men wondriden greetli in the gretnesse of God. And whanne alle men wondriden in alle thingis that he dide, he seide to hise disciplis, 44 Putte ye these wordis in youre hertis, for it is to come, that mannus sone be bitrayed in to the hondis of men. 45 And thei knewen not this word, and it was hid bifor hem, that thei feeliden it not; and thei dredden to axe hym of this word. 46 But a thouyt entride in to hem, who of hem schulde be grettest. 47 And Jhesu, seynge the thouytis of the herte of hem, took a child, and settide hym bisidis hym; 48 and seide to hem, Who euer resseyueth this child in my name, resseyueth me; and who euer resseyueth me, resseyueth him that sente me; for he that is leest among you alle, is the grettest. 49 And Joon answeride and seide, Comaundoure, we sayn a man castynge out feendis in thi name, and we han forbedun hym, for he sueth not thee with vs. 50 And Jhesus seide to hym, Nyle ye forbede, for he that is not ayens vs, is for vs. 51 And it was don, whanne the daies of his takynge vp weren fulfillid, he settide faste his face, to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sente messangeris bifor his siyt. And thei yeden, and entriden in to a citee of Samaritans, to make redi to hym. 53 And thei resseyueden not hym, for the face `was of hym goynge in to Jerusalem. 54 And whanne James and Joon, hise disciplis, seyn, thei seiden, Lord, wolt thou that we seien, that fier come doun fro heuene, and waste hem? 55 And he turnede, and blamyde hem, and seide, Ye witen not, whos spiritis ye ben; 56 for mannus sone cam not to leese mennus soulis, but to saue. And thei wenten in to another castel. 57 And it was don, whanne thei walkeden in the weie, a man seide to hym, Y schal sue thee, whidur euer thou go. 58 And Jhesus seide to hym, Foxis han dennes, and briddis of the eir han nestis, but mannus sone hath not where he reste his heed. 59 And he seide to another, Sue thou me. And he seide, Lord, suffre me first to go, and birie my fadir. 60 And Jhesus seide to hym, Suffre that deede men birie hir deede men; but go thou, and telle the kyngdom of God. 61 And another seide, Lord, Y schal sue thee, but first suffre me to leewe `alle thingis that ben at hoom. 62 And Jhesus seide to hym, No man that puttith his hoond to the plouy, and biholdynge backward, is able to the rewme of God.

10 And aftir these thingis the Lord Jhesu ordeynede also othir seuenti and tweyn, and sente hem bi tweyn and tweyn bifor his face in to euery citee and place, whidir he was to come. 2 And he seide to hem, There is myche ripe corn, and fewe werke men; therfor preie ye the lord of the ripe corn, that he sende werke men in to his ripe corn. 3 Go ye, lo! Y sende you as lambren among wolues. 4 Therfor nyle ye bere a sachel, nethir scrippe, nethir schoon, and greeete ye no man bi the weie. 5 In to what hous that ye entren, first seie ye, Pees to this hous. 6 And if a sone of pees be there, youre pees schal reste on hym; but if noon, it schal turne ayen to you. 7 And dwelle ye in the same hous, etynge and drynkynge tho thingis that ben at hem; for a werk man is worthi his hire. Nyle ye passe from hous in to hous. 8 And in to what euer citee ye entren, and thei resseyuen you, ete ye tho thingis that ben set to you; 9 and heele ye the sijke men that ben in that citee. And seie ye to hem, The kyngdom of God schal neieye in to you. 10 In to what citee ye entren, and thei resseyuen you not, go ye out in to the streetis of it, 11 and seie ye, We wipen of ayens you the poudir that cleued to vs of youre citee; netheles wite ye this thing, that the rewme of God schal come nyy. 12 Y seie to you, that to Sodom it schal be esiere than to that citee in that dai. 13 Wo to thee, Corosayn; wo to thee, Bethsaida; for if in Tyre and Sidon the vertues hadden be don, whiche han be don in you, sum tyme thei wolden haue sete in heyre and asches, and haue don penaunce. 14 Netheles to Tire and Sidon it schal be esiere in the doom than to you. 15 And thou, Cafarnaum, art enhaunsid `til to heuene; thou schalt be drenchid `til in to helle. (Hadēs g86) 16 He that herith you, herith me; and he that dispisith you, dispisith me; and he that dispisith me, dispisith hym that sente me. 17 And the two and seuenti disciplis turneden ayen with ioye, and seiden, Lord, also deuelis ben suget to vs in thi name. 18 And he seide to hem, Y saiþ Sathnas fallynge doun fro heuene, as leit. 19 And lo! Y haue youun to you power to trede on serpentis, and on scorpyouns, and on al the vertu of the enemy, and nothing schal anoye you. 20 Netheles nyle ye ioye on this thing, that spiritis ben suget to you; but ioye ye, that youre names ben writun in heuenes. 21 In thilk our he gladide in the Hooli Goost, and seide, Y knouleche to thee, fadir, Lord of heuene and of erthe, for thou hast hid these thingis fro wise men and prudent, and hast schewid hem to smale children. Yhe, fadir, for so it pleside bifor thee. 22 Alle thingis ben youun to me of my fadir, and no man woot, who is the sone, but the fadir; and who is the fadir, but the sone, and to whom the sone wole schewe. 23 And he turnede to hise disciplis, and seide, Blessid ben the iyen, that seen tho thingis that ye seen. 24 For Y seie to you, that many prophetis and kyngis wolden haue seie tho thingis, that ye seen, and thei sayn not; and here tho thingis, that ye heren, and thei herden not. 25 And lo! a wise man of the lawe ros vp, temptynge hym, and seiynge, Maister, what thing schal Y do to haue euerlastynge lijf? (aiōnios g166) 26 And he seide to hym, What is writun in the lawe? hou redist thou? 27 He answeride, and seide, Thou schalt loue thi Lord God of al thin herte, and of al thi soule, and of alle thi strengthis, and of al thi mynde; and thi neiybore as thi silf. 28 And Jhesus seide to hym, Thou hast answerid riytli; do this thing, and thou schalt lyue. 29 But he willynge to iustifie hym silf, seide to Jhesu, And who is my neiybore? 30 And Jhesu biheld, and seide, A man cam doun fro Jerusalem in to Jerico, and fel among theues, and thei robbiden hym, and woundiden hym, and wente awei, and leften the man half alyue. 31 And it bifel, that a prest cam down the same weie, and passide forth, whanne he hadde seyn hym. 32 Also a dekene, whanne he was bisidis the place, and sai him, passide forth. 33 But a Samaritan, goyng the weie, cam bisidis hym; and he siy hym, and hadde reuthe on hym; 34 and cam to hym, and boond togidir hise woundis, and helde in oyle and wyne; and leide hym on his beest, and ledde in to an ostrie, and dide the cure of hym. 35 And another dai he brouyte forth twey pans, and yaf to the ostiler, and seide, Hauē the cure of hym; and what euer thou schalt yyue ouer, Y schal yelde to thee, whanne Y come ayen. 36 Who of these thre, semeth to thee, was neybore to hym, that fel among theues? 37 And he seide, He that dide merci in to hym. And Jhesus seide to hym, Go thou, and do thou on lijk maner. 38 And it was don, while thei wenten, he entride in to a castel; and a womman, Martha bi name, resseyuede hym in to hir hous. 39 And to this was a sistir, Marie bi name, which also sat bisidis the feet of the Lord, and herde his word. 40 But Martha bisiede aboute the ofte seruyce. And sche stood, and seide, Lord, takist thou no kepe, that my sistir hath left me alone to serue? therfor sei thou to hir, that sche helpe me. 41 And the Lord answerde, and seide to hir, Martha, Martha, thou art bysi, and art troublid aboute ful many thingis; 42 but o thing is necessarie. Marie hath chosun the best part, which schal not be takun awei fro hir.

11 And it was don, whanne he was preiynge in a place, as he ceesside, oon of hise disciplis seide to hym, Lord, teche vs to preye, as Joon tauyte hise disciplis. 2 And he seide to hem, Whanne ye preien, sei ye, Fadir, halewid be thi name. Thi kyngdom come to. 3 Yyue to vs dai oure ech daies breed. 4 And foryyue to vs oure synnes, as we foryyuen to ech man that owith to vs. And lede vs not in to temptacioun. 5 And he seide to hem, Who of you schal haue a freend, and schal go to hym at mydnytt, and schal sei to hym, Freend, leene to me thre looues; 6 for my freend cometh to me fro the weie, and Y haue not what Y schal sette bifor hym. 7 And he with ynforth answerde and seiē, Nyle thou be heuy to me; the dore is now schit, and my children ben with me in bed; Y may not rise, and yyue to thee. 8 And if he schal dwelle stil knockynge, Y seiē to you, thou he schal not rise, and yyue to him, for that that he is his freend, netheles for his contynuel axyng he schal ryse, and yyue to hym, as many as he hath nede to. 9 And Y seiē to you, axe ye, and it schal be youun to you; seke ye, and ye schulen fynde; knocke ye, and it schal be openyd to you. 10 For ech that axith, takith, and he that sekith, fyndith; and to a man that knockith, it schal be openyd. 11 Therfor who of you axith his fadir breed, whether he schal yyue hym a stoon? or if he axith fisch, whether he schal yyue hym a serpent for the fisch? 12 or if he axe an eye, whether he schal a reche hym a scorpioun? 13 Therfor if ye, whanne ye ben yuel, kunnen yyue good yifis to youre children, hou myche more youre fadir of heuene schal yyue a good spirit to men that axith him. 14 And Jhesus was castyng out a feend, and he was doumbe. And whanne he hadde cast out the feend, the doumbe man spak; and the puple wondride. 15 And sum of hem seiden, In Belsabub, prince of deuēlis, he castith out deuēlis. 16 And othir temptinge axiden of hym a tokene fro heuene. 17 And as he saiȝ the thouytis of hem, he seide to hem, Euery rewme departid ayens it silf, schal be desolat, and an hous schal falle on an hous. 18 And if Sathanas be departid ayens hym silf, hou schal his rewme stonde? For ye seien, that Y caste out feendis in Belsabub. 19 And if Y in Belsabub caste out fendis, in whom casten out youre sonēs? Therfor thei schulen be youre domesmen. 20 But if Y caste out fendis in the fyngir of God, thanne the rewme of God is comun among you. 21 Whanne a strong armed man kepith his hous, alle thingis that he weldith ben in pees. 22 But if a stronger than he come vpon hym, and ouercome hym, he schal take awei al his armere, in which he tristide, and schal dele abroad his robries. 23 He that is not with me, is ayens me; and he that gederith not togidir with me, scatterith abroad. 24 Whanne an vnclene spirit goith out of a man, he wandrith bi drie placis, and sekith reste; and he fyndynge not, seiȝ, Y schal turne ayen in to myn hous, fro whannes Y cam out. 25 And whanne he cometh, he fyndith it clansid with besyms, and fayre arayed. 26 Thanne he goith, and takith with hym seuene othere spirits worse than hym silf, and thei entren, and dwellen there. And the laste thingis of that man ben maad worse than the formere. 27 And it was don, whanne he hadde seid these thingis, a womman of the companye ride hir vois, and seide to hym, Blessid be the wombe that bare thee, and blessid be the tetis that thou hast soken. 28 And he seide, But yhe blessid be thei, that heren the word of God, and kepen it. 29 And whanne the puple runnen togidere, he bigan to seiē, This generacioun is a weiward generacioun; it sekith a token, and a tokene schal not be youun to it, but the tokene of Jonas, the profete. 30 For as Jonas was a tokene to men of Nynyue, so mannus sone schal be to this generacioun. 31 The queen of the south schal rise in doom with men of this generacioun, and schal condempne hem; for sche cam fro the endis of the erthe, for to here the wisdom of Salomon, and lo! here is a gretter than Salomon. 32 Men of Nynyue schulen rise in doom with this generacioun, and schulen condempne it; for thei diden penaunce in the prechyng of Jonas, and lo! here is a gretter than Jonas. 33 No man tendith a lanterne, and puttith in hidils, nether vndur a buyschel, but on a candilstike, that thei that goen in, se liȝt. 34 The lanterne of thi bodi is thin iȝe; if thin iȝe be symple, al thi bodi schal be liȝt; but if it be weyward, al thi bodi schal be derkful. 35 Therfor se thou, lest the liȝt that is in thee, be derknessis. 36 Therfor if al thi bodi be briȝt, and haue no part of derknessis, it schal be al briȝt, and as a lanterne of briȝtnesse it schal yyue liȝt to thee. 37 And whanne he spak, a Farisee preiede him, that he schulde ete with hym. And he entride, and sat to the meete. 38 And the Farisee bigan to seiē, gessyngē with ynne hym silf, whi he was not waschen bifor mete. 39 And the Lord seide to hym, Now ye Farisees clenȝen that that is with outenforth of the cuppe and the plater; but that thing that is with ynne of you, is ful of raueyn and wickidnesse. 40 Fools, whether he that made that that is withoutenforth, made not also that that is with ynne? 41 Netheles that that is ouer plus, yyue ye almes, and lo! alle thingis ben cleene to you. 42 But wo to you, Farisees, that tithen mynte, and rue, and ech eerbe, and leeuē doom and the charite of God. For it bihofte to do these thingis, and not leewe tho. 43 Wo to you, Farisees, that louen the firste chaires in synagogis, and salutaciouns in chepyng. 44 Wo to you, that ben as sepulcris, that ben not seyn, and men walkynge aboue witen not. 45 But oon of the wise men of the lawe answeride, and seide to hym, Maystir, thou seiynge these thingis, also to vs doist dispit. 46 And he seide, Also wo to you, wise men of lawe, for ye chargen men with birthuns which thei moun not bere, and ye you silf with youre o fyngur touchen not the heuynessis. 47 Wo to you, that bilden toumbis of profetis; and youre fadris slown hem. 48 Treuli ye witnessen, that ye consenten to the werkis of youre fadris; for thei slown hem, but ye bilden her sepulcris. 49 Therfor the wisdom of God seide, Y schal sende to hem profetis and apostlis, and of hem thei schulen sle and pursue, 50 that the blood of alle prophetis, that was sched fro the making of the world, be souyt of this generacioun; 51 fro the blood of the iust Abel to the blood of Zacharie, that was slayn bitwixe the auter and the hous. So Y seie to you, it schal be souyt of this generacioun. 52 Wo to you, wise men of the lawe, for ye han takun awei the keye of kunnyng; and ye yow silf entriden not, and ye han forbeden hem that entriden. 53 And whanne he seide these thingis to hem, the Farisees and wise men of lawe bigunnen greuouli to ayenstonde, and stoppe his mouth of many thingis, 54 aspiynge hym, and sekyng to take sum thing of his mouth, to accuse hym.

12 And whanne myche puple stood aboute, so that thei treden ech on othir, he bigan to seie to hise disciplis, Be ye war of the sourdouy of the Farisees, that is ypocrisie. 2 For no thing is hiliid, that schal not be schewid; nether hid, that schal not be wist. 3 For whi tho thingis that ye han seid in derknessis, schulen be seid in liyt; and that that ye han spokun in eere in the couchis, schal be prechid in roofes. 4 And Y seie to you, my freendis, be ye not a ferd of hem that sleen the bodie, and afir these thingis han no more what thei schulen do. 5 But Y schal schewe to you, whom ye schulen drede; drede ye hym, that afir he hath slayn, he hath power to sende in to helle. And so Y seie to you, drede ye hym. (Geenna g1067) 6 Whether fyue sparowis ben not seld for twei halpens; and oon of hem is not in foryetyng bifor God? 7 But also alle the heeris of youre heed ben noumbriid. Therfor nyle ye drede; ye ben of more prijs than many sparowis. 8 Treuli Y seie to you, ech man that knoulechith me bifor men, mannus sone schal knouleche hym bifor the aungels of God. 9 But he that denyeth me bifor men, schal be denyed bifor the aungels of God. 10 And ech that seith a word ayens mannus sone, it schal be foryouun to hym; but it schal not be foryouun to hym, that blasfemeth ayens the Hooli Goost. 11 And whanne thei leden you in to synagogis, and to magistratis, and potestatis, nyle ye `be bisie, hou or what ye schulen answer, or what ye schulen seie. 12 For the Hooli Goost schal teche you in that our, what it bihoueth you to seie. 13 And oon of the puple seide to hym, Maystir, seie to my brothir, that he departe with me the eritage. 14 And he seyde to hym, Man, who ordeynede me a domesman, or a departere, on you? 15 And he seide to hem, Se ye, and be ye war of al coueytice; for the lijf of a man is not in the abundaunce of tho thingis, whiche he weldith. 16 And he tolde to hem a liknesse, and seide, The feeld of a riche man brouyte forth plenteuouse fruytis. 17 And he thouyte with ynne hym silf, and seide, What schal Y do, for Y haue not whidur Y schal gadere my fruytis? 18 And he seith, This thing Y schal do; Y schal throwe down my bernis, and Y schal make gretter, and thidir Y schal gadir alle thingis that growen to me, and my goodis. 19 And Y schal seie to my soule, Soule, thou hast many goodis kept in to ful many yeeris; rest thou, ete, drynke, and make feeste. 20 And God seide to hym, Fool, in this nyet thei schulen take thi lijf fro thee. And whos schulen tho thingis be, that thou hast arayed? 21 So is he that tresourith to hym silf, and is not riche in God. 22 And he seide to hise disciplis, Therfor Y seie to you, nyle ye be bisy to youre lijf, what ye schulen ete, nether to youre bodi, with what ye schulen be clothid. 23 The lijf is more than mete, and the body more than clothing. 24 Biholde ye crowis, for thei sowen not, nethir repen, to whiche is no celer, ne berne, and God fedith hem. Hou myche more ye ben of more prijs than thei. 25 And who of you bithenkyng may put to o cubit to his stature? 26 Therfor if ye moun not that that is leest, what ben ye bisie of othere thingis? 27 Biholde ye the lilies of the feeld, hou thei wexen; thei trauelen not, nethir spynnen. And Y seie to you, that nethir Salomon in al his glorie was clothid as oon of these. 28 And if God clothith thus the hey, that to dai is in the feeld, and to morewe is cast in to an ouen; hou myche more you of lital feith. 29 And nyle ye seke, what ye schulen ete, or what ye schulen drynke; and nyle ye be reisid an hiy. 30 For folkis of the world seken alle these thingis; `and your fadir woot, that ye neden alle these thingis. 31 Nethes seke ye first the kyngdom of God, and alle these thingis schulen be caste to you. 32 Nyle ye, lital flok, drede, for it pleside to youre fadir to yyue you a kyngdom. 33 Selle ye tho thingis that ye han in possessioun, and yyue ye almes. And make to you sachels that wexen not oolde, tresoure that failith not in heuenes, whidir a thief neiyith not, nether mouyt destruyeth. 34 For where is thi tresoure, there thin herte schal be. 35 Be youre leendis gird aboue, and lanternes brennyng in youre hoondis; 36 and be ye lijk to men that abiden her lord, whanne he schal turne ayen for the weddyngis, that whanne he schal come, and knocke, anoon thei openen to hym. 37 Blessid be tho seruautis, that whanne the lord schal come, he schal fynde wakyng. Treuli Y seie to you, that he schal girde hym silf, and make hem sitte to mete, and he schal go, and serue hem. 38 And if he come in the secounde wakyng, and if he come in the thridd wakyng, and fynde so, tho seruautis ben blessid. 39 And wite ye this thing, for if an hosebonde man wiste, in what our the thief wolde come, sotheli he schulde wake, and not suffre his hous to be myned. 40 And be ye redi, for in what our ye gessen not, mannus sone schal come. 41 And Petre seide to hym, Lord, seist thou this parable to vs, or to alle? 42 And the Lord seide, Who, gessist thou, is a trewe dispendere, and a prudent, whom the lord hath ordeyned on his meyne, to yyue hem in tyme mesure of whete? 43 Blessid is that seruaut, that the lord whanne he cometh, schal fynde so doyng. 44 Verili Y seie to you, that on alle thingis that he weldith, he schal ordeyne

hym. 45 That if that seruaunt seie in his herte, My lord tarieth to come; and bigynne to smyte children, and handmaydenes, and ete, and drynke, and be fulfillid ouer mesure, 46 the lord of that seruaunt schal come, in the dai that he hopith not, and the our that he woot not; and schal departe hym, and putte his part with vnfaithful men. 47 But thilke seruaunt that knew the wille of his lord, and made not hym redi, and dide not afir his wille, schal be betun with many betyngis. 48 But he that knew not, and dide worthi thingis of strokis, schal be betun with fewe. For to eche man to whom myche is youun, myche schal be axid of hym; and thei schulen axe more of hym, to whom thei bitoken myche. 49 Y cam to sende fier `in to the erthe, and what wole Y, but that it be kyndlid? 50 And Y haue to be baptisid with a baptyism, and hou am Y constreyned, til that it be perfilti don? 51 Wene ye, that Y cam to yyue pees in to erthe? Nay, Y say to you, but departyng. 52 For fro this tyme ther schulen be fyue departid in oon hous; thre schulen be departid ayens tweyne, and tweyne schulen be departid ayens thre; 53 the fadir ayens the sone, and the sone ayens the fadir; the modir ayens the douytir, and the douytir ayens the modir; the hosebondis modir ayens the sones wijf, and the sones wijf ayens hir hosebondis modir. 54 And he seide also to the puple, Whanne ye seen a cloude risynge fro the sunne goynge doun, anoon ye seien, Reyn cometh; and so it is don. 55 And whanne ye seen the south blowynge, ye seien, That heete schal be; and it is don. 56 Ypocritis, ye kunnen preue the face of heuene and of erthe, but hou preuen ye not this tyme. 57 But what and of you silf ye demen not that that is iust? 58 But whanne thou goist with thin aduersarie in the weie to the prince, do bisynesse to be delyuerid fro hym; lest perauenture he take thee to the domesman, and the domesman bitake thee to the maistifur axer, and the maistifur axer sende thee in to prisoun. 59 Y seie to thee, thou schalt not go fro thennus, til thou yelde the laste ferthing.

13 And sum men weren present in that tyme, that telden to hym of the Galileis, whos blood Pilat myngide with the sacrificis of hem. 2 And he answeride, and seide to hem, Wenen ye, that these men of Galile weren synneris more than alle Galilees, for thei suffriden siche thingis? 3 Y seie to you, nay; alle ye schulen perische in lijk manere, but ye han penaunce. 4 And as tho eytetene, on which the toure in Siloa fel doun, and slowe hem, gessen ye, for thei weren dettouris more than alle men that dwellen in Jerusalem? 5 Y seie to you, nai; but also `ye alle schulen perische, if ye doon not penaunce. 6 And he seide this liknesse, A man hadde a fige tre plauntid in his vynyerd, and he cam sekynghe fruyt in it, and foond noon. 7 And he seide to the tilier of the vynyerd, Lo! thre yeeis ben, sithen Y come sekynghe fruyt in this fige tre, and Y fynde noon; therfor kitte it doun, whereto occupieth it the erthe? 8 And he answeynghe seide to hym, Lord, suffre it also this yeer, the while Y delue aboute it, and Y schal donge it; 9 if it schal make fruyt, if nay, in tyme comynge thou schalt kitte it doun. 10 And he was techinge in her synagoge in the sabatis. 11 And lo! a womman, that hadde a spirit of sijknesse eytene yeeis, and was crokid, and `nethir only maner myyte loke vpward. 12 Whom whanne Jhesus hadde seyn, he clepide to hym, and seide to hir, Womman, thou art delyuerid of thi sijknesse. 13 And he settide on hir his hoondis, and anoon sche stood upriyt, and glorifiede God. 14 And the prince of the synagoge answerde, hauynge dedeyn for Jhesus hadde heelid in the sabat; and he seide to the puple, Ther ben sixe dayes, in whiche it bihoueth to worche; therfor come ye in these, and `be ye heelid, and not in the daie of sabat. 15 But the Lord answeride to hym, and seide, Ypocrite, whether ech of you vntieth not in the sabat his oxen, or asse, fro the cratche, and ledith to watir? 16 Bihofte it not this douytir of Abraham, whom Satanas hath boundun, lo! eytetene yeeis, to be vnboundun of this boond in the dai of the sabat? 17 And whanne he seide these thingis, alle hise aduersaries weren aschamed, and al the puple ioiede in alle thingis, that weren gloriousli don of hym. 18 Therfor he seide, To what thing is the kyngdom of God lijk? and to what thing schal Y gesse it to be lijk? 19 It is lijk to a corn of seneuey, which a man took, and cast in to his yerd; and it wax, and was maad in to a greet tree, and fousls of the eire restiden in the braunchis therof. 20 And eft soone he seide, To what thing schal Y gesse the kyngdom of God lijk? 21 It is lijk to sourdow, that a womman took, and hidde it `in to thre mesuris of mele, til al were sourid. 22 And he wente bi citees and castels, techynge and makynge a iourney in to Jerusalem. 23 And a man seide to hym, Lord, if there ben fewe, that ben saued? And he seide to hem, 24 Stryue ye to entre bi the streite yate; for Y seie to you, many seken to entre, and thei schulen not mowe. 25 For whanne the hosebonde man is entrid, and the dore is closid, ye schulen bigynne to stonde with out forth, and knocke at the dore, and seie, Lord, opyn to vs. And he schal answeren, and seie to you, Y knowe you not, of whennus ye ben. 26 Thanne ye schulen bigynne to seye, We han etun bifor thee and drunkun, and in oure streetis thou hast tauyt. 27 And he schal seie to you, Y know you not, of whennus ye ben; go awei fro me, alle ye worcheris of wickidnesse. 28 There schal be wepyng and gruntyng of teeth, whanne ye schulen se Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and alle the prophetis in the kyngdom of God; and you to be put out. 29 And thei schulen come from the eest and west, and fro the north and south, and schulen sitte `at the mete in the rewme of God. 30 And lo! thei that weren the firste, ben the laste; and thei that weren the laste, ben the firste. 31 In that day sum of the Farisees camen nyy, and seiden to hym, Go out, and go fro thennus, for Eroude wole sle thee. 32 And he seide to hem, Go ye, and seie to that foxe, Lo! Y caste out feendis, and Y make perfilti heelthis, to dai and to morew, and the thridde dai Y am endid. 33 Netheles it bihoueth me to dai, and to morewe, and the dai that sueth, to walke; for it fallith not a profete to perische out of Jerusalem. 34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that sleest profetis, and stonest hem that ben sent to thee, hou ofte wolde Y gadre togider thi sones, as a brid gaderith his nest vndur fethris, and thou woldist not. 35 Lo! youre hous schal be left to you desert. And Y seie to you, that ye schulen not se me, til it come, whanne ye schulen seie, Blessid is he, that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it was don, whanne he hadde entrid in to the hous of a prince of Farisees, in the sabat, to ete breed, thei

aspieden hym. 2 And lo! a man sijk in the dropesie was bifor hym. 3 And Jhesus answerynge spak to the wise men of lawe, and to the Farisees, and seide, Whether it is leeuful to heele in the sabat? 4 And thei helden pees. And Jhesus took, and heelide hym, and let hym go. 5 And he answeride to hem, and seide, Whos asse or oxe of you schal falle in to a pit, and `he schal not anoon drawe hym out in the dai of the sabat? 6 And thei myyten not answer to hym to these thingis. 7 He seide also a parable to men bodun to a feeste, and biheld hou thei chesen the first sittynge placis, and seide to hem, 8 Whanne thou art bodun to bridalys, sitte not `at the mete in the firste place; lest peraurenture a worthier than thou be bodun of hym, 9 and lest he come that clepide thee and hym, and seie to thee, Yyue place to this, and thanne thou schalt bigynne with schame to holde the lowest place. 10 But whanne thou art bedun to a feste, go, and sitte down in the laste place, that whanne he cometh, that bad thee to the feeste, he seie to thee, Freend, come hiyer. Thanne worschip schal be to thee, bifor men that sitten at the mete. 11 For ech that enhaunsith hym, schal be lowid; and he that meketh hym, schal be hiyed. 12 And he seide to hym, that hadde bodun hym to the feeste, Whanne thou makist a mete, or a soper, nyle thou clepe thi freendis, nether thi britheren, nethir cosyns, nethir neyboris, ne riche men; lest peraurenture thei bidde thee ayen to the feeste, and it be yolde ayen to thee. 13 But whanne thou makist a feeste, clepe pore men, 14 feble, crokid, and blynde, and thou schalt be blessid; for thei han not wherof to yelde thee, for it schal be yoldun to thee in the risynge ayen of iust men. 15 And whanne oon of hem that saten togider at the mete hadde herd these thingis, he seide to hym, Blessid is he, that schal ete breed in the rewme of God. 16 And he seide to hym, A man made a greet soper, and clepide many. 17 And he sent his seruauant in the our of soper, to seie to men that weren bodun to the feeste, that thei schulden come, for now alle thingis ben redi. 18 And alle bigunnen togidir to excusen hem. The firste seide, Y haue bouyt a toun, and Y haue nede to go out, and se it; Y preye thee, haue me excusid. 19 And the tother seide, Y haue bouyt fyue yockis of oxun, and Y go to preue hem; Y preye thee, haue me excusid. 20 And an othir seide, Y haue weddid a wijf; and therfor Y may not come. 21 And the seruauant turnede ayen, and tolde these thingis to his lord. Thanne the hosebonde man was wrooth, and seide to his seruauant, Go out swithe in to the grete stretis and smal stretis of the citee, and brynge ynne hidir pore men, and feble, blynde, and crokid. 22 And the seruauant seide, Lord, it is don, as thou hast comaundid, and yit there is a void place. 23 And the lord seide to the seruauant, Go out in to weies and heggis, and constreine men to entre, that myn hous be fulfillid. 24 For Y seie to you, that noon of the men that ben clepid, schal taaste my soper. 25 And myche puple wenten with hym; and he turnede, and seide to hem, 26 If ony man cometh to me, and hatith not his fadir, and modir, and wijf, and sones, and britheren, and sistris, and yit his owne lijf, he may not be my disciple. 27 And he that berith not his cross, and cometh aftir me, may not be my disciple. 28 For who of you willynge to bilde a toure, whether he `first sitte not, and counthith the spensis that ben nedeful, if he haue to perfourme? 29 Lest aftir that he hath set the foundement, and mowe not perfourme, alle that seen, bigynnen to scorne hym, and seie, For this man bigan to bilde, 30 and myyte not make an ende. 31 Or what kyng that wole go to do a bataile ayens anothir kyng, whether he sittith not first, and bithenkich, if he may with ten thousynde go ayens hym that cometh ayens hym with twenti thousynde? 32 Ellis yit while he is afer, he sendynge a messenger, preieth tho thingis that ben of pees. 33 So therfor ech of you, that forsakith not alle thingis that he hath, may not be my disciple. 34 Salt is good; but if salt vanysche, in what thing schal it be sauerid? 35 Nethir in erthe, nethir in donghille it is profitable, but it schal be cast out. He that hath eeris of herynge, here he.

15 And pupplicans and synful men weren neyynge to him, to here hym. 2 And the Farisees and scribis grutchiden, seiynge, For this resseyueth synful men, and etith with hem. 3 And he spak to hem this parable, 4 and seide, What man of you that hath an hundrith scheep, and if he hath lost oon of hem, whethir he leeueth not nynti and nyne in desert, and goith to it that perischide, til he fynde it? 5 And whanne he hath foundun it, he ioieth, and leyith it on hise schuldris; and he cometh hoom, 6 and clepith togidir hise freendis and neyboris, and seith to hem, Be ye glad with me, for Y haue founde my scheep, that hadde perischid. 7 And Y seie to you, so ioie schal be in heuene on o synful man doynge penaunce, more than on nynti and nyne iuste, that han no nede to penaunce. 8 Or what womman hauynge ten besauntis, and if sche hath lost oo besaunt, whether sche teendith not a lanterne, and turneth vpsodoun the hows, and sekith diligenti, til that sche fynde it? 9 And whanne sche hath foundun, sche clepith togidir freendis and neyboris, and seith, Be ye glad with me, for Y haue founde the besaunt, that Y hadde lost. 10 So Y seie to you, ioie schal be bifor aungels of God on o synful man doynge penaunce. 11 And he seide, A man hadde twei sones; 12 and the yonger of hem seide to the fadir, Fadir, yyue me the porcioun of catel, that fallith to me. And he departide to hem the catel. 13 And not aftir many daies, whanne alle thingis weren gederid togider, the yonger sone wente forth in pilgrymage in to a fer cuntre; and there he wastide hise goodis in lyuynge lecherously. 14 And aftir that he hadde endid alle thingis, a strong hungre was maad in that cuntre, and he bigan to haue nede. 15 And he wente, and drouy hym to oon of the citeseys of that cuntre. And he sente hym in to his toun, to fede swyn. 16 And he coueitide to fille his wombe of the coddis that the hoggis eeten, and no man yaf hym. 17 And he turnede ayen to hym silf, and seide, Hou many hirid men in my fadir hous han plente of looues; and Y perische here thorouy hungir. 18 Y schal rise vp, and go to my fadir, and Y schal seie to hym, Fadir, Y haue synned in to heuene, and bifor thee; 19 and now Y am not worthi to be clepid thi sone, make me as oon of thin hirid men. 20 And he roos vp, and cam to his fadir. And whanne he was yit afer, his fadir saiy hym, and was stirrid bi mercy. And he ran, and fel on his necke, and kisside hym. 21 And the sone seide to hym, Fadir, Y haue synned in to heuene, and bifor thee; and now Y am not worthi to be clepid thi sone. 22 And the fadir seide to hise seruauantis, Swithe brynge ye forth the firste stoole, and clothe ye hym, and yyue ye a ryng in his hoonde, 23 And schoon on hise feet; and brynge ye a fat calf, and sle ye, and ete we, and make we feeste. 24 For this my sone was deed, and hath lyued ayen; he perischid, and is foundun. And alle men bigunnen to ete. 25 But his eldere sone was in the feeld; and whanne he cam, and neiyede to the hous, he herde a symfonye and a croude. 26 And he clepide oon of the seruautis, and axide, what these thingis weren. 27 And he seide to hym, Thi brother is comun, and thi fadir slewe a fat calf, for he resseyuede hym saaf. 28 And he was wrooth, and wolde not come in. Therfor his fadir wente out, and bigan to preye hym. 29 And he answerde to his fadir, and seide, Lo! so many yeeris Y serue thee, and Y neuer brak thi comaundement; and thou neuer yaf to me a kidde, that Y with my freendis schulde haue etc. 30 But affir that this thi sone, that hath deuourid his substaunce with horis, cam, thou hast slayn to hym a fat calf. 31 And he seide to hym, Sone, thou art euer more with me, and alle my thingis ben thine. 32 But it bihofte for to make feeste, and to haue ioye; for this thi brother was deed, and lyuede ayen; he perischide, and is foundun.

16 He seide also to hise disciplis, Ther was a riche man, that hadde a bailli; and this was defamed to him, as he hadde wastid his goodis. 2 And he clepide hym, and seide to hym, What here Y this thing of thee? yelde recknyng of thi bailli, for thou mygte not now be bailli. 3 And the bailli seide with ynnie him self, What schal Y do, for my lord takith awei fro me the bailli? delfe mai Y not, I schame to begge. 4 Y woot what Y schal do, that whanne Y am remeued fro the bailli, thei resseyue me in to her hous. 5 Therfor whanne alle the dettours of his lord weren clepid togider, he seide to the firste, Hou myche owist thou to my lord? 6 And he seide, An hundrid barelis of oyle. And he seide to hym, Take thi caucioun, and sitte soone, and write fifti. 7 Aftirward he seide to another, And hou myche owist thou? Which answerde, An hundrid coris of wheate. And he seide to hym, Take thi lettris, and write foure scoore. 8 And the lord preiseide the bailli of wickidnesse, for he hadde do prudentli; for the sones of this world ben more prudent in her generacioun than the sones of liyt. (aiōn g165) 9 And Y seie to you, make ye to you freendis of the ritchesse of wickidnesse, that whanne ye schulen fayle, thei resseyue you in to euerlastyng tabernaclis. (aiōnios g166) 10 He that is trewe in the leeste thing, is trewe also in the more; and he that is wickid in a litil thing, is wickid also in the more. 11 Therfor if ye weren not trewe in the wickid thing of ritchesse, who schal bitake to you that that is verry? 12 And if ye weren not trewe in othere mennus thing, who schal yyue to you that that is youre? 13 No seruaut may serue to twei lordis; for ether he schal hate `the toon, and loue the tothir; ethir he schal drawe to `the toon, and schal dispise the tothir. Ye moun not serue to God and to ritchesse. 14 But the Farisees, that weren coueytous, herden alle these thingis, and thei scorneden hym. 15 And he seide to hem, Ye it ben, that iustifien you bifor men; but God hath knowun youre hertis, for that that is hy to men, is abhymynacioun bifor God. 16 The lawe and prophētis til to Joon; fro that tyme the rewme of God is euangelisid, and ech man doith violence in to it. 17 Forsothe it is liyter heuene and erthe to passe, than that o titil falle fro the lawe. 18 Euery man that forsakith his wijf, and weddith an other, doith letcherie; and he that weddith the wijf forsakun of the hosebonde, doith auowtrie. 19 There was a riche man, and was clothid in purpur, and whit silk, and eete euery dai schynyngli. 20 And there was a begger, Lazarus bi name, that lai at his yate ful of bilis, 21 and coueide to be fulfillid of the crummes, that fellen down fro the riche mannus boord, and no man yaf to hym; but houndis camen, and lickiden hise bilis. 22 And it was don, that the begger diede, and was borun of aungels in to Abrahams bosum. And the riche man was deed also, 23 and was biried in helle. And he reiseide hise iyen, whanne he was in turmentis, and say Abraham afer, and Lazarus in his bosum. (Hadēs g86) 24 And he criede, and seide, Fadir Abraham, haue merci on me, and sende Lazarus, that he dippe the ende of his fyngur in watir, to kele my tunge; for Y am turmentid in this flawme. 25 And Abraham seide to hym, Sone, haue mynde, for thou hast resseyued good thingis in thi lijf, and Lazarus also yuel thingis; but he is now coumfortid, and thou art turmentid. 26 And in alle these thingis a greet derk place is stabilschid betwixe vs and you; that thei that wolen fro hennus passe to you, moun not, nethir fro thennus passe ouer hidur. 27 And he seide, Thanne Y preie thee, fadir, that thou sende hym in to the hous of my fadir. 28 For Y haue fyue britheren, that he witnesse to hem, lest also thei come in to this place of turmentis. 29 And Abraham seide to him, Thei han Moyses and the prophetis; here thei hem. 30 And he seide, Nay, fadir Abraham, but if ony of deed men go to hem, thei schulen do penaunce. 31 And he seide to hym, If thei heren not Moises and prophetis, nethir if ony of deed men rise ayen, thei schulen bileue to hym.

17 And Jhesu seide to hise disciplis, It is impossible that sclaudris come not; but wo to that man, bi whom thei comen. 2 It is more profitable to him, if a mylne stoon be put aboute his necke, and he be cast in to the see, than that he sclandre oon of these litte. 3 Take ye hede you self; if thi brothir hath synned ayens thee, blame hym; and if he do penaunce, forgyue hym. 4 And if seue sithis in the dai he do synne ayens thee, and seue sithis in the dai he be conuertid to thee, and seie, It forthenkith me, forgyue thou hym. 5 And the apostlis seiden to the Lord, Encrese to vs feith. 6 And the Lord seide, If ye han feith as the corn of seneue, ye schulen seie to this more tre, Be thou drawun vp bi the rote, and be ouerplauntid in to the see, and it schal obeie to you. 7 But who of you hath a seruaut erynge, or lesewinge oxis, which seith to hym, whanne he turneth ayen fro the feeld, Anoon go, and sitte to mete; 8 and seith not to hym, Make redi, that Y soupe, and girde thee, and serue me, while Y ete and drynke, and aftir this thou schalt ete and drynke; 9 whether he hath grace to that seruaut, for he dide that that he comaundide hym? 10 Nay, Y gesse. So ye, whanne ye han don alle thingis that ben comaundid to you, seie ye, We ben vnprofitable seruautis, we han do that that we ouyten to do. 11 And it was do, the while Jhesus wente in to Jerusalem, he passide thorou the myddis of Samarie, and

Galilee. 12 And whanne he entride in to a castel, ten leprouse men camen ayens hym, whiche stoden afer, 13 and reiseden her voys, and seiden, Jhesu, comaundoure, haue merci on vs. 14 And as he say hem, he seide, Go ye, `schewe ye you to the prestis. And it was don, the while thei wenten, thei weren clensid. 15 And oon of hem, as he saiþ that he was clensid, wente ayen, magnifynge God with grete voys. 16 And he fel doun on the face bfore hise feet, and dide thankyngis; and this was a Samaritan. 17 And Jhesus answerde, and seide, Whether ten ben not clensid, and where ben the nyne? 18 There is noon foundun, that turnede ayen, and yaf glorie to God, but this alien. 19 And he seide to hym, Rise vp, go thou; for thi feith hath maad thee saaf. 20 And he was axid of Farisees, whanne the rewme of God cometh. And he answerde to hem, and seide, The rewme of God cometh not with aspiying, 21 nether thei schulen seie, Lo! here, or lo there; for lo! the rewme of God is with ynne you. 22 And he seide to hise disciplis, Daies schulen come, whanne ye schulen desire to se o dai of mannus sone, and ye schulen not se. 23 And thei schulen seie to you, Lo! here, and lo there. Nyle ye go, nether sue ye; 24 for as leyt schynynge from vndur heuene schyneth in to tho thingis that ben vndur heuene, so schal mannus sone be in his dai. 25 But first it bihoueth hym to suffre many thingis, and to be repreued of this generacioun. 26 And as it was doon in the daies of Noe, so it schal be in the daies of mannys sone. 27 Thei eeten and drunkun, weddiden wyues, and weren youun to weddyngis, til in to the dai in the wych Noe entride in to the schip; and the greet flood cam, and loste alle. 28 Also as it was don in the daies of Loth, thei eeten and drunkun, bouyten and seelden, plauntiden and bildiden; but the dai that Loth wente out of Sodome, 29 the Lord reynede fier and brymston fro heuene, and loste alle. 30 Lijk this thing it schal be, in what dai mannys sone schal be schewid. 31 In that our he that is in the roof, and his vessels in the hous, come he not doun to take hem awei; and he that schal be in the feeld, also turne not ayen bihynde. 32 Be ye myndeful of the wijf of Loth. 33 Who euer seketh to make his lijf saaf, schal leese it; and who euer leesith it, schal quykene it. 34 But Y seie to you, in that nytt twei schulen be in o bed, oon schal be takun, and the tothir forsakun; 35 twei wymmen schulen be gryndynge togidir, `the toon schal be takun, and `the tother forsakun; twei in a feeld, `the toon schal be takun, and `the tother left. 36 Thei answeren, and seien to hym, Where, Lord? 37 Which seide to hym, Where euer the bodi schal be, thidur schulen be gaderid togidere also the eglis.

18 And he seide to hem also a parable, that it bihoueth to preye euer more, and not faile; 2 and seide, There was a iuge in a citee, that dredde not God, nether schamede of men. 3 And a widowe was in that citee, and sche cam to hym, and seide, Venge me of myn aduersarie; 4 and he wolde not longe tyme. But afir these thingis he seide with ynne hym silf, Thouy Y drede not God, and schame not of man, 5 netheles for this widewe is heuy to me, Y schal venge hir; lest at the laste sche comynge condempne me. 6 And the Lord seide, Here ye, what the domesman of wickidnesse seith; 7 and whether

God schal not do veniaunce of hise chosun, cryynge to hym dai and nytt, and schal haue pacience in hem? 8 Sotheli Y seie to you, for soone he schal do veniaunce of hem. Netheles gessist thou, that mannus sone comynge schal fynde feith in erthe? 9 And he seide also to sum men, that tristiden in hem silf, as thei weren riytful, and dispiseden othere, this parable, 10 seiynge, Twei men wenten vp in to the temple to preye; the toon a Farisee, and the tother a puppican. 11 And the Farisee stood, and preiede bi hym silf these thingis, and seide, God, Y do thankyngis to thee, for Y am not as other men, raueinouris, vniust, auouteris, as also this puppican; 12 Y faste twies in the woke, Y yyue titlis of alle thingis that Y haue in possessioun. 13 And the puppican stood afer, and wolde nether reise hise iyen to heuene, but smoot his brest, and seide, God be merciful to me, synnere. 14 Treuli Y seie to you, this yede doun in to his hous, and was iustified fro the other. For ech that enhaunsith hym, schal be maad low, and he that mekith hym, schal be enhaunsid. 15 And thei brouyten to hym yonge children, that he schulde touche hem; and whanne the disciplis saien this thing, thei blameden hem. 16 But Jhesus clepide togider hem, and seide, Suffre ye children to come to me, and nyle ye forbede hem, for of siche is the kyngdom of heuenes. 17 Treuli Y seie to you, who euer schal not take the kyngdom of God as a child, he schal not entre in to it. 18 And a prince axide hym, and seide, Goode maister, in what thing doynge schal Y weilde euerlastynge lijf? (aiōnios g166) 19 And Jhesus seide to hym, What seist thou me good? No man is good, but God aloone. 20 Thou knowist the comaundementis, Thou schalt not sle, Thou schalt not do letcherie, Thou schalt not do theft, Thou schalt not seie fals witnessyng, Worschipe thi fadir and thi modir. 21 Which seide, Y haue kept alle these thingis fro my yongthe. 22 And whanne this thing was herd, Jhesus seide to hym, Yit o thing failith `to thee; sille thou alle thingis that thou hast, and yyue to pore men, and thou schalt haue tresour in heuene; and come, and sue thou me. 23 Whanne these thingis weren herd, he was soferul, for he was ful ryche. 24 And Jhesus seyng hym maad sorie, seide, How hard thei that han money schulen entre in to the kyngdom of God; 25 for it is liyer a camel to passe thorou a nedlis iye, than a riche man to entre in to the kyngdom of God. 26 And thei that herden these thingis seiden, Who may be maad saaf? 27 And he seide to hem, Tho thingis that ben impossible anentis men, ben possible anentis God. 28 But Petir seide, Lo! we han left alle thingis, and han sued thee. 29 And he seide to hym, Treuli Y seie to you, there is no man that schal forsake hous, or fadir, modir, or britheren, or wijf, or children, or feeldis, for the rewme of God, 30 and schal not resseyue many mo thingis in this tyme, and in the world to comynge euerlastynge lijf. (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 31 And Jhesus took hise twelue disciplis, and seide to hem, Lo! we gon vp to Jerusalem, and alle thingis schulen be endid, that ben writun bi the prophetis of mannus sone. 32 For he schal be bitraied to hethen men, and he schal be scorned, and scourgid, and bispat; 33 and afir that thei han scourgid, thei schulen sle hym, and the thridde dai he schal rise ayen. 34 And thei vndurstoden no thing of these; and this word was hid fro hem, and thei vndurstoden not tho thingis that weren seid. 35 But it was don, whanne Jhesus cam nny to Jerico, a blynde man sat bisidis the weie, and beggide. 36 And whanne he herde the puple passynge, he axide, what this was. 37 And thei seiden to hym, that Jhesus of Nazareth passide. 38 And he criede, and seide, Jhesu, the sone of Dauyd, haue mercy on me. 39 And thei that wenten bifor blamyden hym, that he schulde be stille; but he criede myche the more, Thou sone of Dauid, haue mercy on me. 40 And Jhesus stood, and comaundide hym to be brouyt forth to hym. And whanne he cam nny, he axide hym, 41 and seide, What wolt thou that Y schal do to thee? And he seide, Lord, that Y se. 42 And Jhesus seide to hym, Bihold; thi feith hath maad thee saaf. 43 And anon he say, and sude hym, and magnyfiede God. And al the puple, as it say, yaf heri yng to God.

19 And Jhesus `goyng y n, walkide thorou Jericho. 2 And lo! a man, Sache bi name, and this was a prince of pupplicans, and he was riche. 3 And he souyte to se Jhesu, who he was, and he myyte not, for the puple, for he was liti in stature. 4 And he ran bfore, and stiyede in to a sicomoure tree, to se hym; for he was to passe fro thennus. 5 And Jhesus biheld vp, whanne he cam to the place, and saiy hym, and seide to hym, Sache, haste thee, and come doun, for to dai Y mot dwelle in thin hous. 6 And he hiyng cam doun, and ioi yng resseyuede hym. 7 And whanne alle men sayn, thei grutchiden sei yng, For he hadde turned to a synful man. 8 But Sache stood, and seide to the Lord, Lo! Lord, Y yyue the half of my good to pore men; and if Y haue any thing defraudid any man, Y yelde foure so myche. 9 Jhesus seith to hym, For to dai heelthe is maad to this hous, for that he is Abrahams sone; 10 for mannus sone cam to seke, and make saaf that thing that perischide. 11 Whanne thei herden these thingis, he addide, and seide a parable, for that he was nny Jerusalem, `and for thei gessiden, that anon the kyngdom of God schulde be schewid. 12 Therfor he seide, A worthi man wente in to a fer cuntre, to take to hym a kyngdom, and to turne ayen. 13 And whanne hise ten seruautis weren clepid, he yaf to hem ten besauntis; and seide to hem, Chaffare ye, til Y come. 14 But hise citeseyns hatiden hym, and senten a messanger afir hym, and seiden, We wolen not, that he regne on vs. 15 And it was don, that he turnede ayen, whan he hadde take the kyngdom; and he comaundide hise seruautis to be clepid, to whiche he hadde yyue monei, to wite, hou myche ech hadde wonne bi chaffaryng. 16 And the firste cam, and seide, Lord, thi besaunt hath wonne ten besauntis. 17 He seide to hym, Wel be, thou good seruaunt; for in liti thing thou hast be trewe, thou schalt be hauyng power on ten citees. 18 And the tother cam, and seide, Lord, thi besaunt hath maad fyue besauntis. 19 And to this he seide, And be thou on fyue citees. 20 And the thridde cam, and seide, Lord, lo! thi besaunt, that Y hadde, put vp in a sudarie. 21 For Y dredde thee, for thou art `a sterne man; thou takist away that that thou settidist not, and thou repist that that thou hast not sowun. 22 He seith to hym, Wickid seruaunt, of thi mouth Y deme thee. Wistist thou, that Y am `a sterne man, takyng awei that thing that Y settide not, and repyng ethat thing that Y sewe not? 23 and whi hast thou not youun my money to the bord, and Y comyng schulde haue axid it with vsuris? 24 And he seide to men stondyng nny, Take ye awei fro hym the besaunt, and yyue ye to hym that hath ten beyauntis: 25 And thei seiden to hym, Lord, he hath ten besauntis. 26 And Y seie to you, to ech man that hath, it schal be youun, and he schal encrease; but fro him that hath not, also that thing that he hath, schal be takun of hym. 27 Netheles bryng ye hidur tho myn enemyes, that wolden not that Y regnede on hem, and sle ye bifor me. 28 And whanne these thingis weren seid, he wente bfore, and yede vp to Jerusalem. 29 And it was don, whanne Jhesus cam nny to Bethfage and Betanye, at the mount, that is clepid of Olyuete, he sente hise twei disciplis, and seide, 30 Go ye in to the castel, that is ayens you; in to which as ye entren, ye schulen fynde a colt of an asse tied, on which neuer man sat; vntyng ye hym, and bryng ye to me. 31 And if ony man axe you, whi ye vntien, thus ye schulen seie to hym, For the Lord desirith his werk. 32 And thei that weren sent, wenten forth, and fonden as he seide to hem, a colt stondyng. 33 And whanne thei vntieden the colt, the lordis of hym seiden to hem, What vntien ye the colt? 34 And thei seiden, For the Lord hath nede to hym. 35 And thei ledden hym to Jhesu; and thei castyng her clothis on the colt, setten Jhesu on hym. 36 And whanne he wente, thei strowiden her clothis in the weie. 37 And whanne he cam nny to the comyng doun of the mount of Olyuete, al the puple that cam doun bygunnen to ioie, and to herie God with greet vois on alle the vertues, that thei hadden sayn, 38 and seiden, Blessid be the king, that cometh in the name of the Lord; pees in heuene, and glorie in hiye thingis. 39 And sum of the Farisees of the puple seiden to hym, Maister, blame thi disciplis. 40 And he seide to hem, Y seie to you, for if these ben stille, stoonus schulen crye. 41 And whanne he neiyede, `he sei y the citee, 42 and wepte on it, and seide, For if thou haddist knowun, thou schuldist wepe also; for in this dai the thingis ben in pees to thee, but now thei ben hid fro thin iyen. 43 But daies schulen come in thee, and thin enemyes schulen enuyroun thee with a pale, and thei schulen go aboute thee, and make thee streit on alle sidis, 44 and caste thee doun to the erthe, and thei sones that ben in thee; and thei schulen not leuee in thee a stoon on a stoon, for thou hast not knowun the tyme of thi visitacioun. 45 And he entride in to the temple, and bigan to caste out men sellyng ther inne and biyng, 46 and seide to hem, It is writun, That myn hous is an hous of preyer, but ye han maad it a den of theues. 47 And he was techyng euery dai in the temple. And the princis of prestis, and the scribis, and the princis of the puple souyten to lese hym; 48 and thei founden not, what thei schulden do to hym, for al the puple was ocupied, and herde hym.

20 And it was don in oon of the daies, whanne he tauyte the puple in the temple, and prechide the gospel, the princis of preestis and scribis camen togidere with the elder men; 2 and thei seiden to hym, Seie to vs, in what power thou doist these thingis, or who is he that yaf to thee this power? 3 And Jhesus answeride, and seide to hem, And Y schal axe you o word;

answere ye to me. 4 Was the baptyng of Joon of heuene, or of men? 5 And thei thouyten with ynne hem self, seiyng, For if we seien, Of heuene, he schal seie, Whi thanne bileuen ye not to hym? 6 and if we seien, Of men, al the puple schal stooine vs; for thei ben certeyn, that Joon is a prophete. 7 And thei answeriden, that thei knewen not, of whennus it was. 8 And Jhesus seide to hem, Nether Y seie to you, in what power Y do these thingis. 9 And he bigan to seie to the puple this parable. A man plauntide a vynyerd, and hiride it to tilieris; and he was in pilgrymage longe tyme. 10 And in the tyme of gaderynge of grapis, he sente a seruaut to the tilieris, that thei schulden yyue to hym of the fruyt of the vynyerd; whiche beten hym, and leten hym go void. 11 And he thouyte yit to sende another seruaut; and thei beten this, and turmentiden hym sore, and leten hym go. 12 And he thouyte yit to sende the thridde, and hym also thei woundiden, and castiden out. 13 And the lord of the vynyeyerd seide, What schal Y do? Y schal sende my dereworthe sone; perauenture, whanne thei seen hym, thei schulden drede. 14 And whanne the tilieris sayn hym, thei thouyten with ynne hem self, and seiden, This is the eire, sle we hym, that the eritage be oure. 15 And thei castiden hym out of the vynyeyerd, and killiden hym. What schal thanne the lord of the vynyeyerd do to hem? 16 He schal come, and destruye these tilieris, and yyue the vynyeyerd to othere. And whanne this thing was herd, thei seiden to hym, God forbede. 17 But he bihelde hem, and seide, What thanne is this that is writun, The stoon which men bilydunge repreuden, this is maad in to the heed of the corner? 18 Ech that schal falle on that stoon, schal be to-brisid, but on whom it schal falle, it schal al to-breke him. 19 And the pryncis of prestis, and scribis, souyten to leye on hym hoondis in that our, and thei dredden the puple; for thei knewen that to hem he seide this liknesse. 20 And thei aspieden, and senten aspieris, that feyneden hem iust, that thei schulden take hym in word, and bitaak hym to the `power of the prince, and to the power of the iustice. 21 And thei axiden hym, and seiden, Maister, we witen, that rytli thou seist and techist; and thou takist not the persooone of man, but thou techist in treuthe the weie of God. 22 Is it leueful to vs to yyue tribute to the emperoure, or nay? 23 And he biheld the disseit of hem, and seide to hem, What tempten ye me? 24 Shewe ye to me a peny; whos ymage and superscripcioun hath it? Thei answerden, and seiden to hym, The emperours. 25 And he seide to hem, Yelde ye therfor to the emperoure tho thingis that ben the emperours, and tho thingis that ben of God, to God. 26 And thei myyten not repreue his word bifor the puple; and thei wondriden in his answer, and heelden pees. 27 Summe of the Saduceis, that denyeden the ayenrisyng fro deeth to lijf, camen, and axiden hym, 28 and seiden, Maister, Moises wroot to vs, if the brother of ony man haue a wijf, and be deed, and he was with outen eiris, that his brothir take his wijf, and reise seed to his brother. 29 And so there weren seuene britheren. The firste took a wijf, and is deed with outen eiris; 30 and the brothir suyng took hir, and he is deed with outen sone; 31 and the thridde took hir; also and alle seuene, and leften not seed, but ben deed; 32 and the laste of alle the womman is deed. 33 Therfor in the `risyng ayen, whos wijf of hem schal sche be? for seuene hadden hir to wijf. 34 And Jhesus seide to hem, Sonnes of this world wedden, and ben youn to weddyngis; (aiōn g165) 35 but thei that schulen be had worthi of that world, and of the `risyng ayen fro deeth, nethir ben wedded, (aiōn g165) 36 nethir wedden wyues, nethir schulen mowe die more; for thei ben euen with aungels, and ben the sonnes of God, sithen thei ben the sonnes of `risyng ayen fro deeth. 37 And that deed men risen ayen, also Moises schewide bisidis the busch, as he seith, The Lord God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob. 38 And God is not of deed men, but of lyuyng men; for alle men lyuen to hym. 39 And summe of scribis answeringe, seiden, Maistir, thou hast wel seid. 40 And thei dursten no more axe hym ony thing. 41 But he seide to hem, How seien men, Crist to be the sone of Daud, 42 and Daud hym self seith in the book of Salmes, The Lord seide to my lord, Sitte thou on my riythalf, 43 til that Y putte thin enemyes a stool of thi feet? 44 Therfor Daud clepith hym lord, and hou is he his sone? 45 And in heryng of al the puple, he seide to hise disciplis, 46 Be ye war of scribis, that wolen wandre in stolis, and louen salutaciouns in chepyng, and the firste chaieris in synagogis, and the firste sittynge placis in feestis; 47 that deuouren the housis of widewis, and feynen long preiyng; these schulen take the more dampnacioun.

And it was don, while he sat at the mete with hem, he took breed, and blesside, and brak, and took to hem. 31 And the iyen of hem weren openyd, and thei knewen hym; and he vanyschide fro her iyen. 32 And thei seiden togidir, Whether oure herte was not brennyng in vs, while he spak in the weie, and openyde to vs scripturis? 33 And thei risen vp in the same our, and wenten ayen in to Jerusalem, and founden the enleuene gaderid togidir, and hem that weren with hem, 34 seiynge, That the Lord is risun verrili, and apperide to Symount. 35 And thei tolden what thingis weren don in the weie, and hou thei knewen hym in brekyng of breed. 36 And the while thei spaken these thingis, Jhesus stood in the myddil of hem, and seide to hem, Pees to you; Y am, nyle ye drede. 37 But thei weren affraied and agast, and gessiden hem to se a spirit. 38 And he seide to hem, What ben ye troblid, and thouytis comen vp in to youre hertis? 39 Se ye my hoondis and my feet, for Y my silf am. Fele ye, and se ye; for a spirit hath not fleisch and boоны, as ye seen that Y haue. 40 And whanne he hadde seid this thing, he schewide hoondis and feet to hem. 41 And yit while thei bileueden not, and wondriden for ioye, he seide, Han ye here ony thing that schal be etun? 42 And thei proferden hym a part of a fisch rosid, and an hony combe. 43 And whanne he hadde etun bifore hem, he took that that lefte, and yaf to hem; 44 and seide `to hem, These ben the wordis that Y spak to you, whanne Y was yit with you; for it is nede that alle thingis ben fulfillid, that ben writun in the lawe of Moises, and in prophetis, and in salmes, of me. 45 Thanne he openyde to hem wit, that thei schulden vnderstonde scripturis. 46 And he seide to hem, For thus it is writun, and thus it bihofte Crist to suffre, and ryse ayen fro deeth in the thridde dai; 47 and penaunce and remyssion of synnes to be prechid in his name in to alle folkis, bigynnyng at Jerusalem. 48 And ye ben witnessis of these thingis. 49 And Y schal sende the biheest of my fadir in to you; but sitte ye in the citee, til that ye be clothid with vertu from an hiy. 50 And he ledde hem forth in to Betanye, and whanne his hondis weren lift vp, he blesside hem. 51 And it was don, the while he blesside hem, he departide fro hem, and was borun in to heuene. 52 And thei worschipiden, and wenten ayen in to Jerusalem with greet ioye, 53 and weren euermore in the temple, heriynge and blessynge God.

John

1 In the bigynnyng was the word, and the word was at God, and God was the word. 2 This was in the bigynnyng at God. 3 Alle thingis weren maad bi hym, and withouten hym was maad no thing, that thing that was maad. 4 In hym was lijf, and the lijf was the liyt of men; and the liyt schyneth in derknessis, 5 and derknessis comprehendiden not it. 6 A man was sent fro God, to whom the name was Joon. 7 This man cam in to witnessyng, that he schulde bere witnessyng of the liyt, that alle men schulden bileue bi hym. 8 He was not the liyt, but that he schulde bere witnessyng of the liyt. 9 There was a very liyt, which liytnech ech man that cometh in to this world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was maad bi hym, and the world knew hym not. 11 He cam in to his owne thingis, and hise resseyueden hym not. 12 But hou many euer resseyueden hym, he yaf to hem power to be maad the sones of God, to hem that bileueden in his name; the whiche not of bloodis, 13 nether of the wille of fleische, nether of the wille of man, but ben borun of God. 14 And the word was maad man, and dwellyde among vs, and we han seyn the glorie of hym, as the glorie of the `oon bigetun sone of the fadir, ful of grace and of treuthe. 15 Joon berith witnessyng of hym, and crieth, and seith, This is, whom Y seide, He that schal come afir me, is maad before me, for he was tofor me; 16 and of the plente of hym we alle han takun, and grace for grace. 17 For the lawe was youun bi Moises; but grace and treuthe `is maad bi Jhesu Crist. 18 No man sai euer God, no but the `oon bigetun sone, that is in the bosum of the fadir, he hath told out. 19 And this is the witnessyng of Joon, whanne Jewis senten fro Jerusalem prestis and dekenes to hym, that thei schulden axe hym, Who art thou? 20 He knouelechide, and denyede not, and he knouelechide, For Y am not Crist. 21 And thei axiden hym, What thanne? Art thou Elie? And he seide, Y am not. Art thou a profete? And he answeride, Nay. 22 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Who art thou? that we yyue an answer to these that senten vs. What seist thou of thi silf? 23 He seide, Y am a vois of a crier in deseert, Dresse ye the weie of the Lord, as Ysaie, the prophete, seide. 24 And thei that weren sent, weren of the Fariseis. 25 And thei axiden hym, and seiden to hym, What thanne baptisist thou, if thou art not Crist, nether Elie, nether a profete? 26 Joon answeride to hem, and seide, Y baptise in watir, but in the myddil of you hath stonde oon, that ye known not; 27 he it is, that schal come afir me, that was maad bifor me, of whom Y am not worthi to louse the thwong of his schoo. 28 These thingis weren don in Bethanye biyende Jordan, where Joon was baptisyng. 29 Anothir day Joon say Jhesu comyng to hym, and he seide, Lo! the lomb of God; lo! he that doith awei the synnes of the world. 30 This is he, that Y seide of, Afir me is comun a man, which was maad bifor me; for he was rather than Y. 31 And Y knew hym not, but that he be schewid in Israel, therfor Y cam baptisyng in watir. 32 And Joon bar witnessyng, and seide, That Y sai the spirit comyng down as a culuer fro heuene, and dwellide on hym. 33 And Y knew hym not; but he that sente me to baptise in watir, seide to me, On whom thou seest the Spirit comyng down, and dwellyng on hym, this is he, that baptisith in the Hooli Goost. 34 And Y say, and bar witnessyng, that this is the sone of God. 35 Anothir dai Joon stood, and tweyne of hise disciplis; 36 and he biheeld Jhesu walkinge, and seith, Lo! the lomb of God. 37 And twei disciplis herden hym spekyng, 38 and folewiden Jhesu. And Jhesu turnede, and say hem suyng hym, and seith to hem, What seken ye? And thei seiden to hym, Rabi, that is to seie, Maistir, where dwellest thou? 39 And he seith to hem, Come ye, and se. And thei camen, and sayn where he dwellide; and dwelten with hym that dai. And it was as the tenthe our. 40 And Andrewe, the brother of Symount Petir, was oon of the tweyne, that herden of Joon, and hadden sued hym. 41 This foond first his brother Symount, and he seide to him, We han foundun Messias, that is to seie, Crist; and he ledde him to Jhesu. 42 And Jhesus bihelde hym, and seide, Thou art Symount, the sone of Johanna; thou schalt be clepid Cefas, that is to seie, Petre. 43 And on the morewe he wolde go out in to Galilee, and he foond Filip; and he seith to hym, Sue thou me. 44 Filip was of Bethsaida, the citee of Andrew and of Petre. 45 Filip foond Nathanael, and seide to hym, We han foundun Jhesu, the sone of Joseph, of Nazareth, whom Moyses wroot in the lawe and profetis. 46 And Nathanael seide to hym, Of Nazareth may sum good thing be? 47 Filip seide to hym, Come, and se. Jhesus siy Nathanael comyng to hym, and seide to hym, Lo! verili a man of Israel, in whom is no gile. 48 Nathanael seide to hym, Wherof hast thou knowun me? Jhesus `answerde, and seide to hym, Bifor that Filip clepide thee, whanne thou were vndur the fige tree, Y saiye thee. Nathanael answerde to hym, 49 `and seide, Rabi, thou art the sone of God, thou art kyng of Israel. 50 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, For Y seide to thee, Y sawy thee vndur the fige tre, thou bileuest; thou schalt se more than these thingis. 51 And he seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, ye schulen se heuene opened, and the aungels of God styngye vp and comyng down on mannys sone.

2 And the thridde dai weddyngs weren maad in the Cane of Galilee; and the modir of Jhesu was there. 2 And Jhesus was clepid, and hise disciplis, to the weddyngis. 3 And whanne wijn failide, the modir of Jhesu seide to hym, Thei han not wijn. 4 And Jhesus seith to hir, What to me and to thee, womman? myn our cam not yit. 5 His modir seith to the mynystis, What euere thing he seie to you, do ye. 6 And there weren set `sixe stonun cannes, afir the clensyng of the Jewis, holdyng ech tweyne ether thre metretis. 7 And Jhesus seith to hem, Fille ye the pottis with watir. And thei filliden hem, vp to the mouth. 8 And Jhesus seide to hem, Drawe ye now, and bere ye to the architriclyn. And thei baren. 9 And whanne the architriclyn hadde tastid the watir maad wiyn, and wiste not wherof it was, but the mynystis wisten that drowen the watir, the architriclyn clepith the spouse, 10 and seith to hym, Ech man settith first good wiyn, and whanne men ben fulfillid, thanne that that is worse; but thou hast kept the good wiyn `in to this tyme. 11 Jhesus dide this the bigynnyng of signes in the Cane of Galilee, and schewide his glorie; and hise disciplis bileueden in hym. 12 Afir these things he cam down to Cafarnaum, and his modir, and hise britheren, and hise disciplis; and thei dwelliden there not many daies. 13 And the pask of Jewis was nyy, and Jhesus wente vp to Jerusalem. 14 And he foond in the temple men sillynge oxun, and scheep, and culueris, and chaungeris sittynge. 15 And whanne he hadde maad as it were a scourge of smale cordis, he droof out alle of the temple, and oxun, and scheep; and he schedde the money of chaungeris, and turnede vpsedown the boordis. 16 And he seide to hem that selden culueris, Take awei fro hennus these things, and nyle ye make the hous of my fadir an hous of marchaundise. 17 And hise disciplis hadden mynde, for it was writun, The feruent loue of thin hous hath etun me. 18 Therfor the Jewis answeriden, and seiden to hym, What token schewist thou to vs, that thou doist these things? 19 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Vrdo ye this temple, and in thre daies Y schal reise it. 20 Therfor the Jewis seiden to hym, In fourti and sixe yeer this temple was bildid, and schalt thou in thre daies reise it? 21 But he seide of the temple of his bodi. 22 Therfor whanne he was risun fro deeth, hise disciplis hadden mynde, that he seide these things of his bodi; and thei bileuden to the scripture, and to the word that Jhesus seide. 23 And whanne Jhesus was at Jerusalem in pask, in the feeste dai, many bileueden in his name, seyng his signes that he dide. 24 But Jhesus trowide not hym silf to hem, for he knewe alle men; 25 and for it was not nede to hym, that ony man schulde bere witnessyng, for he wiste, what was in man.

3 And there was a man of the Farisees, Nychodeme bi name, a prince of the Jewis. 2 And he cam to Jhesu bi niyt, and seide to hym, Rabi, we witen, that thou art comun fro God maister; for no man may do these signes, that thou doist, but God be with hym. 3 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, but a man be borun ayen, he may not se the kyngdom of God. 4 Nychodeme seide to hym, Hou may a man be borun, whanne he is eeld? whether he may entre ayen in to his modris wombe, and be borun ayen? 5 Jhesus answerde, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, but a man be borun ayen of watir, and of the Hooli Goost, he may not entre in to the kyngdom of God. 6 That that is borun of the fleisch, is fleisch; and that that is borun of spirit, is spirit. 7 Wondre thou not, for Y seide to thee, It bihoueth you to be borun ayen. 8 The spirit brethith where he wole, and thou herist his vois, but thou wost not, fro whennus he cometh, ne whidir he goith; so is ech man that is borun of the spirit. 9 Nychodeme answerde, and seide to hym, Hou moun these things be don? 10 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, Thou art a maister in Israel, and knowist not these things? 11 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, for we speken that that we witen, and we witnessen that that we han seyn, and ye taken not oure witnessyng. 12 If Y haue seid to you ertheli things, and ye bileuen not, hou if Y seie to you heueneli things, schulen ye bileue? 13 And no man stieth in to heuene, but he that cam down fro heuene, mannys sone that is in heuene. 14 And as Moises areride a serpent in desert, so it bihoueth mannys sone to be reisd, 15 that ech man that bileueth in hym, perische not, but haue euerlastynge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 16 For God louede so the world, that he yaf his `oon

bigetun sone, that ech man that bileueth in him perische not, but haue euerlastynge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 17 For God sente not his sone in to the world, that he iuge the world, but that the world be saued bi him. 18 He that bileueth in hym, is not demed; but he that bileueth not, is now demed, for he bileueth not in the name of the `oon bigetun sone of God. 19 And this is the dom, for liyt cam in to the world, and men loueden more derknessis than liyt; for her werkes weren yuele. 20 For ech man that doith yuele, hatith the liyt; and he cometh not to the liyt, that hise werkis be not repreued. 21 But he that doith treuthes, cometh to the liyt, that hise werkis be schewid, that thei ben don in God. 22 Aftir these things Jhesus cam, and hise disciplis, in to the loond of Judee, and there he dwellide with hem, and baptiside. 23 And Joon was baptisinge in Ennon, bisidis Salym, for many watris weren there; and thei camen, and weren baptisid. 24 And Joon was not yit sent in to prisoun. 25 Therfor a questioun was maad of Jonys disciplis with the Jewis, of the purificacioun. 26 And thei camen to Joon, and seiden to hym, Maister, he that was with thee biyonde Jordan, to whom thou hast borun witnessyng, lo! he baptisith, and alle men comen to hym. 27 Joon answerde, and seide, A man may not take ony thing, but it be youun to hym fro heuene. 28 Ye you silf beren witnessyng to me, that Y seide, Y am not Crist, but that Y am sent bifore hym. 29 He that hath a wijf, is the hosebonde; but the freend of the spouse that stonidith, and herith hym, ioieth with ioie, for the vois of the spouse. Therfor in this thing my ioie is fulfillid. 30 It bihoueth hym to wexe, but me to be maad lesse. 31 He that cam from aboue, is aboue alle; he that is of the erthe, spekith of the erthe; he that cometh from heuene, is aboue alle. 32 And he witnessith that thing that he hath seie, and herde, and no man takith his witnessyng. 33 But he that takith his witnessyng, hath confermyd that God is sothefast. 34 But he whom God hath sent, spekith the wordis of God; for not to mesure God yyueth the spirit. 35 The fadir loueth the sone, and he hath youun alle things in his hoond. 36 He that bileueth in the sone, hath euerlastynge lijf; but he that is vnbeleueful to the sone, schal not se euerlastynge lijf, but the wraththe of God dwellith on hym. (aiōnios g166)

4 Therfor as Jhesu knew, that the Farisees herden, that Jhesu makith and baptisith mo disciplis than Joon, 2 thouy Jhesus baptiside not, but hise disciplis, he lefte Judee, 3 and wente ayen in to Galilee. 4 And it bihofte hym to passe bi Samarie. 5 Therfor Jhesus cam in to a citee of Samarie, that is seid Sicar, bisidis the place, that Jacob yaf to Joseph, his sone. 6 And the welle of Jacob was there; and Jhesus was weri of the journey, and sat thus vpon the welle. And the our was, as it were the sixte. 7 And a womman cam fro Samarie, to drawe watir. And Jhesus seith to hir, Yyue me drynk. 8 And hise disciplis weren gon in to the citee, to bie mete. 9 Therfor tilke womman of Samarie seith to him, Hou thou, `whanne thou art a Jewe, axist of me drynk, that am a womman of Samarie? for Jewis vsiden not to dele with Samaritans. 10 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hir, If thou wistist the yifte of God, and who `he is, that seith to thee, Yyue me drynk, thou perauenture woldist haue axid of hym, and he schulde haue youun to thee quykwatir. 11 The womman seith to him, Sire, thou hast not where ynne to drawe, and the pit is deep; wherof thanne hast thou quik watir? 12 Whethir thou art grettere than oure fadir Jacob, that yaf to vs the pit? and he drank therof, and hise sones, and hise beestis. 13 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hir, Eche man that drynkith of this watir, schal thirste eft soone; 14 but he that drynkith of the watir that Y schal yyue hym, schal not thirste with outen ende; but the watir that Y schal yyue hym, schal be maad in hym a welle `of watir, spryngynge vp in to euerlastynge lijf. (aïōn g165, aïōnios g166) 15 The womman seith to hym, Sire, yyue me this watir, that Y thirste not, nether come hidur to drawe. 16 Jhesus seith to hir, Go, clepe thin hosebonde, and come hidir. 17 The womman answerde, and seide, Y haue noon hosebonde. Jhesus seith to hir, Thou seidist wel, That Y haue noon hosebonde; 18 for thou hast hadde fyue hosebondis, and he that thou hast, is not thin hosebonde. This thing thou seidist sotheli. 19 The womman seith to hym, Lord, Y se, that thou art a prophete. 20 Oure fadris worschipiden in this hil, and ye seien, that at Jerusalem is a place, where it bihoueth to worschipe. 21 Jhesus seith to hir, Womman, bileue thou to me, for the our schal come, whanne nether in this hil, nethir in Jerusalem, ye schulen worschipe the fadir. 22 Ye worschipen that ye knowen not; we worschipen that that we knowen; for helthe is of the Jewis. 23 But the tyme is comun, and now it is, whanne trewe worschiperis schulen worschipe the fadir in spirit and treuthe; for also the fadir sekith suche, that worschipen hym. 24 God is a spirit, and it bihoueth hem that worschipen hym, to worschipe in spirit and treuthe. 25 The womman seith to hym, Y woot that Messias is comun, that is seid Crist; therfor whanne he cometh, he schal telle vs alle thingis. 26 Jhesus seith to hir, Y am he, that spekith with thee. 27 And anon hise disciplis camen, and wondriden, that he spak with the womman; netheles no man seide to hym, What sekist thou, or, What spekest thou with hir? 28 Therfor the womman lefte hir watir pot, and wente in to the citee, and seide to tho men, 29 Come ye, and se ye a man, that seide to me alle thingis that Y haue don; whether he be Crist? 30 And thei wenten out of the citee, and camen to hym. 31 In the mene while hise disciplis prieden hym, and seiden, Maistir, etc. 32 But he seide to hem, Y haue mete to ete, that ye knowen not. 33 Therfor disciplis seiden togidir, Whether ony man hath brouyt him mete to ete? 34 Jhesus seith to hem, My mete is, that Y do the wille of hym that sente me, that Y perfourme the werk of hym. 35 Whether ye seien not, that yit foure monethis ben, and rype corn cometh? Lo! Y seie to you, lifte vp youre iyen, and se ye the feeldis, for now thei ben white to repe. 36 And he that repith takith hire, and gaderith fruyt in to euerlastynge lijf; that bothe he that sowith, and he that repith, haue ioye togidere. (aïōnios g166) 37 In this thing is the word trewe, for anothir is that sowith, and anothir that repith. 38 Y sente you to repe, that that ye `haue not trauelid; `othere men han trauelid, and ye han entrid `in to her trauels. 39 And of that citee many Samaritans bileueden in hym, for the word of the womman, that bare witnessyng, That he seide to me alle thingis that Y haue don. 40 Therfor whanne Samaritans camen to hym, thei prieden hym to dwelle there; and he dwelte there twey daies. 41 And many mo bileueden for his word, 42 and seiden to the womman, That now not for thi speche we bileuen; for we han herd, and we witen, that this is verili the sauour of the world. 43 And aftir twei daies he wente out fro thennus, and wente in to Galilee. 44 And he bar witnessyng, that a profete in his owne cuntre hath noon onour. 45 Therfor whanne he cam in to Galilee, men of Galilee resseyueden hym, whanne thei hadden seyn alle thingis that he hadde don in Jerusalem in the feeste dai; for also thei hadden comun to the feeste dai. 46 Therfor he cam eftsoone in to the Cane of Galile, where he made the watir wiyn. And `a litil kyng was, whos sone was sijk at Cafarnaum. 47 Whanne this hadde herd, that Jhesu schulde come fro Judee in to Galilee, he wente to hym, and preiede hym, that he schulde come down, and heele his sone; for he bigan to die. 48 Therfor Jhesus seide to him, But ye se tokenes and grete wondris, ye bileuen not. 49 The litil kyng seith to hym, Lord, come down, bifor that my sone die. 50 Jhesus seith to hym, Go, thi sone lyueth. The man bileuede to the word, that Jhesus seide to hym, and he wente. 51 And now whanne he cam down, the seruautis camen ayens hym, and telden to hym, and seiden, That his sone lyuede. 52 And he axide of hem the our, in which he was amendid. And thei seiden to hym, For yistirdai in the seuenthe our the feuer lefte him. 53 Therfor the fadir knewe, that thilke our it was, in which Jhesus seide to hym, Thi sone lyueth; and he bileuede, and al his hous. 54 Jhesus dide eft this secounde tokene, whanne he cam fro Judee in to Galilee.

5 Aftir these thingis ther was a feeste dai of Jewis, and Jhesus wente vp to Jerusalem. 2 And in Jerusalem is a waissynge place, that in Ebrew is named Bethsaida, and hath fyue porchis. 3 In these lay a greet multitude of sike men, blynde, crokid, and drie, abidyng the mouyng of the watir. 4 For the aungel `of the Lord cam doun certeyne tymes in to the watir, and the watir was moued; and he that first cam doun in to the susterne, aftir the mouyng of the watir, was maad hool of what euer sijknesse he was holdun. 5 And a man was there, hauyng eiyte and thritti yer in his sikenesse. 6 And whanne Jhesus hadde seyn hym liggyng, and hadde knowun, that he hadde myche tyme, he seith to hym, Wolt thou be maad hool? 7 The sijk man answerde to hym, Lord, Y haue no man, that whanne the watir is moued, to putte me `in to the cisterne; for the while Y come, anothir goith doun bifor me. 8 Jhesus seith to hym, Rise vp, take thi bed, and go. 9 And anon the man was maad hool, and took vp his bed, and wente forth. And it was sabat in that dai. 10 Therfor the Jewis seiden to him that was maad hool, It is sabat, it is not leueful to thee, to take awei thi bed. 11 He answerde to hem, He that made me hool, seide to me, Take thi bed, and go. 12 Therfor thei axiden him, What man `is that, that seide to thee, Take vp thi bed, and go? 13 But he that was maad hool, wiste not who it was. And Jhesus bowide awei fro the puple, that was set in the place. 14 Aftirward Jhesus foond hym in the temple, and seide to hym, Lo! thou art maad hool; now nyle thou do synne, lest any worse thing bifalle to thee. 15 Thilke man wente, and telde to the Jewis, that it was Jhesu that made hym hool. 16 Therfor the Jewis pursueden Jhesu, for he dide this thing in the sabat. 17 And Jhesus answerde to hem,

My fadir worchith til now, and Y worche. 18 Therfor the Jewis souyten more to sle hym, for not oneli he brak the sabat, but he seide that God was his fadir, and made hym euene to God. 19 Therfor Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seye to you, the sone may not of hym silf do any thing, but that thing that he seeth the fadir doynge; for what euere thingis he doith, the sone doith in lijk maner tho thingis. 20 For the fadir loueth the sone, and schewith to hym alle thingis that he doith; and he schal schewe to hym grettere werkis than these, that ye wondren. 21 For as the fadir reischit deed men, and quykeneth, so the sone quykeneth whom he wole. 22 For nethir the fadir iugith any man, but hath youun ech doom to the sone, 23 that alle men onoure the sone, as thei onouren the fadir. He that onourith not the sone, onourith not the fadir that sente hym. 24 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that he that herith my word, and bileueth to hym that sente me, hath euerlastynge lijf, and he cometh not in to doom, but passith fro deeth in to lijf. (aiōnios g166) 25 Treuli, treuli Y seie to you, for the our cometh, and now it is, whanne deed men schulen here the vois of `Goddis sone, and thei that heren, schulen lyue. 26 For as the fadir hath lijf in hym silf, so he yaf to the sone, to haue lijf in him silf; 27 and he yaf to hym power to make doom, for he is mannys sone. 28 Nyle ye wondre this, for the our cometh, in which alle men that ben in birieliis, schulen here the voice of Goddis sone. 29 And thei that han do goode thingis, schulen go in to ayenrisyng of lijf; but thei that han done yuele thingis, in to ayenrisyng of doom. 30 Y may no thing do of my silf, but as Y here, Y deme, and my doom is iust, for Y seke not my wille, but the wille of the fadir that sente me. 31 If Y bere witnessyng of my silf, my witnessyng is not trewe; 32 another is that berith witnessyng of me, and Y woot that his witnessyng is trewe, that he berith of me. 33 Ye senten to Joon, and he bar witnessyng to treuthe. 34 But Y take not witnessyng of man; but Y seie these thingis, that ye be saaf. 35 He was a lanterne brennyng and schynnyng; but ye wolden glade at an our in his liyt. 36 But Y haue more witnessyng than Joon, for the werkis that my fadir yaf to me to perfourme hem, thilke werkis that Y do beren witnessyng of me, that the fadir sente me. 37 And the fadir that sente me, he bar witnessyng of me. Nether ye herden euere his vois, nether ye seien his licesse. 38 And ye han not his word dwellynge in you; for ye byleuen not to hym, whom he sente. 39 Seke ye scripturis, in which ye gessen to haue euerlastynge lijf; and tho it ben, that beren witnessyng of me. (aiōnios g166) 40 And ye wolen not come to me, that ye haue lijf. 41 Y take not clerenesse of men; 42 but Y haue knowun you, that ye han not the loue of God in you. 43 Y cam in the name of my fadir, and ye token not me. If another come in his owne name, ye schulen resseyue hym. 44 Hou moun ye bileue, that resseyuen glorie ech of othere, and ye seken not the glorie `that is of God aloune? 45 Nyle ye gesse, that Y am to accuse you anentis the fadir; it is Moises that accusith you, in whom ye hopen. 46 For if ye bileueden to Moises, perauenture ye schulden bileue also to me; for he wroot of me. 47 But if ye bileuen not to hise lettris, hou schulen ye bileue to my wordis?

6 Afir these thingis Jhesus wente ouere the see of Galilee, that is Tiberias. 2 And a greet multitude suede hym; for thei sayn the tokenes, that he dide on hem that weren sijke. 3 Therfor Jhesus wente in to an hil, and sat there with hise disciplis. 4 And the paske was ful niy, a feeste dai of the Jewis. 5 Therfor whanne Jhesus hadde lift vp hise iyen, and hadde seyn, that a greet multitude cam to hym, he seith to Filip, Wherof schulen we bie looues, that these men ete? 6 But he seide this thing, temptynge hym; for he wiste what he was to do. 7 Filip answerde to hym, The looues of tweyn hundrid pans sufficien not to hem, that ech man take a litil what. 8 Oon of hise disciplis, Andrew, the brothir of Symount Petre, 9 seith to him, A child is here, that hath fyue barli looues and twei fischis; but what ben these among so manye? 10 Therfor Jhesus seith, Make ye hem sitte to the mete. And there was myche hey in the place. And so men saten to the mete, as `fyue thousynde in noumbre. 11 And Jhesus took fyue looues, and whanne he hadde do thankyngis, he departide to men that saten to the mete, and also of the fischis, as myche as thei wolden. 12 And whanne thei weren fillid, he seide to hise disciplis, Gadir ye the relifs that ben left, that thei perischen not. 13 And so thei gadriden, and filliden twelue cofyns of relif of the fyue barli looues and twei fischis, that lefte to hem that hadden etun. 14 Therfor tho men, whanne thei hadden seyn the signe that he hadde don, seiden, For this is verili the profete, that is to come in to the world. 15 And whanne Jhesus hadde knowun, that thei weren to come to take hym, and make hym kyng, he fleiy `aloune eft in to an hille. 16 And whanne euentid was comun, his disciplis wenten doun to the see. 17 And thei wenten vp in to a boot, and thei camen ouer the see in to Cafarnaum. And derknessis weren maad thanne, and Jhesus was not come to hem. 18 And for a greet wynde blew, the see roos vp. 19 Therfor whanne thei hadden rowid as fyue and twenti furlongis or thretti, thei seen Jhesus walkyng on the see, and to be neiy the boot; and thei dredden. 20 And he seide to hem, Y am; nyle ye drede. 21 Therfor thei wolden take hym in to the boot, and anoon the boot was at the loond, to which thei wenten. 22 On `the tother dai the puple, that stood ouer the see, say, that ther was noon othere boot there but oon, and that Jhesu entride not with hise disciplis in to the boot, but hise disciplis aloune wenten. 23 But othere bootis camen fro Tiberias bisidis the place, where thei hadden eetun breed, and diden thankyngis to God. 24 Therfor whanne the puple hadde seyn, that Jhesu was not there, nether hise disciplis, thei wenten vp in to bootis, and camen to Cafarnaum, sekyng Jhesu. 25 And whanne thei hadden foundun hym ouer the see, thei seiden to hym, Rabi, hou come thou hidur? 26 Jhesus answerde to hem, and seide, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, ye seken me, not for ye sayn the myracilis, but for ye eten of looues, and weren fillid. 27 Worche ye not mete that perischith, but that dwelith in to euerlastynge lijf, which mete mannys sone schal yyue to you; for God the fadir hath markid hym. (aiōnios g166) 28 Therfor thei seiden to hym, What schulen we do, that we worche the werkis of God? 29 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, This is the werk of God, that ye bileue to hym, whom he sente. 30 Therfor thei seiden to hym, What tokene thanne doist thou, that we

seen, and bileue to thee? what worchist thou? 31 Oure fadris eeten manna in desert, as it is writun, He yaf to hem breed fro heuene to ete. 32 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, Moyses yaf you not breed fro heuene, but my fadir yyueth you veri breed fro heuene; 33 for it is very breed that cometh down fro heuene, and yyueth lijf to the world. 34 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Lord, euer ye yue vs this breed. 35 And Jhesus seide to hem, Y am breed of lijf; he that cometh to me, schal not hungur; he that bileueth in me, schal neuere thirste. 36 But Y seid to you, that ye han seyn me, and ye bileueden not. 37 Al thing, that the fadir yyueth to me, schal come to me; and Y schal not caste hym out, that cometh to me. 38 For Y cam down fro heuene, not that Y do my wille, but the wille of hym that sente me. 39 And this is the wille of the fadir that sente me, that al thing that the fadir yaf me, Y leese not of it, but ayen reise it in the laste dai. 40 And this is the wille of my fadir that sente me, that ech man that seeth the sone, and bileueth in hym, haue euerlastyng lijf; and Y schal ayen reyse hym in the laste dai. (aiōnios g166) 41 Therfor Jewis grutchiden of hym, for he hadde seid, Y am breed that cam down fro heuene. 42 And thei seiden, Whether this is not Jhesus, the sone of Joseph, whos fadir and modir we han knowun. Hou thanne seith this, That Y cam down fro heuene? 43 Therfor Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Nyle ye grutche togidere. 44 No man may come to me, but if the fadir that sente me, drawe hym; and Y schal ayen reise hym in the laste dai. It is writun in prophetis, 45 And alle men schulen be able for to be tauyt `of God. Ech man that herde of the fadir, and hath lerned, cometh to me. 46 Not for ony man hath sey the fadir, but this that is of God, hath sey the fadir. 47 Sotheli, sotheli, Y seie to you, he that bileueth in me, hath euerlastyng lijf. (aiōnios g166) 48 Y am breed of lijf. 49 Youre fadris eeten manna in desert, and ben deed. 50 This is breed comyng down fro heuene, that if ony man ete therof, he die not. 51 Y am lyuynge breed, that cam down fro heuene. If ony man ete of this breed, he schal lyue withouten ende. And the breed that Y schal yue, is my fleisch for the lijf of the world. (aiōn g165) 52 Therfor the Jewis chidden togidere, and seiden, Hou may this yue to vs his fleisch to ete? 53 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, but ye eten the fleisch of mannus sone, and drenken his blood, ye schulen not haue lijf in you. 54 He that etith my fleisch, and drynkith my blood, hath euerlastyng lijf, and Y schal ayen reise hym in the laste dai. (aiōnios g166) 55 For my fleisch is veri mete, and my blood is very drynk. 56 He that etith my fleisch, and drynkith my blood, dwellith in me, and Y in hym. 57 As my fadir lyuynge sente me, and Y lyue for the fadir, and he that etith me, he schal lyue for me. 58 This is breed, that cam down fro heuene. Not as youre fadris eten manna, and ben deed; he that etith this breed, schal lyue withouten ende. (aiōn g165) 59 He seide these thingis in the synagoge, techyng in Cafarnaum. 60 Therfor many of hise disciplis herynge, seiden, This word is hard, who may here it? 61 But Jhesus witynge at hym silf, that hise disciplis grutchiden of this thing, seide to hem, This thing sclaudrith you? 62 Therfor if ye seen mannus sone styng, where he was bifor? 63 It is the spirit that quykeneth, the fleisch profitith no thing; the wordis that

Y haue spokun to you, ben spirit and lijf. 64 But ther ben summe of you that bileuen not. For Jhesus wiste for the bigynnyng, which weren bileuynge, and who was to bitraye hym. 65 And he seide, Therfor Y seide to you, that no man may come to me, but it were youun to hym of my fadir. 66 Fro this tyme many of hise disciplis wenten abak, and wenten not now with hym. 67 Therfor Jhesus seide to the twelue, Whether ye wolen also go awei? 68 And Symount Petre answerde to hym, Lord, to whom schulen we gon? Thou hast wordis of euerlastyng lijf; (aiōnios g166) 69 and we bileuen, and han knowun, that thou art Crist, the sone of God. 70 Therfor Jhesus answerde to hem, Whether Y chees not you twelue, and oon of you is a feend? 71 And he seide this of Judas of Symount Scarioth, for this was to bitraye hym, whanne he was oon of the twelue.

7 Afir these thingis Jhesus walkide in to Galilee, for he wolde not walke in to Judee, for the Jewis souyten to sle hym. 2 And ther was neiy a feeste dai of the Jewis, Senofegia. 3 And hise britheren seiden to hym, Passe fro hennus, and go in to Judee, that also thi disciplis seen thi werkis that thou doist; 4 for no man doith ony thing in hiddlis, and hym silf sekith to be opyn. If thou doist these thingis, schewe thi silf to the world. 5 For nether hise britheren bileueden in hym. 6 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, My tyme cam not yit, but youre tyme is euermore redi. 7 The world may not hate you, sothely it hatith me; for Y bere witnessyng therof, that the werkis of it ben yuele. 8 Go ye vp to this feeste dai, but Y schal not go vp to this feeste dai, for my tyme is not yit fulfillid. 9 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he dwelte in Galilee. 10 And afir that hise britheren weren gon vp, thanne he yede vp to the feeste dai, not opynli, but as in priuete. 11 Therfor the Jewis souyten hym in the feeste dai, and seiden, Where is he? 12 And myche grutchyng was of hym among the puple. For summe seiden, That he is good; and othere seiden, Nai, but he disceyue the puple; 13 netheles no man spak opynli of hym, for drede of the Jewis. 14 But whanne the myddil feeste dai cam, Jhesus wente vp in to the temple, and tauyte. 15 And the Jewis wondriden, and seiden, Hou can this man lettris, sihen he hath not lerned? 16 Jhesus answerde to hem, and seide, My doctryne is not myn, but his that sente me. 17 If ony man wole do his wille, he schal knowe of the techyng, whethir it be of God, or Y speke of my silf. 18 He that spekith of hym silf, sekith his owne glorie; but he that sekith the glorie of hym that sente hym, is sothefast, and vnrytwisnesse is not in hym. 19 Whether Moises yaf not to you a lawe, and noon of you doith the lawe? 20 What seken ye to sle me? And the puple answerde, and seide, Thou hast a deuel; who sekith to sle thee? 21 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, Y haue don o werk, and alle ye wondren. 22 Therfor Moises yaf to you circumcisioun; not for it is of Moyses, but of the fadris; and in the sabat ye circumciden a man. 23 If a man take circumcisioun in the sabat, that the lawe of Moises be not brokun, han ye indignacioun to me, for Y made al a man hool in the sabat? 24 Nile ye deme afir the face, but deme ye a riytful doom. 25 Therfor summe of Jerusalem seiden, Whethir this is not he, whom the Jewis seken to sle? 26 and lo! he spekith opynli, and thei seien no thing to hym. Whether the princes knewen verili, that this is Crist? 27 But we knowun this man, of whennus he is; but whanne Crist schal come, no man woot of whennus he is. 28 Therfor Jhesus criede in the temple `techyng, and seide, Ye knowen me, and `ye knowen of whennus Y am; and Y cam not of my silf, but he is trewe that sente me, whom ye knowen not. 29 Y knowe hym, and if Y seie that Y knowe hym not, Y schal be lijk to you, a liere; but Y knowe hym, for of hym Y am, and he sente me. 30 Therfor thei souyten to take hym, and no man sette on hym hoondis, for his our cam not yit. 31 And many of the puple bileueden in hym, and seiden, Whanne Crist schal come, whether he schal do mo tokenes, than tho that this doith? 32 Farisees herden the puple musinge of hym these thingis; and the princis and Farisees senten mynystris, to take hym. 33 Therfor Jhesus seide to hem, Yit a litil tyme Y am with you, and Y go to the fadir, that sente me. 34 Ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen not fynde; and where Y am, ye may not come. 35 Therfor the Jewis seiden to hem silf, Whidur schal this gon, for we schulen not fynde hym? whether he wole go in to the scateryng of hethene men, and wole teche the hethene? 36 What is this word, which he seide, Ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen not fynde; and where Y am, ye moun not come? 37 But in the laste dai of the greet feest, Jhesus stood, and criede, and seide, If ony man thirstith, come he to me, and drynke. 38 He that bileueth in me, as the scripture seith, Floodis of quykwatir schulen flowe fro his wombe. 39 But he seide this thing of the Spirit, whom men that bileueden in hym schulden take; for the Spirit was not yit youun, for Jhesus was not yit glorified. 40 Therfor of that companye, whanne thei hadden herd these wordis of hym, thei seiden, This is verili a prophete. 41 Othere seiden, This is Crist. `But summe seiden, Whether Crist cometh fro Galilee? 42 Whether the scripture seith not, that of the seed of Daid, and of the castel of Bethleem, where Daid was, Crist cometh? 43 Therfor discencioun was maad among the puple for hym. 44 For summe of hem wolden haue take hym, but no man sette hondis on hym. 45 Therfor the mynystris camen to bischopis and Farisees, and thei seiden to hem, Whi brouyten ye not hym? 46 The mynystris answeriden, Neuere man spak so, as this man spekith. 47 Therfor the Farisees answeriden to hem, Whether ye ben disseyued also? 48 whether ony of the pryncis or of the Farisees bileueden in hym? 49 But this puple, that knowith not the lawe, ben cursid. 50 Nychodeme seith to hem, he that cam to hym bi nyit, that was oon of hem, Whethir oure lawe demith a man, 51 but it haue first herde of hym, and knowe what he doith? 52 Thei answeriden, and seiden to hym, Whether thou art a man of Galilee also? Seke thou scripturis, and se thou, that a prophete risith not of Galilee. 53 And thei turneden ayen, ech in to his hous.

8 But Jhesus wente in to the mount of Olyuete. 2 And eerli eft he cam in to the temple; and al the puple cam to hym; and he sat, and tauyte hem. 3 And scribis and Fariseis bryngen a womman takun in auoutrye, and thei settiden hir in the myddil, 4 and seiden to hym, Maystir, this womman is now takun in auoutrie. 5 And in the lawe Moises comaundide vs to stoone suche; therfor what seist thou? 6 And thei seiden this thing temptynge hym, that thei myyten accuse hym. And Jhesus bowide hym silf down, and wroot with his fyngur in the erthe. 7 And whanne thei abiden axyng hym, he reiseide hym silf, and seide to hem, He of you that is without synne, first caste a stoon in to hir. 8 And eft he bowide hym silf, and wroot in the erthe. 9 And thei heryng these thingis, wenten awei oon aftir anothir, and thei bigunnen fro the eldre men; and Jhesus dwelte aloone, and the womman stondyng in the myddil. 10 And Jhesus reiseide hym silf, and seide to hir, Womman, where ben thei that accusiden thee? no man hath dampned thee. 11 Sche seide, No man, Lord. Jhesus seide `to hir, Nethir Y schal dampne thee; go thou, and now aftirward nyle thou synne more. 12 Therfor eft Jhesus spak to hem, and seide, Y am the lyt of the world; he that sueth me, walkith not in derknessis, but schal haue the lyt of lijf. 13 Therfor the Fariseis seiden, Thou berist witnessyng of thi silf; thi witnessyng is not trewe. 14 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hem, And if Y bere witnessyng of my silf, my witnessyng is trewe; for Y woot fro whennus Y cam, and whidur Y go. 15 But ye witen not fro whennus Y cam, ne whidur Y go. For ye demen aftir the fleisch, but Y deme no man; 16 and if Y deme, my doom is trewe, for Y am not aloone, but Y and the fadir that sente me. 17 And in youre lawe it is writun, that the witnessyng of twei men is trewe. 18 Y am, that bere witnessyng of my silf, and the fadir that sente me, berith witnessyng of me. 19 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Where is thi fadir? Jhesus answeride, Nether ye knowen me, nethir ye knowen my fadir; if ye knewen me, perauenture ye schulden knowe also my fadir. 20 Jhesus spak these wordis in the tresorie, techyng in the temple; and no man took hym, for his our cam not yit. 21 Therfor eft Jhesus seide to hem, Lo! Y go, and ye schulen seke me, and ye schulen die in youre synne; whidur Y go, ye moun not come. 22 Therfor the Jewis seiden, Whether he schal sle hym silf, for he seith, Whidur Y go, ye moun not come? 23 And he seide to hem, Ye ben of byneth, Y am of aboue; ye ben of this world, Y am not of this world. 24 Therfor Y seide to you, that ye schulen die in youre synnes; for if ye bileuen not that Y am, ye schulen die in youre synne. 25 Therfor thei seiden to hym, Who art thou? Jhesus seide to hem, The bigynnyng, which also speke to you. 26 Y haue many thingis to speke, and deme of you, but he that sente me is sothefast; and Y speke in the world these thingis, that Y herde of hym. 27 And thei knewen not, that he clepide his fadir God. 28 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Whanne ye han areisid mannus sone, thanne ye schulen knowe, that Y am, and of my silf Y do no thing; but as my fadir tauyte me, Y speke these thingis. 29 And he that sente me is with me, and lefte me not aloone; for Y do euermore tho thingis, that ben plesyng to hym. 30 Whanne he spak these thingis, manye bileueden in hym. 31 Therfor Jhesus seide to the Jewis, that bileueden in hym, If ye dwellen in my word, verili ye schulen be my disciplis; 32 and ye schulen knowe the treuthe, and the treuthe schal make you fre. 33 Therfor the Jewis answeriden to hym, We ben the seed of Abraham, and we serueden neuere to man; hou seist thou, That ye schulen be fre? 34 Jhesus answeride to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, ech man that doith synne, is seruauent of synne. 35 And the seruauent dwellith not in the hows with outen ende, but the sone dwellith with outen ende. (aion g165) 36 Therfor if the sone make you fre, verili ye schulen be fre. 37 Y woot that ye ben Abrahams sones, but ye seken to sle me, for my word takith not in you. 38 Y speke tho thingis, that Y say at my fadir; and ye doen tho thingis, that ye sayn at youre fadir. 39 Thei answerden, and seiden to hym, Abraham is oure fadir. Jhesus seith to hem, If ye ben the sones of Abraham, do ye the werkis of Abraham. 40 But now ye seken to sle `me, a man that haue spoken to you treuthe, that Y herde of God; Abraham dide not this thing. 41 Ye doen the werkis of youre fadir. Therfor thei seiden to hym, We ben not borun of fornyacioun; we han o fadir, God. 42 But Jhesus seith to hem, If God were youre fadir, sotheli ye schulden loue me; for Y passide forth of God, and cam; for nether Y cam of my silf, but he sente me. 43 Whi knowen ye not my speche? for ye moun not here my word. 44 Ye ben of the fadir, the deuel, and ye wolen do the desyris of youre fadir. He was a mansleere fro the bigynnyng, and he stood not in treuthe; for treuthe is not in hym. Whanne he spekith lesyng, he spekith of his owne; for he is a liere, and fadir of it. 45 But for Y seie treuthe, ye bileuen not to me. 46 Who of you schal repreue me of synne? if Y sey treuthe, whi bileuen ye not to me? 47 He that is of God, herith the wordis of God; therfor ye heren not, for ye ben not of God. 48 Therfor the Jewis answeriden, and seiden, Whether we seien not wel, that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuel? 49 Jhesus answerde, and seide, Y haue not a deuel, but Y onoure my fadir, and ye han vnhonourid me. 50 For Y seke not my glorie; there is he, that sekith, and demeth. 51 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, if ony man kepe my word, he schal not taste deth with outen ende. (aion g165) 52 Therfor the Jewis seiden, Now we han knowun, that thou hast a deuel. Abraham is deed, and the prophetis, and thou seist, If ony man kepe my word, he schal not taste deth withouten ende. (aion g165) 53 Whether thou art grettere than oure fader Abraham, that is deed, and the prophetis ben deed; whom makist thou thi silf? 54 Jhesus answeride, If Y glorifie my silf, my glorie is nouyt; my fadir, is that glorifieth me, whom ye seien, that he is youre God. 55 And ye han not knowun hym, but Y haue knowun hym; and if Y seie that Y knowe hym not, Y schal be a liere lich to you; but Y knowe hym, and Y kepe his word. 56 Abraham, youre fadir, gladide to se my dai; and he sai, and iojede. 57 Thanne the Jewis seiden to hym, Thou hast not yit fifti yeer, and hast thou seien Abraham? 58 Therfor Jhesus seide to hem, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, bifor that Abraham schulde be, Y am. 59 Therfor thei token stonys, to caste to hym; but Jhesus hidde hym, and wente out of the temple.

9 And Jhesus passynge, seiy a man blynd fro the birthe. 2 And hise discipulis axiden hym, Maistir, what synnede this man, or hise eldri, that he schulde be borun blynd? 3 Jhesus answeride, Nether this man synnede, nether hise eldri; but that the werkis of God be schewid in hym. 4 It bihoueth me to worche the werkis of hym that sente me, as long as the dai is; the nytt schal come, whanne no man may worche. 5 As longe

as Y am in the world, Y am the lyt of the world. 6 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he spette in to the erthe, and made cley of the spotil, and anyontide the cley on hise iyen, 7 and seide to hym, Go, and be thou waisschun in the watir of Siloe, that is to seie, Sent. Thanne he wente, and waisschide, and cam seyng. 8 And so neyboris, and thei that hadden seyn him bifor, for he was a beggere, seiden, Whether this is not he, that sat, and beggide? 9 Other men seiden, That this it is; other men seyden, Nai, but he is lijc hym. 10 But he seide, That Y am. Therfor thei seiden to hym, Hou ben thin iyen openyd? 11 He answerde, Thilke man, that is seid Jhesus, made clei, and anyontide myn iyen, and seide to me, Go thou to the watre of Siloe, and wassche; and Y wente, and wasschide, and say. 12 And thei seiden to hym, Where is he? He seide, Y woot not. 13 Thei leden hym that was blynd to the Farisees. 14 And it was sabbat, whanne Jhesus made cley, and openyde hise iyen. 15 Eft the Farisees axiden hym, hou he hadde seyn. And he seide to hem, He leide to me cley on the iyen; and Y wasschide, and Y se. 16 Therfor summe of the Fariseis seiden, This man is not of God, that kepith not the sabbat. Other men seiden, Hou may a synful man do these signes. And strif was among hem. 17 Therfor thei seien eftsoone to the blynd man, What seist thou of hym, that openyde thin iyen? And he seide, That he is a prophete. 18 Therfor Jewis bileueden not of hym, that he was blynd, and hadde seyn, til thei clepiden his fadir and modir, that hadde seyn. 19 And thei axiden hem, and seiden, Is this youre sone, which ye seien was borun blynd? hou thanne seest he now? 20 His fadir and modir answeriden to hem, and seiden, We witen, that this is oure sone, and that he was borun blynd; 21 but hou he seest now, we witen neuer, or who openyde hise iyen, we witen nere; axe ye hym, he hath age, speke he of hym silf. 22 His fader and modir seiden these thingis, for thei dredden the Jewis; for thanne the Jewis hadden conspirid, that if ony man knouelechide hym Crist, he schulde be don out of the synagoge. 23 Therfor his fadir and modir seiden, That he hath age, axe ye hym. 24 Therfor eftsoone thei clepiden the man, that was blynd, and seiden to hym, Yyue thou glorie to God; we witen, that this man is a synnere. 25 Thanne he seide, If he is a synnere, Y woot neuer; o thing Y woot, that whanne Y was blynd, now Y se. 26 Therfor thei seiden to hym, What dide he to thee? hou openyde he thin iyen? 27 He answerde to hem, Y seide to you now, and ye herden; what wolen ye eftsoone here? whether ye wolen be maad hise discypilis? 28 Therfor thei cursiden hym, and seiden, Be thou his disciple; we ben discipilis of Moises. 29 We witen, that God spak to Moises; but we knowen not this, of whennus he is. 30 Thilke man answeride, and seide to hem, For in this is a wondrous thing, that ye witen not, of whennus he is, and he hath openyd myn iyen. 31 And we witen, that God herith not synful men, but if ony `man is worschypere of God, and doith his wille, he herith hym. 32 Fro the world it is not herd, that ony man openyde the iyen of a blynd borun man; but this were of God, (aion g165) 33 he myyt not do ony thing. 34 Thei answeriden, and seiden to hym, Thou art al borun in synnes, and techist thou vs? And thei putten hym out. 35 Jhesus herd, that thei hadden putte hym out; and whanne he hadde founde hym, he seide to hym, Bileuest thou in the sone of God? 36 He answerde, and seide, Lord, who is he, that Y bileue in hym? 37 And Jhesus seide to hym, And thou hast seyn him, and he it is, that spekith with thee. 38 And he seide, Lord, Y byleue. And he felle doun, and worschipe hym. 39 Therefore Jhesus seide to hym, Y cam in to this world, `in to doom, that thei that seen not, see, and thei that seen, be maad blynde. 40 And summe of the Faryseis herden, that weren with hym, and thei seiden to hym, Whether we ben blynde? 41 Jhesus seide to hem, If ye weren blynde, ye schulden not haue synne; but now ye seien, That we seen, youre synne dwellith stille.

10 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, he that cometh not in by the dore in to the fould of scheep, but stieth bi another weie, is a nytt theef and a dai theef. 2 But he that entrih bi the dore, is the scheepherde of the scheep. 3 To this the porter openeth, and the scheep heren his vois, and he clepith his owne scheep bi name, and ledith hem out. 4 And whanne he hath don out his owne scheep, he goith bifor hem, and the scheep soun hym; for thei knowun his vois. 5 But thei suen not an alien, but fleen from hym; for thei han not knowun the vois of aliens. 6 Jhesus seide to hem this prouerbe; but thei knewen not what he spak to hem. 7 Therfor Jhesus seide to hem eftsoone, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that Y am the dore of the scheep. 8 As many as han come, weren nytt theues and day theues, but the scheep herden not hem. 9 Y am the dore. If ony man schal entre bi me, he schal be sauyn; and he schal go ynne, and schal go out, and he schal fynde lesewis. 10 A nytt theef cometh not, but that he stele, sle, and leese; and Y cam, that thei han lijf, and haue more plenteousli. 11 I am a good scheepherde; a good scheepherde yyueth his lijf for hise scheep. 12 But an hirid hyne, and that is not the scheepherde, whos ben not the scheep his owne, seeth a wolf comynge, and he leeueth the scheep, and fleeth; and the wolf rauyschith, and disparplith the scheep. 13 And the hirid hyne fleeth, for he is an hirid hyne, and it parteyneth not to hym of the scheep. 14 Y am a good scheepherde, and Y knowe my scheep, and my scheep knowen me. 15 As the fadir hath knowun me, Y knowe the fadir; and Y putte my lijf for my scheep. 16 Y haue othere scheep, that ben not of this foolde, and it bihoueth me to brynge hem togidir, and thei schulen here my vois; and it schal be maad o foolde and o scheepherde. 17 Therfor the fadir loueth me, for Y putte my lijf, that eftsoone Y take it. 18 No man takith it fro me, but Y putte it of my silf. Y haue power to putte it, and Y haue power to take it ayen. This maundement Y haue takun of my fadir. 19 Eft dissencioun was maad among the Jewis for these wordis. 20 And many of hem seiden, He hath a deuel, and maddith; what heren ye hym? 21 Othere men seiden, These wordis ben not of a man that hath a feend. Whether the deuel may opene the iyen of blynde men? 22 But the feestis of haleywyng of the temple weren maad in Jerusalem, and it was wyntir. 23 And Jhesus walkide in the temple, in the porche of Salomon. 24 Therfor the Jewis camen aboute hym, and seiden to hym, Hou long takist thou awei oure soule? if thou art Crist, seie thou to vs opynli. 25 Jhesus answerde to hem, Y speke to you, and

ye bileuen not; the werkis that Y do in the name of my fadir, beren witnessyng of me. 26 But ye bileuen not, for ye ben not of my scheep. 27 My scheep heren my vois, and Y knowe hem, and thei suen me. 28 And Y yyue to hem euerelastyng lijf, and thei schulen not perische with outen ende, and noon schal rauysche hem fro myn hoond. (aion g165, aionios g166) 29 That thing that my fadir yaf to me, is more than alle thingis; and no man may rauysche fro my fadris hoond. 30 Y and the fadir ben oon. 31 The Jewis token vp stoonys, to stoone hym. 32 Jhesus answerde to hem, Y haue schewide to you many good werkis of my fadir, for which werk of hem stonen ye me? 33 The Jewis answerden to hym, We stoonen thee not of good werk, but of blasfemye, and for thou, sithen thou art a man, makist thi silf God. 34 Jhesus answerde to hem, Whether it is not writun in youre lawe, That Y seide, Ye ben goddis? 35 Yf he seide that thei weren goddis, to whiche the word of God was maad, and scripture may not be vndon, 36 thilke that the fadir hath halewid, and hath sent in to the world, ye seien, That `thou blasfemest, for Y seide, Y am Goddis sone? 37 Yf Y do not the werkis of my fadir, nyle ye bileue to me; 38 but if Y do, thouy ye wolen not bileue to me, bileue ye to the werkis; that ye knowe and bileue, that the fadir is in me, and Y in the fadir. 39 Therfor thei souyten to take hym, and he wente out of her hondis. 40 And he wente eftsoone ouer Jordan, in to that place where Joon was firste baptisyng, and he dwelte there. 41 And manye camen to hym, and seiden, For Joon dide no myracle; 42 and alle thingis what euer Joon seide of this, weren sothe. And many bileueden in hym.

11 And ther was a sijk man, Lazarus of Bethanye, of the castel of Marie and Martha, hise sistris. 2 And it was Marye, which anyntide the Lord with oynement, and wipte hise feet with hir heeris, whos brother Lazarus was sijk. 3 Therfor hise sistris senten to hym, and seide, Lord, lo! he whom thou louest, is sijk. 4 And Jhesus herde, and seide to hem, This syknesse is not to the deth, but for the glorie of God, that mannus sone be glorified bi hym. 5 And Jhesus louyde Martha, and hir sistir Marie, and Lazarus. 6 Therfor whanne Jhesus herde, that he was sijk, thanne he dwellide in the same place twei daies. 7 And after these thingis he seide to hise disciplis, Go we eft in to Judee. 8 The disciplis seien to hym, Maister, now the Jewis souyten for to stoone thee, and eft goist thou thidir? 9 Jhesus answerde, Whether ther ben not twelue ouris of the dai? If ony man wandre in the dai, he hirtith not, for he seeth the liyt of this world. 10 But if he wandre in the niyt, he stomblith, for liyt is not in him. 11 He seith these thingis, and aftir these thingis he seith to hem, Lazarus, oure freend, slepith, but Y go to reise hym fro sleep. 12 Therfor hise disciplis seiden, Lord, if he slepith, he schal be saaf. 13 But Jhesus hadde seid of his deth; but thei gessiden, that he seide of slepyng of sleep. 14 Thanne therfor Jhesus seide to hem opynli, Lazarus is deed; 15 and Y haue ioye for you, that ye bileue, for Y was not there; but go we to hym. 16 Therfor Thomas, that is seid Didymus, seide to euen disciplis, Go we also, that we dien with hym. 17 And so Jhesus cam, and foond hym haunyng thanne foure daies in the graue. 18 And Bethany was bisidis Jerusalem, as it were fiftene furlongis. 19 And many of the Jewis camen to Mary and Martha, to coumforte hem of her brothir. 20 Therfor as Martha herde, that Jhesu cam, sche ran to hym; but Mary sat at home. 21 Therfor Martha seide to Jhesu, Lord, if thou haddist be here, my brother hadde not be deed. 22 But now Y woot, that what euer thingis thou schalt axe of God, God schal yyue to thee. 23 Jhesus seith to hir, Thi brother schal rise ayen. 24 Martha seith to hym, Y woot, that he schal rise ayen in the ayen risyng in the laste dai. 25 Jhesus seith to hir, Y am ayen risyng and lijf; he that bileueth in me, yhe, thouy he be deed, he schal lyue; 26 and ech that lyueth, and bileueth in me, schal not die with outen ende. Bileuest thou this thing? (aïōn g165) 27 Sche seith to hym, Yhe, Lord, Y haue bileued, that thou art Crist, the sone of the Ilyuyng God, that hast come in to this world. 28 And whanne sche hadde seid this thing, sche wente, and clepide Marie, hir sistir, in silence, and seide, The maister cometh, and clepith thee. 29 Sche, as sche herd, aroos anoon, and cam to hym. 30 And Jhesus cam not yit `in to the castel, but he was yit in that place, where Martha hadde comun ayens hym. 31 Therfor the Jewis that weren with hir in the hous, and coumfortiden hir, whanne thei sayn Marie, that sche roos swithe, and wente out, thei sieden hir, and seiden, For sche goith to the graue, to wepe there. 32 But whanne Marie was comun where Jhesus was, sche seyng hym felde doun to his feet, and seide to hym, Lord, if thou haddist be here, my brother hadde not be deed. 33 And therfor whanne Jhesu saiy hir wepyng, and the Jewis wepyng that weren with hir, he `made noise in spirit, and troblide hym silf, 34 and seide, Where han ye leid hym? Thei seien to hym, Lord, come, and se. 35 And Jhesus wepte. Therfor the Jewis seiden, 36 Lo! hou he louede hym. 37 And summe of hem seiden, Whethir this man that openyde the iyen of the borun blynde man, myyte not make that this schulde not die? 38 Therfor Jhesus eft makynge noise in hym silf, cam to the graue. And there was a denne, and a stoon was leid thereon. 39 And Jhesus seith, Take ye away the stoon. Martha, the sistir of hym that was deed, seith to hym, Lord, he styngkith now, for he hath leye foure daies. 40 Jhesus seith to hir, Haue Y not seid to thee, that if thou bileuest, thou schalt se the glorie of God? 41 Therfor thei token awei the stoon. And Jhesus lifte vp hise iyen, and seide, Fadir, Y do thankyngis to thee, for thou hast herd me; and Y wiste, 42 that thou euermore herist me, but for the puple that stonidith aboute, Y seide, that thei bileue, that thou hast sent me. 43 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he criede with a greet vois, Lazarus, come thou forth. 44 And anoon he that was deed, cam out, boundun the hondis and feet with boondis, and his face boundun with a sudarie. And Jhesus seith to hem, Vnbynde ye hym, and suffre ye hym to go forth. 45 Therfor many of the Jewis that camen to Marie and Martha, and seyn what thingis Jhesus dide, bileueden in hym. 46 But summe of hem wente to the Farisees, and seiden to hem, what thingis Jhesus `hadde don. 47 Therfor the bischopis and the Farisees gadriden a counsel ayens Jhesu, and seiden, What do we? for this man doith many myraclis. 48 If we leeue hym thus, alle men schulen bileue in hym; and Romayns schulen come, and schulen take our place and oure folk. 49 But oon of hem, Cayfas bi name, whanne he was bischop of that yeer, seide to hem, 50 Ye witen nothing, ne thenken, that it spedith to you, that o man die for the puple, and that al the folc perische not. 51 But he seide not this thing of hym silf, but whanne he was bischop of that yeer, he prophesiede, that Jhesu was to die for the folc, 52 and not oneli for the folc, but that he schulde gadere in to oon the sones of God that weren scatterid. 53 Therfor fro that day thei souyten for to sle hym. 54 Therfor Jhesus walkide not thanne opynli among the Jewis; but he wente in to a cuntre bisidis desert, in to a citee, that is seid Effren, and there he dwellide with hise disciplis. 55 And the pask of the Jewis was niy, and many of the cuntrey wenten vp to Jerusalem bifor the pask, to halewe hem silf. 56 Therfor thei souyten Jhesu, and spaken togidere, stondynge in the temple, What gessen ye, for he cometh not to the feeste day? 57 For the bischopis and Farisees hadden youun a maundement, that if ony man knowe where he is, that he schewe, that thei take hym.

12 Therfor Jhesus bifor sixe daies of pask cam to Bethanye, where Lazarus hadde be deed, whom Jhesus reiseide. 2 And thei maden to hym a soopere there, and Martha mynstryde to hym; and Lazarus was oon of men that saten at the mete with hym. 3 Therfor Marie took a pound of oynement of trewe narde precious, and anoyntide the feet of Jhesu, and wipte hise feet with hir heeris; and the hous was fulfillid of the sauour of the oynement. 4 Therfor Judas Scarioth, oon of hise disciplis, that was to bitraye hym, 5 seide, Whi is not this oynement seeld for thre hundrid pens, and is youun to nedi men? 6 But he seide this thing, not for it perteynede to hym of nedi men, but for he was a theef, and he hadde the pursis, and bar tho thingis that weren sent. 7 Therfor Jhesus seide, Suffre ye hir, that in to the day of my biriyng sche kepe that; 8 for ye schulen euermore haue pore men with you, but ye schulen not euermore haue me. 9 Therefore myche puple of Jewis knew, that Jhesus was there; and thei camen, not oonli for Jhesu, but to se Lazarus, whom he hadde reisid fro deth. 10 But the princis of prestis thouyten to sle Lazarus, 11 for manye of the Jewis wenten awei for him, and bileueden in Jhesu. 12 But on the morew a myche puple, that cam togidere to the feeste dai, whanne thei hadden herd, that Jhesus cam to Jerusalem, 13 token braunchis of palmes, and camen forth ayens hym, and crieden, Osanna, blessid is the kyng of Israel, that cometh in the name of the Lord. 14 And Jhesus foond a yonge asse, and sat on hym, 15 as it is writun, The douytir of Syon, nyle thou drede; lo! thi kyng cometh, sittynge on `an asse fole. 16 Hise disciplis knewen not first these thingis, but whanne Jhesus was glorified, thanne thei hadden mynde, for these thingis weren writun of hym, and these thingis thei diden to hym. 17 Therfor the puple bar witnessyng, that was with hym, whanne he clepide Lazarus fro the graue, and reiseide hym fro deth. 18 And therfor the puple cam, and mette with hym, for thei herden that he hadde don this signe. 19 Therfor the Farisees seiden to hem silf, Ye seen, that we profiten no thing; lo! al the world wente afir hym. 20 And there weren summe hethene men, of hem that hadden come vp to worschipe in the feeste dai. 21 And these camen to Filip, that was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and preieden hym, and seiden, Sire, we wolen se Jhesu. 22 Filip cometh, and seith to Andrew; eft Andrew and Filip seiden to Jhesu. 23 And Jhesus answerde `to hem, and seide, The our cometh, that mannus sone be clarified. 24 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, but a corn of whete falle in to the erthe, and be deed, it dwellith aloone; but if it be deed, it bryngith myche fruyt. 25 He that loueth his lijf, schal leese it; and he that hatith his lijf in this world, kepith it in to euerlastynghe lijf. (aiōnios g166) 26 If ony man serue me, sue he me; and where Y am, there my mynstre schal be. If ony man serue me, my fadir schal worschipe hym. 27 Now my soule is troublid, and what schal Y seie? Fadir, saue me fro this our; but therfor Y cam in to this our; 28 fadir, clarifie thi name. And a vois cam fro heuene, and seide, And Y haue clarified, and eft Y schal clarifie. 29 Therfor the puple that stood, and herde, seide, that `thundur was maad; othere men seide, an angel spak to hym. 30 Jhesus answerde, and seide, This vois cam not for me, but for you. 31 Now is the doom of the world, now the prince of this world schal be cast out. 32 And if Y schal be enhaunsid fro the erthe, Y schal drawe alle thingis to my silf. 33 And he seide this thing, signifynghe bi what deth he `was to die. 34 And the puple answeride to hym, We han herd of the lawe, that Crist dwellith with outen ende; and hou seist thou, It bihoueth mannys sone to be arerid? Who is this mannus sone? (aiōn g165) 35 And thanne Jhesus seith to hem, Yit a litil liyt is in you; walke ye, the while ye han liyt, that derknensis catche you not; he that wandrith in derknensis, woot nere whidur he goith. 36 While ye han liyt, bileue ye in liyt, that ye be the children of liyt. Jhesus spak these thingis, and wente, and hidde hym fro hem. 37 And whanne he hadde don so many myracils bifor hem, thei bileueden not `in to hym; 38 that the word of Ysaie, the prophete, schulde be fulfillid, which he seide, Lord, who bileuede to oure heryng, and to whom is the arm of the Lord schewid? 39 Therfor thei myyten not bileue, for eft Ysaye seide, 40 He hath blyndid her iyen, and he hath maad hard the herte of hem, that thei se not with iyen, and vndurstonde with herte; and that thei be conuertid, and Y heele hem. 41 Ysaye seide these thingis, whanne he say the glorie of hym, and spak of hym. 42 Netheles `of the pryncis manye bileueden in hym, but for the Farisees thei knowlecheniden not, that thei schulden not be put out of the synagoge; 43 for thei loueden the glorie of men, more than the glorie of God. 44 And Jhesus criede, and seide, He that bileueth in me, bileueth not in me, but in hym that sente me. 45 He that seeth me, seeth hym that sente me. 46 Y liyt cam in to the world, that ech that bileueth in me, dwelle not in derknensis. 47 And if ony man herith my words, and kepith hem, Y deme hym not; for Y cam not, that Y deme the world, but that Y make the world saaf. 48 He that dispisith me, and takith not my wordis, hath hym that schal iuge hym; thilke word that Y haue spokun, schal deme hym in the last dai. 49 For Y haue not spokun of my silf, but thilke fadir that sente me, yaf to me a maundement, what Y schal seie, and what Y schal speke. 50 And Y woot, that his maundement is euerlastynghe lijf; therfor tho thingis that Y speke, as the fadir seide to me, so Y speke. (aiōnios g166)

13 Bifor the `feeste dai of pask Jhesus witynge, that his our is comun, that he passe fro this world to the fadir, whanne he hadde loued hise that weren in the world, in to the ende he louede hem. 2 And whanne the souper was maad, whanne the deucl hadde put than in to the herte, that Judas of Symount Scarioth schulde bitraye hym, 3 he witynge that the fadir yaf alle thingis to hym in to hise hoondis, and that he wente out fro God, 4 and goith to God, he risith fro the souper, and doith of hise clothis; and whanne he hadde takun a lynun cloth, he girde hym. 5 And aftirward he putte watir in to a basyn, and biganne to waische the disciplis feet, and to wipe with the lynnen cloth, with which he was gird. 6 And so he cam to Symount Petre, and Petre seith to hym, Lord, waischist thou my feet? 7 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, What Y do, thou wost not now; but thou schalt wite aftirward. 8 Petre seith to hym, Thou schalt neuere waische my feet. Jhesus answeride to hym, If Y schal not waische thee, thou schalt not haue part with me. (aiōn g165) 9 Symount Petre seith to hym, Lord, not oneli my feet, but bothe the hoondis and the heed. 10 Jhesus seide to hym, He that is waischun, hath no nede but that he waische the feet, but he is al clene; and ye ben clene, but not alle. 11 For he wiste, who `was he that schulde bitraye hym; therfor he seide, Ye ben not alle clene. 12 And so aftir that he hadde waischun `the feet of hem, he took hise clothis; and whanne he was set to mete ayen, eft he seide to hem, Ye witen what Y haue don to you. 13 Ye clepen me maistir and lord, and ye seien wel; for Y am. 14 Therfor if Y, lord and maistir, haue waischun youre feet, and ye schulen waische oon others feet; 15 for Y haue youun `ensample to you, `that as I haue do to you, so do ye. 16 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, the seruaut is not grettere than his lord, nether an apostle is grettere than he that sente hym. 17 If ye witen these thingis, ye schulen be blessid, if ye doen hem. 18 Y seie not of `alle you, Y woot whiche Y haue chosun; but that the scripture be fulfillid, He that etith my breed, schal reise his heele ayens me. 19 Treuly, Y seie to you bifor it be don, that whanne it is don, ye bileue that Y am. 20 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, he that takith whom euere Y schal sende, resseyueth me; and he that resseyueth me, resseyueth hym that sente me. 21 Whanne Jhesus hadde seid these thingis, he was troublid in spirit, and witnesside, and seide, Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that oon of you schal bitraye me. 22 Therfor the disciplis lokiden togidere, doutynghe of whom he seide. 23 And so oon of hise disciplis was restynghe in the bosum of Jhesu, whom Jhesu louede. 24 Therfor Symount Petre bikeneth to hym, `and seith to hym, Who is it, of whom he seith? 25 And so whanne he hadde restid ayen on the brest of Jhesu, he seith to hym, Lord, who is it? 26 Jhesus answerde, He it is, to whom Y schal areche a sop of breed. And whanne he hadde wet breed, he yaf to Judas of Symount Scarioth. 27 And aftir the mussel, thanne Sathanas entride in to hym. And Jhesus seith to hym, That thing that thou doist, do thou swithe. 28 And noon of hem that saten at the mete wiste, wherto he seide to hym. 29 For summe gessiden, for Judas hadde pursis, that Jhesus hadde seid to hym, Bie thou tho thingis, that ben nedeful to vs to the feeste dai, or that he schulde yyue sum thing to nedi men. 30 Therfor whanne he hadde takun the mussel, he wente out anoon; and it was nyet. 31 And whanne he was gon out, Jhesus seide, Now mannus sone is clarifed, and God is clarifed in hym. 32 If God is clarifed in hym, God schal clarifie hym in hym silf, and anoon he schal clarifie hym. 33 Litle sones, yit a lital Y am with you; ye schulen seke me, and, as Y seide to the Jewis, Whidur Y go, ye moun not come; and to you Y seie now. 34 Y yyue to you a newe maundement, that ye loue togidir, as Y louede you, `and that ye loue togidir. 35 In this thing alle men schulen knowe, that ye ben my disciplis, if ye han loue togidere. 36 Symount Petre seith to hym, Lord, whidur goist thou? Jhesus answeride, Whidur Y go, thou mayst not sue me now, but thou schalt sue afterward. 37 Petre seith to hym, Whi may Y not sue thee now? Y schal putte my lijf for thee. 38 Jhesus answeride, Thou schalt putte thi lijf for me? Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, the cok schal not crowe, til thou schalt denye me thries. And he seith to hise disciplis.

14 Be not youre herte afraied, ne drede it; ye bileuen in God, and bileue ye in me. 2 In the hous of my fadir ben many dwellyngis; if any thing lesse, Y hadde seid to you, for Y go to make redi to you a place. 3 And if Y go, and make redi to you a place, eftsoones Y come, and Y schal take you to my silf, that where Y am, ye be. 4 And whidur Y go, ye witen, and ye witen the weie. 5 Thomas seith to hym, Lord, we witen not whidur thou goist, and hou moun we wite the weie? 6 Jhesus seith to hym, Y am weie, treuthe, and lijf; no man cometh to the fadir, but bi me. 7 If ye hadden knowe me, sotheli ye hadden knowe also my fadir; and aftirward ye schulen knowe hym, and ye han seyn hym. 8 Filip seith to hym, Lord, schewe to vs the fadir, and it suffisith to vs. 9 Jhesus seith to hym, So long tyme Y am with you, and `han ye not knowun me? Filip, he that seeth me, seeth also the fadir. Hou seist thou, schewe to vs the fadir? 10 Bileuest thou not, that Y am in the fadir, and the fadir is in me? The wordis that Y speke to you, Y speke not of my silf; but the fadir hym silf dwellynge in me, doith the werkis. 11 Bileue ye not, that Y am in the fadir, and the fadir is in me? 12 Ellis bileue ye for thilke werkis. Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, if a man bileueth in me, also he schal do the werkis that Y do; and he schal do grettere werkis than these, for Y go to the fadir. 13 And what euere thing ye axen the fadir in my name, Y schal do this thing, that the fadir be glorified in the sone. 14 If ye axen any thing in my name, Y schal do it. 15 If ye louen me, kepe ye my comaundementis. 16 And Y schal preye the fadir, and he schal yyue to you another councfortour, to dwelle with you with outen ende, (aion g165) 17 the spirit of treuthe; which spirit the world may not take, for it seeth hym not, nether knowith hym. But ye schulen knowe hym, for he schal dwelle with you, and he schal be in you. 18 Y schal not leue you fadirles, Y schal come to you. 19 Yit a lital, and the world seeth not now me; but ye schulen se me, for Y lyue, and ye schulen lyue. 20 In that dai ye schulen knowe, that Y am in my fadir, and ye in me, and Y in you. 21 He that hath my comaundementis, and kepith hem, he it is that loueth me; and he that loueth me, schal be loued of my fadir, and Y schal loue hym, and Y schal schewe to hym my silf. 22 Judas seith to hym, not he of Scarioth, Lord, what is don, that thou schalt schewe thi silf to vs, and not to the world? 23

Jhesus answerde, and seide `to hym, If any man loueth me, he schal kepe my word; and my fadir schal loue hym, and we schulen come to hym, and we schulen dwelle with hym. 24 He that loueth me not, kepith not my wordis; and the word which ye han herd, is not myn, but the fadris, that sente me. 25 These thingis Y haue spokun to you, dwellynge among you; but thilke Hooli Goost, 26 the councfortour, whom the fadir schal sende in my name, he schal teche you alle thingis, `and schal schewe to you alle thingis, what euere thingis Y schal seie to you. 27 Pees Y leuee to you, my pees Y yyue to you; not as the world yyueth, Y yyue to you; be not youre herte affrayed, ne drede it. 28 Ye han herd, that Y seide to you, Y go, and come to you. If ye loueden me, forsothe ye schulden haue ioeye, for Y go to the fadir, for the fadir is grettere than Y. 29 And now Y haue seid to you, bifor that it be don, that whanne it is don, ye bileuen. 30 Now Y schal not speke many thingis with you; for the prince of this world cometh, and hath not in me any thing. 31 But that the world knowe, that Y loue the fadir; and as the fadir yaf a comaundement to me, so Y do. `Rise ye, go we hennus.

15 Y am a very vyne, and my fadir is an erthe tilier. 2 Ech braunch in me that berith not fruyt, he schal take away it; and ech that berith fruyt, he schal purge it, that it bere the more fruyt. 3 Now ye ben clene, for the word that Y haue spokun to you. 4 Dwelle ye in me, and Y in you; as a braunche may not make fruyt of it silf, but it dwelle in the vyne, so nether ye, but ye dwelle in me. 5 Y am a vyne, ye the braunchis. Who that dwelleth in me, and Y in hym, this berith myche fruyt, for with outen me ye moun no thing do. 6 If any man dwelleth not in me, he schal be caste out as a braunche, and schal wexe drie; and thei schulen gadere hym, and thei schulen caste hym in to the fier, and he brenneth. 7 If ye dwellen in me, and my wordis dwelle in you, what euer thing ye wolen, ye schulen axe, and it schal be don to you. 8 In this thing my fadir is clarifed, that ye brynge forth ful myche fruyt, and that ye be maad my disciplis. 9 As my fadir louede me, Y haue loued you; dwelle ye in my loue. 10 If ye kepen my comaundementis, ye schulen dwelle in my loue; and Y haue kept the comaundementis of my fadir, and Y dwelle in his loue. 11 These thingis Y spak to you, that my ioeye be in you, and youre ioeye be fulfillid. 12 This is my comaundement, that ye loue togidere, as Y louede you. 13 No man hath more loue than this, that a man putte his lijf for hise freendis. 14 Ye ben my freendis if ye doen tho thingis, that Y comaunde to you. 15 Now Y schal not clepe you seruauantis, for the seruauant woot not, what his lord schal do; but Y haue clepid you freendis, for alle thingis what euere Y herde of my fadir, Y haue maad knowun to you. 16 Ye han not chosun me, but Y chees you; and Y haue put you, that ye go, and brynge forth fruyt, and youre fruyt dwelle; that what euere thing ye axen the fadir in my name, he yyue to you. 17 These thingis Y comaunde to you, that ye loue togidere. 18 If the world hatith you, wite ye, that it hadde me in hate rather than you. 19 If ye hadden be of the world, the world schulde loue that thing that was his; but for ye ben not of the world, but Y chees you fro the world, therfor the world hatith you. 20 Haue ye mynde of my word, which Y seide to you, The seruaunt is not grettere than his lord. If thei han pursued me, thei schulen pursue you also; if thei han kept my word, thei schulen kepe youre also. 21 But thei schulen do to you alle these thingis for my name, for thei knowen not hym that sente me. 22 If Y hadde not comun, and hadde not spokun to hem, thei schulden not haue synne; but now thei haue noon excusacioun of her synne. 23 He that hatith me, hatith also my fadir. 24 If Y hadde not doon werkis in hem, whiche noon other man dide, thei schulden not haue synne; but now both thei han seyn, and hatid me and my fadir. 25 But that the word be fulfillid, that is writun in her lawe, For thei hadden me in hate with outen cause. 26 But whanne the coumfortour schal come, which Y schal sende to you fro the fadir, a spirit of treuthe, which cometh of the fadir, he schal bere witnessyng of me; 27 and ye schulen bere witnessyng, for ye ben with me fro the bigynnyng.

16 These thingis Y haue spokun to you, that ye be not sclaudrid. 2 Thei schulen make you with outen the synagogis, but the our cometh, that ech man that sleeth you, deme that he doith seruyce to God. 3 And thei schulen do to you these thingis, for thei han not knowun the fadir, nether me. 4 But these thingis Y spak to you, that whanne the our `of hem schal come, ye haue mynde, that Y seide to you. 5 Y seide not to you these thingis fro the bigynnyng, for Y was with you. And now Y go to hym that sente me, and no man of you axith me, Whidur `thou goist? 6 but for Y haue spokun to you these thingis, heuynesse hath fulfillid youre herte. 7 But Y seie to you treuthe, it spedith to you, that Y go; for if Y go not forth, the coumfortour schal not come to you; but if Y go forth, Y schal sende hym to you. 8 And whanne he cometh, he schal repreue the world of synne, and of riytwisnesse, and of doom. 9 Of synne, for thei han not bileued in me; 10 and of riytwisnesse, for Y go to the fadir, and now ye schulen not se me; 11 but of doom, for the prince of this world is now demed. 12 Yit Y haue many thingis for to seie to you, but ye moun not bere hem now. 13 But whanne thilke spirit of treuthe cometh, he schal teche you al trewtthe; for he schal not speke of hym silf, but what euer thinges he schal here, he schal speke; and he schal telle to you tho thingis that ben to come. 14 He schal clarifie me, for of myne he schal take, and schal telle to you. 15 Alle thingis `whiche euer the fadir hath, ben myne; therfor Y seide to you, for of myne he schal take, and schal telle to you. 16 A litil, and thanne ye schulen not se me; and eftsoone a litil, and ye schulen se me, for Y go to the fadir. 17 Therfor summe of hise disciplis seiden togidere, What is this thing that he seith to vs, A litil, and ye schulen not se me; and eftsoone a litil, and ye schulen se me, for Y go to the fadir? 18 Therfor thei seiden, What is this that he seith to vs, A litil? we witen not what he spekih. 19 And Jhesus knew, that thei wolden axe hym, and he seide to hem, Of this thing ye seken among you, for Y seide, A litil, and ye schulen not se me; and eftsoone a litil, and ye schulen se me. 20 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to you, that ye schulen mourne and wepe, but the world schal haue ioie; and ye schulen be soreful, but youre sorewe schal turne in to ioie. 21 A womman whanne sche berith child, hath heuynesse, for hir tyme is comun; but whanne sche hath borun a sone, now sche thenkith not on the peyne, for ioie, for a man is borun in to the world. 22 And therfor ye han now sorew, but eftsoone Y schal se you, and youre herte schal haue ioie, and no man schal take fro you youre ioie. 23 And in that day ye schulen not axe me ony thing; treuli, treuli, `Y seie to you, if ye axen the fadir ony thing in my name, he schal yyue to you. 24 `Til now ye axiden no thing in my name; `axe ye, `and ye schulen take, that youre ioie be ful. 25 Y haue spokun to you these thingis in prouerbis; the our cometh, whanne now Y schal not speke to you in prouerbis, but opynli of my fadir Y schal telle to you. 26 In that dai ye schulen axe in my name; and Y seie not to you, that Y schal preye the fadir of you; 27 for the fadir hym silf loueth you, for ye han loued me, and han bileued, that Y wente out fro God. 28 Y wente out fro the fadir, and Y cam in to the world; eftsoone Y leeuue the world, and Y go to the fadir. 29 Hise disciplis seiden to hym, Lo! now thou spekest opynli, and thou seist no prouerbe. 30 Now we witen, that thou wost alle thingis; and it is not nede to thee, that ony man axe thee. In this thing we bileuen, that thou wentist out fro God. 31 Jhesus answeride to hem, Now ye bileuen. 32 Lo! the our cometh, and now it cometh, that ye be disparlid, ech in to hise owne thingis, and that ye leeuue me aloone; and Y am not aloone, for the fadir is with me. 33 These thingis Y haue spokun to you, that ye haue pees in me; in the world ye schulen haue disese, but trust ye, Y haue ouercomun the world.

17 These thingis Jhesus spak, and whanne he hadde cast vp hise iyen in to heuene, he seide, Fadir, the our cometh, clarifie thi sone, that thi sone clarifie thee. 2 As thou hast youun to hym power on ech fleisch, that al thing that thou hast youun to hym, he yyue to hem euerlastyng lif. (aiōnios g166) 3 And this is euerlastyng lif, that thei knowe thee very God aloone, and whom thou hast sent, Jhesu Crist. (aiōnios g166) 4 Y haue clarified thee on the erthe, Y haue endid the werk, that thou hast youun to me to do. 5 And now, fadir, clarifie thou me at thi silf, with the clerenesse that Y hadde at thee, bifor the world was maad. 6 Y haue schewid thi name to tho men, whiche thou hast youun to me of the world; thei weren thine, and thou hast youun hem to me, and thei han kept thi word. 7 And now thei han knowun, that alle thingis that thou hast youun to me, ben of thee. 8 For the wordis that thou hast youun to me, Y yaf to hem; and thei han takun, and han knowun verili, that Y wente out fro thee; and thei bileueden, that thou sentist me. 9 Y preie for hem, Y preye not for the world, but for hem that thou hast youun to me, for thei ben thine. 10 And alle my thingis ben thine, and thi thingis ben myne; and Y am clarified in hem. 11 And now Y am not in the world, and these ben in the world, and Y come to thee. Hooli fadir, kepe hem in thi name, whiche thou yauest to me, that thei ben oon, as we ben. 12 While Y was with hem, Y kepte hem in thi name; thilke that thou yauest to me, Y kepte, and noon of hem perischide, but the sone of perdicoun, that the scripture be fulfillid. 13 But now Y come to thee, and Y speke these thingis in the world, that thei haue my ioie fulfillid in hem silf. 14 Y yaf to hem thi word, and the world hadde hem in hate; for thei ben not of the world, as Y am not of the world. 15

Y preye not, that thou take hem awei fro the world, but that thou kepe hem fro yuel. 16 They ben not of the world, as Y am not of the world. 17 Halewe thou hem in treuth; thi word is treuthe. 18 As thou sentist me in to the world, also Y sente hem `in to the world. 19 And Y halewe my silf for hem, that also thei ben halewid in treuthe. 20 And Y preye not oneli for hem, but also for hem that schulden bileue in to me bi the word of hem; 21 that all ben oon, as thou, fadir, in me, and Y in thee, that also thei in vs be oon; that the world bileue, that thou hast sent me. 22 And Y haue youun to hem the clerenesse, that thou hast youun to me, that thei ben oon, 23 as we ben oon; Y in hem, and thou in me, that thei be endid in to oon; and that the world knowe, that thou sentist me, and hast loued hem, as thou hast loued also me. 24 Fadir, thei whiche thou yauest to me, Y wole that where Y am, that thei be with me, that thei see my clerenesse, that thou hast youun to me; for thou louedist me bifor the makynge of the world. 25 Fadir, riytfuli the world knew thee not, but Y knew thee, and these knewen, that thou sentist me. 26 And Y haue maad thi name knowun to hem, and schal make knowun; that the loue bi which thou `hast loued me, be in hem, and Y in hem.

18 Whanne Jhesus hadde seid these thingis, he wente out with hise discipulis ouer the strond of Cedron, where was a yerd, in to which he entride, and hise discipulis. 2 And Judas, that bitrayede hym, knew the place, for ofte Jhesus cam thidur with hise discipulis. 3 Therfor whanne Judas hadde takun a cumpany of knyitis, and mynystris of the bischopis and of the Fariseis, he cam thidur with lanternys, and brondis, and armeris. 4 And so Jhesus witynge alle thingis that weren to come on hym, wente forth, and seide to hem, Whom seken ye? 5 Thei answeriden to hym, Jhesu of Nazareth. Jhesus seith to hem, Y am. And Judas that bitraiede hym, stood with hem. 6 And whanne he seide to hem, Y am, thei wenten abak, and fellen doun on the erthe. 7 And eft he axide hem, Whom seken ye? And thei seiden, Jhesu of Nazareth. 8 He answeride to hem, Y seide to you, that Y am; therfor if ye seken me, suffre ye these to go awei. 9 That the word which he seide schulde be fulfillid, For Y loste not ony of hem, whiche thou `hast youun to me. 10 Therfor Symount Petre hadde a swerd, and drow it out, and smoot the seruaut of the bischop, and kittide of his riyt eer. And the name of the seruaut was Malcus. 11 Therfor Jhesus seide to Petre, Putte thou thi swerd in to thi schethe; wolt thou not, that Y drynke the cuppe, that my fadir yaf to me? 12 Therfor the compenye of knyitis, and the tribune, and the mynystris of the Jewis, token Jhesu, and bounden hym, 13 and ledde hym first to Annas; for he was fadir of Caifas wijf, that was bischop of that yeer. 14 And it was Caifas, that yaf counsel to the Jewis, that it spedith, that o man die for the puple. 15 But Symount Petre suede Jhesu, and another disciple; and thilke disciple was knowun to the bischop. And he entride with Jhesu, in to the halle of the bischop; 16 but Petre stood at the dore with outforth. Therfor `the tother disciple, that was knowun to the bischop, wente out, and seide to the womman that kepte the dore, and brouyte in Petre. 17 And the damysel, kepere of the dore, seide to Petre, Whether thou art also of this mannys discipulis? He seide, Y am not. 18

And the seruantis and mynystris stooden at the coolis, for it was coold, and thei warmynde hem; and Petre was with hem, stondynge and warmynge hym. 19 And the bischop axide Jhesu of hise discipulis, and of his techyng. 20 Jhesus answerde to hym, Y haue spokun opynli to the world; Y tauyte euermore in the synagoge, and in the temple, whider alle the Jewis camen togidere, and in hiddlis Y spak no thing. 21 What axist thou me? axe hem that herden, what Y haue spokun to hem; lo! thei witen, what thingis Y haue seid. 22 Whanne he hadde seid these thingis, oon of the mynystris stondynge niy, yaf a buffat to Jhesu, and seide, Answerist thou so to the bischop? 23 Jhesus answeride to hym, If Y haue spokun yuel, bere thou witnessyng of yuel; but if Y seide wel, whi smytist thou me? 24 And Annas sente hym boundun to Caifas, the bischop. 25 And Symount Petre stood, and warmyde him; and thei seiden to hym, Whether also thou art his disciple? He denyede, and seide, Y am not. 26 Oon of the bischops seruantis, cosyn of hym, whos eere Petre kitte of, seide, Say Y thee not in the yerd with hym? 27 And Petre eftsoone denyede, and anon the cok crew. 28 Thanne thei ledde Jhesu to Cayfas, in to the moot halle; and it was eerli, and thei entriden not in to the moot halle, that thei schulden not be defoulid, but that thei schulden ete pask. 29 Therfor Pilat wente out with outforth to hem, and seide, What accusyng brynge ye ayens this man? 30 Thei answeriden, and seiden to hym, If this were not a mysdoere, we hadden not bitakun hym to thee. 31 Thanne Pilat seith to hem, Take ye hym, and deme ye him, after youre lawe. And the Jewis seiden to hym, It is not leueful to vs to sle ony man; 32 that the word of Jhesu schulde be fulfillid, whiche he seide, signifiynge bi what deth he schulde die. 33 Therfor eftsoone Pilat entride in to the moot halle, and clepide Jhesu, and seide to hym, Art thou kyng of Jewis? 34 Jhesus answerde, and seide to hym, Seist thou this thing of thi silf, ether othere han seid to thee of me? 35 Pilat answeride, Whether Y am a Jewe? Thi folc and bischops bitoken thee to me; what hast thou don? 36 Jhesus answeride, My kingdom is not of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my mynystris schulden stryue, that Y schulde not be takun to the Jewis; but now my kingdom is not here. 37 And so Pilat seide to hym, Thanne `thou art a king. Jhesus answeride, Thou seist, that Y am a king. To this thing Y am borun, and to this Y `am comun in to the world, to bere witnessyng to treuthe. Eche that is of treuthe, herith my vois. 38 Pilat seith to hym, What is treuthe? And whanne he hadde seid this thing, eft he wente out to the Jewis, and seide to hem, Y fynde no cause in hym. 39 But it is a custom to you, that Y delyuere oon to you in pask; therfor wole ye that Y delyuere to you the kyng of Jewis? 40 Alle crieden eftsoone, and seiden, Not this, but Baraban. And Barabas was a thief.

19 Therfor Pilat took thanne Jhesu, and scourgide. 2 And kniytis writen a coroun of thornes, and setten on his heed, and diden aboute hym a cloth of purpur, 3 and camen to him, and seiden, Heil, kyng of Jewis. And thei yauen to him buffatis. 4 Eftsoone Pilat wente out, and seide to hem, Lo! Y brynge hym out to you, that ye knowe, that Y fynde no cause in him. 5 And so Jhesus wente out, berynge a coroun of thornes, and a cloth of purpur. And he seith to hem, Lo! the man. 6 But whanne the bischopis and mynystris hadden seyn hym, thei crieden, and seiden, Crucifie, crucifie hym. Pilat seith to hem, Take ye hym, and crucifie ye, for Y fynde no cause in hym. 7 The Jewis answeriden to hym. We han a lawe, and bi the lawe he owith to die, for he made hym Goddis sone. 8 Therfor whanne Pilat hadde herd this word, he dredde the more. 9 And he wente in to the moot halle eftsoone, and seide to Jhesu, Of whennus art thou? But Jhesus yaf noon answer to him. 10 Pilat seith to him, Spekist thou not to me? Woost thou not, that Y haue power to crucifie thee, and Y haue power to delyuere thee? 11 Jhesus answeride, Thou schuldist not `haue ony power ayens me, but it were youun to thee from aboue; therfor he that bitook me to thee, hath the more synne. 12 Fro that tyme Pilat souyte to delyuere hym; but the Jewis crieden, and seiden, If thou delyuerist this man, thou art not the emperouris freend; for ech man that makith hym silf king, ayen seith the emperoure. 13 And Pilat, whanne he hadde herd these wordis, ledde Jhesu forth, and sat for domesman in a place, that is seid Licostatros, but in Ebrew Golgatha. 14 And it was pask eue, as it were the sixte our. And he seith to the Jewis, Lo! youre king. 15 But thei crieden, and seiden, Take awei, take awei; crucifie him. Pilat seith to hem, Schal I crucifie youre king? The bischops answeriden, We han no king but the emperour. 16 And thanne Pilat bitook him to hem, that he schulde be crucified. And thei token Jhesu, and ledden him out. 17 And he bar to hym silf a cros, and wente out in to that place, that is seid of Caluarie, in Ebreu Golgatha; 18 where thei crucifieden him, and othere tweyne with him, oon on this side and oon on that side, and Jhesus in the myddil. 19 And Pilat wroot a title, and sette on the cros; and it was writun, Jhesu of Nazareth, king of Jewis. 20 Therfor manye of the Jewis reddan this title, for the place where Jhesus was crucified, was ny the citee, and it was writun in Ebreu, Greek, and Latyn. 21 Therfor the bischops of the Jewis seiden to Pilat, Nyle thou write kyng of Jewis, but for he seide, Y am king of Jewis. 22 Pilat answeride, That that Y haue writun, Y haue writun. 23 Therfor the knyitis whanne thei hadden crucified hym, token hise clothis, and maden foure partis, to ech knyit a part, and a coot. And the coot was without seem, and woun al aboute. 24 Therfor thei seiden togidere, Kitte we not it, but caste we lot, whos it is; that the scripture be fulfillid, seiynge, Thei partiden my clothis to hem, and on my cloth thei casten lot. And the kniitis diden these thingis. 25 But bisidis the cros of Jhesu stoden his modir, and the sistir of his modir, Marie Cleofe, and Marie Maudeleyne. 26 Therfor whanne Jhesu hadde seyn his modir, and the disciple stondynge, whom he louyde, he seith to hise modir, Womman, lo thi sone. 27 Aftynward he seith to the disciple, Lo! thi modir. And fro that our the disciple took hir in to his modir. 28 Aftirward Jhesus witynge, that now alle thingis ben endid, that the scripture were fulfillid, he seith, Y thirste. 29 And a vessel was set ful of vynegre. And thei `leiden in isope aboute the spounge ful of vynegre, and putten to his mouth. 30 Therfor whanne Jhesus hadde `takun the vynegre, he seid, It is endid. And `whanne his heed was bowid down, `he yaf vp the goost.

31 Therfor it was the pask eue, that the bodies schulden not abide on the cros in the sabat, for that was a greet sabat dai, the Jewis preiden Pilat, that the hipis of hem schulden be brokun, and thei takun awei. 32 Therfor knyitis camen, and thei braken the thies of the firste, and of the tothere, that was crucified with hym. 33 But whanne thei weren comun to Jhesu, as thei sayn him deed thanne, thei braken not hise thies; 34 but oon of the knyitis openyde his side with a spere, and anoon blood and watir wenten out. 35 And he that sai, bare witnessyng, and his witnessing is trewe; and he woot that he seith trewe thingis, that ye bileue. 36 And these thingis weren don, that the scripture schulde be fulfillid, Ye schulen not breke a boon of hym. 37 And eftsoone another scripture seith, Thei schulen se in whom thei piyten thorow. 38 But after these thingis Joseph of Armathi preyede Pilat, that he schulde take awei the bodi of Jhesu, for that he was a disciple of Jhesu, but priu for drede of the Jewis. And Pilat suffride. And so he cam, and took awei the bodi of Jhesu. 39 And Nychodeme cam also, that hadde come to hym first bi nytt, and brouyte a meddlynge of myrre and aloes, as it were an hundrid pound. 40 And thei token the bodi of Jhesu, and boundun it in lynun clothis with swete smellynge oynementis, as it is custom to Jewis for to birie. 41 And in the place where he was crucified, was a yerd, and in the yerd a newe graue, in which yit no man was leid. 42 Therfor there thei putten Jhesu, for the vigilie of Jewis feeste, for the sepulcre was ny.

20 And in o dai of the wouke Marie Maudeleyn cam eerli to the graue, whanne it was yit derk. And sche say the stoon moued awei fro the graue. 2 Therfor sche ran, and cam to Symount Petre, and to another disciple, whom Jhesus louede, and seith to hem, Thei han takun the Lord fro the graue, and we witen not, where thei han leid hym. 3 Therfor Petre wente out, and thilke other disciple, and thei camen to the graue. 4 And thei tweyne runnen togidre, and thilke othere disciple ran bifor Petre, and cam first to the graue. 5 And whanne he stoupide, he sai the schetis liynge, netheles he entride not. 6 Therfor Symount Petre cam suyng hym, and he entride in to the graue, and he say the schetis leid, 7 and the sudarie that was on his heed, not leid with the schetis, but bi it silf wlapid in to a place. 8 Therfor thanne thilke disciple that cam first to the graue, entride, and sai, and bileuede. 9 For thei knewen not yit the scripture, that it behofte him to rise ayen fro deth. 10 Therfor the disciplis wenten eftsoone to hem silf. 11 But Marie stood at the graue with outforth wepyng. And the while sche wepte, sche bowide hir, and bihelde forth in to the graue. 12 And sche sai twei angels sittinge in white, oon at the heed and oon at the feet, where the bodi of Jhesu was leid. 13 And thei seien to hir, Womman, what wepist thou? Sche seide to hem, For thei han take awei my lord, and Y woot not, where thei han leid him. 14 Whanne sche hadde seid these thingis, sche turnede backward, and sai Jhesu stondinge, and wiste not that it was Jhesu. 15 Jhesus seith to hir, Womman, what wepist thou? whom sekist thou? She gessynge that he was a gardynere, seith to him, Sire, if thou hast takun him vp, seie to me, where thou hast leid him, and Y schal take hym awei. 16 Jhesus seith to hir, Marie. Sche `turnede, and seith to hym, Rabony, that is to seie, Maister. 17 Jhesus seith to hir, Nyle thou touche me, for Y have not yit stied to my fadir; but go to my britheren, and seie to hem, Y stie to my fadir and to youre fadir, to my God and to youre God. 18 Marie Maudeleyne cam, tellinge to the disciplis, That Y sai the Lord, and these thingis he seide to me. 19 Therfor whanne it was eue in that dai, oon of the sabatis, and the yatis weren schit, where the disciplis weren gaderid, for drede of the Jewis, Jhesus cam, and stood in the myddil of the disciplis, and he seith to hem, Pees to you. 20 And whanne he hadde seid this, he schewide to hem hondis and side; therfor the disciplis ioieden, for the Lord was seyn. 21 And he seith to hem eft, Pees to you; as the fadir sente me, Y sende you. 22 Whanne he had seid this, he blewe on hem, and seide, Take ye the Hooli Goost; 23 whos synnes ye foryueen, tho ben foryounn to hem; and whos ye withholden, tho ben withholdun. 24 But Thomas, oon of the twelue, that is seid Didimus, was not with hem, whanne Jhesus cam. 25 Therfor the othere disciplis seiden, We han seyn the Lord. And he seide to hem, But Y se in hise hondis the fitchinge of the nailis, and putte my fyngur in to the places of the nailis, and putte myn hond in to his side, Y schal not bileue. 26 And after eyte daies eftsoone hise disciplis weren with ynne, and Thomas with hem. Jhesus cam, while the yatis weren schit, and stood in the myddil, and seide, Pees to you. 27 Afterward he seith to Thomas, Putte in here thi fyngur, and se myn hondis, and putte hidur thin hond, and putte in to my side, and nyle thou be vnbileueful, but feithful. 28 Thomas answeride, and seide to him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jhesus seith to him, Thomas, for thou hast seyn me, thou bileuedist; blessid ben thei, that seyn not, and han bileued. 30 And Jhesus dide many othere signes in the siyt of hise disciplis, whiche ben not writun in this book. 31 But these ben writun, that ye bileue, that Jhesus `is Crist, the sone of God, and that ye bileuyng haue lijf in his name.

21 Afterward Jhesus eftsoone schewide hym to hise disciplis, at the see of Tiberias. 2 And he schewide him thus. There weren togidere Symount Petre, and Thomas, that is seid Didimus, and Nathanael, that was of the Cane of Galilee, and the sones of Zebedee, and tweyne othere of hise disciplis. 3 Symount Petre seith to hem, Y go to fische. Thei seyn to hym, And we comen with thee. And `thei wenten out, `and wenten in to a boot. And in that niyt thei token no thing. 4 But whanne the morewe was comun, Jhesus stood in the brenke; netheles the disciplis knewen not, that it was Jhesus. 5 Therfor Jhesus seith to hem, Children, whethir ye han ony souping thing? Thei answeriden to hym, Nay. He seide to hem, 6 Putte ye the nett in to the riyt half of the rowing, and ye schulen fynde. And thei puttiden the nett; and thanne thei miyten not drawe it for multitude of fischis. 7 Therfor thilke disciple, whom Jhesus louede, seide to Petre, It is the Lord. Symount Petre, whanne he hadde herd that it is the Lord, girte hym with a coote, for he was nakid, and wente in to the see. 8 But the othere disciplis camen bi boot, for thei weren not fer fro the lond, but as a two hundrid cubitis, drawinge the nett of fischis. 9 And as thei camen down in to the lond, thei sayn coolis liynge, and a fisch leid on, and breed. 10 Jhesus seith to hem, Bringe ye of the fychis, whiche ye han takun now. 11 Symount Petre wente vp, and drowy the nett in to the lond, ful of grete fischis, an hundrid fifti and thre; and whanne thei weren so manye, the nett was not brokun. 12 Jhesus seith to hem, Come ye, ete ye. And no man of hem that saten at the mete, durste axe hym, Who art thou, witinge that it is the Lord. 13 And Jhesus cam, and took breed, an yaf to hem, and fisch also. 14 Now this thriddre tyme Jhesus was schewid to hise disciplis, whanne he hadde risun ayen fro deth. 15 And whanne thei hadde etun, Jhesus seith to Simount Petre, Symount of Joon, louest thou me more than these? He seith to him, Yhe, Lord, thou woost that Y loue thee. Jhesus seith to hym, Fede thou my lambren. 16 Eft he seith to hym, Symount of Joon, louest thou me? He seith to him, Yhe, Lord, thou woost that Y loue thee. He seith to him, Fede thou my lambren. 17 He seith to him the thriddre tyme, Simount of Joon, louest thou me? Petre was heuy, for he seith to hym the thriddre tyme, Louest thou me, and he seith to him, Lord, thou knowist alle thingis; thou woost that Y loue thee. Jhesus seith to hym, Fede my scheep. 18 Treuli, treuli, Y seie to thee, whanne thou were yongere, thou girdidist thee, and wandridist where thou woldist; but whanne thou schalt waxe eldere, thou schalt holde forth thin hondis, and another schal girde thee, and schal lede thee whidur thou wolt not. 19 He seide this thing, signifyng bi what deth he schulde glorifie God. And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he seith to hym, Sue thou me. 20 Petre turnede, and say thilke disciple suyng, whom Jhesus louede, which also restid in the soper on his brest, and he seide to hym, Lord, who is it, that schal bitraie thee? 21 Therfor whanne Petre hadde seyn this, he seith to Jhesu, Lord, but what this? 22 Jhesus seith to him, So I wole that he dwelle til that Y come, what to thee? sue thou me. 23 Therfor this word wente out among the britheren, that thilke disciple dieth not. And Jhesus seide not to hym, that he dieth not, but, So Y wole that he dwelle til Y come, what to thee? 24 This is thilke disciple, that berith witnessyng of these thingis, and wroot hem; and we witen, that his witnessyng is trewe. 25 And ther ben also manye othere thingis that Jhesus dide, whiche if thei ben writun bi ech bi hym silf, Y deme that the world hym silf schal not take tho bookis, that ben to be writun.

Acts

1 Theofle, first `Y made a sermoun of alle thingis, that Jhesu bigan to do and to teche, 2 in to the daie of his ascencioun, in which he comaundide bi the Hooli Goost to hise apostlis, whiche he hadde chosun; 3 to whiche he schewide hym self `alyue aftir his passioun, by many argumentis, apperinge to hem fourti daies, and spekinge of the rewme of God. 4 And he ete with hem, and comaundide, that thei schulden not departe fro Jerusalem, but abide the biheest of the fadir, which ye herden, he seide, bi my mouth; 5 for Joon baptiside in watir, but ye schulen be baptisid in the Hooli Goost, aftir these fewe daies. 6 Therfor thei that weren come to gidere, axiden hym, and seiden, Lord, whether in this time thou schalt restore the kingdom of Israel? 7 And he seide to hem, It is not youre to knowe the tymes ether momentis, whiche the fadir hath put in his power; 8 but ye schulen take the vertu of the Hooli Goost comyng fro aboue in to you, and ye schulen be my witnessis in Jerusalem, and in al Judee, and Samarie, and to the vtmoste of the erthe. 9 And whanne he had seid these thingis, in her siyt he was lift vp, and a cloude resseyuede him fro her iyen. 10 And whanne thei biheelden hym goyng in to heuene, lo! `twei men stoden bisidis hem in white clothing, and seiden, 11 Men of Galile, what stonden ye biholdinge in to heuene? This Jhesu, which is takun vp `fro you in to heuene, schal come, as ye seyn hym goyng in to heuene. 12 Thanne thei turneden ayen to Jerusalem, fro the hille that is clepid `the hille of Olyete, which is bisidis Jerusalem an halidaies iourney. 13 And whanne thei weren entrid in to the hous, where thei dwelliden, thei wenten vp in to the soler, Petir and Joon, James and Andreu, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matheu, James of Alpehi, and Symount Zelotes, and Judas of James. 14 Alle these weren lastingly continuyng with o wille in preier, with wymmen, and Marie, the moder of Jhesu, and with hise britheren. 15 In tho daies Petre roos vp in the myddil of the britheren, and seide; and ther was a company of men togidere, alrest an hundrid and twenti; 16 Britheren, it bihoueth that the scripture be fillid, whiche the Hooli Goost bifore seide bi the mouth of Dauith, of Judas that was ledere of hem that token Jhesu; 17 and was noumbred among vs, and gat a part of this seruyce. 18 And this Judas hadde a feeld of the hire of wickidnesse, and he was hangid, and `to-brast the myddil, and alle hise entrailes weren sched abroad. 19 And it was maad known to alle men that dwelten in Jerusalem, so that the ilke feeld was clepid Acheldemak in the langage of hem, that is, the feeld of blood. 20 And it is writun in the book of Salmes, The abitacioun of hem be maad desert, and be ther noon that dwelle in it, and an other take his bishopriche. 21 Therfor it bihoueth of these men, that ben gaderid togidere with vs in al the tyme, in which the Lord Jhesu entride, and wente out among vs, 22 and bigan fro the baptyng of Joon til in to the dai in which he was takun vp fro vs, that oon of these be maad a witness of his resurreccioun with vs. 23 And thei ordeyneden tweyn, Joseph, that was clepid Barsabas, that was named Just, and Mathie. 24 And thei preieden, and seiden, Thou, Lord, that knowist the hertis of alle men, schewe whom thou hast chosun of these tweyne, 25 that oon take the place of this seruyce and apostlehed, of which Judas trespasside, that he schulde go in to his place. 26 And thei yauen lottis to hem, and the lot felde on Mathie; and he was noumbred with enleuen apostlis.

2 And whanne the daies of Pentecost weren fillid, alle the disciplen weren togidere in the same place. 2 And sodeynli ther was maad a sown fro heuene, as of a greet wynde comyng, and it fillide al the hous where thei saten. 3 And diuerse tungis as fier apperiden to hem, and it sat on ech of hem. 4 And alle weren fillid with the Hooli Goost, and thei bigunnen to speke diuerse langagis, as the Hooli Goost yaf to hem for to speke. 5 And ther weren in Jerusalem dwellinge Jewis, religiouse men, of ech nacioun that is vndur heuene. 6 And whanne this vois was maad, the multitude cam togidere, and thei weren astonyed in thouyt, for ech man herde hem spekinge in his langage. 7 And alle weren astonyed, and wondriden, and seiden togidere, Whether not alle these that speken ben men of Galyle, 8 and hou herden we ech man his langage in which we ben borun? 9 Parthi, and Medi, and Elamite, and thei that dwellen at Mesopotami, Judee, and Capodosie, and Ponte, 10 and Asie, Frigie, and Pamfilie, Egipt, and the parties of Libie, that is aboute Sirenen, and `comelingis Romayns, and Jewis, 11 and proselitis, men of Crete, and of Arabie, we han herd hem spekyng in oure langagis the grette thingis of God. 12 And alle weren astonyed, and wondriden, `and seiden togidere, What wole this thing be? 13 And othere scorneden, and seiden, For these men ben ful of must. 14 But Petre stood with the enleuene, and reiseid vp his vois, and spak to hem, Ye Jewis, and alle that dwellen at Jerusalem, be this knowun to you, and with eris perseyue ye my wordis. 15 For not as ye wenen, these ben dronkun, whanne it is the thriddie our of the dai; 16 but this it is, that was seid bi the prophete Johel, 17 And it schal be in the laste daies, the Lord seith, Y schal helde out my spirit on ech fleisch; and youre sones and youre douytris schulen prophesie, and youre yonge men schulen se visious, and youre eldris schulen drewe sweuenes. 18 And on my seruautis and myn handmaidens in tho daies Y schal schede out of my spirit, and thei schulen prophesie. 19 And Y schal yyue grette wondris in heuene aboue, and signes in erthe bynethe, blood, and fier, and heete of smoke. 20 The sunne schal be turned in to derknessis, and the moone in to blood, bifor that the greet and the opyn dai of the Lord come. 21 And it schal be, ech man which euere schal clepe to help the name of the Lord, schal be saaf. 22 Ye men of Israel, here ye these wordis. Jhesu of Nazareth, a man preued of God bifor you bi vertues, and wondris, and tokenes, which God dide bi hym in the myddil of you, 23 as ye witen, ye turmentiden, and killiden hym bi the hoondis of wyckid men, bi conseil determyned and bitakun bi the forknouwyng of God. 24 Whom God reiseid, whanne sowewis of helle weren vnboundun, bi that that it was impossible that he were holdun of it. 25 For Dauid seith of hym, Y saiy afer the Lord bifore me euermore, for he is on my rythalf, that Y be not mouyd. 26 For this thing myn herte ioiede, and my tunge made ful out ioie, and more ouere my fleisch schal reste in hope. 27 For thou schalt not leue my soule in helle, nethir thou schalt yiuue thin hooli to se corrupcioun. (Hadēs g86) 28 Thou hast maad knowun to me the weies of lijf, thou schalt fille me in myrthe with thi face. 29 Britheren, be it leueful boldli to seie to you of the patriark Dauid, for he is deed and biried, and his sepulcre is among vs in to this dai. 30 Therfore whanne he was a prophete, and wiste, that with a greet ooth God hadde sworn to hym, that of the fruyt of his leende schulde oon sitte on his seete, 31 he seynghe afer spak of the resurreccioun of Crist, for nether he was left in helle, nether his fleisch saiy corrupcioun. (Hadēs g86) 32 God reiseid this Jhesu, to whom we alle ben witnessis. 33 Therfor he was enhaunsid bi the riythoond of God, and thorouy the biheest of the Hooli Goost that he took of the fadir, he schedde out this spirit, that ye seen and heren. 34 For Dauid stiede not in to heuene; but he seith, The Lord seide to my Lord, 35 Sitte thou on my riyt half, til Y putte thin enemyes a stool of thi feet. 36 Therfor moost certeynli wite al the hous of Israel, that God made hym bothe Lord and Crist, this Jhesu, whom ye crucefieden. 37 Whanne thei herden these thingis, thei weren compunct in herte; and thei seiden to Petre and othere apostlis, Britheren, what schulen we do? 38 And Petre seide to hem, Do ye penaunce, and eche of you be baptisid in the name of Jhesu Crist, in to remissioun of youre synnes; and ye schulen take the yifte of the Hooli Goost. 39 For the biheest is to you, and to youre sonnes, and to alle that ben fer, which euer oure Lord God hath clepid. 40 Also with othere wordis ful many he witnesside to hem, and monestide hem, and seide, Be ye sauuyd fro this schrewid generacioun. 41 Thanne thei that resseyueden his word weren baptisid, and in that dai soulis weren encreesid, aboute thre thousande; 42 and weren lastynghe stabli in the teching of the apostlis, and in comynyng of the breking of breed, in preieris. 43 And drede was maad to ech man. And many wondris and signes weren don bi the apostlis in Jerusalem, and greet drede was in alle. 44 And alle that bileueden weren togidre, and hadden alle thingis comyn. 45 Thei selden possessiouns and catel, and departiden tho thingis to alle men, as it was nede to ech. 46 And ech dai thei dwelliden stabli with o wille in the temple, and braken breed aboute housis, and token mete with ful out ioye and symplenesse of herte, 47 and herieden togidre God, and hadden grace to al the folk. And the Lord encreside hem that weren maad saaf, ech dai in to the same thing.

3 And Petre and Joon wenten vp in to the temple, at the nynthe our of preiying. 2 And a man that was lame fro the wombe of his modir, was borun, and was leid ech dai at the yate of the temple, that is seid feir, to axe almes of men that entriden in to the temple. 3 This, whanne he say Petre and Joon bigynnynghe to entre in to the temple, preyede that he schulde take almes. 4 And Petre with Joon bihelde on hym, and seide, Biholde thou in to vs. 5 And he biheelde in to hem, and hopide, that he schulde take sumwhat of hem. 6 But Petre seide, Y haue nether siluer ne gold; but that that Y haue, Y yiuue to thee. In the name of Jhesu Crist of Nazareth, rise thou vp, and go. 7 And he took hym bi the riythoond, and heuede hym vp; and anon hise leggis and hise feet weren sowdli togidre; 8 and he lippide, and stood, and wandride. And he entride with hem in to the temple, and wandride, and lippide, and heriede God. 9 And al the puple sai hym walkinge, and heriynge God. 10 And thei knewen hym, that he it was that sat at almes at the feire yate of the temple. And thei weren fillid with wondryng, and stoniynge, in that thing that byfelde to hym. 11 But whanne thei sien Petre and Joon, al the puple ran to hem at the porche that was clepid of Salomon, and wondriden greetli. 12 And Petre siy, and answeride to the puple, Men of Israel, what wondren ye in this thing? ether what biholden ye vs, as by oure vertue ethir power we maden this man for to walke? 13 God of Abraham, and God of Ysaac, and God of Jacob, God of oure fadris, hath glorified his sone Jhesu, whom ye bitraiden, and denyeden bifor the face of Pilat, whanne he demede hym to be delyuered. 14 But ye denyeden the hooli and the riytful, and axiden a mansleer to be youun to you. 15 And ye slown the maker of lijf, whom God reiseid fro deth, of whom we ben witnessis. 16 And in the feith of his name he hath confermyd this man, whom ye seen and knowen; the name of hym, and the feith that is bi him, yaf to this man ful heelte in the siyt of alle you. 17 And now, britheren, Y woot that bi vnwityng ye diden, as also youre princis. 18 But God that bifor telde bi the mouth of alle profetis, that his Crist schulde suffre, hath fillid so. 19 Therfor be ye repentaunt, and be ye conuertid, that youre synnes be don awei, that whanne the tymes of refresching schulen come from the siyt of the Lord, 20 and he schal sende thilke Jhesu Crist, that is now prechid to you. 21 Whom it bihoueth heuene to resseyue, in to the tymes of restitucioun of alle thingis, which the Lord spak bi the mouth of hise hooli prophetis fro the world. (aion g165) 22 For Moises seide, For the Lord youre God schal reise to you a profete, of youre britheren; as me, ye schulen here hym bi alle thingis, what euer he schal speke to you. 23 And it schal be, that euery man that schal not here the ilke profete, schal be distried fro the puple. 24 And alle prophetis fro Samuel and aftirward, that spaken, telden these daies. 25 But ye ben the sonnes of prophetis, and of the testament, that God ordeynede to oure fadris, and seide to Abraham, In thi seed alle the meynes of erthe schulen be blessid. 26 God reiseid his sone first to you, and sente hym blessynghe you, that ech man conuerte hym from his wickidnesse.

4 And while thei spaken to the puple, the preestis and magistratis of the temple, and the Saduceis camen vpon hem, and sowreden, 2 that thei tauyten the puple, and telden in Jhesu the ayenrisyng fro deth. 3 And thei leiden hondis on hem, and puttiden hem in to warde in to the morewe; for it was thanne euentid. 4 But manye of hem that hadden herd the word, bileueden; and the noubre of men was maad fyue thousyndis. 5 And amorewe it was don, that the princis of hem, and eldre men and scribis weren gadirid in Jerusalem; 6 and Annas, prince of preestis, and Caifas, and Joon, and Alisaundre, and hou manye euere weren of the kynde of preestis. 7 And thei settiden hem in the myddil, and axiden, In what vertue, ether in what name, han ye don this thing? 8 Thanne Petre was fillid with the Hooli Goost, and seide to hem, Ye pryncis of the puple, and ye eldre men, here ye. 9 If we to dai be demyd in the good dede of a sijk man, in whom this man is maad saaf, 10 be it knowun to you alle, and to al the puple of Israel, that in the name of Jhesu Crist of Nazareth, whom ye crucifieden, whom God reiseid fro deth, in this this man stondith hool bifor you. 11 This is the stoon, which was repleued of you bildinge, which is maad in to the heed of the corner; 12 and heelthe is not in any othir. For nether other name vndur heuene is youun to men, in which it bihoueth vs to be maad saaf. 13 And thei siyen the stidfastnesse of Petre and of Joon, for it was foundun that thei weren men vnlettrid, and lewid men, and thei wondriden, and knewen hem that thei weren with Jhesu. 14 And thei siyen the man that was helid, standinge with hem, and thei myyten no thing ayenseie. 15 But thei comaundiden hem to go forth with out the counsel. And thei spaken togidere, 16 and seiden, What schulen we do to these men? for the signe is maad knowun bi hem to alle men, that dwellen at Jerusalem; it is opyn, and we moun not denye. 17 But that it be no more pupplischid in to the puple, manasse we to hem, that thei speke no more in this name to ony men. 18 And thei clepiden hem, and denounsiden to hem, that on no maner thei schulden speke, nether teche, in the name of Jhesu. 19 But Petre and Joon answeriden, and seiden to hem, If it be riyful in the siyt of God to here you rather than God, deme ye. 20 For we moten nedis speke tho thingis, that we han sayn and herd. 21 And thei manassiden, and leften hem, and foundun not hou thei schulden punische hem, for the puple; for alle men clarifieden that thing that was don in that that was bifalle. 22 For the man was more than of fourty year, in which this signe of heelthe was maad. 23 And whanne thei weren delyuerid, thei camen to her felowis, and telden to hem, hou grete thingis the princis of preestis and the eldre men hadden seid to hem. 24 And whanne thei herden, with oon herte thei reiseden vois to the Lord, and seiden, Lord, thou that madist heuene and erthe, see, and alle thingis that ben in hem, which seidist bi the Hooli Goost, 25 bi the mouth of oure fadir Dauid, thi child, Whi hethen men gnastiden with teeth togidre, and the puplis thouyten veyn thingis? 26 Kyngis of the erthe stoden ny, and princis camen togidre in to oon, ayens the Lord, and ayens his Crist. 27 For verili Eroude and Pounce Pilat, with hethene men, and puplis of Israel, camen togidre in this citee ayens thin hooli child Jhesu, 28 whom thou anyoyntidist, to do the thingis, that thin hoond and thi counsel demyden to be don. 29 And now, Lord, biholde in to the thretnyngis of hem, and graunte to thi seruautis to speke thi word with al trist, 30 in that thing that thou holde forth thin hond, that heelthis and signes and wondris be maad bi the name of thin hooli sone Jhesu. 31 And whanne thei hadden preyed, the place was moued, in which thei weren gaderid; and alle weren fillid with the Hooli Goost, and spaken the word of God with trist. 32 And of al the multitude of men bileuyng was oon herte and oon wille; nether ony man seide ony thingis of tho thingis that he weldide to be his owne, but alle thingis weren comyn to hem. 33 And with greet vertu the apostlis yeldiden witnessyng of the ayenrasyng of Jhesu Crist oure Lord, and greet grace was in alle hem. 34 For nether ony nedi man was among hem, for how manye euere weren possessouris of feeldis, ether of housis, thei seelden, and brouyten the pricis of tho thingis that thei seelden, 35 and leiden bifor the feet of the apostlis. And it was departid to ech, as it was nede to ech. 36 Forsothe Joseph, that was named Barsabas of apostlis, that is to seie, the sone of coumfort, of the lynage of Leuy, 37 a man of Cipre, whanne he hadde a feeld, seelde it, and brouyte the prijs, and leide it bifor the feet of apostlis.

5 But a man, Anany bi name, with Safira, his wijf, 2 seelde a feeld, and defraudide of the prijs of the feeld; and his wijf was witinge. And he brouyte a part, and leide bifor the feet of the apostlis. 3 And Petre seide to hym, Anany, whi hath Sathanas temptid thin herte, that thou lye to the Hooli Goost, and to defraude of the prijs of the feeld? 4 Whethir it vnseld was not thin; and whanne it was seld, it was in thi power? Whi hast thou put this thing in thin herte? Thou hast not lied to men, but to God. 5 Anany herde these wordis, and felde doun, and was deed. And greet drede was maad on alle that herden. 6 And yonge men risen, and mouyden hym awei, and baren hym out, and briediden. 7 And ther was maad as a space of thre ouris, and his wijf knewe not that thing that was don, and entride. 8 And Petre answerde to hir, Womman, seie to me, whether ye seelden the feeld for so mych? And sche seide, Yhe, for so mych. 9 And Petre seide to hyr, What bifelde to you, to tempte the spirit of the Lord? Lo! the feet of hem that han brieden thin hosebonde ben at the dore, and thei schulen bere thee out. 10 Anoon sche felde doun at hise feet, and diede. And the yonge men entriden, and founden hir deed, and thei baren hir out, and briediden to hir hosebonde. 11 And greet drede was maad in al the chirche, and in to alle that herden these thingis. 12 And bi the hoondis of the apostlis signes and many wondris weren maad in the puple. And alle weren of oon acord in the porche of Salomon. 13 But no man of othere durste ioyne hymself with hem, but the puple magnyfiede hem. 14 And the multitude of men and of wymmen bileuyng in the Lord was more encreessid, 15 so that thei brouyten out sike men in to stretis, and leiden in litle beddis and couchis, that whanne Petre cam, nameli the schadew of hym schulde schadewe ech of hem, and thei schulden be delyuerid fro her syknessis. 16 And the multitude of citees niy to Jerusalem ran, bryngynge sijk men, and that weren trauelid of vnclene spiritis, whiche alle weren heelid. 17 But the prince of preestis roos vp, and alle that weren with hym, that is the eresye of Saduceis, and weren fillid with enuye; 18 and leiden hondis on the apostlis, and puttiden hem in the comyn warde. 19 But the aungel of the Lord openyde bi nytt the yatis of the prisoun, and ledde hem out, and seide, Go ye, 20 and stonde ye, and speke in the temple to the puple alle the wordis of this lijf. 21 Whom whanne thei hadden herd, thei entriden eerli in to the temple, and tauyten. And the prince of preestis cam, and thei that weren with him, and clepiden togidre the counsel, and alle the eldre men of the children of Israel; and senten to the prisoun, that thei schulden be brouyt forth. 22 And whanne the mynystis camen, founden hem not, and for the prisoun was openyd, thei turneden ayen, 23 and teelden, and seiden, We founden the prisoun schit with al diligence, and the keperis stondynge at the yatis; but we opneden, and founden no man ther ynne. 24 And as the maiestratis of the temple, and the princis of preestis herden these wordis, thei doutiden of hem, what was don. 25 But a man cam, and teelde to hem, For lo! tho men whiche ye han put in to prisoun, ben in the temple, and stonden, and techen the puple. 26 Thanne the magistrat wente with the mynystris, and brouyte hem with out violence; for thei dredden the puple, lest thei schulden be stonyd. 27 And whanne thei hadden brouyt hem, thei settiden hem in the counsel; and the princes of prestis axiden hem, 28 and seiden, In comaundement we comaundiden you, that ye schulden not teche in this name, and lo! ye han fillid Jerusalem with youre teching, and ye wolen bringe on vs the blood of this man. 29 And Petre answeride, and the apostlis, and seiden, It bihoueth to obeie to God, more than to men. 30 God of oure fadris reside Jhesu, whom ye slowen, hangynge in a tre. 31 God enhaunsid with his rythond this prince and sauour, that penaunce were yyue to Israel, and remyssion of synnes. 32 And we ben witnessis of these wordis, and the Hooli Goost, whom God yaf to alle obeischinge to him. 33 Whanne thei herden these thingis, thei weren turmentid, and thouyten to sle hem. 34 But a man roos in the counsel, a Farise, Gamaliel bi name, a doctour of the lawe, a worschipful man to al the puple, and comaundide the men to be put without forth for a while. 35 And he seide to hem, Ye men of Israel, take tent to you silf on these men, what ye schulen do. 36 For bifore these daies Teodas, that seide hym silf to be sum man, to whom a noubre of men consentiden, aboute foure hundrid; which was slayn, and alle that bileueden to hym, weren disparplit, and brouyt to nouyt. 37 Afir this, Judas of Galilee was in the daies of professioun, and turnyde awei the puple afir hym; and alle hou manye euere consentiden to hym, weren scatered, and he perischide. 38 And now therfor Y seie to you, departe ye fro these men, and suffre ye hem; for if this counsel ether werk is of men, it schal be vndon; 39 but if it is of God, ye moun not vndo hem, lest perauenture ye be foundun to repugne God. 40 And thei consentiden to him; and thei clepiden togidere the apostlis, and denounsiden to hem, that weren betun, that thei schulden no more speke in the name of Jhesu, and thei leten hem go. 41 And thei wenten ioiynge fro the siyt of the counsel, that thei weren had worthi to suffre dispisyng for the name of Jhesu. 42 But ech dai thei ceessiden not in the temple, and aboute housis, to teche and to preche Jhesu Crist.

6 But in tho daies, whanne the noubre of disciplis encreesside, the Grekis grutchiden ayens the Ebrews, for that her widewis weren dispisid in euery daies mynstryng. 2 And the twelue clepiden togidere the multitude of disciplis, and seiden, It is not ryytful, that we leeu en the word of God, and mynystren to boordis. 3 Therfor, britheren, biholde ye men of you of good fame, ful of the Hooli Goost and of wisdom, whiche we schulen ordeyne on this werk; 4 for we schulen be bisi to preier, and preche the word of God. 5 And the word pleside bifor al the multitude; and thei chesiden Styuen, a man ful of feith and of the Hooli Goost, and Filip, and Procore, and Nycanor, and Tymon, and Parmanam, and Nycol, a comelyng, a man of Antioche. 6 Thei ordeyneden these bifor the siyt of apostlis, and thei

preyeden, and leiden hoondis on hem. 7 And the word of the Lord waxide, and the noubre of the disciplis in Jerusalem was myche multiplied; also myche company of preestis obeiede to the feith. 8 And Steuen, ful of grace and of strengthe, made wondris and grete signes in the puple. 9 But summe rysen of the synagoge, that was clepid of Libertyns, and Cirenensis, and of men of Alisaundre, and of hem that weren of Cilice and of Asie, and disputiden with Steuene. 10 And thei miyten not withstonde the wisdom and the spirit, that spak. 11 Thanne thei priueli senten men, that schulden seie, that thei herden hym seiynge wordis of blasfemye ayens Moises and God. 12 And so thei moueden togidere the puple, and the eldre men, and the scribis; and thei rannen togidre, and token hym, and brouyten in to the counsel. 13 And thei ordeyneden false witnessis, that seiden, This man ceessith not to speke wordis ayens the hooli place, and the lawe. 14 For we herden hym seiynge, That this Jhesus of Nazareth schal destroye this place, and schal change the tradiciouns, whiche Moyses bitook to us. 15 And alle men that seten in the counsel bihelden hym, and sayn his face as the face of an aungel.

7 And the prynce of prestis seide to Steuene, Whethir these thingis han hem so? 2 Which seide, Britheren and fadris, here ye. God of glorie apperide to oure fadir Abraham, whanne he was in Mesopotamie, bifor that he dwelte in Carram, and seide to hym, 3 Go out of thi loond, and of thi kynrede, and come in to the loond, which Y schal schewe to thee. 4 Thanne he wente out of the loond of Caldeis, and dwelte in Carram. And fro thens afir that his fader was deed, he translatide him in to this loond, in which ye dwellen now. 5 And he yaf not to hym eritage in it, nethir a paas of a foot, but he bihiyte to yyue hym it in to possessioun, and to his seed afir hym, whanne he hadde not a sone. 6 And God spak to hym, That his seed schal be comling in an alien lond, and thei schulen make hem suget to seruage, and schulen yuel trete hem, foure hundrid yeris and thritti; 7 and Y schal iuge the folk, to which thei schulen serue, seith the Lord. And after these thingis thei schulen go out, and thei schulen serue to me in this place. 8 And he yaf to hym the testament of circumcisioun; and so he gendride Ysaac, and circumcidide hym in the eyt dai. And Isaac gendride Jacob, and Jacob gendride the twelue patriarkis. 9 And the patriarkis hadden enuye to Joseph, and selden hym in to Egipt. 10 And God was with hym, and delyuerede hym of alle hise tribulaciouns, and yaf to hym grace and wisdom in the siyt of Farao, king of Egipt. And he ordeynede hym souereyn on Egipt, and on al his hous. 11 And hungur cam in to al Egipt, and Canaan, and greet tribulacioun; and oure fadris founden not mete. 12 But whanne Jacob hadde herd, that whete was in Egipt, he sente oure fadris first. 13 And in the secounde tyme Joseph was knowun of hise britheren, and his kyn was maad knowun to Farao. 14 And Joseph sente, and clepide Jacob, his fadir, and al his kynrede, seuenti and fyue men. 15 And Jacob cam doun in to Egipt, and was deed, he and oure fadris; 16 and thei weren translatid in to Sichen, and weren leid in the sepulchre, that Abraham bouyte bi prijs of siluer of the sonnes of Emor, the sone of Sichen. 17 And whanne the tyme of biheeste cam niy, which God hadde knoulechid to Abraham, the puple waxede, and multipliede in Egipt, 18 til another kyng roos in Egipt, which knewe not Joseph. 19 This bigilide oure kyn, and turmentide oure fadris, that thei schulden putte away her yonge children, for thei schulden not lyue. 20 In the same tyme Moyses was borun, and he was louyd of God; and he was norischid thre monethis in the hous of his fadir. 21 And whanne he was put out in the flood, the douyter of Farao took hym vp, and nurischide hym in to hir sone. 22 And Moyses was lerned in al the wisdom of Egipcians, and he was myyti in his wordis and werkis. 23 But whanne the tyme of fourti yeer was fillid to hym, it roos vp `in to his herte, that he schulde visite hise britheren, the sones of Israel. 24 And whanne he say a man suffringe wronge, he vengide hym, and dide veniaunce for hym that suffride the wronge, and he killide the Egipcian. 25 For he gesside that his britheren schulden vndurstonde, that God schulde yyue to hem helthe bi the hoond of hym; but thei vndurstoden not. 26 For in the dai suynghe he apperide to hem chidinge, and he acordide hem in pees, and seide, Men, ye ben britheren; whi noyen ye ech other? 27 But he that dide the wronge to his neybore, puttide hym away, and seide, Who ordeynede thee prince and domesman on vs? 28 Whethir thou wolt sle me, as yistirdai thou killidist the Egipcian? 29 And in this word Moyses flei, and was maad a comeling in the loond of Madian, where he bigat twei sones. 30 And whanne he hadde fillid fourti yeer, an aungel apperide to hym in fier of flawme of a buysch, in desert of the mount of Syna. 31 And Moyses siy, and wondride on the siyt. And whanne he neiyede to biholde, the vois of the Lord was maad to hym, 32 and seide, Y am God of youre fadris, God of Abraham, God of Ysaac, God of Jacob. Moyses was maad trembynghe, and durste not biholde. 33 But God seide to hym, Do of the schoon of thi feet, for the place in which thou stondist is hooli erthe. 34 Y seynghe say the turmentyng of my puple that is in Egipt, and Y herde the mornyng of hem, and Y cam down to delyuere hem. And now come thou, and Y schal sende thee in to Egipt. 35 This Moyses whom thei denyeden, seiynge, Who ordeynede thee prince and domesman on vs? God sente this prince and ayenbiere, with the hoond of the aungel, that apperide to hym in the busch. 36 This Moyses ledde hem out, and dide wondris and signes in the loond of Egipt, and in the reed see, and in desert fourti yeeris. 37 This is Moyses, that seide to the sones of Israel, God schal reise to you a profete of youre bretheren, as me ye schulen here him. 38 This it is, that was in the chirche in wildirnesse, with the aungel that spak to hym in the mount of Syna, and with oure fadris; which took words of lijf to yyue to vs. 39 To whom oure fadris wolden not obeie, but puttiden hym awei, and weren turned awei in hertis in to Egipt, 40 seiynge to Aaron, Make thou to vs goddis, that schulen go bfore vs; for to this Moyses that ledde vs out of the lond of Egipt, we witen not what is don to hym. 41 And thei maden a calf in tho daies, and offriden a sacrifice to the mawmet; and thei weren glad in the werkis of her hondis. 42 And God turnede, and bitook hem to serue to the knythyod of heuene, as it is writun in the book of profetis, Whether ye, hous of Israel, offriden to me slayn sacrificis, ether sacrificis, fourti

yeris in desert? 43 And ye han take the tabernacle of Moloc, and the sterre of youre god Renfam, figuris that ye han maad to worschepe hem; and Y schal translate you in to Babiloyne. 44 The tabernacle of witnessing was with oure fadris in desert, as God disposide to hem, and spak to Moyses, that he schulde make it aftir the fourme that he say. 45 Which also oure fadris token with Jhesu, and brouyten in to the possessioun of hethene men, whiche God puttide away fro the face of oure fadris, til in to the daies of Dauid, 46 that fonde grace anentis God, and axide that he schulde fynde a tabernacle to God of Jacob. 47 But Salomon bildide the hous `to hym. 48 But the hiy God dwellich not in thingis maad bi hoond, 49 as he seith bi the profete, Heuene is a seete to me, and the erthe is the stool of my feet; what hous schulen ye bilde to me, seith the Lord, ether what place is of my restyng? 50 Whether myn hoond made not alle these thingis? 51 With hard nol, and vncircumcidid hertis and eris ye withstoden eueremore the Hooli Goost; and as youre fadris, so ye. 52 Whom of the profetis han not youre fadris pursued, and han slayn hem that bifor telden of the comyng of the riythful man, whos traitouris and mansleeris ye weren now? 53 Whiche token the lawe in ordynance of aungels, and han not kept it. 54 And thei herden these thingis, and weren dyuersli turmentid in her hertis, and grenneden with teeth on hym. 55 But whanne Steuene was ful of the Hooli Goost, he bihelde in to heuene, and say the glorie of God, and Jhesu stondinge on the riythalf of the vertu of God. 56 And he seide, Lo! Y se heuenes openyd, and mannus sone stondynghe on the riythalf of the vertu of God. 57 And thei crieden with a greet vois, and stoppiden her eris, and maden with o wille an assaunt in to hym. 58 And thei brouyten hym out of the citee, and stonyden. And the witnessis diden of her clothis, bisidis the feet of a yong man, that was clepid Saule. 59 And thei stonyden Steuene, that clepide God to help, seiynge, Lord Jhesu, resseyue my spirit. 60 And he knelide, and criede with a greet vois, and seide, Lord, sette not to hem this synne. And whanne he hadde seid this thing, he diede.

8 But Saul was consentynghe to his deth. And greet persecucioun was maad that dai in the chirche, that was in Jerusalem. And alle men weren scatered bi the cuntrees of Judee and Samarie, outakun the apostlis. 2 But good men birieden Steuene, and maden greet mornyng on hym. 3 But Saul greetli destruyede the chirche, and entryde bi housis, and drowe men and wymmen, and bitook hem in to prisoun. 4 And thei that weren scaterid, passiden forth, prechynghe the word of God. 5 And Filip cam down in to a citee of Samarie, and prechide to hem Crist. 6 And the puple yaf tent to thes thingis that weren seid of Filip, with o wille herynghe and seynghe the signes that he hidede. 7 For manye of hem that hadden vncleue spirits, crieden with a greet vois, and wenten out. 8 And manye sijk in the palsy, and crokid, weren heelid. 9 Therfor greet ioye was maad in that citee. But there was a man in that citee, whos name was Symount, a witche, that hadde disseyued the folc of Samarie, seiynge, that him silf was sum greet man. 10 Whom alle herkeneden, fro the leest to the moost, and seiden, This is the vertu of God, which is clepid greet. 11 And thei leueden hym, for long tyme

he hadde maddid hem with his witche craftis. 12 But whanne thei hadden bileued to Filip, `that prechide of the kingdom of God, men and wymmen weren baptisid in the name of Jhesu Crist. 13 And thanne also Symount him silf bileued; and whanne he was baptisid, he drouy to Filip; and he sai also that signes and grete vertues weren don, he was astonyed, and wondride. 14 But whanne the apostlis that weren at Jerusalem, hadden herd that Samarie hadde resseyued the word of God, thei senten to hem Petre and Joon. 15 And whanne thei camen, thei preieden for hem, that thei schulden resseyue the Hooli Goost; 16 for he cam not yit in to oñy of hem, but thei weren baptisid oonli in the name of the Lord Jhesu. 17 Thanne thei leiden hoondis on hem, and thei resseyueden the Hooli Goost. 18 And whanne Symount hadde seyn, that the Hooli Goost was youun bi leiyng on of the hoondis of the apostlis, and he proferide to hem money, and seide, 19 Yyue ye also to me this power, that whom euere Y schal leye on myn hoondis, that he resseyue the Hooli Goost. 20 But Petir seide to hym, Thi money be with thee into perdicioun, for thou gessidist the yifte of God schulde be had for monei. 21 Ther is no part, ne sort to thee, in this word, for thin herte is not riytful bifor God. 22 Therfor do thou penaunce for this wickidnesse of thee, and preie God, if perauenture this thouyt of thin herte be foryouun to thee. 23 For Y se that thou art in the gall of bitternesse and in the boond of wickidnesse. 24 And Symount answeride, and seide, Preie ye for me to the Lord, that no thing of these things that ye han seid, com on me. 25 And thei witnessiden, and spaken the word of the Lord, and yeden ayen to Jerusalem, and prechiden to many cuntrees of Samaritans. 26 And an aungel of the Lord spak to Filip, and seide, Ryse thou, and go ayens the south, to the weie that goith down fro Jerusalem in to Gasa; this is desert. 27 And he roos, and wente forth. And lo! a man of Ethiopie, a myyti man seruaut, a yelding of Candace, the queen of Ethiopiens, which was on alle her richessis, cam to worschipe in Jerusalem. 28 And he turnede ayen, sittinge on his chare, and redinge Isaie, the profete. 29 And the spirit seide to Filip, Neiye thou, and ioynne thee to this chare. 30 And Filip `ran to, and herde hym redyng Ysaie, the prophete. And he seide, Gessist thou, whether thou vndirstondist, what thingis thou redist? 31 And he seide, How may Y, if no man schewe to me? And he preiede Filip, that he schulde come vp, and sitte with hym. 32 And the place of the scripture that he redde, was this, As a scheep he was led to sleyng, and as a lomb bifor a man that scherith him is dumb with out vois, so he openyde not his mouth. 33 In mekenesse his dom was takun vp; who schal telle out the generacioun of hym? For his lijf schal be takun awei fro the erthe. 34 And the gelding answeride to Filip, and seide, Y biseche thee, of `what profete seith he this thing? of him silf, ethir of ony othere? 35 And Filip openyde his mouth, and bigan at this scripture, and prechide to him Jhesu. 36 And the while thei wenten bi the weie, thei camen to a water. And the gelding seide, Lo! watir; who forbedith me to be baptisid? 37 And Filip seide, If thou bileuest of al the herte, it is leueful. And he answeride, and seide, Y bileue that Jhesu Crist is the sone of God. 38 And he comaundide the chare to stonde stille. And thei wenten doun bothe into the watir, Filip and the gelding, and Filip baptiside hym. 39 And whanne thei weren come vp of the watir, the spirit of the Lord rauyschide Filip, and the gelding say hym no more. 40 And Filip was foundun in Azotus; and he passide forth, and prechide to alle citees, til he cam to Cesarie.

9 But Saul, yit a blower of manassis and of betingis ayens the disciplis of the Lord, 2 cam to the prince of preestis, and axide of hym lettris in to Damask, to the synagogis; that if he fond ony men and wymmen of this lijf, he schulde lede hem boundun to Jerusalem. 3 And whanne he made his journey, it bifelde, that he cam nyy to Damask. And sudenli a liyt from heuene schoon aboute hym; 4 and he fallide to the erthe, and herde a vois seiynge to hym, Saul, Saul, what pursuest thou me? 5 And he seide, Who art thou, Lord? And he seide, Y am Jhesu of Nazareth, whom thou pursuest. It is hard to thee, to kike ayens the prick. 6 And he tremblide, and wondride, and seide, Lord, what wilt thou that Y do? 7 And the Lord seide to hym, Rise vp, and entre in to the citee, and it schal be seide to thee, what it bihoueth thee to do. And tho men that wenten with hym, stoden astonyed; for thei herden a vois, but thei sien no man. 8 And Saul roos fro the earth; and whanne hise iyen weren opened, he say no thing. And thei drowen hym bi the hondis, and ledde hym in to Damask. 9 And he was thre daies not seyng; and he eete not, nether drank. 10 And a disciple, Ananye bi name, was at Damask. And the Lord seide to hym in `a visioun, Ananye. And he seide, Lo! 11 Y, Lord. And the Lord seide to hym, Rise thou, and go in to a streete that is clepid Rectus; and seke, in the hous of Judas, Saul bi name of Tharse. For lo! he preieth; and he say a man, 12 Ananye bi name, entringe and leiynge on hym hoondis, that he resseyue siyt. 13 And Ananye answerde, Lord, Y haue herd of many of this man, how greete yuelis he dide to thi seyntis in Jerusalem; 14 and this hath power of the princis of preestis, to bynde alle men that clepen thi name to helpe. 15 And the Lord seide to hym, Go thou, for this is to me a vessel of chesing, that he bere my name bifore hethene men, and kingis, and tofore the sones of Israel. 16 For Y schal schewe to hym, how grete thingis it bihoueth hym to suffre for my name. 17 And Ananye wente, and entride in to the hous; and leide on hym his hondis, and seide, Saul brothir, the Lord Jhesu sente me, that apperide to thee in the weie, in which thou camest, that thou se, and be fulfillid with the Hooli Goost. 18 And anoon as the scalis felden fro hise iyen, he resseyuede siyt. And he roos, and was baptisid. 19 And whanne he hadde takun mete, he was coumfortid. And he was bi sum daies with the disciplis, that weren at Damask. 20 And anoon he entride in to the synagogis, and prechide the Lord Jhesu, for this is the sone of God. 21 And alle men that herden hym, wondriden, and seiden, Whether this is not he that impugnede in Jerusalem hem that clepiden to help this name? and hidir he cam for this thing, that he schulde leede hem boundun to the princis of preestis? 22 But Saul myche more wexede strong, and confoundide the Jewis that dwellden at Damask, and affermyde that this is Crist. 23 And whanne manye daies weren fillid, Jewis maden a counsel, that thei schulden sle hym. 24 And the aspies of hem weren maad knowun to Saul. And thei kepten the yatis dai and niyt, that thei schulden sle him. 25 But hise disciplis token hym bi nytt, and delyuereden hym, and leeten him doun in a leep bi the wal. 26 And whanne he cam in to Jerusalem, he assaiede to ioynne hym to the disciplis; and alle dredden hym, and leueden not that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas took, and ledde hym to the apostlis, and telde to hem, how in the weie he hadde seyn the Lord, and that he spak to hym, and hou in Damask he dide tristili in the name of Jhesu. 28 And he was with hem, and entride, and yede out in Jerusalem, and dide tristili in the name of Jhesu. 29 And he spak with hethene men, and disputide with Grekis. And thei souyten to sle hym. 30 Which thing whanne the britheren hadden knowe, thei ledden hym bi nytt to Cesarie, and leten hym go to Tarsis. 31 And the chirche bi al Judee, and Galilee, and Samarie, hadde pees, and was edefied, and walkide in the drede of the Lord, and was fillid with coumfort of the Hooli Goost. 32 And it bifelde, that Petre, the while he passide aboute alle, cam to the hooli men that dwelliden at Lidde. 33 And he foond a man, Eneas bi name, that fro eyte yeer he hadde leie `in bed; and he was sijk in palsy. 34 And Petre seide to hym, Eneas, the Lord Jhesu Crist heele thee; rise thou, and araye thee. And anon he roos. 35 And alle men that dwelten at Lidde, and at Sarone, saien hym, whiche weren conuertid to the Lord. 36 And in Joppe was a disciplesse, whos name was Tabita, that is to seie, Dorcas. This was ful of good werkis and almesdedis, that sche dide. 37 And it bifelde in tho daies, that sche was sijk, and diede. And whanne thei hadden waichun hir, thei leiden hir in a soler. 38 And for Lidda was nyy Joppe, the disciplis herden that Petre was thereynne, and senten twei men to hym, and preieden, That thou tarie not to come to vs. 39 And Petre roos vp, and cam with hem. And whanne he was comun, thei ledden hym in to the soler. And alle widewis stoden aboute hym, wepyng, and schewyng cootis and clothis, which Dorcas made to hem. 40 And whanne alle men weren put with out forth, Petre knelide, and preiede. And he turnede to the bodi, and seide, Tabita, rise thou. And sche openyde hir iyen, and whanne sche siy Petre, sche sat vp ayen. 41 And he took hir bi the hond, and reiseide hir. Y am, whom ye seken; what is the cause, for which ye ben come? 22 And thei seiden, Cornelie, the centurien, a iust man, and dredinge God, and hath good witnessyng of alle the folc of Jewis, took aunsweere of an hooli aungel, to clepe thee in to his hous, and to here wordis of thee. 23 Therfor he ledde hem inne, and resseyuede in herborne; and that nytt thei dwelliden with hym. And in the dai suyng he roos, and wente forth with hem; and sum of the britheren folewiden hym fro Joppe, that thei be witnessis to Petre. 24 And the other dai he entride in to Cesarie. And Cornelie abood hem, with hise cousyns, and necessarie freendis, that weren clepid togidere. 25 And it was don, whanne Petre was come ynne, Corneli cam metyng hym, and felle doun at hise feet, and worschipide him. 26 But Petre reiseide hym, and seide, Aryse thou, also Y my silf am a man, as thou. 27 And he spak with hym, and wente in, and foonde many that weren come togidere. 28 And he seide to hem, Ye witen, how abhomynable it is to a Jewe, to be ioyned ether to come to an alien; but God schewide to me, that no man seye a man comyn, ethir vnclene. 29 For which thing Y cam, whanne Y was clepid, with out doutyng. Therfor Y axe you, for what cause han ye clepid me? 30 And Cornelie seide, To dai foure daies in to this our, Y was preiynge and fastyng in the nynthre our in myn hous. And lo! a man stood bfore me in a whijt cloth, and seide, 31 Cornelie, thi preier is herd, and thin almesdedis ben in mynde in the siyt of God. 32 Therfor sende thou in to Joppe, and clepe Symount, that is named Petre; this is herborid in the hous of Symount coriour, bisidis the see. Thanne thei prieden hym, that he schulde dwelle with hem sum daies.

11 And the apostlis, and the britheren that weren in Judee, herden that also hethene men resseyueden the word of God, and thei glorifieden God. 2 But whanne Petre cam to Jerusalem, thei that weren of circumcisioun, disputiden ayens hym, 3 and seiden, Whi entridist thou to men that han prepuce, and hast eete with hem? 4 And Petre bigan, and expownede to hem bi ordre, 5 and seide, Y was in the citee of Joppe, and priede, and Y sai in rausching of my mynde a visioun, that a vessel cam down, as a greet scheete with foure coordis, and was sent down fro heuene; and it cam to me. 6 In to which Y lookinge biheld, and sai foure footid beestis of the erthe, and beestis, and crepyng beestis, and volatils of heuene. 7 And Y herde also a vois that seide to me, Petre, rise thou, and sle, and eete. 8 But Y seide, Nay, Lord; for comyn thing ether vnclene entride neuer in to my mouth. 9 And the vois answeride the secounde tyme fro heuene, That thing that God hath clensid, sei thou not vnclene. 10 And this was don bi thries, and alle thingis weren resseyued ayen in to heuene. 11 And lo! thre men anoon stoden in the hous, in which Y was; and thei weren sent fro Cesarie to me. 12 And the spirit seide to me, that Y schulde go with hem, and doute no thing. Yhe, and these sixe britheren camen with me, and we entriden in to the hous of the man. 13 And he telde to vs, how he say an aungel in his hous, standinge and seiynge to hym, Sende thou in to Joppe, and clepe Symount, that is named Petre, which schal speke to thee wordis, 14 in inliche thou schalt be saaf, and al thin hous.

15 And whanne Y hadde bigunnun to speke, the Hooli Goost felle on hem, as in to vs in the bigynnyng. 16 And Y bihouyte on the word of the Lord, as he seide, For Joon baptiside in watir, but ye schulen be baptisid in the Hooli Goost. 17 Therfor if God yaf to hem the same grace, as to vs that bileueden in the Lord Jhesu Crist, who was Y, that mytte forbeede the Lord, that he yyue not the Hooli Goost to hem that bileueden in the name of Jhesu Crist? 18 Whanne these thingis weren herd, thei helden pees, and glorifieden God, and seiden, Therfor also to hethene men God hath youun penance to lijf. 19 And thei that weren scaterid of the tribulacioun that was maad vndir Steuene, walkiden forth to Fenyce, and to Cipre, and to Antioche, and spaken the word to no man, but to Jewis aloone. 20 But sum of hem weren men of Cipre, and of Cirenen; whiche whanne thei hadden entride in to Antioche, thei spaken to the Grekis, and prechiden the Lord Jhesu. 21 And the hond of the Lord was with hem, and myche noumbre of men bileuyng was conuertid to the Lord. 22 And the word cam to the eris of the chirche, that was at Jerusalem, on these thingis; and thei senten Barnabas to Antioche. 23 And whanne he was come, and siy the grace of the Lord, he iojede, and monestide alle men to dwelle in the Lord in purpos of herte; 24 for he was a good man, and ful of the Hooli Goost, and of feith. And myche puple was encresid to the Lord. 25 And he wente forth to Tharsis, to seke Saul; and whanne he hadde foundun hym, he ledde to Antioche. 26 And al a yeer thei lyueden ther in the chirche, and tauyten myche puple, so that the disciplis weren namyd first at Antioche cristen men. 27 And in these daies profetis camen ouer fro Jerusalem to Antioche. 28 And oon of hem roos vp, Agabus bi name, and signefiede bi the spirit a greet hungur to comynge in al the world, which hungur was maad vndur Claudius. 29 And alle the disciplis purposiden, after that ech hadde, for to sende in to mynsterie to britheren that dwelliden in Judee. 30 Which thing also thei diden, and sente it to the eldre men, bi the hoondis of Barnabas and Saul.

12 And in the same tyme Eroude the king sente power, to turmente sum men of the chirche. 2 And he slowe bi swerd James, the brothir of Joon. 3 And he siy that it pleside to Jewis, and keste to take also Petre; and the daies of therf looues weren. 4 And whanne he hadde cauhte Petre, he sente hym in to prisoun; and bitook to foure quaternyouns of knyytis, to kepe hym, and wolde afir pask bringe hym forth to the puple. 5 And Petre was kept in prisoun; but preier was maad of the chirche with out ceessing to God for hym. 6 But whanne Eroude schulde bringe hym forth, in that nytt Petre was slepinge bitwixe twei knyytis, and was boundun with twei cheynes; and the keperis bifor the dore kepten the prisoun. 7 And lo! an aungel of the Lord stode nyy, and liyt schoon in the prisoun hous. But sche affermyde, that it was so. And thei seiden, It is his aungel. 16 But Petre abood stille, and knockide. And whanne thei hadden opened the dore, thei sayen hym, and wondriden. 17 And he bekenyde to hem with his hoond to be stille, and telde hou the Lord hadde led hym out of the prisoun. And he lippide, and walkide. 11 And the puple, whanne thei hadde seyn that that Poul dide, reiden her vois in Licaon tunge, and seiden, Goddis maad lijk to men ben comun down to vs. 12 And thei clepiden Barnabas Jubiter, and Poul Mercurie, for he was ledere of the word. 13 And the preest of Jubiter that was bifor the citee, brouyte boolis and crownes bifor the yatis, with puplis, and wolde haue maad sacrifice. 14 And whanne the apostlis Barnabas and Poul herden this, thei torenten her cootis; and thei skipten out among the puple, 15 and crieden, and seiden, Men, what don ye this thing? and we ben deedli men lijk you, and schewen to you, that ye be conuertid fro these veyn thingis to the lyuynghe God, that maad heuene, and erthe, and the see, and alle thingis that ben in hem; 16 which in generaciouns passid suffride alle folkis to gon in to her owne weies. 17 And yit he lefte not hym sif with out witnessing in wel doying, for he yaf reyns fro heuene, and times beringe fruyt, and fulfillide youre hertis with meete and gladnesse. 18 And thei seiynge these thingis, vnnethis swagiden the puple, that thei offriden not to hem. 19 But sum Jewis camen ouer fro Antioche and Iconye, and counseliden the puple, and stonyden Poul, and drowen out of the citee, and gessiden that he was deed. 20 But whanne disciplis weren comun aboute him, he roos, and wente in to the citee; and in the dai suynghe he wente forth with Barnabas in to Derben. 21 And whanne thei hadden prechid to the ilk citee, and tauyte manye, thei turneden ayen to Listris, and Iconye, and to Antioche; confermynghe the soulis of disciplis, 22 and monestinge, that thei schulden dwelle in feith, and seiden, That bi many tribulaciouns it bihoueth vs to entre in to the kingdom of heuenes. 23 And whanne thei hadden ordeined prestis to hem bi alle citees, and hadden preied with fastyngis, thei bitoken hem to the Lord, in whom thei bileueden. 24 And thei passiden Persidie, and camen to Pamfilie; 25 and thei spaken the word `of the Lord in Pergen, and camen down in to Italie. 26 And fro thennys thei wenten bi boot to Antiochie, fro whennus thei weren takun to the grace of God, in to the werk that thei filliden. 27 And whanne thei weren comun, and hadden gaderid the chirche, thei telden hou grete thingis God dide with hem, and that he hadde openyde to hethene men the dore of feith. 28 And thei dwelliden not a litil tyme with the disciplis.

(aiōn g165) 19 For which thing Y deme hem that of hethene men ben conuertid to God, 20 to be not disesid, but to write to hem, that thei absteyne hem fro defoulingis of maumetis, and fro fornicacioun, and stranglid thingis, and blood. 21 For Moyses of elde tymes hath in alle citees hem that prechen him in synagogis, where bi ech sabat he is red. 22 Thanne it pleside to the apostlis, and to the eldre men, with al the chirche, to chees men of hem, and sende to Antioche, with Poul and Barnabas, Judas, that was named Barsabas, and Silas, the firste men among britheren; 23 and wroten bi the hondis of hem, Apostlis and eldre britheren to hem that ben at Antioche, and Sirie, and Silice, britheren of hethen men, greting. 24 For we herden that summe wenten out fro vs, and trobliden you with wordis, and turneden vpsodoun youre soulis, to whiche men we comaundiden not, 25 it pleside to vs gaderid in to oon, to chese men, and sende to you, with oure most dereworthe Barnabas and Poul, 26 men that yauen her lyues for the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 27 Therfor we senten Judas and Silas, and thei schulen telle the same thingis to you bi wordis. 28 For it is seyn to the Hooli Goost and to vs, to putte to you no thing more of charge, than these nedeful thingis, 29 that ye absteyne you fro the offrid thingis of maumetis, and blood stranglid, and fornicacioun. Fro whiche ye kepinge you, schulen do wel. Fare ye wel. 30 Therfor thei weren let go, and camen down to Antioche; and whanne the multitude was gaderid, thei token the epistle; 31 which whanne thei hadden red, thei ioyden on the coumfort. 32 And Judas and Silas and thei, for thei weren prophetis, coumfortiden britheren, and confermyden with ful many wordis. 33 But aftir that thei hadden be there a lytil while, thei weren let go of britheren with pees, to hem that hadden sent hem. 34 But it was seyn to Silas, to dwelle there; and Judas wente aloone to Jerusalem. 35 And Poul and Barnabas dwelten at Antioche, techinge and preching the word of the Lord, with othere manye. 36 But after summe daies, Poul seide to Barnabas, Turne we ayen, and visite britheren bi alle citees, in whiche we han prechid the word of the Lord, hou thei han hem. 37 And Barnabas wolde take with hym Joon, that was named Marcus. 38 But Poul preiede him, that he that departide fro hem fro Pamfilie, and wente not with hem in to the werk, schulde not be resseyued. 39 And dissencioun was maad, so that thei departiden a twynny. And Barnabas took Mark, and cam bi boot to Cipre. 40 And Poul chees Silas, and wente forth fro the britheren, and was bitakun to the grace of God. 41 And he wente bi Sirie and Silice, and confermyde the chirche, comaunding to kepe the heestis of apostlis and eldre men.

16 And he cam in to Derben and Listrum. And lo! a disciple was there, bi name Timothe, the sone of a Jewesse cristen, and of the fadir hethen. 2 And britheren that weren in Listris and Iconye, yeldiden good witnessing to hym. 3 And Poul wolde that this man schulde go forth with him, and he took, and circumsidide hym, for Jewis that weren in the places. For alle wisten, that his fadir was hethen. 4 Whanne thei passiden bi citees, thei bitoken to hem to kepe the techingis, that weren demyd of apostlis and eldre men, that weren at Jerusalem. 5 And the chirches weren confermed in feith, and encreseden in noumbre eche dai. 6 And thei passiden Frigie, and the cuntre of Galathi, and weren forbedun of the Hooli Goost to speke the word of God in Asie. 7 And whanne thei camen in to Mysie, thei assaieden to go in to Bithynye, and the spirit of Jhesu suffride not hem. 8 But whanne thei hadden passid bi Mysie, thei camen down to Troade; 9 and a visoun `bi nyyt was schewid to Poul. But a man of Macedonye that stooode, preiede hym, and seide, Go thou in to Macedonye, and helpe vs. 10 And as he hadde sei the visoun, anon we souyten to go forth in to Macedonye, and weren maad certeyn, that God hadde clepid vs to preche to hem. 11 And we yeden bi schip fro Troade, and camen to Samatrachia with streit cours; and the dai suyng to Neapolis; 12 and fro thennus to Filippi, that is the firste part of Macedonye, the citee colonye. And we weren in this citee summe daies, and spaken togidere. 13 And in the dai of sabotis we wenten forth with out the yate bisidis the flood, where preier semyde to be; and we saten, and spaken to wymmen that camen togidere. 14 And a womman, Lidda bi name, a purpuresse of the cite of Tiatirens, worschippinge God, herde; whos herte the Lord openyde to yyue tente to these thingis, that weren seid of Poul. 15 And whanne sche was baptisid and hir hous, sche preyede, and seide, If ye han demyd that Y am feithful to the Lord, entre ye in to myn hous, and dwelle. 16 And sche constreynede vs. And it was don, whanne we yeden to preier, that a damysel that hadde a spirit of diuynacioun, mette vs, which yaf greet wynnyng to her lordis in dyuynynge. 17 This suede Poul and vs, and criede, and seide, These men ben seruauantis of the hy God, that tellen to you the weie of helthe. 18 And this sche dide in many daies. And Poul sorewide, and turnede, and seide to the spirit, Y comaunde thee in the name of Jhesu Crist, that thou go out of hir. 19 And he wente out in the same our. And the lordis of hir siyen, that the hope of her wynnyng wente awei, and thei token Poul and Silas, and ledden in to the `dom place, to the princis. 20 And thei brouyten hem to the magistratis, and seiden, These men disturblen oure citee, 21 for thei ben Jewis, and schewen a custom, which it is not leueful to vs to resseyue, nether do, sithen we ben Romayns. 22 And the puple `and magistratis runnen ayens hem, and when thei hadden torente the cootis of hem, thei comaundiden hem to be betun with yerdis. 23 And whanne thei hadden youun to hem many woundis, thei senten hem into prisoun, and comaundiden to the kepere, that he schulde kepe hem diligentli. 24 And whanne he hadde take siche a precept, he putte hem into the ynnere prisoun, and streynede the feet of hem in a tre. 25 And at mydnyt Poul and Silas worschipe, and heriden God; and thei that weren in kepyng herden hem. 26 And sudenli a greet erthe mouyng was maad, so that the foundementis of the prisoun weren moued. And anon alle the doris weren openyd, and the boondis of alle weren lousid. 27 And the kepere of the prisoun was awakid, and siy the yatis `of the prisoun openyd, and with a swerd drawun out he wolde haue slawe hym silf, and gesside that the men that weren boundun, hadden fled. 28 But Poul criede with a greet vois, and seide, Do thou noon harm to thi silf, for alle we ben here. 29 And he axide liyt, and entride, and tremblide, and felle down to Poul and to Silas at her feet. 30 And he brouyte hem with out forth, and seide, Lordis, what bihoueth me to do, that Y be maad saaf? 31 And thei seiden, Bileue thou in the Lord Jhesu, and thou schalt be saaf, and thin hous. 32 And thei spaken to hym the word of the Lord, with alle that weren in his hous. 33 And he took hem in the ilke our of the niyt, and waschide her woundis. And he was baptisid, and al his hous anon. 34 And whanne he hadde led hem in to his hous, he settide to hem a boord. And he was glad with al his hous, and bileuede to God. 35 And whanne dai was come, the magistratis senten catchepollis, and seiden, Delyuere thou tho men. 36 And the kepere of the prisoun telde these wordis to Poul, That the magistratis han sent, that ye be delyuered; now therfor go ye out, and go ye in pees. 37 And Poul seide to hem, Thei senten vs men of Rome in to prisoun, that weren betun openli and vndampned, and now priueli thei bringen vs out; not so, but come thei hem silf, and delyuere vs out. 38 And the catchepollis telden these wordis to the magistratis; and thei dredden, for thei herden that thei weren Romayns. 39 And thei camen, and bisechiden hem, and thei brouyten hem out, and prieden, that thei schulden go out of the citee. 40 And thei yeden out of the prisoun, and entriden to Lidie. And whanne thei siyen britheren, thei coumfortiden hem, and yeden forth.

17 And whanne thei hadden passid bi Amfipolis and Appollonye, thei camen to Thessolonyk, where was a synagoge of Jewis. 2 And bi custom Poul entride to hem, and bi thre sabatis he declaride to hem of scripturis, 3 and openyde, and schewide that it bihofte Crist to suffre, and rise ayen fro deth, and that this is Jhesus Crist, whom Y telle to you. 4 And summe of hem bileueden, and weren ioyned to Poul and to Silas; and a greet multitude of hethene men worschipe God, and noble wymmen not a fewe. 5 But the Jewis hadden enuye, and token of the comyn puple summe yuele men, and whanne

thei hadden maad a cumpenye, thei moueden the citee. And thei camen to Jasouns hous, and souyten hem to bryng forth among the puple. 6 And whanne thei founden hem not, thei drowen Jasoun and summe britheren to the princis of the citee, and crieden, That these it ben, that mouen the world, and hidir thei camen, 7 whiche Jason resseyuede. And these alle don ayens the maundementis of the emperour, and seien, that Jhesu is anothir king. 8 And thei moueden the puple, and the princis of the citee, herynge these thingis. 9 And whanne satisfaccioun was takun of Jason, and of othere, thei leten Poul and Silas go. 10 And anon bi niyt britheren leten Silas go in to Beroan. And whanne thei camen thidir, thei entriden in to the synagoge of the Jewis. 11 But these weren the worthier of hem that ben at Thessolonik, whiche resseyueden the word with al desire, eche dai sekinge scripturis, if these thingis hadden hem so. 12 And manye of hem bileueden and of hethen wymmen onest and men not a fewe. 13 But whanne the Jewis in Tessalonyk hadden knowe, that also at Bero the word of God was prechid of Poul, thei camen thidir, mouyng and disturblyng the multitude. 14 And tho anon britheren delyuerden Poul, that he schulde go to the see; but Sylas and Tymothe dwelten there. 15 And thei that ledden forth Poul, ledden hym to Atenes. And whanne thei hadden take maundement of him to Silas and to Tymothe, that ful hiyyngli thei schulden come to hym, thei wenten forth. 16 And while Poul abood hem at Atenys, his spirit was moued in him, for he saiye the citee youun to ydolatrie. 17 Therfor he disputide in the synagoge with the Jewis, and with men that worschipiden God, and in the dom place, by alle daies to hem that herden. 18 And summe Epeicureis, and Stoisens, and filosofris disputiden with hym. And summe seiden, What wole this sowere of wordis seie? And othere seiden, He semeth to be a tellere of newe fendis; for he telde to hem Jhesu, and the ayenrisyng. 19 And thei token, and ledden hym to Ariopage, and seide, Moun we wite, what is this newe doctryne, that is seid of thee? 20 For thou bringist ynne summe newe thingis to oure eeris; therfor we wolen wite, what these thingis wolen be. 21 For alle men of Athenys and comingis herborid yauen tent to noon other thing, but ether to seie, ethir to here, sum newe thing. 22 And Poul stood in the myddil of Ariopage, and seide, Men of Athenys, bi alle thingis Y se you as veyn worschippers. 23 For Y passide, and siy youre maumetis, and foond an auter, in which was writun, To the vnknowun God. Therfor which thing ye vnknowyng worschipe, this thing Y schew to you. 24 God that made the world and alle thingis that ben in it, this, for he is Lord of heuene and of erthe, dwellith not in templis maad with hoond, 25 nethir is worschpid bi mannus hoondis, nether hath nede of ony thing, for he yyueth lijf to alle men, and brethinge, and alle thingis; 26 and made of oon al the kinde of men to enhabite on al the face of the erthe, determynyng tymes ordeyned, and termes of the dwellyng of hem, 27 to seke God, if perauenture thei felen hym, ether fynden, thouy he be not fer fro eche of you. 28 For in hym we lyuen, and mouen, and ben. As also summe of youre poetis seiden, And we ben also the kynde of hym. 29 Therfor sithen we ben the kynde of God, we schulen not deme, that godli thing is lijk gold, and siluer, ethir stoon, ethir to grauyng of craft and thouyt of man. 30 For God dispisith the tymes of this vnkunynng, and now schewith to men, that alle euery where doon penaunce; for that he hath ordeyned a dai, 31 in which he schal deme the world in equite, in a man in which he ordeynede, and yaf feith to alle men, and reiseid hym fro deth. 32 And whanne thei hadden herd the ayenrysing of deed men, summe scorneden, and summe seiden, We schulen here thee eft of this thing. 33 So Poul wente out of the myddil of hem. 34 But summen drowen to hym, and bileueden. Among whiche Dynyse Aropagite was, and a womman, bi name Damaris, and othere men with hem.

18 Aftr these thingis Poul yede out of Atenes, and cam to Corinthie. 2 And he fonde a man, a Jewe, Aquila bi name, of Ponte bi kynde, that late cam from Ytalie, and Priscille, his wif, for that Claudius comaundide alle Jewis to departe fro Rome; and he cam to hem. 3 And for he was of the same craft, he dwellice with hem, and wrouyte; and thei weren of roopmakeris craft. 4 And he disputide in the synagoge bi ech sabat, puttynge among the name of the Lord Jhesu; and he counselide Jewis and Grekis. 5 And whanne Silas and Tymothe camen fro Macedonye, Poul yaf bisynesse to the word, and witnesside to the Jewis, that Jhesu is Crist. 6 But whanne thei ayenseiden and blasfemyden, he schoke awei hise clothis, and seide to hem, Youre blood be on youre heed; Y schal be clene from hennus forth, and schal go to hethene men. 7 And he passide fro thennus, and entride in to the hous of a iust man, Tite bi name, that worschipe God, whos hous was ioyned to the synagoge. 8 And Crispe, prince of the synagoge, bileuede to the Lord, with al his hous. And many of the Corinthians herden, and bileueden, and weren cristened. 9 And the Lord seide bi nytt to Poul bi a visioun, Nyle thou drede, but speke, and be not stille; 10 for Y am with thee, and no man schal be put to thee to noye thee, for myche puple is to me in this citee. 11 And he dwellice there a yeer and sixe monethis, techinge among hem the word of God. 12 But whanne Gallion was proconsul of Acaye, Jewis risen vp with oo wille ayens Poul, and ledde hym to the doom, 13 and seiden, Ayens the lawe this counsellith men to worschipe God. 14 And whanne Poul bigan to opene his mouth, Gallion seide to the Jewis, If there were ony wickid thing, ether yuel trespas, ye Jewis, riytli Y schulde suffre you; 15 but if questiouns ben of the word, and of names of youre lawe, bisee you silf; Y wole not be domesman of these thingis. 16 And he droof hem fro the doom place. 17 And alle token Sostenes, prince of the synagoge, and smoten him bifor the doom place; and no thing of these was to charge to Gallion. 18 And whanne Poul hadde abidun many daies, he seide fare wel to britheren, and bi boot cam to Syrie. And Priscille and Aquila camen with hym, whiche hadden clippid his heed in Tencris; for he had a vow. 19 And he cam to Effesie, and there he lefte hem; and he yede in to the synagoge, and disputide with Jewis. 20 And whanne thei preieden, that he schulde dwelle more time, 21 he consentide not, but he made fare wel, and seide, Eft Y schal turne ayen to you, if God wole; and he wente forth fro Effesi. 22 And he cam down to Cesarie, and he yede vp, and grette the chirche, and cam down to Antiochie. 23 And whanne he hadde dwellice there sumwhat of time, he wente forth, walkinge bi rewe thorou the cuntrei of Galathie, and Frigie, and confermyde alle the disciplis. 24 But a Jewe, Apollo bi name, a man of Alisaundre of kinde, a man eloquent, cam to Effesie; and he was myyti in scripturis. 25 This man was tauyt the weie of the Lord, and was feruent in spirit, and spak, and tauyte diligenti tho thingis that weren of Jhesu, and knew oonli the baptym of Joon. 26 And this man bigan to do tristili in the synagoge. Whom whanne Priscille and Aquila herden, thei token hym, and more diligenti expownden to hym the weie of the Lord. 27 And whanne he wolde go to Acaie, britheren excitiden, and wroten to the disciplis, that thei schulden resseyue hym; which whanne he cam, yaf myche to hem that bileueden. 28 For he greetli ouercam Jewis, and schewide opynli bi scripturis, that Jhesu is Crist.

19 And it bifelle, whanne Apollo was at Corinthi, that Poul whanne he hadde go the hiyer coostis, he cam to Efesie, and foond summe of disciplis. 2 And he seide to hem, Whethir ye that bileuen han resseyued the Hooli Goost? And thei seiden to hym, But nether han we herd, if the Hooli Goost is. 3 And he seide, Therfor in what thing ben ye baptisid? And thei seiden, In the baptym of Joon. 4 And Poul seide, Joon baptiside the puple in baptym of penaunce, and tauyte, that thei schulden bileue in hym that was to comynge after hym, that is, in Jhesu. 5 Whanne thei herden these thingis, thei weren baptisid in the name of the Lord Jhesu. 6 And whanne Poul hadde leid on hem his hoondis, the Hooli Goost cam in hem, and thei spaken with langagis, and profecieden. 7 And alle weren almost twelue men. 8 And he yede in to the synagoge, and spak with trist thre monethis, disputinge and trefinge of the kingdom of God. 9 But whanne summe weren hardid, and bileueden not, and cursiden the weie of the Lord bifor the multitude, he yede awei fro hem, and departide the disciplis, and disputide in the scole of a myyti man eche dai. 10 This was doon bi twei yeeris, so that alle that dwelliden in Asie herden the word of the Lord, Jewis and hethene men. 11 And God dide vertues not smale bi the hoond of Poul, 12 so that on sijk men the sudaries weren borun fro his bodye, and sijknessis departiden fro hem, and wickid spiritis wenten out. 13 But also summe of the Jewis exorsisists yeden aboute, and assaieden to clepe the name of the Lord Jhesu Crist on hem that hadden yuele spiritis, and seiden, Y coniure you bi Jhesu, whom Poul prechith. 14 And ther weren seuene sones of a Jewe, Steuen, a prince of preestis, that diden this thing. 15 But the yuel spirit answeride, and seide to hem, Y knowe Jhesu, and Y knowe Poul; but who ben ye? 16 And the man in which was the worse deuel, lippide on hem, and hadde victorie of bothe, and was stronge ayens hem, that thei nakid and woundid fledde awei fro that hous. 17 And this thing was maad knowun to alle the Jewis and to hethene men, that dwelliden at Effesie; and drede felle down on hem alle, and thei magnyfieden the name of the Lord Jhesu. 18 And many men bileueden, and camen, knowleching and tellynge her dedis. 19 And manye of them that sieden curiouse thingis, brouyten togidere bookis, and brennedden hem bifor alle men; and whanne the prices of tho weren accountid, thei founden monei of fifti thousynd pens; 20 so strongli the word of God waxide, and was confermyd. 21 And whanne these thingis weren fillid, Poul purposide in spirit, aftir that Macedony was passid and Acaie, to go to Jerusalem, and seide, For aftir that Y schal be there, it bihoueth me to se also Rome. 22 And he sente in to Macedonye twey men, that mynstriden to hym, Tymothe, and Eraste, and he dwellide for a tyme in Asie. 23 And a greet troubling was maad in that dai, of the weie of the Lord. 24 For a man, Demetrie bi name, a worcher in siluer, makide siluer housis to Diane, and yaf to crafti men myche wynnyng; 25 which he clepide togidere `hem that weren suche maner werkmen, and seide, Men, ye witen that of this craft wynnyng is to vs; 26 and ye seen and heren, that this Poul counsellith and turneth awei myche puple, not oonli of Effesie, but almost of al Asie, and seith, that thei ben not goddis, that ben maad with hoondis. 27 And not oonli this part schal be in perel to vs, to come in to repreef, but also the temple of the greet Dian schal be accountid in to nouyt; yhe, and the maieste of hir schal bigynne to be destried, whom al Asie and the world worshipith. 28 Whanne these thingis weren herd, thei weren fillid with ire, and crieden, and seiden, Greet is the Dian of Effesians. 29 And the citee was fillid with confusioun, and thei maden an asaut with oon wille in to the teaatre, and tooken Gayus and Aristark, men of Macedonye, felawis of Poul. 30 And whanne Poul would haue entrid in to the peple, the disciplis suffriden not. 31 And also summe of the princis of Asie, that weren hise freendis, senten to him. and preieden, that he schulde not yyue hym silf in to the teatre. 32 And othere men crieden othir thing; for the chirche was confusid, and many wisten not for what cause thei weren come togidere. 33 But of the puple thei drowen awei oon Alisaundre, while Jewis puttiden hym forth. And Alisaundre axide with his hoond silence, and wolde yelde a resoun to the puple. 34 And as thei knewen that he was a Jew, o vois of alle men was maad, cryngre as bi tweyn ouris, Greet Dian of Effesians. 35 And whanne the scribe hadde ceessid the puple, he seide, Men of Effesie, what man is he, that knowith not, that the citee of Effesians is the worshipere of greet Dian, and of the child of Iubiter? 36 Therfor whanne it may not be ayenseid to these thingis, it behoueth you to be ceessid, and to do no thing folili; 37 for ye han brouyt these men, nethir sacrilegeris, nethir blasfemyngre youre goddessse. 38 That if Demetrie, and the werk men that ben with hym, han cause ayens ony man, there ben courtis, and domes, and iugis; accusen thei eche other. 39 If ye seken ouyt of ony othir thing, it may be assoyliid in the lawful chirche. 40 For whi we ben in perel to be repreuyd of this daies dissencioun, sithen no man is gilty, of whom we moun yelde resoun of this rennyng togidre. 41 And whanne he hadde seid this thing, he lete the puple go.

20 And aftir the noise ceesside, Poul clepide the disciplis, and monestide hem, and seide fare wel; and he wente forth, to go in to Macedonye. 2 And whanne he hadde walkid bi tho coostis, and hadde monestid hem bi many wordis, he cam to Greece. 3 Where whanne he hadde be thre monethis, the Jewis leiden aspies for hym, that was to saile in to Sirie; and he

hadde counsel to turne ayen bi Macedonye. 4 And Sosipater of Pirri Boroense folowide hym; of Thessolonycenses, Astirak, and Secoundus, and Gayus Derbeus, and Tymothe; and Asians, Titicus and Trofimus. 5 These for thei wenten bfore, aboden vs at Troade. 6 For we schippiden aftir the daies of therf looues fro Filippis, and cam to hem at Troade in fyue daies, where we dwelten seuen daies. 7 And in the first dai of the woke, whanne we camen to breke breed, Poul disputide with hem, and schulde go forth in the morew; 8 and he drow along the sermoun til in to mydnyyt. And many laumpes weren in the soler, where we weren gaderyd togidir. 9 And a yong man, Euticus bi name, sat on the wyndowe, whanne he was fallun in to an heuy sleep, while Poul disputide long, al slepyngre he felle down fro the thridde stage; and he was takun vp, and was brouyt deed. 10 To whom whanne Poul cam down, he lay on hym, and biclippide, and seide, Nyle ye be troblid; for his soule is in hym. 11 And he wente vp, and brak breed, and eete, and spak ynowy vnto the dai; and so he wente forth. 12 And thei brouyten the childe alyue, and thei weren coumfortid greetli. 13 And we wenten vp in to a schip, and schippiden in to Asson, to take Poul fro thennus; for so he hadde disposid to make iourney bi loond. 14 And whanne he foond vs in Asson, we token hym, and camen to Mitilene. 15 And fro thennus we schippiden in the dai suyngre, and we camen ayens Chyum, and another dai we hauenyden at Samum, and in the dai suyngre we camen to Mylete. 16 And Poul purposide to schip ouer to Efesi, lest ony tariyng were maad to hym in Asie; for he hiyede, if it were possible to hym, that he schulde be in the dai of Pentecost at Jerusalem. 17 Fro Mylete he sente to Effesi, and clepide the grettest men of birthe of the chirche. 18 And whanne thei camen to hym, and weren togidir, he seide to hem, Ye witen fro the firste dai, in which Y cam in to Asie, hou with you bi eche tyme Y was, 19 seruyngre to the Lord with al mekenesse, and mildnesse, and teeris, and temptaciouns, that felden to me of aspiyngis of Jewis; 20 hou Y withdrowe not of profitable thingis to you, that Y telde not to you, and tauyte you opynli, and bi housis; 21 and Y witnesside to Jewis and to hethene men penaunce in to God, and feith in to oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 22 And now lo! Y am boundun in spirit, and go in to Jerusalem; and Y knowe not what thingis schulen come to me in it, 23 but that the Hooli Goost `bi alle citees witnessith to me, and seith, that boondis and tribulaciouns at Jerusalem abiden me. 24 But Y drede no thing of these, nether Y make my lijf precioussere than my silf, so that Y end my cours, and the mynsterie of the word, which Y resseyuede of the Lord Jhesu, to witnessse the gospel of the grace of God. 25 And `now lo! Y woot, that ye schulen no more se my face, alle ye bi whiche Y passide, prechyngre the kingdom of God. 26 Wherefor Y witnessse to you this day, that Y am cleen of the blood of alle men. 27 For Y fley not away, that Y telde not to you al the counsel of God. 28 Take ye tente to you, and to al the flocke, in which the Hooli Goost hath set you bischops, to reule the chirche of God, which he purchaside with his blood. 29 Y woot, that aftir my departyng, rauyschingre wolues schulen entre in to you, `and spare not the flock; 30 and men spekinge schrewid thingis schulen rise of you silf, that thei leden awei disciplis aftir hem. 31 For which thing wake ye, holdinge in mynde that bi thre yeer nyet and dai Y ceesside not with teeris monestinge ech of you. 32 And now Y bitake you to God and to the word of his grace, that is myyti to edifie and yyue eritage in alle that ben maad hooli. 33 And of no man Y couetide siluer, and gold, ether cloth, as you silf witen; 34 for to tho thingis that weren nedeful to me, and to these that ben with me, these hoondis mynstriden. 35 Alle these thingis Y schewide to you, for so it bihoueth men trauelinge to resseyue sike men, and to haue mynde of the `word of the Lord Jhesu; for he seide, It is more blisful to yyue, than to resseyue. 36 And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, he knelide, and he preiede with alle hem. 37 And greet weping of alle men was maad; and thei felden on the necke of Poul, and kissiden hym, 38 and sorewiden moost in the word that he seide, for thei schulen no more se his face. And thei ledden hym to the schip.

21 And whanne it was don, that we schulden seile, and weren passid awei fro hem, with streiyt cours we camen to Choum, and the day suyng to Rodis, and fro thennus to Patiram, and fro thennus to Myram. 2 And whanne we founden a schip passinge ouer to Fenyce, we wenten vp in to it, and sailden forth. 3 And whanne we apperiden to Cipre, we leften it at the left half, and seiliden in to Sirie, and camen to Tire. For there the schip schulde be vnchargid. 4 And whanne we foundun disciplis, we dwelliden there seuene daies; whiche seiden bi spirit to Poul, that he schulde not go vp to Jerusalem. 5 And whanne the daies weren fillid, we yeden forth, and alle men with wyues and children ledden forth vs with outen the citee; and we kneliden in the see brenke, and we preieden. 6 And whanne we hadden maad fare wel togidre, we wenten vp into the schip; and thei turneden ayen in to her owne places. 7 And whanne the schip sailinge was fillid fro Tire, we camen down to Tolamayda, and whanne we hadden gret wel the britheren, we dwelliden o dai at hem. 8 And another dai we yeden forth, and camen to Cesarie. And we entriden in to the hous of Filip euangelist, that was oon of the seuene, and dwelliden at hym. 9 And to hym weren foure douytris, virgyns, that profecieden. 10 And whanne we dwelliden there bi summe daies, a profete, Agabus bi name, cam ouer fro Judee. 11 This whanne he cam to vs, took the girdil of Poul, and boond togidere hise feet and hoondis, and seide, The Hooli Goost seith these thingis, Thus Jewis schulen bynde in Jerusalem the man, whos is this girdil; and thei schulen bytake into hethene mennys hoondis. 12 Which thing whanne we herden, we preieden, and thei that weren of that place, that he schulde not go vp to Jerusalem. 13 Thanne Poul answeride, and seide, What doen ye, wepinge and turmentinge myn herte? For Y am redi, not oonli to be boundun, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jhesu. 14 And whanne we myyten not counseile hym, we weren stille, and seiden, The wille of the Lord be don. 15 And aftir these daies we weren maad redi, and wenten vp to Jerusalem. 16 And summe of the disciplis camen with vs fro Cesarie, and ledden with hem a man, Jason of Cipre, an elde disciple, at whom we schulden be herborid. 17 And whanne we camen to Jerusalem, britheren resseyueden vs wilfulli. 18 And in the dai suyng Poul entride with vs to James, and alle the eldre men weren gaderid. 19 Whiche whanne he hadde gret, he telde bi alle thingis, what God hadde doon in hethene men, bi the mynsterie of hym. 20 And whanne thei herden, thei magnyfiden God, and seiden to hym, Brothir, thou seest how many thousyndis ben in Jewis, that han bileued to God, and alle ben loueris of the lawe. 21 And thei herden of thee, that thou techist departing fro Moises of thilk Jewis that ben bi hethene men, that seien, that thei owen not circumcide her sones, nether owen to entre by custom. 22 Therfor what is? It bihoueth that the multitude come togidre; for thei schulen here, that thou art come. 23 Therfor do thou this thing, that we seien to thee. Ther ben to vs foure men, that han a vow on hem. 24 Take thou these men, and halowe thee with hem; honge on hem, that thei schauwe her heedis; and that alle men wite, that the thingis that thei herden of thee ben false, but that thou walkist, and thi silf kepist the lawe. 25 But of these that bileueden of hethene men, we writen, demynge that thei abstayne hem fro thing offrid to idols, and fro blood, and also fro stranglid thing, and fro fornicacioun. 26 Thanne Poul took the men, and in the dai suyng he was purified with hem, and entride in to the temple, and schewide the filling of daies of purifying, til the offring was offrid for ech of hem. 27 And whanne seuene daies weren endid, the Jewis that weren of Asie, whanne thei saien him in the temple, stiriden al the puple, and leyden hondis on hym, 28 and crieden, Men of Israel, helpe ye vs. This is the man, that ayens the puple and the lawe and this place techith euery where alle men, more ouer and hath led hethene men in to the temple, and hath defouleid this hooli place. 29 For thei seyen Trofimud of Effesi in the citee with hym, whom thei gessiden that Poul hadde broyut in to the temple. 30 And al the citee was moued, and a rennyng togider of the puple was maad. And thei token Poul, and drowen him out of the temple; and anon the yatis weren closid. 31 And whanne thei souyten to sle hym, it was teld to the tribune of the company of knyitis, that al Jerusalem is confoundid. 32 Which anon took knyitis, and centuriens, and ran to hem. And whanne thei hadden seen the tribune, and the knyitis, thei ceessiden to smyte Poul. 33 Thanne the tribune cam, and cauyte hym, and comaundide, that he were boundun with twei cheynes; and axide, who he was, and what he hadde don. 34 But othere crieden other thing among the puple. And whanne he miyte `knowe no certeyn thing for the noise, he comaundide hym to be led in to the castels. 35 And whanne Poul cam to the grees, it bifel that he was borun of knyitis, for strengthe of the puple. 36 For the multitude of the puple sude hym, and criede, Take hym awei. 37 And whanne Poul bigan to be led in to the castels, he seide to the tribune, Whether it is leueful `to me, to speke any thing to thee? 38 And he seide, Kanst thou Greek? Whether thou art not the Egipcian, which bifor these daies mouedist a noise, and leddist out in to desert foure thousynde of men, mensleeris? 39 And Poul seide to hym, For Y am a Jew, of Tharse of Cilicie, a citeseyn, which citee is not vnknowun. And Y preyed thee, suffre me to speke to the puple. 40 And whanne he suffride, Poul stood in the grees, and bikenede with the hoond to the puple. And whanne a greet silence was maad, he spak in Ebrew tunge, and seide,

22 Britheren and fadris, here ye what resoun Y yelde now to you. 2 And whanne sum herden that in Ebrew tunge he spak to hem, thei yauen the more silence. 3 And he seide, Y am a man a Jew, borun at Tharse of Cilicie, nurischid and in this citee bisidis the feet of Gamaliel, tauyt bi the treuthe of fadris lawe, a louyere of the lawe, as also ye alle ben to dai. 4 And Y pursuede this weie til to the deth, byndyng and bitakinge `in to holdis men and wymmen, 5 as the prince of prestis yeldith witnessyng to me, and alle the grettest in birth. Of whom also Y took pistlis to britheren, and wente to Damask, to bring fro theynns men boundun in to Jerusalem, that thei schulden be peyned. 6 And it was don, while Y yede, and neiyede to Damask, at myddai sudeynli fro heuene a greet plente of liyt schoon aboute me. 7 And Y felde down to the erthe, and herde a voice fro heuene, seiynge to me, Saul, Saul, what pursuest thou me? It is hard to thee to kike ayens the pricke. 8 And Y answeride, Who art thou, Lord? And he seide to me, Y am Jhesu of Nazareth, whom thou pursuest. 9 And thei that weren with me sien but the liyt, but thei herden not the vois of hym, that spak with me. 10 And Y seide, Lord, what schal Y do? And the Lord seide to me, Rise thou, and go to Damask; and there it schal be seid to thee, of alle thingis which it bihoueth thee to do. 11 And whanne Y saye not, for the clerete of that liyt, Y was led bi the hond of felowis, and Y cam to Damask. 12 And a man, Ananye, that bi the lawe hadde wytnessyng of alle Jewis dwellinge in Damask, 13 cam to me, and stood niy, and seide to me, Saul, brother, biholde. And Y in the same our biheelde in to hym. 14 And he seide, God of oure fadris hath bifor ordeyned thee, that thou schuldist knowe the wille of him, and schuldist se the riytful man, and here the vois of his mouth. 15 For thou schalt be his wnesse to alle men, of tho thingis that thou hast seyn and herd. 16 And now, what dwellist thou? Rise vp, and be baptisid, and waische awei thi synnes, bi the name of hym clepid to help. 17 And it was don to me, as Y turnede ayen in to Jerusalem, and preyede in the temple, that Y was maad in rauysching of soule, 18 and Y siy him seiynge to me, Hiye thou, and go out faste of Jerusalem, for thei schulen not resseyue thi witnessyng of me. 19 And Y seide, Lord, thei witen, that Y was closing togidir `in to prisoun, and betinge bi synagogis hem that bileueden `in to thee. 20 And whanne the blood of Steuene, thi wnesse, was sched out, Y stood niy, and consentide, and kept the clothis of men that slowen hym. 21 And he seide to me, Go thou, for Y schal sende thee fer to naciouns. 22 And thei herden him til this word; and thei reiseden her vois, and seiden, Take awei fro the erthe sicke a maner man; for it is not leueful, that he lyue. 23 And whanne thei crieden, and kesten awei her clothis, and threwen dust in to the eir, 24 the tribune comaundide hym to be led in to castels, and to be betun with scourgis, and to be turmentid, that he wiste, for what cause thei crieden so to him. 25 And whanne thei hadden boundun hym with cordis, Poul seide to a centurien stondinge niy to hym, Whether it is leueful to you, to scourge a Romayn, and vndampned? 26 And whanne this thing was herd, the centurien wente to the tribune, and telde to hym, and seide, What art thou to doynge? for this man is a citeseyn of Rome. 27 And the tribune cam niy, and seide to hym, Seie thou to me, whether thou art a Romayn? 28 And he seide, Yhe. And the tribune answeride, Y with myche summe gat this freedom. And Poul seide, And Y was borun a citeseyn of Rome. 29 Therfor anoon thei that schulden haue turmentid hym, departiden awei fro hym. And the tribune dredde, aftir that he wiste, that he was a citeseyn of Rome, and for he hadde boundun hym. 30 But in the dai suyng he wolde wite more diligentli, for what cause he were accusid of the Jewis, and vnbounde hym, and comaundide prestis and al the counsel to come togidir. And he brouyte forth Poul, and sette hym among hem.

23 And Poul bihelde in to the counsel, and seide, Britheren, Y with al good conscience haue lyued bifore God, `til in to this dai. 2 And Anany, prince of prestis, comaundide to men that stoden nyy hym, that thei schulden smyte his mouth. 3 Thanne Poul seide to hym, Thou whitid wal, God smyte thee; thou sittist, and demest me bi the lawe, and ayens the law thou comaundist me to be smytun. 4 And thei that stoden niy, seiden, Cursist thou the hiyest prest of God? 5 And Poul seide, Britheren, Y wiste not, that he is prince of preestis; for it is writun, Thou schalt not curse the prince of thi puple. 6 But Poul wiste, that o parti was of Saduceis, and the othere of Fariseis; and he criede in the counsel, Britheren, Y am a Farisee, the sone of Farisees; Y am demyd of the hope and of the ayen rising of deed men. 7 And whanne he hadde seid this thing, dissencioun was maad bitwixe the Fariseis and the Saduceis, and the multitude was departid. 8 For Saduceis seien, that no `rysyng ayen of deed men is, nether aungel, nether spirit; but Fariseis knowlechen euer eithir. 9 And a greet cry was maad. And summe of Farisees rosen vp, and foytyn, seiynge, We fynden no thing of yuel in this man; what if a spirit, ether an aungel spak to hym? 10 And whanne greet dissencioun was maad, the tribune dredde, lest Poul schulde be to-drawun of hem; and he comaundide knyitis to go doun, and to take hym fro the myddil of hem, and to lede hym in to castels. 11 And in the niyt suyng the Lord stood niy to hym, and seide, Be thou tidfast; for as thou hast witnessid of me in Jerusalem, so it bihoueth thee to wnesse also at Rome. 12 And whanne the dai was come, summe of the Jewis gaderiden hem, and maden `awow, and seiden, that thei schulden nether eete, ne drinke, til thei slowen Poul. 13 And there weren mo than fourti men, that maden this sweryng togider. 14 And thei wenten to the princis of prestis, and eldre men, and seiden, With deuocioun we han a vovid, that we schulen not taste ony thing, til we sleen Poul. 15 Now therfor make ye knowun to the tribune, with the counsel, that he bringe hym forth to you, as if ye schulden knowe sum thing more certeynli of hym; and we ben redi to sle hym, bifor that he come. 16 And whanne the sone of Poulis sister hadde herd the aspies, he cam, and entride in to the castels, and telde to Poul. 17 And Poul clepide to hym oon of the centuriens, and seide, Lede this yonge man to the tribune, for he hath sum thing to schewe to hym. 18 And he took hym, and ledde to the tribune, and seide, Poul, that is boundun, preide me to lede to thee this yonge man, that hath sum thing to speke to thee. 19 And the tribune took his hoond, and wente

with hym asidis half, and axide hym, What thing is it, that thou hast to schewe to me? 20 And he seide, The Jewis ben acordid to preye thee, that to morewe thou brynge forth Poul in to the counsel, as if thei schulden enquire sum thing more certeynli of hym. 21 But bileue thou not to hem; for mo than fourti men of hem aspien hym, which han a vowid, that thei schulen not eete nether drynke, til thei sleen hym; and now thei ben redi, abidinge thi biheest. 22 Therfor the tribune lefte the yonge man, and comaundide, that he schulde speke to no man, that he hadde maad these thingis knowun to hym. 23 And he clepide togidre twei centuriens, and he seide to hem, Make ye redi twei hundred knyitis, that thei go to Cesarie, and horse men seuenti, and spere men twei hundred, fro the thridde our of the nytt. 24 And make ye redy an hors, for Poul to ride on, to lede hym saaf to Felix, the presydent. 25 For the tribune dredde, lest the Jewis wolden take hym bi the weie, and sle hym, and afftirward he myte be chalengid, as he hadde take money. 26 And wroot hym `a pistle, conteynynge these thingis. Claudius Liasias to the beste Felix, president, heelthe. 27 This man that was take of the Jewis, and bigan to be slayn, Y cam vpon hem with myn oost, and delyuerede hym fro hem, whanne Y knewe that he was a Romayn. 28 And Y wolde wite the cause, which thei puttiden ayens hym; and Y ledde hym to the counsel of hem. 29 And Y foond, that he was accusid of questiouns of her lawe, but he hadde no cryme worthi the deth, ethir boondis. 30 And whanne it was teeld me of the aspies, that thei arayden for hym, Y sente hym to thee, and Y warnede also the accuseris, that thei seie at thee. Fare wel. 31 And so the knyitis, as thei weren comaundid, token Poul, and ledde hym bi nytt into Antipatriden. 32 And in the dai suyng, whanne the horsmen weren left, that schulden go with hym, thei turneden ayen to the castels. 33 And whanne thei camen to Cesarie, thei token the pistle to the president, and thei setten also Poul byfore him. 34 And whanne he hadde red, and axide, of what prouynce he was, and knewe that he was of Cilicie, 35 Y schal here thee, he seide, whanne thin accuseris comen. And he comaundide hym to be kept in the moot halle of Eroude.

24 And afftir fyue daies, Ananye, prince of preestis, cam down with summe eldere men, and Terculle, a feir speker, which wenten to the precident ayens Poul. 2 And whanne Poul was somened, Terculle bigan to accuse hym, and seide, Whanne in myche pees we doon bi thee, and many thingis ben amendid bi thi wisdom, euere more and euery where, 3 thou best Felix, we han resseyued with al doying of thankings. 4 But lest Y tarie thee lengere, Y preie thee, shortly here vs for thi mekenesse. 5 We han foundun this wickid man stiryng dissencioun to alle Jewis in al the world, and auctour of dissencioun of the secte of Nazarenus; and he also enforside to defoule the temple; 6 whom also we token, and wolden deme, after oure lawe. 7 But Liasias, the trybune, cam with greet strengthe aboue, and delyuerede hym fro oure hoondis; 8 and comaundide hise accuseris to come to thee, of whom thou demynge, maist knowe of alle these thingis, of whiche we accusen hym. 9 And Jewis putten to, and seiden, that these thingis hadden hem so. 10 And Poul answeride, whanne the president grauntide hym to seie, Of

mony yeeris Y knowe thee, that thou art domesman `to this folk, and Y schal do ynowy for me with good resoun. 11 For thou maist knowe, for to me ben not more than twelue daies, sithen Y cam vp to worschipe in Jerusalem; 12 and nether in the temple thei founden me disputinge with ony man, nether makynge concours of puple, nether in synagogis, nether in citee; 13 nether thei moun preue to thee, of the whiche thingis thei now accusen me. 14 But Y knowleche to thee this thing, that afftir the secte which thei seien eresie, so Y serue to God the fadir, `and Y bileue to alle thingis that ben writun in the lawe and profetis; and Y haue hope in God, 15 whiche also thei hem self abiden, the ayenrisyng `to comynge of iust men and wickid. 16 In this thing Y studie with outen hirtynge, to haue concience to God, and to men euermore. 17 But after many yeeris, Y cam to do almes dedis to my folc, and offryngis, and auowis; 18 in whiche thei founden me purified in the temple, not with company, nether with noise. And thei cayuten me, and thei crieden, and seiden, Take awei oure enemye. 19 And summe Jewis of Asie, whiche it behofte to be now present at thee, and accuse, if thei hadden ony thing ayens me, 20 ether these hem self seie, if thei founden in me ony thing of wickidnesse, sithen Y stonde `in the counsel, 21 but oneli of this vois, by which Y criede stondynge among hem, For of the ayenrisyng of deed men Y am demyd this dai of you. 22 Sothely Felix delayede hem, and knewe moost certeynli of the weie, and seide, Whanne Liasias, the tribune, schal come down, Y schal here you. 23 And he comaundide to a centurien to kepe hym, and that he hadde reste, nethir to forbede ony man to mynystre of his owne thingis to him. 24 And after summe dayes Felix cam, with Drussille his wijf, that was a Jewesse, and clepide Poul, and herde of him the feith that is in Crist Jhesu. 25 And while he disputide of riytwisnesse, and chastite, and of dom to comynge, Felix was maad tremblinge, and answerde, That perteneth now, go; but in tyme couenable Y schal clepe thee. 26 Also he hopide, that money schulde be youun to hym of Poul; for which thing eft he clepide hym, and spak with hym. 27 And whanne twei yeeris weren fillid, Felix took a successoure, Porcius Festus; and Felix wolde yyue grace to Jewis, and lefte Poul boundun.

25 Therfor whanne Festus cam in to the prouynce, afftir the thridde dai he wente vp to Jerusalem fro Cesarie. 2 And the princis of prestis, and the worthieste of the Jewis wenten to hym ayens Poul, and preiden hym, 3 and axiden grace ayens hym, that he schulde comaunde hym to be led to Jerusalem; and thei settiden aspies to sle hym in the weie. 4 But Festus answerde, that Poul schulde be kept in Cesarie; sotheli that he hym self schulde procede more auisili. Therfor he seide, Thei that in you ben myyti, 5 come down togidere; and if ony crime is in the man, accuse thei hym. 6 And he dwellede among hem no more than eyte ether ten daies, and cam down to Cesarie; and the tother dai he sat for domesman, and comaundide Poul to be brouyt. 7 And whanne he was brouyt forth, Jewis stoden aboute hym, whiche camen down fro Jerusalem, puttyng ayens hym many and greuouse causis, whiche thei miyten not preue. 8 For Poul yeldide resoun in alle thingis, That nether ayens

the lawe of Jewis, nether ayens the temple, nether ayens the emperoure, Y synnede ony thing. 9 But Festus wolde do grace to the Jewis, and answeride to Poul, and seide, Wolt thou gon vp to Jerusalem, and there be demyd of these thingis bfore me? 10 And Poul seide, At the domplace of the emperour Y stonde, where it bihoueth me to be demed. Y haue not noied the Jewis, as thou knowist wel. 11 For if Y haue noyed, ether don ony thing worthi deth, Y forsake not to die; but if no thing of tho is, that thei accusen me, no man may yyue me to hem. Y appele to the emperour. 12 Thanne Festus spak with the counsel, and answerde, To the emperoure thou hast appellid, to the emperoure thou schalt go. 13 And whanne summe daies weren passid, Agrippa kyng, and Beronyce camen doun to Cesarie, to welcome Festus. 14 And whanne thei dwelliden there many daies, Festus schewide to the king of Poul, and seide, A man is left boundun of Felix, 15 of which, whanne Y was at Jerusalem, princis of preestis and the eldre men of Jewis camen to me, and axiden dampnacioun ayens hym. 16 To whiche Y answeride, That it is not custom to Romayns, to dampne ony man, bfore that he that is accusid haue hise accuseris present, and take place of defending, to putte awei the crymes, that ben putte ayens hym. 17 Therfor whanne thei camen togidere hidir, withouten ony delaye, in the dai suyng Y sat for domesman, and comaundide the man to be brouyt. 18 And whanne hise accuseris stoden, thei seiden no cause, of whiche thingis Y hadde suspicioun of yuel. 19 But thei hadden ayens hym summe questiouns of her veyn worschipping, and of oon Jhesu deed, whom Poul affermyde to lyue. 20 And Y doutide of siche maner questioun, and seide, Whether he wolde go to Jerusalem, and ther be demyd of these thingis? 21 But for Poul appellede, that he schulde be kept to the knowing of the emperoure, Y comaundide him to be kept, til Y sende hym to the emperoure. 22 And Agrippa seide to Festus, Y my self wolde here the man. And he seide, To morew thou schalt here hym. 23 And on the tother day, whanne Agrippa and Beronyce camen with greet desire, and entriden in to the audiorie, with tribunes and the principal men of the citee, whanne Festus bad, Poul was brouyt. 24 And Festus seide, King Agrippa, and alle men that ben with vs, ye seen this man, of which al the multitude of Jewis preyede me at Jerusalem, and axide, and criede, that he schulde lyue no lenger. 25 But Y foond, that he hadde don no thing worthi of deth; and Y deme to sende hym to the emperoure, for he appellede this thing. 26 Of which man Y haue not certeyne, what thing Y schal write to the lord. For which thing Y brouyte hym to you, and moost to thee, thou king Agrippa, that whanne axing is maad, Y haue what Y schal write. 27 For it is seyn to me with out resoun, to sende a boundun man, and not to signifie the cause of hym.

26 And Agrippa seide to Poul, It is suffrid to thee, to speke for thi self. Thanne Poul helde forth the hoond, and bigan to yelde resoun. 2 Of alle thingis, in whiche Y am accusid of the Jewis, thou king Agrippa, Y gesse me blessid at thee, whanne Y schal defende me this dai; 3 moost for thou knowist alle thingis that ben among Jewis, customes and questiouns. For which thing, Y biseche, here me pacientli. 4 For alle Jewis that bfor knewen me fro the bigynnyng, knewen my lijf fro yongthe; that fro the bigynnyng was in my folc in Jerusalem, 5 if thei wolen bere witnessng, that bi the moost certeyn sect of oure religioun, Y lyuede a Farisee. 6 And now for the hope of repromyscioun, that is maad to oure fadris of God, Y stonde suget in dom; 7 in which hope oure twelue lynagis seruyng nryt and dai hopen to come; of which hope, sir king, Y am accusid of the Jewis. 8 What vnbeleueful thing is demed at you, if God reisith deed men? 9 And sotheli Y gesside, that Y ouyte do many contrarie thingis ayens the name of Jhesu Nazarene. 10 Which thing also Y ydide in Jerusalem, and Y encloside manye of the seyntis in prisoun, whanne Y hadde take powere of the princis of preestis. And whanne thei weren slayn, Y brouyte the sentence. 11 And bi alle synagogis ofte Y punyschide hem, and constreynede to blasfeme; and more Y wex wood ayens hem, and pursuede in to alien citees. 12 In whiche, the while Y wente to Damask, with power and suffring of princis of preestis, 13 at myddai, in the weie Y say, sir king, that fro heuene liyt schynede aboute me, passing the schynynng of the sunne, and aboute hem that weren togidir with me. 14 And whanne we alle hadden falle doun in to the erthe, Y herde a vois seiyng to me in Ebrew tunge, Saul, Saul, what pursuest thou me? it is hard to thee, to kicke ayens the pricke. 15 And Y seide, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord seide, Y am Jhesus, whom thou pursuest. 16 But rise vp, and stood on thi feet. For whi to this thing Y apperide to thee, that Y ordeyne thee mynystre and wnesse of tho thingis that thou hast seyn, and of tho in whiche Y schal schewe to thee. 17 And Y schal delyuere thee fro puplis and folkis, to whiche now Y sende thee, 18 to opene the iyen of hem, that thei ben conuertid fro derknesse to liyt, and fro power of Sathnas to God, that thei take remyscioun of synnes, and part among seyntis, bi feith that is in me. 19 Wherfor, sir kyng Agrippa, Y was not vnbeleueful to the heuenli visioun; 20 but Y tolde to hem that been at Damask first, and at Jerusalem, and bi al the cuntre of Judee, and to hethene men, that thei schulden do penance, and be conuertid to God, and do worthi werkis of penance. 21 For this cause Jewis token me, whanne Y was in the temple, to sle me. 22 But Y was holpun bi the helpe of God in to this dai, and stonde, witnessng to lesse and to more. And Y seye no thing ellis than whiche thingis the prophetis and Moises spaken that schulen come, 23 if Crist is to suffre, if he is the firste of the ayenrising of deed men, that schal schewe liyt to the puple and to hethene men. 24 Whanne he spak these thingis, and yeldide resoun, Festus seide with greet vois, Poul, thou maddist; many lettris turnen thee to woodnesse. 25 And Poul seide, Y madde not, thou beste Festus, but Y speke out the wordis of treute and of sobernesse. 26 For also the king, to whom Y speke stifastli, woot of these thingis; for Y deme, that no thing of these is hid fro hym; for nether in a cornere was ouyt of these thingis don. 27 Bileuest thou, king Agrippa, to prophetis? Y woot that thou bileuest. 28 And Agrippa seide to Poul, In litil thing thou counseillist me to be maad a cristen man. 29 And Poul seide, Y desire anentis God, bothe in litil and in greet, not oneli thee, but alle these that heren to dai, to be maad sich as Y am, outakun

these boondis. 30 And the kyng roos vp, and the president, and Beronyce, and thei that saten niy to hem. 31 And whanne thei wenten awei, thei spaken togider, and seiden, That this man hath not don ony thing worthi deth, nether boondis. 32 And Agrippa seide to Festus, This man miyt be delyuerid, if he hadde not appellid to the emperour.

27 But as it was demed hym to schippe into Ytalie, thei bitoken Poul with othere kepers to a centurien, bi name Julius, of the cumpeny of knyitis of the emperoure. 2 And we wenten vp in to the schip of Adrymetis, and bigunnen to seile, and weren borun aboute the placis of Asie, while Aristark of Macedonye, Tesselonycence, dwellide stille with vs. 3 And in the dai suyng, we camen to Sydon; and Julius tretyde curteisli Poul, and suffride to go to frendis, and do his nedis. 4 And whanne we remouede fro thennus, we vndurseiliden to Cypre, for that wyndis weren contrarie. 5 And we seiliden in the see of Silicie and Pamfilie, and camen to Listris, that is Licie. 6 And there the centurien foond a schip of Alisaundre, seilinge in to Ytalie, and puttide vs ouer in to it. 7 And whanne in many daies we seilden slowli, and vnnethe camen ayens Guydum, for the winde lettide vs, we seiliden to Crete, bisidis Salomona. 8 And vnnethe we seilden bisidis, and camen into a place, that is clepid of good hauen, to whom the cite Tessala was niy. 9 And whanne miche time was passid, and whanne seiling thanne was not sikir, for that fasting was passid, Poul coumfortide hem, 10 and seide to hem, Men, Y se that seiling bigynneth to be with wrong and myche harm, not oonli of charge and of the schip, but also of oure lyues. 11 But the centurien bileuede more to the gouernour, and to the lord of the schip, thanne to these thingis that weren seid of Poul. 12 And whanne the hauene was not able to dwelle in wynter, ful many ordeyneden counsel to seile fro thennus, if on ony maner thei miyten come to Fenyce, to dwelle in wynter at the hauene of Crete, which biholdith to Affrik, and to Corum. 13 And whanne the south blew, thei gessiden hem to holde purpos; and whanne thei hadden removed fro Asson, thei seiliden to Crete. 14 And not aftir miche, the wynde Tifonyk, that is clepid north eest, was ayens it. 15 And whanne the schip was rauyschid, and myyte not enforse ayens the wynde, whanne the schip was youun to the blowynges of the wynde, we weren borun with cours into an ile, 16 that is clepid Canda; and vnnethe we miyten gete a litil boot. 17 And whanne this was takun vp, thei vsiden helps, girdinge togidere the schippe; and dredden, lest thei schulden falle into sondi placis. And whanne the vessel was vndur set, so thei weren borun. 18 And for we weren throwun with strong tempest, in the dai suyng thei maden casting out. 19 And the thridde dai with her hoondis thei castiden awei the instrumentis of the schip. 20 And whanne the sunne nether the sterris weren seie bi many daies, and tempest not a litil neiyede, now al the hope of oure helthe was don awei. 21 And whanne myche fasting hadde be, thanne Poul stood in the myddil of hem, and seide, A! men, it bihofte, whanne ye herden me, not to haue take awei the schip fro Crete, and gete this wronge and casting out. 22 And now Y counsel you to be of good coumfort, for los of no persooene of you schal be, outakun of the schip. 23 For an aungel of God, whos Y am, and to whom Y serue, stood niy to me in this niyt, and seide, Poul, drede thou not; 24 it bihoueth thee to stonde bifore the emperour. And lo! God hath youun to thee alle that ben in the schip with thee. 25 For which thing, ye men, be ye of good coumfort; for Y bileue to my God, that so it schal be, as it is seid to me. 26 And it bihoueth vs to come into sum yle. 27 But aftirward that in the fourtenthe dai the niyt cam on vs seilinge in the stony see, aboute mydniyt the schipmen supposiden sum cuntre to appere to hem. 28 And thei kesten doun a plommet, and founden twenti pasis of depnesse. And aftir a litil thei weren departid fro thennus, and foundun fiftene pasis. 29 And thei dredden, lest we schulden haue fallun in to scharp placis; and fro the last parti of the schip thei senten foure ankeris, and desiriden that the dai hadde be come. 30 And whanne the schipmen souyten to fle fro the schip, whanne thei hadden sent a litil boot in to the see, vndur colour as thei schulden bigynne to stretche forth the ankeris fro the formere part of the schip, 31 Poul seide to the centurien and to the knyitis, But these dwellen in the schip, ye moun not be maad saaf. 32 Thanne knyitis kittiden awei the cordis of the litil boot, and suffriden it to falle awei. 33 And whanne the dai was come, Poul preiede alle men to take mete, and seide, The fourtenthe dai this dai ye `abiden, and dwellen fastinge, and taken no thing. 34 Wherefor Y preie you to take mete, for youre helthe; for of noon of you the heer of the heed schal perische. 35 And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, Poul took breed, and dide thankyngis to God in the siyt of alle men; and whanne he hadde brokun, he bigan to eete. 36 And alle weren maad of betere coumfort, and thei token mete. 37 And we weren alle men in the schip, two hundrid seuenti and sexe. 38 And thei weren fillid with mete, and dischargiden the schip, and castiden whete in to the see. 39 And whanne the dai was comun, thei knewen no lond; and thei bihielden an hauene that hadde a watir bank, in to which thei thouyten, if thei miyten, to bringe vp the schip. 40 And whanne thei hadden take vp the ankeris, thei bitoken hem to the see, and slakiden togidir the ioyntours of gouernails. And with a litil seil lift vp, bi blowyng of the wynde thei wenten to the bank. 41 And whanne we felden into a place of grauel gon al aboute with the see, thei hurtliden the schip. And whanne the formere part was fitchid, it dwellide vnmouable, and the last part was brokun of strengthe of the see. 42 And counsel of the knyitis was, to sle men that weren in warde, lest ony schulde ascape, whanne he hadde swymmed out. 43 But the centurien wolde kepe Poul, and forbede it to be don. And he comaundide hem that miyte swymme, to go in to the see, and scape, and go out to the loond. 44 And thei baren summe othere on boordis, summe on tho thingis that weren of the schip. And so it was don, that alle men ascapiden to the lond.

28 And whanne we hadden ascapid, thanne we knewen that the ile was clepid Militene. And the hethene men diden to vs not litil curtesie. 2 And whanne a fier was kyndelid, thei refreschiden vs alle, for the reyn that cam, and the coold. 3 But whanne Poul hadde gederid `a quantite of kittingis of vines, and leide on the fier, an edder sche cam forth fro the heete, and took hym bi the hoond. 4 And whanne the hethene men of the ile siyen the beest hangynge in his hoond, thei seiden togidir, For this man is a manuellere; and whanne he scapide fro the see, Goddis veniaunce suffrith hym not to lyue in erthe. 5 But he schoke awei the beest in to the fier, and hadde noon harm. 6 And thei gessiden that he schulde be turned in to swellyng, and falle doun sudenli, and die. But whanne thei abiden longe, and sien that no thing of yuel was don in him, thei turneden hem togider, and seiden, that he was God. 7 And in the placis weren maners of the prince of the ile, Puplius bi name, which resseyuede vs bi thre daies benygntli, and foond vs. 8 And it bifel, that the fader of Puplius lai trauelid with fyueris and blodi flux. To whom Poul entride, and whanne he hadde preied, and leid his hondis on hym, he helide hym. 9 And whanne this thing was don, alle that in the ile hadden sicknesses, camen, and weren heelid. 10 Which also onouriden vs in many worschips, and puttiden what thingis weren necessarie to vs, whanne we schippiden. 11 And after thre monethis we schippiden in a schip of Alisaundre, that hadde wyntrid in the ile, to which was an excellent singne of Castours. 12 And whanne we camen to Siracusan, we dwelliden there thre daies. 13 Fro thennus we seiliden aboute, and camen to Regyum; and aftir oo dai, while the south blew, in the secounde dai we camen to Puteolos. 14 Where whanne we founden britheren, we weren preied to dwelle there anentis hem seuene daies. And so we camen to Rome. 15 And fro thennus whanne britheren hadden herd, thei camen to vs to the cheping of Appius, and to the Thre tauernes. 16 And whanne Poul hadde seyn hem, he dide thankyngis to God, and took trist. And whanne we camen to Rome, it was suffrid to Poul to dwelle bi hym silf, with a knyt kepinge him. 17 And after the thridde dai, he clepide togidir the worthieste of the Jewis. And whanne thei camen, he seide to hem, Britheren, Y dide no thing ayens the puple ether custom of fadris, and Y was boundun at Jerusalem, and was bitakun in to the hondis of Romayns. 18 And whanne thei hadden axid of me, wolden haue delyuerid me, for that no cause of deth was in me. 19 But for Jewis ayenseiden, Y was constreyned to appele to the emperour; not as hauynge ony thing to accuse my puple. 20 Therfor for this cause Y preiede to se you, and speke to you; for for the hope of Israel Y am gird aboute with this chayne. 21 And thei seiden to hym, Nether we han resseyued lettris of thee fro Judee, nether ony of britheren comynge schewide, ether spak ony yuel thing of thee. 22 But we preyen to here of thee, what thingis thou felist; for of this sect it is knowun to vs, that euerywhere me ayenseith it. 23 And whanne thei hadden ordeined a dai to hym, many men camen to hym in to the in. To whiche he expownede, witnessinge the kyngdom of God, and counseilide hem of Jhesu, of the lawe of Moyses, and profetis, for the morewe til to euentid. 24 And summe bileueden to these thingis that weren seid of Poul, summe bileueden not. 25 And whanne thei weren not consentinge togidir, thei departiden. And Poul seide o word, For the Hooli Goost spak wel bi Ysaye, the profete, to oure fadris, 26 and seide, Go thou to this puple, and seie to hem, With eere ye schulen here, and ye schulen not vndirstonde; and ye seynges schulen se, and ye schulen not biholde. 27 For the herte of this puple is greetli fattid, and with eeris thei herden heuyli, and thei closiden togider her iyen, lest perauenture thei se with iyen, and with eeris here, and bi herte vndurstonde, and be conuertid, and Y hele hem. 28 Therfor be it knowun to you, that this helthe of God is sent to hethen men, and thei schulen here. 29 And whanne he hadde seid these thingis, Jewis wenten out fro hym, and hadden myche questioun, ethir musyng, among hem silf. 30 And he dwellide ful twei yeer in his hiri place; and he resseyuede alle that entryden to hym, 31 and prechide the kingdom of God, and tauyte tho thingis that ben of the Lord Jhesu Crist, with al trist, with out forbedyng. Amen.

Romans

1 Poul, the seruauant of Jhesu Crist, clepid an apostle, departid in to the gospel of God; 2 which he hadde bihote tofore bi his profetis in holi scripturis of his sone, 3 which is maad to hym of the seed of Dauid bi the flesch, 4 and he was bifor ordeyned the sone of God in vertu, bi the spirit of halewying of the ayenrisyng of deed men, of Jhesu Crist oure Lord, 5 bi whom we han resseyued grace and the office of apostle, to obeie to the feith in alle folkis for his name, 6 among whiche ye ben also clepid of Jhesu Crist, 7 to alle that ben at Rome, derlyngis of God, and clepid hooli, grace to you, and pees of God oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 8 First Y do thankyngis to my God, bi Jhesu Crist, for alle you, for youre feith is schewid in al the world. 9 For God is a wisesse to me, to whom Y serue in my spirit, in the gospel of his sone, 10 that with outen ceessyng Y make mynde of you euere in my preieris, and biseche, if in any maner sum tyme Y haue a spedi weie in the wille of God to come to you. 11 For Y desire to se you, to parten sumwhat of spiritual grace, 12 that ye be confermyd, that is, to be coumfortid togidere in you, bi feith that is bothe youre and myn togidere. 13 And, britheren, Y nyle, that ye vnkownun, that ofte Y purposide to come to you, and Y am lett to this tyme, that Y haue sum fruyt in you, as in othere folkis. 14 To Grekis and to barberyns, to wise men and to vnwise men, 15 Y am dettour, so that that is in me is redi to preche the gospel also to you that ben at Rome. 16 For Y schame not the gospel, for it is the vertu of God in to heelte to ech man that bileueth, to the Jew first, and to the Greke. 17 For the riytwisnesse of God is schewid in it, of feith in to feith, 18 as it is writun, For a iust man lyueth of feith. For the wraththe of God is schewid fro heuene on al vnpite and wickidnesse of tho men, that withholden the treuth of God in vnriytwisnes. 19 For that thing of God that is knowun, is schewid to hem, for God hath schewid to hem. 20 For the vnuysible thingis of hym, that ben vndurstondun, ben biholdun of the creature of the world, bi tho thingis that ben maad, yhe, and the euerlastyng vertu of hym and the godhed, so that thei mowe not be excusid. (aiidios g126) 21 For whanne thei hadden knowe God, thei glorifieden hym not as God, nether diden thankyngis; but thei vanyschiden in her thouyts, and the vnwise herte of hem was derkid. 22 For thei `seyynge that hem silf weren wise, thei weren maad foolis. 23 And thei chaungiden the glorie of `God vncorruptible in to the licnesse of an ymage of a deedli man, and of briddis, and of foure footid beestis, and of serpentis. 24 For which thing God bitook hem in to the desiris of her herte, in to vncleennesse, that thei punysche with wrongis her bodies in hem silf. 25 The whiche chaungiden the treuth of God in to leesying, and herieden and serueden a creature rather than to the creatoure, that is blessid in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 26 Amen. Therfor God bitook hem in to passiouns of schenscipe. For the wymmen of hem chaungiden the kyndli vss in to that vss that is ayens kynde. 27 Also the men forsoken the kyndli vss of woman, and brenned in her desiris togidere, and men in to women wrouyten filthehed, and resseyueden in to hem silf the meede that bihofte of her errour. 28 And as thei preueden that thei hadden not God in knowyng, God bitook hem in to a repreuable wit, that thei do tho thingis that ben not couenable; that thei ben fulfillid with al wickidnesse, 29 malice, fornycacioun, coueitise, weiwardnesse, ful of enuye, mansleyngis, strijf, gile, yuel wille, preuy bachteris, detractouris, 30 hateful to God, debateris, proude, and hiy ouer mesure, fynderis of yuele thingis, not obeschyng to fadir and modir, 31 vnwise, vnmanerli, withouten loue, withouten boond of pees, with outen merci. 32 The whiche whanne thei hadden knowe the riytwisnesse of God, vnderstoden not, that thei that don siche thingis ben worthi the deth, not oneli thei that don tho thingis, but also thei that consenten to the doeris.

2 Wherfor thou art vnexcusable, ech man that demest, for in what thing thou demest anothir man, thou condemnest thi silf; for thou doist the same thingis whiche thou demest. 2 And we witen, that the doom of God is aftir treuthe ayens hem, that don siche thingis. 3 But gessist thou, man, that demest hem that doen siche thingis, and thou doist tho thingis, that thou schalt ascape the doom of God? 4 Whether `dispisist thou the richessis of his goodnesse, and the pacience, and the long abidyng? Knowist thou not, that the benygnyte of God ledith thee to forthenkyng? 5 But aftir thin hardnesse and vnrepentaunt herte, thou tresorist to thee wraththe in the dai of wraththe and of schewyng of the riytl doom of God, 6 that schal yelde to ech man aftir his werkis; 7 sotheli to hem that ben bi pacience of good werk, glorie, and onour, and vncorruptioun, to hem that seken euerlastyng lijf, (aiōnios g166) 8 but to hem that ben of strijf, and that assenten not to treuthe, but beleuen to wickidnesse, wraththe and indignacioun, tribulacioun and angwisch, 9 in to ech soule of man that worchith yuel, to the Jew first, and to the Greke; 10 but glorie, and honour, and pees, to ech man that worchith good thing, to the Jew first, and to the Greke. 11 For acceptioun of persones is not anentis God. 12 For who euere han synned without the lawe, schulen perische withouten the lawe; and who euere han synned in the lawe, thei schulen be demyd bi the lawe. 13 For the hereris of lawe ben not iust anentis God, but the doeris of the lawe schulen be maad iust. 14 For whanne hethene men that han not lawe, don kyndli tho thingis that ben of the lawe, thei not hauynge suche manere lawe, ben lawe to hem silf, 15 that schewen the werk of the lawe writun in her hertis. For the conscience of hem yeldith to hem a wityssyng bytwixe hem silf of thouyts that ben accusyng or defendyng, 16 in the dai whanne God schal deme the priuy thingis of men aftir my gospel, bi Jhesu Crist. 17 But if thou art named a Jew, and resist in the lawe, and hast glorie in God, 18 and hast knowe his wille, and thou lerud bi lawe preuest the more profitable thingis, 19 and tristist thi silf to be a ledere of blynde men, the liyt of hem that ben in derknessis, 20 a techere of vnwise men, a maistr of yonge children, that hast the forme of kunnyng and of treuthe in the lawe; 21 what thanne techist thou another, and techist not thi silf? Thou that prechist that me schal not stele, stelst? 22 Thou that techist that me schal `do no letcherie, doist letcherie? Thou that wlatist maumetis, doist sacrilegie? 23 Thou that hast glorie in the lawe, vnworschapist God bi brekyng of the lawe? 24 For the name of God is blasfemed bi you among hethene men, as is writun. 25 For circumcisioun profitith, if thou kepe the lawe; but if thou be a trespassour ayens the lawe, thi circumcisioun is maad prepucie. 26 Therfor if prepucie kepe the riytwisnessis of the lawe, whethir his prepucie schal not be arettid in to circumcisioun? 27 And the prepucie of kynde that fulfillith the lawe, schal deme thee, that bi letre and circumcisioun art trespassour ayens the lawe. 28 For he that is in opene is not a Jew, nether it is circumcisioun that is openli in the fleisch; 29 but he that is a Jew in hid, and the circumcisioun of herte, in spirit, not bi the letre, whos preisyng is not of men, but of God.

3 What thanne is more to a Jew, or what profit of circumcisioun? 2 Myche bi al wise; first, for the spekyngis of God `weren bitakun to hem. 3 And what if summe of hem bileueden not? Whethir the vnbeleue of hem hath auoidid the feith of God? 4 God forbede. For God is sothefast, but ech man a liere; as it is writun, That thou be iustified in thi wordis, and ouercome, whanne thou art demed. 5 But if oure wickidnesse comende the riytwisnesse of God, what shulen we seie? Whether God is wickid, that bryngith in wrathe? 6 Afir man Y seie. God forbede. Ellis hou schal God deme this world? 7 For if the treuthe of God hath aboundid in my lessyng, in to the glorie of hym, what yit am Y demed as a synner? 8 And not as we ben blasfemed, and as summen seien that we seien, Do we yuele thingis, that gode thingis come. Whos dampnacioun is iust. 9 What thanne? Passen we hem? Nay; for we han schewid bi skile, that alle bothe Jewis and Grekis ben vndur synne, 10 as it is writun, For ther is no man iust; 11 ther is no man vndurstondyng, nethir sekyng God. 12 Alle bowiden a wey, togidere thei ben maad vnprofitable; ther is noon that doith good thing, there is noon `til to oon. 13 The throte of hem is an opyn sepulcre; with her tungis thei diden gilefuli; the venym of snakis is vndur her lippis. 14 The mouth of whiche is ful of cursyng and bitterness; 15 the feet of hem ben swifte to schede blood. 16 Sorewe and cursidnesse ben in the weies of hem, 17 and thei knewen not the weie of pees; 18 the drede of God is not bifor her iyen. 19 And we witen, that what euere thingis the lawe spekith, it spekith to hem that ben in the lawe, that ech mouth be stoppid, and ech world be maad suget to God. 20 For of the werkis of the lawe ech fleisch schal not be iustified bifor hym; for bi the lawe ther is knowyng of synne. 21 But now with outen the lawe the riytwisnesse of God is schewid, that is witnessid of the lawe and the profetis. 22 And the riytwisnesse of God is bi the feith of Jhesu Crist in to alle men and on alle men that bileuen in hym; for ther is no departyng. 23 For alle men synneden, and han nede to the glorie of God; 24 and ben iustified freli bi his grace, bi the ayenbiyng that is in `Crist Jhesu. 25 Whom God ordeynede foryuer, bi feith in his blood, to the schewyng of his riytwisnesse, for remysioun of biforgoyng synnes, 26 in the beryng up of God, to the schewyng of his riytwisnesse in this tyme, that he be iust, and iustifyng hym that is of the feith of Jhesu Crist. 27 Where thanne is thi gloryyng? It is excludid. Bi what lawe? Of dedis doying? Nay, but by the lawe of feith. 28 For we demen a man to be iustified bi the feith, with outen werkis of the lawe. 29 Whethir of Jewis is God oneli? Whether he is not also of hethene men? Yhis, and of hethene men. 30 For `oon God is, that iustefieth circumcisioun bi feith, and prepucie bi feith. 31 Distruye we therfor the lawe bi the feith? God forbede; but we stabilschen the lawe.

4 What thanne schulen we seie, that Abraham oure fadir afir the flesch foond? 2 For if Abraham is iustified of werkis of the lawe, he hath glorie, but not anentis God. 3 For what seith the scripture? Abraham bileued to God, and it was arettid to him to riytwisnesse. 4 And to hym that worchith mede is not arettid bi grace, but bi dette. 5 Sotheli to hym that worchith not, but bileueth in to hym that iustefieth a wickid man, his feith is arettid to riytwisnesse, afir the purpos of Goddis grace. 6 As Dauid seith the blessidnesse of a man, whom God acceptith, he yyueth to hym riytwisnesse with outen werkis of the lawe, 7 Blessid ben thei, whos wickidnessis ben foryouun, and whos synnes ben hid. 8 Blessid is that man, to whom God arettide not synne. 9 Thanne whether dwellith this blisfulnesse oneli in circumcisioun, or also in prepucie? For we seien, that the feith was arettid to Abraham to riytwisnesse. 10 Hou thanne was it arettid? in circumcisioun, or in prepucie? Not in circumcisioun, but in prepucie. 11 And he took a signe of circumcisioun, a tokenyng of riytwisnesse of the feith which is in prepucie, that he be fadir of alle men bileuyng bi prepucie, that it be arettid also to hem to riytwisnesse; 12 and that he be fadir of circumcisioun, not onely to hem that ben of circumcisioun, but also to hem that suen the steppis of the feith, which feith is in prepucie of oure fader Abraham. 13 For not bi the lawe is biheest to Abraham, or to his seed, that he schulde be eir of the world, but bi the riytwisnesse of feith. 14 For if thei that ben of the lawe, ben eiris, feith is distried, biheest is don away. 15 For the lawe worchith wrathe; for where is no lawe, there is no trespas, nethir is trespassyng. 16 Therfor riytfulnesse is of the feith, that bi grace biheeste be stable to ech seed, not to that seed oneli that is of the lawe, but to that that is of the feith of Abraham, which is fadir of vs alle. 17 As it is writun, For Y haue set thee fadir of many folkis, bifor God to whom thou hast bileued. Which God quykeneth deed men, and clepith tho thingis that ben not, as tho that ben. 18 Which Abraham ayens hope bileuede in to hope, that he schulde be maad fader of many folkis, as it was seid to hym, Thus schal thi seed be, as the steris of heuene, and as the grauel that is in the brenke of the see. 19 And he was not maad vnstidfast in the bileue, nether he biheelde his bodi thanne nyy deed, whanne he was almost of an hundrid yeer, ne the wombe of Sare nyy deed. 20 Also in the biheeste of God he doutide not with vntrist; but he was coumfortid in bileue, 21 yuyng glorie to God, wityng moost fulli that what euere thingis God hath bihiyt, he is myyti also to do. 22 Therfor it was arettid to hym to riytwisnesse. 23 And it is not writun oneli for him, that it was arettid to hym to riytwisnesse, 24 but also for vs, to whiche it schal be arettid, that bileuen in him that reiseid oure Lord Jhesu Crist fro deeth. 25 Which was bitakun for oure synnes, and roos ayen for oure iustefyng.

5 Therfor we, iustified of feith, haue we pees at God bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 2 Bi whom we han niy goyng to, bi feith in to this grace, in which we stonden, and han glorie in the hope of the glorie of Goddis children. 3 And not this oneli, but also we glorien in tribulaciouns, witynge that tribulacioun worchith pacience, 4 and pacience preuyng, and preuyng hope. 5 And hope confoundith not, for the charite of God is spred abroad in oure hertis bi the Hooli Goost, that is youun to vs. 6 And while that we weren sijk aftir the tyme, what diede Crist for wickid men? 7 For vnnethis dieth ony man for the iust man; and yit for a good man perauenture summan dar die. 8 But God comendith his charite in vs; for if whanne we weren yit synneris, 9 aftir the tyme Crist was deed for vs, thanne myche more now we iustified in his blood, schulen be saaf fro wratthe bi him. 10 For if whanne we weren enemyes, we ben recounselid to God bi the deth of his sone, myche more we recounselid schulen be saaf in the lijf of hym. 11 And not oneli this, but also we glorien in God, bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom we han resseyued now recounseling. 12 Therfor as bi o man synne entride in to this world, and bi synne deth, and so deth passide forth in to alle men, in which man alle men synneden. 13 For `til to the lawe synne was in the world; but synne was not rettid, whanne lawe was not. 14 But deth regnyde from Adam `til to Moises, also in to hem that synneden not in licnesse of the trespassyng of Adam, the which is licnesse of Crist to comyng. 15 But not as gilt, so the yifte; for if thorouy the gilt of oon manye ben deed, myche more the grace of God and the yifte in the grace of o man Jhesu Crist hath aboundid in to many men. 16 And not as bi o synne, so bi the yifte; for the doom of oon in to condemnacioun, but grace of many giltis in to iustificacioun. 17 For if in the gilt of oon deth regnede thorouy oon, myche more men that takyn plente of grace, and of yyuyng, and of riytwisnesse, schulen regne in lijf bi oon Jhesu Crist. 18 Therfor as bi the gilt of oon in to alle men in to condemnacioun, so bi the riytwisnesse of oon in to alle men in to iustifyng of lijf. 19 For as bi inobedience of o man manye ben maad synneris, so bi the obedience of oon manye schulen be iust. 20 And the lawe entride, that gilt schulde be plenteuouse; but where gilt was plenteuouse, 21 grace was more plenteuouse. That as synne regnede in to deth, so grace regne bi riytwisnesse in to euerlastyng lijf, bi `Crist Jhesu oure Lord. (aiōnios g166)

6 Therfor what schulen we seie? Schulen we dwelle in synne, that grace be plenteuouse? 2 God forbode. For hou schulen we that ben deed to synne, lyue yit ther ynne? 3 Whether, britheren, ye knowen not, that which euere we ben baptisid in Crist Jhesu, we ben baptisid in his deth? 4 For we ben togidere biried with hym bi baptyt `in to deth; that as Crist aroos fro deth bi the glorie of the fadir, so walke we in a newnesse of lijf. 5 For if we plauntid togidere ben maad to the licnesse of his deth, also we schulen be of the licnesse of his rysyng ayen; 6 witynge this thing, that oure olde man is crucified togidere, that the bodi of synne be destruyed, that we serue no more to synne. 7 For he that is deed, is iustified fro synne. 8 And if we ben deed with Crist, we bileuen that also we schulen lyue togidere with hym; 9

witynge for Crist, rysyng ayen fro deth, now dieth not, deeth schal no more haue lordschip on hym. 10 For that he was deed to synne, he was deed onys; but that he lyueth, he liueth to God. 11 So ye deme you silf to be deed to synne, but lyuyng to God in `Jhesu Crist oure Lord. 12 Therfor regne not synne in youre deedli bodi, that ye obeische to hise coueityngis. 13 Nether yyue ye youre membris armuris of wickidnesse to synne, but yyue ye you silf to God, as thei that lyuen of deed men, and youre membris armuris of riytwisnesse to God. 14 For synne schal not haue lordschipe on you; for ye ben not vndur the lawe, but vndur grace. 15 What therfor? Schulen we do synne, for we ben not vndur the lawe, but vndur grace? 16 God forbode. Witen ye not, that to whom ye yyuen you seruauntis to obeie to, ye ben seruauntis of that thing, to which ye han obeschild, ether of synne to deth, ether of obedience to riytwisnesse? 17 But Y thanke God, that ye weren seruauntis of synne; but ye han obeschild of herte in to that fourme of techyng, in which ye ben bitakun. 18 And ye delyuered fro synne, ben maad seruauntis of riytwisnesse. 19 Y seie that thing that is of man, for the vnstidefastnesse of youre fleisch. But as ye han youun youre membris to serue to vnclennesse, and to wickidnesse `in to wickidnesse, so now yyue ye youre membris to serue to riytwisnesse in to hoolynesse. 20 For whanne ye weren seruauntis of synne, ye weren fre of riytfulnesse. 21 Therfor what fruyt hadden ye thanne in tho thingis, in whiche ye schamen now? For the ende of hem is deth. 22 But now ye delyuered fro synne, and maad seruauntis to God, han your fruyt in to holinesse, and the ende euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 23 For the wagis of synne is deth; the grace of God is euerlastyng lijf in Crist Jhesu our Lord. (aiōnios g166)

7 Britheren, whethir ye knowun not; for Y speke to men `that knowen the lawe; for the lawe hath lordschip in a man, as long tyme as it lyueth? 2 For that womman that is vndur an hosebonde, is boundun to the lawe, while the hosebonde lyueth; but if hir hosebonde is deed, sche is delyuered fro the lawe of the hosebonde. 3 Therfor sche schal be clepid auoutresse, if sche be with another man, while the hosebonde lyueth; but if hir hosebonde is deed, sche is delyuered fro the lawe of the hosebonde, that sche be not auoutresse, if sche be with another man. 4 And so, my britheren, ye ben maad deed to the lawe bi the bodi of Crist, that ye ben of another, that roos ayen fro deth, that ye bere fruyt to God. 5 For whanne we weren in fleisch, passiouns of synnes, that weren bi the lawe, wrouyten in oure membris, to bere fruyt to deth. 6 But now we ben vnboundun fro the lawe of deth, in which we weren holdun, so that we seruen in newnesse of spirit, and not in eldnesse of lettre. 7 What therfor schulen we seie? The lawe is synne? God forbode. But Y knew not synne, but bi lawe; for Y wiste not that coueityng was synne, but for the lawe seide, Thou schalt not coueyte. 8 And thoruy occasioun takun, synne bi the maundement hath wrouyt in me al coueityse; for withouten the lawe, synne was deed. 9 And Y lyuede withouten the lawe sumtyme; but whanne the comaundement was comun, synne lyuede ayen. 10 But Y was deed, and this comaundement that was to lijf, was foundun to me, to be to deth. 11 For synne, thorouy occasioun takun bi the comaundement, disceyuede me, and bi that it slow me. 12 Therfor the lawe is hooli, and the comaundement is hooli, and iust, and good. 13 Is thanne that thing that is good, maad deth to me? God forbede. But synne, that it seme synne, thorouy good thing wrouyte deth to me, that me synne ouer maner thorouy the comaundement. 14 And we witen, that the lawe is spiritual; but Y am fleischli, seld vndur synne. 15 For Y vnderstonde not that that Y worche; for Y do not the good thing that Y wole, but Y do thilke yuel thing that Y hate. 16 And if Y do that thing that Y wole not, Y consente to the lawe, that it is good. 17 But now Y worche not it now, but the synne that dwellith in me. 18 But and Y woot, that in me, that is, in my fleisch, dwellith no good; for wille lieth to me, but Y fynde not to performe good thing. 19 For Y do not thilke good thing that Y wole, but Y do thilke yuel thing that Y wole not. 20 And if Y do that yuel thing that Y wole not, Y worche not it, but the synne that dwellith in me. 21 Therfor Y fynde the lawe to me willynge to do good thing, for yuel thing lieth to me. 22 For Y delite togidere to the lawe of God, afir the ynnere man. But Y se another lawe in my membris, 23 ayenfitynge the lawe of my soule, and makynge me catif in the lawe of synne, that is in my membris. 24 Y am an vnceli man; who schal delyuer me fro the bodi of this synne? 25 The grace of God, bi Jhesu Crist oure Lord. Therfor Y my silf bi the soule serue to the lawe of God; but bi fleisch to the lawe of synne.

8 Therfor now no thing of dampnacioun is to hem that ben in Crist Jhesu, whiche wandren not after the flesch. 2 For the lawe of the spirit of lijf in Crist Jhesu hath delyuerid me fro the lawe of synne, and of deth. 3 For that that was vnpossible to the lawe, in what thing it was sijk bi fleisch, God sente his sone in to the licknesse of fleisch of synne, and of synne dampned synne in fleisch; 4 that the iustefiynge of the lawe were fullillid in vs, that goen not afir the fleisch, but afir the spirit. 5 For thei that ben afir the fleisch, saueren tho thingis that ben of the fleisch; but thei that ben after the spirit, feelen tho thingis that ben of the spirit. For the prudence of fleisch is deth; 6 but the prudence of spirit is lijf and pees. 7 For the wisdom of the fleisch is enemye to God; for it is not suget to the lawe of God, for nether it may. 8 And thei that ben in fleisch, moun not plesse to God. 9 But ye ben not in fleisch, but in spirit; if netheles the spirit of God dwellith in you. But if ony hath not the spirit of Crist, this is not his. 10 For if Crist is in you, the bodi is deed for synne, but the spirit lyueth for iustefiynge. 11 And if the spirit of hym that reiseid Jhesu Crist fro deth dwellith in you, he that reiseid Jhesu Crist fro deth, shal quykene also youre deedli bodies, for the spirit of hym that dwellith in you. 12 Therfor, britheren, we ben dettouris, not to the flesch, that we lyuen afir the flesch. 13 For if ye lyuen afir the fleisch, ye schulen die; but if ye bi the spirit sleen the dedis of the fleisch, ye schulen lyue. 14 For who euere ben led bi the spirit of God, these ben the sones of God. 15 For ye han not take eftsoone the spirit of seruage in drede, but ye han taken the spirit of adopcioun of sones, in which we crien, Abba, fadir. 16 And the ilke spirit yeldith witnessyng to oure spirit, that we ben the sones of God; 17 if sones, and eiris, and eiris of God, and eiris togidere with Crist; if netheles we suffren togidere, that also we ben glorified togidere. 18 And Y deme, that the passiouns of this tyme ben not worthi to the glorie to comynge, that schal be schewid in vs. 19 For the abidyng of creature abidith the schewyng of the sones of God. 20 But the creature is suget to varyte, not willynge, but for hym that made it suget in hope; 21 for the ilke creature schal be delyuered fro seruage of corrupcioun in to liberte of the glorie of the sones of God. 22 And we witen, that ech creature sorewith, and traelith with payne til yit. 23 And not oneli it, but also we vs silf, that han the first fruytis of the spirit, and we vs silf sorewen with ynne vs for the adopcioun of Goddis sones, abydinge the ayenbyng of oure bodi. 24 But bi hope we ben maad saaf. For hope that is seyn, is not hope; for who hopith that thing, that he seeth? 25 And if we hopen that thing that we seen not, we abiden bi pacience. 26 And also the spirit helpith oure infirmyte; for what we schulen preie, as it bihoueth, we witen not, but the ilke spirit axith for vs with sorewyngis, that moun not be teld out. 27 For he that sekith the hertis, woot what the spirit desirith, for bi God he axith for hooli men. 28 And we witen, that to men that louen God, alle thingis worchen togidere in to good, to hem that afir purpos ben clepid seyntis. 29 For thilke that he knewe bifor, he bifor ordenede bi grace to be maad lijk to the ymage of his sone, that he be the first bigetun among many britheren. 30 And thilke that he bifore ordeynede to blis, hem he clepide; and whiche he clepide, hem he iustifiede; and whiche he iustifiede, and hem he glorifiede. 31 What thanne schulen we seie to these thingis? If God for vs, who is ayens vs? 32 The which also sparide not his owne sone, but for vs alle bitook hym, hou also yaf he not to vs alle thingis with hym? 33 Who schal accuse ayens the chosun men of God? It is God that iustifieth, 34 who is it that condempneth? It is Jhesus Crist that was deed, yhe, the which roos ayen, the which is on the riyt half of God, and the which preieth for vs. 35 Who thanne schal departe vs fro the charite of Crist? tribulacioun, or anguysch, or hungur, or nakidnesse, or persecucioun, or perel, or swerd? 36 As it is writun, For we ben slayn al dai for thee; we ben gessid as scheep of slaughtir. 37 But in alle these thingis we ouercomen, for hym that louyde vs. 38 But Y am certeyn, that nethir deeth, nethir lijf, nethir aungels, nethir principatus, nethir vertues, nethir present thingis, nethir thingis to comynge, nethir strengthe, 39 nethir heiyth, nethir depnesse, nethir noon othir creature may departe vs fro the charite of God, that is in Crist Jhesu oure Lord.

9 I seie treuthe in Crist Jhesu, Y lye not, for my conscience berith witnessyng to me in the Hooli Goost, 2 for greet heuynesse is to me, and contynuel sorewe to my herte. 3 For Y my silf desiride to be departid fro Crist for my britheren, that ben my cosyns afir the fleisch, that ben men of Israel; 4 whos is adopcioun of sones, and glorie, and testament, and yuyng of the lawe, and seruyce, and biheestis; 5 whos ben the fadris, and of which is Crist after the fleisch, that is God aboue alle thingis, blessid in to worldis. (aiōn g165) 6 Amen. But not that the word of God hath falle down. For not alle that ben of Israel, these ben Israelitis. 7 Nethir thei that ben seed of Abraham, alle ben sonys; but in Ysaac the seed schal be clepid to thee; 8 that is to seie, not thei that ben sones of the fleisch, ben sones of God, but thei that ben sones of biheeste ben demed in the seed. 9 For whi this is the word of biheest, Aftir this tyme Y schal come, and a sone schal be to Sare. 10 And not oneli sche, but also Rebecca hadde twey sones of o liggynge bi of Ysaac, oure fadir. 11 And whanne thei weren not yet borun, nether hadden don ony thing of good ether of yuel, that the purpos of God schulde dwelle bi eleccioun, 12 not of werkis, but of God clepyng, it was seid to hym, 13 that the more schulde serue the lesse, as it is writun, Y louede Jacob, but Y hatide Esau. 14 What therfor schulen we seie? Whether wickidnesse be anentis God? 15 God forbede. For he seith to Moyses, Y schal haue merci on whom Y haue merci; and Y schal yyue merci on whom Y schal haue merci. 16 Therfor it is not nether of man willynge, nethir rennyng, but of God haunyng mercy. 17 And the scripture seith to Faraou, For to this thing Y haue stirid thee, that Y schewe in thee my vertu, and that my name be teld in al erthe. 18 Therfor of whom God wole, he hath merci; and whom he wole, he endurith. 19 Thanne seist thou to me, What is souyt yet? for who withstondith his wille? 20 O! man, who art thou, that answerist to God? Whether a maad thing seith to hym that made it, What hast thou maad me so? 21 Whether a potter of cley hath not power to make of the same gobet o vessel in to honour, an othere in to dispi? 22 That if God willynge to schewe his wraththe, and to make his power knowun, hath suffrid in greet pacience vessels of wraththe able in to deth, 23 to schewe the riytchessis of his glorie in to vessels of merci, whiche he made redi in to glorie. 24 Whiche also he clepid not oneli of Jewis, but also of hethene men, as he seith in Osee, 25 Y schal clepe not my puple my puple, and not my loued my louyd, and not getyng mercy getyng merci; 26 and it schal be in the place, where it is seid to hem, Not ye my puple, there thei schulen be clepid the sones of God lyuynge. 27 But Isaye crieth for Israel, If the noubre of Israel schal be as grauel of the see, the relifs schulen be maad saaf. 28 Forsothe a word makynge an ende, and abreggynge in equyte, for the Lord schal make a word breggid on al the erthe. 29 And as Ysaye bifor seide, But God of oostis hadde left to vs seed, we hadden be maad as Sodom, and we hadden be lijk as Gommor. 30 Therfor what schulen we seie? That hethene men that sieden not riytwisnesse, han gete riytwisnesse, yhe, the riytwisnesse that is of feith. 31 But Israel suyng the lawe of riytwisnesse, cam not partili in to the lawe of riytwisnesse. 32 Whi? For not of feith, but as of werkys. And thei spurneden ayens the stoon of offencioun, 33 as it is writun, Lo! Y putte a stoon of offensioun in Syon, and a stoon of slaundre; and ech that schal bileue in it, schal not be confoundid.

10 Britheren, the wille of myn herte and mi biseching is maad to God for hem in to helthe. 2 But Y bere witnessyng to hem, that thei han loue of God, but not aftir kunnyng. 3 For thei vnknowynge Goddis riytwisnesse, and sekyng to make stidefast her owne riytfulnesse, ben not suget to the riytwisnesse of God. 4 For the ende of the lawe is Crist, to riytwisnesse to ech man that bileueth. 5 For Moyses wroth, For the man that schal do riytwisnesse that is of the lawe, schal lyue in it. 6 But the riytwisnesse that is of bileue, seith thus, Seie thou not in thin herte, Who schal stie in to heuene? that is to seie, to lede down Crist; 7 or who schal go down in to helle? that is, to ayenlepe Crist fro deth. (Abyssos g12) 8 But what seith the scripture? The word is nyy in thi mouth, and in thin herte; this is the word of bileue, which we prechen. 9 That if thou knouelechist in thi mouth the Lord Jhesu Crist, and bileuest in thin herte, that God reiseid hym fro deth, thou schalt be saaf. 10 For bi herte me bileueth to riytwisnesse, but bi mouth knowleching is maad to helthe. 11 For whi the scripture seith, Ech that bileueth in hym, schal not be confoundid. 12 And ther is no distinccioun of Jew and of Greke; for the same Lord of alle is riche in alle, that inwardli clepen hym. 13 For ech man who euere schal inwardli clepe the name of the Lord, schal be saaf. 14 Hou thanne schulen thei inwardli clepe hym, in to whom thei han not bileued? or hou schulen thei bileue to hym, whom thei han not herd? Hou schulen thei here, with outen a prechour? 15 and hou schulen thei preche, but thei be sent? As it is writun, Hou faire ben the feet of hem that prechen pees, of hem that prechen good thingis. 16 But not alle men obeien to the gospel. For Ysaie seith, Lord, who bileuede to oure heryng? 17 Therfor feith is of heryng, but heryng bi the word of Crist. 18 But Y seie, Whether thei herden not? Yhis, sothely the word of hem wente out in to al the erthe, and her wordis in to the endis of the world. 19 But Y seie, Whether Israel knewe not? First Moyses seith, Y schal lede you to enuye, that ye ben no folc; that ye ben an vnwise folc, Y schal sende you in to wraththe. 20 And Ysaie is bold, and seith, Y am foundon of men that seken me not; opynli Y apperide to hem, that axiden not me. 21 But to Israel he seith, Al dai Y streihte out myn hondis to a puple that bileuede not, but ayen seide me.

11 Therfor Y seie, Whether God hath put awei his puple? God forbede. For Y am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the lynage of Beniamyn. 2 God hath not put awei his puple, which he bifor knew. Whether ye witen not, what the scripture seith in Elie? Hou he preieth God ayens Israel, 3 Lord, thei han slayn thi prophetis, thei han vndurdolun thin auteris, and Y am lefte aloone, and thei seken my lijf. 4 But what seith Goddis answer to hym? Y haue left to me seuene thousyndes of men, that han not bowid her knees bifore Baal. 5 So therfor also in this tyme, the relifs ben maad saaf, bi the chesying of the grace of God. 6 And if it be bi the grace of God, it is not now of werkis; ellis grace is not now grace. 7 What thanne? Israel hath not getun this that he souyte, but eleccioun hath getun; and the othere ben blyndid. 8 As it is writun, God yaf to hem a spirit of compunccioun, iyen that thei se not, and eeris, that thei here not, in to this dai. 9 And Dauith seith, Be the boord of hem maad in to a gryn bifor hem, and in to catchyng, and in to slaundre, and in to yeldyng to hem. 10 Be the iyen of hem maad derk, that thei se not; and bowe thou down algaits the bak of hem. 11 Therfor Y seie, Whether thei offendiden so, that thei schulden falle down? God forbede. But bi the gilt of hem helthe is maad to hethene men, that thei sue hem. 12 That if the gilt of hem ben richessis of the world, and the makynge lesse of hem ben richessis of hethene men, hou myche more the plente of hem? 13 But Y seie to you, hethene men, for as longe as Y am apostle of hethene men, Y schal onoure my mynsterie, 14 if in ony maner Y stire my fleisch for to folowe, and that Y make summe of hem saaf. 15 For if the loss of hem is the recouncelyng of the world, what is the takyng vp, but lijf of deede men? 16 For if a liti part of that that is tastid be hooli, the hool gobet is hooli; and if the roote is hooli, also the braunchis. 17 What if ony of the braunchis ben brokun, whanne thou were a wielde olyue tre, art graffid among hem, and art maad felowe of the roote, and of the fatnesse of the olyue tre, 18 nyle thou haue glorie ayens the braunchis. For if thou gloriest, thou berist not the roote, but the roote thee. 19 Therfor thou seist, The braunchis ben brokun, that Y be graffid in. 20 Wel, for vnbileue the braunchis ben brokun; but thou stondist bi feith. Nyle thou saure hiye thing, 21 but drede thou, for if God sparide not the kyndli braunchis, lest perauenture he spare not thee. 22 Therfor se the goodnesse, and the fersnesse of God; yhe, the feersnesse in to hem that felden down, but the goodnesse of God in to thee, if thou dwellist in goodnesse, ellis also thou schalt be kit down. 23 Yhe, and thei schulen be set yn, if thei dwellen not in vnbileue. For God is myyti, to sette hem in eftsoone. 24 For if thou art kit down of the kyndeli wielde olyue tre, and ayens kynd art set in to a good olyue tre, hou myche more thei that ben bi kynde, schulen be set in her olyue tree? 25 But, britheren, Y wole not that ye vnknown this mysterie, that ye be not wise to you silf; for blyndenesse hath feld a parti in Israel, til that the plente of hethene men entride, 26 and so al Israel schulde be maad saaf. As it is writun, He schal come of Syon, that schal delyuere, and turne awei the wickidnesse of Jacob. 27 And this testament to hem of me, whanne Y schal do awei her synnes. 28 Aftir the gospel thei ben enemyes for you, but thei ben moost dereworthe bi the eleccioun for the fadris. 29 And the yiftis and the cleping of God ben with outen forthenkyng. 30 And as sum tyme also ye bileueden not to God, but now ye han gete mercy for the vnbileue of hem; 31 so and these now bileueden not in to youre merci, that also thei geten merci. 32 For God closide alle thingis togidere in vnbileue, that he haue mercy on alle. (eleesē g1653) 33 O! the heynesse of the ritchessis of the wisdom and of the kunnyng of God; hou incomprehensible ben hise domes, and hise weies ben vnserchable. 34 For whi who knew the wit of the Lord, or who was his counselour? or who formere yaf to hym, 35 and it schal be quy to hym? 36 For of hym, and bi hym, and in hym ben alle thingis. To hym be glorie in to worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165)

12 Therefore, britheren, Y biseche you bi the mercy of God, that ye yyue youre bodies a luyunge sacrifice, hooli, plesyng to God, and youre seruyse resonable. 2 And nyle ye be confourmyd to this world, but be ye reformed in newnesse of youre wit, that ye preue which is the wille of God, good, and wel plesyng, and parfit. (aiōn g165) 3 For Y seie, bi the grace that is youn to me, to alle that ben among you, that ye saure no more than it bihoueth to saure, but for to saure to sobrenesse; and to ech man, as God hath departid the mesure of feith. 4 For as in o bodi we han many membrs, but alle

the membrs han not the same dede; 5 so we many ben o bodi in Crist, and eche ben membrs oon of anothir. 6 Therfor we that han yiftis dyuersyng, aftir the grace that is youn to vs, 7 ethir prophecie, aftir the resoun of feith; ethir seruise, in mynstryng; ether he that techith, in techyng; 8 he that stirith softli, in monestyng; he that yyueth, in symplenesse; he that is souereyn, in bisynesse; he that hath merci, in gladnesse. 9 Loue with outen feynyng, hatyng yuel, drawyng to good; 10 louyng togidere the charite of britherhod. Eche come bifore to worschipen othere; 11 not slow in bisynesse, feruent in spirit, seruyng to the Lord, 12 ioiynge in hope, pacient in tribulacioun, bisy in preier, 13 yyuynge good to the nedis of seyntis, keypynge hospitalite. 14 Blesse ye men that pursuen you; blesse ye, and nyle ye curse; 15 for to ioie with men that ioien, for to wepe with men that wepen. 16 Fele ye the same thing togidere; not saueryng heiy thingis, but consentyng to meke thingis. Nyle ye be prudent anentis you silf; 17 to no man yeldyng yuel for yuel, but purueye ye good thingis, not oneli bifor God, but also bifor alle men. 18 If it may be don, that that is of you, haue ye pees with alle men. 19 Ye moost dere britheren, not defendyng you silf, but yyue ye place to wraththe; for it is writun, The Lord seith, To me veniaunce, and Y schal yelde. 20 But if thin enemy hungrith, fede thou hym; if he thirstith, yyue thou drynke to hym; for thou doynge this thing schalt gidere togidere colis on his heed. 21 Nyle thou be ouercomun of yuel, but ouercome thou yuel bi good.

13 Euery soule be suget to heiyere powers. For ther is no power but of God, and tho thingis that ben of God, ben ordeyned. 2 Therfor he that ayenstondith power, ayenstondith the ordynance of God; and thei that ayenstonden, geten to hem silf dampnacioun. 3 For princes ben not to the drede of good work, but of yuel. But wilt thou, that thou drede not power? Do thou good thing, and thou schalt haue preisynge of it; 4 for he is the mynstre of God to thee in to good. But if thou doist yuel, drede thou; for not with outen cause he berith the swerd, for he is the mynstre of God, vengere in to wraththe to hym that doith yuel. 5 And therfor bi nede be ye suget, not oneli for wraththe, but also for conscience. 6 For therfor ye yyuen tributis, thei ben the mynstris of God, and seruen for this same thing. 7 Therfor yelde ye to alle men dettis, to whom tribut, tribut, to whom tol, tol, to whom drede, drede, to whom onour, onour. 8 To no man owe ye ony thing, but that ye loue togidere. For he that loueth his neybore, hath fulfillid the lawe. 9 For, Thou schalt do no letcherie, Thou schalt not sle, Thou schalt not stele, Thou schalt not seie fals witnessyng, Thou schalt not coueyte the thing of thi neybore, and if ther be ony othere maundement, it is instord in this word, Thou schalt loue thi neybore as thi silf. 10 The loue of neybore worchith not yuel; therfor loue is the fulfillyng of the lawe. 11 And we known this tyme, that the our is now, that we rise fro sleep; for now oure heelte is neer, than whanne we bileueden. 12 The nytt wente bifore, but the dai hath neiyed. Therfor caste we awei the werkis of derknessis, and be we clothid in the armeris of liyt. 13 As in dai wandre we onestli, not in superflu feestis and drunkenessis, not in beddis and vnchastitees, not in strif and in enuye; 14 but be ye clothid in the Lord Jhesu Crist, and do ye not the bisynesse of fleisch in desiris.

14 But take ye a sijk man in bileue, not in demyngis of thouytis. 2 For another man leueth, that he mai ete alle thingis; but he that is sijk, ete wortis. 3 He that ethith, dispise not hym that ethith not; and he that ethith not, deme not hym that ethith. For God hath take him to hym. 4 Who art thou, that demest anothris seruauant? To his lord he stondith, or fallith fro hym. But he schal stonde; for the Lord is myyti to make hym parfit. 5 For whi oon demeth a day bitwixe a dai, another demeth ech dai. 6 Ech man encrees in his wit. He that vnderstandith the dai, vnderstandith to the Lord. And he that ethith, ethith to the Lord, for he doith thankyngis to God. And he that ethith not, ethith not to the Lord, and doith thankyngis to God. 7 For no man of vs lyueth to hymself, and no man dieth to hymself. 8 For whether we lyuen, we lyuen to the Lord; and whether we dien, we dien to the Lord. Therfor whether we lyuen or dien, we ben of the Lord. 9 For whi for this thing Crist was deed, and roos ayen, that he be Lord bothe of quyke and of deed men. 10 But what demest thou thi brothir? or whi dispisist thou thi brothir? for alle we schulen stonde bfore the trone of Crist. 11 For it is writun, Y lyue, seith the Lord, for to me ech kne schal be bowid, and ech tunge schal knoueleche to God. 12 Therfor ech of vs schal yelde resoun to God for hym self. 13 Therfor `no more deme we ech other; but more deme ye this thing, that ye putte not hirtyng, or sclandre, to a brothir. 14 I woot and triste in the Lord Jhesu, that no thing is vnclene bi hym, no but to him that demeth any thing to be vnclene, to him it is vnclene. 15 And if thi brother be maad sori in conscience for mete, now thou walkist not aftir charite. Nyle thou thorouy thi mete lese hym, for whom Crist diede. 16 Therfor be not oure good thing blasfemed. 17 For whi the rewme of God is not mete and drynk, but riytwisnesse and pees and ioie in the Hooli Goost. 18 And he that in this thing serueth Crist, plesith God, and is proued to men. 19 Therfor sue we tho thingis that ben of pees, and kepe we togidere `tho thingis that ben of edificacioun. 20 Nyle thou for mete distrie the werk of God. For alle thingis ben clene, but it is yuel to the man that ethith bi offendyng. 21 It is good to not ete fleisch, and to not drynke wyn, nethir in what thing thi brother offendith, or is sclaudrid, or is maad sijk. 22 Thou hast feith anentis thi self, haue thou bfore God. Blessid is he that demeth not hym self in that thing that he prueeth. 23 For he that demeth, is dampned, if he ethith; for it is not of feith. And al thing that is not of feith, is synne.

15 But we saddere men owen to susteyne the feblenesses of sijke men, and not plese to vs self. 2 Eche of vs plese to his neiybore in good, to edificacioun. 3 For Crist pleside not to hym self, as it is writun, The repreues of men dispisynghe thee, felden on me. 4 For what euere thingis ben writun, tho ben writun to oure teynghe, that bi pacience and coumfort of scripturis we haue hope. 5 But God of pacience and of solace yyue to you to vnderstonde the same thing, ech in to othere aftir Jhesu Crist, 6 that ye of o wille with o mouth worschipe God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 7 For which thing take ye togidere, as also Crist took you in to the onour of God. 8 For

Y seie, that Jhesu Crist was a mynystre of circumcisioun for the treuth of God, to conferme the biheestis of fadris. 9 And hethene men owen to onoure God for merci; as it is writun, Therfor, Lord, Y schal knowleche to thee among hethene men, and Y schal synge to thi name. 10 And eft he seith, Ye hethene men, be ye glad with his puple. 11 And eft, Alle hethene men, herie ye the Lord; and alle pupilis, magnefie ye hym. 12 And eft Isaie seith, Ther schal be a roote of Jesse, that schal rise vp to gouerne hethene men, and hethene men schulen hope in hym. 13 And God of hope fulfille you in al ioie and pees in bileuynghe, that ye encrees in hope and vertu of the Hooli Goost. 14 And, britheren, Y my self am certeyn of you, that also ye ben ful of loue, and ye ben fillid with al kunnyng, so that ye moun moneste ech other. 15 And, britheren, more boldli Y wroot to you a parti, as bryngynghe you in to mynde, for the grace that is youun to me of God, 16 that Y be the mynystre of Crist Jhesu among hethene men. And Y halewe the gospel of God, that the offryng of hethene men be acceptid, and halewid in the Hooli Goost. 17 Therfor Y haue glorie in Crist Jhesu to God. 18 For Y dar not speke any thing of tho thingis, whiche Crist doith not bi me, in to obedience of hethene men, in word and dedis, 19 in vertu of tokenes and grete wondris, in vertu of the Hooli Goost, so that fro Jerusalem bi cumpas to the Illirik see Y haue fillid the gospel of Crist. 20 And so Y haue prechid this gospel, not where Crist was named, lest Y bilde vpon anothers ground, but as it is writun, 21 For to whom it is not teld of him, thei schulen se, and thei that herden not, schulen vnderstonde. 22 For which thing Y was lettid ful myche to come to you, and Y am lettid to this tyme. 23 And now Y haue not fetherre place in these cuntrees, but Y haue desire to come to you, of many yeris that ben passid. 24 Whanne Y bygynne to passe in to Spayne, Y hope that in my goyng Y schal se you, and of you Y schal be led thidur, if Y vse you first in parti. 25 Therfor now Y schal passe forth to Jerusalem, to mynystre to seyntis. 26 For Macedonye and Acaie han assaied to make sum yifte to pore men of seyntis, that ben in Jerusalem. 27 For it pleside to hem, and thei ben dettouris of hem; for hethene men ben maad parteneris of her goostli thingis, thei owen also in fleischli thingis to mynystre to hem. 28 Therfor whanne Y haue ended this thing, and haue asigned to hem this fruyt, Y schal passe bi you in to Spayne. 29 And Y woot, that Y comynghe to you, schal come `in to the abundaunce of the blessing of Crist. 30 Therfor, britheren, Y biseche you bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and bi charite of the Hooli Goost, that ye helpe me in youre preyeris to the Lord, 31 that Y be deluyerd fro the vnfeithful men, that ben in Judee, and that the offryng of my seruyce be acceptid in Jerusalem to seyntis; 32 that Y come to you in ioie, bi the wille of God, and that Y be refreischild with you. 33 And God of pees be with you alle. Amen.

16 And Y comende to you Feben, oure sister, which is in the seruyce of the chirche that is at Teucris, 2 that ye resseyue hir in the Lord worthili to seyntis, and `that ye helpe hir in what euere cause sche schal nede of you. For sche helpide many men, and my self. 3 Grete ye Prisca and Aquyla, myn helperis in Crist Jhesu, 4 which vnderputtiden her neckis for my lijf; to whiche not Y aloone do thankyngis, but also alle the chirchis of hethene men. 5 And grete ye wel her meyneal chirche. Grete wel Efenete, louyd to me, that is the firste of Asie in Crist Jhesu. 6 Grete wel Marie, the whiche hath traueled myche in vs. 7 Grete wel Andronyk and Julian, my cosyns, and myn euen prisouneris, which ben noble among the apostlis, and whiche weren bifor me in Crist. 8 Grete wel Amplate, most dereworth to me in the Lord. 9 Grete wel Vrban, oure helpere in Crist Jhesus, and Stacchen, my derlyng. 10 Grete wel Appellem, the noble in Crist. 11 Grete wel hem that ben of Aristoblis hous. Grete wel Erodion, my cosyn. Grete wel hem that ben of Narciscies hous, that ben in the Lord. 12 Grete wel Trifenam and Trifosam, whiche wymmen trauelen in the Lord. Grete wel Persida, most dereworthe womman, that hath traueled myche in the Lord. 13 Grete wel Rufus, chosun in the Lord, and his modir, and myn. 14 Grete wel Ansicrete, Flegoncia, Hermen, Patroban, Herman, and britheren that ben with hem. 15 Grete wel Filologus, and Julian, and Nereum, and his sistir, and Olympiades, and alle the seyntis that ben with hem. 16 Grete ye wel togidere in hooli coss. Alle the chirches of Crist greten you wel. 17 But, britheren, Y preye you, that ye aspie hem that maken discenciouns and hirtyngis, bisidis the doctryne that ye han lerned, and bowe ye awei fro hem. 18 For suche men seruen not to the Lord Crist, but to her wombe, and bi swete wordis and blessingis disseyuen the hertis of innocent men. 19 But youre obedience is pupplischid in to euery place, therfor Y haue ioye in you. But Y wole that ye be wise in good thing, and symple in yuel. 20 And God of pees tredde Sathanas vndur youre feet swiftli. The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. 21 Tymothe, myn helpere, gretith you wel, and also Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my cosyns. 22 Y Tercius grete you wel, that wroot this epistle, in the Lord. 23 Gayus, myn oost, gretith you wel, and al the chirche. Erastus, tresorere of the city, gretith you wel, and Quartus brother. 24 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you alle. Amen. 25 And onour and glorie be to hym, that is myyti to conferme you bi my gospel, and prechyng of Jhesu Crist, bi the reuelacioun of mysterie holdun styлле in tymes euerlastinge; (aiōnios g166) 26 which mysterie is now maad opyn bi scripturis of prophetis, bi the comaundement of God with outen bigynnyng and endyng, to the obedience of feith in alle hethene men, the mysterie (aiōnios g166) 27 knowun bi Jhesu Crist to God aloone wiss, to whom be onour and glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165)

1 Corinthians

1 Poul, clepid apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, and Sostenes, brothir, to the chirche of God that is at Corynthe, 2 to hem that ben halewid in Crist Jhesu, and clepid seyntis, with alle that inwardli cleden the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, in ech place of hem and of oure, 3 grace to you and pees of God, oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 4 Y do thankyngis to my God eueremore for you, in the grace of God that is youun to you in Crist Jhesu. 5 For in alle thingis ye ben maad riche in hym, in ech word, and in ech kunnyng, 6 as the witnessyng of Crist is confermyd in you; 7 so that no thing faille to you in any grace, that abiden the schewyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; 8 which also schal conferme you in to the ende with outen cryme, in the dai of the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 9 'A trewe God, bi whom ye ben clepid in to the felouschipe of his sone Jhesu Crist oure Lord. 10 But, britheren, Y biseche you, bi the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that ye alle seie the same thing, and that dissenciouns be not among you; but be ye perfit in the same wit, and in the same kunnyng. 11 For, my britheren, it is teld to me of hem that ben at Cloes, that stryues ben among you. 12 And Y seie that, that ech of you seith, For Y am of Poul, and Y am of Apollo, and Y am of Cefas, but Y am of Crist. 13 Whether Crist is departed? whether Poul was crucified for you, ether ye ben baptisid in the name of Poul? 14 Y do thankyngis to my God, that Y baptiside noon of you, but Crispus and Gayus; 15 lest ony man seie, that ye ben baptisid in my name. 16 And Y baptiside also the hous of Stephan, but Y woot not, that Y baptiside ony other. 17 For Crist sente me not to baptise, but to preche the gospel; not in wisdom of word, that the cros of Crist be not voidid awei. 18 For the word of the cros is foli to hem that perischen; but to hem that ben maad saaf, that is to seie, to vs, it is the vertu of God. 19 For it is writun, Y schal destruye the wisdom of wise men, and Y schal reprove the prudence of prudent men. 20 Where is the wise man? where is the wise lawiere? where is the purchasour of this world? Whether God hath not maad the wisdom of this world fonned? (aiōn g165) 21 For the world in wisdom of God knewe not God bi wisdom, it pleside to God, bi foli of prechyng, 'to maken hem saaf that bileueden. 22 For Jewis seken signes, and Grekis seken wisdom; 23 but we prechen Crist crucified, to Jewis sclandre, and to hethene men foli; 24 but to tho Jewis and Grekis that ben clepid, we prechen Crist the vertu of God and the wisdom of God. 25 For that that is foli thing of God, is wiser than men; and that that is the feble thing of God, is strengere than men. 26 But, britheren, se ye youre clepyng; for not many wise men afir the fleisch, not many myyti, not many noble. 27 But God chees tho thingis that ben fonned of the world, to confounde wise men; 28 and God chees the feble thingis of the world, to confounde the stronge thingis; and God chees the vnnoble thingis 'and dispisable thingis of the world, and tho thingis that ben not, to destruye tho thingis that ben; 29 that ech man haue not glorie in his siyt. 30 But of hym ye ben in Crist Jhesu, which is maad of God to vs wisdom, and riytwisnesse, and holynesse, and ayenbyng; that, 31 as it is wrytun, He that glorieth, haue glorie in the Lord.

2 And Y, britheren, whanne Y cam to you, cam not in the heynesse of word, ethir of wisdom, tellynge to you the witnessyng of Crist. 2 For Y demede not me to kunne ony thing among you, but Crist Jhesu, and hym crucified. 3 And Y in sikenesse, and drede, and myche trembling, was among you; 4 and my word and my preching was not in suteli sturyng wordis of mannus wisdom, but in schewyng of spirit and of vertu; 5 that youre feith be not in the wisdom of men, but in the vertu of God. 6 For we speken wisdom among perfit men, but not wisdom of this world, nether of princes of this world, that ben distried; (aiōn g165) 7 but we speken the wisdom of God in mysterie, 'which wisdom is hid; which wisdom God bifor ordeynede bifor worldis in to oure glorie, (aiōn g165) 8 which noon of the princes of this world knew; for if thei hadden knowe, thei schulden neuere haue crucified the Lord of glorie. (aiōn g165) 9 But as it is writun, That iye say not, ne eere herde, nether it stiede in to herte of man, what thingis God arayed to hem that louen hym; 10 but God schewide to vs bi his spirit. For whi the spirit serchith alle thingis, yhe, the depe thingis of God. 11 And who of men woot, what thingis ben of man, but the spirit of man that is in hym? So what thingis ben of God, no man knowith, but the spirit of God. 12 And we han not resseuid the spirit of this world, but the spirit that is of God, that we wite what thingis ben youun to vs of God. 13 Whiche thingis we speken also, not in wise wordis of mannus wisdom, but in the doctryn of the spirit, and maken a liknesse of spiritual thingis to goostli men. 14 For a beestli man perseyueth not tho thingis that ben of the spirit of God; for it is foli to hym, and he may not vndurstonde, for it is examyned goostli. 15 But a spiritual man demeth alle thingis, and he is demed of no man. 16 As it is writun, And who knew the wit of the Lord, or who tauyte hym? And we han the wit of Crist.

3 And Y, britheren, myyte not speke to you as to spiritual men, but as to fleischli men; 2 as to litle children in Crist, Y yaf to you mylk drynke, not mete; for ye myyten not yit, nether ye moun now, for yit ye ben fleischli. 3 For while strif is among you, whether ye ben not fleischli, and ye gon afir man? 4 For whanne summe seith, Y am of Poul, another, But Y am of Apollo, whethir ye ben not men? What therfor is Apollo, and what Poul? 5 Thei ben mynystis of hym, to whom ye han bileuyd; and to ech man as God hath youun. 6 Y plauntide, Apollo moystide, but God yaf encreessyng. 7 Therfor nether he that plauntith is ony thing, nethir he that moistith, but God that yiueth encreessyng. 8 And he that plauntith, and he that moistith, ben oon; and ech schal take his owne mede, afir his trauel. 9 For we ben the helperis of God; ye ben the erthetiliyng of God, ye ben the bildyng of God. 10 Afir the grace 'of God that is youun to me, as a wise maistr carpenter Y settide the foundement; and another bildith aboue. But ech man se, hou he bildith aboue. 11 For no man may sette another foundement, outtakun that that is sett, which is Crist Jhesus. 12 For if ony bildith ouer this foundement, gold, siluer, preciose stoonys, stickis, hey, or stobil, euery mannus werk schal be open; 13 for the dai of the Lord schal declare, for it schal be schewid in fier; the fier schal preue the werk of ech man, what maner werk it is. 14 If the werk of ony man dwelle stille, which he bildide aboue, he schal resseyue mede. 15 If ony mannus werk brenne, he schal suffre harm; but he schal be saaf, so netheles as bi fier. 16 Witen ye not, that ye ben the temple of God, and the spirit of God dwellith in you? 17 And if ony defoulith the temple of God, God schal leese hym; for the temple of God is hooli, which ye ben. 18 No man disseyue hym silf. If ony man among you is seyn to be wijs in this world, be he maad a fool, that he be wijs. (aïōn g165) 19 For the wisdom of this world is foli anentis God; for it is writun, Y schal catche wise men in her fel wisdom; 20 and eft, The Lord knowith the thouytis of wise men, for tho ben veyn. 21 Therfor no man haue glorie in men. 22 For alle thingis ben youre, ethir Poul, ether Apollo, ether Cefas, ether the world, ether lijf, ether deth, ether thingis present, ether thingis to comynge; for alle thingis ben youre, 23 and ye ben of Crist, and Crist is of God.

4 So a man gesse vs, as mynystis of Crist, and dispenderis of the mynsteries of God. 2 Now it is souyt here among the dispenderis, that a man be foundun trewe. 3 And to me it is for the leest thing, that Y be demyd of you, or of mannus dai; but nether Y deme my silf. 4 For Y am no thing ouer trowynge to my silf, but not in this thing Y am iustified; for he that demeth me, is the Lord. 5 Therfor nyle ye deme before the tyme, til that the Lord come, which schal liytne the hyd thingis of derknessis, and schal schewe the counseils of hertis; and thanne preisyng schal be to ech man of God. 6 And, britheren, Y haue transfigurid these thingis in to me and in to Apollo, for you; that in vs ye lerne, lest ouer that it is writun, oon ayens another be blowun with pride for another. 7 Who demeth thee? And what hast thou, that thou hast not resseyued? And if thou hast resseyued, what gloriest thou, as thou haddist not resseyued? 8 Nowe ye ben fylld, now ye ben maad riche; ye regnen with outen vs; and Y wolde that ye regnen, that also we regnen with you. 9 And Y gesse, that God schewide vs the laste apostlis, as thilke that ben sent to the deth; for we ben maad a spectacle to the world, and to aungels, and to men. 10 We foolis for Crist, but ye prudent in Crist; we sike, but ye stronge; ye noble, but we vnnoble. 11 Til in to this our we hungren, and thirsten, and ben nakid, and ben smytun with buffatis, 12 and we ben vnstable, and we trauelen worchynge with oure hondis; we ben cursid, and we blessen; we suffren persecucioun, and we abiden longe; we ben blasfemyd, and we bisechen; 13 as clensyngis of this world we ben maad the `out castyng of alle thingis `til yit. 14 Y write not these thingis, that Y confounde you, but Y warne as my moste dereworthe sones. 15 For whi if ye han ten thousynde of vndur maistris in Crist, but not many fadris; for in Crist Jhesu Y haue gendrid you bi the gospel. 16 Therfor, britheren, Y preye you, be ye foleweris of me, as Y of Crist. 17 Therfor Y sente to you Tymothe, which is my most dereworthe sone, and feithful in the Lord, which schal techen you in my weies, that ben in Crist Jhesu; as Y techen euery where in ech chirche. 18 As thou Y schulde not come to you, so summe ben blowun with pride; 19 but Y schal come to you soone, if God wole; and Y schal knowe not the word of hem that ben blowun with pride, but the vertu. 20 For the rewme of God is not in word, but in vertu. 21 What wole ye? Schal Y come to you in a yerde, or in charite, and in spirit of myldenesse?

5 In al maner fornyacioun is herd among you, and siche fornyacioun, which is not among hethene men, so that summan haue the wijf of his fadir. 2 And ye ben bolnyd with pride, and not more hadden weilyng, that he that dide this werk, be takun awei fro the myddil of you. 3 And Y absent in bodi, but present in spirit, now haue demyd as present hym that hath thus wrouyt, whanne 4 ye ben gaderid togidere in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and my spirit, with the vertu of the Lord Jhesu, 5 to take siche a man to Sathanas, in to the perischyng of fleisch, that the spirit be saaf in the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 6 Youre gloryng is not good. Witen ye not, that a litil sourdow apeyrith al the gobet? 7 Clense ye out the old sourdow, that ye be new sprengyng togidere, as ye ben therf. For Crist offrid is oure pask. 8 Therfor ete we, not in eld sourdow, nether in sourdow of malice and weywardnesse, but in therf thingis of clernesse and of treuthe. 9 I wroot to you in a pistle, that ye be not medlid with letchours, 10 not with letchours of this world, ne coueitous men, ne raueynours, ne with men seruyng to mawmetis, ellis ye schulden haue go out of this world. 11 But now Y wroot to you, that ye be not meynd. But if he that is named a brother among you, and is a letchour, or coueitouse, or seruyng to ydols, or cursere, or ful of drunkenesse, or raueynour, to take no mete with siche. 12 For what is it to me to deme of hem that ben with oute forth? Whether ye demen not of thingis that ben with ynne forth? 13 For God schal deme hem that ben withouten forth. Do ye awei yuel fro you silf.

6 Dar any of you that hath a cause ayens another, be demed at wickid men, and not at hooli men? 2 Whether ye witen not, that seyntis schulen deme of this world? And if the world schal be demed bi you, be ye vnworthi to deme of the leste thingis? 3 Witen ye not, that we schulen deme aungels? hou myche more worldli thingis? 4 Therfor if ye han worldli domes, ordeyne ye tho contemptible men, that ben in the chirche, to deme. 5 Y seie to make you aschamed. So ther is not ony wise man, that may deme bitwixe a brothir and his brothir; 6 but a brothir with brothir stryueh in dom, and that among vnfeithful men. 7 And now trespas is algatis in you, for ye han domes among you. Whi rather take ye no wrong? whi rather suffre ye not disseit? 8 But and ye doen wrong, and doen fraude, and that to britheren. 9 Whether ye witen not, that wickid men schulen not welde the kyngdom of God? Nyle ye erre; nethir letchours, nether men that seruen mawmetis, nether auouteris, 10 nether letchouris ayen kynde, nether thei that doon letcheri with men, nether theues, nether auerouse men, nethir `ful of drunkenesse, nether curseris, nether rauonours, schulen welde the kyngdom of God. 11 And ye weren sum tyme these thingis; but ye ben waischun, but ye ben halewid, but ye ben iustefied in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and in the spirit of oure God. 12 Alle thingis ben leueful to me, but not alle thingis ben spedeful. Alle thingis ben leueful to me, but Y schal not be brouyt down vndur ony mannus power. 13 Mete to the wombe, and the wombe to metis; and God schal distruye bothe this and that. And the bodi not to fornicacioun, but to the Lord, and the Lord to the bodi. 14 For God reiseide the Lord, and schal reise vs bi his vertu. 15 Witen ye not, that youre bodies ben membris of Crist? Schal Y thanne take the membris of Crist, and schal Y make the membris of an hoore? God forbede. 16 Whether ye witen not, that he that cleueth to an hoore, is maad o bodi? For he seith, Ther schulen be tweyne in o fleisch. 17 And he that cleueth to the Lord, is o spirit. 18 Fle ye fornicacioun; al synne what euere synne a man doith, is with out the bodi; but he that doith fornicacioun, synneth ayens his bodi. 19 Whether ye witen not, that youre membris ben the temple of the Hooli Goost, that is in you, whom ye han of God, and ye ben not youre owne? 20 For ye ben bouyt with greet prijs. Glorifie ye, and bere ye God in youre bodi.

7 But of thilke thingis that ye han write to me, it is good to a man to touche not a womman. 2 But for fornicacioun eche man haue his owne wijf, and ech womman haue hir owne hosebonde. 3 The hosebonde yelde dette to the wijf, and also the wijf to the hosebonde. 4 The womman hath not power of hir bodi, but the hosebonde; and the hosebonde hath not power of his bodi, but the womman. 5 Nyle ye defraude eche to othere, but perauenture of consent to a tyme, that ye yyue tent to preier; and eft turne ye ayen to the same thing, lest Sathanas tempte you for youre vncontynence. 6 But Y seie this thing as yyuyng leeuue, not bi comaundement. 7 For Y wole, that alle men be as my silf. But eche man hath his propre yifte of God; oon thus, and another thus. 8 But Y seie to hem, that ben not weddid, and to widewis, it is good to hem, if thei dwellen so as Y. 9 That if thei conteynen not hem silf, be thei weddid; for it is betere to be weddid, than to be brent. 10 But to hem that ben ioyned in matrimonye, Y comaunde not Y, but the Lord, that the wijf departe not fro the hosebonde; 11 and that if sche departith, that sche dwelle vnweddid, or be recounselid to hir hosebonde; and the hosebonde forsake not the wijf. 12 But to othere Y seie, not the Lord. If ony brother hath an vnfeithful wijf, and sche consenteth to dwelle with hym, leeuue he hir not. 13 And if ony womman hath an vnfeithful hosebonde, and this consentith to dwelle with hir, leeuue sche not the hosebonde. 14 For the vnfeithful hosebonde is halewid bi the feithful womman, and the vnfeithful womman is halewid bi the feithful hosebonde. Ellis youre children weren vncleene, but now thei ben hooli. 15 That if the vnfeithful departith, departe he. For whi the brother or sistir is not suget to seruage in siche; for God hath clepid vs in pees. 16 And wherof wost thou, womman, if thou schalt make the man saaf; or wherof wost thou, man, if thou schalt make the womman saaf? 17 But as the Lord hath departid to ech, and as God hath clepid ech man, so go he, as Y teche in alle chirchis. 18 A man circumcidid is clepid, brynge he not to the prepuce. A man is clepid in prepuce, be he not circumcidid. 19 Circumcisioun is nouyt, and prepuce is nouyt, but the kepyng of the maundementis of God. 20 Ech man in what clepyng he is clepid, in that dwelle he. 21 Thou seruauant art clepid, be it no charge to thee; but if thou maist be fre, `the rather vse thou. 22

He that is a seruauant, and is clepid in the Lord, is a freman of the Lord. Also he that is a freman, and is clepid, is the seruauant of Crist. 23 With prijs ye ben bouyt; nyle ye be maad seruauantis of men. 24 Therfor ech man in what thing he is clepid a brothir, dwelle he in this anentis God. 25 But of virgyns Y haue no comaundement of God; but Y yyue counseil, as he that hath mercy of the Lord, that Y be trewe. 26 Therfor Y gesse, that this thing is good for the present nede; for it is good to a man to be so. 27 Thou art boundun to a wijf, nyle thou seke vnbyndyng; thou art vnboundun fro a wijf, nyle thou seke a wijf. 28 But if thou hast takun a wijf, thou hast not synned; and if a maidun is weddid, sche synnede not; nethelesse siche schulen haue tribulacioun of fleisch. 29 But Y spare you. Therfor, britheren, Y seie this thing, The tyme is schort. Another is this, that thei that han wyues, be as thouy thei hadden noon; 30 and thei that wepen, as thei wepten not; and thei that ioien, as thei ioieden not; and thei that bien, as thei hadden not; 31 and thei that vsen this world, as thei that vsen not. For whi the figure of this world passith. 32 But Y wole, that ye be without bisynesse, for he that is without wijf, is bisi what thingis ben of the Lord, hou he schal plesse God. 33 But he that is with a wijf, is bysy what thingis ben of the world, hou he schal plesse the wijf, and he is departid. 34 And a womman vnweddid and maidun thenkith what thingis ben of the Lord, that sche be hooli in bodi and spirit. But sche that is weddid, thenkith what thingis ben of the world, hou sche schal plesse the hosebonde. 35 And Y seie these thingis to youre profit, not that Y caste to you a snare, but to that that is onest, and that yyueth esynesse, with outen lettyng to make preieris to the Lord. 36 And if ony man gessith hym silf to be seyn foule on his virgyn, that sche is ful woxun, and so it bihoueth to be doon, do sche that that sche wole; sche synneth not, if sche be weddid. 37 For he that ordeynede stabli in his herte, not hauynge nede, but hauynge power of his wille, and hath demed in his herte this thing, to kepe his virgyn, doith wel. 38 Therefore he that ioyneth his virgyn in matrimonye, doith wel; and he that ioyneth not, doith betere. 39 The womman is boundun to the lawe, as longe tyme as hir hosebonde lyueth; and if hir hosebonde is deed, sche is delyuered fro the lawe of the hosebonde, be sche weddid to whom sche wole, oneli in the Lord. 40 But sche schal be more blessid, if sche dwelleth thus, aftir my counsel; and Y wene, that Y haue the Spirit of God.

8 But of these thingis that ben sacrificed to ydols, we witen, for alle we han kunnyng. But kunnyng blowyng, charite edefieth. 2 But if ony man gessith, that he kan ony thing, he hath not yt knowe hou it bihoueth hym to kunne. 3 And if ony man loueth God, this is knowun of hym. 4 But of metis that ben offrid to idols, we witen, that an idol is no thing in the world, and that ther is no God but oon. 5 For thouy ther ben summe that ben seid goddis, ethir in heuene, ether in erthe, as ther ben many goddis, and many lordis; 6 netheles to vs is o God, the fadir, of whom ben alle thingis, and we in hym; and o Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom ben alle thingis, and we bi hym. 7 But not in alle men is kunnyng. For summen with conscience of ydol til now eten as thing offrid to idolis; and her conscience is defoulid, for it is sijk.

8 Mete comendith vs not to God; for nether we schulen faile, if we eten not, nether if we eten, we schulen haue plente. 9 But se ye, lest perauenture this your leewe be maad hurtyng to sijke men. 10 For if ony man schal se hym, that hath kunnyng, etyng in a place where idols ben worschipid, whethir his conscience, sithen it is sijke, schal not be edified to ete thingis offrid to idols? 11 And the sijk brothir, for whom Crist diede, schal perische in thi kunnyng. 12 For thus ye synnyng ayens britheren, and smytyng her sijk conscience synnen ayens Crist. 13 Wherfor if mete slaundrith my brother, Y schal neuere ete fleisch, lest Y slaundre my brothir. (aiōn g165)

9 Whether Y am not fre? Am Y not apostle? Whether Y say not `Crist Jhesu, `oure Lord? Whether ye ben not my werk in the Lord? 2 And thou to othere Y am not apostle, but netheles to you Y am; for ye ben the litle signe of myn apostlehed in the Lord. 3 My defense to hem that axen me, that is. 4 Whether we han not power to ete and drynke? 5 Whether we han not power to lede aboute a womman a sistir, as also othere apostlis, and britheren of the Lord, and Cefas? 6 Or Y aloone and Barnabas han not power to worche these thingis? 7 Who traueilith ony tyme with hise owne wagis? Who plauntith a vynyerd, and etith not of his fruyt? Who kepith a flok, and etith not of the mylk of the flok? 8 Whether afir man Y sey these thingis? whether also the lawe seith not these thingis? 9 For it is writun in the lawe of Moises, Thou schalt not bynde the mouth of the ox threischynge. Whethir of oxun is charge to God? 10 Whether for vs he seith these thingis? For whi tho ben writun for vs; for he that erith, owith to ere in hope, and he that threischith, in hope to take fruytis. 11 If we sowen spiritual thingis to you, is it grete, if we repen youre fleischli thingis? 12 If othere ben parteneris of youre power, whi not rathere we? But we vsen not this power, but we suffren alle thingis, that we yyuen no lettyng to the euangelie of Crist. 13 Witen ye not, that thei that worchen in the temple, eten tho thingis that ben of the temple, and thei that seruen to the auter, ben partyneris of the auter? 14 So the Lord ordeynede to hem that tellen the gospel, to lyue of the gospel. 15 But Y vside noon of these thingis; sotheli Y wroot not these thingis, that tho be don so in me; for it is good `to me rather to die, than that ony man `auoyde my glorie. 16 For if Y preche the gospel, glorie is not to me, for nedelich Y mot don it; for wo to me, if Y preche not the gospel. 17 But if Y do this thing wilfuli, Y haue mede; but if ayens my wille, dispending is bitakun to me. 18 What thanne is my mede? That Y prechyng the gospel, putte the gospel with outen otheris cost, that Y vse not my power in the gospel. 19 Forwhi whanne Y was fre of alle men, Y made me seruaut of alle men, to wyinne the mo men. 20 And to Jewis Y am maad as a Jew, to wyinne the Jewis; to hem that ben vndur the lawe, 21 as Y were vndur the lawe, whanne Y was not vndur the lawe, to wyinne hem that weren vndur the lawe; to hem that weren with out lawe, as Y were with out lawe, whanne Y was not with out the lawe of God, but Y was in the lawe of Crist, to wyinne hem that weren with out lawe. 22 Y am maad sijk to sike men, to wyinne sike men; to alle men Y am maad alle thingis, to make alle men saaf. 23 But Y do alle thingis for the gospel, that Y be maad partener of it. 24 Witen ye not, that thei that rennen in a furlong, alle rennen, but oon takith the prijs? So renne ye, that ye catche. 25 Ech man that stryueh in fiyt, absteyneth hym from alle thingis; and thei, that thei take a corruptible coroun, but we an vncorrupt. 26 Therfor Y renne so, not as `in to vncerteyn thing; thus Y fyte, not as betyng the eir; 27 but Y chastise my bodi, and bryng it in to seruage; lest perauenture whanne Y preche to othere, Y my silf be maad repreuable.

10 Britheren, Y nyle, that ye vnknewe, that alle oure fadriss weren vndur cloude, and alle passiden the see; 2 and alle weren baptisid in Moises, in the cloude and in the see; 3 and alle eeten the same spiritual mete, 4 and alle drunken the same spiritual drynke; thei drunken of the spiritual stoon folewyng hem; and the stoon was Crist. 5 But not in ful manye of hem it was wel pleasaunt to God; for whi thei weren cast doun in desert. 6 But these thingis ben don in figure of vs, that we be not coueyteris of yuele thingis, as thei coueitiden. 7 Nether be ye maad idolatreris, as summe of hem; as it is writun, The puple sat to ete and drynke, and thei risen vp to pleie. 8 Nether do we fornyacioun, as summe of hem diden fornicacioun, and thre and twenti thousyndis weren deed in o dai. 9 Nethir tempte we Crist, as summe of hem temptiden, and perischiden of serpentis. 10 Nether grutche ye, as summe of hem grutchiden, and thei perischiden of a distrier. 11 And alle these thingis felliden to hem in figure; but thei ben writun to oure amending, in to whiche the endis of the worldis ben comun. (aiōn g165) 12 Therfor he that gessith hym, `that he stonidith, se he, that he falle not. 13 Temptacioun take `not you, but mannus temptacioun; for God is trewe, which schal not suffre you to be temptid aboute that that ye moun; but he schal make with temptacioun also purueyaunce, that ye moun suffre. 14 Wherfor, ye most dereworthe to me, fle ye fro worschipping of maumetis. 15 As to prudent men Y speke, deme ye you silf that thing that Y seie. 16 Whether the cuppe of blessyng which we blessen, is not the comynyng of Cristis blood? and whether the breed which we breken, is not the takyng of the bodi of the Lord? 17 For we manye ben o breed and o bodi, alle we that taken part of o breed and of o cuppe. 18 Se ye Israel afir the fleisch, whethir thei that eeten sacrifices, ben not partyneris of the auter? 19 What therfor seie Y, that a thing that is offrid to idols is ony thing, or that the idol is ony thing? 20 But tho thingis that hethene men offren, thei offren to deuelis, and not to God. But Y nyle, that ye ben maad felowis of feendis; for ye moun not drynke the cuppe of the Lord, and the cuppe of fendis; 21 ye moun not be parteneris of the boord of the Lord, and of the bord of feendis. 22 Whether we han enuye to the Lord? whether we ben strengere then he? Alle thingis ben leueful to me, but not alle thingis ben spedeful. 23 Alle thingis ben leueful to me, but not alle thingis edifiien. 24 No man seke that thing that is his owne, but that thing that is of an othere. 25 Al thing that is sold in the bocherie, ete ye, axyng no thing for conscience. 26 The erthe and the plente of it is, the Lordis. 27 If ony of hethene men clepith you to soper, and ye wole go, al thing that is set to you, ete ye, axyng no thing for conscience. 28 But if ony man seith, This thing is offrid to idols, nyle ye ete, for hym that schewide, and for conscience; and Y seie not, 29 thi conscience, but of an othere. But wherto is my fredom demed of an othere mannus conscience? 30 Therfor if Y take part with grace, what am Y blasfemed, for that that Y do thankngis? 31 Therfor whether ye eten, or drynken, or don ony other thing, do ye alle thingis 'in to the glorie of God. 32 Be ye with outen slaundre to Jewis, and to hethene men, and to the chirche of God; 33 as Y bi alle thingis plesse to alle men, not sekynge that that is profitable to me, but that that is profitable to manye men, that thei be maad saaf.

11 Be ye my foleweris, as Y am of Crist. 2 And, britheren, Y preise you, that bi alle thingis ye ben mynde of me; and as Y bitook to you my comaundementis, ye holden. 3 But Y wole that ye wite, that Crist is heed of ech man; but the heed of the womman is the man; and the heed of Crist is God. 4 Ech man preiynge, or profeciynge, whanne his heed is hilid, defoulth his heed. 5 But ech womman preiynge, or profeciynge, whanne hir heed is not hilid, defoulth hir heed; for it is oon, as if sche were pollid. 6 And if a womman be not keuered, be sche pollid; and if it is foul thing to a womman to be pollid, or to be maad ballid, hile sche hir heed. 7 But a man schal not hile his heed, for he is the ymage and the glorie of God; but a womman is the glorie of man. 8 For a man is not of the womman, but the womman of the man. 9 And the man is not maad for the womman, but the womman for the man. 10 Therfor the womman schal haue an hilyng on hir heed, also for aungelis. 11 Netheles nether the man is with outen womman, nether the womman is with oute man, in the Lord. 12 Forwhi as the womman is of man, so the man is bi the womman; but alle thingis ben of God. 13 Deme ye you silf; bisemeth it a womman not hilid on the heed to preye God? 14 Nether the kynde it silf techith vs, for if a man nursche longe heer, it is schenscipe to hym; 15 but if a womman nurische longe heer, it is glorie to hir, for heeris ben youun to hir for keueryng. 16 But if ony man is seyn to be ful of striff, we han noon siche custom, nethir the chirche of God. 17 But this thing Y comaunde, not preisyng, that ye comen togidere not in to the betere, but in to the worse. 18 First for whanne ye comen togidere in to the chirche, Y here that discenciouns ben, and in parti Y bileue. 19 For it bihoueth eresies to be, that thei that ben prouyd, ben opynli knowun in you. 20 Therfor whanne ye comen togidere in to oon, now it is not to ete the Lordis soper; 21 for whi ech man bifor takith his soper to ete, and oon is hungry, and another is drunkun. 22 Whether ye han not housis to ete and drynke, or ye dispen the chirche of God, and confounden hem that han noon? What schal Y seie to you? Y preise you, but here yn Y preise you not. 23 For Y haue takun of the Lord that thing, which Y haue bitakun to you. For the Lord Jhesu, in what niyt he was bitraied, 24 took breed, and dide thankngis, and brak, and seide, Take ye, and ete ye; this is my bodi, which schal be bitraied for you; do ye this thing in to my mynde. 25 Also the cuppe, afir that he hadde soupid, and seide, This cuppe is the newe testament in my blood; do ye this thing, as ofte as ye schulen drynke, in to my mynde. 26 For as ofte as ye schulen ete this breed, and schulen drynke the cuppe, ye schulen telle the deth of the Lord, til that he come. 27 Therfor who euere etith the breed, or drynkith the cuppe of the Lord vnworthili, he schal be gilty of the bodi and of the blood of the Lord. 28 But preue a man hym silf, and so ete he of 'the ilke breed, and drynke of the cuppe. 29 For he that etith and drinkith vnworthili, etith and drinkith doom to hym, not wiseli demyng the bodi of the Lord. 30 Therfor among you many ben sijke and feble, and manye slepen. 31 And if we demyden wiseli vs silf, we schulden not be demyd; 32 but while we ben demyd of the Lord, we ben chastisid, that we be not dampnyd with this world. 33 Therfor, my britheren, whanne ye comen togidere to ete, abide ye togidere. 34 If ony man hungrih, ete he at home, that ye come not togidere in to doom. And Y schal dispose othere thingis, whanne Y come.

12 But of spiritual thingis, britheren, Y nyle that ye vnkownun. 2 For ye witen, that whanne ye weren hethene men, hou ye weren led goynge to doumbe maumetis. 3 Therfor Y make knowun to you, that no man spekyng in the spirit of God, seith departyng fro Jhesu; and no man may seie the Lord Jhesu, but in the Hooli Goost. 4 And dyuerse graces ther ben, but it is al oon Spirit; 5 and dyuerse seruyces ther ben, but it is al oon Lord; and dyuerse worchingis ther ben, 6 but 'al is oon God, that worchith alle thingis in alle thingis. 7 And to ech man the schewyng of spirit is youun to profit. The word of wisdom is youun to oon bi spirit; 8 to another the word of kunnyng, bi the same spirit; 9 feith to another, in the same spirit; to another, grace of helthis, in o spirit; 10 to another, the worchyng of vertues; to another, profecie; to another, very knowyng of spiritis; to another, kyndis of langagis; to another, expownyng of wordis. 11 And oon and the same spirit worchith alle these thingis, departyng to ech bi hem silf as he wole. 12 For as ther is o body, and hath many membris, and alle the membris of the bodi whanne tho ben manye, ben o bodi, so also Crist. 13 For in o spirit alle we ben baptisid 'in to o bodi, ether Jewis, ether hethene, ether seruautis, ether free; and alle we ben fillid with drink in o spirit. 14 For the bodi is not o membre, but manye. 15 If the foot seith, For Y am not the hoond, Y am not of the bodi; not therfor it is not of the bodi. 16 And if the ere seith, For Y am not the iye, Y am not of the bodi; not therfor it is not of the bodi. 17 If al the bodi is the iye, where is heryng? and if al the bodi is heryng, where is smellyng? 18 But now God hath set membris, and ech of hem in the bodi, as he wolde. 19 That if alle weren o membre, where were the bodi? 20 But now ther ben many membris, but o bodi. 21 And the iye may not seie to the hond, Y haue no nede to thi werkis; or eft the heed to the feet, Ye ben not necessarie to me. 22 But myche more tho that ben seyn to be the lowere membris of the bodi, ben more nedeful; 23 and thilke that we gessen to be the vnworthier membris of the bodi, we yyuen more honour 'to hem; and tho membris that ben vnonest, han more oneste. 24 For oure oneste membris han nede of noon; but God tempride the bodi, yyuynge more worschip to it, to whom it failide, 25 that debate be not in the bodi, but that the membris be bisi in to the same thing ech for othere. 26 And if o membre suffrih ony thing, alle membris suffren therwith; ethir if o membre ioieth, alle membris ioien togidere. 27 And ye ben the bodi of Crist, and membris of membre. 28 But God sette sum men in the chirche, fyrst apostlis, the secunde tyme prophetis, the thridde techeris, aftirward vertues, aftirward graces of heelyngis, helpyngis, gouernails, kyndis of langagis, interpretaciouns of wordis. 29 Whether alle apostlis? whether alle prophetis? whether alle techeris? whether alle vertues? 30 whether alle men han grace of heelyngis? whether alle speken with langagis? whether alle expownen? 31 But sue ye the betere goostli yiftis. And yit Y schewe to you a more excellent weye.

13 If Y speke with tungis of men and of aungels, and Y haue not charite, Y am maad as bras sownynge, or a cymbal tynkyng. 2 And if Y haue prophecie, and knowe alle mysteries, and al kunnyng, and if Y haue al feith, so that Y meue hillis fro her place, and Y haue not charite, Y am nouyt. 3 And if Y departe alle my goodis in to the metis of pore men, and yf Y bitake my bodi, so that Y brenne, and if Y haue not charite, it profitith to me no thing. 4 Charite is pacient, it is benygne; charite enuyeth not, it doith not wickidli, it is not blowun, 5 it is not coueytouse, it sekith not tho thingis that ben hise owne, it is not stird to wratthe, it thenkith not yuel, 6 it ioeyth not on wickidnesse, but it ioieth togidere to treuth; 7 it suffrith alle thingis, it bileueth alle thingis, it hopith alle thingis, it susteyneth alle thingis. 8 Charite fallith neuere down, whether prophecies schulen be voidid, ether langagis schulen ceesse, ethir science schal be distried. 9 For a parti we knowun, and a parti we prophecien; 10 but whanne that schal come that is parfit, that thing that is of parti schal be auoidid. 11 Whanne Y was a litil child, Y spak as a litil child, Y vnderstood as a litil child, Y thouyte as a litil child; but whanne Y was maad a man, Y auoidide tho thingis that weren of a litil child. 12 And we seen now bi a myrour in derknesse, but thanne face to face; now Y knowe of parti, but thanne Y schal knowe, as Y am knowun. 13 And now dwellen feith, hope, and charite, these thre; but the most of these is charite.

14 Sue ye charite, loue ye spiritual thingis, but more that ye prophecien. 2 And he that spekith in tunge, spekih not to men, but to God; for no man herith. But the spirit spekih mysteries. 3 For he that prophecieti, spekih to men to edificacioun, and monestyng, and coumfortyng. 4 He that spekih in tunge, edifieth hym silf; but he that prophecieti, edifieth the chirche of God. 5 And Y wole, that alle ye speke in tungis, but more that ye prophecie. For he that prophecieti, is more than he that spekith in langagis; but perauenture he expoune, that the chirche take edificacioun. 6 But now, britheren, if Y come to you, and speke in langagis, what schal Y profite to you, but if Y speke to you ethir in reuelacioun, ethir in science, ethir in prophecie, ether in techyng? 7 For tho thingis that ben withouten soule, and yyueth voices, ethir pipe, ether harpe, but tho yyuen distinccioun of sownyngis, hou schal it be knowun that is sungun, ether that that is trumpid? 8 For if a trumpe yyue an vncerteyn sounne, who schal make hym silf redi to batel? 9 So but ye yyuen an opyn word bi tunge, hou schal that that is seid be knowun? For ye schulen be spekyng in veyn. 10 There ben many kyndis of langagis in this world, and no thing is with outen vois. 11 But if Y knowe not the vertu of a vois, Y schal be to hym, to whom Y schal speke, a barbarik; and he that spekih to me, schal be a barbarik. 12 So ye, for ye ben louveris of spiritis, seke ye that ye be plenteuouse to edificacioun of the chirche. 13 And therfor he that spekih in langage, preie, that he expowne. 14 For if Y preye in tunge, my spirit preieth; myn vnderstondyng is with outen fruyt. 15 What thanne? Y schal preye in spirit, Y schal preye in mynde; Y schal seie salm, in spirit, Y schal seie salm also in mynde. 16 For if thou blessist in spirit, who fillith the place of an ydiot, hou schal he seie Amen on thi blessing, for he woot not, what thou seist? 17 For thou doist wel thankyngis, but an othir man is not edefied. 18 Y thanke my God, for Y speke in the langage of alle you; 19 but in the chirche Y wole speke fyue wordis in my wit, that also Y teche othere men, than ten thousynde of wordis in tunge. 20 Britheren, nyle ye be maad children in wittis, but in malice be ye children; but in wittis be ye parfit. 21 For in the lawe it is writun, That in othere tungis and othere lippis Y schal speke to this puple, and nether so thei schulen here me, seith the Lord. 22 Therfor langagis ben in to tokene, not to feithful men, but to men out of the feith; but prophecies ben not to men out of the feith, but to feithful men. 23 Therfor if alle the chirche come togidere in to oon, and alle men speken in tungis, if idiotis, ether men out of the feith, entren, whether thei schulen not seie, What ben ye woode? 24 But if alle men prophecien, if ony vnfeithful man or idiot entre, he is conuycyt of alle, he is wiseli demyd of alle. 25 For the hid thingis of his herte ben knowun, and so he schal falle down on the face, and schal worschipe God, and schewe verili that God is in you. 26 What thanne, britheren? Whanne ye comen togidere, ech of you hath a salm, he hath techyng, he hath apocalips, he hath tunge, he hath expownyng; alle thingis be thei don to edificacioun. 27 Whether a man spekih in tunge, bi twei men, ethir thre at the moste, and bi partis, that oon interprete. 28 But if there be not an interpretour, be he stille in the chirche, and speke he to hym silf and to God. 29 Prophetis tweine or thre seie, and othere wiseli deme. 30 But if ony thing be schewid to a sittere, the formere be stille. 31 For ye moun `prophecie alle, ech bi hym silf, that alle men lerne, and alle moneste. 32 And the spiritis of prophetis ben suget to prophetis; 33 for whi God is not of discencioun, but of pees; as in alle chirchis of hooli men `Y teche. 34 Wymmen in chirchis be stille; for it is not suffrid to hem to speke, but to be suget, as the lawe seith. 35 But if thei wolen ony thing lerne, `at home axe thei her hosebondis; for it is foule thing to a womman to speke in chirche. 36 Whether `of you the word of God cam forth, or to you aloone it cam? 37 If ony man is seyn to be a prophete, or spiritual, knowe he tho thingis that Y write to you, for tho ben the comaundementis of the Lord. 38 And if ony man vnknowith, he schal be vnknowun. 39 Therfor, britheren, loue ye to prophecie, and nyle ye forbode to speke in tungis. 40 But be alle thingis don onestli, and bi due ordre in you.

15 `Sotheli, britheren, Y make the gospel knowun to you, which Y haue prechid to you, the which also ye han takun, in which ye stonden, 2 also bi which ye schulen be sauuyd; `bi which resoun Y haue prechid to you, if ye holden, `if ye han not bileuyd ideli. 3 For Y bitook to you at the bigynnyng that thing which also Y haue resseyued; that Crist was deed for oure synnes, bi the scripturis; 4 and that he was biried, and that he roos ayen in the thridde dai, after scripturis; 5 and that he was seyn to Cephas, and aftir these thingis to enleuene; 6 aftirward he was seyn to mo than fyue hundrid britheren togidere, of whiche manye lyuen yit, but summe ben deed; aftirward he was seyn to James, 7 and aftirward to alle the apostlis. 8 And last of alle he was seyn also to me, as to a deed borun child. 9 For Y am the leste of apostlis, that am not worthi to be clepid apostle, for Y persuede the chirche of God. 10 But bi the grace of God Y am that thing that Y am; and his grace was not voide in me. For Y trauelide more plenteuously than alle thei; but not Y, but the grace of God with me. 11 But whether Y, or thei, so we han prechid, and so ye han bileuyd. 12 And if Crist is prechid, that he roos ayen fro deeth, hou seien summen among you, that the ayenrisyng of deed men is not? 13 And if the ayenrisyng of deed men is not, nethir Crist roos ayen fro deeth. 14 And if Crist roos not, oure preching is veyn, oure feith is veyn. 15 And we ben foundun false witnessis of God, for we han seid witnessyng ayens God, that he reicide Crist, whom he reicide not, if deed men risen not ayen. 16 Forwhi if deed men risen not ayen, nethir Crist roos ayen; 17 and if Crist roos not ayen, oure feith is veyn; and yit ye ben in youre synnes. 18 And thanne thei that han diede in Crist, han perischid. 19 If in this life oneli we ben hoping in Crist, we ben more wretchis than alle men. 20 But now Crist roos ayen fro deth, the firste fruit of deed men; 21 for deeth was bi a man, and bi a man is ayenrisyng fro deth. 22 And as in Adam alle men dien, so in Crist alle men schulen be quykenyd. 23 But ech man in his ordre; the firste fruit, Crist, afterward thei that ben of Crist, that bileueden in the comyng of Crist; 24 aftirward an ende, whanne he schal bitake the kyngdom to God and to the fadir, whanne he schal auoide al princehod, and power, and vertu. 25 But it bihoueth hym to regne, til he putte alle hise enemyes vndur hise feet. 26 And at the laste, deth the enemye schal be distried; for he hath maad suget alle thingis vndur hise feet. 27 And whanne he seith, alle thingis ben suget to hym, with outen doubt outakun hym that sugetide alle thingis to hym. 28 And whanne alle thingis ben suget to hym, thanne the sone hym silf schal be suget to hym, that made alle thingis suget to hym, that God be alle thingis in alle thingis. 29 Ellis what schulen thei do, that ben baptisid for deed men, if in no wise deed men risen ayen? wherto ben thei baptisid for hem? 30 And wherto ben we in perel euery our? 31 Ech dai Y die for youre glorie, britheren, which glorie Y haue in Crist Jhesu oure Lord. 32 If aftir man Y haue fouyten to beestis at Efesi, what profitith it to me, if deed men risen not ayen? Ete we, and drynke we, for we schulen die to morewe. 33 Nyle ye be disseyued; for yuel spechis distrien good thewis. 34 Awake ye, iuste men, and nyle ye do synne; for summen han ignoraunce of God, but to reuerence Y speke to you. 35 But summan seith, Hou schulen deed men rise ayen, or in what maner bodi schulen thei come? 36 Vnwise man, that thing that thou sowist, is not quykened, but it die first; 37 and that thing that thou sowist, thou sowist not the bodi that is to come, but a nakid corn, as of whete, or of summe othere seedis; 38 and God yyueth to it a bodi, as he wole, and to ech of seedis a propir bodi. 39 Not ech fleisch is the same fleisch, but oon is of men, another is of beestis, another is of briddis, an othere of fischis. 40 And `heuenli bodies ben, and `ertheli bodies ben; but oon glorie is of heueneley bodies, and another is of ertheli. 41 An othere clerenesse is of the sunne, another clerenesse is of the moone, and another clerenesse is of steris; and a sterre dyuersith fro a sterre in clerenesse. 42 And so the ayenrisyng of deed men. It is sowun in corrupcioun, it schal rise in vncorruptioun; 43 it is sowun in vnnoblei, it schal rise in glorie; it is sowun in infirmyte, it schal rise in vertu; 44 it is sowun a beestly bodi, it schal rise a spiritual bodi. If ther is a beestli bodi, ther is also a spiritual bodi; 45 as it is writun, The firste man Adam was maad in to a soule lyyunge, the laste Adam in to a spirit quykenyng. 46 But the firste is not that that is spiritual, but that that is beestlich, aftirward that that is spiritual. 47 The firste man of erthe is ertheli; the secounde man of heuene is heuenelich. 48 Such as the ertheli man is, such ben the ertheli men; and such as the heueneli man is, suche ben also the heueneli men. 49 Therfor as we han bore the ymage of the ertheli man, bere we also the ymage of the heuenli. 50 Britheren, Y seie this thing, that fleisch and bloud moun not welde the kyngdom of God, nethir corrupcioun schal welde vncorruptioun. 51 Lo! Y seie to you priuyte of hooli thingis. And alle we schulen rise ayen, but not alle we schulen be chaungid; 52 in a moment, in the twynklyng of an iye, in the laste trumpe; for the trumpe schal sowne, and deed men schulen rise ayen, with oute corrupcioun, and we schulen be chaungid. 53 For it byhoueth this corruptible thing to clothe vncorruptioun, and this deedli thing to putte awei vndeedylnesse. 54 But whanne this deedli thing schal clothe vndeedylnesse, thanne schal the word be doon, that is writun, Deth is sopun vp in victorie. 55 Deth, where is thi victorie? Deth, where is thi pricke? (Hades g86) 56 But the pricke of deth is synne; and the vertu of synne is the lawe. 57 But do we thankyngis to God, that yaf to vs victorie bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 58 Therefore, my dereworthe britheren, be ye stidefast, and vnmouable, beyng plenteuouse in werk of the Lord, euere more wityng that youre trauel is not idel in the Lord.

16 But of the gaderyngis of money that ben maad in to seyntis, as Y ordeynede in the chirchis of Galathie, so also do ye o dai of the wouke. 2 Ech of you kepe at hym silf, keypyng that that plesith to him, that whanne Y come, the gaderyngis ben not maad. 3 And whanne Y schal be present, whiche men ye preuen, Y schal sende hem bi epistlis to bere youre grace in to Jerusalem. 4 That if it be worthi that also Y go, thei schulen go with me. 5 But Y schal come to you, whanne Y schal passe bi Macedonye; for whi Y schal passe bi Macedonye. 6 But perauenture Y schal dwelle at you, or also dwelle the wynter, that and ye lede me whidir euere Y schal go. 7 And Y wole not now se you in my passyng, for Y hope to dwelle with you awhile, if the Lord schal suffre. 8 But Y schal dwelle at Efesi, `til to Witsuntide. 9 For a grete dore and an opyn is openyd to me, and many aduersaries. 10 And if Thimothe come, se ye that he be with out drede with you, for he worcheth

the werk of the Lord, as Y. 11 Therfor no man dispise hym; but lede ye hym forth in pees, that he come to me; for Y abide hym with britheren. 12 But, britheren, Y make knowun to you of Apollo, that Y preiede him myche, that he schulde come to you, with britheren. But it was not his wille to come now; but he schal come, whanne he schal haue leiser. 13 Walke ye, and stonde ye in the feith; do ye manli, and be ye coumfortid in the Lord, 14 and be alle youre thingis don in charite. 15 And, britheren, Y biseche you, ye knowen the hous of Stephan, and of Fortunati, and Acaicy, for thei ben the firste fruytis of Acaie, and in to mynystrie of seyntis thei han ordeyned hem silf; 16 that also ye be sugetis to suche, and to ech worchyng togidere and trauelynge. 17 For Y haue ioie in the presence of Stephan, and of Fortunate, and Acaici; 18 for thei filliden that thing that failide to you; for thei han refreischid bothe my spirit and youre. Therfor knowe ye hem, that ben suche maner men. 19 Alle the chirchis of Asie greten you wel. Aquila and Prisca, with her homeli chirche, greten you myche in the Lord, at the whiche also Y am herborid. 20 Alle bretheren greten you wel. Grete ye wel togidere in hooli cos. 21 My gretynge bi Poulis hoond. 22 If ony man loueth not oure Lord Jhesu Crist, be he cursid, Maranatha. 23 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. 24 My charite be with you alle in Crist Jhesu oure Lord. Amen.

2 Corinthians

1 Poul, apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, and Tymothe, brothir, to the chirche of God that is at Corinthi, with alle seyntis that ben in al Acaie, grace to you, 2 and pees of God oure fadir and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 Blessid be God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, fadir of mercies, and God of al coumfort, 4 which coumfortith vs in al oure tribulacioun, that also we moun coumforte hem, that ben in al diseese, bi the monestying bi which also we ben monestid of God. 5 For as the passiouns of Crist ben plenteouse in vs, so also bi Crist oure coumfort is plenteouse. 6 And whether we ben in tribulacioun, for youre tribulacioun and heelthe, ethir we ben coumfortid, for youre coumfort, ethir we ben monestid, for youre monestying and heelthe. Which worthith in you the suffring of the same passiouns, whiche `we also sufferen, 7 that oure hope be sad for you; witynge for as ye ben felowis of passiouns, so ye schulen ben also of coumfort. 8 For, britheren, we wolen that ye wite of oure tribulacioun, that was don in Asie; for ouer maner we weren greued ouer myyt, so that it anioede vs, yhe, to lyue. 9 But we in vs silf hadden answeere of deth, that we truste not in vs, but in God that reisith deed men. 10 Which delyuerede vs, and delyuerith fro so grete perelis, in to whom we hopen, also yit he schal delyuere, 11 while also ye helpen in preier for vs; that of the persones of many faces of that yuuyng that is in vs, thankyngis ben don for vs bi many men to God. 12 For oure glorie is this, the witnessyng of oure conscience, that in symplenesse and clenness of God, and not in fleischli wisdom, but in the grace of God, we lyueden in this world, but more plenteousli to you. 13 And we writen not othere thingis to you, than tho that ye han red and knowe, and Y hope that in to the ende ye schulen knowe, 14 as also ye han knowe vs a parti; for we ben youre glorie, as also ye ben oure in the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 15 And in this tristyng Y wolde first come to you, that ye schulden haue the secounde grace, 16 and passe bi you in to Macedonye, and eft fro Macedonye come to you, and of you be led in to Judee. 17 But whanne Y wolde this thing, whether Y vside vnstidfastnesse, ether tho thingis that Y thenke, Y thenke afir the fleisch, that at me be, it is and it is not? 18 But God is trewe, for oure word that was at you is and is not, is not ther ynnre, but is in it. 19 For whi Jhesus Crist, the sone of God, which is prechid among you bi vs, bi me, and Syluan, and Tymothe, ther was not in hym is and is not, but is was in hym. 20 For whi hou many euer ben biheestis of God, in thilke is, `that is, ben fillid. And therfor and bi hym we seien amen to God, to oure glorie. 21 Sotheli it is God that confermeth vs with you in Crist, and the which God anyontide vs, 22 and which markide vs, and yaf ernes of the spirit in oure hertis. 23 For Y clepide God to wittenne ayens my soule, that Y sparynge you cam not ouer to Corynthe; 24 not that we ben lordis of youre feith, but we ben helperis of youre ioie; for thorouy bileue ye stonden.

2 And Y ordeynede this ilke thing at me, that Y schulde not come eftsoone in heuynes to you. 2 For if Y make you sori, who is he that gladith me, but he that is soreful of me? 3 And this same thing Y wroot to you, that whanne Y come, Y haue not sorewe on sorewe, of the whiche it behofte me to haue ioie. And Y triste in you alle, that my ioie is of alle you. 4 For of myche tribulacioun and angwisch of herte Y wroot to you by many teeris, not that ye be sori, but that ye wite what charite Y haue more plenteuously in you. 5 For if ony man hath maad me soreful, he hath not maad me soreful but a parti, that Y charge not you alle. 6 This blamyng that ys maad of manye, suffisith to hym, that is sich oon; 7 so that ayenward ye rathir foryuyen and coumfort, lest perauenture he that is suche a maner man, be sopun vp bi more grete heuynesse. 8 For which thing Y biseche you, that ye conferme charite in to hym. 9 For whi therfor Y wroot this, that Y knowe youre preuyng, whether in alle thingis ye ben obedient. 10 For to whom ye han foryuyen ony thing, also Y haue foryuyue. For Y that that Y foryaf, yif Y foryaf ony thing, haue youun for you in the persone of Crist, 11 that we be not disseyued of Sathanas; for we knowen hise thouytis. 12 But whanne Y was comun to Troade for the gospel of Crist, and a dore was opened to me in the Lord, 13 Y hadde not rest to my spirit, for Y foond not my brother Tite, but Y seide to hem farewel, and Y passide in to Macedonye. 14 And Y do thankyngis to God, that euere more makith vs to haue victorie in Crist Jhesu, and schewith bi vs the odour of his knowing in ech place; 15 for we ben the good odour of Crist to God, among these that ben maad saaf, and among these that perischen. 16 To othere sotheli odour of deth in to deth, but to othere we ben odour of lijf in to lijf. And to these thingis who is so able? 17 For we ben not as many, that don auoutrie bi the word of God, but we speken of clenness, as of God, bifor God in Crist.

3 Bigynnen we therfor eftsoone to preise vs silf? or whether we neden, as summen, pistlis of preisinge to you, or of you? 2 Ye ben oure pistle, writun in oure hertis, which is knowun and red of alle men, 3 and maad opyn, for ye ben the pistle of Crist mynystrid of vs, and writun, not with enke, but bi the spirit of the lyuyng God; not in stony tablis, but in fleischli tablis of herte. 4 For we han such trist bi Crist to God; 5 not that we ben sufficient to thenke ony thing of vs, as of vs, but oure sufficiency is of God. 6 Which also made vs able mynystis of the newe testament, not bi lettre, but bi spirit; for the lettre sleeth, but the spirit quykeneth. 7 And if the mynystriacioun of deth write bi lettris in stoonys was in glorie, so that the children of Israel myyten not biholde in to the face of Moises, for the glorie of his cheer, which is auoidid, 8 hou schal not the mynystriacioun of the spirit be more in glorie? 9 For if the mynystriacioun of dampnacioun was in glorie, myche more the mynysterie of riytwisnesse is plenteouse in glorie. 10 For nether that that was cleer was glorified in this part for the excellent glorie; and if that that is auoidid, 11 was bi glorie, myche more that that dwellith stille is in glorie. 12 Therfor we that han suche hope, vsen myche trist; 13 and not as Moises leide a veil on his face, that the children of Israel schulden not biholde in to his face, which veil is auoidid. 14 But the wittis of hem ben astonyed; for in to this dai the same veil in reding of the olde testament dwellith not schewid, for it is auoidid in Crist, but in to this dai, 15 whanne Moises is red, the veil is put on her hertis. 16 But whanne Israel schal be conuertid to God, the veil schal be don awei. 17 And the spirit is the Lord; and where the spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. 18 And alle we that with open face seen the glorie of the Lord, ben transformed in to the same ymage, fro clerenesse in to clerenesse, as of the spirit of the Lord.

4 Therfor we that han this admynstracioun, aftir this that we han getun merci, 2 faile we not, but do we awei the preue thingis of schame, not walkinge in sutil gile, nether doynge auoutrye bi the word of God, but in schewynge of the treuthe comendynge vs silf to ech conscience of men bifor God. 3 For if also oure gospel is kyuerid, in these that perischen it is kyuerid; 4 in which God hath blent the soulis of vnfeithful men of this world, that the liytning of the gospel of the glorie of Crist, which is the ymage of God, schyne not. (aiōn g165) 5 But we prechen not vs silf, but oure Lord Jhesu Crist; and vs youre seruauitis bi Jhesu. 6 For God, that seide liyt to schyne of derknessis, he hath youe liyt in oure hertis, to the liytning of the science of the clerenesse of God, in the face of Jhesu Crist. 7 And we han this tresour in britil vessels, that the worthinesse be of Goddis vertu, and not of vs. 8 In alle thingis we suffren tribulacioun, but we ben not angwischid, or annoyed; we ben maad pore, but we lacken nothing; we suffren persecucioun, 9 but we ben not forsakun; we ben maad lowe, but we ben not confoundid; we ben cast doun, but we perischen not. 10 And euere more we beren aboute the sleynge of Jhesu in oure bodi, that also the lijf of Jhesu be schewid in oure bodies. 11 For euere more we that lyuen, ben takun in to deth for Jhesu, that the lijf of Jhesu be schewid in oure deedli fleisch. 12 Therfor deth worchith in vs, but lijf worchith in you. 13 And we han the same spirit of feith, as it is writun, Y haue bileuyd, Y haue spoke; and we bileuen, wherfor also we speken; 14 witynge that he that reiseid Jhesu, schal reise also vs with Jhesu, and schal ordeyne with you. 15 And alle thingis for you, that a plenteuouse grace bi many thankyns be plenteuouse in to the glorie of God. 16 For which thing we failen not, for thouy oure viter man be corruptid; netheles the ynnre man is renewid fro dai to dai. 17 But that liyt thing of oure tribulacioun that lastith now, but as it were by a moment, worchith in vs ouer mesure an euerlastynge birthin in to the heynesse of glorie; (aiōnios g166) 18 while that we biholden not tho thingis that ben seyn, but tho that ben not seyn. For tho thingis that ben seyn, ben but durynge for a schort tyme; but tho thingis that ben not seyn, ben euerlastynge. (aiōnios g166)

5 And we witen, that if oure ertheli hous of this dwellynge be dissoluyd, that we han a bilydng of God, an hous not maad bi hondis, euerlastynge in heuenes. (aiōnios g166) 2 For whi in this thing we mornen, coueitynge to be clothid aboue with oure dwellyng, which is of heuene; if netheles we ben foundun clothid, 3 and not nakid. 4 For whi and we that ben in this tabernacle, sorewen with ynne, and ben heuyed, for that we wolen not be spuylid, but be clothid aboue; that the ilke thing that is deedli, be sopun vp of lijf. 5 But who is it that makith vs in to this same thing? God, that yaf to vs the ernes of the spirit. 6 Therfor we ben hardi algatis, and witen that the while we ben in this bodi, we goen in pilgrymage fro the Lord; 7 for we walken bi feith, and not bi cleer siyt. 8 But we ben hardi, and han good wille, more to be in pilgrymage fro the bodi, and to be present to God. 9 And therfor we stryuen, whether absent, whether present, to plesse hym. 10 For it bihoueth vs alle to be schewid bifor the trone of Crist, that euery man telle the propre thingis of the bodi, as he hath don, ethir good, ether yuel. 11 Therfor we witynge the drede of the Lord, counceelen men, for to God we ben opyn; and Y hope, that we ben opyn also in youre consciencis. 12 We comenden not vs silf eftsoone to you, but we yyuen to you occasioun to haue glorie for vs, that ye haue to hem that glorien in the face, and not in the herte. 13 For ethir we bi mynde passen to God, ether we ben sobre to you. 14 For the charite of Crist dryueth vs; gessynge this thing, that if oon died for alle, thanne alle weren deed. 15 And Crist diede for alle, that thei that lyuen, lyue not now to hem silf, but to hym that diede for hem, and roos ayen. 16 Therfor we fro this tyme knowen no man aftir the fleische; thouy we knowun Crist aftir the fleisch, but nowe we knowun not. 17 Therfor if ony newe creature is in Crist, the elde thingis ben passid. 18 And lo! alle thingis ben of God, which recounselide vs to hym bi Crist, and yaf to vs the seruyce of recounselynge. 19 And God was in Crist, recounselynge to hym the world, not rettynge to hem her giltes, and puttide in vs the word of recounselynge. 20 Therfor we vsen message for Crist, as if God monestith bi vs; we bisechen for Crist, be ye recounselid to God. 21 God the fadir made hym synne for vs, which knewe not synne, that we schulden be maad riytwisnesse of God in hym.

6 But we helpynge monesten, that ye resseyuen not the grace of God in veyn. 2 For he seith, In tyme wel plesinge Y haue herd thee, and in the dai of heelte Y haue helpid thee. Lo! now a tyme acceptable, lo! now a dai of heelte. 3 Yyue we to no man ony offencioun, that oure seruyce be not reprevud; 4 but in alle thingis yyue we vs silf as the mynystis of God, in myche pacience, in tribulaciouns, 5 in nedis, in angwischis, in betyngis, in prisouns, in dissensiouns with ynne, in trauels, in wykyns, in fastyngis, 6 in chastite, in kunnyng, in long abiding, in swetnesse, in the Hooli Goost, 7 in charite not feined, in the word of treuthe, in the vertu of God; bi armeris of riytwisnesse on the riythalf and on the lefthalf; 8 bi glorie and vnnoblei; bi yuel fame and good fame; as disseyueris, and trewe men; as thei that ben vnknowun, and knowun; 9 as men dyngge, and lo! we lyuen; as chastisid, and not maad deed; 10 as sorrowful, euere more ioiynge; as hauynge nede, but makyng many men riche; as no thing hauynge, and weldynge alle thingis. 11 A! ye Corynthis, oure mouth is open to you, oure herte is alarid; 12 ye ben not angwischid in vs, but ye ben angwischid in youre inwardnessis. 13 And Y seie as to sones, ye that han the same reward, be ye alarid. 14 Nyle ye bere the yok with vnfeithful men. For what parting of riytwisnes with wickidnesse? or what felouschipe of liyt to derknessis? 15 and what according of Crist to Belial? or what part of a feithful with the vnfeithful? 16 and what consent to the temple of God with mawmetis? And ye ben the temple of the Iyuyng God, as the Lord seith, For Y schal dwelle in hem, and Y schal walke among hem; and Y

schal be God of hem, and thei schulen be a puple to me. 17 For which thing go ye out of the myddil of hem, and be ye departid, seith the Lord, and touche ye not vnclene thing; 18 and Y schal resseyue you, and schal be to you in to a fadir, and ye schulen be to me in to sones and douytris, seith the Lord almyyti.

7 Therfor, most dereworthe britheren, we that han these biheestis, clense we vs fro al filthe of the fleische and of the spirit, doynge holynesse in the drede of God. 2 Take ye vs; we han hirt no man, we han apeirid no man, we han bigilid no man. 3 Y seie not to youre condempnyng; for Y seide bifor, that ye ben in youre hertis, to die togidere and to lyue togidere. 4 Myche trist is to me anentis you, myche gloryng is to me for you. Y am fillid with coumfort, Y am plenteuouse in ioie in al oure tribulacioun. 5 For whanne we weren comun to Macedonye, oure fleisch hadde no reste, but we suffriden al tribulacioun; with outforth flytingis, and dredis with ynne. 6 But God that coumfortith meke men, coumfortide vs in the comyng of Tite. 7 And not oneli in the comyng of him, but also in the coumfort bi which he was coumfortid in you, tellinge to vs youre desire, youre weping, youre loue for me, so that Y ioiede more. 8 For thouy Y made you sorie in a pistle, it rewith me not; thouy it rewide, seyng that thouy thilke pistle made you sori at an our, now Y haue ioie; 9 not for ye weren maad soreful, but for ye weren maad soreful to penaunce. For whi ye ben maad sori afir God, that in no thing ye suffre peirement of vs. 10 For the sorewe that is afir God, worchith penaunce in to stidfast heelthe; but sorewe of the world worchith deth. 11 For lo! this same thing, that ye ben soreful afir God, hou myche bisynesse it worchith in you; but defendyng, but indignacioun, but drede, but desire, but loue, but veniaunce. In alle thingis ye han youun you silf to be vndefoulid in the cause. 12 Therfor thouy Y wroot to you, Y wroot not for hym that dide the iniurie, nether for hym that suffride, but to schewe oure businesse, which we han for you bifor God. 13 Therfor we ben coumfortid, but in youre coumfort more plenteuousli we ioiyeden more on the ioie of Tite, for his spirit is fulfillid of alle you. 14 And if Y gloriede ony thing anentis hym of you, Y am not confoundid; but as we han spoke to you alle thingis, so also oure glorie that was at Tite, is maad treuthe. 15 And the inwardnesse of hym be more plenteuousli in you, which hath in mynde the obedience of you alle, hou with drede and trembling ye resseyueden hym. 16 Y haue ioie, that in alle thingis Y triste in you.

8 But, britheren, we maken knowun to you the grace of God, that is youun in the chirchis of Macedonye, 2 that in myche asaiyng of tribulacioun, the plente of the ioie of hem was, and the hiyeste pouert of hem was plenteuouse "in to the richessis of the sympleness of hem. 3 For Y bere witnessyng to hem, afir miyt and aboue miyt thei weren wilful, 4 with myche monestyng bisechyng vs the grace and the comynyng of mynysting, that is maad to hooli men. 5 And not as we hopiden, but thei yauen hem silf first to the Lord, afirward to vs bi the wille of God. 6 So that we preyeden Tite, that as he bigan, so also he performe in you this grace. 7 But as ye abunden in alle thingis, in feith, and word, and kunnyng, and al bisynesse, more ouer and in

youre charite in to vs, that and in this grace ye abunden. 8 Y seie not as comandinge, but bi the bisynesse of othere men appreyunge also the good wit of youre charite. 9 And ye witen the grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, for he was maad nedi for you, whanne he was riche, that ye schulden be maad riche bi his nedynesse. 10 And Y yyue counsel in this thing; for this is profitable to you, that not oneli han bigunne to do, but also ye bigunnen to haue wille fro the formere yere. 11 But now parfourme ye in deed, that as the discrecioun of wille is redi, so be it also of parformyng of that that ye han. 12 For if the wille be redi, it is acceptid afir that that it hath, not afir that that it hath not. 13 And not that it be remyscioun to othere men, and to you tribulacioun; 14 but of euenesse in the present tyme youre aboundance fulfillle the myseese of hem, that also the aboundance of hem be a fulfillyng of youre myseise, that euenesse be maad; as it is writun, 15 He that gaderide myche, was not encresid, and he that gaderide litil, hadde not lesse. 16 And Y do thankyngis to God, that yaf the same bisynesse for you in the herte of Tite, 17 for he resseyuede exortacioun; but whanne he was bisier, bi his wille he wente forth to you. 18 And we senten with hym a brother, whose preisyng is in the gospel bi alle chirchis. 19 And not oneli, but also he is ordeyned of chirchis the felowe of oure pilgrimage in to this grace, that is mynystrid of vs to the glorie of the Lord, and to oure ordeyned wille; 20 eschewyng this thing, that no man blame vs in this plente, that is mynystrid of vs to the glorie of the Lord. 21 For we purueyen good thingis, not onely bifor God, but also bifor alle men. 22 For we senten with hem also oure brothir, whom we han preued in many thingis ofte, that he was bisi, but nowe myche bisier, for myche trist in you, 23 ethir for Tite, that is my felowe and helpere in you, ethir for oure britheren, apostlis of the chirches of the glorie of Crist. 24 Therfor schewe ye in to hem in the face of chirchis, that schewyng that is of youre charite and of oure glorie for you.

9 For of the mynystrie that is maad to hooli men, it is to me of plente to write to you. 2 For Y knowe youre wille, for the which Y haue glorie of you anentis Macedonyes, for also Acaie is redi fro a yeer passid, and youre loue hath stirid ful manye. 3 And we han sent britheren, that this thing that we glorien of you, be not auoidid in this parti, that as Y seide, ye be redi. 4 Lest whanne Macedonyes comen with me, and fynden you vnredi, we be schamed, that we seien you not, in this substaunce. 5 Therfor Y gesside necessarie to preie britheren, that thei come bifore to you, and make redi this bihiyt blessing to be redi, so as blessing, and not as aueryce. 6 For Y seie this thing, he that sowith scarseli, schal also repe scarseli; and he that sowith in blessingis, schal `repe also of blessingis. 7 Ech man as he castide in his herte, not of heuynesse, or of nede; for God loueth a glad yyuere. 8 And God is miyti to make al grace abounde in you, that ye in alle thingis euere more han al sufficiency, and abounde in to al good werk; 9 as it is writun, He delide abroad, he yaf to pore men, his riytwisnesse dwellich withouten ende. (aion g165) 10 And he that mynystrih seed to the sowere, schal yyue also breed to ete, and he schal multiplie youre seed, and make myche the encreessingis of fruytis of youre riytwisnesse;

11 that in alle thingis ye maad riche waxen plenteuouse in to al symplenesse, which worchith bi vs doing of thankings to God. 12 For the mynystrie of this office not oneli fillith tho thingis that failen to holi men, but also multiplieth many thankngis to God, 13 bi the preuyng of this mynystrie, which glorifien God in the obedience of youre knouleching in the gospel of Crist, and in symplenesse of comynycacioun in to hem and in to alle, 14 and in the biseching of hem for you, that desiren you for the excellent grace of God in you. 15 Y do thankngis to God of the yfte of hym, that may not be told.

10 And Y my silf Poul biseche you, bi the myldenesse and softnesse of Crist, which in the face am meke among you, and Y absent triste in you. 2 For Y preie you, that lest Y present be not bold bi the trist, in which Y am gessid to be bold in to summe, that demen vs, as if we wandren aftir the fleisch. 3 For we walkynge in fleisch, fyten not aftir the fleisch. 4 For the armuris of oure knythythod ben not fleischli, but myyti bi God to the destruccion of strengthis. And we distrien counsels, 5 and alle hiynesse that hiyeth it silf ayens the science of God, and dryuen in to caitiffe al vnderstanding in to the seruice of Crist. 6 And we han redi to venge al vnobedience, whanne youre obedience schal be fillid. 7 Se ye the thingis that ben after the face. If any man trustith to him silf, that he is of Crist, thenke he this thing eft anentis hym silf, 8 for as he is Cristis, so also we. For if Y schal glorie only thing more of oure power, which the Lord yaf to vs in to edifyng, and not in to youre destruccion, Y schal not be schamed. 9 But that Y be not gessid as to fere you bi epistlis, 10 for thei seien, That epistlis ben greuouse and stronge, but the presence of the bodi is feble, and the word worthi to be dispisid. 11 He that is suche oon, thenke this, for suche as we absent ben in word bi pistlis, suche we ben present in dede. 12 For we doren not putte vs among, or comparisoune vs to summen, that comenden hem silf; but we mesuren vs in vs silf, and comparisounen vs silf to vs. 13 For we schulen not haue glorie ouer mesure, but bi the mesure of the reule which God mesuride to vs, the mesure that stretchith to you. 14 For we ouerstretchen not forth vs, as not stretchinge to you. For to you we camen in the gospel of Crist, 15 not glorynge ouer mesure in othere mennus trauelis. For we han hope of youre feith that wexith in you to be magnefied bi oure reule in abundaunce, 16 also to preche in to tho thingis that ben biyendis you, not to haue glorie in othere mennus reule, in these thingis that ben maad redi. 17 He that glorieth, haue glorie in the Lord. 18 For not he that comendith hym silf is preuyd, but whom God comendith.

11 I wolde that ye wolden suffre a litil thing of myn vnwisdom, but also supporte ye me. 2 For Y loue you bi the loue of God; for Y haue spoused you to oon hosebonde, to yelde a chast virgyn to Crist. 3 But Y drede, lest as the serpent disseyuede Eue with his sutil fraude, so youre wittis ben corrupt, and fallen down fro the symplenesse that is in Crist. 4 For if he that cometh, prechith anothir Crist, whom we precheden not, or if ye taken another spirit, whom ye token not, or another gospel, which ye resseyueden not, riytli ye schulden suffre. 5 For Y wene that Y haue don no thing lesse than the grete apostlis. 6

For thou Y be vnlerud in word, but not in kunnyng. For in alle thingis Y am open to you. 7 Or whether Y haue don synne, mekyng my silf, that ye be enhaunsid, for freli Y prechide to you the gospel of God? 8 Y made nakid othere chirchis, and Y took sowde to youre seruice. 9 And whanne Y was among you, and hadde nede, Y was chargeouse to no man; for britheren that camen fro Macedonye, fulfilliden that that failide to me. And in alle thingis Y haue kept, and schal kepe me with outen charge to you. 10 The treuthe of Crist is in me; for this glorie schal not be brokun in me in the cuntreis of Acaie. 11 Whi? for Y loue not you? 12 God woot. For that that Y do, and that Y schal do, is that Y kitte awei the occasioun of hem that wolen occasioun, that in the thing, in which thei glorien, thei be foundun as we. 13 For siche false apostlis ben trecherouse werk men, and transfiguren hem in to apostlis of Crist. 14 And no wondur, for Sathanas hym silf transfigurith hym in to an angel of light. 15 Therfor it is not greet, if hise mynystis ben transfigurid as the mynystis of riytwisnesse, whos ende schal be aftir her werkis. 16 Eft Y seie, lest ony man gesse me to be vnwise; ellis take ye me as vnwise, that also Y haue glorie a litil what. 17 That that Y speke, Y speke not aftir God, but as in vnwisdom, in this substaunce of glorie. 18 For many men glorien aftir the fleisch, and Y schal glorie. 19 For ye suffren gladli vnwise men, whanne ye silf ben wise. 20 For ye susteynen, if ony man dryueth you in to seruage, if ony man deuourith, if ony man takith, if ony man is enhaunsid, if ony man smythith you on the face. 21 Bi vnnoblei Y seie, as if we weren sike in this parti. In what thing ony man dar, in vnwisdom Y seie, and Y dar. 22 Thei ben Ebrewis, and Y; thei ben Israelitis, and Y; thei ben the seed of Abraham, and Y; 23 thei ben the mynystis of Crist, and Y. As lesse wise Y seie, Y more; in ful many trauelis, in prisouns more plenteuousli, in woundis aboue maner, in deethis ofte tymes. 24 Y resseyuede of the Jewis fyue sithis fourti stokis oon lesse; 25 thries Y was betun with yerdis, onys Y was stonyd, thries Y was at shipbreche, a nytt and a dai Y was in the depnesse of the see; 26 in weies ofte, in perelis of floodis, in perelis of theues, in perelis of kyn, in perelis of hethene men, in perelis in citee, in perelis in desert, in perelis in the see, in perelis among false britheren, in trauel and nedynesse, 27 in many wakyngis, in hungur, in thirst, in many fastyngis, in coold and nakidnesse. 28 Withouten tho thingis that ben withoutforth, myn ech daies trauelyng is the bisynesse of alle chirchis. 29 Who is sijk, and Y am not sijk? who is sclaudrid, and Y am not brent? 30 If it bihoueth to glorie, Y schal glorie in tho thingis that ben of myn infirmyte. 31 God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that is blessid in to worldis, woot that Y lie not. (aion g165) 32 The preuost of Damask, of the kyng of the folk Arethe, kepte the citee of Damascenes to take me; 33 and bi a wyndow in a leep Y was latun down bi the wal, and so Y ascapide hise hondis.

12 If it bihoueth to haue glorie, it spedith not; but Y schal come to the visiouns and to the reuelaciouns of the Lord. 2 I woot a man in Crist that bfore fouretene yeer; whether in bodi, whether out of the bodi, Y woot not, God woot; that siche a man was rauschid til to the thridde heuene. 3 And Y woot sich

a man; whether in bodi, or out of bodi, Y noot, God woot; 4 that he was rauschid in to paradis, and herde preuy wordis, whiche it is not leueful to a man to speke. 5 For such maner thingis Y schal glorie; but for me no thing, no but in myn infirmytees. 6 For if Y schal wilne to glorie, Y schal not be vnwijs, for Y schal seie treuthe; but Y spare, lest ony man gesse me ouer that thing that he seeth in me, or herith ony thing of me. 7 And lest the greetnesse of reuelaciouns enhaunse me in pride, the pricke of my fleisch, an aungel of Sathanas, is youun to me, that he buffate me. 8 For whiche thing thries Y preiede the Lord, that it schulde go awei fro me. 9 And he seide to me, My grace suffisith to thee; for vertu is parfitli maad in infirmyte. Therfor gladli Y schal glorie in myn infirmytees, that the vertu of Crist dwelle in me. 10 For which thing Y am plesid in myn infirmytees, in dispisyngis, in nedis, in persecuciouns, in anguyschis, for Crist; for whanne Y am sijk, thanne Y am miyti. 11 Y am maad vnwitti, ye constreyneden me. For Y ouyte to be comendid of you; for Y dide no thing lesse than thei that ben apostlis `aboue maner. 12 Thouy Y am nouyt, netheles the signes of myn apostilhed ben maad on you, in al pacience, and signes, and grete wondris, and vertues. 13 And what is it, that ye hadden lesse than othere chirchis, but that Y my silf greuyde you not? Foryyue ye to me this wrong. 14 Lo! this thridde tyme Y am redi to come to you, and Y schal not be greuou to you; for Y seke not tho thingis that ben youre, but you. For nether sones owen to tresoure to fadir and modir, but the fadir and modir to the sones. 15 For Y schal yyue moost wilfuli, and Y my silf schal be youun aboue for youre soulis; thouy Y more loue you, and be lesse louyd. 16 But be it; Y greuyde not you, but whanne Y was sutil, Y took you with gile. 17 Whether Y disseyuade you bi ony of hem, which Y sente to you? 18 Y preiede Tite, and Y sente with hym a brother. Whether Tite begilide you? whether we yeden not in the same spirit? whether not in the same steppis? 19 Sum tyme ye wenen, that we schulen excuse vs anentis you. Bifor God in Crist we speken; and, moost dere britheren, alle thingis for youre edifyng. 20 But Y drede, lest whanne Y come, Y schal fynde you not suche as Y wole, and Y schal be foundun of you suche as ye wolen not; lest perauenture stryuyngis, enuyes, sturdynessis, dissenciouns and detractions, preuy spechis of discord, bolnyngis bi pride, debatis ben among you; 21 and lest eftsoone whanne Y come, God make me low anentis you, and Y biweile many of hem, that bifor synneden, and diden not penaunce on the vncleennesse, and fornicacioun, and vnchastite, that thei han don.

13 Lo! this thridde tyme Y come to you, and in the mouth of tweyne or of thre witnessis euery word schal stonde. 2 Y seide bifor, and seie bifor, as present twies, and now absent, to hem that bifor han synned, and to alle othere; for if Y come eftsoone, Y schal not spare. 3 Whether ye seken the preef of that Crist, that spekih in me, which is not feble in you? 4 For thouy he was crucified of infirmyte, but he lyueth of the vertu of God. For also we ben sijk in hym, but we schulen lyue with him of the vertu of God in vs. 5 Asaie you silf, if ye ben in the feith; ye you silf preue. Whether ye knowen not you silf, for Crist Jhesu is in you? but in happe ye ben repreuable. 6 But Y hope, that ye knowen, that we ben not repreuable. 7 And we preien the Lord, that ye do no thing of yuel; not that we seme preued, but that ye do that that is good, and that we ben as repreuable. 8 For we moun no thing ayens treuthe, but for the treuthe. 9 For we ioyen, whanne we ben sijk, but ye ben myyti; and we preien this thing, youre perfeccioun. 10 Therfor Y absent write these thingis, that Y present do not hardere, bi the powere, which the Lord yaf to me in to edificacioun, and not in to youre distruccioun. 11 Britheren, `hennus forward ioie ye, be ye perfit, excite ye; vndurstonde ye the same thing; haue ye pees, and God of pees and of loue schal be with you. 12 Grete ye wel togidere in hooli cos. 13 Alle hooli men greten you wel. 14 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and the charite of God, and the comynyng of the Hooli Gost, be with `you alle. Amen.

Galatians

1 Poul the apostle, not of men, ne bi man, but bi Jhesu Crist, and God the fadir, 2 that reaside hym fro deth, and alle the britheren that ben with me, to the chirchis of Galathie, 3 grace to you and pees of God the fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist, 4 that yaf hym silf for oure synnes, to delyuere vs fro the present wickid world, bi the wille of God and of oure fadir, (aiðon g165) 5 to whom is worschip and glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiðon g165) 6 I wondur, that so soone ye be thus moued fro hym that clepid you in to the grace of Crist, in to another euangelie; which is not anothir, 7 but that ther ben summe that troublen you, and wolen mysturne the euangelie of Crist. 8 But thouy we, or an aungel of heuene, prechide to you, bisidis that that we han prechid to you, be he acursid. 9 As Y haue seid bifore, and now eftsoones Y seie, if ony preche to you bisidis that that ye han vndurfongun, be he cursid. 10 For now whether counsele Y men, or God? or whether Y seche to plesse men? If Y pleside yit men, Y were not Cristis seruauant. 11 For, britheren, Y make knowun to you the euangelie, that was prechid of me, for it is not bi man; 12 ne Y took it of man, ne lernyde, but bi reuelacioun of Jhesu Crist. 13 For ye han herd my conuersacioun sumtyme in the Jurie, and that Y persuede passyngli the chirche of God, and fauyt ayen it. 14 And Y profiteid in the Jurie aboute many of myn eueneldis in my kynrede, and was more aboundauntli a folwere of my fadris tradiciouns. 15 But whanne it pleside hym, that departide me fro my modir wombe, 16 and clepide bi his grace, to schewe his sone in me, that Y schulde preche hym among the hethene, anon Y drowy me not to fleisch and blood; ne Y cam to Jerusalem to the apostlis, 17 that weren tofor me, but Y wente in to Arabie, and eftsoones Y turnede ayen in to Damask. 18 And sith thre yeer afir Y cam to Jerusalem, to se Petre, and Y dwellide with hym fiftene daies; 19 but Y sawy noon othere of the apostlis, but James, oure Lordis brother. 20 And these thingis which Y write to you, lo! tofor God Y lie not. 21 Afterward Y cam in to the coostis of Syrie and Cilicie. 22 But Y was vnknowun bi face to the chirchis of Judee, that weren in Crist; and thei hadden oonli an heryng, 23 that he that persuede vs sum tyme, prechide now the feith, ayens which he fauyte sum tyme; 24 and in me thei glorifieden God.

2 And sith fourtene yeer afir, eftsones Y wente vp to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took with me Tite. 2 Y wente vp bi reuelacioun, and spak with hem the euangelie, which Y preche among the hethene; and bi hem silf to these that semeden to be sumwhat, lest Y runne, or hadde runne in veyne. 3 And nother Tite, that hadde be with me, while he was hethene, was compellid to be circumsidid; 4 but for false britheren that weren brouyt ynn, whiche hadden entrid to asprie oure fredom, which we han in Jhesu Crist, to bring vs in to seruage. 5 But we yyue no place to subieccioun, that the treuthe of the gospel schulde dwelle with you. 6 But of these that semeden to be sumwhat; whiche thei weren sum tyme, it perteyneth not to me, for God takith not the persooone of man; for thei that semeden to be sumwhat, yauen me no thing. 7 But ayenward, whanne

thei hadden seyn, that the euangelie of prepucie was youun to me, as the euangelie of circumcisioun was youun to Petre; 8 for he that wrouyte to Petre in apostlehed of circumcisioun, wrouyte also to me among the hethene; 9 and whanne thei hadden knowe the grace of God, that was youun to me, James, and Petre, and Joon, whiche weren seyn to be the pilers, thei yauen riythond of felowschip to me and to Barnabas, that we among the hethene, and thei in to circumcisioun; 10 oneli that we hadde mynde of pore men of Crist, the which thing Y was ful bisi to doon. 11 But whanne Petre was comun to Antioche, Y ayenstood hym in the face, for he was worthi to be vndirnommen. 12 For bifor that ther camen summen fro James, he eete with the hethene men; but whanne thei weren comun, he withdrowy, and departide hym, dredinge hem that weren of circumcisioun. 13 And the othere Jewis assentiden to his feynyng, so that Barnabas was drawun of hem in to that feynyng. 14 But whanne Y sawy, that thei walkiden not riytli to the treuthe of the gospel, Y seide to Petre bifor alle men, If thou, that art a Jew, lyuest hethenlich, and not Jewelich, hou constreynest thou hethene men to bicomme Jewis? 15 We Jewis of kynde, and not synful men of the hethene, 16 knowen that a man is not iustified of the werkis of lawe, but bi the feith of Jhesu Crist; and we bileuen in Jhesu Crist, that we ben iustified of the feith of Crist, and not of the werkis of lawe. Wherfor of the werkis of lawe ech fleisch schal not be iustified. 17 And if we sechen to be iustified in Crist, we oure silf ben foundun synful men, whether Crist be mynystre of synne? 18 God forbede. And if Y bylde ayen thingis that Y haue destruyed, Y make my silf a trespassour. 19 For bi the lawe Y am deed to the lawe, and Y am fitchid to the crosse, that Y lyue to God with Crist. 20 And now lyue not Y, but Crist lyueth in me. But that Y lyue now in fleisch, Y lyue in the feith of Goddis sone, that louede me, and yaf hym silf for me. 21 Y caste not away the grace of God; for if riytwisnesse be thoruy lawe, thanne Crist diede with out cause.

3 Vnwitti Galathies, tofor whos iyen Jhesu Crist is exilid, and is crucified in you, who hath disseyued you, that ye obeyen not to treuthe? 2 This oneli Y wilne to lerne of you, whether ye han vndurfonge the spirit of werkis of the lawe, or of heryng of bileue? 3 So ye ben foolis, that whanne ye han bigunne in spirit, ye ben endid in fleisch. 4 So grete thingis ye han suffrid without cause, if it be withoute cause. 5 He that yyueth to you spirit, and worchith vertues in you, whether of werkis of the lawe, or of hering of bileue? 6 As it is writun, Abraham bileuede to God, and it was rettid to hym to riytfulnessse. 7 And therfor knowe ye, that these that ben of bileue, ben the sones of Abraham. 8 And the scripture seyngte afer, that God iustifieth the hethene, of bileue told tofor to Abraham, That in thee alle the hethene schulen be blessid. 9 And therfor these that ben of bileue, schulen be blessid with feithful Abraham. 10 For alle that ben of the werkis of the lawe, ben vndur curse; for it is writun, Ech man is cursid, that abidith not in alle thingis that ben writun in the book of the lawe, to do tho thingis. 11 And that no man is iustified in the lawe bifor God, it is opyn, for a riytful man lyueth of bileue. 12 But the lawe is not of bileue, but he that doith tho thingis of the lawe, schal lyue in hem. 13 But Crist ayenbouyete us fro the curse of the lawe, and was maad acursid for vs; for it is writun, Ech man is cursid that hangith in the tre; 14 that among the hethene the blessing of Abraham were maad in `Crist Jhesu, that we vndurfonge the biheeste of spirit thoruy bileue. 15 Britheren, Y seie afir man, no man dispisith the testament of a man that is confermed, or ordeyneth aboue. 16 The biheestis weren seid to Abraham and to his seed; he seith not, In seedis, as in many, but as in oon, And to thi seed, that is, Crist. 17 But Y seie, this testament is confermed of God; the lawe that was maad aftr foure hundrid and thrithi yeer, makith not the testament veyn to auoide awei the biheest. 18 For if eritage were of the lawe, it were not now of biheeste. But God grauntide to Abraham thoruy biheest. 19 What thanne the lawe? It was sett for trespassing, to the seed come, to whom he hadde maad his biheest. Whiche lawe was ordeyned bi aungels, in the hoond of a mediatur. 20 But a mediatur is not of oon. But God is oon. 21 Is thanne the lawe ayens the biheestis of God? God forbede. For if the lawe were youun, that myyte quikene, verili were riytfulnesse of lawe. 22 But scripture hath concludid alle thingis vndir synne, that the biheeste of the feith of Jhesu Crist were yuuen to hem that bileuen. 23 And tofor that bileue cam, thei weren kept vndur the lawe, enclosid in to that bileue that was to be schewid. 24 And so the lawe was oure vndirsaister in Crist, that we ben iustified of bileue. 25 But afir that bileue cam, we ben not now vndur the vndurmaistir. 26 For alle ye ben the children of God thoruy the bileue of Jhesu Crist. 27 For alle ye that ben baptisid, ben clothid with Crist. 28 Ther is no Jewe, ne Greke, ne bond man, ne fre man, ne male, ne female; for alle ye ben oon in `Jhesu Crist. 29 And if ye ben oon in `Jhesu Crist, thanne ye ben the seed of Abraham, and eiris bi biheest.

4 But Y seie, as long tyme as the eir is a litil child, he dyuersith no thing fro a seruaunt, whanne he is lord of alle thingis; 2 but he is vndur keperis and tutoris, in to the tyme determyned of the fadir. 3 So we, whanne we weren litte children, we serueden vndur the elementis of the world. 4 But afir that the fulfilling of tyme cam, God sente his sone, 5 maad of a womman, maad vndur the lawe, that he schulde ayenbie hem that weren vndur the lawe, that we schulden vnderfonge the adopcioun of sones. 6 And for ye ben Goddis sones, God sente his spirit in to youre hertis, criynge, Abba, fadir. 7 And so ther is not now a seruaunt, but a sone; and if he is a sone, he is an eir bi God. 8 But thanne ye vnkownynge God, serueden to hem that in kynde weren not goddis. 9 But now whanne ye han knowe God, and ben knowun of God, hou ben ye turned eftsoone to the febil and nedi elementis, to the whiche ye wolen eft serue? 10 Ye taken kepe to daies, and monethis, and tymes, and yeris. 11 But Y drede you, lest without cause Y haue trauelid among you. 12 Be ye as Y, for Y am as ye. Britheren, Y biseche you, ye han hurt me no thing. 13 But ye knowen, that bi infirmyte of fleisch Y haue prechid to you now bifore; 14 and ye dispiseden not, nether forsoken youre temptacioun in my fleisch, but ye resseyueden me as an aungel of God, as `Crist Jhesu. 15 Where thanne is youre blessing? For Y bere you witnessse, that if it mytte haue be don. ye wolden haue put out youre iyen, and haue yuuen hem to me. 16 Am Y thanne maad an enemye to you, seiyng to you the sothe? 17 Thei louen not you wel, but thei wolen exclude you, that ye suen hem. 18 But sue ye the good euermore in good, and not oneli whanne Y am present with you. 19 My smale children, whiche Y bere eftsoones, til that Crist be fourmed in you, 20 and Y wolde now be at you, and chaunge my vois, for Y am confoundid among you. 21 Seie to me, ye that wolen be vndir the lawe, `han ye not red the lawe? 22 For it is writun, that Abraham hadde two sones, oon of a seruaunt, and oon of a fre womman. 23 But he that was of the seruaunt, was borun aftr the flesh; but he that was of the fre womman, by a biheeste. 24 The whiche thingis ben seid bi an othir vndirstonding. For these ben two testamentis; oon in the hille of Synai, gendringe in to seruage, which is Agar. 25 For Syna is an hille that is in Arabie, which hille is ioyned to it that is now Jerusalem, and seruith with hir children. 26 But that Jerusalem that is aboue, is fre, whiche is oure modir. 27 For it is writun, Be glad, thou bareyn, that berist not; breke out and crye, that bringist forth no children; for many sones ben of hir that is left of hir hosebonde, more than of hir that hath an hosebonde. 28 For, britheren, we ben sones of biheeste afir Isaac; 29 but now as this that was borun aftr the fleisch persuede him that was afir the spirit, so now. 30 But what seith the scripture? Caste out the seruaunt and hir sone, for the sone of the seruaunt schal not be eir with the sone of the fre wijf. 31 And so, britheren, we ben not sones of the seruaunt, but of the fre wijf, bi which fredom Crist hath maad vs fre.

5 Stonde ye therfor, and nyl ye eftsoones be holdun in the yok of seruage. 2 Lo! Y Poul seie to you, that if ye ben circumcidid, Crist schal no thing profite to you. 3 And Y witnessse eftsoones to ech man that circumcidith hym silf, that he is dettour of al the lawe to be don. 4 And ye ben voidid awei fro Crist, and ye that be iustified in the lawe, ye han fallen awei fro grace. 5 For we thoruy the spirit of bileue abiden the hope of riytfulnesse. 6 For in Jhesu Crist nether circumcisioun is ony thing worth, nether prepuce, but the bileue that worchith bi charite. 7 Ye runnen wel; who lettide you that ye obeyede not to treuthe? 8 Consente ye to no man; for this counsel ys not of hym that hath clepid you. 9 A litil souredoway apeirith al the gobet. 10 I trust on you in oure Lord, that ye schulden vndurstonde noon other thing. And who that disturblith you, schal bere dom, who euere he be. 11 And, britheren, if Y preche yit circumcisioun, what suffre Y yit persecucioun? thanne the sclandre of the crosse is auoidid. 12 Y wolde that thei weren cut awei, that disturblen you. 13 For, britheren, ye ben clepid in to fredom; oneli yyue ye not fredom in to occasion of fleisch, but bi charite of spirit serue ye togidere. 14 For euery lawe is fulfillid in o word, Thou schalt loue thi neiybore as thi silf. 15 And if ye bite, and ete ech othere, se ye, lest ye be wastid ech fro othere. 16 And Y seie you in Crist, walke ye in spirit, and ye schulen not performe the desiris of the fleisch. 17 For the fleisch coueitith ayens the spirit, and the spirit ayen the fleisch; for these ben aduersaries togidere, that ye don not alle thingis that ye wolen. 18 That if ye be led bi spirit, ye ben not vnder the lawe. 19 And werkis of the fleisch ben opyn, whiche ben fornicacioun, vnclennes, vnchastite, letcherie, seruice of false goddis, 20 witchecraftis, enmytees, striuyngis, indignaciouns, wraththis, chidingis, discenciouns, sectis, enuyes, 21 manslauytris, dronkennessis, vnmesurable etyngis, and thingis lijk to these, whiche Y seie to you, as Y haue told to you `to fore, for thei that doon suche thingis, schulen not haue the kyngdom of God. 22 But the fruyt of the spirit is charite, ioye, pees, pacience, long abidyng, 23 benygnyte, goodnesse, myldenesse, feith, temperaunce, contynence, chastite; ayen suche thingis is no lawe. 24 And they that ben of Crist, han crucified her fleisch with vices and coueytyngis. 25 If we lyuen bi spirit, walke we bi spirit; 26 be we not made coueytouse of veyn glorie, stiryng eche othere to wraththe, or hauyng enuye eche to othere.

6 Britheren, if a man be occupied in any gilt, ye that ben spiritual, enforme ye such oon in spirit of softnesse, biholdinge thi silf, lest that thou be temptid. 2 Eche bere othere chargis, and so ye schulen fulfille the lawe of Crist. 3 For who that trowith that he be ouyt, whanne he is nouyt, he bigilith him silf. 4 But eche man preue his owne werk, and so he schal haue glorie in him silf, and not in an othere. 5 For eche man schal bere his owne charge. 6 He that is tauyt bi word, comune he with him that techith hym, in `alle goodis. 7 Nyle ye erre, God is not scorned; for tho thingis that a man sowith, tho thingis he schal reape. 8 For he that sowith in his fleisch, of the fleisch he schal reape corrupcioun; but he that sowith in the spirit, of the spirit he schal reape euerelastyng lif. (aïōnios g166) 9 And doynge good faile we not; for in his tyme we schal reape, not failinge. 10 Therfor while we han tyme, worche we good to alle men; but most to hem that ben homliche of the feith. 11 Se ye, what maner lettris Y haue write to you with myn owne hoond. 12 For who euere wole plese in the fleisch, `this constreyneth you to be circumcidid, oonli that thei suffren not the persecucioun of Cristis crosse. 13 For nether thei that ben circumcidid kepen the lawe; but thei wolen that ye be circumcidid, that thei haue glorie in youre fleisch. 14 But fer be it fro me to haue glorie, no but in the crosse of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom the world is crucified to me, and Y to the world. 15 For in Jhesu Crist nether circumcisioun is ony thing worth, ne prepucie, but a newe creature. 16 And who euere suwen this reule, pees on hem, and merci, and on Israel of God. 17 And heraftir no man be heuy to me; for Y bere in my bodi the tokenes of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 18 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with youre spirit, britheren. Amen.

Ephesians

1 Poul, the apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, to alle seyntis that ben at Effesie, and to the feithful men in Jhesu Crist, 2 grace be to you and pees of God, oure fader, and oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 Blessid be God and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that hath blessid vs in al spiritual blessing in heuenli thingis in Crist, 4 as he hath chosun vs in hym silf bifor the makyng of the world, that we weren hooli, and with out wem in his siyt, in charite. 5 Which hath bifor ordeyned vs in to adopcioun of sones bi Jhesu Crist in to hym, bi the purpos of his wille, 6 in to the heriyng of the glorie of his grace; 7 in which he hath glorified vs in his dereworthe sone. In whom we han redempcioun bi his blood, foryuyennesse of synnes, afir the ritchessis of his grace, 8 that aboundide greetli in vs in al wisdom and prudence, 9 to make knowun to vs the sacrament of his wille, bi the good plesaunce of hym; the which sacrament he purposide in 10 hym in the dispensacioun of plente of tymes to enstore alle thingis in Crist, whiche ben in heuenes, and whiche ben in erthe, in hym. 11 In whom we ben clepid bi sort, bifor ordeyned bi the purpos of hym that worchith alle thingis bi the counsel of his wille; 12 that we be in to the heriyng of his glorie, we that han hopid bifor in Crist. 13 In whom also ye weren clepid, whanne ye herden the word of treuthe, the gospel of youre heeltre, in whom ye bileuyng ben merkid with the Hooli Goost of biheest, which is the ernes of oure eritage, 14 in to the redempcioun of purchasyng, in to heriyng of his glorie. 15 Therfor and Y herynge youre feith, that is in Crist Jhesu, and the loue in to alle seyntis, 16 ceesse not to do thankyngis for you, makynge mynde of you in my preieris; 17 that God of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, the fadir of glorie, yyue to you the spirit of wisdom and of reuelacioun, in to the knowyng of hym; 18 and the iyen of youre herte lytned, that ye wite, which is the hope of his clepyng, and whiche ben the richessis of the glorie of his eritage in seyntis; 19 and whych is the excellent greetnesse of his vertu in to vs that han bileuyd, bi the worchyng of the myyt of his vertu, 20 which he wrouyte in Crist, reisyng hym fro deth, and settinge him on his ryt half in heuenli thingis, 21 aboue ech principat, and potestat, and vertu, and domynacioun, and aboue ech name that is named, not oneli in this world, but also in the world to comynge; (aiðñ g165) 22 and made alle thingis suget vndur hise feet, and yaf hym to be heed ouer al the chirche, 23 that is the bodi of hym, and the plente of hym, which is alle thingis in alle thingis fulfillid.

2 And whanne ye weren deed in youre giltis and synnes, 2 in which ye wandriden sum tyme afir the cours of this world, afir the prince of the power of this eir, of the spirit that worchith now in to the sones of vnileue; (aiðñ g165) 3 in which also we alle lyueden sum tyme in the desiris of oure fleisch, doynge the willis of the fleisch and of thouytis, and we weren bi kynde the sones of wraththe, as othere men; 4 but God, that is riche in merci, for his ful myche charite in which he louyde vs, 5 yhe, whanne we weren deed in synnes, quikenede vs togidere in Crist, bi whos grace ye ben sauuyd, and ayen reiseide togidere,

6 and made togidere to sitte in heuenli thingis in Crist Jhesu; 7 that he schulde schewe in the worldis aboue comynge the plenteuouse ritchessis of his grace in goodnesse on vs in Crist Jhesu. (aiðñ g165) 8 For bi grace ye ben sauuyd bi feith, and this not of you; for it is the yifte of God, 9 not of werkis, that no man haue glorie. 10 For we ben the makynge of hym, maad of nouyt in Crist Jhesu, in good werkis, whiche God hath ordeyned, that we go in tho werkis. 11 For which thing be ye myndeful, that sumtyme ye weren hethene in fleisch, which weren seid prepucie, fro that that is seid circumcisioun maad bi hond in fleisch; 12 and ye weren in that time with out Crist, alienyd fro the lyuyng of Israel, and gestis of testamentis, not hauynge hope of biheest, and with outen God in this world. 13 But now in Crist Jhesu ye that weren sum tyme fer, ben maad nyy in the blood of Crist. 14 For he is oure pees, that made bothe oon, and vnbyndynge the myddil wal of a wal with out morter, enmytees in his fleisch; 15 and auoideide the lawe of maundementis bi domes, that he make twei in hym silf in to a newe man, 16 makynge pees, to recounsele bothe in o bodi to God bi the cros, sleynge the enemytees in hym silf. 17 And he comynge prechide pees to you that weren fer, and pees to hem that weren niy; 18 for bi hym we bothe han niy comyng in o spirit to the fadir. 19 Therfor now ye ben not gestis and straungeris, but ye ben citeseyns of seyntis, and houshold meine of God; 20 aboue bildid on the foundement of apostlis and of profetis, vpon that hiyeste corner stoon, Crist Jhesu; 21 in whom ech bildyng maad waxith in to an hooli temple in the Lord. 22 In whom also be ye bildid togidere in to the habitacle of God, in the Hooli Goost.

3 For the grace of this thing I Poul, the boundun of Crist Jhesu, for you hethene men, 2 if netheles ye han herd the dispensacioun of Goddis grace, that is youun to me in you. 3 For bi reuelacioun the sacrament is maad knowun to me, as Y aboue wroot in schort thing, 4 as ye moun rede, and vndurstonde my prudence in the mysterie of Crist. 5 Which was not knowun to othere generaciouns to the sones of men, as it is now schewid to his hooli apostlis and prophetis in the spirit, 6 that hethene men ben euen eiris, and of oo bodi, and parteneris togidere of his biheest in Crist Jhesu bi the euangelie; 7 whos mynystre Y am maad, bi the yifte of Goddis grace, which is youun to me bi the worchyng of his vertu. 8 To me, leeste of alle seyntis, this grace is youun to preche among hethene men the vnserchable richessis of Crist, 9 and to lytne alle men, which is the dispensacioun of sacrament hid fro worldis in God, that made alle thingis of nouyt; (aiðñ g165) 10 that the myche fold wisdom of God be knowun to princis and potestatis in heuenli thingis bi the chirche, 11 bi the bifore ordinaunce of worldis, which he made in Crist Jhesu oure Lord. (aiðñ g165) 12 In whom we han trist and nyy comyng, in tristenyng bi the feith of hym. 13 For which thing Y axe, that ye faile not in my tribulaciouns for you, which is youre glorie. 14 For grace of this thing Y bowe my knees to the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, 15 of whom ech fadirhod in heuenes and in erthe is named, 16 that he yyue to you, afir the richessis of his glorie, vertu to be strengthid bi his spirit in the ynnere man, 17 that Crist dwelle bi feith in youre hertis; that ye rootid and groundid in charite, 18 moun comprehende with alle seyntis, which is the breede, and the lengthe, and the hiynesse, and the depnesse; 19 also to wite the charite of Crist more excellent than science, that ye be fillid in al the plentee of God. 20 And to hym that is myyti to do alle thingis more plenteuousli than we axen or vndurston dun, bi the vertu that worchith in vs, 21 to hym be glorie in the chirche, and in Crist Jhesu, in to alle the generaciouns of the world of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165)

4 Therfor Y boundun for the Lord biseche you, that ye walke worthili in the clepyng, 2 in which ye ben clepid, with al mekenesse and myldenesse, with pacience supportinge ech other in charite, 3 bisi to kepe vnyte of spirit in the boond of pees. 4 O bodi and o spirit, as ye ben clepid in oon hope of youre cleping; 5 o Lord, 6 o feith, o bapty m, o God and fadir of alle, which is aboue alle men, and bi alle thingis, and in vs alle. 7 But to ech of vs grace is youun bi the mesure of the yyuyng of Crist; 8 for which thing he seith, He styngre an hiy, ledde caitifte caitif, he yaf yiftis to men. 9 But what is it, that he stiede vp, no but that also he cam doun first in to the lowere partis of the erthe? 10 He it is that cam doun, and that stiede on alle heuenes, that he schulde fille alle thingis. 11 And he yaf summe apostlis, summe prophetis, othere euangelistis, othere scheepherdis and techeris, 12 to the ful endyng of seyntis, in to the werk of mynystrie, in to edificacioun of Cristis bodi, 13 til we rennen alle, in to vnyte of feith and of knowyng of Goddis sone, in to a parfit man, afir the mesure of age of the plente of Crist; 14 that we be not now litte children, mouyngre as wawis, and be not borun aboute with ech wynd of teching, in the weiwardnesse of men, in sutil wit, to the disseyuyng of errour. 15 But do we treuthe in charite, and wexe in him by alle thingis, that is Crist oure heed; 16 of whom alle the bodi set togidere, and boundun togidere bi ech ioyniture of vnder seruyng, bi worching in to the mesure of ech membre, makith encreesyng of the bodi, in to edificacioun of it silf in charite. 17 Therfor Y seie and witenesse this thing in the Lord, that ye walke not now, as hethene men walken, in the vanyte of her wit; 18 that han vndurston dyng derkned with derknessis, and ben alienyd fro the lijf of God, bi ignoraunce that is in hem, for the blyndenesse of her herte. 19 Which dispeiryngre bitoken hem silf to vnchastite, in to the worchyng of al vnclennesse in coueitis. 20 But ye han not so lerud Crist, if netheles ye herden hym, 21 and ben tauyt in hym, as is treuthe in Jhesu. 22 Do ye away bi the elde lyuyng the elde man, that is corrupt bi the desiris of errour; 23 and be ye renewid in the spirit of youre soule; 24 and clothe ye the newe man, which is maad afir God in riytwisnesse and hoolynesse of treuthe. 25 For which thing `ye putte aweil leesying, and speke ye treuthe ech man with his neybo re, for we ben membris ech to othere. 26 Be ye wrooth, and nyle ye do synne; the sunne falle not doun on youre wratthe. 27 Nyle ye yyue stide to the deu el. 28 He that stal, now stele he not; but more trauele he in worchingre with hise hondis that that is good, that he haue whereof he schal yyue to nedi. 29 Ech yuel word go not of youre mouth; but if only is good to the edificacioun of feith, that it yyue

grace to men that heren. 30 And nyle ye make the Hooli Goost of God sori, in which ye ben markid in the dai of redempcioun. 31 Al bitternesse, and wratthe, and indignacioun, and cry, and blasfemye be takun away fro you, with al malice; 32 and be ye togidere benygne, merciful, foryyuyngre togidere, as also God foryaf to you in Crist.

5 Therfor be ye foloweris of God, as moost dereworthe sones; 2 and walke ye in loue, as Crist louyde vs, and yaf hym silf for vs an offryng and a sacrifice to God, in to the odour of swetnesse. 3 And fornyacioun, and al vnclennesse, or aueryce, be not named among you, as it bicometh holi men; 4 ethir filthe, or foli speche, or harlatrye, that perteyneth not to profit, but more doyng of thankyngis. 5 For wite ye this, and vndurstonde, that ech letchour, or vnclene man, or coueytouse, that serueth to mawmetis, hath not eritage in the kingdom of Crist and of God. 6 No man disseyue you bi veyn wordis; for whi for these thingis the wratthe of God cam on the sones of vnbeleue. 7 Therfor nyle ye be maad partneris of hem. 8 For ye weren sum tyme derknessis, but now `ye ben liyt in the Lord. Walke ye as the sones of liyt. 9 For the fruyt of liyt is in al goodnesse, and riytwisnesse, and treuthe. 10 And preue ye what `thing is wel plesyngre to God. 11 And nyle ye comyne to vnfruytouse werkis of derknessis; but more repreue ye. 12 For what thingis ben don of hem in priuy, it is foule, yhe, to speke. 13 And alle thingis that ben repreuyd of the liyt, ben opynli schewid; for al thing that is schewid, is liyt. 14 For which thing he seith, Rise thou that slepist, and rise vp fro deth, and Crist schal liytne thee. 15 Therfor, britheren, se ye, hou warli ye schulen go; 16 not as vnwise men, but as wise men, ayenbiyngre tyme, for the daies ben yuele. 17 Therfor nyle ye be maad vnwise, but vndurston dyngre which is the wille of God. 18 And nyle ye be drunkun of wyn, in which is letcherie, but be ye fillid with the Hooli Goost; and speke ye to you silf in salmes, 19 and ymnes, and spiritual songis, syngyngre and seiyngre salm in youre hertis to the Lord; 20 euermore doyngre thankyngis for alle thingis in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist to God and to the fadir. 21 Be ye suget togidere in the drede of Crist. 22 Wymmen, be thei suget to her hosebondis, 23 as to the Lord, for the man is heed of the wymman, as Crist is heed of the chirche; he is sauour of his bodi. 24 But as the chirche is suget to Crist, so wymmen to her hosebondis in alle thingis. 25 Men, loue ye youre wyues, as Crist louyde the chirche, and yaf hym silf for it, to make it holi; 26 and clenside it with the waishing of watir, in the word of lijf, 27 to yyue the chirche gloriousse to hym silf, that it hadde no wem, ne ryueling, or ony siche thing, but that it be hooli and vndefoulid. 28 So and men `schulen loue her wyues, as her owne bodies. He that loueth his wijf, loueth hym silf; 29 for no man hatide euere his owne fleisch, but nurischith and fostrith it, as Crist doith the chirche. 30 And we ben membris of his bodi, of his fleisch, and of his boonys. 31 For this thing a man schal forsake his fadir and modir, and he schal drawe to his wijf; and thei schulen be tweyne in o fleisch. 32 This sacrament is greet; yhe, Y seie in Crist, and in the chirche. 33 Netheles ye alle, ech man loue his wijf as hym silf; and the wijf drede hir hosebonde.

6 Sones, obeische ye to youre fadir and modir, in the Lord; for this thing is riytful. 2 Onoure thou thi fadir and thi modir, that is the firste maundement in biheest; 3 that it be wel to thee, and that thou be long lyuynge on the erthe. 4 And, fadris, nyle ye terre youre sones to wraththe; but nurische ye hem in the teching and chastising of the Lord. 5 Seruauntis, obeische ye to fleischli lordis with drede and trembling, in simplenesse of youre herte, as to Crist; 6 not seruyng at the iye, as plesinge to men, but as seruauntis of Crist; doynge the wille of God bi discrecioun, 7 with good wille seruyng as to the Lord, and not as to men; 8 witinge that ech man, what euer good thing he schal do, he schal resseyue this of the Lord, whether seruaunt, whether fre man. 9 And, ye lordis, do the same thingis to hem, foryyuynge manaasis; witinge that bothe her Lord and youre is in heuenes, and the taking of persones is not anentis God. 10 Her aftirward, britheren, be ye coumfortid in the Lord, and in the miyt of his vertu. 11 Clothe you with the armere of God, that ye moun stonde ayens aspiynge of the deuel. 12 For whi struyng is not to vs ayens fleisch and blood, but ayens princis and potestatis, ayens gouernours of the world of these derknessis, ayens spiritual thingis of wickidnesse, in heuenli thingis. (aion g165) 13 Therfor take ye the armere of God, that ye moun ayenstonde in the yuel dai; and in alle thingis stonde perfit. 14 Therfor stonde ye, and be gird aboute youre leendis in sothefastnesse, and clothid with the haburioun of riytwisnesse, 15 and youre feet schood in making redi of the gospel of pees. 16 In alle thingis take ye the scheld of feith, in which ye moun quenche alle the firy dartis of `the worste. 17 And take ye the helm of helthe, and the swerd of the Goost, that is, the word of God. 18 Bi al preier and bisechyng preie ye al tyme in spirit, and in hym wakinge in al bisynesse, and bisechyng for alle hooli men, and for me; 19 that word be youun to me in openyng of my mouth, with trist to make knowun the mysterie of the gospel, 20 for which Y am set in message in a chayne; so that in it Y be hardi to speke, as it bihoueth me. 21 And ye wite, what thingis ben aboute me, what Y do, Titicus, my moost dere brother, and trewe mynystre in the Lord, schal make alle thingis knowun to you; 22 whom Y sente to you for this same thing, that ye knowe what thingis ben aboute vs, and that he coumforte youre hertis. 23 Pees to britheren, and charite, with feith of God oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 24 Grace with alle men that louen oure Lord Jhesu Crist in vncorruptioun. Amen, `that is, So be it.

Philippians

1 Poul and Tymothe, seruautis of Jhesu Crist, to alle the hooli men in Crist Jhesu, that ben at Filippis, with bischopis and dekenes, 2 grace and pees to you of God oure fadir, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 I do thankngis to my God 4 in al mynde of you euere more in alle my preyeris for alle you with ioye, and 5 make a bisechyng on youre comyng in the gospel of Crist, fro the firste day til now; 6 tristenynge this ilke thing, that he that bigan in you a good werk, schal perfourme it til in to the dai of Jhesu Crist. 7 As it is iust to me to feele this thing for alle you, for that Y haue you in herte, and in my boondis, and in defending and confermyng of the gospel, that alle ye be felowis of my ioye. 8 For God is a wittenesse to me, hou Y coueete alle you in the bowelis of Jhesu Crist. 9 And this thing Y preie, that youre charite be plenteuouse more and more in kunnyng, and in al wit; 10 that ye preue the betere thingis, that ye be clene and without offence in the dai of Crist; 11 fillid with the fruyt of riytwysnesse bi Jhesu Crist, in to the glory and the heriying of God. 12 For, britheren, Y wole that ye wite, that the thingis that ben aboute me han comun more to the profit of the gospel, 13 so that my boondis weren maad knowun in Crist, in ech moot halle, and in alle other placis; 14 that mo of britheren tristinge in the Lord more plenteuously for my boondis, dursten without drede speke the word of God. 15 But summe for enuye and strif, summe for good wille, prechen Crist; 16 and summe of charite, witinge that Y am put in the defense of the gospel. 17 But summe of strif schewen Crist not cleneli, gessynge hem to reise tribulacioun to my boondis. 18 But what? the while on al maner, ethir bi occasioun, ethir bi treuthe, Crist is schewid; and in this thing Y haue ioye, but also Y schal haue ioye. 19 And Y woot, that this thing schal come to me in to heelte bi youre preyer, and the vndurmynstryng of the spirit of Jhesu Crist, bi myn abidyng and hope. 20 For in no thing Y schal be schamed, but in al trist as euere more and now, Crist schal be magnified in my bodi, ether bi lijf, ether bi deth. 21 For me to lyue is Crist, and to die is wynnyng. 22 That if to lyue in fleisch, is fruyt of werk to me, lo! what Y schal chese, Y knowe not. 23 But Y am constreynd of twei thingis, Y haue desire to be dissolued, and to be with Crist, it is myche more betere; but to dwelle in fleisch, 24 is nedeful for you. 25 And Y tristinge this thing, woot that Y schal dwelle, and perfilti dwelle to alle you, to youre profit and ioye of feith, 26 that youre thanking abounde in Crist Jhesu in me, bi my comyng eftsoone to you. 27 Oneli lyue ye worthili to the gospel of Crist, that whether whanne Y come and se you, ethir absent Y here of you, that ye stonden in o spirit of o wille, traueling togidere to the feith of the gospel. 28 And in no thing be ye aferd of aduersaries, which is to hem cause of perdioun, 29 but to you cause of heelte. And this thing is of God. For it is youun to you for Crist, that not oneli ye bileuen in hym, but also that ye suffren for hym; 30 hauynge the same strif, which ye saien in me, and now ye han herd of me.

2 Therfor if any coumfort is in Crist, if any solace of charite, if any felouschipe of spirit, if any inwardnesse of merci doying,

2 fille ye my ioye, that ye vnderstonde the same thing, and haue the same charite, of o wille, and feelen the same thing; 3 no thing bi strif, nether by veyn glorie, but in mekenesse, demynge eche othere to be heiyer than hym silf; 4 not biholdinge ech bi hym silf what thingis ben his owne, but tho thingis that ben of othere men. 5 And fele ye this thing in you, which also in Crist Jhesu; 6 that whanne he was in the forme of God, demyde not raueyn, that hym silf were euene to God; 7 but he lowide hym silf, takinge the forme of a seruaut, and was maad in to the licknesse of men, and in abite was foundun as a man. 8 He mekide hym silf, and was maad obedient to the deth, yhe, to the deth of the cross. 9 For which thing God enhaunsid hym, and yaf to hym a name that is aboue al name; 10 that in the name of Jhesu ech kne be bowid, of heuenli thingis, of ertheli thingis, and of hellis; 11 and ech tunge knoueleche, that the Lord Jhesu Crist is in the glorie of God the fadir. 12 Therfor, my most dereworthe britheren, as euere more ye han obeischid, not in my presence onely, but myche more now in myn absence, worche ye with drede and trembling youre heelte. 13 For it is God that worthith in you, bothe to wilne, and to performe, for good wille. 14 And do ye alle thingis with out grutchings and doutyngis; 15 that ye be with out playnt, and symple as the sones of God, with out reproof, in the myddil of a schrewid nacioun and a weiward; among whiche ye schynen as yueris of liyt in the world. 16 And holde ye togidere the word of lijf to my glorie in the day of Crist; for Y haue not runnen in veyn, nether Y haue trauelid in veyn. 17 But thouy Y be offrid or slayn on the sacrifice and seruyce of youre feith, Y haue ioye, and Y thanke you alle. 18 And the same thing haue ye ioye, and thanke ye me. 19 And Y hope in the Lord Jhesu, that Y schal sende Tymothe soone to you, that Y be of good coumfort, whanne tho thingis ben knowun that ben aboute you. 20 For Y haue no man so of o wille, that is bisi for you with clene affeccoun. 21 For alle men seken tho thingis that ben her owne, not tho that ben of Crist Jhesu. 22 But knowe ye the asaie of hym, for as a sone to the fadir he hath seruyd with me in the gospel. 23 Therfor Y hope that Y schal sende hym to you, anon as Y se what thingis ben aboute me. 24 And Y triste in the Lord, that also my silf schal come to you soone. 25 And Y gesside it nedeful to sende to you Epafrodite, my brother and euene worchere, and myn euene knyyt, but youre apostle, and the mynystre of my nede. 26 For he desiride you alle, and he was sorewful, therfor that ye herden that he was sijk. 27 For he was sijk to the deth, but God hadde merci on him; and not oneli on hym, but also on me, lest Y hadde heuynesse on heuynesse. 28 Therfor more hastili Y sente hym, that whanne ye han seyn hym, ye haue ioye eft, and Y be withouten heuynesse. 29 Therfor resseyue ye hym with al ioye in the Lord, and haue ye suche with al onour. 30 For the werk of Crist he wente to deth, yuynge his lijf, that he schulde fulfillle that that failide of you anentis my seruyce.

3 Hennis forward, my britheren, haue ye ioye in the Lord. To write to you the same thingis, to me it is not slow, and to you it is necessarie. 2 Se ye houndis, se ye yuele werk men, se ye dyuysoun. 3 For we ben circumcisioun, which bi spirit seruen to God, and glorien in Crist Jhesu, and han not trist in the fleisch,

4 thouy Y haue trust, yhe, in the fleisch. If ony othere man is seyn to triste in the fleisch, 5 Y more, that was circumcidid in the eiytht dai, of the kyn of Israel, of the lynage of Beniamyn, an Ebrew of Ebrewis, bi the lawe a Farisee, 6 bi loue pursuyng the chirche of God, bi riytwisnesse that is in the lawe lyuyng with out playnt. 7 But whiche thingis weren to me wynnyngis, Y haue demed these apeyrnyngis for Crist. 8 Netheles Y gesse alle thingis to be peirement for the cleer science of Jhesu Crist my Lord. For whom Y made alle thingis peyrement, and Y deme as drit, 9 that Y wyne Crist, and that Y be foundun in hym, not hauyng my riytwisnesse that is of the lawe, but that that is of the feith of Crist Jhesu, that is of God the riytwisnesse in feith, 10 to knowe hym, and the vertu of his risyng ayen, and the felouschipe of his passioun, and be maad lijk to his deeth, 11 if on any maner Y come to the resurreccioun that is fro deth. 12 Not that now Y haue takun, or now am parfit; but Y sue, if in any maner Y comprehende, in which thing also Y am comprehendid of Crist Jhesu. 13 Bretheren, Y deme me not that Y haue comprehendid; but o thing, Y foryete tho thingis that ben bihyndis, and stretche forth my silf to tho thingis that ben before, 14 and pursue to the ordeyned mede of the hiy clepyng of God in Crist Jhesu. 15 Therfor who euere we ben perfit, feelee we this thing. And if ye vndurston den in othere manere ony thing, this thing God schal schewe to you. 16 Netheles to what thing we han comun, that we vndurston den the same thing, and that we perfilti dwelle in the same reule. 17 Britheren, be ye my foleweris, and weyte ye hem that walken so, as ye han oure fourme. 18 For many walken, whiche Y haue seid ofte to you, but now Y wepinge seie, the enemyes of Cristis cros, 19 who ende is deth, whos god is the wombe, and the glorie in confusioun of hem, that saueren ertheli thingis. 20 But oure lyuyng is in heuenes; fro whennus also we abiden the sauour oure Lord Jhesu Crist, 21 which schal reforme the bodi of oure mekenesse, that is maad lijk to the bodi of his clerenesse, bi the worching bi which he mai also make alle thingis suget to hym.

4 Therfor, my britheren most dereworthe and most desirid, my ioye and my coroun, so stonde ye in the Lord, most dere britheren. 2 Y preye Eucodiam, and biseche Synticem, to vndurstonde the same thing in the Lord. 3 Also Y preye and thee, german felow, helpe thou the ilke wymmen that traueliden with me in the gospel, with Clement and othere myn helperis, whos names ben in the book of lijf. 4 Ioye ye in the Lord euere more; eft Y seie, ioye ye. 5 Be youre pacyence knowun to alle men; the Lord is niy. 6 Be ye nothing bisi, but in al preyer and biseching, with doying of thankyngis, be youre axyngis knowun at God. 7 And the pees of God, that passith al wit, kepe youre hertis and vndurstandingis in Crist Jhesu. 8 Fro hennus forth, britheren, what euere thingis ben sothe, what euere thingis chast, what euere thingis iust, what euere thingis hooli, what euere thingis able to be louyd, what euere thingis of good fame, if ony vertu, if ony preising of discipline, thenke ye these thingis, 9 that also ye han lerud, and take, and heed, and seyn in me. Do ye these thingis, and God of pees schal be with you. 10 But Y ioyede greetli in the Lord, that sum tyme aftirward ye floureden ayen to feelee for me, as also ye feeliden. But ye weren ocupied, Y seie not as for nede, 11 for Y haue lerud to be sufficient in whiche thingis Y am. 12 And Y can also be lowid, Y can also haue plentee. Euery where and in alle thingis Y am tauyt to be fillid, and to hungur, and to abounde, and to suffre myseiste. 13 Y may alle thingis in hym that coumfortith me. 14 Netheles ye han doon wel, comynyng to my tribulacioun. 15 For and ye, Filipensis, witen, that in the bigynnyng of the gospel, whanne Y wente forth fro Macedonye, no chirche comynede with me in resoun of thing youun and takun, but ye aloone. 16 Whiche senten to Tessalonyk onys and twies also in to vss to me. 17 Not for Y seke yifte, but Y requyre fruyt aboundinge in youre resoun. 18 For Y haue alle thingis, and abounde; Y am fillid with tho thingis takun of Epafrodite, whiche ye senten in to the odour of swetnesse, a couenable sacrifice, plesyng to God. 19 And my God fil alle youre desire, by hise richessis in glorie in Crist Jhesu. 20 But to God and oure fadir be glorie in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 21 Amen. Grete ye wel euery hooli man in Crist Jhesu. 22 Tho britheren that ben with me, greten you wel. Alle hooli men greten you wel, moost sotheli thei that ben of the emperouris hous. 23 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with youre spirit. Amen.

Colossians

1 Poul, apostle of `Crist Jhesu, bi the wille of God, 2 and Tymothe, brother, to hem that ben at Colose, hooli and faithful britheren in Crist Jhesu, 3 grace and pees to you of God oure fadir and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. We don thankynge to God, and to the fader of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, euermore preiynge for you, herynge youre feith in Crist Jhesu, 4 and the loue that ye han to alle hooli men, 5 for the hope that is kept to you in heuenes. Which ye herden in the word of treuthe of the gospel, 6 that cam to you, as also it is in al the world, and makith fruyt, and wexith, as in you, fro that dai in which ye herden and knewen the grace of God in treuthe. 7 As ye lerneden of Epafras, oure felawe most dereworthe, which is a trewe mynystre of Jhesu Crist for you; 8 which also schewide to vs youre louyng in spirit. 9 Therfor we fro the dai in which we herden, ceessen not to preye for you, and to axe, that ye be fillid with the knowing of his wille in al wisdom and goostli vndurstondyng; 10 that ye walke worthili to God plesynge bi alle thingis, and make fruyt in al good werk, and wexe in the science of God, 11 and ben coumfortid in al vertu bi the miyt of his clerenesse, in al pacience and long abiding with ioye, 12 that ye do thankynge to God and to the fadir, which made you worthi in to the part of eritage of hooli men in liyt. 13 Which deliyueride vs fro the power of derknessis, and translaide in to the kyngdom of the sone of his louyng, 14 in whom we han ayenbyng and remysioun of synnes. 15 Which is the ymage of God vnuysible, the first bigetun of ech creature. 16 For in hym alle thingis ben maad, in heuenes and in erthe, visible and vnuysible, ether trones, ether dominaciouns, ether princehodes, ethir poweris, alle thingis ben maad of nouyt bi hym, and in hym, 17 and he is bifor alle, and alle thingis ben in hym. 18 And he is heed of the bodi of the chirche; which is the bigynnyng and the firste bigetun of deede men, that he holde the firste dignyte in alle thingis. 19 For in hym it pleside al plente to inhabite, 20 and bi hym alle thingis to be recounselid in to hym, and made pees bi the blood of his cros, tho thingis that ben in erthis, ether that ben in heuenes. 21 And whanne ye weren sumtyme aliened, and enemyes bi wit in yuele werkis, 22 now he hath recounselid you in the bodi of his fleisch bi deth, to haue you hooli, and vnwemmyd, and with out reproof bifor hym. 23 If netheles ye dwellen in the feith, foundid, and stable, and vnmouable fro the hope of the gospel that ye han herd, which is prechid in al creature that is vndur heuene. Of which Y Poul am maad mynystre, 24 and now Y haue ioye in passioun for you, and Y fille tho thingis that failen of the passiouns of Crist in my fleisch, for his bodi, that is the chirche. 25 Of which Y Poul am maad mynystre bi the dispensacioun of God, that is youun to me in you, that Y fille the word of God, 26 the priuete, that was hid fro worldis and generaciouns. But now it is schewid to his seyntis, (aiñon g165) 27 to whiche God wold make knowun the richessis of the glorie of this sacrament in hethene men, which is Crist in you, the hope of glorie. 28 Whom we schewen, repreuyng ech man, and techinge `ech man in al wisdom, that we offre ech man perfit in Crist Jhesu. 29 In which thing also Y trauele in stryuyng bi the worching of hym, that he worchith in me in vertu.

2 But Y wole that ye wite, what bisynesse Y haue for you, and for hem that ben at Laodice, and whiche euere saien not my face in fleisch, 2 that her hertis ben coumfortid, and thei ben tauyt in charite, in to alle the richessis of the plente of the vndurstondyng, in to the knowyng of mysterie of God, the fadir of Jhesu Crist, 3 in whom alle the tresouris of wisdom and of science ben hid. 4 For this thing Y seie, that no man disseyue you in heiythe of wordis. 5 For thouy Y be absent in bodi, bi spirit Y am with you, ioiynge and seyngge youre ordre and the sadnesse of youre bileue that is in Crist. 6 Therfor as ye han takun Jhesu Crist oure Lord, 7 walke ye in hym, and be ye rootid and bieldid aboue in hym, and confermyd in the bileue, as ye han lerud, aboundinge in hym in doyng of thankynge. 8 Se ye that no man disseyue you bi filosofie and veyn fallace, affir the tradicioun of men, affir the elementis of the world, and not affir Crist. 9 For in hym dwellith bodilich al the fulnesse of the Godhed. 10 And ye ben fillid in hym, that is heed of al principat and power. 11 In whom also ye ben circumcidid in circumcisioun not maad with hoond, in dispoyling of the bodi of fleisch, but in circumcisioun of Crist; 12 and ye ben bried togidere with hym in baptim, in whom also ye han rise ayen bi feith of the worching of God, that reiseide hym fro deth. 13 And whanne ye weren deed in giltis, and in the prepucie of youre fleisch, he quikenyde togidere you with hym; 14 foryuyng to you alle giltis, doyng awei that writing of decre that was ayens vs, that was contrarie to vs; and he took awei that fro the myddil, pitchinge it on the cros; 15 and he spuylide principatis and poweris, and ledde out tristili, opynli ouercomynge hem in hym silf. 16 Therfor no man iuge you in mete, or in drink, or in part of feeste dai, or of neomenye, 17 or of sabatis, whiche ben schadewe of thingis to comynge; for the bodi is of Crist. 18 No man disseyue you, willynge to teche in mekenesse, and religioun of angelis, tho thingis whiche he hath not seyn, walkinge veynli, bolnyd with wit of his fleisch, 19 and not holdyng the heed, of which al the bodi, bi boondis and ioynynge togidere vndur mynystrid and maad, wexith in to encreessing of God. 20 For if ye ben deed with Crist fro the elementis of this world, what yit as men lyuyng to the world demen ye? 21 That ye touche not, nether taaste, 22 nether trete with hoondis tho thingis, whiche alle ben in to deth bi the ilke vss, affir the comaundementis and the techingis of men; 23 whiche han a resoun of wisdom in veyn religioun and mekenesse, and not to spare the bodi, not in any onour to the fulfillyng of the fleisch.

3 Therfor if ye han risun togidere with Crist, seke ye tho thingis that ben aboue, where Crist is sittynge in the riythalf of God. 2 Sauere ye tho thingis, that ben aboue, not tho that ben on the erthe. 3 For ye ben deed, and youre lijf is hid with Crist in God. 4 For whanne Crist schal appere, youre lijf, thanne also ye schulen appere with hym in glorie. 5 Therfor sle ye youre membris, whiche ben on the erthe, fornycacioun, vnclennesse, letcherie, yuel coueitise, and aueryse, which is seruyse of mawmetis; 6 for whiche thingis the wraththe of God cam on the sones of vnbeleue; 7 in whiche also ye walkiden sum tyme, whanne ye lyueden in hem. 8 But now putte ye awei alle thingis, wraththe, indignacioun, malice, blasfemye and foule word of youre mouth. 9 Nyle ye lie togidere; spuyle ye you fro the elde man with his dedes, and clothe ye the newe man, 10 that is maad newe ayen in to the knowing of God, aftir the ymage of hym that made hym; 11 where is not male and female, hethene man and Jew, circumcisioun and prepucie, barbarus and Scita, bonde man and fre man, but alle thingis and in alle thingis Crist. 12 Therfor ye, as the chosun of God, hooli and louyd, clothe you with the entrailis of merci, benygnyte, and mekenesse, temperaunce, pacience; 13 and support ye echon other, and foryyue to you silf, if ony man ayens ony hath a querele; as the Lord foryaf to you, so also ye. 14 And vpon alle these thingis haue ye charite, that is the boond of perfeccioun. 15 And the pees of Crist enioye in youre hertis, in which ye ben clepid in o bodi, and be ye kynde. 16 The word of Crist dwelle in you plenteuousli, in al wisdom; and teche and moneste you silf in salmes, and ympnes, and spiritual songis, in grace synginge in youre hertis to the Lord. 17 Al thing, what euere thing ye don, in word or in dede, alle thingis in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, doynge thankngis to God and to the fadir bi hym. 18 Wymmen, be ye sugetis to youre hosebondis, as it bihoueth in the Lord. 19 Men, loue ye youre wyues, and nyle ye be bittere to hem. 20 Sones, obeie ye to youre fadir and modir bi alle thingis; for this is wel plesinge in the Lord. 21 Fadris, nyle ye terre youre sones to indignacioun, that thei be not maad feble hertid. 22 Seruauntis, obeie ye bi alle thingis to fleischli lordis, not seruynge at iye, as plesynge to men, but in symplenesse of herte, dredinge the Lord. 23 What euere ye doen, worche ye of wille, as to the Lord and not to men; 24 witinge that of the Lord ye schulen take yelding of eritage. Serue ye to the Lord Crist. 25 For he that doith iniurie, schal resseyue that that he dide yuele; and acceptacioun of persoones is not anentis God.

4 Lordis, yyue ye to seruauntis that that is iust and euene, witinge that also ye han a Lord in heuene. 2 Be ye bisi in preier, and wake in it, in doynge of thankngis; 3 and preie ech for othere, and for vs, that God opene to vs the dore of word, to speke the misterie of Crist; 4 for which also Y am boundun, that Y schewe it, so as it bihoueth me to speke. 5 Walke ye in wisdom to hem that ben with outhen forth, ayenbiynge tyme. 6 Your word be sauered in salt eueremore in grace; that ye wite, hou it bihoueth you to answeere to ech man. 7 Titicus, most dere brother, and feithful mynyster, and my felowe in the Lord, schal make alle thingis knowun to you, that ben aboute me. 8 Whom Y sente to you to this same thing, that he knowe what thingis ben aboute you, and coumforte youre hertis, with Onesyme, 9 most dere and feithful brother, which is of you; whiche schulen make alle thingis that ben doon here, knowun to you. 10 Aristark, prisoner with me, gretith you wel, and Mark, the cosyn of Barnabas, of whom ye han take maundementis; if he come to you, resseyue ye hym; 11 and Jhesus, that is seid Just; whiche ben of circumcisioun; thei aloone ben myn helperis in the kingdom of God, that weren to me in solace. 12 Epafra, that is of you, the seruaunt of Jhesu Crist, gretith you wel; euere bisi for you in preyeris, that ye stonde perfit and ful in al the wille of God. 13 And Y bere witnessyng to hym, that he hath myche trauel for you, and for hem that ben at Loadice, and that ben at Ierapolim. 14 Luk, the leche most dere, and Demas, greten you wel. 15 Grete ye wel the britheren that ben at Loadice, and the womman Nynfam, and the chirche that is in hir hous. 16 And whanne this pistle is red among you, do ye, that it be red in the chirche of Loadicensis; and rede ye that pistle that is of Loadicensis. 17 And seie ye to Archippus, Se the mynysterie, that thou hast takun in the Lord, that thou fille it. 18 My salutacioun, bi the hoond of Poul. Be ye mynde of my boondis. The grace of the Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

1 Poul, and Siluan, and Tymothe, to the chirche of Tessalonicensis, in God the fadir, 2 and in the Lord Jhesu Crist, grace and pees to you. We doon thankyngis to God euere more for alle you, and we maken mynde of you in oure preyeris withouten ceessyng; 3 hauynge mynde of the werk of youre feith, and trauel, and charite, and abyding of the hope of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bifor God and oure fadir. 4 Ye louyde britheren of God, we witinge youre chesing; 5 for oure gospel was not at you in word oneli, but also in vertu, and in the Hooli Goost, and in myche plente; as ye witen, whiche we weren among you for you; 6 and ye ben maad foleweris of vs, and of the Lord, resseyuynge the word in myche tribulacioun, with ioye of the Hooli Goost; 7 so that ye ben maad ensauple to alle men that bileuen, in Macedonye and in Acaie. 8 For of you the word of the Lord is pupplischid, not oneli in Macedonye and Acaie, but youre feith that is to God, in ech place is gon forth; so that it is not nede to vs to speke any thing. 9 For thei schewen of you, what maner entre we hadden to you, and hou ye ben conuertid to God fro maumettis, to serue to the lyyunge God and veri; and to abide his sone fro heuenes, 10 whom he reiseid fro deth, the Lord Jhesu, that delyuerede us fro wraththe to comynge.

2 For, britheren, ye witen oure entre to you, for it was not veyn; 2 but first we suffriden, and weren punyschid with wrongis, as ye witen in Filippis, and hadden trust in oure Lord, to speke to you the gospel of God in myche bisynesse. 3 And oure exortacioun is not of errour, nether of vnclennesse, nether in gile, 4 but as we ben preued of God, that the gospel of God schulde be takun to vs, so we speken; not as plesynge to men, but to God that preueth oure hertis. 5 For nether we weren any tyme in word of glosing, as ye witen, nether in occasioun of auerise; God is wittenesse; nether sekinge glorie of men, 6 nether of you, 7 nether of othere, whanne we, as Cristis apostlis, miyten haue be in charge to you. But we weren maad litle in the myddil of you, as if a nursche fostre hir sones; 8 so we desiringe you with greet loue, wolden haue bitake to you, not oneli the gospel of God, but also oure lyues, for ye ben maad most dereworthe to vs. 9 For, britheren, ye ben myndeiful of oure trauel and werynesse; we worchiden nytt and day, that we schulden not greue any of you, and prechiden to you the euangelie of God. 10 God and ye ben witnessis, hou holili, and iustli, and with outen pleynt, we weren to you that bileueden. 11 As ye witen, hou we preyeden you, and coumfortiden ech of you, as the fadir hise sones, 12 and we han witnessid, that ye schulden go worthili to God, that clepide you in to his kingdom and glorie. 13 Therfor we doon thankinis to God with outen ceessyng. For whanne ye hadden take of vs the word `of the helyng of God, ye token it not as the word of men, but as `it is verili, the word of God, that worchith in you that han bileued. 14 For, britheren, ye ben maad foleweris of the chirchis of God, that ben in Jude, in Crist Jhesu, for ye han suffrid the same thingis of youre euene lynagis, as thei of the Jewis. 15 Whiche slown bothe the Lord Jhesu and the profetis, and pursueden vs, and thei plesen not to God, and thei ben aduersaries to alle men; 16 forbeydinge vs to speke to hethene men, that thei be maad saaf, that thei fille her synnes euere more; for the wraththe of God cam on hem in to the ende. 17 And, britheren, we desolat fro you for a tyme, bi mouth and in biholding, but not in herte, han hiyed more plenteuousli to se youre face with greet desir. 18 For we wolden come to you, yhe, Y Poul, onys and eftsoone, but Sathanas lettide vs. 19 For whi what is oure hope, or ioye, or coroun of glorie? Whether ye ben not bifore oure Lord Jhesu Crist in his comyng? 20 For ye ben oure glorie and ioye.

3 For which thing we suffriden no lengere, and it pleside to vs to dwelle aloone at Atenys; 2 and we senten Tymothe, oure brother, and mynystre of God in the euangelie of Crist, to you to be confermyd, and to be tauyt for youre feith, 3 that no man be mouyd in these tribulaciouns. For ye silf witen, that in this thing we ben set. 4 For whanne we weren at you, we biforseiden to you, that we schulden suffre tribulaciouns; as it is don, and ye witen. 5 Therfor Y Poul, no lenger abidinge, sente to knowe youre feith, lest perauenture he that temptith tempte you, and youre trauel be maad veyn. 6 But now, whanne Tymothe schal come to vs fro you, and telle to vs youre feith and charite, and that ye han good mynde of vs, euere desyringe to se vs, as we also you; 7 therfor, britheren, we ben coumfortid in you, in al oure nede and tribulacioun, bi youre feith. 8 For now we lyuen, if ye stonden in the Lord. 9 For what doyng of thankinis moun we yelde to God for you, in al ioye, in which we ioyen for you bifor oure Lord? 10 nytt and dai more plenteuousli preiynge, that we se youre face, and fulfillle tho thingis that failen to youre feith. 11 But God hym silf and oure fadir, and the Lord Jhesu Crist, dresse oure weye to you. 12 And the Lord multiplie you, and make youre charite to be plenteouse of ech to othere, and in to alle men, as also we in you; 13 that youre hertis ben confermyd with outen pleynt in holynesse, bifor God and oure fadir, in the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist with alle hise seyntis. Amen.

4 Therfor, britheren, fro hennus forward we preien you, and bisechen in the Lord Jhesu, that as ye han resseyued of vs, hou it bihoueth you to go and to plese God, so walke ye, that ye abounde the more. 2 For ye witen what comaundementis Y haue youun to you bi the Lord Jhesu. 3 For this is the wille of God, youre holynesse, that ye absteyne you fro fornicacioun. 4 That ech of you kunne welde his vessel in holynesse, and onour; 5 not in passioun of lust, as hethene men that knowen not God. 6 And that no man ouergo, nethir disseyue his brothir in chaffaring. For the Lord is venger of alle these thingis, as we biforseiden to you, and han witnessid. 7 For God clepide not vs in to vnclennesse, but in to holynesse. 8 Therfor he that dispisith these thingis, dispisith not man, but God, that also yaf his holi spirit in vs. 9 But of the charite of britherhed we hadden no nede to write to you; ye silf han lerud of God, that ye loue togidere; 10 for ye don that in to alle britheren in al Macedonye. And, britheren, we preyen you, that ye abounde more; and taken kepe, that ye be quyet; 11 and that ye do youre nede, and `ye worche with youre hoondis, as we han comaundid to you; 12 and that ye wandre onestli to hem that ben with outforth, and that of no mannus ye desir any thing. 13 For, britheren, we wolen not, that ye vnknowe of men that dien, that ye be not soreful, as othere that han not hope. 14 For if we bileuen, that Jhesu was deed, and roos ayen, so God schal lede with hym hem that ben deed bi Jhesu. 15 And we seien this thing to you in the word of the Lord, that we that lyuen, that ben left in the comyng of the Lord, schulen not come bifor hem that ben deed. 16 For the Lord hym silf schal come doun fro heuene, in the comaundement, and in the vois of an archaungel, and in the trumpe of God; and the deed men that ben in Crist, schulen rise ayen first. 17 Afterward we that lyuen, that ben left, schulen be rauyschid togidere with hem in cloudis, metinge Crist `in to the eir; and so euere more we schulen be with the Lord. 18 Therfor be ye coumfortid togidere in these wordis.

5 But, britheren, of tymes and momentis ye neden not that Y write to you. 2 For ye silf witen diligentli, that the dai of the Lord schal come, as a theef in the niyt. 3 For whanne thei schulen seie pees is, and sikirnesse, thanne sudeyn deth schal come on hem, as sorewe to a womman that is with child, and thei schulen not scape. 4 But, britheren, ye ben not in derknessis, that the ilke dai as a theef catche you. 5 For alle ye ben the sones of liyt, and sones of dai; we ben not of niyt, nether of derknessis. 6 Therfor slepe we not as othere; but wake we, and be we sobre. 7 For thei that slepen, slepen in the niyt, and thei that ben drunkun, ben drunkun in the niyt. 8 But we that ben of the dai, ben sobre, clothid in the haburion of feith and of charite, and in the helme of hope of heelthe. 9 For God puttide not vs in to wraththe, but in to the purchasing of heelthe bi oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that was deed for vs; 10 that whether we waken, whether we slepen, we lyue togidere with him. 11 For which thing comforte ye togidere, and edefie ye ech other, as ye doon. 12 And, britheren, we preien you, that ye knowen hem that trauelen among you, and ben souereyns to you in the Lord, and techen you, 13 that ye han hem more aboundantli in charyte; and for the werk of hem, haue ye pees with hem. 14 And, britheren, we preien you, repreue ye vnpesible men. Coumforte ye men of lital herte, resseyue ye sijke men, be ye pacient to alle men. 15 Se ye, that no man yelde yuel for yuel to ony man; but euere more sue ye that that is good, ech to othere and to alle men. 16 Euere more ioye ye; without ceessing preye ye; 17 in alle thingis do ye thankyngis. 18 For this is the wille of God in Crist Jhesu, in alle you. 19 Nyle ye quenche the spirit; 20 nyle ye dispise prophecies. 21 But preue ye alle thingis, and holde ye that thing that is good. 22 Absteyne you fro al yuel spice. 23 And God hym silf of pees make you hooli bi alle thingis, that youre spirit be kept hool, and soule, and bodi, without pleynt, in the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 24 God is trewe, that clepide you, which also schal do. 25 Britheren, preye ye for vs. 26 Grete ye wel alle britheren in hooli cos. 27 Y coniure you bi the Lord, that this pistle be red to alle hooli britheren. 28 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with you. Amen.

2 But, britheren, we preien you bi the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and of oure congregacioun in to the same comyng, 2 that ye be not moyud soone fro youre witt, nether be aferd, nether bi spirit, nether bi word, nether bi epistle as sent bi vs, as if the dai of the Lord be nyy. 3 No man disseyue you in any manere. For but dissencioun come first, and the man of synne be schewid, the sonne of perdicoun, 4 that is aduersarie, and is enhaunsid ouer al thing that is seid God, or that is worschipid, so that he sitte in the temple of God, and schewe hym silf as if he were God. 5 Whether ye holden not, that yit whanne Y was at you, Y seide these thingis to you? 6 And now what withholdith, ye witen, that he be schewid in his tyme. 7 For the priuete of wickidnesse worchith now; oneli that he that holdith now, holde, til he be do awei. 8 And thanne thilke wickid man schal be schewid, whom the Lord Jhesu schal sle with the spirit of his mouth, and schal distrie with liytning of his comyng; 9 hym, whos comyng is bi the worching of Sathanas, in al vertu, and signes, 10 and grete wondris, false, and in al disseit of wickidnesse, to hem that perischen. For that thei resseyueden not the charite of treuthe, that thei schulden be maad saaf. 11 And therfor God schal sende to hem a worching of errour, that thei bileue to leesing, 12 that alle be demed, whiche bileueden not to treuthe, but consentiden to wickidnesse. 13 But, britheren louyd of God, we owen to do thankngis euermore to God for you, that God chees vs the firste fruytis in to heelthe, in halewing of spirit and in feith of treuthe; 14 in which also he clepide you bi oure gospel, in to geting of the glorie of oure Lord Jhesu Crist.

15 Therfor, britheren, stonde ye, and holde ye the tradiciouns, that ye han lerud, ethir bi word, ethir bi oure pistle. 16 And oure Lord Jhesu Crist him silf, and God oure fadir, which louyde vs, and yaf euerlastinge coumfort and good hope in grace, (aiōnios g166) 17 stire youre hertis, and conferme in al good werk and word.

3 Britheren, fro hennus forward preye ye for vs, that the word of God renne, and be clarified, as it is anentis you; 2 and that we be delyuered fro noyous and yuele men; for feith is not of alle men. 3 But the Lord is trewe, that schal conferme you, and schal kepe fro yuel. 4 And, britheren, we trusten of you in the Lord, for what euere thingis we comaunden to you, bothe ye don and schulen do. 5 And the Lord dresse youre hertis, in the charite of God, and in the pacience of Crist. 6 But, britheren, we denouncen to you in the name of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that ye withdrawe you from ech brother that wandrith out of ordre, and not afir the techyng, that thei resseyueden of vs. 7 For ye silf witen, hou it bihoueth to sue vs. For we weren not vnpesible among you, 8 nethir with outen oure owne trauel we eeten breed of ony man, but in trauel and werynesse worchiden niyt and dai, that we greuyden noon of you. 9 Not as we hadden not power, but that we schulden yyue vs silf ensauple to you to sue vs. 10 For also whanne we weren among you, we denounsiden this thing to you, that if ony man wole not worche, nethir ete he. 11 For we han herd that summe among you goon in reste, and no thing worchen, but don curiosli. 12 But we denouncen to hem that ben suche men, and bisechen in the Lord Jhesu Crist, that thei worchen with silence, and ete her owne breed. 13 But nyle ye, britheren, faile wel doynge. 14 That if ony man obeie not to oure word bi epistle, marke ye him, and comyne ye not with hym, that he be schamed; 15 and nyle ye gesse hym as an enemye, but repreue ye hym as a brother. And God hym silf of pees yyue to you euerlastinge pees in al place. 16 The Lord be with you alle. 17 My salutacioun bi the hoond of Poul; which signe in ech epistle Y write thus. 18 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with alle you. Amen.

1 Poul, apostle `of Jhesu Crist, bi the comaundement of God oure sauour, and of Jhesu Crist oure hope, 2 to Tymothe, bilouyd sone in the feith, grace and merci and pees, of God the fadir, and of Jhesu Crist, oure Lord. 3 As Y preyede thee, that thou schulddest dwelle at Effesi, whanne Y wente into Macedonye, that thou schuldest denounce to summe men, that thei schulden not teche othere weie, 4 nether yyue tent to fablis and genologies that ben vncerteyn, whiche yyuen questionys, more than edificacioun of God, that is in the feith. 5 For the ende of comaundement is charite of clene herte, and good conscience, and of feith not feyned. 6 Fro whiche thingis sum men han errid, and ben turned in to veyn speche; 7 and willith to be techers of the lawe, and vndurstonden not what thingis thei speken, nether of what thingis thei affermen. 8 And we witen that the lawe is good, if any man vse it lawefulli; 9 and witinge this thing, that the lawe is not set to a iust man, but to vniust men and not suget, to wickid men and to synneris, to cursid men and defoulid, to sleeris of fadir, and sleeris of modir, to `men sleeris and lechouris, 10 to hem that don letcherie with men, lesingmongeris and forsworun, and if any othere thing is contrarie to the hoolsum teching, 11 that is aftir the euangelie of the glorie of blessed God, which is bitakun to me. 12 Y do thankinis to hym, that coumfortide me in Crist Jhesu oure Lord, for he gesside me feithful, and putte me in mynystrie, 13 that first was a blasfeme, and a pursuere, and ful of wrongis. But Y haue getun the merci of God, for Y vnknowinge dide in vnbileue. 14 But the grace of oure Lord ouer aboundide, with feith and loue that is in Crist Jhesu. 15 A trewe word and worthi al resseyuyng, for Crist Jhesu cam in to this world to make synful men saaf, of whiche Y am the firste. 16 But therfor Y haue getun merci, that Crist Jhesu schulde schewe in me first al pacience, to the enfourmyng of hem that schulen bileue to hym in to euerlastinge lijf. (aïōnios g166) 17 And to the king of worldis, vndeedi and vnvisyble God aloone, be onour and glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aïōn g165) 18 I bitake this comaundement to thee, thou sone Tymothe, after the prophecies that han be hertofore in thee, that thou traueile in hem a good trauel, 19 hauynge feith and good conscience, which summen casten awei, and perischiden aboute the feith. 20 Of whiche is Ymeneus and Alisaundre, which Y bitook to Sathanas, that thei lerne `to not blasfeme.

2 Therfor Y biseche first of alle thingis, that bisechingis, preieris, axyngis, doyngis of thankyngis, ben maad for alle men, 2 for kingis and alle that ben set in hiynesse, that we leden a quyet and a pesible lijf, in al pite and chastite. 3 For this thing is good and acceptid bifor God, 4 oure sauour, that wole that alle men ben maad saaf, and that thei come to the knowyng of treuthe. 5 For o God and a mediatour is of God and of men, a man Crist Jhesus, 6 that yaf him silf redempcioun for alle men. Whos witnessing is confermyd in his tymes; 7 in which Y am set a prechour and an apostle. For Y seye treuthe, and Y lie not, that am a techere of hethene men in feith and in treuthe. 8 Therfor Y wole, that men preye in al place, liftinge vp clene hondis with outen wraththe and strif. 9 Also wymmen in couenable abite, with shamefastnesse and sobrenesse araiynge hem silf, not in writhun heeris, ethir in gold, ethir peerlis, ethir precieuse cloth; but that that bicometh wymmen, 10 biheetinge pite bi good werkis. 11 A womman lerne in silence, with al subieccioun. 12 But Y suffre not a womman to teche, nether to haue lordschip on the hosebonde, but to be in silence. 13 For Adam was first formed, aftirward Eue; 14 and Adam was not disseyued, but the womman was disseyued, in breking of the lawe. 15 But sche schal be sauyd bi generacioun of children, if sche dwellith perfittli in feith, and loue, and hoolynesse, with sobrenesse.

3 A feithful word. If any man desirith a bishopriche, he desirith a good werk. 2 Therfor it bihoueth a byschop to be with out reproof, the hosebonde of o wijf, sobre, prudent, chast, vertewous, holdinge hospitalite, a techere; 3 not youun myche to wyn, not a smyttere, but temperat, not ful of chiding, not coueitouse, wel reulinge his hous, 4 and haue sonys suget with al chastite; 5 for if any man kan not gouerne his house, hou schal he haue diligence of the chirche of God? not new conuertid to the feith, 6 lest he be borun vp in to pride, and falle in to doom of the deuel. 7 For it bihoueth hym to haue also good witnessing of hem that ben with outforth, that he falle not in to reproof, and in to the snare of the deuel. 8 Also it bihoueth dekenes to be chast, not double tungid, not youun myche to wyn, not suyng fowl wynnyng; 9 that han the mysterie of feith in clene conscience. 10 But be thei preued first, and mynystre so, hauynge no cryme. 11 Also it bihoueth wymmen to be chast, not bachtinge, sobre, feithful in alle thingis. 12 Dekenys be hosebondis of o wijf; whiche gouerne wel her sonys and her housis. 13 For thei that mynystren wel, schulen gete a good degre to hem silf, and myche triste in the feith, that is in Crist Jhesu. 14 Sone Tymothe, Y write to thee these thingis, hopinge that Y schal come soon to thee; 15 but if Y tarie, that thou wite, hou it bihoueth thee to lye in the hous of God, that is the chirche of luyynge God, a pilere and sadnesse of treuthe. 16 And opynli it is a greet sacrament of pitee, that thing that was schewid in fleisch, it is iustified in spirit, it apperid to aungels, it is prechid to hethene men, it is bileuyd in the world, it is takun vp in glorie.

4 But the spirit seith opynli, that in the laste tymes summen schulen departe fro the feith, yyuyng tent to spiritis of error, and to techingis of deuelis; that speken leeing in ipocrisie, 2 and haue her conscience corrupt, 3 forbedinge to be weddid, to abstayne fro metis, whiche God made to take with doying of thankinis, to feithful men, and hem that han knowe the treuthe. 4 For ech creature of God is good, and no thing is to be cast awei, which is takun with doying of thankyngis; 5 for it is halebud bi the word of God, and bi preyer. 6 Thou puttyng forth these thingis to britheren, schalt be a good mynystre of Crist Jhesu; nurschid with wordis of feith and of good doctryne, which thou hast gete. 7 But eschewe thou vncouenable fablis, and elde wymmenis fablis; haunte thi silf to pitee. 8 For bodili exercitation is profitable to litle thing; but pitee is profitable to alle thingis, that hath a biheest of lijf that now is, and that is to come. 9 A trewe word, and worthi al acceptacioun. 10 And in this thing we trauelen, and ben cursid, for we hopen in lyuyng God, that is sauour of alle men, moost of faithful men. 11 Comaunde thou this thing, and teche. 12 No man dispise thi yongthe, but be thou ensauple of faithful men in word, in lyuyng, in charite, in feith, in chastite. 13 Tyl Y come, take tent to redyng, to exortacioun and teching. 14 Nyle thou lital charge the grace which is in thee, that is youun to thee bi profecie, with putting on of the hondis of preesthod. 15 Thenke thou these thingis, in these be thou, that thi profitig be schewid to alle men. 16 Take tent to thi silf and to doctryn; be bisi in hem. For thou doynge these thingis, schalt `make bothe thi silf saaf, and hem that heren thee.

5 Blame thou not an eldere man, but biseche as a fadir, yonge men as britheren; elde wymmen as modris, 2 yonge wymmen as sistris, in al chastite. 3 Honoure thou widewis, that ben very widewis. 4 But if ony widewe hath children of sones, lerne sche first to gouerne her hous, and quyte to fadir and modir; for this thing is acceptid bifor God. 5 And sche that is a widewe verili, and desolate, hope in to God, and be bisy in bisechingis and preieris nytt and dai. 6 For sche that is lyuyng in delicis, is deed. 7 And comaunde thou this thing, that thei be withouten reproof. 8 For if ony man hath not cure of his owne, and most of hise household men, he hath denyed the feith, and is worse than an vnfaithful man. 9 A widewe be chosun not lesse than sixti year, that was wijf of oon hosebonde, 10 and hath witnessing in good werkis, if sche nurschede children, if sche resseyuede pore men to herbore, if sche hath waischun the feet of hooli men, if sche mynstride to men that suffriden tribulacioun, if sche folewide al good werk. 11 But eschewe thou yongere widewis; for whanne thei han do letcherie, thei wolen be weddid in Crist, 12 hauynge dampnacioun, for thei han maad voide the firste feith. 13 Also thei idil lerne to go aboute housis, not oneli ydel, but ful of wordis and curiouse, spekyng thingis that bihoueth not. 14 Therfor Y wole, that yongere widewis be weddid, and bringe forth children, and ben hosewyues, to yyue noon occasioun to the aduersarie, bi cause of cursid thing. 15 For now summe ben turned abak aftir Sathanas. 16 If ony faithful man hath widewis, mynystre he to hem, that the chirche be not greuyd, that it suffice to hem that ben very widewis. 17 The prestis that ben wel gouernoures, be thei had worthi to double onour; moost that that trauelen in word and teching. 18 For scripture seith, Thou schalt not bridil the mouth of the oxe threischange, and, A werk man is worthi his hire. 19 Nyle thou resseyue accusyng ayens a preest, but vndur tweyne or thre witnessis. 20 But reprove thou men that synnen bifor alle men, that also othere haue drede. 21 Y preie bifor God, and Jhesu Crist, and hise chosun aungelis, that thou kepe these thingis with oute preiudice, and do no thing in bowynge `in to the othere side. 22 Put thou hondis to no man, nether anoon comyne thou with othere mennus synnes. Kepe thi silf chast. 23 Nyle thou yit drinke watir, but vse a lital wyn, for thi stomach, and `for thin ofte fallynge infirmytees. 24 Sum mennus synnes ben opyn, bifor goynge to dom; but of summen thei comen aftir. 25 And also goode dedis ben opyn, and tho that han hem in othere maner, moun not be hid.

6 What euer seruautis ben vndur yok, deme thei her lordis worthi al onour, lest the name of the Lord and the doctryn be blasfemyd. 2 And thei that han faithful lordis, dispise hem not, for thei ben britheren; but more serue thei, for thei ben faithful and louyd, whiche ben parceneris of benefice. Teche thou these thingis, and moneste thou these thingis. 3 If ony man techith othere wise, and acordith not to the hoolsum wordis of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, and to that teching that is bi pitee, 4 he is proud, and kan no thing, but langwischith aboute questionis and struyng of wordis, of the whiche ben brouyt forth enuyes, stryues, blasfemyes, yuele suspiciouns, fyttingis of men, 5 that ben corrupt in soule, and that ben pryued for treuthe, that demen wynnyng to be pitee. 6 But a greet wynnyng is pitee, with sufficience. 7 For we brouyten in no thing in to this world, and no doute, that we moun not bere `away any thing. 8 But we hauynge foodis, and with what thingus we schulen be hiliid, be we paied with these thingis. 9 For thei that wolen be maad riche, fallen in to temptacioun, and `in to snare of the deuel, and in to many vnprofitable desiris and noyous, whiche drenchen men in to deth and perdicoun. 10 For the rote of alle yuelis is coueytise, which summen coueytinge erriden from the feith, and bisettiden hem with many sorewis. 11 But, thou, man of God, fle these thingis; but sue thou riytwisnesse, pite, feith, charite, patience, mylidenesse. 12 Stryue thou a good strijf of feith, catche euerlasting lijf, in to which thou art clepid, and hast knoulechid a good knouleching bifor many witnessis. (aiōnios g166) 13 I comaunde to thee bifor God, that quikeneth alle thingis, and bifor Crist Jhesu, that yeldide a witnessing vnder Pilat of Pounce, a good confessioun, 14 that thou kepe the comaundement with out wem, with out reproof, in to the comyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; 15 whom the blessid and aloone miyti king of kyngis and Lord of lordis schal schewe in his tymes. 16 Which aloone hath vndeedlynesse, and dwellith in liyt, to which no man may come; whom no man say, nether may se; to whom glorie, and honour, and empire be with out ende. Amen. (aiōnios g166) 17 Comaunde thou to the riche men of this world, that thei vndurstonde not hiyli, nether that thei hope in vncerteunte of richessis, but in the lyuyng God, that yyueth to vs alle thingis plenteuously to vse; (aiōn g165) 18 to do wel, to be maad riche in good werkis, liytli to yyue, to comyne, 19 to tresoure to hem silf a good fundament in to tyme to comynge, that thei catche euerlasting lijf. 20 Thou Tymothe, kepe the thing bitakun to thee, eschewynge cursid noueltees of voicis, and opynyouns of fals name of kunnyng; 21 which summen bihetinge, aboute the feith fellen down. The grace of God be with thee. Amen.

1 Poul, apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the wille of God, bi the biheest of lijf that is in Crist Jhesu, 2 to Tymothe, his moost dereworthe sone, grace, merci, and pees of God the fadir, and of Jhesu Crist, oure Lord. 3 I do thankyngis to my God, to whom Y serue for my progenytouris in clene conscience, that with outen ceessyng Y haue mynde of thee in my preyeris, 4 niyt and dai, desirynge to se thee; hauynge mynde of thi teeris, that Y be fillid with ioye. 5 And Y bithenke of that feith, that is in thee not feyned, which also dwellide firste in thin aunte Loide, and in thi modir Eunyce. And Y am certeyn, that also in thee. 6 For which cause Y moneste thee, that thou reise ayen the grace of God, that is in thee bi the setting on of myn hondis. 7 For whi God yaf not to vs the spirit of drede, but of vertu, and of loue, and of sobrenesse. 8 Therfor nyl thou schame the witnessyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, nether me, his prisoner; but trauele thou togidere in the gospel bi the vertu of God; 9 that delyueride vs, and clepide with his hooli clepyng, not after oure werkis, but bi his purpos and grace, that is youun in Crist Jhesu bfore worldli tymes; (aionios g166) 10 but now it is opyn bi the liytning of oure sauour Jhesu Crist, which destriede deth, and liytneide lijf and vncorruptioun bi the gospel. 11 In which Y am set a prechour and apostle, and maistr of hethene men. 12 For which cause also Y suffre these thingis; but Y am not confoundid. For Y woot to whom Y haue bileuyd, and Y am certeyne that he is miyti for to kepe that is take to my keping in to that dai. 13 Haue thou the fourme of hoolsum wordis, whiche thou herdist of me in feith and loue in Crist Jhesu. 14 Kepe thou the good takun to thi kepyng bi the Hooli Goost, that dwellith in vs. 15 Thou wost this, that alle that ben in Asie ben turnyd away fro me, of whiche is Figelus and Ermogenes. 16 The Lord yyue merci to the hous of Onesyforus, for ofte he refreischide me, and schamyde not my chayne. 17 But whanne he cam to Rome, he souyte me bisili, and foond. 18 The Lord yyue to hym to fynde merci of God in that dai. And hou grete thingis he mynstride to me at Effesi, thou knowist betere.

2 Therfor thou, my sone, be coumfortid in grace that is in Crist Jhesu. 2 And what thingis thou hast herd of me bi many witnessis, bitake thou these to faithful men, whiche schulen be also able to teche othere men. 3 Trauele thou as a good knytt of Crist Jhesu. 4 No man holdinge knythythod to God, wlappe hym silf with worldli nedis, that he plese to hym, to whom he hath preyed hym silf. 5 For he that fytith in a batel, schal not be corownded, but he fyte lawfuli. 6 It bihoueth an erthetiliere to resseyue first of the fruytis. 7 Vndurstonde thou what thingis Y seie. For the Lord schal yyue to thee vndurstanding in alle thingis. 8 Be thou myndeful that the Lord Jhesu Crist of the seed of Dauid hath rise ayen fro deth, 9 aftr my gospel, in which Y trauele til to boondis, as workinge yuele, but the word of God is not boundun. 10 Therfor Y suffre alle thingis for the chosun, that also thei gete the heelthe, that is in Crist Jhesu, with heuenli glorie. (aionios g166) 11 A trewe word, that if we ben deed togidere, also we schulen liue togidere; 12 if we suffren, we schulen regne togidere; if we denyen, he schal denye vs; 13 if we bileuen not, he dwellith feithful, he mai not denye hym silf. 14 Teche thou these thingis, witnessinge bfore God. Nyle thou stryue in wordis; for to no thing it is profitable, but to the subuerting of men that heren. 15 Bisili kepe to yyue thi silf a preued preisable werkman to God, with oute schame, riytli trectinge the word of treuthe. 16 But eschewe thou vnhooli and veyn spechis, for whi tho profiten myche to vnfeithfulnesse, 17 and the word of hem crepith as a canker. Of whiche Filete is, and Ymeneus, 18 whiche felden down fro the treuthe, seiynge that the rising ayen is now doon, and thei subuertiden the feith of summen. 19 But the sad foundement of God stondith, hauynge this marke, The Lord knowith whiche ben hise, and, Ech man that nameth the name of the Lord, departith fro wickidnesse. 20 But in a greet hous ben not oneli vessels of gold and of siluer, but also of tree and of erthe; and so summen ben in to onour, and summe in to dispit. 21 Therfor if ony man clensith hym silf fro these, he schal be a vessel halewid in to onour, and profitable to the Lord, redi to al good werk. 22 And fle thou desiris of yongthe, but sue thou riytwisnesse, feith, charite, pees, with hem that inwardli clepen the Lord of a clene herte. 23 And eschewe thou foltische questiouns, and without kunnyng, wytynge that tho gendren chidyngis. 24 But it bihoueth the seruauant of the Lord to chide not; but to be mylde to alle men, able to teche, 25 paciente, with temperaunce repreuyng hem that ayenstonden the treuthe, that sum tyme God yyue to hem forthenkyng, that thei knowen the treuthe, 26 and that thei rise ayen fro the snares of the deuel, of whom thei ben holdun prisoneris at his wille.

3 But wite thou this thing, that in the laste daies perelouse tymes schulen neiye, and men schulen be louynge hem silf, 2 coueitouse, hiy of bering, proude, blasfemeris, not obedient to fadir and modir, vnkynde, 3 cursid, with outen affeccioun, with out pees, false blameris, vncontynent, vnmylde, 4 with out benygnyte, traitouris, ouerthwert, bollun with proude thouytis, blynde, louteris of lustis more than of God, 5 hauynge the licknesse of pitee, but denyynge the vertu of it. And eschewe thou these men. 6 Of these thei ben that persen housis, and leden wymmen caitifs chargid with synnes, whiche ben led with dyuerse desiris, euere more lernynge, 7 and neuere perfilti comynge to the science of treuthe. 8 And as Jannes and Mambres ayenstonden Moises, so these ayenstonden treuthe, men corrupt in vndirstanding, repreuyd aboute the feith. 9 But ferthere thei schulen not profite, for the vnwisdom of hem schal be knowun to alle men, as hern was. 10 But thou hast getun my teching, ordinaunce, purposing, feith, long abiding, loue, 11 pacience, persecuciouns, passiouns, whiche weren maad to me at Antioche, at Ycony, at Listris, what maner persecuciouns Y suffride, and the Lord hath delyuered me of alle. 12 And alle men that wolen lyue feithfuli in Crist Jhesu, schulen suffre persecucioun. 13 But yuele men and disseyueris schulen encrease in to worse, errynge, and sendinge in to errour. 14 But dwelle thou in these thingis that thou hast lerud, and that ben bitakun to thee, witinge of whom thou hast lerud; 15 for thou hast knowun hooli lettris fro thi youthe, whiche moun lerne thee to heelthe, bi feith that is in Crist Jhesu. 16 For al scripture inspirid of God is profitable to teche, to repreue, to chastice, to lerne in riytwisnes, 17 that the man of God be parfit, lerud to al good werk.

4 I witnesse bfore God and Crist Jhesu, that schal deme the quike and the deed, and bi the comyng of hym, and the kyngdom of hym, 2 preche the word, be thou bisi couenabli with outen rest, repreue thou, biseche thou, blame thou in al pacience and doctryn. 3 For tyme schal be, whanne men schulen not suffre hoolsum teching, but at her desiris thei schulen gadere `togidere to hem silf maistris yitchinge to the eeris. 4 And treuli thei schulen turne awei the heryng fro treuthe, but to fablis thei schulen turne. 5 But wake thou, in alle thingis traueile thou, do the werk of an euangelist, fulfille thi seruyce, be thou sobre. 6 For Y am sacrificid now, and the tyme of my departyng is nyy. 7 Y haue stryuun a good strijf, Y haue endid the cours, Y haue kept the feith. 8 In `the tothir tyme a coroun of riytwisnesse is kept to me, which the Lord, a iust domesman, schal yelde to me in that dai; and not oneli to me, but also to these that louen his comyng. 9 Hye thou to come to me soone. 10 For Demas, louynge this world, hath forsakun me, and wente to Tessalonyk, Crescens in to Galathi, Tite in to Dalmacie; (aion g165) 11 Luk aloone is with me. Take thou Mark, and brynge with thee; for he is profitable to me in to seruyce. 12 Forsothe Y sente Titicus to Effesi. 13 The cloth which Y lefte at Troade at Carpe, whanne thou comest, bringe with thee, and the bookis, but moost parchemyne. 14 Alisaundre, the tresorer, schewide to me myche yuele; `the Lord schal yelde to hym afir his werkis. 15 Whom also thou eschewe; for he ayenstood ful greetli oure wordis. 16 In my firste defence no man helpide me, but alle forsoken me; be it not arettid to hem. 17 But the Lord helpide me, and coumfortide me, that the preching be fillid bi me, and that alle folkis here, that Y am delyueride fro the mouth of the lioun. 18 And the Lord delyueride me fro al yuel werk, and schal make me saaf in to his heuenly kingdom, to whom be glorie in to worldis of worldis. (aion g165) 19 Amen. Grete wel Prisca, and Aquila, and the hous of Oneseforus. 20 Erastus lefte at Corynthis, and Y lefte Trofymus sijk at Mylete. 21 Hiye thou to come bfore wyntir. Eubolus, and Prudent, and Lynus, and Claudia, and alle britheren, greten thee wel. 22 Oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with thi spirit. The grace of God be with you. Amen.

Titus

1 Poul, the seruaunt of God, and apostle of Jhesu Crist, bi the feith of the chosun of God, and bi the knowing of the treuthe, whiche is afir pitee, 2 in to the hope of euerlastinge lijf, which lijf God that lieth not, bihiyte bifore tymes of the world; (aiōnios g166) 3 but he hath schewid in hise tymes his word in preching, that is bitakun to me bi the comaundement of `God oure sauour, 4 to Tite, most dereworthe sone bi the comyn feith, grace and pees of God the fadir, and of Crist Jhesu, oure sauour. 5 For cause of this thing Y lefte thee at Crete, that thou amende tho thingis that failen, and ordeyne preestis bi citees, as also Y disposide to thee. 6 If ony man is withoute cryme, an hosebonde of o wijf, and hath feithful sones, not in accusacioun of letcherie, or not suget. 7 For it bihoueth a bishop to be without cryme, a dispendour of God, not proud, not wrathful, not drunkelew, not smytene, not coueytouse of foul wynnyng; 8 but holdinge hospitalite, benygne, prudent, sobre, iust, 9 hooli, contynent, takinge that trewe word, that is afir doctryn; that he be miyti to amoneste in hoolsum techyng, and to repreue hem that ayenseien. 10 For ther ben many vnobedient, and veyn spekeris, and disseyueris, moost thei that ben of circumcisyoun, 11 whiche it bihoueth to be repreued; whiche subuerten alle housis, techinge whiche thingis it bihoueth not, for the loue of foul wynnyng. 12 And oon of hem, her propre profete, seide, Men of Crete ben euere more Iyeris, yuele beestis, of slowe wombe. 13 This witnessyng is trewe. For what cause blame hem sore, that thei be hool in feith, 14 not yuuyng tent to fablis of Jewis, and to maundementis of men, that turnen awei hem fro treuthe. 15 And alle thingis ben clene to clene men; but to vncleane men and to vnfeithful no thing is clene, for the soule and conscience of hem ben maad vncleane. 16 Thei knouelechen that thei knowen God, but bi dedis thei denyen; whanne thei ben abhominable, and vnbeleueful, and repreuable to al good werk.

2 But speke thou tho thingis that bisemen hoolsum teching; 2 that elde men be sobre, chast, prudent, hool in feith, in loue, and pacience; 3 also olde wymmen in hooli abite, not sclaundereris, not seruyng myche to wyn, wel techyng, that thei teche prudence. 4 Moneste thou yonge wymmen, that thei loue here hosebondis, that thei loue her children; 5 and that thei be prudent, chast, sobre, hauyng cure of the hous, benygne, suget to her hosebondis, that the word of God be not blasfemyd. 6 Also moneste thou yonge men, that thei be sobre. 7 In alle thingis yyue thi silf ensauple of good werkis, in teching, in hoolnesse, in sadnesse. 8 An hoolsum word, and vnrepreuable; that he that is of the contrarie side, be aschamed, hauyng noon yuel thing to seie of you. 9 Moneste thou seruauntis to be suget to her lordis; in alle thingis plesinge, not ayenseiynge, not defraudynge, 10 but in alle thingis schewinge good feith, that thei onoure in alle thingis the doctryn of `God, oure sauour. 11 For the grace of `God, oure sauour, hath apperid to alle men, 12 and tauyte vs, that we forsake wickidnesse, and worldi desyris, lyue sobreli, and iustli, `and piteuousli in this world, (aiōn g165) 13 abidinge the blessid hope and the comyng of the glorie of the greet God, and of oure sauour Jhesu Crist; 14 that yaf hym silf for vs, to ayenbie vs fro al wickidnesse, and make clene to hym silf a puple acceptable, and suere of good werkis. 15 Speke thou these thingis, and moneste thou, and repreue thou with al comaundement; no man dispise thee.

3 Amoneste hem to be sugetis to prynces, and to poweris; to obeische to that that is seid, and to be redi to al good werk; 2 to blasfeme no man, to be not ful of chiding, but temperat, schewyng al myldenesse to alle men. 3 For we weren sum tyme vnwise, vnbeleueful, erryng, and seruyng to desiris, and to dyuerse lustis, doynge in malice and enuye, worthi to be hatid, hatinge ech othere. 4 But whanne the benygnyte and the manhed of oure sauour God aperide, 5 not of werkis of riytwisnesse that we diden, but bi his merci he made vs saaf, bi waischyng of ayen bigetyng, and ayen newyng of the Hooli Goost, 6 whom he schedde into vs plenteuousli bi Jhesu Crist, oure saueour, 7 that we iustified bi his grace, ben eiris by hope of euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 8 A trewe word is, and of these thingis Y wole that thou conferme othere, that thei that bileuen to God, be bisy to be aboue othere in good werkis. These thingis ben good, and profitable to men. 9 And eschewe thou foltische questiouns, and genologies, and stryues, and fityngis of the lawe; for tho ben vnprofitable and veyn. 10 Eschewe thou a man eretik, afir oon and the secound correccioun; 11 witinge that he that is siche a maner man is subuertid, and trespassith, and is dampned bi his owne dom. 12 Whanne Y sende to thee Arteman, or Titicus, hiy thou to `come to me to Nycopolis; for Y haue purposid to dwelle in wyntir there. 13 Bisili byfor sende Zenam, a wise man of lawe, and Apollo, that no thing faile to hem. 14 Thei that ben of ouris, lerne to be gouernouris in good werkis, to necessarie vsis, that thei be not with out fruyt. 15 Alle men that ben with me greeten thee wel. Grete thou wel hem, that louen vs in feith. The grace of God be with you alle. Amen.

Philemon

1 Poul, the boundun of Crist Jhesu, and Timothe, brother, to Filemon, bilouyd, and oure helpere, and to Appia, 2 most dere sister, and to Archip, oure euene kniyt, and to the chirche that is in thin hous, 3 grace be to you, and pees of God oure fader, and of the Lord Jhesu Crist. 4 I do thankings to my God, euere more makinge mynde of thee in my preieris, 5 heringe thi charite and feith, that thou hast in the Lord Jhesu, and to alle hooli men, 6 that the comynynge of thi feith be maad opyn, in knowing of al good thing in Crist Jhesu. 7 And Y hadde greet ioye and coumfort in thi charite, for the entrailis of hooli men residen bi thee, brother. 8 For which thing Y hauynge myche trist in Crist Jhesu, to comaunde to thee that that perteyneth to profit; 9 but Y biseche more for charite, sithen thou art siche as the elde Poul, and now the boundun of Jhesu Crist. 10 Y biseche thee for my sone Onesyme, whom Y in boondis bigat, 11 which sumtyme was vnprofitable to thee, but now profitable bothe to thee and to me; whom Y sente ayen to thee. 12 And resseyue thou hym as myn entrailis; 13 whom Y wolde withholde with me, that he schulde serue for thee to me in boondis of the gospel; 14 but with out thi counseil Y wolde not do ony thing, that thi good schulde not be as of nede, but wilful. 15 For perauenture therfor he departide fro thee for a tyme, that thou schuldist resseyue hym with outen ende; (aiōnios g166) 16 now not as a seruaunt, but for a seruaunt a most dere brother, most to me; and how myche more to thee, bothe in fleisch and in the Lord? 17 Therfor if thou hast me a felowe, resseyue hym as me; for if he hath ony thing anoied thee, 18 ethir owith, arette thou this thing to me. 19 Y Poul wroot with myn hoond, Y schal yelde; that Y seie not to thee, that also thou owist to me thi silf. 20 So, brothir, Y schal vse thee in the Lord; fille thou myn entrails in Crist. 21 Y tristnyng of thin obedience wroot to thee, witynge that thou schalt do ouer that that Y seie. 22 Also make thou redi to me an hous to dwelle in; for Y hope that bi youre preyeris Y schal be youun to you. 23 Epafras, prisoner with me in Crist Jhesu, 24 greetith thee wel, and Mark, Aristark, Demas, Lucas, myn helperis. 25 The grace of oure Lord Jhesu Crist be with youre spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

1 God, that spak sum tyme bi prophetis in many maneres to oure fadris, at the 2 laste in these daies he hath spoke to vs bi the sone; whom he hath ordeyned eir of alle thingis, and bi whom he made the worldis. (aïōn g165) 3 Which whanne also he is the brytynesse of glorie, and figure of his substaunce, and berith alle thingis bi word of his vertu, he makith purgacioun of synnes, and sytith on the rythalf of the maieste in heuenes; 4 and so myche is maad betere than aungels, bi hou myche he hath eneritid a more dyuerse name bifor hem. 5 For to whiche of the aungels seide God ony tyme, Thou art my sone, Y haue gendrid thee to dai? And eftsoone, Y schal be to hym in to a fadir, and he schal be to me in to a sone? 6 And whanne eftsoone he bryngith in the firste bigetun sone in to the world, he seith, And alle the aungels of God worschipe hym. 7 But he seith to aungels, He that makith hise aungels spiritis, and hise mynystis flawme of fier. 8 But to the sone he seith, God, thi trone is in to the world of world; a yerde of equite is the yerde of thi rewme; (aïōn g165) 9 thou hast louyd riytwisnesse, and hatidist wickidnesse; therfor the God, thi God, anyontide thee with oile of ioye, more than thi felowis. 10 And, Thou, Lord, in the bigynnyng foundidist the erthe, and heuenes ben werkis of thin hondis; thei schulen perische, 11 but thou schalt perfittli dwelle; and alle schulen wexe elde as a cloth, and thou schalt chaunge hem as a cloth, 12 and thei schulen be chaungid. But thou art the same thi silf, and thi yeeris schulen not faile. 13 But to whiche of the aungels seide God at ony tyme, Sitte thou on my rythalf, till Y putte thin enemyes a stool of thi feet? 14 Whether thei alle ben not seruyng spiritis, sente to seruen for hem that taken the eritage of heelthe?

2 Therfor more plenteuousli it bihoueth vs to kepe tho thingis, that we han herd, lest perauenture we fleten awei. 2 For if the ilke word that was seid bi aungels, was maad sad, and ech brekyng of the lawe and vnobedience took iust retribucioun of meede, 3 hou schulen we ascape, if we despisen so greet an heelthe? Which, whanne it hadde takun bigynnyng to be told out by the Lord, of hem that herden is confermyd in to vs. 4 For God witnesside to gidere bi myraclis, and wondris, and grete merueilis, and dyuerse vertues, and departyngis of the Hooli Goost, bi his wille. 5 But not to aungels God sugetide the world that is to comynge, of which we speken. 6 But sum man witnesside in a place, and seide, What thing is man, that thou art myndeful of hym, or mannus sone, for thou visitist hym? 7 Thou hast maad hym a litil lesse than aungels; thou hast corownd hym with glorie and onour; and thou hast ordeyned him on the werkis of thin hondis. 8 Thou hast maad alle thingis suget vndur hise feet. And in that that he sugetide alle thingis to hym, he lefte no thing vnsuget to him. But now we seen not yit alle thingis suget to hym; 9 but we seen hym that was maad a litil lesse than aungels, Jhesu, for the passioun of deth crowned with glorie and onour, that he thorouy grace of God schulde taste deth for alle men. 10 For it bisemede hym, for whom alle thingis, and bi whom alle thingis weren maad, which hadde brouyt many sones into glorie, and was auctour of the heelthe of hem, that he hadde an ende bi passioun. 11 For he that hawewith, and thei that ben hawewid, ben alle of oon; for which cause he is not schamed to clepe hem britheren, 12 seiynge, Y schal telle thi name to my britheren; in the myddil of the chirche Y schal herie thee. 13 And eftsoone, Y schal be tristrynge in to hym; and eftsoone, Lo! Y and my children, whiche God yaf to me. 14 Therfor for children comyneden to fleisch and blood, and he also took part of the same, that bi deth he schulde destrie hym that hadde lordschipe of deth, that is to seie, the deuel, 15 and that he schulde delyuere hem that bi drede of deth, bi al lijf weren boundun to seruage. 16 And he took neuere aungelis, but he took the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherfor he ouyte to be likned to britheren bi alle thingis, that he schulde be maad merciful and a feithful bischop to God, that he schulde be merciful to the trespassis of the puple. 18 For in that thing in which he suffride, and was temptid, he is miyti to helpe also hem that ben temptid.

3 Therfor, hooli britheren, and parceneris of heuenli cleping, biholde ye the apostle and the bischop of oure confessioun, Jhesu, 2 which is trewe to hym that made hym, as also Moises in al the hous of hym. 3 But this byschop is had worthi of more glorie than Moises, bi as myche as he hath more honour of the hous, that made the hous. 4 For ech hous is maad of sum man; he that made alle thingis of nouyt is God. 5 And Moises was trewe in al his hous, as a seruaunt, in to witnessyng of tho thingis that weren to be seid; 6 but Crist as a sone in his hous. Which hous we ben, if we holden sad trist and glorie of hope in to the ende. 7 Wherfor as the Hooli Goost seith, To dai, if ye han herd his vois, nyle ye hardne youre hertis, 8 as in wratththing, lijk the dai of temptacioun in desert; 9 where youre fadris temptiden me, and preueden, and siyen my werkis fourti yeeris. 10 Wherfor Y was wrooth to this generacioun, and Y seide, Euere more thei erren in herte, for thei knewen not my weies; 11 to whiche Y swore in my wratththe, thei schulen not entre in to my reste. 12 Britheren, se ye, lest perauenture in ony of you be an yuel herte of vnbileue, to departe fro the luyngge God. 13 But moneste you silf bi alle daies, the while to dai is named, that noon of you be hardned bi fallas of synne. 14 For we ben maad parceneris of Crist, if netheles we holden the bigynnyng of his substaunce sad in to the ende. 15 While it is seid, to dai, if ye han herd the vois of hym, nyle ye hardne youre hertis, as in that wratththing. 16 For summen heringe wratthhiden, but not alle thei that wenten out of Egipt bi Moises. 17 But to whiche was he wratthid fourti yeeris? Whether not to hem that synneden, whos careyns weren cast down in desert? 18 And to whiche swoor he, that thei schulden not entre in to the reste of hym, not but to hem that weren vnbileueful? 19 And we seen, that thei myyten not entre in to the reste of hym for vnbileue.

4 Therfor drede we, lest perauenture while the biheest of entryng in to his reste is left, that ony of vs be gessid to be awei. 2 For it is told also to vs, as to hem. And the word that was herd profitide not to hem, not meynd to feith of tho thingis that thei herden. 3 For we that han bileued, schulen entre in to reste, as he seide, As Y swoor in my wraththe, thei schulen not entre in to my reste. And whanne the werkis weren maad perfet at the ordynance of the world, 4 he seide thus in a place of the seuenthe dai, And God restide in the seuenthe dai from alle hise werkis. 5 And in this place eftsoone, Thei schulen not entre in to my reste. 6 Therfor for it sueth, that summen schulen entre in to it, and thei to whiche it was teld to bifor, entriden not for her vnbeleue. 7 Eftsoone he termyneth sum dai, and seith in Dauith, To dai, aftir so myche tyme of tyme, as it is biforseid, To dai if ye han herd his vois, nyle ye hardne youre hertis. 8 For if Jhesus hadde youn reste to hem, he schulde neuere speke of othere aftir this dai. 9 Therfor the sabat is left to the puple of God. 10 For he that is entrid in to his reste, restide of hise werkis, as also God of hise. 11 Therfor haste we to entre in to that reste, that no man falle in to the same ensaumple of vnbeleue. For the word of God is quyk, 12 and spedi in worching, and more able to perse than any tweyne eggid swerd, and stretchith forth to the departyng of the soule and of the spirit, and of the ioynuris and merewis, and demere of thouytis, and of intentis and hertis. 13 And no creature is vnuseful in the siyt of God. For alle thingis ben nakid and opyn to hise iyen, to whom a word to vs. 14 Therfor we that han a greet bischop, that perside heuenes, Jhesu, the sone of God, holde we the knouelehyng of oure hope. 15 For we han not a bischop, that may not haue compassioun on oure infirmytees, but was temptid bi alle thingis bi lyncesse, with oute synne. 16 Therfor go we with trist to the trone of his grace, that we gete merci, and fynde grace in couenable help.

5 For ech bischop takun of men, is ordeyned for men in these thingis that ben to God, that he offre yiftis and sacrifices for synnes. 2 Which may togidere sorewe with hem, that beth vnkunynge and erren; for also he is enuyrouned with infirmyte. 3 And therfor he owith, as for the puple, so also for hym silf, to offre for synnes. 4 Nethir ony man taketh to hym onour, but he that is clepid of God, as Aaron was. 5 So Crist clarifiede not hym silf, that he were bischop, but he that spak to hym, Thou art my sone, to dai Y gendride thee. 6 As in another place he seith, Thou art a prest with outen ende, aftir the ordre of Melchisedech. (aiōn g165) 7 Which in the daies of his fleisch offride, with greet cry and teeris, preieris and bisechingis to hym that mytte make hym saaf fro deth, and was herd for his reuerence. 8 And whanne he was Goddis sone, he lernede obedience of these thingis that be suffride; 9 and he brouyt to the ende is maad cause of euerlastinge heelthe to alle that obeischen to hym, (aiōnios g166) 10 and is clepid of God a bischop, bi the ordre of Melchisedech. 11 Of whom ther is to vs a greet word for to seie, and able to be expowned, for ye ben maad feble to here. 12 For whanne ye ouyten to be maistris for tyme, eftsoone ye neden that ye be tauyt, whiche ben the lettris of the bigynnyng of Goddis wordis. And ye ben maad thilke, to whiche is nede of mylk, and not sad mete. 13 For ech that is parcenere of mylk, is with out part of the word of riytwisnesse, for he is a litil child. 14 But of perfet men is sad mete, of hem that for custom han wittis exercisid to discrecioun of good and of yuel.

6 Therfor we bringinge in a word of the bigynnyng of Crist, be we borun to the perfeccioun of hym, not eftsoone leggyng the foundement of penaunce fro deed werkis, and of the feith to God, 2 and of teching of baptimys, and of leiyng on of hondis, and of risyng ayen of deed men, and of the euerlastinge doom. (aiōnios g166) 3 And this thing we schulen do, if God schal suffre. 4 But it is impossible, that thei that ben onys liytred, and han tastid also an heuenly yifte, and ben maad parceneris of the Hooli Goost, 5 and netheles han tastid the good word of God, and the vertues of the world to comynge, (aiōn g165) 6 and ben slidun for awei, that thei be renewid eftsoone to penaunce. Whiche eftsones crucifien to hem silf the sone of God, and han to scorn. 7 For the erthe that drinkith reyn ofte comynge on it, and bringith forth couenable erbe to hem of whiche it is tilid, takith blessing of God. 8 But that that is bringinge forth thornes and breris, is repreuable, and next to curs, whos endyng schal be in to brennyng. 9 But, ye moost dereworthe, we tristen of you betere thingis, and neer to helthe, thouy we speken so. 10 For God is not vnuiet, that he foryete youre werk and loue, whiche ye han schewid in his name; for ye han mynystred to seyntis, and mynistren. 11 And we coueten that ech of you schewe the same bisynesse to the fillyng of hope in to the ende; 12 that ye be not maad slowe, but also sueris of hem, whiche bi feith and pacience schulen enherite the biheestis. 13 For God bihetinge to Abraham, for he hadde noon grettere, bi whom he schulde swere, swoor bi hym silf, 14 and seide, Y blessinge schal blesse thee, and Y multipliynge schal multiple thee; 15 and so he long abidinge hadde the biheeste. 16 For men sweren bi a grettere than hem silf, and the ende of al her ple is an ooth to confirmacioun. 17 In which thing God willynge to schewe plenteuousliet to the eiris of his biheest the sadnesse of his counsel, 18 puttide bitwixe an ooth, that bi twey thingis vnmeuabe, bi whiche it is impossible that God lie, we han a strengeste solace, that we that fleen togidere to holde the hope that is put forth to vs. 19 Which hope as an anker we han sikir to the soule, and sad, and goyng in to the ynnere thingis of hiding; 20 where the bifore goere, Jhesus, that is maad bischop with outen ende bi the ordre of Melchisedech, entride for vs. (aiōn g165)

7 And this Melchisedech, king of Salem, and preest of the hiyeste God, which mette with Abraham, as he turnede ayen fro the sleyng of kyngis, and blesside hym; 2 to whom also Abraham departide tithis of alle thingis; first he is seid king of riytwisnesse, and aftirward kyng of Salem, that is to seie, king of pees, 3 with out fadir, with out modir, with out genologie, nether haunyng bigynnyng of daies, nether ende of lijf; and he is lickened to the sone of God, and dwellith preest with outen ende. 4 But biholde ye how greet is this, to whom Abraham the patriark yaf tithis of the beste thingis. 5 For men of the sonnes of Leuy takinge presthod han maundement to take tithis of the puple, bi the lawe, that is to seie, of her britheren, thouy also thei wenten out of the leendis of Abraham. 6 But he whos generacioun is not noumbrid in hem, took tithis of Abraham; and he blesside this Abraham, which hadde repromysciouns. 7 With outen ony ayenseiying, that that is lesse, is blessid of the

betere. 8 And heere deedli men taken tithis; but there he berith witnessyng, that he lyueth. 9 And that it be seid so, bi Abraham also Leuy, that took tithis, was tithid; and yit he was in his fadris leendis, 10 whanne Melchisedech mette with hym. 11 Therfor if perfeccioun was bi the preesthood of Leuy, for vndur hym the puple took the lawe, what yit was it nedeful, another preest to rise, bi the ordre of Melchisedech, and not to be seid bi the ordre of Aaron? 12 For whi whanne the preesthod is translaid, it is nede that also translacioun of the lawe be maad. 13 But he in whom these thingis ben seid, is of another lynage, of which no man was preest to the auter. 14 For it is opyn, that oure Lord is borun of Juda, in which lynage Moises spak no thing of preestis. 15 And more yit it is knowun, if bi the ordre of Melchisedech another preest is risun vp; 16 which is not maad bi the lawe of fleischli maundement, but bi vertu of lijf that may not be vndon. 17 For he witnessith, That thou art a preest with outen ende, bi the ordre of Melchisedech; (aiōn g165) 18 that repreuyng of the maundement bifor goynge is maad, for the vnsadnesse and vnprofit of it. 19 For whi the lawe brouyt no thing to perfeccioun, but there is a bringing in of a betere hope, bi which we neyen to God. 20 And hou greet it is, not with out sweryng; but the othere ben maad preestis with outen an ooth; 21 but this preest with an ooth, bi hym that seide to hym, The Lord swoor, and it schal not rewe hym, Thou art a preest with outen ende, bi the ordre of Melchisedech; (aiōn g165) 22 in so myche Jhesus is maad biheetere of the betere testament. 23 And the othere weren maad manye preestis, therfor for thei weren forbedun bi deth to dwelle stille; 24 but this, for he dwelith with outen ende, hath an euerlastyng preesthod. (aiōn g165) 25 Wherefor also he may saue with outen ende, comynge nyy bi hym silf to God, and euermore lyueth to preye for vs. 26 For it bisemyde that sich a man were a bischop to vs, hooli, innocent, vndefoulid, clene, departid fro synful men, and maad hiyere than heuenes; 27 which hath not nede ech dai, as prestis, first for hise owne gyltis to offre sacrifices, and aftirward for the puple; for he dide this thing in offringe hym silf onys. 28 And the lawe ordeynede men prestis hauynge sijknesse; but the word of swering, which is after the lawe, ordeynede the sone perfit with outen ende. (aiōn g165)

8 But a capitle on tho thingis that ben seid. We han siche a bischop, that sat in the riythalf of the seete of greetnesse in heuenes, 2 the mynstre of seyntis, and of the veri tabernacle, that God made, and not man. 3 For ech bischop is ordeyned to offre yiftis and sacrificis; wherfor it is nede, that also this bischop haue sum thing that he schal offre. 4 Therfor if he were on erthe, he were no preest, whanne ther weren that schulden offre yiftis bi the lawe, 5 whiche seruen to the saumpler and schadewe of heueneli thingis. As it was answerid to Moises, whanne he schulde ende the tabernacle, Se, he seide, make thou alle thingis bi the saumpler, that is schewid to thee in the mount. 6 But now he hath getun a betere mynysterie, bi so myche as he is a mediatour of a betere testament, which is confermyd with betere biheestis. 7 For if the ilke firste hadde lackid blame, the place of the secounde schulde not haue be souyt. 8 For he repreuyng hem seith, Lo! daies comen, seith the Lord, and Y schal make perfit a newe testament on the hous of Israel, and on the hous of Juda; 9 not lijk the testament that Y made to her fadris, in the dai in which Y cauhte her hond, that Y schulde lede hem out of the loond of Egipt; for thei dwelliden not perfilt in my testament, and Y haue dispisid hem, seith the Lord. 10 But this is the testament, which Y schal dispose to the hous of Israel aftir tho daies, seith the Lord, in yuynge my lawis in to the soulis of hem, and in to the hertis of hem I schal aboue write hem; and Y schal be to hem in to a God, and they schulen be to me in to a puple. 11 And ech man schal not teche his neiyebore, and ech man his brother, seiyng, Knowe thou the Lord; for alle men schulen knowe me, fro the lesse to the more of hem. 12 For Y schal be merciful to the wickidnesse of hem, and now Y schal not bithenke on the synnes of hem. 13 But in seiyng a newe, the formere wexide eeld; and that that is of many daies, and wexith eeld, is nyy the deeth.

9 And the former testament hadde iustefiynge of worschop, and hooli thing duringe for a tyme. 2 For the tabernacle was maad first, in which weren candilstikis, and boord, and setting forth of looues, which is seid hooli. 3 And after the veil, the secounde tabernacle, that is seid sancta sanctorum, that is, hooli of hooli thingis; 4 hauynge a goldun cennet, and the arke of the testament, keuered aboute on ech side with gold, in which was a pot of gold hauynge manna, and the yerde of Aaron that florisched, and the tablis of the testament; 5 on whiche thingis weren cherubyns of glorie, ouerschadewinge the propiciatorie; of whiche thingis it is not now to seie bi alle. 6 But whanne these weren maad thus togidere, preestis entriden eueremore in the formere tabernacle, doynge the offices of sacrifices; but in the secounde tabernacle, 7 the bischop entride onys in the yeer, not without blood, which he offride for his ignoraunce and the pupilis. 8 For the Hooli Goost signefiede this thing, that not yit the weie of seyntis was openyd, while the formere tabernacle hadde staat. 9 Which parable is of this present tyme, bi which also yiftis and sacrifices ben offrid, whiche moun not make a man seruyng perfit bi conscience, oneli in metis, 10 and drynkis, and dyuerse waischingis, and riytwisnessis of fleisch, that weren sett to the tyme of correccioun. 11 But Crist beyng a bischop of goodis to comynge, entride bi a largere and perfitere tabernacle, not maad bi hoond, that is to seye, 12 not of this makynge, nether bi blood of goot buckis, or of calues, but bi his owne blood, entride onys in to the hooli thingis, that weren foundun bi an euerlastinge redempcioun. (aiōnios g166) 13 For if the blood of gootbuckis, and of boolis, and the aische of a cow calf spreynd, haleweth vnclene men to the clensing of fleisch, 14 hou myche more the blood of Crist, which bi the Hooli Goost offride hym silf vnwemmyd to God, schal clense oure conscience fro deed werkis, to serue God that lyueth? (aiōnios g166) 15 And therfor he is a mediatour of the newe testament, that bi deth fallinge bitwix, in to redempcioun of tho trespassyngis that weren vndur the formere testament, thei that ben clepid take the biheest of euerlastinge eritage. (aiōnios g166) 16 For where a testament is, it is nede, that the deth of the testament makere come bitwix. 17

For a testament is conferred in deed men; ellis it is not worthe, while he lyueth, that made the testament. 18 Wherefor nether the firste testament was halewid without blood. 19 For whanne ech maundement of the lawe was red of Moises to al the puple, he took the blood of calves, and of buckis of geet, with watir, and reed wolfe, and ysope, and bisprenynde bothe thilke book and al the puple, 20 and seide, This is the blood of the testament, that God comaundide to you. 21 Also he spreynde with blood the tabernacle, and alle the vessels of the seruyce in lijk maner. 22 And almost alle thingis ben clensid in blood bi the lawe; and without scheduling of blood remyscioun of synnes is not maad. 23 Therfor it is nede, that the saumpleris of heuenli thingis be clensid with these thingis; but thilke heuenli thingis with betere sacrificis than these. 24 For Jhesu entride not in to hooli thingis maad bi hoondis, that ben saumpleris of very thingis, but in to heuene it silf, that he appere now to the cheer of God for vs; 25 nether that he offre him silf ofte, as the bischop entride in to hooli thingis bi alle yeeris in alien blood, 26 ellis it bihofte hym to suffre ofte for the bigynnyng of the world; but now onys in the ending of worldis, to distrucioun of synne bi his sacrifice he apperide. (aiðn g165) 27 And as it is ordeynede to men, onys to die, but aftir this is the dom, 28 so Crist was offrid onys, to auoyde the synnes of many men; the secounde tyme he schal appere with outen synne to men that abiden him in to heethe.

10 For the lawe hauinge a schadewe of good thingis that ben to come, not the ilke image of thingis, mai neuer make men neyinge perfit bi the ilke same sacrifices, which thei offren without ceessing bi alle yeeris; 2 ellis thei schulden haue ceessid to be offrid, for as myche as the worschiperis clensid onys, hadden not ferthermore conscience of synne. 3 But in hem mynde of synnes is maad bi alle yeris. 4 For it is impossible that synnes be doon awei bi blood of boolis, and of buckis of geet. 5 Therfor he entrynge in to the world, seith, Thou woldist not sacrifice and offryng; but thou hast schapun a bodi to me; 6 brent sacrificis also for synne plesiden not to thee. 7 Thanne Y seide, Lo! Y come; in the bigynnyng of the book it is writun of me, that Y do thi wille, God. 8 He seiynge bifor, That thou woldist not sacrificis, and offringis, and brent sacrifices for synne, ne tho thingis ben plesaunt to thee, whiche ben offrid bi the lawe, 9 thanne Y seide, Lo! Y come, that Y do thi wille, God. He doith awei the firste, that he make stidfast the secounde. 10 In which wille we ben halewid bi the offring of the bodi of Crist Jhesu onys. 11 And ech prest is redi mynstrynge ech dai, and ofte tymes offringe the same sacrifices, whiche moun neuere do awei synnes. 12 But this man offringe o sacrifice for synnes, for euere more sittith in the riythalf of God the fadir; 13 fro thennus forth abidinge, til hise enemyes ben put a stool of hise feet. 14 For bi oon offring he made perfit for euere halewid men. 15 And the Hooli Goost witnessith to vs; for aftir that he seide, This is the testament, 16 which Y schal wnesse to hem after tho daies, the Lord seith, in yuynge my lawes in the hertis of hem, and in the soulis of hem Y schal aboue write hem; 17 and now Y schal no more thenke on the synnes and the wickidnessis of hem. 18 And where remyscioun of these is, now is ther noon offring for synne. 19 Therfor, britheren, hauynge trist in to the entring of hooli thingis in the blood of Crist, 20 which halewid to vs a newe weie, and lyuynge bi the hiling, that is to seie, 21 his fleisch, and we hauynge the greet preest on the hous of God, 22 neye we with very herte in the plente of feith; and be oure hertis spreined fro an yuel conscience, and oure bodies waichun with clene watir, 23 and holde we the confessioun of oure hope, bowinge to no side; for he is trewe that hath made the biheeste. 24 And biholde we togidere in the stiring of charite and of good werkis; not forsakinge oure gadering togidere, 25 as it is of custom to sum men, but coumfortinge, and bi so myche the more, bi hou myche ye seen the dai neyynge. 26 Forwhi now a sacrifice for synnes is not left to vs, that synnen wilful, aftir that we han take the knowyng of treuthe. 27 Forwhi sum abiding of the dom is dreedful, and the suyng of fier, which schal waste aduersaries. 28 Who that brekith Moises lawe, dieth withouten ony merci, bi tweine or thre witnessis; 29 hou myche more gessen ye, that he disserueth worse turmentis, which defouleth the sone of God, and holdith the blood of the testament pollut, in which he is halewid, and doith dispit to the spirit of grace? 30 For we knowen him that seide, To me veniaunce, and Y schal yelde. And eft, For the Lord schal deme his puple. 31 It is ferdful to falle in to the hondis of God lyuynge. 32 And haue ye mynde on the formere daies, in which ye weren lytned, and suffriden greet strijf of passiouns. 33 And in the tothir ye weren maad a spectacle bi schenschipis and tribulaciouns; in an othir ye weren maad felowis of men lyuynge so. 34 For also to boundun men ye hadden compassioun, and ye resseyueden with ioye the robberyng of youre goodis, knowinge that ye han a betere and a dwellinge substance. 35 Therfor nyle ye leese youre trist, which hath greet rewarding. 36 For pacience is nedeful to you, that ye do the wille of God, and bringe ayen the biheest. 37 For yit a lital, and he that is to comynge schal come, and he schal not tarie. 38 For my iust man lyueth of feith; that if he withdrawith hym silf, he schal not plesse to my soule. 39 But we ben not the sones of withdrawing awei in to perdiccioun, but of feith in to getynge of soule.

11 But feith is the substance of thingis that ben to be hopid, and an argument of thingis not apperynge. 2 And in this feith elde men han gete witnessyng. 3 Bi feith we vnderstonden that the worldis weren maad bi Goddis word, that visible thingis weren maad of vnuyisible thingis. (aiðn g165) 4 Bi feith Abel offride a myche more sacrifice than Caym to God, bi which he gat witnessyng to be iust, for God bar witnessyng to hise yiftis; and bi that feith he deed spekith yit. 5 Bi feith Ennok was translatid, that he schulde not se deth; and he was not foundun, for the Lord translade him. For bifore translacioun he hadde witnessyng that he pleside God. 6 And it is impossible to plesse God without feith. For it bihoueth that a man comynge to God, bileue that he is, and that he is rewardere to men that seken hym. 7 Bi feith Noe dredde, thorouy answeere takun of these thingis that yit weren not seyn, and schapide a schip in to the helthe of his hous; bi which he dampned the world, and is ordeyned eir of riytwisnesse, which is bi feith. 8 By feith he that is clepid Abraham, obeiede to go out in to a place, whiche he schulde take in to eritage; and he wente out, not witinge whidur he schulde go. 9 Bi feith he dwelte in the loond of biheest, as in an alien loond, dwellynge in litle housis with Ysaac and Jacob, euene heiris of the same biheest. 10 For he abood a citee hauynge fundamentis, whos crafti man and maker is God. 11 Bi feith also the ilke Sara bareyn, took vertu in consceyuynge of seed, yhe, ayen the tyme of age; for sche bileuede hym trewe, that hadde bihiyte. 12 For which thing of oon, and yit nny deed, ther ben borun as steris of heuene in multitude, and as grauel that is at the see side out of noumbre. 13 Bi feith alle these ben deed, whanne the biheestis weren not takun, but the bihelden hem afer, and gretynge hem wel, and knouelechide that thei weren pilgryms, and herboryd men on the erthe. 14 And thei that sayn these thingis, signifiien that thei sechen a cuntre. 15 If thei hadden hadde mynde of the ilke, of which thei wenten out, thei hadden tyme of turnyng ayen; 16 but now thei desiren a betere, that is to seie, heuenli. Therfor God is not confoundid to be clepid the God of hem; for he made redi to hem a citee. 17 Bi feith Abraham offride Ysaac, whanne he was temptid; and he offride the oon bigetun, whych had takun the biheestis; 18 to whom it was seid, For in Ysaac the seed schal be clepid to thee. 19 For he demyde, that God is myyti to reise hym, yhe, fro deth; wherfor he took hym also in to a parable. 20 Bi feith also of thingis to comynge, Ysaac blesside Jacob and Esau. 21 Bi feith Jacob dyynge blesside alle the sones of Joseph, and onouride the hiynesse of his yerde. 22 Bi feith Joseph dyynge hadde mynde of the passyng forth of the children of Israel, and comaundide of hise boonys. 23 Bi feith Moyses borun, was hid thre monethis of his fadir and modir, for that thei seiyn the yonge child fair; and thei dreedden not the maundement of the king. 24 Bi feith Moises was maad greet, and denyede that he was the sone of Faraos douytir, 25 and chees more to be turmentid with the puple of God, than to haue myrthe of temporal synne; 26 demynge the reпреef of Crist more richessis than the tresours of Egipcians; for he bihelde in to the rewarding. 27 Bi feith he forsook Egipt, and dredde not the hardynesse of the king; for he abood, as seinge hym that was vnuyisible. 28 Bi feith he halewide pask, and the scheding out of blood, that he that distriede the firste thingis of Egipcians, schulde not touche hem. 29 Bi feith thei passiden the reed see, as bi drye lond, which thing Egipcians asaiynge weren deuourid. 30 Bi feith the wallis of Jerico felden doun, bi compassyng of seuene daies. 31 Bi feith Raab hoor resseyuede the aspiers with pees, and perischide not with vnbeleueful men. 32 And what yit schal Y seie? For tyme schal faile to me tellynge of Gedeon, Barak, Sampson, Jepte, Daud, and Samuel, and of othere prophetis; 33 whiche bi feith ouercamen rewmes, wrouyten riytwisnesse, gaten repromyssions; thei stoppiden the mouthis of liouns, 34 thei quencheden the feersnesse of fier, thei dryueden awei the egge of swerd, thei coueriden of sijknese, thei weren maad strong in batel, thei turneden the oostis of aliens. 35 Wymmen resseyueden her deed children fro deth to lijf; but othere weren holdun forth, not takinge redempcioun, that thei schulden fynde a betere ayenrising. 36 And othere asaieden scornyngis and betingis, more ouer and boondis and prisouns.

37 Thei weren stoned, thei weren sawid, thei weren temptid, thei weren deed in sleynge of swerd. Thei wenten aboute in broc skynnes, and in skynnes of geet, nedi, angwischid, turmentid; 38 to whiche the world was not worthi. Thei erriden in wildernessis, in mounteynes and dennes, and caues of the erthe. 39 And alle these, preued bi witnessing of feith, token not repromyssion; 40 for God purueiede sum betere thing for vs, that thei schulden not be maad perfit with ouden vs.

12 Therfor we that han so greet a cloude of witnessis put to, do we awei al charge, and synne standinge aboute vs, and bi pacience renne we to the batel purposid to vs, 2 biholdinge in to the makere of feith, and the perfit endere, Jhesu; which whanne ioye was purposid to hym, he suffride the cros, and dispiside confusioun, and sittith on the riythalf of the seet of God. 3 And bihenke ye on hym that suffride sicche `ayen seiynge of synful men ayens hym silf, that ye be not maad wery, failinge in youre soulis. 4 For ye ayenstoden not yit `til to blood, fityng ayens synne. 5 And ye han foryet the coumfort that spekith to you as to sones, and seith, My sone, nyle thou dispise the teching of the Lord, nether be thou maad wery, the while thou art chastisid of hym. 6 For the Lord chastisith hym that he loueth; he betith euery sone that he resseyueth. 7 Abide ye stille in chastising; God proferith hym to you as to sones. For what sone is it, whom the fadir chastisith not? 8 That if ye `ben out of chastising, whos parteneris ben ye alle maad, thanne ye ben auowttris, and not sones. 9 And aftirward we hadden fadris of oure fleisch, techenis, and we with reuerence dredden hem. Whethir not myche more we schulen obeische to the fadir of spiritis, and we schulen lyue? 10 And thei in tyme of fewe dayes tauyten vs bi her wille; but this fadir techith to that thing that is profitable, in resseyuynge the halewing of hym. 11 And ech chastisyng in present tyme semeth to be not of ioye, but of sorewe; but aftirward it schal yelde fruyt of riytwisnesse moost pesible to men exercisid bi it. 12 For whiche thing reise ye slowe hondis, 13 and knees vnboundun, and make ye riytful steppis to youre feet; that no man haltinge erre, but more be heelid. 14 Sue ye pees with alle men, and holynesse, with out which no man schal se God. 15 Biholde ye, that no man faile to the grace of God, that no roote of bittirnesse buriownynge vpward lette, and manye ben defoulid bi it; 16 that no man be letchour, ether vnhooli, as Esau, which for o mete seelde hise firste thingis. 17 For wite ye, that aftirward he coueitinge to enherite blessing, was reprieved. For he foond not place of penaunce, thouy he souyte it with teeris. 18 But ye han not come to the fier able to be touchid, and able to come to, and to the whirlwynd, and myst, and tempest, and soun of trumpe, and vois of wordis; 19 which thei that herden, excusiden hem, that the word schulde not be maad to hem. 20 For thei beren not that that was seid, And if a beeste touchide the hil, it was stonyd. 21 And so dredeful it was that was seyn, that Moises seide, Y am a ferd, and ful of trembling. 22 But ye han come nny to the hil Sion, and to the cite of God lyuynge, the heuenli Jerusalem, and to the multitude of many thousynde aungels, 23 and to the chirche of the firste men, whiche ben writun in heuenes, and to God, domesman of alle, and to the spirit of iust perfit men, 24 and to Jhesu, mediatour of the newe testament, and to the sprenging of blood, `betere spekinge than Abel. 25 Se ye, that ye forsake not the spekere; for if thei that forsaken him that spak on the erthe, aschapide not, myche more we that turnen awei fro him that spekith to vs fro heuenes. 26 Whos vois than mouyde the erthe, but now he ayen bihetith, and seith, Yit onys and Y schal moue not oneli erthe, but also heuene. 27 And that he seith, Yit onys, he declarith the translacioun of mouable thingis, as of maad thingis, that tho thingis dwelle, that ben vnmouable. 28 Therfor we resseyuyng the kingdom vnmouable, haue we grace, bi which serue we plesynge to God with drede and reuerence. 29 For oure God is fier that wastith.

13 The charite of britherhod dwelle in you, and nyle ye foryete hospitalite; 2 for bi this summen plesiden to aungels, that weren resseyued to herborewe. 3 Thenke ye on boundun men, as ye weren togidere boundun, and of trauelinge men, as ye self dwellinge in the body. 4 `Wedding is in alle thingis onourable, and bed vnwemmed; for God schal deme fornicatouris and auouteris. 5 Be youre maneres withoute coueitise, apaied with present thingis; for he seide, Y schal not leeu thee, 6 nether forsake, so that we seie tristily, The Lord is an helpere to me; Y schal not drede, what a man schal do to me. 7 Haue ye mynde of youre souereyns, that han spokun to you the word of God; of whiche `biholde ye the goyng out of lyuyng, and sue ye the feith of hem, 8 Jhesu Crist, yistirdai, and to dai, he is also into worldis. (aiōn g165) 9 Nyle ye be led awei with dyuerse `techingis, and straunge. For it is best to stable the herte with grace, not with metis, whiche profitiden not to men wandringe in hem. 10 We han an auter, of which thei that seruen to the tabernacle, han not power to ete. 11 For of whiche beestis the blood is borun in for synne in to hooli thingis bi the bischop, the bodies of hem ben brent with out the castels. 12 For which thing Jhesu, that he schulde halewe the puple bi his blood, suffride with out the gate. 13 Therfor go we out to hym with out the castels, berynge his reproof. 14 For we han not here a citee dwellynge, but we seken a citee to comynge. 15 Therfor bi hym offre we a sacrifice of heriynge euere more to God, that is to seye, the fruyt of lippis knouelechinge to his name. 16 And nyle ye foryete wel doynge, and comynge; for bi siche sacrifices God is disserued. 17 Obeie ye to youre souereyns, and be ye suget to hem; for thei perfittli waken, as to yeldinge resoun for youre soulis, that thei do this thing with ioie, and not sorewinge; for this thing spedith not to you. 18 Preie ye for vs, and we tristen that we han good conscience in alle thingis, willynge to lyue wel. 19 More ouer Y biseche you to do, that Y be restorid the sunnere to you. 20 And God of pees, that ladde out fro deth the greet scheepherd of scheep, in the blood of euerlastinge testament, oure Lord Jhesu Crist, (aiōnios g166) 21 schape you in al good thing, that ye do the wille of hym; and he do in you that thing that schal plese bifor hym, bi Jhesu Crist, to whom be glorie in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165) 22 And, britheren, Y preie you, that ye suffre a word of solace; for bi ful fewe thingis Y haue writun to you. 23 Knowe ye oure brother Tymothe, that is sent forth, with whom if he schal come more hastili, Y schal se you. 24 Grete ye wel alle youre souereyns, and alle hooli men. The britheren of Italie greten you wel. 25 The grace of God be with you alle. Amen.

James

1 James, the seruaunt of God, and of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, to the twelue kinredis, that ben in scattering abroad, helthe. 2 My britheren, deme ye al ioye, whanne ye fallen in to diuerse temptaciouns, witynge, 3 that the preuyng of youre feith worchith pacience; 4 and pacience hath a perfitt werk, that ye be perfitt and hole, and faile in no thing. 5 And if ony of you nedith wisdom, axe he of God, which yyueth to alle men largeli, and vpbreidith not; and it schal be youun to hym. 6 But axe he in feith, and doute no thing; for he that doutith, is lijk to a wawe of the see, which is moued and borun a boutte of wynde. 7 Therfor gesse not the ilke man, that he schal take ony thing of the Lord. 8 A man dowle in soule is vnstable in alle hise weies. 9 And a meke brother haue glorie in his enhaunsyng, 10 and a riche man in his lownesse; for as the flour of gras he schal passe. 11 The sunne roos vp with heete, and driede the gras, and the flour of it felde doun, and the fairnesse of his chere perischide; and so a riche man welewith in hise weies. 12 Blessid is the man, that suffrith temptacioun; for whanne he schal be preued, he schal resseyue the coroun of lijt, which God biheye to men that louen hym. 13 No man whanne he is temptid, seie, that he is temptid of God; for whi God is not a temptere of yuele thingis, for he temptith no man. 14 But ech man is temptid, drawun and stirid of his owne coueiting. 15 Aftirward coueityng, whanne it hath conseyued, bringith forth synne; but synne, whanne it is fillid, gendrieth deth. 16 Therfor, my most dereworthe britheren, nyle ye erre. 17 Ech good yifte, and ech perfitt yifte is from aboue, and cometh doun fro the fadir of liytis, anentis whom is noon other chaungyng, ne ouerschadewyng of reward. 18 For wilfulli he bigat vs bi the word of treuthe, that we be a bigynnyng of his creature. 19 Wite ye, my britheren most loued, be ech man swift to here, but slow to speke, and slow to wraththe; 20 for the wraththe of man worchith not the riytwisnesse of God. 21 For which thing caste ye awei al vnclennesse, and plentee of malice, and in myldenesse resseyue ye the word that is plauntid, that may saue youre soulis. 22 But be ye doeris of the word, and not hereris oneli, disseiuyng ye silf. 23 For if ony man is an herere of the word, and not a doere, this schal be ligned to a man that biholdith the cheer of his birthe in a mirour; 24 for he bihelde hym silf, and wente awei, and anoon he foryat which he was. 25 But he that biholdith in the lawe of perfitt fredom, and dwellith in it, and is not maad a forgetful herere, but a doere of werk, this schal be blessid in his dede. 26 And if ony man gessith hym silf to be religiouse, and refreyneth not his tunge, but disseyueth his herte, the religioun of him is veyn. 27 A clene religioun, and an vnwemmed anentis God and the fadir, is this, to visite fadirles and modirles children, and widewis in her tribulacioun, and to kepe hym silf vndefouled fro this world.

2 Mi britheren, nyle ye haue the feith of oure Lord Jhesu Crist of glorie, in accepcioun of persoones. 2 For if a man that hath a goldun ring, and in a feire clothing, cometh in youre company, and a pore man ennth in a foul clothing, 3 and if ye biholden in to hym that is clothid with clere clothing, and if ye seie to hym, Sitte thou here wel; but to the pore man ye seien, Stonde thou there, ethir sitte vndur the stool of my feet; whether ye demen not anentis you silf, 4 and ben maad domesmen of wickid thouytis? 5 Heere ye, my moost dereworthe britheren, whethir God chees not pore men in this world, riche in feith, and eiris of the kyngdom, that God bihiyte to men that louen him? 6 But ye han dispisid the pore man. Whether riche men oppresen not you bi power, and thei drawn you to domes? 7 Whether thei blasfemen not the good name, that is clepid to help on you? 8 Netheles if ye performen the kingis lawe, bi scripturis, Thou schalt loue thi neybour as thi silf, ye don wel. 9 But if ye taken persones, ye worchen synne, and ben repreued of the lawe, as trespasseris. 10 And who euere kepith al the lawe, but offendith in oon, he is maad gilty of alle. 11 For he that seide, Thou schalt do no letcherie, seide also, Thou schalt not sle; that if thou doist not letcherie, but thou sleest, thou art maad trespassour of the lawe. 12 Thus speke ye, and thus do ye, as bigynnyng to be demyd bi the lawe of fredom. 13 For whi dom with out merci is to hym, that doith no mercy; but merci aboue reiseith dom. 14 Mi britheren, what schal it profite, if ony man seie that he hath feith, but he hath not the werkis? whether feith schal mowe saue hym? 15 And if a brother ethir sister be nakid, and han nede of ech daies lyuelode, 16 and if ony of you seie to hem, Go ye in pees, be ye maad hoot, and be ye fillid; but if ye yyuen not to hem tho thingis that ben necessarie to bodi, what schal it profite? 17 So also feith, if it hath not werkis, is deed in it silf. 18 But summan schal seie, Thou hast feith, and Y haue werkis; schewe thou to me thi feith with out werkis, and Y schal schewe to thee my feith of werkis. 19 Thou bileuest, that o God is; thou doist wel; and deuelis bileuen, and tremblen. 20 But wolt thou wite, thou veyn man, that feith with out werkis is idul? 21 Whether Abraham, oure fadir, was not iustified of werkis, offringe Ysaac, his sone, on the auter? 22 Therfor thou seest, that feith wrouyte with hise werkis, and his feith was fillid of werkis. 23 And the scripture was fillid, seiynge, Abraham bileuede to God, and it was arettid to hym to riytwisnesse, and he was clepid the freend of God. 24 Ye seen that a man is iustified of werkis, and not of feith oneli. 25 In lijk maner, and whether also Raab, the hoore, was not iustified of werkis, and resseyuede the messangeris, and sente hem out bi anothir weie? 26 For as the bodi with out spirit is deed, so also feith with out werkis is deed.

3 Mi britheren, nyle ye be maad many maistris, witynge that ye taken the more doom. 2 For alle we offendin in many thingis. If ony man offendith not in word, this is a perfitt man; for also he may lede aboute al the bodi with a bridil. 3 For if we putten bridlis in to horsis mouthis, for to consente to vs, and we leden aboute al the bodi of hem. 4 And lo! schippis, whanne thei ben grete, and ben dryun of stronge wyndis, yit thei ben borun about of a litil gouernaile, where the meuyng of the gouernour wole. 5 So also the tunge is but a litil membre, and reiseith grete thingis. Lo! hou litil fier brenneth a ful greet wode. 6 And oure tunge is fier, the vniuersite of wickidnesse. The tunge is ordeyned in oure membrs, which defoulth al the bodi; and it is enflawmed of helle, and enflawmeth the wheel of oure birthe. (Geenna g1067) 7 And al the kynde of beestis, and of foulis, and of serpentis, and of othere is chastisid, and tho ben maad tame of mannus kinde; but no man mai chastise the tunge, 8 for it is an vnpesible yuel, and ful of deedli venym. 9 In it we blessen God, the fadir, and in it we cursen men, that ben maad to the licnesse of God. 10 Of the same mouth passith forth blessing and cursing. My britheren, it bihoueth not that these thingis be don so. 11 Whether a welle of the same hoole bringith forth swete and salt watir? 12 My britheren, whether a fige tre may make grapis, ethir a vyne figus? So nethir salt watir mai make swete watir. 13 Who is wijs, and tauyt among you? schewe he of good luyng his worching, in myldenesse of his wisdom. 14 That if ye han bitter enuye, and struyngis ben in youre hertis, nyle ye haue glorie, and be lyeris ayens the treuthe. 15 For this wisdom is not fro aboue comyng down, but ertheli, and beestli, and feendli. 16 For where is enuye and strif, there is vnstidfastnesse and al schrewid werk. 17 But wisdom that is from aboue, first it is chast, aftirward pesible, mylde, able to be counsellid, consenting to goode thingis, ful of merci and of goode fruytis, demyng with out feynyng. 18 And the fruyt of riytwisnesse is sowun in pees, to men that maken pees.

4 Wherof ben batelis and cheestis among you? Whether not of youre coueitis, that fityen in youre membris? 2 Ye coueiten, and ye han not; ye sleen, and ye han enuye, and ye moun not gete. Ye chiden, and maken batel; and ye han not, for ye axen not. 3 Ye axen, and ye resseyuen not; for that ye axen yuele, as ye schewen opynli in youre coueitis. 4 Auowtreris, witen not ye, that the frenschip of this world is enemye to God? Therfor who euere wole be frend of this world, is maad the enemye of God. 5 Whether ye gessen, that the scripture seith veynli, The spirit that dwelith in you, coueitith to enuye? 6 But he yueth the more grace; for which thing he seith, God withstondith proude men, but to meke men he yueth grace. 7 Therfor be ye suget to God; but withstonde ye the deuel, and he schal fle fro you. 8 Neiye ye to God, and he schal neiye to you. Ye synneris, clense ye hondis, and ye double in soule, purge ye the hertis. 9 Be ye wretchis, and weile ye; youre leiyyng be turned in to weping, and ioye in to sorewe of herte. 10 Be ye mekid in the siyt of the Lord, and he schal enhaunse you. 11 My britheren, nyle ye bacbite ech othere. He that bacbitith his brothir, ethir that demeth his brothir, bacbitith the lawe, and demeth the lawe. And if thou demest the lawe, thou art not a doere of the lawe, but a domesman. 12 But oon is makere of the lawe, and iuge, that may lese, and delyuere. 13 And who art thou, that demest thi neybore? Lo! now ye, that seien, To dai ethir to morewe we schulen go in to thilke citee, and there we schulen dwelle a yeer, and we schulen make marchaundise, and we schulen make wyning; 14 whiche witen not, what is to you in the morewe. 15 For what is youre lijf? A smoke apperinge at a litil, and aftirward it schal be wastid. Therfor that ye seie, If the Lord wole, and if we liuen, we schulen do this thing, ether that thing. 16 And now ye maken ful out ioye in youre pridis; euery siche ioye is wickyd. 17 Therfor it is synne to hym, that kan do good, and doith not.

5 Do now, ye riche men, wepe ye, yellinge in youre wretchidnessis that schulen come to you. 2 Your richnessis ben rotun, and youre clothis ben etun of mouytis. 3 Your gold and siluer hath rustid, and the rust of hem schal be to you in to witnessyng, and schal ete youre fleischis, as fier. Ye han tresourid to you wratthe in the last daies. 4 Lo! the hire of youre werke men, that repiden youre feeldis, which is fraudid of you, crieth; and the cry of hem hath entrid in to the eeris of the Lord of oostis. 5 Ye han ete on the erthe, and in youre letcheries ye han nurschid youre hertis. In the dai of sleying ye brouyten, 6 and slowne the iust man, and he ayenstood not you. 7 Therfor, britheren, be ye pacient, til to the comyng of the Lord. Lo! an erthetillier abidith precieuse fruyt of the erthe, paciently suffrynge, til he resseyue `tymeful and lateful fruyt. 8 And be ye pacient, and conferme ye youre hertis, for the comyng of the Lord schal neiye. 9 Britheren, nyle ye be sorewful ech to other, that ye be not demed. Lo! the iuge stondith niy bifor the yate. 10 Britheren, take ye ensauple of yuel goyng out, and of long abidyng, and trauel, and of pacience, the prophetis, that speken to you in the name of the Lord. 11 Lo! we blessen hem that suffriden. Ye herden the `suffring, ethir pacience, of Joob, and ye sayn the ende of the Lord, for the Lord is merciful, and doyng merci. 12 Bifor alle thingis, my britheren, nyle ye swere, nether bi heuene, nether bi erthe, nethir bi what euere other ooth. But be youre word Yhe, yhe, Nay, nay, that ye fallen not vndir doom. 13 And if ony of you is sorewful, preye he with pacient soule, and seie he a salm. 14 If ony of you is sijk, lede he in preestis of the chirche, and preie thei for hym, and anoynte with oile in the name of the Lord; 15 and the preier of feith schal saue the sijk man, and the Lord schal make hym liyt; and if he be in synnes, thei schulen be foryouun to hym. 16 Therfor knouleche ye ech to othere youre synnes, and preye ye ech for othere, that ye be sauyd. For the contynuel preyer of a iust man is myche worth. 17 Elye was a deedli man lijk vs, and in preier he preiede, that it schulde not reyne on the erthe, and it reynede not thre yeeris and sixe monethis. 18 And eftsoone he preiede, and heuene yaf reyn, and the erthe yaf his fruyt. 19 And, britheren, if ony of you errith fro trewth, and ony conuertith hym, 20 he owith to wite, that he that makith a synner to be turned fro the error of his weye, schal saue the soule of hym fro deth, and keuereth the multitude of synnes.

1 Petre, apostle of Jhesu Crist, to the chosun men, to the comelingis of scaterieng abroad, of Ponte, of Galathie, of Capadosie, 2 of Asye, and of Bitynye, bi the `bifor knowyng of God, the fadir, in halewyng of spirit, bi obedience, and springyng of the blood of Jhesu Crist, grace and pees be multiplied to you. 3 Blessid be God, and the fadir of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, which bi his greet merci bigat vs ayen in to luyunge hope, bi the ayen risyng of Jhesu Crist fro deth, 4 in to eritage vncorruptible, and vndefoulid, and that schal not fade, that is kept in heuenes for you, 5 that in the vertu of God ben kept bi the feith in to heelthe, and is redi to be schewid in the last tyme. 6 In which ye schulen make ioye, thouy it bihoueth now a litil to be sori in dyuerse temptaciouns; 7 that the preuyng of youre feith be myche more preciose than gold, that is preyud bi fier; and be foundun in to herieng, and glorie, and onour, in the reuelacioun of Jhesu Crist. 8 Whom whanne ye han not seyn, ye louen; in to whom also now ye not seyng, bileuen; but ye that bileuen schulen haue ioye, and gladnesse that may not be teld out, 9 and ye schulen be glorified, and haue the ende of youre feith, the helthe of youre soulis. 10 Of which helthe profetis souyten, and enserchiden, that profecieden of the grace to comyng in you, 11 and souyten which euer what maner tyme the spirit of Crist signyfiede in hem, and bifor telde tho passious, that ben in Crist, and the latere glories. 12 To which it was schewid, for not to hem silf, but to you thei mynstriden tho thingis, that now ben teld to you bi hem that prechiden to you bi the Hooli Goost sent fro heuene, in to whom aungelis desiren to biholde. 13 For which thing be ye gird the leendis of youre soule, sobre, perfit, and hope ye in to the ilke grace that is profrid to you bi the schewyng of Jhesu Crist, 14 as sones of obedience, not made lijk to the formere desiris of youre vnkunnyngnesse, 15 but lijk him that hath `clepid you hooli; that also `ye silf be hooli in `al luyung; 16 for it is writun, Ye schulen be hooli, for Y am hooli. 17 And if ye inwardli clepe him fadir, which demeth withouten accepcioun of persoones bi the werk of ech man, lyue ye in drede in the time of youre pilgrimage; witynge that not bi corruptible gold, 18 ethir siluer, ye ben bouyt ayen of youre veyn liuyng of fadris tradicioun, 19 but bi the precious blood as of the lomb vndefoulid and vnspottid, 20 Crist Jhesu, that was knowun bifor the makyng of the world, but he is schewid in the laste tymes, 21 for you that bi hym ben heifful in God; that reside hym fro deth, and yaf to hym euerlastyng glorie, that youre feith and hope were in God. 22 And make ye chast youre soulis in obedience of charite, in loue of britherhod; of simple herte loue ye togidre more bisili. 23 And be ye borun ayen, not of corruptible seed, `but vncorruptible, bi the word of luyunge God, and dwellynge in to with outen ende. (aion g165) 24 For ech fleisch is hey, and al the glorie of it is as flour of hey; the hei driede vp, and his flour felde down; 25 but the word of the Lord dwellich with outen ende. And this is the word, that is prechid to you. (aion g165)

children, resonable, with out gile, coueite ye mylk, that in it ye wexe in to helthe; if netheles ye han tastid, 3 that the Lord is swete. 4 And neieye ye to hym, that is a luyung stoon, and repreuyd of men, but chosun of God, and onourid; 5 and ye silf as quyk stoonys be ye aboue bildid in to spiritual housis, and an hooli preesthod, to offre spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God bi Jhesu Crist. 6 For which thing the scripture seith, Lo! Y schal sette in Syon the hiyeste corner stoon, chosun and preciose; and he that schal belieue in hym, schal not be confoundid. 7 Therfor onour to you that bileuen; but to men that bileuen not, the stoon whom the bilderis repreuyden, this is maad in to the heed of the corner; and the stoon of hirtyng, 8 and stoon of sclandre, to hem that offenden to the word, nethir bileuen it, in which thei ben set. 9 But ye ben a chosun kyn, a kyngli preesthod, hooli folc, a puple of purchasing, that ye telle the vertues of hym, that clepide you fro derknessis in to his wonderful liyt. 10 Which sum tyme were not a puple of God, but now ye ben the puple of God; which hadden not merci, but now ye han merci. 11 Moost dere, Y biseche you, as comelyngis and pilgrymys, to absteyne you fro fleischli desiris, that fytten ayens the soule; 12 and haue ye youre conuersacioun good among hethene men, that in that thing that thei bacbite of you, as of mysdoeris, thei biholden you of good werkis, and glorifie God in the dai of visitacioun. 13 Be ye suget to ech creature, for God; ethir to the kyng, as to hym that is hiyer in state, 14 ethir to duykis, as to thilke that ben sent of hym to the veniaunce of mysdoers, and to the preisying of good men. 15 For so is the wille of God, that ye do wel, and make the vnkunnyngnesse of vnprudent men to be doomb. 16 As fre men, and not as hauyngne fredom the keuering of malice, but as the seruautis of God. 17 Onoure ye alle men, loue ye brithirhod, drede ye God, onoure ye the king. 18 Seruauntis, be ye sugetis in al drede to lordis, not oneli to good and to mylde, but also to tyrauntis. 19 For this is grace, if for conscience of God ony man suffrith heuynessis, and suffrith vniustli. 20 For what grace is it, if ye synnen, and ben buffatid, and suffren? But if ye don wel, and suffren pacientli, this is grace anentis God. 21 For to this thing ye ben clepid. For also Crist suffride for vs, and lefte ensauple to you, that ye folewe the steppis of hym. 22 Which did not synne, nethir gile was foundun in his mouth. 23 And whanne he was cursid, he curside not; whanne he suffride, he manasside not; but he bitook hym silf to hym, that demyde hym vniustli. 24 And he hym silf bar oure synnes in his bodi on a tre, that we be deed to synnes, and lyue to riytwisnesse, bi whos wan wounde ye ben heelid. 25 For ye weren as scheep erryng, but ye ben now turned to the schipherde, and bischop of youre soulis.

3 Also wymmen be thei suget to her hosebondis; that if ony man bileue not to the word, bi the conuersacioun of wymmen thei be wonnun with out word. 2 And biholde ye in drede youre hooli conuersacioun. 3 Of whiche `ther be not with outforth curious ournyng of heer, ether doying aboute of gold, ethir ournyng of clothing; 4 but thilke that is the hid man of herte, in vncorruptioun, and of mylde spirit, which is riche in the siyt of God. 5 For so sumtyme hooli wymmen hopinge in God

ourneden hem silf, and weren suget to her owne hosebondis. 6 As Sara obeyed to Abraham, and clepide hym lord; of whom ye ben douytris wel doynge, and not dredynge ony perturbacioun. 7 Also men dwelle togidre, and bi kunnyng yyue ye onoure to the wommanus freelte, as to the more feble, and as to euen eiris of grace and of lijf, that youre preieris be not lettid. 8 And in feith alle of oon wille in preier be ye eche suffringe with othere, loueiris of britherhod, merciful, mylde, meke; 9 not yeldinge yuel for yuel, nether cursing for cursing, but ayenward blessinge; for in this thing ye ben clepid, that ye welde blessinge bi eritage. 10 For he that wole loue lijf, and se goode daies, constreine his tunge from yuel, and hise lippis, that thei speke not gile. 11 And bowe he from yuel, and do good; seke he pees, and perfitli sue it. 12 For the iyen of the Lord ben on iust men, and hise eris on the preieris of hem; but the cheer of the Lord is on men that don yuels. 13 And who is it that schal anoye you, if ye ben sueris and louyeris of goodnesse? 14 But also if ye suffren ony thing for riytwisnesse, ye ben blessid; but drede ye not the drede of hem, that ye be not disturblid. 15 But halewe ye the Lord Crist in youre hertis, and euermore be ye redi to satisfaccioun to ech man axynge you resoun of that feith and hope that is in you, 16 but with myldenesse and drede, hauynge good conscience; that in that thing that thei bacbiten of you, thei ben confoundid, whiche chalengen falsly youre good conuersacioun in Crist. 17 For it is betere that ye do wel, and suffre, if the wille of God wole, than doynge yuele. 18 For also Crist onys diede for oure synnes, he iust for vniust, that he schulde offre to God vs, maad deed in fleisch, but maad quik in spirit. 19 For which thing he cam in spirit, and also to hem that weren closid togidre in prisoun prechide; 20 whiche weren sum tyme vnbileueful, whanne thei abididen the pacience of God in the daies of Noe, whanne the schip was maad, in which a few, that is to seie, eihte soulis weren maad saaf bi water. 21 And so baptyng of lijk forme makith vs saaf; not the puttyng awei of the filthis of fleisch, but the axynge of a good conscience in God, bi the ayenrysing of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, that is in the riyt half of God, 22 and swolewith deth, that we schulden be made eiris of euerlastinge lijf. He yede in to heuene, and aungelis, and powers, and vertues, ben maad sugetis to hym.

4 Therfor for Crist suffride in fleisch, be ye also armed bi the same thenkyng; for he that suffride in fleisch ceesside fro synnes, 2 that that is left now in fleisch lyue not now to the desiris of men, but to the wille of God. 3 For the time that is passid is ynow to the wille of hethene men to be endid, whiche walkiden in letcheries, and lustis, in myche drinking of wyn, in vnmesurable etyngis, and drynkyngis, and vnleueful worschipping of mawmetis. 4 In whiche now thei ben astonyed, in which thing thei wondren, for ye rennen not togidre in to the same confusioun of letcherie, and blasfemen. 5 And thei schulen yyue resoun to hym, that is redi to deme the quyke and the deed. 6 For whi for this thing it is prechid also to deed men, that thei be demed bi men in fleisch, and that thei lyue bi God in spirit. 7 For the ende of alle thingis schal neiye. Therfor be ye prudent, and wake ye in preyeris; 8 bfore alle thingis haue ye charite ech to other in you silf algatis lastynge; for charite couerith the multitude of synnes. 9 Holde ye hospitalite togidere with out grutching; 10 ech man as he hath resseyued grace, mynstringe it in to ech othere, as good dispenderis of the manyfold grace of God. 11 If ony man spekith, speke he as the wordis of God; if ony man mynstrith, as of the vertu which God mynstrith; that God be onourid in alle thingis bi Jhesu Crist oure Lord, to whom is glorie and lordschip in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 12 Amen. Moost dere brytheren, nyle ye go in pilgrymage in feruour, that is maad to you to temptacioun, as if ony newe thing bifalle to you; 13 but comyne ye with the passiouns of Crist, and haue ye ioye, that also ye be glad, and haue ioye in the reuelacioun of his glorie. 14 If ye ben dispisid for the name of Crist, ye schulen be blessid; for that that is of the onour, and of the glorie, and of the vertu of God, and the spirit that is his, schal reste on you. 15 But no man of you suffre as a mansleere, ethir a theef, ether cursere, ethir a disirere of othere mennus goodis; 16 but if as a cristen man, schame he not, but glorifie he God in this name. 17 For tyme is, that doom bigynne at Goddis hous; and if it bigynne first at vs, what ende schal be of hem, that bileuen not to the gospel? 18 And if a iust man vnnethe schal be sauid, where schulen the vnfeithful man and the synnere appere? 19 Therfor and thei that suffren bi the wille of God, bitaken her soulis in good dedis to the feithful makere of nouyt.

5 Therfor Y, an euene eldre man, and a witnesse of Cristis passiouns, which also am a comynere of that glorie, that schal be schewid in tyme to comynge; byseche ye the eldre men, 2 that ben among you, fede ye the flok of God, that is among you, and puruey ye, not as constreyned, but wilfulli, bi God; not for loue of foule wynnyng, 3 but wilfulli, nether as hauynge lordschip in the clergie, but that ye ben maad ensaumple of the flok, of wille. 4 And whanne the prince of scheepherdis schal appere, ye schulen resseyue the coroun of glorie, that may neuere fade. 5 Also, ye yonge men, be ye suget to eldre men, and alle schewe ye togidere mekenesse; for the Lord withstondith proude men, but he yyueth grace to meke men. 6 Therfor be ye mekid vndir the myyti hoond of God, that he reise you in the tyme of visitacioun, 7 and caste ye al youre bisynesse in to hym, for to hym is cure of you. 8 Be ye sobre, and wake ye, for youre aduersarie, the deuyl, as a rorynge lioun goith aboute, sechinge whom he schal deuoure. 9 Whom ayenstonde ye, stronge in the feith, witynge that the same passioun is maad to thilke brithirhode of you, that is in the world. 10 And God of al grace, that clepide you in to his euerlastinge glorie, you suffrynge a lital, he schal performe, and schal conferme, and schal make sad. (aiōnios g166) 11 To hym be glorie and lordschip, in to worldis of worldis. Amen. (aiōn g165) 12 Bi Siluan, feithful brother to you as Y deme, Y wroot schortli; bisechinge, and witnessinge that this is the very grace of God, in which ye stonden. 13 The chirche that is gaderid in Babiloyne, and Marcus, my sone, greith you wel. 14 Grete ye wel togidere in hooli cos. Grace be to you alle that ben in Crist. Amen.

1 Simount Petre, seruaunt and apostle of `Jhesu Crist, to hem that han take with vs the euene feith, in the riytwisnesse of oure God and sauour Jhesu Crist, 2 grace and pees be fillid to you, bi the knowing of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 3 Hou alle thingis of his godlich vertu, that ben to lijf and pitee, ben youun to vs, bi the knowyng of hym, that clepide vs for his owne glorie and vertu. 4 Bi whom he yaf to vs moost preciouise biheestis; that bi these thingis ye schulen be maad felows of Goddis kynde, and fle the corrupcioun of that coueytise, that is in the world. 5 And bringe ye in alle bisynesse, and mynstre ye in youre feith vertu, and `in vertu kunnyng; 6 in kunnyng abstinence, in abstynence pacience, in pacience pitee; 7 in pitee, love of britherhod, and in loue of britherhod charite. 8 For if these ben with you, and ouercomen, thei schulen not make you voided, nethir with out fruyt, in the knowyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 9 But to whom these ben not redi, he is blynd, and gropith with his hoond, and foryetith the purgyng of his elde trespassis. 10 Wherfor, britheren, be ye more bisi, that by goode werkis ye make youre clepyng and chesying certeyn; for ye doyng these thingis schulen not do synne any tyme. 11 For thus the entryng in to euerlastyng kyngdom of oure Lord and sauour Jhesu Crist, schal be mynystred to you plenteuousli. (aiōnios g166) 12 For which thing Y schal bigynne to moneste you euer more of these thingis; and Y wole that ye be kunnyng, and confermyd in this present treuthe. 13 Forsothe Y deme iustli, as long as Y am in this tabernacle, to reise you in monesting; and Y am certeyn, 14 that the putting awei of my tabernacle is swift, bi this that oure Lord Jhesu Crist hath schewid to me. 15 But Y schal yyue bisynesse, and ofte after my deth ye haue mynde of these thingis. 16 For we not suyng vnwise talis, han maad knowun to you the vertu and the biforknowyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; but we weren maad biholderis of his greetnesse. 17 For he took of God the fadir onour and glorie, bi siche maner vois slidun doun to hym fro the greet glorie, This is my loued sone, in whom Y haue plesid to me; here ye hym. 18 And we herden this vois brouyt from heuene, whanne we weren with hym in the hooli hil. 19 And we han a saddere word of prophecie, to which ye yyuyng tent don wel, as to a lanterne that yyueth liyt in a derk place, til the dai bigynne to yyue liyt, and the dai sterre spreng in youre hertis. 20 And firste vndurstonde ye this thing, that ech prophesie of scripture is not maad bi propre interpretacioun; 21 for prophesie was not brouyt only tyme bi mannus wille, but the hooli men of God inspirid with the Hooli Goost spaken.

2 But also false prophetis weren in the puple, as in you schulen be maistris lieris, that schulen bringe in sectis of perdiccioun; and thei denyen thilke Lord that bouyte hem, and bringen on hem sili fasti perdiccioun. 2 And many schulen sue her letheries, bi whiche the weie of treuthe schal be blasfemyd; 3 and thei schulen make marchaundie of you in coueytise bi feyned wordis. To whiche doom now a while ago ceessith not, and the perdiccioun of hem nappith not. 4 For if God sparide not aungels synnyng, but took hem to be turmentid, and to be drawun doun with boondis of helle in to helle, to be kept in to dom; (Tartaroō g5020) 5 and sparide not the firste world, but kept Noe, the eiythe man, the biforgoere of riytwisnesse, and brouyte in the greet flood to the world of vnfeithful men; 6 and he droof in to poudre the citees of men of Sodom and of men of Gommor, and dampned bi turnyng vpsedoun, and putte hem the ensaumple of hem that weren to doyng yuele; 7 and delyuerid the iust Loth, oppressid of the wrong, and of the lletcherouse conuersacioun of cursid men; 8 for in siyt and hering he was iust, and dwellide amongst hem that fro dai in to dai turmentiden with wickid werkis a iust soule. 9 For the Lord kan delyuere piteuouse men fro temptacioun, and kepe wickid men `in to the dai of dom to be turmentid; 10 but more hem that walken afir the fleisch, in coueytinge of vnclenessse, and dispisen lordschiping, and ben boold, plesyng hem sili, and dreden not to bringe in sectis, blasfemyng; where aungels, 11 whanne thei ben more in strengthe and vertu, beren not `that was the execrable doom ayens hem. 12 But these ben as vnreasonable beestis, kyndli in to takyng, and in to deth, blasfemyng in these thingis that thei knowen not, and schulen perische in her corrupcioun, 13 and resseyue the hire of vnriytwisnesse. And thei gessen delicis of defouling and of wemme, to be likyngis of dai, flowyng in her feestis with delicis, doyng letherie with you, 14 and han iyen ful of auowtrie, and vnceessyng trespass, disseyuyng vnsidfast soulis, and han the herte exercisid to coueitise; the sones of cursyng, 15 that forsaken the riyt weie, and erriden, suyng the weie of Balaam of Bosor, which louyde the hire of wickidnesse. 16 But he hadde repreuyng of his woodnesse; a dounb beest vndur yok, that spak with vois of man, that forbode the vnwisdom of the profete. 17 These ben wellis with out watir, and mystis dryuun with `whirling wyndys, to whiche the thicke miijs of derknessis is reseruyd. 18 And thei speken in pryde of vanyte, and disseyuen in desiris of fleisch of letherie hem, that scapen a litil. 19 Whiche lyuen in errour, and biheten fredom to hem, whanne thei ben seruauntis of corrupcioun. For of whom any man is ouercomun, of hym also he is seruaunt. 20 For if men forsaken the vnclenesss of the world, bi the knowyng of oure Lord and sauour Jhesu Crist, and eftone ben wlapid in these, and ben ouercomun, the latter thingis ben maad to hem worse than the formere. 21 For it was betere to hem to not knowe the weie of riytwisnesse, than to turne ayen afir the knowyng, fro that hooli maundement that was bitakun to hem. 22 For thilke very prouerb bifelde to hem, The hound turnede ayen to his castyng, and a sowe is waichun in walwyng in fenne.

3 Lo! ye moost dereworth britheren, Y write to you this secounde epistle, in which Y stire youre clere soule bi monesting togidere, 2 that ye be myndeful of tho wordis, that Y biforseide of the hooli prophetis, and of the maundementis of the hooli apostlis of the Lord and sauour. 3 First wite ye this thing, that in the laste daies disseyueris schulen come in disseit, goyng afir her owne coueityngis, 4 seiyng, Where is the biheest, or the comyng of hym? for sithen the fadris dieden, alle thingis lasten fro the bigynnyng of creature. 5 But it is hid fro hem willyng this thing, that heuenes were bifore, and the erthe of water was stondynge bi watir, of Goddis word; 6 bi which that ilke world clensid, thanne bi watir perischide. 7 But the heuenes that now ben, and the erthe, ben kept bi the same word, and ben reseruyd to fier in to the dai of doom and perdicoun of wickid men. 8 But, ye moost dere, this o thing be not hid to you, that o dai anentis God is as a thousynde yeeris, and a thousynde yeeris ben as o dai. 9 The Lord tarieth not his biheest, as summe gessen, but he doith pacientli for you, and wole not that ony men perische, but that alle turne ayen to penaunce. 10 For the dai of the Lord schal come as a theef, in which heuenes with greet bire schulen passe, and elementis schulen be dissoluyd bi heete, and the erthe, and alle the werkis that ben in it, schulen be brent. 11 Therfor whanne alle these thingis schulen be dissolved, what manner men bihoueth it you to be in hooli lyuyngis and pitees, 12 abidinge and hiyyng in to the comyng of the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, bi whom heuenes brennyng schulen be dissoluyd, and elementis schulen faile bi brennyng of fier. 13 Also we abiden bi hise biheestis newe heuenes and newe erthe, in which riytwisnesse dwellith. 14 For which thing, ye moost dere, abidyng these thingis, be ye bisye to be foundun to hym in pees vnspottid and vndefoulid. 15 And deme ye long abiding of oure Lord Jhesu Crist youre heelthe, as also oure moost dere brother Poul wroot to you, bi wisdom youun to hym. 16 As and in alle epistlis he spekith in hem of these thingis; in which ben summe hard thingis to vndurstonde, whiche vnwise and vnstable men deprauen, as also thei don othere scripturis, to her owne perdicoun. 17 Therfor ye, britheren, bifer wityng kepe you silf, lest ye be disseyued bi errour of vnwise men, and falle awei fro youre owne sadnesse. 18 But wexe ye in the grace and the knowyng of oure Lord Jhesu Crist and oure Sauyour; to hym be glorie now and in to the dai of euerlastyngnesse. Amen. (aiōn g165)

1 That thing that was fro the bigynnyng, which we herden, which we sayn with oure iyen, which we bihelden, and oure hondis touchiden, of the word of lijf; 2 and the lijf is schewid. And we sayn, and we witnessen, and tellen to you the euerlastyng lijf, that was anentis the fadir, and apperide to vs. (aiōnios g166) 3 Therfor we tellen to you that thing, that we seyn, and herden, that also ye haue felowschipe with vs, and oure felowschipe be with the fadir, and with his sone Jhesu Crist. 4 And we writen this thing to you, that ye haue ioie, and that youre ioie be ful. 5 And this is the tellyng, that we herden of hym, and tellen to you, that God is liyt, and ther ben no derknessis in him. 6 If we seien, that we han felowschipe with hym, and we wandren in derknessis, we lien, and don not treuthe. 7 But if we walken in liyt, as also he is in liyt, we han felowschipe togidere; and the blood of Jhesu Crist, his sone, clensith vs fro al synne. 8 If we seien, that we han no synne, we disseyuen vs silf, and treuthe is not in vs. 9 If we knowlechen oure synnes, he is feithful and iust, that he foryue to vs oure synnes, and clense vs from al wickidnesse. 10 And if we seien, we han not synned, we maken hym a liere, and his word is not in vs.

2 Mi litle sones, Y write to you these thingis, that ye synnen not. But if ony man synneth, we han an aduocat anentis the fadir, 2 Jhesu Crist, and he is the foryuenes for oure synnes; and not oneli for oure synnes, but also for the synnes of al the world. 3 And in this thing we witen, that we knowen hym, if we kepen hise comaundementis. 4 He that seith that he knowith God, and kepith not hise comaundementis, is a liere, and trewthe is not in hym. 5 But the charite of God is perfet verili in hym, that kepith his word. In this thing we witen, that we ben in hym, if we ben perfet in hym. 6 He that seith, that he dwellith in hym, he owith for to walke, as he walkide. 7 Moost dere britheren, Y write to you, not a newe maundement, but the elde maundement, that ye hadden fro the bigynnyng. The elde maundement is the word, that ye herden. 8 Eftsoone Y write to you a newe maundement, that is trewe bothe in hym and in you; for derknessis ben passid, and veri liyt schyneth now. 9 He that seith, that he is in liyt, and hatith his brother, is in derknesse yit. 10 He that loueth his brothir, dwellith in liyt, and sclandre is not in hym. 11 But he that hatith his brother, is in derknessis, and wandrith in derknessis, and woot not whidhir he goith; for derknessis han blindid hise iyen. 12 Litle sones, Y write to you, that youre synnes ben foryoun to you for his name. 13 Fadris, Y write to you, for ye han knowun hym, that is fro the bigynnyng. Yonge men, Y write to you, for ye han ouercomun the wickid. 14 Y write to you, yonge children, for ye han knowe the fadir. Y write to you, britheren, for ye han knowen hym, that is fro the bigynnyng. Y write to you, yonge men, for ye ben stronge, and the word of God dwellith in you, and ye han ouercomun the wickid. 15 Nyle ye loue the world, ne tho thingis that ben in the world. If ony man loueth the world, the charite of the fader is not in hym. 16 For al thing that is in the world, is coueitse of fleisch, and coueitse of iyen, and pride of lijf, which is not of the fadir, but it is of the world. 17 And the world schal passe, and the coueitse of it; but he that doith the wille of God, dwellith with outen ende. (aiōn g165) 18 My litle sones, the laste our is; and as ye han herd, that antecrist cometh, now many antecristis ben maad; wherfor we witen, that it is the laste our. 19 Thei wenten forth fro vs, but thei weren not of vs; for if thei hadden be of vs, thei hadden dwelte with vs; but that thei be knowun, that thei ben not of vs. 20 But ye han anointyng of the Hooli Goost, and knowen alle thingis. 21 Y wroot not to you, as to men that knowen not treuthe, but as to men that knowen it, and for ech leeing is not of treuthe. 22 Who is a liere, but this that denyeth that Jhesu is not Crist? This is antecrist, that denyeth the fadir, and the sone. 23 So ech that denyeth the sone, hath not the fadir; but he that knowlechith the sone, hath also the fadir. 24 That thing that ye herden at the bigynnyng, dwelle it in you; for if that thing dwellith in you, which ye herden at the bigynnyng, ye schulen dwelle in the sone and in the fadir. 25 And this is the biheeste, that he bihiyte to vs euerlastinge lijf. (aiōnios g166) 26 Y wroot these thingis to you, of hem that disseyuen you, 27 and that the anyntyng which ye resseyueden of hym, dwelle in you. And ye han not nede, that ony man teche you, but as his anyntyng techith you of alle thingis, and it is trewe, and it is not leesyng; and as he tauyte you, dwelle ye in hym. 28 And now, ye litle sones, dwelle ye in hym, that whanne he schal appere, we haue a trist, and be not confoundid of hym in his comyng. 29 If ye witen that he is iust, wite ye that also ech that doith riytwisnesse, is borun of hym.

3 Se ye what maner charite the fadir yaf to vs, that we be named the sones of God, and ben hise sones. For this thing the world knewe not vs, for it knew not hym. 2 Moost dere britheren, now we ben the sones of God, and yit it apperide not, what we schulen be. We witen, that whanne he schal appere, we schulen be lijk hym, for we schulen se hym as he is. 3 And ech man that hath this hope in hym, makith hym silf hooli, as he is hooli. 4 Ech man that doith synne, doith also wickidnesse, and synne is wickidnesse. 5 And ye witen, that he apperide to do awei synnes, and synne is not in hym. 6 Ech man that dwellith in hym, synneth not; and ech that synneth, seeth not hym, nether knew hym. 7 Litle sones, no man disseyue you; he that doith riytwisnesse, is iust, as also he is iust. 8 He that doith synne, is of the deuul; for the deuul synneth fro the bigynnyng. In this thing the sone of God apperide, that he vndo the werkis of the deuul. 9 Ech man that is borun of God, doith not synne; for the seed of God dwellith in hym, and he may not do synne, for he is borun of God. 10 In this thing the sones of God ben knowun, and the sones of the feend. Ech man that is not iust, is not of God, and he that loueth not his brothir. 11 For this is the tellyng, that ye herden at the bigynnyng, that ye loue ech othere; 12 not as Caym, that was of the yuele, and slouy his brother. And for what thing slouy he him? for hise werkis weren yuele, and hise brotheris iust. 13 Britheren, nyle ye wondre, if the world hatith you. 14 We witen, that we ben translatid fro deeth to lijf, for we louen britheren. He that loueth not, dwellith in deth. 15 Ech man that hatith his brother, is a man sleere; and ye witen, that ech mansleere hath not euerlastinge lijf dwellinge in hym. (aiōnios g166) 16 In this thing we han knowe the charite of God, for he puttide his lijf for vs, and we owen to putte oure lyues for oure britheren. 17 He that hath the catel of this world, and seeth that his brothir hath nede, and closith his entrails fro hym, hou dwellith the charite of God in hym? 18 Mi litle sones, loue we not in word, nethir in tunge, but in werk and treuthe. 19 In this thing we knowen, that we ben of treuthe, and in his siyt we monesten oure hertis. 20 For if oure herte repreueth vs, God is more than oure hert, and knowith alle thingis. 21 Moost dere britheren, if oure herte repreueth not vs, we han trust to God; 22 and what euer we schulen axe, we schulen resseyue of hym, for we kepen hise comaundementis, and we don tho thingis that ben plesaunt bifor hym. 23 And this is the comaundement of God, that we bileue in the name of his sone Jhesu Crist, and that we loue ech othere, as he yaf heeste to vs. 24 And he that kepith hise comaundementis, dwellith in hym, and he in hym. And in this thing we witen, that he dwellith in vs, bi the spirit, whom he yaf to vs.

4 Moost dere britheren, nyle ye bileue to ech spirit, but preue ye spiritis, if thei ben of God; for many false prophetis wenten out in to the world. 2 In this thing the spirit of God is known; ech spirit that knowlechith that Jhesu Crist hath come in fleisch, is of God; 3 and ech spirit that fordoith Jhesu, is not of God. And this is antecrist, of whom ye herden, that he cometh; and riyt now he is in the world. 4 Ye, litle sones, ben of God, and ye han ouercome hym; for he that is in you is more, than he that is in the world. 5 Thei ben of the world, therfor thei speken of the world, and the world herith hem. 6 We ben of God; he that knowith God, herith vs; he that is not of God, herith not vs. In this thing we knowen the spirit of treuthe, and the spirit of errour. 7 Moost dere britheren, loue we togidere, for charite is of God; and ech that loueth his brother, is borun of God, and knowith God. 8 He that loueth not, knowith not God; for God is charite. 9 In this thing the charite of God apperide in vs, for God sente hise oon bigetun sone in to the world, that we lyue bi hym. 10 In this thing is charite, not as we hadden loued God, but for he firste louede vs, and sente hise sone foryruenesse for oure synnes. 11 Ye moost dere britheren, if God louede vs, we owen to loue ech othere. 12 No man say euer God; if we louen togidre, God dwellith in vs, and the charite of hym is perfit in vs. 13 In this thing we knowen, that we dwellen in hym, and he in vs; for of his spirit he yaf to vs. 14 And we sayen, and witnessen, that the fadir sente his sone sauour of the world. 15 Who euer knowlechith, that Jhesu is the sone of God, God dwellith in him, and he in God. 16 And we han knowun, and bileuen to the charite, that God hath in vs. God is charite, and he that dwellith in charite, dwellith in God, and God in hym. 17 In this thing is the perfit charite of God with vs, that we haue trist in the dai of dom; for as he is, also we ben in this world. 18 Drede is not in charite, but perfit charite puttith out drede; for drede hath payne. But he that dredith, is not perfit in charite. 19 Therfor loue we God, for he louede vs bifore. 20 If ony man seith, that `Y loue God, and haith his brother, he is a liere. For he that loueth not his brothir, which he seeth, hou mai he loue God, whom he seeth not? 21 And we han this comaundement of God, that he that loueth God, loue also his brothir.

5 Ech man that bileueth that Jhesus is Crist, is borun of God; and ech man that loueth hym that gendride, loueth hym that is borun of hym. 2 In this thing we knowen, that we louen the children of God, whanne we louen God, and don his maundementis. 3 For this is the charite of God, that we kepe hise maundementis; and his maundementis ben not heuy. 4 For al thing that is borun of God, ouercometh the world; and this is the victorie that ouercometh the world, oure feith. 5 And who is he that ouercometh the world, but he that bileueth that Jhesus is the sone of God? 6 This is Jhesus Crist, that cam bi watir and blood; not in water oonli, but in watir and blood. And the spirit is he that witnessith, that Crist is treuthe. 7 For thre ben, that yyuen witnessing in heuene, the Fadir, the Sone, and the Hooli Goost; and these thre ben oon. 8 `And thre ben, that yyuen witnessing in erthe, the spirit, water, and blood; and these thre ben oon. 9 If we resseyuen the witnessing of men, the witnessing of God is more; for this is the witnessing of God, that is more, for he witnesside of his sone. 10 He that bileueth in the sone of God, hath the witnessing of God in hym. He that bileueth not to the sone, makith hym a liere; for he bileueth not in the witnessing, that God witnesside of his sone. 11 And this is the witnessyng, for God yaf to you euerlastinge lijf, and this lijf is in his sone. (aiōnios g166) 12 He that hath the sone of God, hath also lijf; he that hath not the sone of God, hath not lijf. 13 I write to you these thingis, that ye wite, that ye han euerlastyng lijf, which bileuen in the name of Goddis sone. (aiōnios g166) 14 And this is the trist which we han to God, that what euer thing we axen afir his wille, he schal here vs. 15 And we witen, that he herith vs, what euer thing we axen; we witen, that we han the axyngis, which we axen of hym. 16 He that woot that his brother synneth a synne not to deth, axe he, and lijf schal be youun to hym that synneth not to deth. Ther is a synne to deth; `not for it Y seie, that ony man preie. 17 Ech wickidnesse is synne, and ther is synne to deth. 18 We witen, that ech man that is borun of God, synneth not; but the generacioun of God kepith hym, and the wickid touchith hym not. 19 We witen, that we ben of God, and al the world is set in yuel. 20 And we witen, that the sone of God cam in fleisch, and yaf to vs wit, that we know veri God, and be in the veri sone of hym. This is veri God, and euerlastyng lijf. (aiōnios g166) 21 My litle sones, kepe ye you fro maumetis.

2 John

1 The eldere man, to the chosun ladi, and to her children, whiche Y loue in treuthe; and not Y aloone, but also alle men that knowen treuthe; 2 for the treuthe that dwellith in you, and with you schal be with outen ende. (aion g165) 3 Grace be with you, merci, and pees of God the fadir, and of Jhesu Crist, the sone of the fadir, in treuthe and charite. 4 I ioiede ful myche, for Y foond of thi sones goynge in treuthe, as we resseyueden maundement of the fadir. 5 And now Y preye thee, ladi, not as writinge a newe maundement to thee, but that that we hadden fro the bigynnyng, that we loue ech other. 6 And this is charite, that we walke after his maundementis. For this is the comaundement, that as ye herden at the bigynnyng, walke ye in hym. 7 For many disseyueris wenten out in to the world, which knoulechen not that Jhesu Crist hath come in fleisch; this is a disseyuere and antecrist. 8 Se ye you silf, lest ye lesen the thingis that ye han wrouyt, that ye resseyue ful mede; 9 witynge that ech man that goith bfore, and dwellith not in the teching of Crist, hath not God. He that dwellith in the teching, hath bothe the sone and the fadir. 10 If ony man cometh to you, and bryngith not this teching, nyle ye resseyue hym in to hous, nether seie ye to hym, Heil. 11 For he that seith to hym, Heil, comyneth with hise yuel werkis. Lo! Y biforseide to you, that ye be not confoundid in the dai of oure Lord Jhesu Crist. 12 Y haue mo thingis to write to you, and Y wolde not bi parchemyn and enke; for Y hope that Y schal come to you, and speke mouth to mouth, that your ioye be ful. 13 The sones of thi chosun sistir greten thee wel. The grace of God be with thee. Amen.

1 The eldere man to Gayus, most dere brother, whom Y loue in treuthe. 2 Most dere brothir, of alle thingis Y make preyer, that thou entre, and fare welefully, as thi soule doith welefuli. 3 Y ioyede greetli, for britheren camen, and baren witnessing to thi treuthe, `as thou walkist in treuthe. 4 Y haue not more grace of these thingis, than that Y here that my sones walke in treuthe. 5 Most dere brother, thou doist feithfuli, what euer thou worchist in britheren, and that in to pilgrymys, 6 which yeldiden witnessing to thi charite, in the siyt of the chirche; which thou leddist forth, and doist wel worthili to God. 7 For thei wenten forth for his name, and token no thing of hethene men. 8 Therfor we owen to resseyue siche, that we be euen worcheris of treuthe. 9 I hadde write perauenture to the chirche, but this Diotrepes, that loueth to bere primacie in hem, resseyueth not vs. 10 For this thing, if Y schal come, Y schal moneste hise werkis, whiche he doith, chidinge ayens vs with yuel wordis. And as if these thingis suffisen not to hym, nether he resseyueth britheren, and forbedith hem that resseyuen, and puttith out of the chirche. 11 Moost dere brothir, nyle thou sue yuel thing, but that that is good thing. He that doith wel, is of God; he that doith yuel, seeth not God. 12 Witnessing is yoldun to Demetrie of alle men, and of treuthe it silf; but also we beren witnessing, and thou knowist, that oure witnessing is trewe. 13 Y hadde many thingis to wryte to thee, but Y wolde not write to thee bi enke and penne. 14 For Y hope soone to se thee, and we schulen speke mouth to mouth. Pees be to thee. Frendis greten thee wel. Greete thou wel frendis bi name.

(aīdios g126) 7 As Sodom, and Gomorre, and the nyy coostid citees, that in lijk maner diden fornyacioun, and yeden awei aftir othir fleisch, and ben maad ensauple, suffrynge peyne of euerelastinge fier. (aīōnios g166) 8 In lijk maner also these that defoulen the fleisch, and dispisen lordschip, and blasfemen mageste. 9 Whanne Myyhel, arkaungel, disputide with the deuēl, and stroof of Moises bodi, he was not hardi to brynge in dom of blasfemye, but seide, The Lord comaunde to thee. 10 But these men blasfemen, what euer thingis thei knowen not. For what euer thingis thei knowen kyndli as doumbe beestis, in these thei ben corrupt. 11 Wo to hem that wenten the weie of Caym, and that ben sched out bi error of Balaam for mede, and perischiden in the ayenseiying of Chore. 12 These ben in her metis, feestyng togidere to filthe, with out drede fedinge hemsilf. These ben cloudis with out watir, that ben borun aboute of the wyndis; heruest trees with out fruyt, twies deed, drawun vp bi the roote; 13 wawis of the woode see, fomyng out her confusiouns; erryng steris, to whiche the tempest of derknessis is kept with outen ende. (aīōn g165) 14 But Enoch, the seuenthe fro Adam, profeciede of these, and seide, Lo! the Lord cometh with hise hooli thousandis, 15 to do dom ayens alle men, and to repreue alle vnfeithful men of alle the werkis of the wickidnesse of hem, bi whiche thei diden wickidli, and of alle the harde wordis, that wyckid synneris han spoke ayens God. 16 These ben grutcheris ful of pleyntis, wandryng aftir her desiris; and the mouth of hem spekith pride, worschippinge persooones, bi cause of wynnyng. 17 And ye, moost dere britheren, be myndeful of the wordis, whiche ben bifor seid of apostlis of oure Lord Jhesu Crist; whiche seiden to you, 18 that in the laste tymes ther schulen come gilours, wandring aftir her owne desiris, not in pitee. 19 These ben, whiche departen hemsilf, beestli men, not hauynge spirit. 20 But ye, moost dere britheren, aboue bilde you silf on youre moost hooli feith, and preye ye in the Hooli Goost, 21 and kepe you silf in the loue of God, and abide ye the merci of oure Lord Jhesu Crist in to lijf euerlastynge. (aīōnios g166) 22 And repreue ye these men that ben demed, 23 but saue ye hem, and take ye hem fro the fier. And do ye merci to othere men, in the drede of God, and hate ye also thilke defoulid coote, which is fleischli. 24 But to him that is miyti to kepe you with out synne, and to ordeyne bfore the siyt of his glorie you vnwemmed in ful out ioye, in the comynge of oure Lord Jhesu Crist, to God aloone oure sauour, 25 bi Jhesu Crist oure Lord, be glorie, and magnefiyng, empire, and power, bfore alle worldis, and now and in to alle worldis of worldis. Amen. (aīōn g165)

Revelation

1 Apocalips of Jhesu Crist, which God yaf to hym to make open to hise seruautis, whiche thingis it bihoueth to be maad soone. And he signyfiende, sending bi his aungel to his seruaut Joon, 2 whiche bar witnessing to the word of God, and witnessing of Jhesu Crist, in these thingis, what euer thingis he say. 3 Blessid is he that redith, and he that herith the wordis of this prophecie, and kepith tho thingis that ben writun in it; for the tyme is niy. 4 Joon to seuene chirchis, that ben in Asie, grace and pees to you, of him that is, and that was, and that is to comynge; and of the seuene spiritis, that ben in the siyt of his trone; and of Jhesu Crist, 5 that is a feithful wnesse, the firste bigetun of deed men, and prince of kingis of the erthe; which louyde vs, and waischide vs fro oure synnes in his blood, 6 and made vs a kyngdom, and preestis to God and to his fader; to hym be glorie and empire in to worldis of worldis. (aiōn g165) 7 Amen. Lo! he cometh with clowdis, and ech iye schal se hym, and thei that prickiden hym; and alle the kynredis of the erthe schulen bewelle hem silf on hym. 8 Yhe, Amen! Y am alpha and oo, the bigynnyng and the ende, seith the Lord God, that is, and that was, and that is to comynge, almyyti. 9 I, Joon, youre brothir, and partener in tribulacioun, and kingdom, and pacience in Crist Jhesu, was in an ile, that is clepid Pathmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessyng of Jhesu. 10 Y was in spirit in the Lordis dai, and Y herde bihynde me a greet vois, as of a trumpe, 11 seynge to me, Write thou in a book that thing that thou seest, and sende to the seuene chirchis that ben in Asie; to Ephesus, to Smyrna, and to Pergamus, and to Tiatira, and to Sardis, and to Filadelfia, and to Loadicia. 12 And Y turnede, that Y schulde se the vois that spak with me; and Y turnede, and Y say seuene candelstikis of gold, 13 and in the myddil of the seuene goldun candelstikis oon lijk to the sone of man, clothid with a long garnement, and gird at the tetis with a goldun girdil. 14 And the heed of hym and his heeris weren whijt, as whijt wolle, and as snow; and the iyen of hym as flawme of fier, 15 and hise feet lijk to latoun, as in a brennyng chymney; and the vois of hym as the vois of many watris. 16 And he hadde in his riht hoond seuene steris, and a swerd scharp on euer ethir side wente out of his mouth; and his face as the sunne schyneth in his vertu. 17 And whanne Y hadde seyn hym, Y felde doun at hise feet, as deed. And he puttide his riht hond on me, and seide, Nyle thou drede; Y am the firste and the laste; 18 and Y am alyue, and Y was deed; and lo! Y am luyng in to worldis of worldis, and Y haue the keyes of deth and of helle. (aiōn g165, Hadēs g86) 19 Therfor write thou whiche thingis thou hast seyn, and whiche ben, and whiche it bihoueth to be don afir these thingis. 20 The sacrament of the seuene steris, which thou seiyst in my riht hond, and the seuene goldun candelstikis; the seuene steris ben aungels of the seuene chirchis, and the seuene candelstikis ben seuene chirchis.

2 And to the aungel of the chirche of Efesus write thou, These thingis seith he, that holdith the seuene steris in his riht hond, which walkith in the middil of the seuene goldun candilistikis. 2

Y woot thi werkis, and trauel, and thi pacience, and that thou maist not suffre yuele men; and thou hast asaiend hem that seien that thei ben apostlis, and ben not, and thou hast foundun hem lieris; 3 and thou hast pacience, and thou hast suffrid for my name, and failidist not. 4 But Y haue ayens thee a fewe thingis, that thou hast left thi firste charite. 5 Therfor be thou myndeful fro whennus thou hast falle, and do penance, and do the firste werkis; ether ellis, Y come soone to thee, and Y schal moue thi candilstike fro his place, but `thou do penance. 6 But thou hast this good thing, that thou hatidist the dedis of Nycholaitis, the whiche also Y hate. 7 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. To hym that ouercometh Y schal yyue to ete of the tre of lijf, that is in the paradys of my God. 8 And to the aungel of the chirche of Smyrna write thou, These thingis seith the firste and the laste, that was deed, and lyueth. 9 Y woot thi tribulacioun, and thi pouert, but thou art riche; and thou art blasfemyd of hem, that seien, that thei ben Jewis, and ben not, but ben the synagoge of Sathanas. 10 Drede thou no thing of these thingis, whiche thou schalt suffre. Lo! the deucl schal sende summe of you in to prisoun, that ye be temptid; and ye schulen haue tribulacioun ten daies. Be thou feithful to the deth, and Y schal yyue to thee a coroun of lijf. 11 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. He that ouercometh, schal not be hirt of the secounde deth. 12 And to the aungel of the chirche of Pergamus write thou, These thingis seith he, that hath the swerd scharp on ech side. 13 Y woot where thou dwellist, where the seete of Sathanas is; and thou holdist my name, and denyedist not my feith. And in tho daies was Antifas, my feithful wnesse, that was slayn at you, where Sathanas dwelleth. 14 But Y haue ayens thee a fewe thingis; for thou hast `there men holdinge the teching of Balaam, which tauyte Balaac for to sende sclandre bifor the sones of Israel, to ete of sacrificis of ydols, and to do fornicacioun; 15 so also thou hast men holdinge the teching of Nycholaitis. 16 Also do thou penance; `yif ony thing lesse, Y schal come soone to thee, and Y schal fyte with hem with the swerd of my mouth. 17 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the churches. To him that ouercometh Y schal yyue aungel mete hid; and Y schal yyue to hym a whiit stoon, and in the stoon a newe name writun, which no man knowith, but he that takith. 18 And to the aungel of the chirche of Tiatira write thou, These thingis seith the sone of God, that hath iyen as flawme of fier, and hise feet lijk latoun. 19 Y knowe thi werkis, and feith, and charite, and thi seruyce, and thi pacience, and thi laste werkis mo than the formere. 20 But Y haue ayens thee a fewe thingis; for thou suffrist the womman Jesabel, which seith that sche is a prophetesse, to teche and disseyue my seruautis, to do letcherie, and to ete of thingis offrid to idols. 21 And Y yaf to hir time, that sche schulde do penance, and sche wolde not do penance of hir fornicacioun. 22 And lo! Y sende hir in to a bed, and thei that doen letcherie with hir schulen be in moost tribulacioun, but thei don penance of hir werkis. 23 And Y schal slee hir sones in to deth, and alle chirchis schulen wite, that Y am serchinge reynes and hertis; and Y schal yyue to ech man of you after hise werkis. 24 And Y seie to you, and to othere that ben at Tiatire, who euer han not this teching, and that knewen not the hiynesse of Sathanas, hou thei seien, Y schal not sende on you another charge; netheles holde ye that that ye han, 25 til Y come. 26 And to hym that schal ouercome, and that schal kepe til in to the ende my werkis, Y schal yyue power on folkis, 27 and he schal gouerne hem in an yrun yerde; and thei schulen be brokun to gidre, 28 as a vessel of a pottere, as also Y resseyuede of my fadir; and Y schal yyue to hym a morewe sterre. 29 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis.

3 And to the aungel of the chirche of Sardis write thou, These thingis seith he, that hath the seuene spiritis of God, and the seuene steris. Y woot thi werkis, for thou hast a name, that thou lyuest, and thou art deed. 2 Be thou wakyng, and conferme thou othere thingis, that weren to diynge; for Y fynde not thi werkis fulle bfore my God. 3 Therfor haue thou in mynde, hou thou resseyuedist, and herdist; and kepe, and do penaunce. Therfor if thou wake not, Y schal come as a nytt theef to thee, and thou schalt not wite in what our Y schal come to thee. 4 But thou hast a fewe names in Sardis, whiche han not defoulid her clothis; and thei schulen walke with me in whijt clothis, for thei ben worthi. 5 He that ouercometh, schal be clothid thus with whijt clothis; and Y schal not do awei his name fro the book of lijf, and Y schal knoueleche his name bfore my fadir, and bfore hise aungels. 6 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. 7 And to the aungel of the chirche of Filadelfie write thou, These thingis seith the hooli and trewe, that hath the keie of Dauid; which openeth, and no man closith, he closith, and no man openith. 8 I woot thi werkis, and lo! Y yaf bfore thee a dore opened, which no man may close; for thou hast a litil vertu, and hast kept my word, and denyest not my name. 9 Lo! Y schal yyue to thee of the synagoge of Sathanas, whiche seien that thei ben Jewis, and ben not, but Iyen. Lo! Y schal make hem, that thei come, and worschepe byfor thi feet; and thei schulen wite, 10 that Y louyde thee, for thou keptist the word of my pacience. And Y schal kepe thee fro the our of temptacioun, that is to comynge in to al the world, to tempte men that dwellen in erthe. 11 Lo! Y come soone; holde thou that that thou hast, that no man take thi coroun. 12 And hym that schal ouercome, Y schal make a pilere in the temple of my God, and he schal no more go out; and Y schal write on hym the name of my God, and the name of the citee of my God, of the newe Jerusalem, that cometh down fro heuene of my God, and my newe name. 13 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis. 14 And to the aungel of the chirche of Laodice write thou, These thingis seith Amen, the faithful witnesse and trewe, which is bigynnyng of Goddis creature. 15 I woot thi werkis, for nether thou art cold, nether thou art hoot; Y wolde that thou were could, ethir hoot; 16 but for thou art lew, and nether cold, nether hoot, Y schal bigynne to caste thee out of my mouth. 17 For thou seist, That Y am riche, and ful of goodis, and Y haue nede of no thing; and thou wost not, that thou art a wretche, and wretcheful, and pore, and blynde, and nakid. 18 Y counsele thee to bie of me brent gold, and preued, that thou be maad riche, and be clothid with whijt clothis, that the confusioun of thi nakidnesse be not seen; and anynte thin iyen with a collierie, that thou se. 19 Y repreue, and chastise whom Y loue; therfor sue thou goode men, and do penaunce. 20 Lo! Y stonde at the dore, and knocke; if ony man herith my voys, and openith the yate to me, Y shal entre to hym, and soupe with hym, and he with me. 21 And Y schal yyue to hym that schal ouercome, to sitte with me in my trone, as also Y ouercam, and sat with my fadir in his trone. 22 He that hath eeris, here he, what the spirit seith to the chirchis.

4 Afir these thingis Y say, and lo! a dore was openyd in heuene. And the firste vois that Y herde, was as of a trumpe spekinge with me, and seide, Styte thou vp hidur, and Y shal schewe to thee whiche thingis it bihoueth to be don soone afir these thingus. 2 Anoon Y was in spirit, and lo! a seete was sett in heuene, and vpon the seete oon sittynge. 3 And he that sat, was lijk the siyt of a stoon iaspis, and to sardyn; and a reynbowe was in cumpas of the seete, lijk the siyt of smaragdyn. 4 And in the cumpas of the seete weren foure and twenti smale seetis; and aboue the troones foure and twenti eldre men sittinge, hilid aboute with whijt clothis, and in the heedis of hem goldun corouns. 5 And leitis, and voices, and thundringis camen out of the trone; and seuene laumpis brennyng bfore the trone, whiche ben the seuene spiritis of God. 6 And bifor the seete as a see of glas, lijk a crystal, and in the myddil of the seete, and in the cumpas of the seete, foure beestis ful of iyen bfore and bihynde. 7 And the firste beeste lijk a lyoun; and the secounde beeste lijk a calf; and the thridde beeste haunyng a face as of a man; and the fourthe beeste lijk an egle fleyng. 8 And the foure beestis hadden euery of hem sixe wyngis; and al aboute and with ynne thei weren ful of iyen; and thei hadden not reste dai and nytt, seyng, Hooli, hooli, hooli, the Lord God almyyti, that was, and that is, and that is to comynge. 9 And whanne tho foure beestis yauen glorie, and honour, and blessing to hym that sat on the trone, that lyueth in to worldis of worldis, (aiōn g165) 10 the foure and twenti eldre men fellen down bifor hym that sat on the trone, and worschipiden hym that lyueth in to worldis of worldis. And thei casten her corouns bifor the trone, and seiden, (aiōn g165) 11 Thou, Lord `oure God, art worthi to take glorie, and onour, and vertu; for thou madist of nouyt alle thingis, and for thi wille tho weren, and ben maad of nouyt.

Reader's Guide

AionianBible.org/Readers-Guide

The Aionian Bible republishes public domain and Creative Common Bible texts that are 100% free to copy and print. The original translation is unaltered and notes are added to help your study. The notes show the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies.

Who has the authority to interpret the Bible and examine the underlying Hebrew and Greek words? That is a good question! We read in 1 John 2:27, "As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you remain in him." Every Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible! Now that does not mean we will all agree. Each of us is still growing in our understanding of the truth. However, it does mean that there is no infallible human or tradition to answer all our questions. Instead the Holy Spirit helps each of us to know the truth and grow closer to God and each other.

The Bible is a library with 66 books in the Protestant Canon. The best way to learn God's word is to read entire books. Read the book of Genesis. Read the book of John. Read the entire Bible library. Topical studies and cross-referencing can be good. However, the safest way to understand context and meaning is to read whole Bible books. Chapter and verse numbers were added for convenience in the 16th century, but unfortunately they can cause the Bible to seem like an encyclopedia. The Aionian Bible is formatted with simple verse numbering, minimal notes, and no cross-referencing in order to encourage the reading of Bible books.

Bible reading must also begin with prayer. Any Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible with God's help. However, this freedom is also a responsibility because without the Holy Spirit we cannot interpret accurately. We read in 1 Corinthians 2:13-14, "And we speak of these things, not with words taught by human wisdom, but with those taught by the Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. Now the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned." So we cannot understand in our natural self, but we can with God's help through prayer.

The Holy Spirit is the best writer and he uses literary devices such as introductions, conclusions, paragraphs, and metaphors. He also writes various genres including historical narrative, prose, and poetry. So Bible study must spiritually discern and understand literature. Pray, read, observe, interpret, and apply. Finally, "Do your best to present yourself approved by God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the word of truth." 2 Timothy 2:15. "God has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ," 2 Peter 1:4-8.

Glossary

The Aionian Bible un-translates and instead transliterates eleven special words to help us better understand the extent of God's love for individuals and all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies. The original translation is unaltered and a note is added to 64 Old Testament and 200 New Testament verses. Compare the meanings below to the Strong's Concordance and Glossary definitions.

Abyssos g12

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 9 times in 3 books, 6 chapters, and 9 verses

Meaning:

Temporary prison for special fallen angels such as Apollyon, the Beast, and Satan.

aidios g126

Greek: adjective

Usage: 2 times in Romans 1:20 and Jude 6

Meaning:

Lasting, enduring forever, eternal.

aiōn g165

Greek: noun

Usage: 127 times in 22 books, 75 chapters, and 102 verses

Meaning:

A lifetime or time period with a beginning and end, an era, an age, the completion of which is beyond human perception, but known only to God the creator of the aiōns, Hebrews 1:2. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

aiōnios g166

Greek: adjective

Usage: 71 times in 19 books, 44 chapters, and 69 verses

Meaning:

From start to finish, pertaining to the age, lifetime, entirety, complete, or even consummate. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Koine Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

eleēsē g1653

Greek: verb, aorist tense, active voice, subjunctive mood, 3rd person singular

Usage: 1 time in this conjugation, Romans 11:32

Meaning:

To have pity on, to show mercy. Typically, the subjunctive mood indicates possibility, not certainty. However, a subjunctive in a purpose clause is a resulting action as certain as the causal action. The subjunctive in a purpose clause functions as an indicative, not an optative. Thus, the grand conclusion of grace theology in Romans 11:32 must be clarified. God's mercy on all is not a possibility, but a certainty. See ntgreek.org.

Geenna g1067

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 12 times in 4 books, 7 chapters, and 12 verses

Meaning:

Valley of Hinnom, Jerusalem's trash dump, a place of ruin, destruction, and judgment in this life, or the next, though not eternal to Jesus' audience.

Hadēs g86

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 11 times in 5 books, 9 chapters, and 11 verses

Meaning:

Synonymous with Sheol, though in New Testament usage Hades is the temporal place of punishment for deceased unbelieving mankind, distinct from Paradise for deceased believers.

Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: Phrase 5 times in the New Testament

Meaning:

Lake of Fire, final punishment for those not named in the Book of Life, prepared for the Devil and his angels, Matthew 25:41.

Sheol h7585

Hebrew: proper noun, place

Usage: 66 times in 17 books, 50 chapters, and 64 verses

Meaning:

The grave or temporal afterlife world of both the righteous and unrighteous, believing and unbelieving, until the general resurrection.

Tartaroō g5020

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 1 time in 2 Peter 2:4

Meaning:

Temporary prison for particular fallen angels awaiting final judgment.

Destiny

AionianBible.org/Destiny

The Aionian Bible shows the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of after-life destinies. The underlying Hebrew and Greek words typically translated as Hell show us that there are not just two after-life destinies, Heaven or Hell. Instead, there are a number of different locations, each with different purposes, different durations, and different inhabitants. Locations include 1) Old Testament Sheol and New Testament Hadēs, 2) Geenna, 3) Tartaroō, 4) Abyssos, 5) Limnē Pyr, 6) Paradise, 7) The New Heaven, and 8) The New Earth. So there is reason to review our conclusions about the destinies of redeemed mankind and fallen angels.

The key observation is that fallen angels will be present at the final judgment, 2 Peter 2:4 and Jude 6. Traditionally, we understand the separation of the Sheep and the Goats at the final judgment to divide believing from unbelieving mankind, Matthew 25:31-46 and Revelation 20:11-15. However, the presence of fallen angels alternatively suggests that Jesus is separating redeemed mankind from the fallen angels. We do know that Jesus is the helper of mankind and not the helper of the Devil, Hebrews 2. We also know that Jesus has atoned for the sins of all mankind, both believer and unbeliever alike, 1 John 2:1-2. Deceased believers are rewarded in Paradise, Luke 23:43, while unbelievers are punished in Hades as the story of Lazarus makes plain, Luke 16:19-31. Yet less commonly known, the punishment of this selfish man and all unbelievers is before the final judgment, is temporal, and is punctuated when Hades is evacuated, Revelation 20:13. So is there hope beyond Hades for unbelieving mankind? Jesus promised, "the gates of Hades will not prevail," Matthew 16:18. Paul asks, "Hades where is your victory?" 1 Corinthians 15:55. John wrote, "Hades gives up," Revelation 20:13.

Jesus comforts us saying, "Do not be afraid," because he holds the keys to unlock death and Hades, Revelation 1:18. Yet too often our Good News sounds like a warning to "be afraid" because Jesus holds the keys to lock Hades! Wow, we have it backwards! Hades will be evacuated! And to guarantee hope, once emptied, Hades is thrown into the Lake of Fire, never needed again, Revelation 20:14.

Finally, we read that anyone whose name is not written in the Book of Life is thrown into the Lake of Fire, the second death, with no exit ever mentioned or promised, Revelation 21:1-8. So are those evacuated from Hades then, "out of the frying pan, into the fire?" Certainly, the Lake of Fire is the destiny of the Goats. But, do not be afraid. Instead, read the Bible's explicit mention of the purpose of the Lake of Fire and the identity of the Goats, "Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the consummate fire which is prepared for... the devil and his angels,'"" Matthew 25:41. Bad news for the Devil. Good news for all mankind!

Faith is not a pen to write your own name in the Book of Life. Instead, faith is the glasses to see that the love of Christ for all mankind has already written our names in Heaven. Jesus said, "You did not choose me, but I chose you," John 15:16. Though unbelievers will suffer regrettable punishment in Hades, redeemed mankind will never enter the Lake of Fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And as God promised, all mankind will worship Christ together forever, Philippians 2:9-11.
